YANTRAS

HEAVENLY GEOMETRIES

The Yantra is the graphic, mathematics and magic representation of the divine one. It is an ancient tradition that get lost in the night of the times; we can find graphic representations of God in the prehistoric mural paintings, games of numbers and magic squares in a lot of ancient cultures. But it is in the tantric tradition that the Yantras assume a bigger spectrum of uses.

The Yantras therefore should not be confused with magic or superstition, but they are a real tool of worship. The meaning of the word in Sanskrit is in fact instrument, support, machine, device.

Many Yantras are contained in a square (bhupur) with four gates. The square represents the material world while the gates are the points of access into the Yantra. Geometric shapes, symbols, numbers inside are like parts of this mechanism. They lead us gradually towards its center representing the Supreme Consciousness. A yantra is an instrument that allows us to make an inner journey to the discovery of the Supreme Self.

Apart from invoking the divine, the Yantra is used by the Aghoris, and other sadhus, as object of meditation. It is painted in the walls of the temples or next to the dhuni (sacred fire). It is engraved on small copper plates and usually positioned in the mandir (temple). Or It is written within small squares of paper inside a silver or copper container as amulets (kavacha); for every application there is a specify Yantra.

The study of the Yantras is an important footstep in the particular sadhana (spiritual path) of the Aghoris. That's the reason for my great interest in this ancient knowledge and the reason that pushes me to share them. All Yantras shown here they can be found in a higher resolution on aghori.it/yantra_eng.

The 7 categories of Yantra according to their use:

Sharir Yantras

The Yantras of the body, such as those of the chakras.

Dharan Yantras

The Yantras worn in various parts of the body, according to the rituals prescribed by guru.

Āsan Yantras

The Yantras placed under the seat or the mat for meditation, but even under temples, homes or deities.

Mandal Yantras

In these there are 9 participating Yantra sitting each in 8 directions and one in the middle performing pūja and reciting the main mantra while the others recite the mantra that corresponds to the Deity of the Direction.

Pūja Yantras

All Yantras installed at home or in temples while pūja is performed. They can be made of various materials and are installed in various ways according to one's own tradition or according to the Deity to whom the Yantra is dedicated.

Chhatar Yantras

Those kept under the hat or turban or in a pocket.

Dharshan Yantras

These are those the Sadhaka contemplates in the morning for his spiritual welfare or those installed in the temples for the welfare of all.

Magical and Practical uses of Yantras:

Shantikaran Yantras

Used to pacify the evil spirits or influences of the planets, to cure diseases.

Stambhan Yantras

Stambhan means pillar but means also stiff, stop, still. These Yantras are used to stop an event, to paralyze an enemy or prevent an attack.

Vashikaran Yantras

Used to control someone or something. For example, an enemy, a lover, but also a spirit or deity.

Videshan Yantras

Used to divide and create disputes between people.

Uchatan Yantras

Used to distract and retain an enemy away from home.

Maran Yantras

Used to inflict death to an enemy.

N.B. These same categories are also applicable to Mantras and Tantras.

Days of the week - Purpose

Monday

Love, attraction, affection.

Tuesday

Videshan; Maran; quarrels; enemies.

Wednesday

All yantras for love reasons; to fascinate; Mohan; Vashikaran; for business and sales.

Thursday

All yantras for a good cause.

Friday

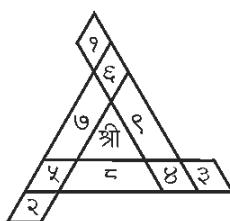

All yantras for love reasons; to fascinate; Mohan; Vashikaran; for business and sales.

Saturday

Maran; Uchatan.

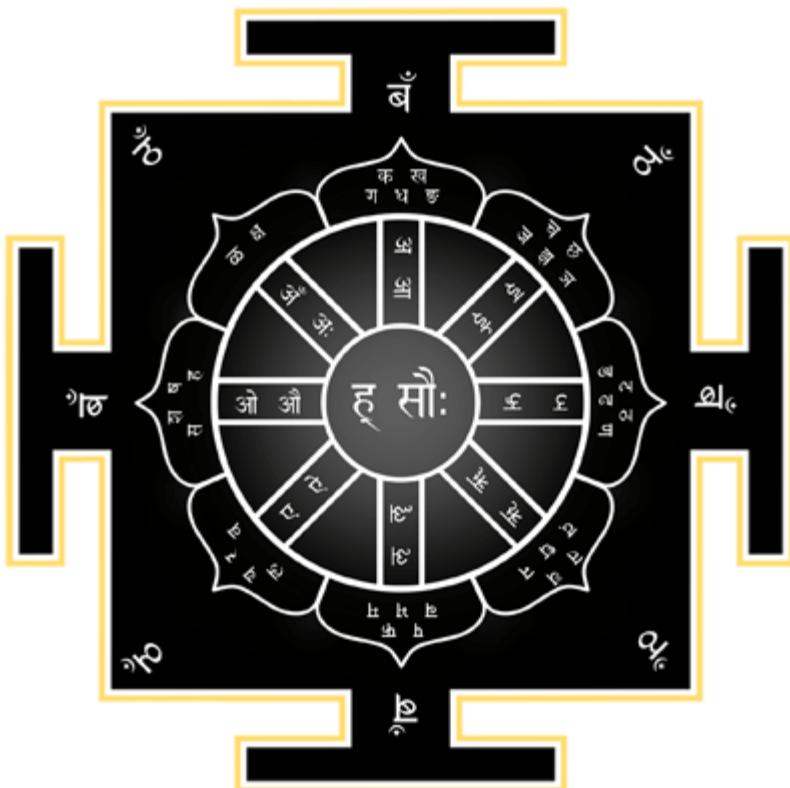

Sunday

SHRI YANTRA

Devi Khadgamala Stotram

Devi Khadgamala Stotram

Khadga means sword, Mala means garland, Stotram means hymn of praise. So the Khadgamala Stotram is a hymn to the Great Mother, which bestows a garland of swords upon those who recite it, symbol of the energy that enables us to transcend attachment and rise on the spiritual level.

