Unique Shiva Mantra

This is a unique Shiva Mantra. This mantra visualizes Shiva as the holder of the Damru [small drum having two chambers and connected by a narrow neck having two clappers; this drum is held in the hand and played by moving the hand].

The Damru is symbolic of the vibration of the Eternal Sound Om. The chanter implores Shiva to make him addicted to this Eternal vibration.

Shivling Mantra

The Shivling is one of the most important of the Hindu religious symbols. This symbol of Shiva representing his creative energy, at its peak, is often described as the divine light of Shiva.

Shivlings are present in every nook and corner of India. One question asked more often than not is how to worship the Shivling; what is the specific mantra to be recited while worshipping the Shivling.

The Shivling; especially if it is at home should always be kept clean by wiping it with a clean wet cloth. Other than this one can offer white flowers to the Shivling as it is said that white flowers please Shiva the most.

Amarnath Shivling

No specific Mantras are prescribed for the worship of the Shivling. One may recite the Mantra-

Om Namah Shivaya - :

Or

Om Jum Sah

This mantra is considered to be the Beej or the Root of the most famous Shiva Mantra the Maha-mrityunjaya mantra. These three words are often added to the Maha-mrityunjaya mantra.

The Maha-mrityunjaya mantra

Om Trayambakam Yajamahe,
Sugandhim Pushtivardhanam;
Urva Rukamiva Bandhanaan,
Mrityor Mokshiye Maamritat.

The Maha-mrityunjaya mantra Rig Veda 7.59 and the Yajur Veda 3.60 is one of the most sacred of the Hindu mantras and has been from time immemorial had its own unique place in the Hindu religion. This mantra can trace its origin to the Guru of the Demons Shukracharaya to whom it was given by lord Shiva who is the destructive force of the divine trinity of Brahma Vishnu and Mahesh which govern the universe it is also known as the Mrita-Sanjivini mantra because of the boon of restoring life to a dead being which was given to Shukracharaya by lord Shiva.

The English translation of this mantra is "'Om. We worship and adore you, O three-eyed one, O Shiva. You are sweet gladness, the fragrance of life, who nourishes us, restores our health, and causes us to thrive. As, in due time, the stem of the cucumber weakens, and the gourd is freed from the vine, so free us from attachment and death, and do not withhold immortality'".

This is the mantra in praise of lord Shiva who governs destruction, death and penance, the meaning is clear it is a prayer to Shiva to relieve one from the sufferings of the continuous cycle of life and death, and the merger of the energy of the soul into the ultimate divine energy which we know as God.

There are no preconditions for the chanting of this mantra it can be chanted by anybody at anytime of the day or night, the person chanting this mantra should from the bottom of his heart desire to be freed from the bondage of the cycle of life and death and achieve immortality.

Siddhi over the Maha-mrityunjaya mantra

The Maha-mrityunjaya mantra is the most sacred and powerful of the Hindu mantra to avert sudden and untimely death and also the fear of death. This is the mantra which is most dear to Shiva.

Though I said before that there are no pre-conditions to the chanting of this Mantra; which can be recited as long as one wishes; at anytime of the day or night. There still exists a procedure; followed on attaining mastery over this mantra.

To attain Siddhi [Mastery] it has been prescribed that this mantra be chanted 1, 25,000 times. Then one has to offer Dashansh Havan [1/10th] of Til [Sesame Seeds] and fruits of the Beal tree [Aegle marmelos or Stone Apple]. This works out to 12,500 Havans or offerings of Til and Bael fruits.

Or

If you do not wish to do the Havan then you must give charity to the poor and needy.

It has been said that whosoever attains Siddhi [Mastery] over this mantra leads a safe, healthy and disease free life and lives for a hundred years; he dies happily and without pain or suffering.

Dakshinamurti translated in English means the Idol facing south. South is said to be the direction from where death comes. The Dakshinamurti aspect of Shiva popularized by the greatest known exponent of Non Duality Adi Shankaracharya is more popular in the southern states of India.

Adi Shankaracharya worshipped and meditated on this aspect of Shiva to gain the highest divine knowledge.

This is the Gayatri Mantra dedicated towards the Dakshinamurti aspect of Shiva.

Shiva happiness mantra

The Sivananda Lahari a composition by Adi Shankaracharya, like all his compositions is alive and filled with mantras with the highest vibratory frequencies.

The Sivaananda Lahri translated into English means the Waves of the happiness of Shiva

This second stanza of this divine composition is the Shiva mantra of happiness or the Shiva mantra of divine ecstasy.

The translation of this verse is -

Oh! Lord Shambu the unending waves of ecstasy: that divine flow; originating from you which has always flooded the world: that which annihilates the misery of sin, and engulfs the mind, that which gives freedom from the sorrows of the turmoil of life, enter my heart and make me forever triumphant.

Shiva happiness mantra

Galanti Shambho Twacharitha Saritha Khilbhisharajo
Dhalanti Dhi Kulya Saranishu Pathanti Vijayatham
Dhishanti Sansarbraman Parithapopa Samanam
Vasanti Machcheto Hridbhuvi Shivananda Lahiri.

I would advise Shiv Bhakts to recite this mantra at least once a day; the wordings are self explanatory; need I say more.

