Introduction

According to Manu- “Vedas are primary source of religion” (वेदेभिलो धर्ममूलं, verse 2.6), the Purāṇas, however, are the essence of the religion of Hindu society. Purāṇas are also regarded as the chief source for the detailed explanation of the Vedas. They, therefore, occupy a significant place in the ancient literature of India. The Purāṇas have obtained the name of Pañcalakṣaṇa because their contents generally embrace five topics namely (1) Primary creation or cosmogony, (2) secondary creation, (3) genealogy of gods and patriarchs, (4) reigns of the Manus, (5) history of the solar and lunar dynasties.

The definition does not however necessarily signify that the Purāṇas exclusively deal with these topics only. On the contrary, every Purāṇa dwells at length on one or more particular subjects and in some, these five primary topics occupy a very subordinate position. Purāṇas are eighteen in numbers. The names of Mahāpurāṇas at the last portion of Śrīmadbhāgavata has been given as under-

ब्राह्मं पादं वैष्णवं च शैवं लैङ्गं सगारुडम्।
नारदीयं भागवतमासनेयं स्कन्दसज्जतिम्॥
भविष्यं ब्रह्मवैवर्तं मार्कण्डेयं सवामनम्।
वाराहं मात्स्यं कौर्मं च ब्रह्माण्डारब्यमिति त्रिषट्। (श्रीमद्भागवत 12.7.232-6)

Vāmana Purāṇa is placed at serial number fourteen in the list of eighteen Purāṇas mentioned in various scriptures. But it does not mean that it is of lesser importance than the other Purāṇas. Although, it is smaller in size, yet it has all the constituents of the other Purāṇas. Also its style of treatment of the subject matter is clearer and more analytical than the style of other Purāṇas and Up-purāṇas. One of its special features is the amazing variations in the famous ancient stories as related in other Purāṇas.

Its second special features is that inspite of being known as a Śaiva Purāṇa, nowhere the importance of Viṣṇu has in anyway been belittled as is the case with some other Purāṇas. In Vāmana Purāṇa, both Śiva and Viṣṇu have been placed an almost equal footing. Again, there is not a single śloka which humiliates Viṣṇu. Some Śaiva authors have gone even to the extent of stating “A visit to a shine of Viṣṇu is an insult to Śiva.” In Vāmana Purāṇa, on several occasions Śiva has gone to Viṣṇu for help and has praised him whole-heartedly.

The Story of Dakṣa yajña and Satī -

Of all related in Vāmana Purāṇa which vary significantly from the stories as related in other Purāṇas, the story of immolation of Satī attracts special attention. In Śiva Purāṇa, Rāmāyaṇa and other Purāṇa scriptures, we are told that Satī had gone to the yajña performed by her father Dakṣa inspite of not being invited to the ceremony and when she did not find the requisite share of offering for Śiva, she cursed all those who had attended such a detestable function and immolated herself then and there. When Śiva came to know of this, he sent his attendant Vīrbhadra to avenge her death. Vīrbhadra reached the venue of the yajña and demolished the whole structure and put an end to the yajña.

This story has been related in Vāmana Purāṇa in a different way. In this Purāṇa it is stated that on coming to know about the humiliation of Śiva in the yajña by Dakṣa, Satī immolated herself. Relating the story in Chapter IV entitled “War between Hari and Vīrbhadra”, it is stated as under :

“The daughter of Gautama, Jaya had come to Mandrācal to pay a visit to Satī. Seeing her all alone, Satī asked her- Why her sister Vijaya Jayantī and Aparajitā had not come along?”

Jaya replied, “They have gone with father to the yajña being performed by their maternal grand-father Dakṣa. I am also going there. But I considered it worthwhile to visit you first. Are you not going there? Is Lord Śiva not going there? All Ṛṣis along with their consorts have gone there. All gods have also gone there. Has our maternal grandfather not invited you?”

Knowing such neglect and insult of her husband, and that too by her father, Satī was greatly angered. She was furious and instantly fell on the ground. Immediately she breathed her last at that very spot. Hearing the wailing cries of Jaya, Śiva came there. On such tragic death of Satī, Śiva was very angry. Immediately, he collected a big gang of his disciples and sent them to the venue of the yajña being performed by king Dakṣa, under the command of Vīrbhadra. He went there, fought with the soldiers of Dakṣa and destroyed the yajña.”

The Story of burning of Kāmadeva -

Similarly, new elements have been incorporated in the story of burning of Kāmadeva. Traditionally, it is stated as under :

The demon Dvarkāsura had vanquished all the Devatās. Later, the gods came to know that none else but the son of Śiva born of Pārvatī alone can kill Dvarkāsura. They were greatly worried as Śiva was a celibate. So Indra persuaded Kāmadeva to go and fill the mind of Śiva with amorous feelings and to prompt him to marry Pārvatī. When Kāmadeva played his tricks on Śiva, he was awfully furious and by activating his third eye, Śiva reduced Kāmadeva to ashes.

However, this incident has been related in Vāmana Purāṇa as under :

When Śiva was destroying the yajñaśālā¹ of King Dakṣa, Kāmadeva shot his strong, passionate and lustful arrows at Śiva, he was greatly distressed and in a love-lorn state of mind he wailed for the company of Satī. When he could no longer tolerate his mental torture, he handed over all the three kinds of arrows to Pāñcālika, the son of Kuber. When

1. The place where the sacrificial offerings are performed.

Cupid was about to attack Śiva again, Śiva was greatly upset and ran here and there in the pine forest. There in the forest the wives of Ṛṣis residing there became desirous and lustfully ran after Śiva. In that serious situation, the Ṛṣis cursed Śiva, “May you loose your liṅga.” When the liṅga of Śiva fell apart, it stretched from heaven to the Netherlands. Thereupon, both Brahmā and Viṣṇu came to that place. They tried to find out the terminal ends of Śiva’s organ but could not succeed. Thereupon, both of them prayed to Lord Śiva for mercy. Śiva was pleased by their entreaties and said, “If all the gods honour and worship this liṅga of mine, I can accept this Liṅga again. Consequently Lord Viṣṇu prescribed the worship of Śivaliṅga for the four Varnas. For this, several new scriptures were within advocating such practice and describing the great powers inherent in the Śivaliṅga. The first scriptures was named Śaivī, second Paśupata, third Kāladaman and the fourth Kāpālika.

Śiva himself is a great energy centre. He was the son of Vaśiṣṭha. His disciple Bhardvāja was a great Paśupat. He considered “Gopayan Tapa” as of great merit. His disciple Someśwar was a king. Apastambha was equally great. Kāmeśwar was his disciple. Dhanada was also a great devotee whose disciple Āryodara was very powerful. He was a Śudra by caste, but was a great ascetic. Thus, Lord Viṣṇu made all the four Varnas and persons of all Aśramas great devotees of Śiva.

After that when Lord Śiva had been roaming about in Citrāvana, Kāmadeva again prepared himself for another attack on Lord Śiva. This time Śiva sternly and closely looked at him from top to toe. Consequently, he was immediately burnt to ashes. It is stated in other scriptures that after this, Kāmadeva was declared as ‘Anaṅga’ or Formless and exercised his sway on all living beings. However, it is stated that after being burnt, Kāmadeva got transformed into five plants namely (1) Drukam Prṣṭa (2) Campaka (3) Bakula (4) Pātala (5) Jātipuṣpa. The arrows shot by Kāmadeva at Śiva were transformed into trees of a thousand variety.

In reality, passion is a mental inclination which disturbs the mental poise of man from time to time. Statements like “Being hit by its arrows” can be taken only as a metaphor. The poetic allegory of spring season as an accomplice of Kāmadeva as present in Vāmana Purāṇa and ultimately the transformation of Kāmadeva into famous fragrant flowers of this country have become a beautiful literary composition. Concept of Kāmadeva or Cupid is a natural extension of the process of creation and emergence of man and this has been presented in Indian Purāṇas and foreign mythologies in different ways.

Description of Geography of India -

Description of the Seven Islands (Sapta Dvīpa) is considered as an essential component of Paurāṇic literature. In ancient times, because of the difficulties of transportation, travel through the length and breadth of the whole of India was considered as a great accomplishment. However, the description of the then existing Saptadvīpa as available in the scriptures of those days is not true to facts today. It is only in some respects that the description of Jambūdvīpa agrees with the present position of Asia. Under such conditions, the description of various regions of India and the mountains and rivers therein as given in Vāmana Purāṇa is very significant. Although many of the names have since changed and some may even be fictitious, yet the information is greatly useful for the archaeologists.

Presenting a description about the mountains of India, it is stated in Vāmana Purāṇa, “Mahendra, Malaya, Satya, Śuktimāna, Ṛkṣa, Viñdhya and Pāriyātra - these seven are called Kulaparvatās.¹ In addition to these, there are other thousands of mountain ranges including Kolāhala, Vaibhṛāja, Mandara, Durdharācalā, Vātadhuma, Vaidyuta, Maināka, Saras, Tuṅga, Prastha, Nāgagiri and Govardhana. Also there are hundreds of other mountains like Ujjvamanta, Puṣpagiri, Arbud, Raivata, Ṙṣyamūka, Sagomanta, Citrakūṭa, Kṛtasmar, Śrī mountain, Kaukaṇaka etc.

While giving a description of rivers, it is stated that Sarasvatī, Paśyarūpā, Kālindī, Hiraṇyatī, Śatadru, Candrikā, Nīlā, Vitastā, Irāvatī, Kuhū, Madhurā, Hārarāvī, Uśirā, Dhātakī, Rakṣā, Gomatī, Dhūtapāpā, Bahuyā, Drṣadvatī, Niḥsvāra, Gaṇdakī, Citrā, Kauśikī, Vadhusarā, Sarayū, Salauhityā etc. are the rivers which come down from the Himālaya mountains. Apart from these, there are other rivers originating from the mountains as Parṇasā, Nandinī, Pāvanī, Mahī, Sarā, Carmaṇvatī, Lūpa, Vidiṣa, Veṇumati, Citrā, Odhavatī, Ramyā etc.. Pariyāśa, Sona river, Mahānadī, Narmadā, Sursā, Kriyā, Maṇḍakīnī, Daśā, Citrakūṭa, Daivika, Citrotpalā, Tamasā, Kartoyā, Piśācikā, Pippalaśrethi, Vipāśā, Vanjulatī, Satsāntajā, Śuktīatī, Cakriṇī, Tridiyā, Vasu and other streams come down from the Ṛkṣa mountains. Valgvāhīnī, Śiva, Payoṣṇī, Nirvindhya, Tāpī, Saniṣadhāvatī, Veṇā, Chaitraṇī, Sinibāhu, Kumudvatī, Topā, Revā, Mahāgaurī, Durgandhā etc. flow down from Vindhyaśācalā. Godāvarī, Bhimrathī, Kṛṣṇā, Vaiśyā, Saridvatī, Viśamadī, Supryopā, Kāverī, Dugdhodā, Nalinī etc. are big rivers which originate from Śālya mountain. Kritmālā, Tābhraparṇī, Vaṇjulā, Utpalāvanī, Śunī, Sudāmā etc. come from Śuktimāna mountain. All these rivers are very sacred, beneficent, mother of earth and wives of seas.”

Later, there is a mention of the various regions of India and the names of races residing in them. In the beginning, regions at far away frontiers are described. Kuśūdra, Kila kundala, Pañcālaka, Kauśika, Vṛka, Śaka, Barbar, Kaurava, Kaliṅga, Baṅga, Aṅga etc. are the kingdoms. In these kingdoms live various races as Marmaka, Ābhīra of middle countries, Śādhyā Dhānakā, Brahmalīka, Kāltopada, Aprāṇya, Śudra, Pallava, Sakhetaka, Gaṇdhāra, Yavana, Sindhu, Saubir, Bhadraka, Śātadrava, Lalithya, Pārāvata, Samūṣaka, Kādhāra, Kaikaiya, Daśana etc. these include people belonging to Kṣatriya, Vaiśya and Śūdra castes. Apart from these, there are Kāmboja, Darada, Bardar, Aāṅga Lokikā, Veṇa, Tuṣāra, Ātriya, Bharadvāja, Prasthala, Daśeraka, Lampaka, Cūḍika, Alasa, Alibhadra which are all reaces of Kirat people. Kirat races one those semi-civilised races which are found in central India and Assam. After this is given a long list of kingdoms and kingships and Democratic states which are located all over India. Out of these only a few can be identified from their present names. Still, their comparison with descriptions given in other contemporary books sheds sufficient light on the geographical and political conditions in those ancient times.