In this extraordinary Khadgamala Stotra are mentioned one by one all the Devi of the Shri Yantra (or Shri Chakra), that is the geometric representation of the mystical Supreme Goddess. This stotra accompany step by step the devotee to the worship of Devi in the Shri Yantra and is considered as the highest form of worship to the Devi.

The Yantra is composed of a series of nine overlapping triangles around a small central point, Bindu, forming 43 triangular projections. Around the central diagram there is the first Lotus with 8 petals and a second with 16 petals encased in three circles and a square fence (bhupur) of three lines with four entrances on all four sides. The Bindu at the center represents the cosmic Union of Shiva and Shakti and contains the potentiality of the universe within itself. It is the universe before the Big Bang. All other parts of the diagram represent the Cosmos evolved from Bindu, expanding to Tripura Sundari or cosmic creative power. The presiding deity the Shri Yantra is Maha Tripura Sundari, the Great Mother.

The Shri Yantra is the two-dimensional representation of the Sacred Mount Meru, the center of the universe in Hindu, Buddhist and Jain cosmology. There are nine chakras in the Shri Yantra. Each of these nine levels have a distinct shape, a distinguished name and are associated with a number of incarnations or aspects of the Supreme Mother. Each level is one of the triangles or circles of Lotus petals, with the outermost square representing the ground level and the Bindu in its Center is the highest peak of the mountain. They are:

1. Trailokya Mohan or Bhupur, a square of three lines with four portals
2. Sarvasa Paripurak, a sixteen-petal lotus, which fulfills all the desires
3. Sarva Sankshobahana, an eight-petal lotus, which agitates everything
4. Sarva Saubhagyadayaka, composed of fourteen small triangles, which gives all the auspiciousness

5. Sarvartha Sadhaka, composed of ten small triangles, which accomplish all purposes
6. Sarva Rakshakara, composed of ten small triangles, which gives all the protections
7. Sarva Rogahara, composed of eight small triangles, which removes all the diseases
8. Sarva Siddhiprada, composed of 1 small triangle, which gives all the realizations
9. Sarva Anandamay, composed of a point or Bindu, which is full of bliss for all

Salutations, Salutations, I offer my Salutations.

Nitya

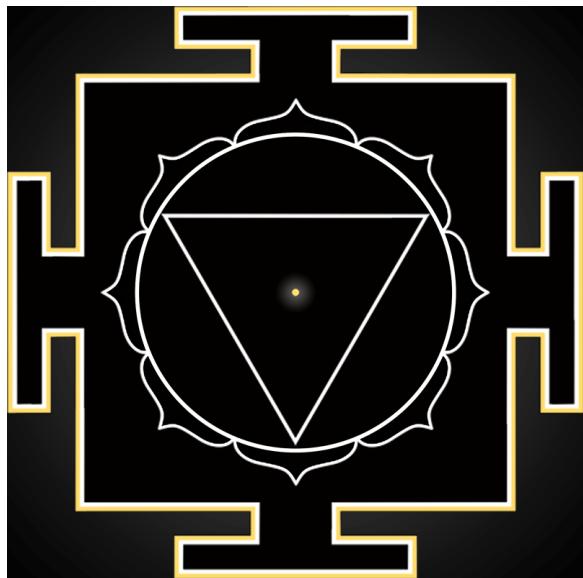

The moon has 16 phases (kala). 15 phases are visible while the sixteenth kala is beyond our visibility. The 16 kala are governed by female deities known as Nitya. Nitya are the 15 aspects of Lalita Tripurasundari (Shri Yantra) associated with the 15 lunar days (tithi) of the waxing moon. The 15 Nitya are: Kameshvari, Bhagamalini, Nityaklinna, Bherunda, Vahnivasini, Mahavajreshwari, Shividooti, Tvarita, Kulasundari, Nitya, Nilapataka, Vijaya, Sarvamangala, Jvalamalini and Chitra. Lalita Tripurasundari rules the not visible kala and is the manifestation of Para Shakti. Next come the Yantra associated with the 15 Nitya.

MAHAVIDYA

The Divine Mother is worshipped as ten cosmic personalities, the Dasa-Mahavidya. The Mahavidyas are considered Tantric in nature and are usually identified as:

1. Kali: The ultimate form of Brahman, "Devourer of Time".

2. Tara: The Goddess as Guide and Protector, or Who Saves. Who offers the ultimate knowledge which gives salvation (also known as Neel Saraswati).