Meaning - P.R.Ramachander

I bow before that Lingam, which is the eternal Shiva,
Which is worshipped by Brahma, Vishnu and other Devas,
Which is pure and resplendent,
And which destroys sorrows of birth.
I bow before that Lingam, which is the eternal Shiva,
Which is worshipped by great sages and devas,
Which destroyed the god of love,
Which showers mercy,
And which destroyed the pride of Ravana.
I bow before that Lingam, which is the eternal Shiva,
Which is anointed by perfumes,
Which leads to growth of wisdom,
And which is worshipped by sages, devas and asuras.
I bow before that Lingam, which is the eternal Shiva,
Which is served by gods and other beings,
Which is the doorway for devotion and good thought,
And which shines like billions of Suns.
I bow before that Lingam, which is the eternal Shiva,
Which is ornamented by gold and great jewels,
Which shines with the snake being with it,
And which destroyed the Yagna of Daksha.
I bow before that Lingam, which is the eternal Shiva,
Which is adorned by sandal paste and saffron,
Which wears the garland of lotus flowers,
And which can destroy accumulated sins.
I bow before that Lingam, which is the eternal Shiva,
Which is surrounded by eight petals,
Which is the prime reason of all riches,
And which destroys eight types of poverty.
I bow before that Lingam, which is the eternal Shiva,
Which is worshipped by the teacher of gods,
Which is worshipped by the best of gods,
Which is always worshipped by the flowers,
From the garden of Gods,
Which is the eternal abode,
And which is the ultimate truth.
Any one who chants the holy octet of the Lingam,
In the holy presence of Lord Shiva,
Would in the end reach the world of Shiva,
And keep him company.

This is a verse taken from the Lingashtakam which has been recommended as a short prayer or Prarthanas dedicated to the Shivling. The Shivling is one of the most important symbols in the Hindu religion. It is the representation of Shiva, the eternal light of reproduction or creation from which originated the whole of creation.

The meaning of this verse is that the worshipper is bowing before the eternal Shivaling, which is worshipped by everyone including the Gods and the Sages. The Shivaling which burnt Kamdev the God of love to ashes. The Shivaling which is the giver of bliss and the Shivaling which destroyed the ego and pride of Ravana.

Short prayer for malefic planetary combinations

A lot of people write to me saying that they are affected by malefic planetary combinations; and are at their wits end for the transit of malefic planets to come to an end.

One does not have to wait patiently for bad periods to come to an end. Sheer dedication and will power will make good times come back again.

This is a short Prarthana or prayer for relief from malefic planets dedicated to Shiva. This prayer has been composed by me especially for Shiv Bhakts. One can recite this prayer only once in the morning daily.

Shiv Prarthana

This is a short prayer or Prarthana recited in praise of Shiva in the Marathi language. This prayer is the first verse of the Shiv Stuthi or a prayer in praise of Shiv. This prayer is most suitable for those who find it extremely difficult to recite lengthy prayers.

This prayer calls upon Shiva the lord of Kailas, also lovingly called as Kailasrana to help one tide over the difficulties of life. The worshipper tells Shiva that he is his only hope in life.

This Prarthana is normally recited on Monday, the weekly day that is said to be presided over by Shiva.

Lord Siva And His Worship
The Ultimate Shiva Guide

By Subhamoy Das, About.com Guide

Who doesn't know Shiva, the Lord of Destruction? But if you want to know Shiva really well, I recommend you read Swami Sivananda's 170-page book Lord Siva And His Worship. This is a veritable Shiva encyclopedia complete in 15 chapters. The good news is that now it's available as e-book in PDF format for FREE DOWNLOAD.

AUTHOR'S NOTE

"Blessed Aspirants,

Lord Siva is the God of Love. His Grace is boundless. He is the Saviour and Guru. He is the Beloved of Uma. He is Satyam, Sivam, Subham, Sundaram, Kantam. He is the Supreme Light that shines in your heart.

Meditate on His Form. Hear His Lilas. Repeat His Mantra 'Om Namah Sivaya'. Study Siva Purana. Do His worship daily. Behold Him in all names and forms. He will bless you with His Vision."

~ Swami Sivananda

PUBLISHERS' NOTE

This is a most valuable and instructive book for the aspirants, particularly for the devotees of Lord Siva. It contains fifteen chapters. It is full of instructions on practical Sadhana for attaining Siva-Tattva or God-realisation. The chapters will speak for themselves. The secrets of Siva-Tandava, Sakti-Yoga, Siva-Tattva, etc., are very nicely presented. The translation of the Saiva Upanishads is a beautiful addition. The lives of Siva Acharyas, the Bhaktas and the Nayanars are inspiring and soul-stirring. A study of their lives will make one's life sublime and holy. Up to this time, there has been no such presentation on this subject. The philosophical portion is highly illuminating and helpful to the readers. The book contains the essence of all Saiva Puranas, such as Periya Puranam, Linga Puranam, Siva Parakrama and Tiruvilayadal Puranam. Its value is enhanced by the addition of some important Siva-Stotras with English translation. The book is written in a most lucid and clear style. It must be studied by all religious-minded persons, as it is of solid worth from the spiritual point of view. — THE DIVINE LIFE SOCIETY