1. Mountains which are denoting various races.

Praises of Moral Conduct -

After describing the religions of all races and divisions, the supreme position has been accorded to Moral conduct to which nobody can have any objection. Stating its importance, it is emphasised, “If a person is not morally correct, all yajñas, charities, austerities etc. performed by him are of no avail. An immoral person cannot have prosperity or peace either in this world or the next world. Morality is a tree whose root is Dharma; whose branches are wealth, whose fruits are fulfilment of desires and whose fruits are salvation. In this context, the Ṛsis have prescribed the recitation of “Maṅgal Stotra” or “Beneficial Hymns” early morning which is very significant. That stotra refers to the sublime elements in our vast universe, Indian religions and nation. Every person can draw great inspiration from that stotra “Brahmā, Viṣṇu, Maheśa, other Devatās, Sun, Moon, Mars, Mercury, Jupiter, Venus, Saturn - these seven beneficent planets, Bhṛgu, Vaśiṣṭha, Kratu, Aṅgīrā, Pulastya, Pulaha, Gautama, Raidhya, Marīci, Cyavana and Ṛbhu - all these Ṛsis may make this morning of mine auspicious. Sanatkumāra, Sanak Sanandana, Sanātana, Āsuri, Piṅgala, seven original musical notes, seven flavours, seven musical instruments - all these may make this morning of mine blissful. This earth full of fragrance, this water full of flavours, this air full of sensation, this fire full of energy, this ether full of sound waves - all these five great elements may make my morning prosperous. The seven seas, seven mountains, seven Ṛsis, seven Islands and seven regions may make this morning of mine propitious.”

If this stotra is deeply meditated upon, then all matter and energies of this universe get fully invoked. If we recite it with devotion and comprehends its meaning, then certainly we shall feel one with the Supreme Soul of our universe. Then we shall see none as our opponent or enemy. Thus, there can be no better universal prayer. We can even say that this stotra is an extension and expansion of whatever we pray for in the Supreme Gāyatrī Mantra.

After that there is description of Indian religions. Then the Vāmana Purāṇa has offered several prescriptions which are worth our attention even during this age. Actions like aimless wandering, giving or donating to the undeserving, destruction of cattle wealth and abduction of women etc. do not behove a good householder. Aimless wandering decidedly is a blot on character; giving charity to an undeserving person is waste of wealth and promotes evil in social life; killing of cattle is a sin whose evil consequences have to be suffered in hell; abduction of women leads to degeneration of offsprings and possibility of birth of illegitimate children.

The greatest of all sins - Ingratitude

Superstitious persons consider neglect or deviations from traditional commonsality and prevalent customs and traditions as the greatest sin. In their opinion speaking ill of others, back-biting and ingratitude etc. are not vices. But Vāmana Purāṇa says, “In this world one who is ungrateful, he is the most vicious person. There are modes of repentance and purification for killing of a cow or killing of a brahmin, but those who are ungrateful to their benefactors, for them there is no mode of repentance and purification. Such ungrateful persons spite the obligations of their friends and relations. For them there is no escape.”

In this context, a reference has come as to what are the famous products of different regions of the world. This discourse is useful from the point of view of general knowledge. Also it points to the fact that it is virtue or worth of an object or person which is valued in this world. Just as Lord Kṛṣṇā has stated in the tenth chapter of Gītā that all supreme things in this universe are manifestations of the splendour of God. Similarly it is stated in Vāmana Purāṇa :

“Among gods, Lord Janārdana is supreme; among mountains Śeṣādari is tallest; among weapons, Sudarśana is the most effective; among birds, Garuḍa is the foremost; among snakes, Anaṅta Nāg comes first; among natural planets, earth is the best; among rivers, the Ganges is the most sacred; among aquatic plants, Padama is the most beautiful; among pilgrimages, Kurukṣetra comes first; among lakes, Mānasarovar is the most sacred; among forests, Nāñdanavana is the most famous; similarly among moral prescriptions, truthfulness is the foremost. Among yajñas, Aśvamedha yajña is the topmost; among ascetics Ṛṣi Kumabhaja is the foremost; among scriptures the Vedas are the most holy; among Purāṇas, Matsya Purāṇa is the most popular; among moral codes, Manusmṛti is the main code; among days that Amāvasya is the most sacred on which Darśa yajña is performed; among gods, it is Indra who is the head; among those who adorn energy, Sun is the supreme; among satellites, moon is the supreme; among the cereals, Sālī Rice is the best; among bipeds, the Brahmin and among quadrupeds, lion and cow are the most gracious.

Among flowers, it is Jāṭī flower; among cities, it is Kāñcīpuram; among women, it is Rambhā; and among the four Aśramas, Gṛhastha is the best. Among towns, it is Kuśasthalī; among regions, is the central region; among fruits, it is mango; among tubers, it is Kañda; and among diseases, constipation are more significant. Among white products, it is milk; among clothes, it is cotton wear; among arts, it is mathematics; among sciences, it is magic; among flavours, it is saltish; and among trees, it is Banyan tree which is held supreme. Among chaste women, it is Pārvatī; among cows, it is Kapilā; and among rivers, it is Vaitarṇī which are more important. Just as these entities are supreme in their respective categories, similarly, among the sinners, the ungrateful heads the list.

Undoubtedly, ungratefulness is a great infirmity and this indicates that the mental state of such a person is very depraved. Whoever has done us even a small favour, to remain grateful to him is our duty. It costs nothing. On the other hand, it encourages and inspires the benevolent person for more such benevolents acts in future. On the other hand an ungrateful person is so degraded that in return for the beneficial acts done to him, he does not say even a few words of thanks in return. There are even such persons who will not hesitate to blame, defame, damage or hit the interests of their benefactors. Thus they plug the sources of such social service which can benefit many deprived and needy persons. Viewed in this light, ungratefulness is a great sin against individuals and society.

It is surprising to see that even animals express their gratitude towards those persons who serve them or treat them well and are always prepared to serve their benefactors. On the other hand there are human beings who are expected to discriminate between desirable and undesirable, but they do not even say a few words of praise or do not return good for good. In what category should we place such persons? Surely, they shall be called the most degraded and shall deserve the most sever punishment at the hands of God who always stands for justice.

Supreme Significance of Self-realisation -

Purāṇas contain all sorts of knowledge and discourses. On the one hand, they describe the benefits of attaining heaven by going on pilgrimage, taking a dip in the holy rivers and observing fast on Ekādaśī and other auspicious days, on the other hand there are statements which hold such rituals as of trivial importance and supreme importance has been given to self-realisation alone. There is a śloka in the scriptures which states, “Dip in a sacred river and visiting pilgrimages is of great spiritual importance only to the people of low intelligence. However, for the scholars the divine forces controlling the universe represent the Supreme Soul. For the really learned persons, their souls alone is the manifestation of the Lord.”

Like other Purāṇas, Vāmana Purāṇa is also full of such ideas as significance of pilgrimages, worship of idols of gods, Śivalinga and sacred lakes etc. Attainment of merit has been assured through these prescribed rituals. However, while analysing the true nature, it is stated—

कि तेषां सकलैस्तीर्थाश्रमैर्वा प्रयोजनम्।
येषामनन्तकं चित्तमात्मन्येव व्यवस्थितम्॥ २३॥

(Vāmana Purāṇa, Chapter 43, Śloka 23)

“One whose mind has been concentrated in his Self does not stand in need of visiting pilgrimages and Aśramas.”

While explaining the content, the author of the Purāṇa says, “The Self is like a river which passes through the pilgrimages of self-restraint. Truth is water in that river and it includes good conduct and tranquillity. One who takes bath in such a river, he becomes pure and attains great spiritual merit. From simple water alone Self does not get purified. It is the foremost duty of a person to attain equanimity, through self-realisation. The saints insist on knowing the Self. He is free from desires by knowing his Self. He alone is a Brahmin who is in possession of the wealth of equanimity. He does not need any other riches. Observance of moral conduct, sincere behaviour and gradual withdrawal from worldly affairs are the duties of a Brahmins.”

It has always been stressed in the Purāṇas that alms should under all circumstances be given to a Brahmin who is of high moral character and a true ascetic. But not much need to be said about the moral conduct, sense of service, detachment, and the nature of day to day life of the priests at the places of pilgrimage. Today, nobody is prepared to support them or speak on their behalf. Everybody knows how they testify to the saying of Saint Tulsīdāsa that, “They mortgage the Vedas and squeeze the religion.” Vāmāṇ Purāṇa says, “A true Brahmin does not covet or crave for worldly riches. On the other hand he considers all living beings like his own self and observes truthful behaviour in all matters. In ancient times Brahmins were honoured by all and their status was even higher than the status of gods. It was because of the fact that their entire devotion was towards the welfare of the whole world and they were completely detached from worldly affairs. True Brahmins considered it below their dignity to live on alms. Whenever they had to accept alms on the insistence of the kings, they used that wealth for the spread of knowledge, dissemination of education and works of public utility. Today they are always busy in extracting the maximum from the devotees through fair or foul means and at times even resorting to the most degraded methods. Truly religious and artistic Brahmins should exert their most to change the situation.

Inspiration for avoiding sinful acts -

One of the components of the Purāṇas is description of ‘Hell’. Other religions also present a pre-picture of “Hell” inflicting punishment to the sinners. There is a mention of ‘hell’ in Christian scriptures and of “Dozakh” in Islamic scriptures. But to our knowledge only these names have been mentioned and there is no detailed description of these constructs. But there is a detailed description of twenty one categories of ‘Narakas’¹ in Purāṇas. There is a very impressive and effective presentation of the types of torturing punishments meted out to the sinners. There is no such thing in any other religion. This presentation is almost similar in all the Purāṇas. However, the differences in styles of presentation and the richness of language makes a lot of difference in the overall effectiveness of presentation. Such presentation if various torturous punishments corresponding to various sinful acts as given in Vāmana Purāṇa appears to be well ingrained in the mind of the common man. It will be pertinent to give an extract of this description.

“Those who reproach the saintly persons, those who create hurdles in virtuous acts, those who discriminate against their friends, and colleagues, they go to hell. Those who impelled by greed sell their daughters to successive bidders, they are cut to pieces by the lords of hell. Those who torment others by their sarcastic remarks, they are pricked by the carnivorous kinds by their sharp beaks. Those who beak bite against good person and speak ill of them because of their selfish motives, their tongues are stretched out by the crows. Those who indulge in mean behaviour towards their benefactors, they are thrown into ditches full of excreta. Those who serve different qualities of food to different people sitting in the same row and thus discriminate among equals, are tortured in hell. Those who resort to violence against parents, siblings and other respected persons, they are tied with hot chains and thrown in the most dreadful hell. Those who eat meat, molten iron is poured into their mouth.

"Those who damage or destroy places of public utility like wells, tanks, lakes, community halls etc., their skin is peeled off and they are thrown in hell to suffer unbearable pain. Those who disfigure or defile places of public utility, their intestines are drawn out by crows. Those who neglect their dependents and relations and are busy in self-adornment and selfish pursuits, such persons are sent to a special category of hell where a person leads the life of a dog. Those who eyes on the trusted property of other persons, they are sent to a hell full of scorpions. Those who defile public sources of water are condemned to a hell full of filth. Those who molest innocent girls and then force for abortion, they are bitten by insects and ants. Those who misrepresent truth and give false evidence in a court of law, they fall in hell for ten thousand years."

These descriptions of hell are a clear warning to those persons who work against the interests of other persons and the society and also for those persons who are temperamentally inclined towards evil and take pleasure in harming others. It is of no use to discuss about the location of such hells whether they are in this world or somewhere else or whether they really exist or they are mythical creation of imagination. Only the idle persons may indulge in such discussions. We shall only like to emphasise that evil actions, bad behaviour and immoral conduct are sure to be adequately penalised in some form or the other. One can easily find persons undergoing such sufferings in this world as have been described above. Therefore, we must learn this lesson from such descriptions that we should avoid evil actions and should be convinced that we shall have to suffer the consequences of an actions good as well as evil. This is the law of nature. Retribution is sure and certain. It is another matter that the fools or depraved minds may not accept this. Thieves, robbers, scoundrels often hastily assert that no one can touch them. But we are sure that such actions never lead to happiness. Similarly, those who try to amass wealth through deception, fraud, corrupt practices, adulteration, bribes etc., ultimately land in misery. They may shamelessly boast of their successes, but there is not the slightest doubt that they will have to suffer the consequences of their sinful actions.