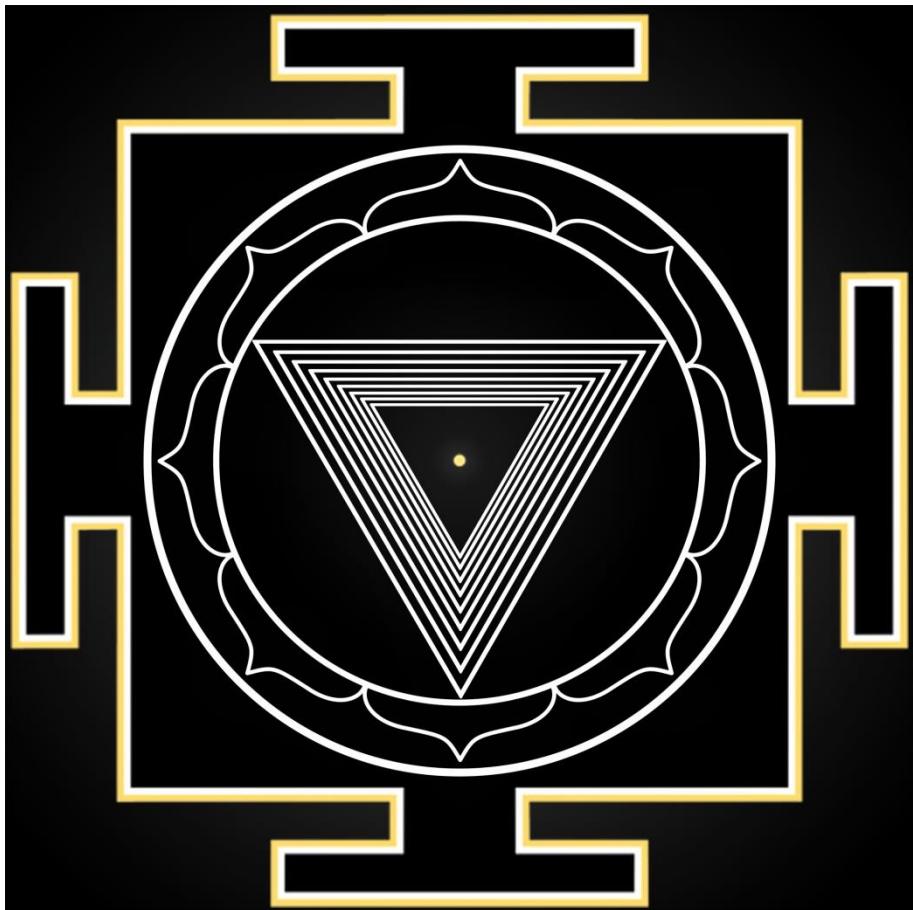

3. Shodashi or Lalita Tripurasundari: The Goddess Who is "Beautiful in the Three Worlds"; the "Tantric Parvati" or the "Moksha Mukta".

4. Bhuvaneshvari: The Goddess as World Mother, or whose body is the cosmos.

5. Bhairavi: The Fierce Goddess.

6. Chinnamasta: The self-decapitated Goddess.

7. Dhumavati: The Widow Goddess, or the Goddess of death.

8. Bagalamukhi: The Goddess who paralyzes enemies.

9. Matangi: The Prime Minister of Lalita; the "Tantric Saraswati".

10. Kamala: The Lotus Goddess; the "Tantric Lakshmi".

VASTU YANTRA

Vastu Shastra is an ancient doctrine which consists of precepts born to a traditional view of how the laws of nature affect human dwellings. The designs are based on directional alignments. It used to be applied in Hindu architecture, especially for temples, and extends to other areas, including vehicles, boats, furniture, sculpture, paintings, etc.

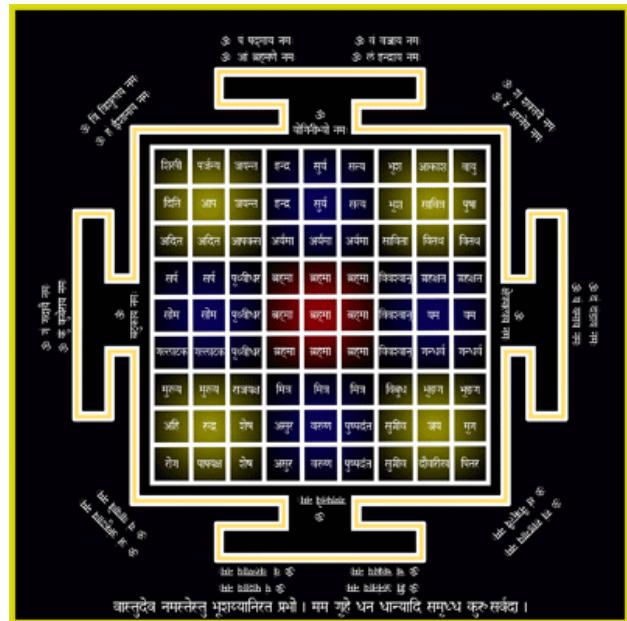

The Vastu Yantra is an indispensable part of Vastu Shastra and constitutes the mathematical basis and schematic for the generation of design. It is the metaphysical plan of a building that incorporates coarse bodies and supernatural forces. It provides the method that determines the requirements of architecture in relation to its directions.

KAAL SARP YOG YANTRA

Kaal Sarp Yog happen when in a Horoscope, all the seven planets (Sun, Moon, Jupiter, Venus, Mars, Mercury and Saturn) are placed between Rahu and Ketu Axis (north and south nodes of Moon), Rahu is serpent's head and Ketu is dragon's tail. This planets combination is considered very evil and harmful for the person. However have Kaal Sarp Yog in the horoscope does not mean that the person will be totally unlucky and devoid of all the joys of life.

One of the remedies for this problem is the Kaal Sarp Yog Yantra to establish in your home and worship it regularly.

Swastika

In the West the swastika association with Nazism has largely overshadowed its religious and cultural significance. The word swastika comes from Sanskrit and signifies well being and good luck and it is still used extensively throughout the east as decoration on homes, temples and at festivals. Further more ancient Greeks, Hittites, Celts and even Native Americans also used the symbol. The swastika was subverted and adopted by Adolf Hitler in the 1920s as a symbol for his Nazi party, a meaning which has taken on significance in the west. It's time to clear up the misconception and re-claim the swastika.