Communal Harmony -

As stated in the beginning, communal harmony is the most significant feature of this Purāṇa. This is known as Śaiva Purāṇa and there are many stories relating to Śiva and Satī whereas there is no mention of Rāma and Kṛṣṇa. However, along with Śiva, Viṣṇu has also been greatly adorned for which the neutrality of the author must be praised. When Kārtikeya, the son of Śiva was installed as the head of the army of Devatās, Pārvatī, the mother of Kārtikeya asked him to touch the feet of Viṣṇu and seek his blessings. Skarida only knew that Mahādeva is the only Lord of this Universe and hence where was the need to touch the feet of anyone else. He asked his mother, “who is this Viṣṇu whom I must honour in spite of my high status?” Then his mother replied—

केवलं त्विह मां देवस्त्वत्पिता प्राह शंकरः।
नान्यः परतरोऽस्माद्ब्रिं वयमन्ये च देहिनः॥१०॥

(Vāmana Purāṇa, Chapter 58, Śloka 10)

“I do not know much about him. However, your father had said that Lord Viṣṇu is the Supreme Lord while all of us are humans.” In a way, Brahmā, Viṣṇu and Maheśa have been stated as three manifestations of the same power. Still since, Viṣṇu is the sustainer of this Universe, lord Śiva has accorded to him a higher status. This must be accepted as greatness of lord Śiva.

Similarly, when the Rākṣasas Caṇḍa and Muṇḍa came to attack Pārvatī, the gods asked her to wear her armour for the battle, Satī had said, “I do not see any need to wear the armour to fight against these Dānavas. I do not consider them of any significance. “Hearing this, Lord Śiva recited the Viṣṇu Pañjar” to protect her. Describing the efficacy of ‘Viṣṇu Pañjar’, it is stated—

एवंप्रभावो द्विज विष्णुपञ्जरः सर्वासु रक्षास्वधिको हि गीतः।
कस्तस्य कुर्याद्भुवि दर्पहानिं यस्य स्थितश्वेतसि चक्रपणिः॥४४॥

(Vāmana Purāṇa, Chapter 19, Śloka 44)

“Viṣṇu Pañjar is really very efficacious and among the most important defences for protection. It has been greatly praised. One who has the Lord seated in his heart, no one can subdue him.”

When Lord Śiva was accused of “Brahma Hatyā” for destroying the fifth head of Brahmā and his skull got stuck with the palm of Śiva, he went to Lord Viṣṇu to get rid of the same and implode him thus : “O Lord of all Gods, I offer my salutations to you. O rider of Garuḍa, I pay my obeisance to you. O holder of Conch, Discus and Mace, I bow before you in all humility you are infinite and absolute. You cannot be known through argumentation. You are beyond knowledge and ignorance and you are the first cause of this universe. O blissful supreme, you are the eternal Lord. Please accept my adoration. O Lord, all this universe has been created by you. O Supreme Soul of this universe, you are the Lord of all the worlds. O omnipotent, you are the sustainer of the entire universe. O omniscient, you are the Rudra born of wrath. I am bound by the three attributes, while you are omnipresent. Therefore, I salute you. O Lord of this Universe, all this universe belongs to you. Water, ether, fire, air, intellect, mind etc. are all your manifestations. I bow to you. You are the source of Dharma, Sacrifice, Tapa, Truth, Non-violence, Purity, Forgiveness, Charity, Mercy, Wealth and Celibacy. The four Vedas are your manifestations. You have the knowledge of the six Vedāṅgas, Upvedās etc. O imperishable, O holder of the Discus, I adore you a hundred times. O incarnation in the form of Vāmana and Matsya, I take you as the supreme ocean of mercy. Please save me from this accusation of killing of a Brahmin.

Rule out this blemish struck to myself. I am burning because of this blame. O my Lord! Please purify me. I beseech you again and again."

When we compare this presentation with the presentation in Śiva Purāṇa, we find a world of difference. In Śiva Purāṇa, when Satī did not find the offerings for Śiva and saw Viṣṇu and Brahmā present among the assembly of guests, she condemned them and said, "O Viṣṇu! Do you not know the nature of Śiva? The scriptures declare him free of attributes. O stupid, although you had keenfully enlightened in ancient time on the occasion of Śalva etc., yet you failed to be wiser and accepted your offerings even when you had noted that there are no offerings for Śiva - your Lord. O Brahmā! Earlier you had been antagonistic to Śiva because of your vanity and consequently, he had to demolish your fifth head. Have you forgotten all that?"

Later when Virbhadra, the chief of the attendants of Lord Śiva reached the venue of yajña along with Nara to destroy the same, he abused and scolded Viṣṇu very greatly and said, "O Viṣṇu! Over possessed by vanity, how have you violated your assurances towards Śiva given by you to Ṛṣi Dadhīci. Are you powerful enough to violate the promises given by you to Śiva? Who are you? Is there anyone else in the three worlds who can protect you? Were you not aware what Satī had done? Had you not heard the commands of Dadhīci? Have you also come to this dawn yajña of Dakṣa to receive the abominable offerings. Accept this defiled offering from me. O Viṣṇu! I shall pierce your heart with this Trident of mine. I shall throw you on the ground and melt you down. I shall burn you to ashes." At the end, Virbhadra said- "O immoral Viṣṇu, O anti-Śiva wretch! Are you unaware of the pure eminence of Śiva?" This Viṣṇu has been greatly humiliated in Śiva Purāṇa and he himself is forced to accept his meanness. When Dakṣa fell at the feet of Viṣṇu and requested him to save the yajña from destruction, he said, "O stupid Dakṣa, you do not discriminate between good and evil actions. This Virbhadra is the chief of the attendants of Śiva and has come here to destroy us. Through sheer ignorance, I stayed here against my assurances given by me to Lord Śiva and I am suffering the consequences of the same. O Dakṣa, it is beyond me to stop this destruction. By transgression of my oath, I have also been condemned as anti-Śiva. I am suffering because of your misdeeds. An anti-Śiva person cannot have solace even through the three ages. During this unfavourable time, such destruction has occurred and our end is likely to come. We may travel to any part of this world or even to Netherland, the weapons of Virbhadra shall overtake us. When Kāla Bhairava had cut the fifth head of Lord Brahmā with his nails on the orders of Lord Śiva, we had not been able to do anything.

Similarly invectives in various forms are common in the Śaiva and Viṣṇu Purāṇas which lead to many bitter conflicts between the two communities in ancient times. Now those times are over. However, many followers of the two sects still consider themselves in opposite camps and do not cooperate with each other in any religious or social work. Sectarian scriptures creating hatred among its adherents for others have a very detrimental effect which harms the society and the nation for hundreds of years. From this point of view, we can appreciate the harmonising tendencies of Vāmana Purāṇa. In this Purāṇa, we find praises of Viṣṇu as well as praises of Śiva at several places. On the occasion of sanctification of Śivalinga at Dāruvāna, Lord Brahmā himself reached there along with all the Ṛsis in the presence of Lord Śiva and begging pardon for all his sins said, “O eternal, well-pleasing, adorned with bow, Lord Śiva, we offer our salutations to you. O Saviour, Lord of whole Universe, all knowing, we always pay our respects to you. You are supreme and the foremost among gods. You reside in our hearts and we always salute you. You are grievously angry with the sinners - we adorn you O most powerful, you have the trident in your hand. At the same time you are benevolent towards the world. All praise to you.”

Similarly, it is stated at another place. “I do not know any other god except Śiva having the trident in his hand. You are the Lord of this world. Brahmā and all other gods exist under your patronage. Among all the gods, you are the only one doing or causing to be done great acts. All gods enjoy within your pleasure.”

It is clearly asserted in Vedas and other scriptures that in this universe, there is only one divine force and people call him by different names according to their own understanding. It is natural to have different names for God in different countries and in different languages. However, on account of this difference names of God, it is an indication of foolishness and not wisdom to quarrel among themselves or to curse or abuse the God of other people. Thus adherents of different sects of Hindu religion should give up such misconceptions.

Different versions of the same story -

We have several times explained this fact in the introduction to other Purāṇas that it is futile to assert the truthfulness of these stories or to prove that these stories are historically correct in all respects. The authors of Purāṇas have themselves termed them as ‘legends’ which means ‘stories’ or ‘tales’. They have created these religious stories to educate the common people. they are based on the ancient folk lores. However when the illiterate or those who have no literary background, read them they think that every word of these scriptures is truthful and all the events mentioned therein are real.

We wish to inform such persons once again that had their presumption been correct, the same story would not have been related differently in different Purāṇas. Even if we do not take into account the differences in the nature and purpose of different Purāṇas, there would not be two versions of a story in a Purāṇa based on the same event. Even in Vāmana Purāṇa, the incident of Śiva roaming naked in Dāruvana and cursing the Ṛsis has been described differently at two places. Out of these, one appears in chapter six and the other in chapter forty-three. We have already stated details of the incident as described in chapter six. Hereunder, are given the details of the same event as given in chapter forty-three :- “Once Śiva along with Umā had been flying through the sky. At that time, Umā saw many Ṛsis engaged in severe penances. She was moved by their plight and said to Lord Śiva, “These Ṛsis residing in this Dāruvana have to undergo such severe penances just to get your blessings. Have pity on them. These skeleton-body Ṛṣis have yet not been able to attain salvation." The Lord smiled and said, "You do not yet know fully the spiritual aspect of the nature of true religion. All these people do not understand religion and have not been able to control their passions. They have not been able to free themselves from anger. They are all people of little intelligence."

Pārvatī got very curious to know more about all this. She said "Please prove whatever you have said, "Śiva left Pārvatī in the mid air and he went to Ṛṣis down below. At that time, Śiva was young and beautiful but naked and decorated with flowers. With a bowl in his hand, he went to the Aśrama of Ṛṣis for begging alms. The wives of those theistic Ṛṣis came to develop a fancy for Śiva and said, "Let us come and see this beggar." They got some fruits and went near Śiva. He very gladly accepted their offerings and said, "All my blessings for you. I am an ascetic. May I live in your Aśrama." Those ladies said, "you are such a beautiful ascetic. For what aims are you roaming about naked?" Śiva said with a smile, "I cannot reveal the secrets of my pursuits. But one who can know it by himself, he should consider himself as a very fortunate person." Those ladies said, "We shall do the same." So saying, they got infatuated by passion and embraced Śiva. When the Ṛṣis saw all this, they got very angry. They picked up sticks and stones and began to hit at the linga of Śiva. From such an attack, the linga of Śiva dropped and Śiva disappeared from there."

After this, the Ṛṣis were greatly frightened and they went to Brahmā. He also rebuked them for their involvement in passions and sensitivity to anger. Then all of them went in the presence of Śiva. Śiva said- "your salvation lies in worshipping that very Liṅga." Since then, worship of the Śivaliṅga still in vogue.

This very story is related in Skanda Purāṇa. But in that story, there is neither a mention of running away of the frightened Kāmadeva nor of the curiosity of Umā on the plight of the meditating Ṛṣis. In that story, it is stated that on his usual begging rounds, Śiva had incidentally reached Dāruvana and there the wives of Ṛṣis suddenly followed him. In another Purāṇa, it is stated that once there was a dispute between Brahmā and Viṣṇu as to who is of greater importance. At that moment, the divine Śivaliṅga appeared before them all of a sudden. It was decided that whoever could reach the end of that Śivaliṅga first shall be considered as superior. Viṣṇu moved downwards while Brahmā travelled upwards. On return, Brahmā returned first and reported that he had reached the upper end of the Linga and in support of his fraudulent claim presented the Pandarus Tree as a witness. It was because of this vicious act that the fifth head of Brahmā was cut off on the orders of Lord Śiva and Viṣṇu was declared as superior.

When reader finds different versions of the same story in a Purāṇa, which story should be accept as the true story? In the above context, the first story is related to the incident when Satī had immolated herself at the time of yajña by her father Dakṣa and the second story is related to the period when after thousands of years Satī had taken birth in the house of Himācala and had married Śiva consequent to her penances for thousands of years. In the first story, Śiva was roaming about in utter grief on account of the tragic death of Satī. In the second story he had been moving about along with his consort on a pleasure trip and apprising her of the wonderful mysteries of the world. In our opinion, it is irrelevant to seek any historicity in any of these stories. These two different stories had perhaps been narrated by two different religious preachers at different places and at different times in accordance with their personal inclinations and for some reason both the versions got included in the same Purāṇa. The writers of these Purāṇas had no other aim in view except to import religious orientation to the common man.

Such different versions of a story are common in other Purāṇas as well. Every story has been narrated in different Purāṇas in such a way that their different versions do not reconcile in any manner. Why only about Purāṇas, even the events on several occasions as described in Valmīki Rāmāyaṇa and Tulsī Rāmāyaṇa are not the same.

If we study the Purāṇa critically, the aim of their composition can very clearly be comprehended. The present Purāṇas had not been written by one man and at one time. Different preachers had been adding in their own new stories from time to time to the already existing texts. This process had been continued by hundreds of preachers for hundreds of years in accordance with their peculiar time and circumstances and also their own inclinations. All these are religious stories and their content has been drawn from either the ancient folk lores or from some performed anecdotes recorded in Vedic scriptures. In addition to religious discourses, the writers have incorporated other material relating to general knowledge, sciences, arts and crafts etc. Some parts of such material could be still relevant and useful.

Character of Bali-Vāmana -

This Purāṇa has been named after the story of Rājā Bali and Lord Vāmana. But that forms only a small part of it. In Ṛgveda and other Vedas, it has been stated that this whole world is covered within three footsteps of Lord Viṣṇu. While explaining this statement, a brief description has been added in Brāhmaṇa scriptures. Thereafter, the writers of Purāṇas through their poetic and literary contributions transformed the references in Brāhmaṇa scriptures into an impressive story. In this Purāṇa, the description of grandeur of king Bali, the praise of his charities and the grand appearance of Lord Vāmana, all these look like a great literary composition to an ordinary reader. One important feature of the story of king Bali is that inspite of being a demon king, he has been presented as a virtuous, well-restrained and charitable person. It is said that when he ascended the throne as the king of Svargaloka (heaven) after his victory over the gods, there was no vice or sinful act in his kingdom and there appeared to be a period of Satyayuga or golden age. The Kaliyuga ran away from the world and called on Brahmā. He said to Brahmā, “O Lord, king Bali had destroyed my natural order. Whatever I am supposed to promote has been completely negated by Bali and exactly the opposite is flourishing.”

Brahmā said, “Bali has not only dismaulted your natural order that he has uprooted the natural order of the whole world. See, Indra, Marut, Varuṇa and others are sitting here.

Everything of theirs has been snatched away by Bali. Even the sun is loosing his glamour on account of the sway of king Bali : "Considering the spirituality, justice, truthfulness and valour of Rājā Bali, even the goddess Lakṣmī of the three worlds has approached him and said, Previously, I was with Indra. But now you are the most powerful, so I have come to you. O supreme among the Dānavas, accept me" So saying, that Lakṣmī with the shine of a moon got aligned with king Bali. Thereafter all natural, human, supernatural and divine powers also moved on to Rājā Bali."

Charities of king Bali have also been highly praised. When Lord Vāmana was about to ask for charity from king Bali, the whole world trembled and the effulgence of Dānavas appeared to wane. Thereupon king Bali asked Ṛṣi Śukrācārya, the guru of Dānavas, reason for such happenings. after meditating over the mysterious events, he said, "O king Bali, Lord Vāmana is soon coming to your yajña to ask for charity. He will deprive you of everything and give it over to Indra. Therefore, do not promise to give him anything. Only say that I have nothing to give."

On hearing this, king Bali said, "O Learned Brahmin, when someone begs me for charity, how can I say that I have nothing with me to give him and that too to one who is the Lord of this Universe and destroyer of all our sins. What more can be desired in this life than that Lord, who is invoked through so many fasts and austerities, himself comes before me and asks for charity from me." If that Supreme Lord whose blessings are sought through various types of yajñas performed after acquiring such virtues as purity etc. presents himself in person before me and says, "Give me something, I shall consider myself as very fortunate. I must have performed many virtuous deeds and undergone great austerities in many previous lives that the Lord is coming to me to accept the charity donated by me. Nothing can be of greater significance than maturation of such virtuous deeds."

"O my learned teacher, how can I say to my Lord who appears at my door that I have nothing to give him in charity. I can sacrifice even my life but I can never say that I have nothing to give. I feel if in the yajña, Lord really comes himself and asks me to give something, then I have achieved the purpose of this sacrificial oblations. What to speak of other things. I can offer even my head to him in charity. Let the Lord say to me, "Give something". What else more auspicious can there be? "I do not have anything to give." I have never said so to anyone. How can I say such unbecoming words to the eternal God when he himself comes to my house. Even if a calamity befalls while giving alms, a courageous person has to bear it. This is surely praiseworthy. There is no unhappy, poor or diseased person within my kingdom. There is none who may not be having gold ornaments or a house. All this is the result of the seeds of charity. Now if that seed of charity is to be placed in the divine bowl of the Supreme Lord, what shall I not be attaining in this life. This charity of mine shall be very very special and will please the gods as well. God himself is coming here to oblige me by his presence, it shows that as a consequence of this yajña, he has showered his blessings on me.

Rājā Bali was so impatient to give charity to god that he did not want any hindrance in this act. But Guru Śukrācārya had been against this because he considered this as a conspiracy of gods. Therefore, Rājā Bali said to his Guru, "Sir, when Lord comes here to accept charity, please do not say anything which may create obstacle in my offering of charity to him. Either you not be present at that time or you keep completely quiet." In other Purāṇas, it has been said that Śukrācārya opposed upto the end and to prevent Rājā Bali from agreeing to give charity and when Rājā Bali was about to take water in his palms to offer charity, Śukrācārya entered the pick of the pot to obstruct the flow of water from the pot to his hands. Coming to know of this, Vāmana inserted a blade inside the prick which pierced through the eye of Śukrācārya and he became blind of his one eye for the rest of his life. But this incident is nowhere mentioned in Vāmana Purāṇa. This is another example of fanciful additions of events in the already existing stories by the writers of subsequent editions of these scriptures.

When Vāmana reached the venue of the yajña and blessed Rājā Bali, he offered his entire treasures on his own to Lord Vāmana. In the story of Rājā Hariśacandra, Viśva Mitra had to move very diplomatically to persuade Rājā Hariśacandra to offer his kingdom to him as charity. But in this case, as soon as Lord Vāmana reached, Rājā Bali said to the Lord, "O Lord, I offer to you everything that you desire from all my treasure including gold, diamonds, elephants, bullocks, cows, clothes, ornaments, tuskers, land etc. etc." However, Vāmana asked for land measuring three footsteps. The king said, "Why are you asking only for such a small piece of land?" However, when the occasion for measuring of land arose, Lord Vāmana extended his size so much that the whole world was covered thereby. The entire episode, as narrated in Vāmana Purāṇa indicates that it is a story which presents the divine form of God through the story of Rājā Bali and Lord Vāmana. It is stated as under :-

"As soon as water flowed down from the hands of Rājā Bali indicating his resolve to give charity, Vāmana transformed himself from the dwarf form into a gigantic form and there appeared his divine form. Sun and moon were his two eyes, heaven was his head, both his feet were the earth, the toes of his feet were the demons, the fingers of his hands were the demons. The knees of Vāmana Deva were the gods Viśvedevā, his thighs were Sādhya gods, his organs were yajñas, his ideas were the celestial ladies, his vision was planet Aśeṣa, his hair were the rays of the sun, in all the pores of his skin were seated the Ṛṣis, his eight portion represented the tangential directions, his ears were the four straight directions, his hearing power was Aśvinī Kumāra, his nose was air, truth resided in his voice and Sarasvatī was seated there on his tongue. In his neck was mother goddess Aditi, Vasudeva, resided in his back. In all his points were Maruta gods. Rudras were present in his chest. Oceans were his patience. In his bosom were the Vedas. In his knees was the yajña."

This description is not of a physical human body but is of the vast universe. A similar description of the cosmic form of God has been detailed by Lord Kṛṣṇa in chapter XI of Gītā. It is more reasonable to accept it as a presentation from the knowledge point of view rather than a presentation of a physical form. Many of such stories in the Purāṇas have been written for the benefit of the common man with a view to make them understand the basic elements of cosmology and religion. This is the style of ancient compositions. During those days, education was less popular and knowledge about sciences and arts was limited to some persons of higher classes only. Common people used to gather knowledge about tenets of religion by attending such gatherings where such stories were related. This practice is prevalent even today to a great extent in all parts of the country and through such gatherings, the uneducated sections of the society acquire knowledge about their religion and are able to regulate and discipline their lives to some extent.

We also know that the religious preachers impelled by selfish motives considered religious education of the masses as of secondary importance and concentrated more on extracting as much money from the devotees as possible. Importance of fasting and pilgrimage found a prominent place and in a great measure in the Purāṇas and people were persuaded to give on such occasions as much money as they could.

Vāmana Purāṇa is comparatively small and it contains selfish and useless matter to a lesser extent. We are confident that people will welcome this new series of the Purāṇas and adopt the useful prescription of Hindu religion so as to make their lives purposeful.

श्रीवामनमहापुराणम्

Chapter 1

Dialogue between Pulastyā and Narada

नारायणं नमस्कृत्य नरं चैव नरोत्तमम्।
देवीं सरस्वतीं चैव ततो जयमुदीरयेत्॥

Jaya (Purāṇa etc.) should be gone over when first salute to Nārāyaṇa, the best man among all human beings, goddess Sarasvatī and Vyāsa.

त्रैलोक्यराज्यमाक्षिण्य बलेन्द्रियं यो ददौ।
नमस्तस्मै सुरेशाय छन्दवामनरूपिणे॥ १॥

Lord Viṣṇu, the husband of the goddess of wealth, who once disguised himself as a dwarf (Vāmana) under conceit and thus snatched the three-kingdom (the heaven of deities) is saluted.

पुलस्त्यमृषिमासीनमाश्रमे वाग्विदां वरम्।
नारदः परिप्रच्छ पुराणं वामनाश्रयम्॥ २॥

Once the very great scholar hermit Pulastyā was seated at his hermitage. The divine hermit (Devarṣi) Nārada asked him the story related to the Vāmana Purāṇa.

कथं भगवता ब्रह्मन् विष्णुना प्रभविष्णुना।
वामनत्वं धृतं पूर्वं तमामचक्षव पृच्छतः॥ ३॥

O Brāhmaṇa! Please bring to notice the query being raised by me to as how Lord Viṣṇu had held dwarf body irrespective of his being so mighty?

कथं च वैष्णवो भूत्वा प्रह्लादो दैत्यसत्तमः।
त्रिदर्शैर्युधे सार्द्धमत्र मे संशयो महान्॥ ४॥

A doubt on the issue which intended Prahlāda, the best demon devotee to Lord Viṣṇu for fighting against deities, is looming large in my mind.

श्रूयते च द्विजश्रेष्ठ दक्षस्य दुहिता सती।
शङ्करस्य प्रिया भार्या बभूव वर्वर्णिनी॥ ५॥

O the great Dvija! It is heard that Satī, the most beautiful daughter of Prajāpati Dakṣa, was married to Lord Śaṅkara.

किमर्थं सा परित्यज्य स्वशरीरं वरानना।
जाता हिमबतो गेहे गिरीन्द्रस्य महात्मनः॥ ६॥
पुनश्च देवदेवस्य पलीत्वमगमच्छुभा।
एतं मे संशयं छिन्नि सर्वविज्ञव मतोऽसि मे॥ ७॥

Why did that beautiful Satī abandon her life and was reborn as a daughter to the king mountain Himālaya? And she again had become wife of lord Mahādeva. I consider you duly know the facts of that episode. Hence, remove this doubt away from my mind.

तीर्थानां चैव माहात्म्यं दानानां चैव सत्तम।
द्रतानां विविधानां च विधिमांचक्षव मे द्विज॥ ८॥

O the greatest saint! let me further know the importance of holy places and the magnificence of donations as well as the procedure for observing the number of fasts prevalent as contemplated in the scriptures.