The Flower of Life

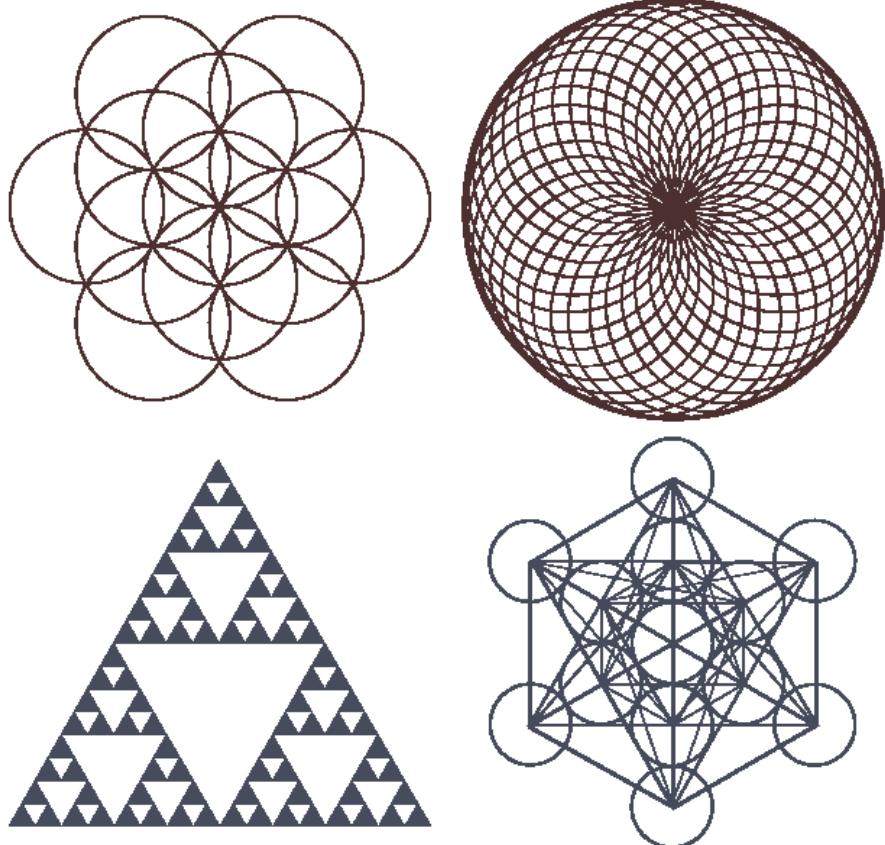

The Flower of Life is another symbol found in many cultures that use sacred geometry. Ancient representations of this symbol can be found in India, in the Assyrian palaces, Egypt, China, Japan and many other places. Kabbalistic Tree of Life symbol is derived from the diagram of the Flower of Life.

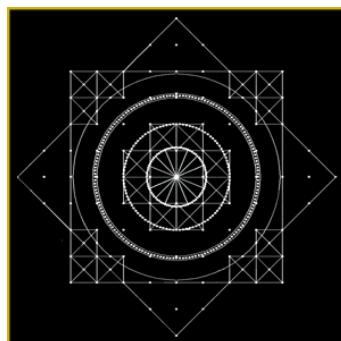

Sacred Geometry

Sacred geometry is used in every culture in the construction and structuring of sacred buildings like temples, mosques, megaliths, monuments, churches and sacred spaces such as altars, sacred fires, as well as the creation of sacred art or objects. Here are some examples:

Here the famous geoglyph observable from the skies of Nazca, in the southern desert of Peru.

Soundarya Lahari

(Adi Shankaracharya)

The Soundarya Lahari (Waves of Beauty) is attributed to the wise Pushpadanta and Adi Shankara. It is said that the first part Ananda Lahari has been etched on Mount Meru by Ganesha or Pushpadanta. Goudapada memorized the writings of Pushpadanta and passed them to his disciple Govinda Bhagavadpada, master of Adi Shankara. The first part describes the mystical experience of the union of Shiva and Shakti, while in the second the Great Mother Shakti is described in all its details.

His verses not only praise the beauty, grace and generosity of the goddess Parvati, but they are a real manual that discusses various tantric rituals, mantras and yantras. So every Sloka becomes a mantra which is associated a Yantra. It should also be noted that the practices described here must be observed only following the advice of an experienced teacher.

Part I - Ananda Lahari (The waves of happiness)

śivah śaktyā yukto yadi bhavati śaktah prabhavitum

Mantra: klīṁ

Lord Shiva only becomes able.
To do creation in this world along with Shakti
Without her, even an inch he cannot move,
And so how can, one who does not do good deeds,
Or one who does not sing your praise,
Become adequate to worship you
Oh, Goddess mine, Who is worshipped by the Trinity.

Mantra: hrīṁ

2 (Attracting all the world)

Lord Brahma, the creator of yore,
Selects a dust from your feet,
And creates he this world,
The great Adisesha with his thousand heads (The Thousand headed serpent who carries the worlds on his head),
Some how carries a dust of your feet,
With effort great,
And the great Lord Rudra,
Takes it and powders it nice,
And uses it as the holy ash.

Mantra: klīṁ

3 (Attainment of all knowledge)

The dust under your feet, Oh Goddess great,
Is like the city of the rising sun,
That removes all darkness, unfortunate,
From the mind of the poor ignorant one,
Is like the honey that flows,
From the flower bunch of vital action,
To the slow witted one,
Is like the heap of wish giving gems,
To the poorest of men,
And is like the teeth of Lord Vishnu
In the form of Varaha,
Who brought to surface,
The mother earth, To those drowned in this sea of birth.

4 (Removal of all fears. Curing of diseases)

Oh, She who is refuge to all this world,
All gods except you mother,
Give refuge and grants wishes,
Only by their hand.
But only you mother
Never show the world in detail,
The boons and refuge that you can give,
For even your holy feet will suffice,
To remove fear for ever,
And grant boons much more than asked.

Mantra: ṭham, śam lam ram ham sam vam yam sam

5 (Mutual attraction between male and female)

You who grant all the good things,
 To those who bow at your feet,
 Was worshipped by the Lord Vishnu,
 Who took the pretty lovable feminine form,
 And could move the mind of he who burnt the cities,
 And make him fall in love with him.
 And the God of love, Manmatha,
 Took the form which is like nectar,
 Drunk by the eyes by Rathi his wife,
 After venerating you,
 Was able to create passion,
 Even in the mind of Sages the great.