एवमुक्तो नारदेन पुलस्त्यो मुनिसत्तमः।
प्रोवाच वदतां श्रेष्ठो नारदं तपसो निधिम्॥ ९॥

The greatest orator and chief of hermits Pulastyā, in reply to the query so raised, began to explain to Nārada, the great ascetic.

पुलस्त्य उवाच

पुराणं वामनं वक्ष्ये क्रमान्तरिखिलमादितः।
अवधानं स्थिरं कृत्वा शृणुष्व मुनिसत्तम॥ १०॥

Pulastyā said- "O great sage! listen attentively to Vāmana Purāṇa which I will explain from bottom to top in an orderly manner."

पुरा हैमवती देवी मन्दरस्थं महेश्वरम्।
उवाच वचनं दृष्ट्वा ग्रीष्मकालमुपस्थितम्॥ ११॥

Long long ago, goddess Haimvatī (Satī) said to Maheśvara seated besides her on the mountain Mandara on the five entrance of the summer season.

ग्रीष्मः प्रवृत्तो देवेश न च मे विद्यते गृहम्।
यत्र वातातपौ ग्रीष्मे स्थितयोर्नैं गमिष्ठातः॥ १२॥

O the Lord of gods! Summer has entered in yet there is lack of a suitable house which could enable us to face conveniently the stormy wind and the scorching heat, the companion of summer.

एवमुक्तो भवान्या तु शङ्करो वाक्यमब्लवीत्।
निराश्रयोऽहं सुदति सदाऽरण्यचरः शुभे॥ १३॥

Having heard this very statement, lord Śaṅkara replied- "O beloved with beautiful teeth!" I am always homeless and a wanderer to the forest."

इत्युक्ता शङ्करेणाथ वृक्षच्छायासु नारद।
निदाघकालमनयत्समं शर्वेण सा सती॥ १४॥

O Nārada, Satī passed the whole summer under the shade of trees with lord Śaṅkara in compliance and under adaptation to the habit as explained by him.

निदाघाने समुद्भूतो निर्जनाचरितोऽद्भुतः।
घनाञ्चकारिताशो वै प्रावृट्कालोऽतिरागवान्॥ १५॥

An excellent rainy season ensued just after the summer was over. It was naturally tempting to excessive attachment. All the directions were sunk in dark due to the dense grip of clouds in the sky and it resisted the movement of common people.

तं दृष्टा दक्षतनुजा प्रावृट्कालमुपस्थितम्।
प्रोवाच वाक्यं देवेशं सती सप्रणयं तदा॥ १६॥

Afflicted by the presence of such a scenario created by that rainy season, Satī, the daughter of Dakṣa, requested Mahādeva courteously.

सत्यवाच

विवान्ति वाता हृदयावदारणा
गर्जन्त्यमी तोयधरा महेश्वरा।
स्फुरन्ति नीलाभ्यगणेषु विद्युतो
वाशन्ति केकारवमेव बर्हिणः॥ १७॥

O Śambhū! look at the herd of deer running to and fro happily and the skylark is sparkling in amazement in these dark clouds. It appears from the increased quantum of rain that the warriors are walking on the trees so as to escape themselves from getting wet.

The rivers are flowing suddenly with galloping steps. O Candraśekhara! what scope there is for surprise if the wife of a corrupt man loses her chastity. The sky is covered by the blue clouds, Sarja tree by flowers, Kadamba with buds, bilva with fruits, rivers with water and reservoirs with the lotus petals.

Story of the birth of Nara and description of Destruction

पुलस्त्य उवाच

(On commencement of Śarada) the blue clouds abandoned the sky, the herons abandoned the shelter of trees and the rivers abandoned their banks. Lotus flowers started releasing fragrance and the crows left the shelter of their nests. The antelope stage (Rurumṛga) shed their horns and the reservoirs got clean and pure water.

Dakṣa, after due invitation, nominated to that yajña all hermits as members who were meritorious, learned and conversant with the Vedas and all their parts.

Dakṣa assigned Ariṣṭanemi to the work of collecting the required fuel (Samidhā) for yajña and appointed with due procedure, Bhṛgu for the work of processing hymn (Mantra Saṁskāra).

In the very distant past, this entire universe with its movable and immovable properties was only an ocean. There were nowhere any stars like the moon, the sun, all planets, wind and fire-like illuminating substances. The state of the then world was unknown, inaccessible to imagination and without presence or absence of anything. All mountains and trees were in the belly of the ocean and the entire universe was surrounded by darkness and in a pathetic condition.

Lord Viṣṇu sleeps for several thousand years in that oceanic stage of universe and he creates all worlds (lokas) under his Rājas formation when that prolong night is over.

His Rājas form was the creator of this universe with its movable and immovable properties; it was strange in look, having its five mouths and it was fully conversant with the Vedas and their parts.

तमोपयस्तथैवान्यः समुद्भूतस्त्रिलोचनः।

शूलपाणिः कपर्ही च अक्षमालां च दर्शयन्॥ २५॥

Similarly, one more Puruṣa (man) was born at that time. He was with Tāmas property, three-eyed, trident holder, leaper (kapardi) and a garland of Rudrākṣa was around his neck.

ततो महात्मा ह्यसृजदहंकारं सुदारुणम्।

येनाकान्तावुभी देवौ तावेव ब्रह्मशंकराः॥ २६॥

The supreme soul (Paramātmā) then originated the fierce ego which gripped Brahmā and Śaṅkara, both the gods.

अहंकारावृतो रुद्रः प्रत्युवाच पितामहम्।

को भवानिह संप्राप्तः केन सृष्टोऽसि मां वद॥ २७॥

Śaṅkara under the intoxication of ego said to Brahmā- "Who are you to come to this place? Tell me who has created you?"

पितामहोऽप्यहंकारी प्रत्युवाचाथ को भवान्।

भवतो जनकः कोऽत्र जननी वा तदुच्यताम्॥ २८॥

Brahmā too replied with ego- "First tell me who you are and who your parents are?"

इत्यन्योन्यं पुरा ताथ्यां ब्रह्मेशाभ्यां कलि प्रिय।

परिवादोऽभवतत्र उत्पत्तिर्भवतोऽभवत्॥ २९॥

भवानप्यन्तरिक्षं हि जातमात्रस्तदोत्पत्तत्।

धारयन्नतुलां वीणां कुर्वन्निलकिलाध्वनिम्॥ ३०॥

O Nārada, loved by Kali! thus, a dispute was arisen between lord Brahmā and Śaṅkara in the distant past. You yourself were also born there. You also moved to the sky (space) above immediately after birth. An excellent lyre was in your hands and a tremulous voice played on your lips.

ततो विनिर्जितः शंभुर्मानिना पदायोनिना।

तस्थावथोमुखो दीनो ग्रहक्रान्तो अथा शशी॥ ३१॥

Lord Brahma (born from the lotus) then defeated Śaṅkara (the administrator of loka). He therefore put his head facing the ground like a frightened moon.

The fifth mouth of Lord Brahmā subsequent to the defeat he had given to Śaṅkara, burning in excess fury, said- O three-eyed and with Tamah property Puruṣa! I am familiar to you. You are naked (Digambara), Vṛṣarohī (bull rider) and destroyer of this entire universe.

इत्युक्तः शङ्करः कुञ्जो वदनं धोरचक्षुषा।

निर्दग्धुकामस्त्वनिशं ददर्श भगवानजः॥ ३४॥

As a reaction to that very statement, lord Śaṅkara opened his third fierce eye with the intention to burn into ashes Lord Brahmā. He thus stared at his fifth mouth.

वक्राणि पञ्चाथ सुदर्शनानि।

Then there had arisen five mouths (heads) to lord Śaṅkara. One was of white, the other red, golden, blue and yellow colour respectively.

पैतामहं वक्रमुवाच वाक्यम्।

Having seen the automatic origin of the five heads with sun splendour, the fifth head of

Brahmā said- "Bubbles naturally arise due to force of stream in water but void from the valour and meaningless?"

तच्छुत्वा क्रोधयुक्तेन शङ्करेण महात्मना।
नखग्रेण शिरश्चिन्नं ब्राह्मं पुरुषवादिनम्॥ ३७॥

Having heard such harsh words, lord Śaṅkara cut that head of Brahmā off by a hard blow of nail.

तच्छिन्नं शङ्करस्यैव सब्ये करतलेऽपतत्।
पतते न कदाचिद्य तच्छङ्करकराच्छिरः॥ ३८॥

The head so cut-off fell on the left palm of Lord Śaṅkara. It was stuck there and could not be removed.

धनुष्याणिर्महाबाहुर्बाणशक्तिरोऽव्ययः।

Lord Brahmā in a fantasy of anger then created something phenomenal. It was the origin of a wiseman (Puruṣa) duly equipped with kavaca kundala (shield) and arrows. He was an archer, long armed, mighty, avyaya (robust), four-armed and a great Bowman. His aura was shining like the sun.

स प्रा गच्छ दुर्बुद्धे मा त्वां शूलिन्निपातये।

He said- "O wicked Śaṅkara! I will not kill you if you leave this place at once. You are an evildoer and who will make his hands dirty by killing a sinner like you?

इत्युक्तः शङ्करस्तेन पुरुषेण महात्मना।

As a response to the statement, Rudra ashamed left that place immediately for Badrikāśrama.

So call Badrikāśrama is situated at great Himālaya where Nara-Nārāyaṇa reside and the greatest river Sarasvatī flows there. Having approached there and found Nara-Nārāyaṇa, lord Śaṅkara said- "O lord! I am Mahākāpalika. Please give me alms."

इत्युक्तो धर्मपुत्रस्तु स्त्रं वचनमद्वीती।
सब्यं भुजं ताडयस्व त्रिशूलेन महेश्वर॥ ४५॥

The son of Dharma (Nārāyaṇa) replied- "O Maheśvara! Give a blow with the trident to my left arm.

नारायणवचः श्रुत्वा त्रिशूलेन त्रिलोचनः।
सब्यं नारायणभुजं ताडयामास वेगवान्॥ ४६॥

In compliance with these words, lord Śaṅkara hit hard on the left arm of Nārāyaṇa with the trident.

द्वितीया न्यपतद्वूमौ तां जग्राह तपेष्ठनः।
अत्रिस्तस्मात्समुद्भूतो दुर्वासाः शङ्करांशतः॥ ४८॥

Three streams emanated from the points made by the trident at the arm of Nārāyaṇa. One stream accessed upward and accompanied with the galaxy in the sky. The other fell down to the earth and was entertained by the great ascetic Atri. Being it the ray of Śaṅkara, it gave birth to Durvāsā.

त्रितीया न्यपतद्वारा कपाले रौद्रदर्शने।
तस्माच्छुः समभवत्संद्वक्वचो युवा॥ ४९॥

The third stream was dropped on a dreadful skull (Kapāla) and a baby got its birth therefrom. He immediately turned into a young-chap of dark-complexion equipped with a shield, bow and arrows.

chap. He was saying- "Who is to be beheaded by me like the fruit of Tāla?"

Lord Śaṅkara approached the man so born from the arm of Śrī Nārāyaṇa and said- "O Nara! Kill this man originated by Brahmā, harsh in tongue but glowing with the light of a hundred suns simultaneously."

In compliance with the order so given, that warrior picked-up his bow known as Ādya Ajagava and Tuṇīra and decided to battle.

The son originated by Brahmā and the Śaṅkara-puruṣa so originated from the arm of Nārāyaṇa thus, fought a fierce battle as long as many thousand divine years lapsed. Śrī Śaṅkara then approached lord Brahmā and said-

जितस्त्वदीयः पुरुषः पितामह
नरेण दिव्याद्भुतकर्मणा बली।
महापृष्ठकैरभिपत्य ताडित-
स्तदद्भुतं चेह दिशो दशैव॥५४॥

O Pītāmaha! It is really surprising that Nara, an excellent warrior has defeated your puruṣa as a result of giving blows with his great arrows spread at the time of the battle around the ten directions.

ब्रह्मा तमीशं वचनं बभाषे
नेहास्य जन्मान्यजितस्य शंभो।

पराजितः चैव्यतेऽसौ त्वदीयो

Brahmā said that Iśā- "This undefeated (Ajita) puruṣa has not been born here for enduring defeat from others. If it is essential to declare one defeated, your Nara is the man who actually is defeated. The Puruṣa created by me is the greater warrior.

As a reaction to that statement, lord Śaṅkara threw the Puruṣa created by Brahmā in the sun's orbit and threw that Nara in the body of Dharmaputra Nara.

Dialogue between Hari and Hara

पुलस्य उवाच

ततः करतले रुद्रः कपाले दारुणे स्थिते।

Pulastya said- "O Brahmins! As the dreadful skull (head) was stuck to the palm of lord Śaṅkara, he fell in the grip of anxiety and gloom. It caused severe grief to him.

ततः समागता रौद्रा नीलाञ्जनचयप्रभा।

Then Brahmahatyā (sin of Brāhmaṇa's murder) came near lord Śaṅkara. She was of a complexion like a cluster of Nilāñjana; her hair were of red colour; she was in creeping gesture and dreadful.

तामागतां हरो दृष्ट्वा पप्रच्छ विकरालिनीम्।

Having seen that dreadful figure, lord Śaṅkara asked- "O dreadful lady! Tell me who you are and for what purpose you have come here?"

With these words, Brahmahatyā entered into the body of Rudra who was already suffering from anxiety.

Bearing so heavy a burden of Brahmahatyā, lord Śaṅkara returned to Badrikāśrama but he did not see there the saints i.e. Nara and Nārāyaṇa.

His pain was aggravated when he could not find both the saints. In the vagary of sheer agony and worry, he approached river Yamunā but her water was dried up when he got down for a bath.

Aggrieved at the failure of all his efforts for regrettable, lord Śaṅkara ultimately visited Kurujāṅgala. He saw there lord Viṣṇu (the rider on eagle and a discus in his hand).

Chapter 4

War between Hari and Virabhadra

पुलस्त्य उवाच

कपालिजायेति सतीं विज्ञायाथ प्रजापतिः।

Pulastyā said- O Devarṣi! Lord Śāṅkara became Kapālī due to the above-said event. This was the reason why, he was ignored by Dakṣa Prajāpati. In spite of Sati being qualified with all respects and her being his own daughter, she too was not invited as she was the wife of Kapālī.

एतस्मिन्नतरे देवीं द्रष्टुं गोतमनन्दनी।

In the meantime, Jayā, the daughter of Gautama went to the mountain Mandara which had the five cave in order to see the goddess Sati.

जया मृतां सतीं दृष्टा क्रोधशोकपरिप्लुता।

Having seen that Satī met with casual death, Jayā burst into tears and began wailing.

As the sound from the wailing was piercing, it awakened lord Śaṅkara from his meditation. He came to Jayā and asked- "What is it?"

आगतो ददृशे देवीं लतामिव वनस्पतेः।
कृतां परशुना भूमौ श्लथाङ्गीं पतितां सतीम्॥ १३॥

Lord Śaṅkara saw there Satī lying on the ground like a creeper cut off with a sharp blow by an axe. Her body was as pale as a dead one.

Jayā replied- "O the ruler of three-worlds! My maternal aunt (Satī) has fallen down dead owing to sheer pain she felt when she heard that all her sisters with their husbands, Indra etc., gods and Ādityas etc. have been invited in the yajña and gone there."

पुलस्त्य उवाच
तच्छुत्वाऽथ वचो रौद्रं रुद्रः क्रोधाप्लुतो बभौ।
कुद्धस्य सर्वगत्रेभ्यो निश्चेरुः सहसार्चिषः॥ १७॥

Pulastyā said- Lord Rudra became excessively angry on hearing this fierce statement from Jayā. Flames started coming out of the body of Śaṅkara so annoyed.

O sages ! The gaṇas having a mouth similar to that of a lion appeared from the furs of Śaṅkara's body due to excessive fury. Virabhadra was the principal gaṇa among them. He then went to the Himālaya from Mandara mountain in the company of all his gaṇas and Kanakhala from there where the yajña was commenced by Dakṣa.

The gate-man Dharma then rushed towards Vīrabhadra with bows and arrows serpent like.

The principal gaṇa (Vīrabhadra) held a trident analogous to fire in one hand, a bow in another hand, an arrow in the third hand and a mace in the fourth hand and rushed to Dharma when he saw his sudden march.

Imperishable Dharmarāja confronted four armed Virabhadra with enhancing his eight arms equipped with varied weapons. He stood boldly with the intention to finish Virabhadra and held a sword, carma (shield), mace, spear, axe, goad, bow and arrow in his hands.

गणेश्वरोऽपि संकुञ्जो हनुं धर्मं सनातनम्।

Virabhadra too started showering acute arrows on Sanātana Dharma like the clouds during the rainy season so that he could be killed.

यज्ञवाटं प्रविष्टं तु वीरभद्रं गणेश्वरम्।
दृष्टा तु सहसा देवा उत्तस्युः सायुधा मुने॥ ३१॥

O sage! The gods suddenly stood up with weapons in their hands when they saw that Virabhadra has entered into the pavilion for offering.

Eight Vasus, predominant nine stars, Indra etc., twelve Āditya, eleven Rudra, Viśvedeva, Sādhyā-gaṇas, Siddha, Gandharva, Pannaga, Yaksā, eunuch (Kinnaras), Ghosts (Bhūta), Birds, Cakradhara, renowned king Dharmakīrti of Vaivasvata dynasty, Bhojakīrti, the chivalrous king of lunar dynasty, demon, devil and all people present there picked up weapons and rushed to kill the dreadful Virabhadra.

तानापतत एवाशु बाणचापधरो गणः।

The gāna Virabhadra with bow and arrows attacked them and sppedily drove them by throwing arrowheads.

ते शस्त्रवर्षमतुलं गणेशाय समुत्सृजन्।
गणेशोऽपि वरास्त्रैसांश्चिछेद च विभेद च॥ ३७॥

They all shot arrows in showers at Virabhadra. Virabhadra scattered all arrows by the expert use of his weapons.

The gods etc., ceased fighting as they all were badly injured by the arrows and weapons blown by the unique warrior Virabhadra.

ततो विवेश गणपो यज्ञमध्यं सुविस्तृतम्।

Virabhadra then entered just at the centre of that gigantic premise of yajña. The hermits engaged in offering were giving oblations to the fire there.

ततो महर्षयो दृष्टा मृगेन्द्रवदनं गणम्।

He then started shooting arrows like the flames powerful enough to penetrate the external cover of body on Virabhadra by giving a slight bend to his Sāringa bow.

ते तस्य कायमासाद्य अमोदा वै हरे: शराः।
निषेतुर्भुवि भग्नाशा नास्तिकादिव याचकाः॥४३॥

As the beggar returns with a despair in mind from the atheist, the target hitting arrows shot by Śrī Hari fell down on the ground after touching merely the body of Virabhadra.

शरांस्त्वमोद्घान्मोघत्वमापन्नान्वीक्ष्य केशवः।

Keśava intended immediately for covering Virabhadra by divine weapons when he saw the futility of arrows in their mission.

तानस्त्रान्वासुदेवेन प्रक्षिप्तानाणनायकः।

Those arrows from Vāsudeva too were destroyed by confronting with śūla, mace and arrows.

Mādhava threw his mace when he saw his weapons destroyed by Virabhadra. However, Virabhadra threw it on the earth with a blow of his trident.

Musala and Lāngala were thrown on the part of Halāyudha but these weapons too were thrown down by Virabhadra through his mace. Garuḍadhvaja severely in furiated and attacked with a discus Virabhadra when he saw the failure of attack by mace including Musala and plough.

Virabhadra (Gaṇeśvara) had however, gobbled up that discus luminating with the light of several hundred suns by leaving his śūla aside. It was done in the same way as lord Surendra had gobbled up the Madhu while disguised as a fish.

When the discus was gobbled up by Gaṇanāyaka (Virabhadra) the dark and beautiful eyes of Murāri turned red with anger. He went to Virabhadra, lifted him up at once, knocked him down on ground and started thrashing him.

Owing to the hard blows of arms and legs of Hari, the discus came out from the mouth of Virabhadra with blood when he was knocked down with a thud.

In furiated Lord Śaṅkara then restored Virabhadra to the place first determined with his weapons.

Description of Kāla-form of Śiva

पुलस्य उवाच

जटाधरं हरिर्दृष्टा क्रोधादारक्तलोचनम्।

तस्मात्स्थानादपाक्रान्त्य कुञ्जाष्टेऽन्तहितः स्थितः॥ १॥

Hari concealed him in Kubjāmra and seated him there and left his place at once when he saw Jaṭādhara¹ whose eyes were reddened with anger.

वसवोऽष्टौ हरं दृष्टा ससृपुर्वेगते मुने।

सा तु जाता सरिच्छेष्टा सीता नाम सरस्वती॥ २॥

O sage! Eight vasus were melted on account of the temperature so created by the presence of Hara. It originated the great river Sītā.

एकादश तथा सद्रास्त्रिनेत्रा वृषकेतनाः।

कान्दिशीका लयं जग्मुः समधेत्याथ शङ्करम्॥ ३॥

And Viśaketana, three-eyed eleven rudras were frightened, rushed to lord Śāṅkara and merged with him.

विश्वेऽश्विनौ च साध्याश्च पर्स्तोऽनलभास्कराः।

समासाद्य पुरोडाशं भक्षयन्तो महामुने॥ ४॥

O great sage! Viśvas, Aśvinīkumāras, Sādhyās, wind, fire and sun picked up puroḍāśa (oblation of offering) and ran away eating the same.

चन्द्रः सम मृक्षगणैर्निशां समुपदर्शयन्।

उत्पत्यासह्य गगनं स्वपदिष्टानमास्थितः॥ ५॥

The moon with the galaxy abandoned the night alone, ascended and stopped at their respective places. They withheld their movements.

कश्यपादाश्च ऋषयो जपन्तः शतसद्रियम्।

पुष्पाञ्जलिपुटा भूत्वा प्रणताः संस्थिता मुने॥ ६॥

O sage! Kaśyapa etc., hermits started chanting Śatarudriya, took flowers in their palms and stood up humbly.

1. The long tresses of hair twisted on the top of the head. (Monier Williams Sanskrit-English Dict.)

असकृद्धक्षदयिता दृष्टा रुद्रं बलाधिकम्।
शक्नादीनां सुरेशानां कृपणं विलाप ह॥७॥

Having seen Rudra mightiest among Indra etc., gods, the wife of Dakṣa began wailing frequently in a pathetic condition.

ततः क्रोधाभिभूतेन शङ्करेण महात्मना।
तलप्रहारैरमरा बहवो विनिपातिताः॥८॥

In furiated lord Śaṅkara killed numerous gods merely by slapping them with his palm.

पादग्रहरैरपरे त्रिशूलेनापरे मुने।
दृष्टाऽग्निना तथैवान्ये देवाद्याः प्रलयं गताः॥९॥

O sage! Some of them were killed by kicks, some other by blowing trident while a few among them were killed by the fire emanating eye of lord Śaṅkara.

ततः पूषा हरं वीक्ष्य विनिघ्नतं सुरासुरान्।
क्रोधाद्वाहू प्रसार्यथ प्रदुद्राव महेश्वरम्॥१०॥

The Pūṣā-sun rushed with both his arms extended towards Maheśvara when he saw lord Śaṅkara killing the gods and demons severely.

तमापतन्तं भगवान्संनिरीक्ष्य त्रिलोचनः।
बाहुभ्यां प्रतिजग्रह करेणीकेन शङ्करः॥११॥

Lord Śaṅkara caught both his arms by using his single hand when he saw him advancing.

कराभ्यां प्रगृहीतस्य शंभुनांशुमतोऽपि हि।
कराद्वुलिभ्यो निश्चेसरसुधाराः समन्ततः॥१२॥

Sambhu gave a blow so hard that the fingers of both arms with sun started flowing blood stream from all the four directions.

ततो वेगेन महता अंशुमतं दिवाकरम्।
भ्रामयामास सततं सिंहो मृगशिंशु यथा॥१३॥

He then started rotating round the sun so rapidly as the lion rotates the young stag through his jaws.

भ्रामितस्यातिवेगेन नारदांशुमतोऽपि हि।
भुजौ हस्तव्यमापन्नौ त्रुटिस्नायुबन्धनौ॥१४॥

O Nārada! The muscular joints of both arms were split and they fell short.