Mantra: klīṁ klīṁ klīṁ sādhyam klīṁ klīṁ klīṁ

6 (Getting sons as progeny)

Oh, daughter of the mountain of ice,
 With a bow made of flowers,
 Bow string made of honey bees,
 Five arrows made of only tender flowers,
 With spring as his minister,
 And riding on the chariot of breeze from Malaya mountains
 The god of love who does not have a body,
 Gets the sideways glance of your holy eyes,
 And is able to win the entire world alone.

Mantra: klīṁ

7 (Seeing the Goddess in person. Winning over enemies)

With a golden belt,
Adorned by tiny tingling bells,
Slightly bent by breasts like the two frontal globes
Of an elephant fine,
With a thin pretty form,
And with a face like the autumn moon,
Holding in her hands,
A bow of sugar cane, arrows made of flowers,
And the noose and goad,
She who has the wonderful form,
Of the ego of the God who burnt the three cities,
Should please come and appear before us.

Mantra: ram

8 (Avoiding of birth and death)

In the middle of the sea of nectar,
In the isle of precious gems,
Which is surrounded by wish giving Kalpaga trees,
In the garden Kadamba trees,
In the house of the gem of thought,
On the all holy seat of the lap of the great God Shiva,
Sits she who is like a tide
In the sea of happiness of ultimate truth,
And is worshipped by only by few select holy men.

Mantra: yam yam yam sādhyam am krom

9 (For return of people who have gone on journey, for getting eight types of wealth)

Oh Goddess mine,
 You live in seclusion with your consort,
 In the lotus with thousand petals,
 Reached after breaking through the micro ways,
 Of the power of earth in Muladhara,
 Of the power of water of Manipura,
 Of the power of fire of Swadhishtana,
 Of the fire of air in the heart,
 And of the power of ether in between the eyelids.

Mantra: klīṁ hrīṁ klīṁ, hrīṁ hrīṁ hrīṁ hrīṁ hrīṁ hrīṁ

10 (Getting a strong body, virility)

Using the nectar that flows in between your feet,
 To drench all the nerves of the body,
 And descending from the moon with nectar like rays,
 Reaching back to your place,
 And coiling your body in to a ring like serpent,
 You sleep in the Kula Kunda (Another name for Muladhara Chakra) with a hole in the middle.

Mantra: śrīṁ

11 (Good progeny, getting a meaning for life)

With four wheels of our Lord Shiva,
 And with five different wheels of you, my mother,
 Which are the real basis of this world,
 Your house of the holy wheel,
 Has four different parts,
 Of eight and sixteen petals,
 Three different circles,
 And three different lines,
 Making a total of forty four angles (The geometric design of Shri Chakra is described here).

Mantra: sauḥ sauḥ

12 (To attain Lord Shiva. To make a dumb man speak)

Oh, daughter of ice mountain,
Even the creator who leads,
An array of great poets,
Fails to describe your sublime beauty.
The heavenly maidens pretty,
With a wish to see your pristine loveliness,
Try to see you through the eyes your Lord , the great Shiva,
And do penance to him and reach him through their mind.

Mantra: klīṁ klīṁ klīṁ sādhyam klīṁ klīṁ klīṁ

13 (Victory in the matters of love)

With disheveled hair,
With upper cloths slipping from their busts,
With the lock of the golden belt getting open due to the haste,
And with saris slipping away from their shoulders,
Hundreds of young lasses,
Run after the men,
Who get your sidelong glance,
Even though they are very old,
Bad looking and not interested in love sports.

Mantra: śrīṁ śrīṁ śrīṁ śrīṁ śrīṁ śrīṁ

14 (Avoiding famine, dacoity and epidemic)

Your two holy feet are far above,
 The fifty six rays of the essence of earth of Muladhara,
 The fifty two rays of the essence of water of Manipura,
 The sixty two rays of the essence of fire of Swadhishthana,
 The fifty four rays of the essence of air of Anahatha,
 The seventy two rays of the essence of ether of Vishuddhi,
 And the sixty four rays of the essence of mind of Ajña Chakra.

15 (Ability to write poems and ability to become scholar)

Sweetest words rivaling the honey, milk and grapes,
Can only come to the thoughts of the devotee,
Who once meditates on your face,
Which is like the white autumn moon,
On your head with a crown with the crescent moon and flowing hair,
And hands that shower boons and give protection,
Which hold the crystal chain of beads and books.

16 (Mastery of Vedas)

She who is the purple luster of the dawn,
To the lotus forest like mind,
Of the kings of poets of the world,
And thus called Aruna - the purple colored one,
Creates happiness in the mind of the holy,
With tender passionate wave of words,
(Of Sarasvati the darling of Brahma,)
Which are royal and youthful.

17 (Mastery over words. Knowledge of science)

Oh, Mother Holy,
He who worships You,
Along with the goddess like Vasini,
Who are the prime source of words,
And you who are having the great luster,
Got by breaking the moon stone,
Becomes the author of great epics,
Which shine like those written by great ones,
And which have the sweet scent
Of the face of the goddess of knowledge.

18 (Victory in love)

He who meditates on,
 The luster of your beautiful body,
 Which is blessed by the rising sun,
 And which dissolves the sky and the world,
 In light purple hue,
 Makes celestial damsels like Uravasi and others,
 Who have eyes like the wild startled deer,
 Follow him like slaves.

19 (Victory in love)

Hey, Mother who is Goddess of all universe,
He who meditates on you,
As the crescent of love of our Lord great,
On the dot of the holy wheel,
Your two busts just below,
And you as the half of Shiva our lord,
Not only Creates waves of emotion in ladies,
But charms the world, which has moon and sun as busts.