रुधिराल्पुतसर्वाङ्गंशुमतं महेश्वरः।
सन्निरीक्ष्योत्सर्जेनमन्यतोऽभिजगाम ह॥१५॥

When Maheśvara saw the sun soaked in blood from all joints of his body, he left him and went somewhere else.

ततस्तु पूषा विहसन्दशनानि विदर्शयन्।
प्रोवाचैह्येहि कापालिन्युनः पुनरथेश्वरम्॥१६॥

Pūṣā then began to laugh and exhibiting his teeth he frequently challenged with the words- "O Kapālī! come! come to me for a duel."

ततः क्रोधाभिभूतेन पूष्णो वेगेन शंभुना।
मुष्टिनाऽहत्य दशनाः पातिता धरणीतले॥१७॥

Sambhu gave a boxing on his jaw so hard that Pūṣā's teeth fell down on the earth.

भग्नदन्तस्तथा पूषा शोणिताभिल्पुताननः।
पपात भुवि निःसंज्ञो वज्राहत इवाचलः॥१८॥

Thus, Pūṣā fell down on the ground unconscious like a mountain hit hard by the thunderbolt. His teeth were all scattered and blood was oozing from mouth.

भगोऽभि वीक्ष्य पूषणं पतितं रुधिरोक्षितम्।
नेत्राभ्यां घोररूपाभ्यां वृषभध्वजमैक्षत॥१९॥

When Bhaga saw Pūṣā soaked in blood and fallen on the ground, he stared Vṛṣabhadhvaja with fierce eyes.

त्रिपुरघनस्ततः कुद्धस्तलेनाहत्य चक्षुषी।
निपातयामास भुवि क्षोभयन्सवर्देवताः॥२०॥

In furiated Śaṅkara (killer of Tripura demon) then slapped at the face of Bhaga fiercely resulting which both his eyes fell down on the ground.

ततो दिवाकराः सर्वे पुरस्कृत्य शतक्रतुम्।
मरुद्धिश्च हुताशैश्च भयाज्जग्मुदिशो दश॥२१॥

Ādityas in the company of Marudgaṇas and fires then ran away to the ten directions under the lead of Indra.

प्रतियातेषु देवेषु प्रह्लादाद्या दितीश्वराः।
नमस्कृत्य ततः सर्वे तस्युः प्राङ्गलयो मुने॥२२॥

O sage! On the departure of the gods, Prahlāda etc. demons bowed at the feet of Maheśvara and stood before him with folded hands.

ततसं यज्ञवाटं तु शङ्करो घोरचक्षुषा।
दर्दश दध्युं कोपेन सर्वाशैव सुरासुरान्॥ २३॥

Śaṅkara then started looking with fierce eyes at that pavilion made for offering and all gods including the demons so as to burn them into ashes.

ततो निलित्ये वीराः प्रणेमुर्दुबुस्तथा।
भयादन्ये हरं दृष्ट्वा गता वैवस्वतक्षयम्॥ २४॥

Some warriors present there were hidden due to extreme of fear, some began to salute, a few among them ran away and a certain number of them were killed by lord Śaṅkara.

ततोऽन्यस्त्रिभिन्नैर्दुर्दःसहं समवैक्षता।
दृष्ट्वात्रास्त्रिनेत्रेण भस्मीभूताभवक्षणात्॥ २५॥

Lord Maheśvara then saw three fires with his three eyes. The fires so stared at him were extinct within a second.

आनौ प्रनष्टे यज्ञोऽपि भूत्वा दिव्यवपुर्षगः।
दुद्राव विकल्वगतिर्दक्षिणासहितोऽम्बरे॥ २६॥

The yajña too turned itself in a stage of divine body when the fires were extinguished and all rushed to the sky above with Dakṣinā. Its race was a race with anxiety.

तमेवानुसारेशङ्खपमानस्य वेगवान्।
शरं पाशुपतं कृत्वा कालरूपी महेश्वरः॥ २७॥
अर्द्धेन यज्ञवाटान्ते जटाधर इति श्रुतः।
अर्द्धेन गगने शर्वं कालरूपी च कक्षते॥ २८॥

Maheśvara in the form of Kāla (the death god) put immediately Pāśupata arrow on the bow, gave tension to the string and chased yajña very fast. Lord Śaṅkara with his half-part (Ardhāniśa) was popularly known as Jaṭādhara (Śiva) in the premises of the yajña and by his other half-part in the sky is called Kālarūpa.

Nārada asked- "Please, make me know why and for what reason lord Mahādeva had burnt the body of sex-god into ashes.

पुलस्त्य उवाच

यदा दक्षसुता ब्रह्मन्सती याता यमक्षयम्।
विनाश्य दक्षयज्ञं तं विचचार त्रिलोचनः॥ २६॥

Pulastyā replied- "O Brahmin! Lord Śaṅkara began to walk to and fro in the indecisive state of mind subsequent to the death of Satī and ruination of the yajña arranged by her father Dakṣa.

ततो वृषध्वजं दृष्टा कन्दर्पः कुसुमायुधः।
अपलीकं तदोऽस्त्रेण उन्मादेनाभ्यताडयत्॥ २७॥

The sex-god with the flower weapon had blown a weapon known as Unmāda on Śaṅkara when he saw him bereaved of wife.

ततो हरः शरेणाथ उन्मादेनाशु ताडितः।
विचचार तदोभ्यतः कानननि सरांसि च॥ २८॥

Bearing the pain caused by that unmāda arrow, Śaṅkara badly intoxicated began to move in forests and reservoirs.

स्मरन्सती महादेवस्थानादेन ताडितः।
न शर्म लेखे देवर्षे बाणविद्ध इव द्विपः॥ २९॥

O divine sage! Like an elephant hit by an arrow, lord Śaṅkara began to recollect the moments of acquaintance with Satī but could not be satiated anyhow.

ततः पपात देवेशः कालिन्दीसरितं मुने।
निपमे शङ्करे चापो दग्धाः कृष्णत्वमागताः॥ ३०॥

O hermit! In the status of sheer anxiety, Śaṅkara fell down into Kālindī (Yamunā). The temperature in his body was so high that with his immersion, the water of that river boiled and turned into dark colour.

तदा प्रभृति कालिन्द्या भृङ्गाञ्जननिभं जलम्।
आस्यन्दत्पुण्यतीर्था सा केशपाशमिवावने॥ ३१॥

Since then Kālindī's water became as dark as Afijana and Bhṛīga and that holy river started flowing like the bunch of earth's hair.

ततो नदीषु पुण्यासु सरस्मु च नदेषु च।
पुलिनेषु च रम्येषु वापीषु नलिनीषु च॥ ३२॥
पर्वतेषु च रम्येषु काननेषु च सानुषु।
विचरन्स्वेच्छया नैव शर्म लेखे महेश्वरः॥ ३३॥

Mahēśvara then voluntarily strolled at a number of holy rivers reservoirs, fountains, enchanting river banks, ponds, lotus grown forests, mountains, jungles and mountain peaks but could not feel a sign of relief from the anxiety.

क्षणं गायति देवर्षे क्षणं रोदिति शङ्करः।
क्षणं ध्यायति तन्वङ्गीं दक्षकन्यां मनोरमाम्॥ ३४॥

O divine sage! sometimes he would sing, on other moments weep and sometimes think about the slim and beautiful Satī, the daughter of Dakṣa.

ध्यात्वा क्षणं प्रस्वपिति क्षणं स्वप्नायते हरः।
स्वप्ने तथेदं गदति तां दृष्टा दक्षकन्यकाम्॥ ३५॥

Now he would sleep, now he would dream and on seeing Satī in dreams, he used to blurt in these words-

निर्घणे तिष्ठ किं मूढे त्वजसे मामनिदिते।
मुष्टे त्वया विरहितो दधोऽस्मि मदनाग्निना॥ ३६॥

O cruel! Just stop O idiot! Why are you leaving me alone? O beloved! O enchanting Satī! I am burning myself in the sensual fire due to your separation.

सति सत्यं प्रकुपिता मा कोपं कुरु सुन्दरि।
पादप्रणामावनतमभिभाषितुर्महसि॥ ३७॥

O Satī! Are you really annoyed? O darling! Don't be angry. I salute you with my head bowing at your feet. You should gossip with me.

श्रूयसे दृश्यसे नित्यं सृष्ट्यसे वन्द्यासे प्रिये।
आलिङ्ग्यसे च सततं किमर्थं नापिभाषसे॥ ३८॥

O beloved! I ceaselessly listen to you, watch you, touch you, pray to you and embrace you. Why are you not talking with me?

विलपनं जनं दृष्टा कृपा कस्य न जायते।
विशेषतः पर्ति बाले ननु त्वमतिनिर्धृणा॥ ३९॥

O lady! Who is so cruel as not to express sympathy on a wailing man? Specially, who will not melt when she watches her own husband wailing. It is confirmed now that you really are cruel at heart.

त्वयोक्तानि वचांस्येवं पूर्वं मम कृशोदरि।
त्वया विना न जीवेयं तदसत्यं त्वया कृतम्॥ ४०॥

O slim lady! You had earlier said that you will not live without me but you would not stand firm in your words, your statement was untrue.

एहोहि कामसंतासं परिष्वज सुलोचने।
नान्यथा नश्यते तापः सत्येनापि शपे प्रिये॥ ४१॥

O beautiful eyed lady! Come! Come to me. I am immersed in the lust ocean. Hence, embrace me. O darling! I depose that there is no other option except that I cool down the temperature.

इत्यं विलाप्य स्वप्नान्ते प्रतिबुद्धस्तु तक्षणात्।
उत्कूजति तथाऽरण्ये मुक्तकण्ठं पुनः पुनः॥ ४२॥

When such a wailing dream was over, he immediately stood up and started weeping loudly in the forest.

तं कूजमानं विलपन्तमारात्।
समीक्ष्य कामो वृषकेतनं हि।
विव्याध चापं तरसा विनाप्य।
संतापनामा तु शरेण भूयः॥ ४३॥

When the sex-god watched at a distance that lord Śaṅkara was weeping bitterly, he took his bow soon and again shot a shaft called Saṅtāpa at him.

संतापनास्त्रेण तदा स विद्धो
भूयः स संतपतरो बभूव।

संतापयंश्चापि जगत्समग्रं
फूलकृत्य फूलकृत्य विवाशते स्मा॥ ४४॥

The Saṅtāpa arrow had made him more anxious and passionate to sex. In excess of appeal, he began to expirate from the mouth resulting anxiety spread over the whole world and the time thus passed.

तं चापि भूयो मदनो जघान
विजृंभणास्त्रेण ततो विजृम्बे।

तत्त्वं कुरुष्वामितविक्रमोऽसि॥ ४६॥

The sex-god shot Vijṛmbhaṇa weapon on Mahādeva resulting frequent yawning. At this state of body he strolled here and there and crossed the four directions. He thus reached in the world of demi-gods where he saw Pradhāna Pāñcālika, the son of the king Kubera. He accessed to him and said- "O Nephew! You are extremely chivalrous. Do today as I suggest to you."

पाञ्चालिक उवाच
यन्नाथ मां वक्ष्यसि तत्करिष्ये
सुदुष्करं यद्यपि देवसंघैः।
आज्ञापयस्वातुलवीर्यं शंखो
दासोऽस्मि ते भक्तियुतस्तथेश॥ ४७॥

Pāñcālika replied- "O master! I will execute the assignment in spite of being tough to do for the gods. O master of unique powers! O Śambhu! please, order me. I am your loyal servant."

ईश्वर उवाच

नाशं गतायां वरदाम्बिकायां

विजृम्भणोन्मादशरौर्विभिन्नो
धृतिं न विन्दामि रतिं सुखं वा॥४८॥

Maheśvara said- "My body is feeling aggravated sensuality on account of the demise of Ambikā (Sati) as she was only able to satiate me. As I am hit hard by the Vijrmbhaṇa and Unmāda shafts, patience, coitus or pleasure has departed away from me causing sheer anxiety.

विजृम्भणं पुत्र तथैव ताप-

"O son! Nobody other than you can hold the acute shafts of Vijrmbhaṇa, Sañṭāpa and Unmāda shot by sex-god. Hence, hold these within yourself."