20 (Curing of all poisons and curing of all fevers)

He who meditates in his mind,
 On you who showers nectar from all your limbs,
 And in the form which resembles,
 The statue carved out of moonstone,
 Can with a single stare,
 Put an end to the pride of snakes,
 And with his nectar like vision,
 Cure those afflicted by fever.

21 (Attracting everyone. Making everyone happy)

Those souls great,
Who have removed all the dirt from the mind,
And meditate on you within their mind,
Who is of the form of sun and moon,
And living in the forest of lotus,
And also above the six wheels of lotus,
Enjoy waves after waves,
Of happiness supreme.

If any one has wish in his mind to pray.
"You, Bhavani, my mother,
Please shower on me, a part of your merciful look",
Even before he says, "You Bhavani",
You my goddess,
Would give to him the water,
Falling from the crowns,
Of Vishnu, Rudra and Brahma,
At your feet,
And grant him, the eternal life in your world.

23 (getting of all riches)

Your form in my mind,
Is the color of red of the rising sun,
Is adorned with three eyes,
Has two heavy busts,
Is slightly bent,
And wears a crown with the crescent moon,
And hence arises a doubt in me,
That you were not satisfied,
By half the body of Shambu that he gave,
And occupied all his body.

24 (Management of fear of Bhootas, Pretas and Pishachas)

Brahma creates the world,
 Vishnu looks after it,
 Shiva destroys it,
 Ishvara makes them disappear,
 And also disappears himself,
 And Sadashiva blesses them all,
 By your order given to him,
 By a momentary move of your eyebrows.

(Bhooتا = ghosts. Preta = malevolent spirits.
 Pishacha = demons flesh eaters.)

25 (Getting higher posts and power)

Consort of Shiva,
The worship done at the base of your feet,
Is the worship done to the holy Trinity,
Born based on your trine properties.
This is so true, oh mother,
Because don't the trinity,
Always stand with folded hands,
Kept on their crown
Near the jeweled plank,
Which carries thine feet.

With the sacrifice in my soul,
Become chanting of your name.
Let all my movements become thine Mudras,
Let my travel become perambulations around thee,
Let the act of eating and drinking become fire sacrifice to thee,
Let my act of sleeping becomes salutations to you,
And let all actions of pleasure of mine,
Become parts of thine worship.

28 (Fear of poison, untimely death)

Oh, mother mine,
 Gods like Indra and brahma,
 Who have drunk deep the nectar divine,
 Which removes the cruel aging and death,
 Do die and disappear.
 But Shambu thy consort,
 Who swallowed poison that is potent,
 Does never die,
 Because of the greatness,
 Of thine ear studs.

Who does not have birth and death,
And who is most suitable to be served,
That the destroying fire of the deluge,
Shows prayerful harathi to the one.
Who considers you,
(Who is of the form of rays,
And is surrounded on all four sides,
By the angels of power called Anima)
As his soul always,
And who considers the wealth of the three eyed God,
As worthless and as equal to dried grass.

 I always see in my mind's eye,
 That your body with sun and moon,
 As busts is the body of Shiva,
 And his peerless body with nine surrounding motes,
 Is your body, my goddess.
 And so the relation of, "that which has",
 And "he who has",
 Becomes the one perfect relation of happiness,
 And becomes equal in each of you.

I bow before the Shiva,
Who is of the pure crystal form,
In thine supremely pure wheel
And who creates the principle of ether,
And to you my mother,
Who has same stream of thought as Him.
I bow before you both,
Whose moon like light,
Forever removes the darkness of ignorance,
Forever from the mind,
And which shines like the Chakora bird (Mythical bird),
Playing in the full moon light.

Mother, think and worship I, of the fire,
In your holy wheel of Swadhishtana,
And the Rudra who shines in that fire,
Like the destroying fire of deluge,
And you who shine there as Samaya.
When that angry fire of look of Rudra,
Burns the world,
Then your look drenches it in mercy,
Which treats and cools it down.

Which is in your wheel of Manipuraka,
Which as Parashakti shines like the enemy of darkness,
Which is with the streak of lightning,
Which is with the shining jewels of precious stones of lightning,
Which is also black as night,
Which is burnt by Rudhra like the sun of the deluge,
And which cools down the three worlds like a strange cloud.

I pray in your holy wheel of Muladhara,
You who likes to dance,
And calls yourself as Samaya,
And that Lord who performs the great vigorous dance,
Which has all the shades of nine emotions.
This world has you both as parents,
Because you in your mercy, wed one another,
To recreate the world,
As the world was destroyed in the grand deluge.

Part II Soundarya Lahari (The waves of beauty)

This stanza till the end describes the great mother Shakti from head to foot. These are supposed to be composed by the Adi Shankara himself.

Hey daughter of the ice mountain, He who chooses to describe,
Your crown, bedecked with shining jewels,
Which are but the transformed form,
And arranged very close to one another,
Of the twelve holy suns,
Will see the crescent in your crown,
In the dazzling light of those jewels,
And think them as a rainbow, Which is but the bow of Indra.

Oh, Goddess , who is the consort of Shiva,
Let the darkness of our mind be destroyed,
By the crowning glory on your head,
Which is of like the forest of opened blue lotus flowers,
And which is soft, dense and shines with luster.
I believe my mother,
That the pretty flowers of Indra's Garden,
Are all forever there,
To get the natural scent of thine hair.

 Does good to everyone,
 Sparkles everywhere,
 Is a beauty that can never be challenged,
 Even by blue lily flowers,
 Is the source of rain of mercy,
 Is sweetness personified,
 Is long and pretty,
 Is capable of saving devotees,
 Is in the several cities as its victory.
 And can be called by several names,

Oh, She who is begotten to none,
It is for sure,
That the black female fish in the stream,
Are afraid to close their eyes.
Fearing that thine long eyes,
Resembling them all,
Would murmur bad about them,
In your ears to which they are close by.
It is also for sure,
That the Goddess Lakshmi,
Enters the blooming blue Lily flowers,
Before your eyes close at night,
And reenter in the morn when they open.

57 (All round luck)

She who is the consort of Lord Shiva,
Please bathe me with your merciful look,
From your eyes which are very long,
And have the glitter of slightly opened,
Blue lotus flower divine.
By this look I will become rich with all that is known,
And you do not loose anything whatsoever,
For does not the moon shine alike,
In the forest and palaces great.

58 (Cure from all diseases, Victory in love)

Oh Goddess, who is the daughter of king of mountains,
 Who will not but believe,
 That the two arched ridges between your eyes and ears,
 Are the flower bow of the God of Love,
 Side glances of your eyes,
 Piercing through these spaces,
 Makes one wonder as if the arrows have been ,
 Sent through thine ears.

I feel that thine face,
With the pair of ear studs,
Reflected in thine two mirror like cheeks.
Is the four wheeled Chariot,
Of the God of love.
Perhaps he thought he can win Lord Shiva,
Who was riding in the chariot of earth,
With Sun and moon as wheels,
Because he was riding in this chariot.

Oh Goddess, who is the consort of Lord Shiva,
Your sweet voice which resembles,
The continuous waves of nectar,
Fills the ear vessels of Sarasvati,
Without break,
And she shakes her head hither and thither,
And the sound made by her ear studs,
Appear as if they applaud your words.

Oh Goddess, who is the flag of the clan of Himalayas,
Let your nose which is like a thin bamboo,
Give us the blessings which are apt and near.
I feel mother,
That you are wearing a rare pearl,
Brought out by your breath,
Through your left nostril,
For your nose is a storehouse,
Of rarest pearls divine.

I tried to find a simile to your blood red lips,
And can only imagine the fruit of the coral vine! (Antigonon leptopus)
The fruits of the red cucurbit,
Hangs its head in shame,
On being compared to your lips,
As it has tried to imitate its color from you,
And knows that it has failed miserably.

The Chakora birds (Mythical birds supposed to drink the moon light),
Feel that their tongues have been numbed,
By forever drinking,
The sweet nectar like light emanating,
From your moon like face,
And for a change wanted to taste,
The sour rice gruel during the night,
And have started drinking,
The white rays of the full moon in the sky.

Mother mine,
The well known tongue of yours,
Which without rest chants and repeats,
The many goods of your Consort, Shiva,
Is red like the hibiscus flower.
The Goddess of learning Sarasvati,
Sitting at the tip of your tongue,
Though white and sparkling like a crystal,
Turns red like the ruby,
Because of the color of your tongue.

Oh mother of the world,
 The Lords Subrahmanya, Vishnu and Indra,
 Returning and resting after the war with Asuras.
 Have removed their head gear,
 And wearing the iron jackets,
 Are not interested in the left over,
 After the worship of Shiva,
 Which belongs to Chandikeshvara,
 And are swallowing with zest,
 The half chewed betel,
 From your holy mouth,
 Which has the camphor as white as the moon.

Oh mother of all,
When you start nodding your head,
Muttering sweetly, "good, good",
To the Goddess Sarasvati,
When she sings the great stories to you,
Of Pashupati our lord,
With the accompaniment of her Veena,
She mutes the Veena by the covering cloth,
So that the strings throwing sweetest music,
Are not put to shame,
By your voice full of sweetness.

Oh daughter of the mountain,
How can we describe the beauty of your chin,
Which was with affection caressed,
By the tip of his fingers by your father Himavan:
Which was oft lifted by the Lord of the mountain, Shiva,
In a hurry to drink deeply from your lips;
Which was so fit to be touched by his fingers;
Which did not have anything comparable,
And which is the handle of the mirror of your face.

Your neck appears full of thorns always,
Due to the hairs standing out,
By the frequent embrace of thy Lord,
Who destroyed the three cities.
And looks like the beauty of the stalk,
Of your lotus like face.
The chain of white pearls worn below,
Is dulled by the incense and myrrh,
And the paste of sandal applied there,
And is like the tender stalk,
Dirtied by the bed of mud.

(The three major parts of Karnatic Classical music: procedure, undulations and song),
The three lucky lines on your neck,
Perhaps remind one,
Of the number of the well tied manifold thread,
Tied during your marriage,
And also remind of the place,
In your pretty neck,
Where originates the three musical notes,
Of Shadja, Madhyama and Gandhara.

Oh Goddess Uma,
You only tell us, how,
How we can describe,
The shining of your hands,
By the light of your nails,
Which tease the redness of freshly opened lotus?
Perhaps if the red lotus mixes,
With the liquid lac adorning,
The feet of Lakshmi,
Some resemblance can be seen.

72 (Conquering fear of darkness. Getting grace from Goddess.
Making slave of Yakshini)

Our Goddess Devi,
Let your two cool breasts,
Which have faces that always,
Give out milk,
And are simultaneously drunk deeply.
By Skanda and the elephant faced Ganesha,
Destroy all our sorrows.
Seeing them and getting confused,
The Heramba (Ganesha) feels for his two frontal globes,
To see whether they are there,
Making you both laugh.

Oh, Victory flag of the king of mountains,
We never have any doubt in our mind,
That your two breasts divine,
Are the nectar filled pot made of rubies,
For The elephant faced one,
And he who killed Kraunchasura, (Ganesha and Kartikeya)
Even today do not know the pleasure of women,
And remain as young children.

Made out of the pearls,
Recovered from inside the head of Gajasura,
And reflect the redness of your lips,
Resembling the Bimba fruits,
And are colored red inside.
You wear the chain with fame,
Like you wear the fame of our Lord,
Who destroyed the three cities.

Oh daughter of the king of mountains,
 I feel in my mind,
 That the milk that flows from your breast,
 Is really the goddess of learning, Sarasvati,
 In the form of a tidal wave of nectar.
 For, milk given by you, who is full of mercy,
 Made the child of Dravida
 (The Tamil poet Thirujñana Sambandar who preceded Shankara),
 The king among those great poets,
 Whose works stole one's mind.

Oh daughter of the mountain,
The God of love who is the king of the mind,
Being lit by the flame of anger of Shiva,
Immersed himself in the deep pond of thine navel.
The tendril like smoke emanated from there,
And mother, people think,
That this is the line of hair,
That climbs from your navel upwards.

The mother of universe who is Shiva and Shakti,
In the narrow part of the middle of your body,
The learned men seem to see a line,
Which is in the shape of a small wave of the river Yamuna,
And which shines and glitters, and appears like the sky,
Made very thin by thine dense colliding breasts,
Entering your cave like navel.

Oh daughter of the mountain,
Is your navel a whirl pool in river Ganga,
Which looks very stable!
Or is it the root of the climber,
Of the stream of your hair line,
Which has two breasts of yours as buds,
Or is it the Homa fire,
Where the fire is the light from cupid,
Or is it the play house of Rathi, the wife of God of love,
Or is it the opening to the cave,
In which Shiva's tapas gets fulfilled,

Oh daughter of the mountain,
You who is the greatest among women,
Long live your pretty hips,
Which look fragile,
Which are by nature tiny,
Which are strained by your heavy breasts,
And hence slightly bent,
And which look like the tree,
In the eroded banks of a rushing river.

Oh daughter of the mountain,
 Who knows the rules of the Vedas,
 Using your two thighs,
 You have achieved victory over,
 The trunks of the elephant,
 And the Golden pseudo stem of group of Banana plants,
 And achieved victory over frontal globes,
 Of Iravatha the divine elephant (The elephant on which Indra rides),
 By your holy round knees,
 Which have become hard,
 By repeated prostrations to your lord.

About you and your family,
And at a loss to control your love tiff,
When your consort does prostrations,
Your lotus like feet touches his forehead,
And the God of love, the enemy of your Lord, who was burnt,
By the fire from his third eye,
And was keeping the enmity with your lord,
Like the ever hurting arrow,
Makes sounds like Kili Kili,
From your belled anklets on the legs.

But your feet are aces in being in snow,
The lotus flower sleeps at night,
But your feet are wakeful night and after night,
The lotus makes the goddess of wealth Lakshmi live in it,
But your feet gives Lakshmi to its devotees,
And so your two feet always wins over the lotus,
What is so surprising in this?

And for sure,
Brahma the creator refills these daily,
After your use,
So that they are always full.

tava dvāropāntaḥ sthitibhi-rāṇimādyābhi-ramarāḥ || 95 ||

Mantra: om̄ hrīṁ

95 (Getting of all desires)

You are Leading light of the home of Lord Shiva,
Who destroyed the three cities,
And so coming near you and worshipping at thine feet,
Are not for those with weak mind,
Who do not have control of their senses.
And that is why perhaps,
Indra and other Gods,
Stay outside your gates,
And attain your sweet self,
By practice of siddhis like Anima (become as small as an atom).

kalatram vaidhātram katikati bhajante na kavayah

kucabhyā-māsaṅgaḥ kuravaka-taro-rapyasulabhaḥ || 96 ||

Mantra: klīm klīm klīm

96 (Attainment of knowledge and wealth)

Many poets reach the Goddess of learning,
The wife of the creator,
By composing soulful poems.
Many who search and attain riches,
Are termed as the Lord of the Goddess of wealth.
Oh, first among chaste woman,
Except Lord Shiva your consort.
Your breasts have not even touched,
The holy Henna tree (Kuravaka).

turyā kāpi tvam̄ duradhigama-nissīma-mahimā
mahāmāyā viśvam̄ bhramayasi parabrahmamahiṣi || 97 ||

Mantra: klīṁ klīṁ

97 (Redemption of the soul)

Oh, Parashakti who is one with Parabrahma,
Though those who have learned Vedas,
Call you as Brahma's wife Sarasvati,
Or call you as Vishnu's wife Lakshmi,
Or call you as Shiva's wife Parvati,
You are the fourth called Maha Maya,
Who gives life to the world,
And have attained all that is to attain.

kadā kāle mātaḥ kathaya kalitālaktakarasam

prakṛtyā mūkānāmapi ca kavītākāraṇatayā
kadā dhatte vāṇīmukhakamala-tāmbūla-rasatām || 98 ||

Mantra: hrīṁ

98 (Mastery over words)

Oh, mother mine,
When shall I, who begs for knowledge
Be able to drink, the nectar like water,
Flowing from your feet,
Mixed with reddish lac applied there?
When shall that water attain,
The goodness of saliva mixed with Thambola (Betel leaf),
From the mouth of goddess of learning,
Which made one born as mute,
Into the king of poets?

sarasvatyā lakṣmyā vidhi hari sapatno viharate
rateḥ pativratyam śithilapati ramyeṇa vapuṣā |
ciram jīvanneva kṣapita-paśupāśa-vyatikarāḥ
parānandābhikhyam rasayati rasam tvadbhajanavān || 99 ||

Mantra: hrīṁ

99 (Attainment of ultimate bliss)

Those who worship Thee, Oh Mother,
Are so learned and so rich,
That even Brahma and Vishnu,
Are jealous of them
They are so handsome,
That even the wife of Cupid, Rathi,
Yearns for them.
He unbound from the ties of this birth,
Always enjoys ecstatic happiness,
And lives for ever.

Mantra: om̄ hrīṁ

100 (Attainment of all occult powers)

Oh Goddess who is the source of all words,
This poem which is made of words,
That you only made,
Is like showing the camphor lamp to the Sun,
Is like offering as ablation to the moon,
The water got from the moon stone,
And is like offering water worship,
To the sea.

Here ends the Sundarya Lahari of Adi Shankara.