पुलस्त्य उवाच

यशः प्रतीच्छन्स विजृम्भणादीन्।
तोषं जगामाशु ततस्त्रिशूली

Pulastyā said- "That demi-god had held all those shafts including Vijrmbhaṇa and it immediately cooled down lord Śaṅkara. Having been satisfied, he said-

हर उवाच
यस्मात्वया पुत्र सुदुर्धराणि
विजृम्भणादीनि प्रतीच्छितानि।
तस्माद्वरं त्वां प्रति पूजनाय

Mahādeva said- O son! As you have held such fierce shafts within yourself, I will endow you with a boon worth bringing in honour and obeisance for you in this whole world.

यस्त्वां यदा पश्यति चैत्रमासे

An old man, a child, young chap or a woman whosoever will either touch or worship you in the month of Caitra (March) shall immediately the intoxicated with sensuality.

O demi-god! They all will sing, dance, do merriments and play with expertise on musical instruments. They shall joke and laugh before you still bound in intoxication (Yoga).

You will be honoured and addressed with my name. You will attain popularity with the name of Pāñcālikeśa. You shall receive the highest honour and could give blessings with my pleasure. Now depart to your destination.

Under compliance with the words from Maheśvara, that demi-god immediately went to see all countries. The supreme holy state at north to Kālañjara and south to the Himālaya was the country where he finally settled down permanently. He became popular by the grace of Rudra. Lord Śaṅkara also went to Vindhya mountain when he left that place.

तत्रापि मदनो गत्वा ददर्श वृषकेतनम्।
दृष्टा प्रहर्तुकामं च ततः प्रादुदुवच्छरः॥५७॥

The sex-god reached there also and stared at Śaṅkara. In order to defend him from his encounter, lord Śaṅkara started running from there.

ततो दारुवनं घोरं मदनाभिसृतो हरः।
विवेश ऋषयो यत्र सपलीका व्यवस्थिताः॥५८॥

The sex-god chased them and at the end of such a race lord Mahādeva entered into a dense forest known as Dāruvana. The household hermits used to live there with their wives.

ते चापि ऋषयः सर्वे दृष्टा मूर्धा नताभवन्।
ततस्तान्नाह भगवान्भिक्षा मे प्रतिदीयताम्॥५९॥

Having seen lord Śaṅkara there, the hermits saluted him with sheer obeisance and the lord asked for alms from them.

ततस्ते मौनिनस्तस्युः सर्वे एव महर्षयः।
तदाऽश्रमाणि पुण्यानि परिचक्राम नारद॥६०॥

All hermits kept mum and did not respond to Śaṅkara. O Nārada! lord Śaṅkara then began to stool in all hermitages.

तं प्रविष्टं तदा दृष्टा भार्गवात्रेययोषितः।

ऋते त्वस्त्वतीमेकामनसूयां च भास्मिनीम्।

Having seen Mahādeva enter into the āśrama all, wives of Bhārgava and Ātreya except most chaste Arundhatī and Anusūyā (their mind having dedicated to their husbands) became sensuous and ejaculated.

ततः संक्षेपिताः सर्वा यत्रायाति महेश्वरः।
तत्र प्रथान्ति कामार्ता मदविह्वलितेन्द्रियाः॥६३॥

The enchanted, sensuous and passionate women of āśrama then followed lord Mahādeva wherever he went.

त्यक्त्वाऽश्रमाणि शून्यानि स्वानि ता मुनियोषितः।
अनुजग्मुर्यथा मत्तं करिण्य इव कुञ्जरम्॥६४॥

As the (she) elephants follow the intoxicated male-elephant, the wives of hermits began to run after lord Mahādeva and contravened all the rules of the household.

ततस्तु ऋषयो दृष्टा भार्गवाङ्गिरसो मुने।
क्रोधाच्चितालूबृवन्सर्वे लिङ्गोऽस्यपततां भुविः॥६५॥

O sage! Having seen such a phenomenon, Bhārgava and Aṅgirasa hermits blew a curse that his penis (liṅga) fall down on the earth.

ततः पपात देवस्य लिङ्गं पृथ्वीं विदारयत्।
अन्तर्द्वानं जगामाथ त्रिशूली नीललोहितः॥६६॥

Mahādeva's penis then fell down on the ground and it penetrated the earth where it so fell. Maheśvara then vanished from there.

ततः स पतितो लिङ्गो विभिद्य वसुधातलम्।
रसातलं विवेशाशु ब्रह्माण्डं चोर्ध्वतोऽभिनत्॥६७॥

The fallen penis then penetrated the land and entered into the nether world. Its upper portion had penetrated the cosmos.

ततश्चात्म पृथिवी गिरयः सरितो नगाः।
पातालभुवनाः सर्वे जङ्गमाजङ्गमाश्रिताः॥६८॥

The earth, mountains, rivers, trees and the entire world with active and inert organisms including the nether regions then shivered.

संक्षुब्धान्भुवनान्दृष्टा भूर्लोकादीन्यितामहः।
जगाम माधवं द्रष्टुं क्षीरोदं नाम सागरम्॥६९॥

Having seen all the worlds so shivering, lord Brahmā went to see Kṣīrasāgara.

तत्र दृष्टा हृषीकेशं प्रणिपत्य च भक्तिः।
उवाच देव भुवनाः किमर्थं क्षुभिता विभो॥७०॥

He bowed in salute to Hṛṣikeśa and said—“O lord! O sovereign god! Why have all worlds (lokas) so shivered?”

अथोवाच हरिर्ब्रह्मज्ञार्वे लिङ्गो महर्षिभिः।
पातितस्तस्य भाराता संच्चाल वसुंधरा॥७१॥

Hari replied— “O Brahmā! Some hermits have cut-off by curse the penis of Śiva and it is the burden of that penis which even earth is unable to endure."

तत्सतदङ्गुतमं श्रुत्वा देवः पितामहः।
तत्र गच्छाम देवेश एवमाह पुनः पुनः॥७२॥

Lord Brahmā inspired then frequently lord Viṣṇu to go and see there. He said- O lord of gods! Let us go there immediately.

ततः पितामहो देवः केशवश्च जगत्पतिः।
आजगमतुस्तमुदेशं यत्र लिङ्गं भवस्य तत्॥७३॥

Lord Brahmā and Keśava then reached the place where that penis (linga) had fallen.

ततोऽनन्तं हरिलिङ्गं दृष्टाऽरुह्य खगेश्वरम्।
पातालं प्रविवेशाथ विस्मयान्तरितो विष्णुः॥७४॥

Having seen the unending length of that penis, lord Viṣṇu was surprised overwhelmingly. He rode on Garuḍa and entered into the nether world.

ब्रह्मा हंसविमानेन ऊर्ध्वमाक्रम्य सर्वतः।
नैवान्तमलभद्रब्रह्मा विस्मितः पुनरागतः॥७५॥

Lord Brahmā ascended and crossed all layers of the uppermost worlds through his lotus craft (Padma Vimāna) yet failed to find the edge of that penis. Hence, he returned with sheer surprise.

विष्णुर्गत्वाऽथ पातालान्सप्त लोकपरायणः।
चक्रपाणिर्विनिष्कान्तो लेखेऽन्तं न महामुने॥७६॥

Lord Viṣṇu also searched for the edge of that penis in seven nether worlds yet he could not find it and ultimately came back above with surprise.

विष्णुः पितामहश्चोभौ हरलिङ्गं समेत्य ह।
कृताञ्जलिपुटौ भूत्वा स्तोत्रं देवौ प्रचक्नुः॥७७॥

Having failed in their efforts, both of them came to that penis and started praying.

हरिब्रह्माणावृचतुः।
नमोऽस्तु ते शूलपाणे नमोऽस्तु वृषभध्वज।
जीमूतवाहन कवे शर्वं त्र्यम्बकं शङ्कर॥७८॥

Hari and Brahmā prayed- "O Śūlapāṇe! We salute you. O Vṛśabhadhvaja! O

Jimūtavāhana! O Kavi! O Śarva! O Trayambaka! O Śaṅkara! we salute you.

Salute to Maheśvara, Maheśāna, Suvarṇākṣa, Vṛṣakapi, destroyer of Dakṣa's yajña, Kālarūpa.

O supreme lord! You are the beginning, middle and end of this universe. You are Bhagavān (enriched with six luxuries) and omnipresent. We salute you.

पुलस्त्य उवाच

एवं संस्तूयमानस्तु तस्मिन्दारुवने हरः।
स्वरूपी ताविदं वाक्यमुवाच वदतां वरः॥८१॥

Pulastyā said- The best orator Maheśvara appeared in Dāruvana when the prayer was over and said-

हर उवाच

किर्मर्थं देवतानाथौ परिभूतक्रमं त्विह।
मां स्तुवाते भृशास्वर्णं कामतापितविश्रहम्॥८२॥

Śaṅkara said- "O couple gods! Why are you praying to me here when I am tired badly, passionate for sex and severely unwell?"

भवतः देवावृचतुः पातितं लिङ्गं यदेतद्विशङ्कर।
एतत्प्रगृह्यतां भूयः अतो देव स्तुवावहे॥८३॥

The couple gods replied- "O Śaṅkara! Re-entertain the penis collapsed on earth by the hermits. This is the cause for our prayer."

हर उवाच

यद्यर्चयन्ति त्रिदशा मम लिङ्गं सुरोत्तमौ।

Siva said- "O couple gods! I re-entertain the penis once fallen only when the gods assure its worship; nonetheless it will be impossible for me.

ततः प्रोवाच भगवानेवमस्त्वति केशवः।
ब्रह्मा स्वयं च जग्राह लिङ्गं कनकपिङ्गलम्॥८५॥

Lord Keśava replied- "May it be as stated." Lord Brahmā himself entertained that yellow tint golden penis (linga).

ततश्चकार भगवांश्चातुर्वर्ण्य हराद्यने।
शास्त्राणि चैषां मुख्यानि नानेक्षिविदितानि च॥८६॥

The lord then authorised four varṇas for the worship of Śiva's linga (penis). The prime scriptures of these varṇas are popular with numerous kinds of statements regarding the worship of Śiva linga.

आद्यं शैवं परिख्यातमन्यत्पाशुपतं मुने।
तृतीयं कालवदनं चतुर्थं च कपालिकम्॥८७॥

O hermit! The first sect of those Śiva devotees' is Śaiva, the second is Pāśupata, the third is Kālabadana and the fourth sect is called Kapālī.

शिवशासीत्वयं शक्तिर्वसिष्ठस्य प्रियः सुतःः।

Vasiṣṭha's son Śakti was a follower of the Śaiva sect; Gopāyana was one of his famous disciples.

महापाशुपतश्चासीद्वरद्वाजस्तपोधनः।
तस्य शिष्योऽप्यभूद्राजा ऋषभः सोमकेश्वरः॥८९॥

Bharadvāja, a great austere hermit was the follower of Mahāpāśupata. The king of Somakesvara Rṣabha was his disciple.

कालास्यो भगवानासीदापस्तम्बस्तपोधनः।
तस्य शिष्यो बभूवाथ नामा क्राणेश्वरो मुने॥९०॥

O hermit! Āpastamba, an austere was an Ācārya of Kālabadana sect. Krātheśvara, a Vaiśya, was his disciple.

महाव्रती च धनदस्तस्य शिष्यश्च वीर्यवान्।
कर्णोदर इति ख्यातो जात्या शूद्रो महातपाः॥९१॥

Dhanada was a follower of the Kapālī (Mahāvrati) sect. Karṇodara, an austere man from Śūdra varṇa, was his disciple.

एवं स भगवान्नहा पूजनाय शिवस्य तत्।
कृत्वा तु चातुराश्रम्यं स्वमेव भवनं गतः॥९२॥

Having made a provision for lord Śiva's worship for the four varṇas by allocating

Āśramas, lord Brahmā returned to his divine abode.

गते ब्रह्मणि शर्वोऽपि उपसंहत्य तत्तदा।
लिङ्गं चित्रवने सूक्ष्मं प्रतिष्ठाय चचार ह॥९३॥

Lord Mahādeva too contracted in smaller size that linga on the departure of lord Brahmā. He established a small linga in Citravana and again started moving all around.

विचरन्तं तदा भूयो महेशं कुसुमायुधः।
आरात्स्थित्वाऽग्रते धन्वी संतापितुमृद्यतः॥९४॥

The sex-god again appeared before him and prepared for creating sensuous pain. A bow made up of flowers was in his hand.

ततस्तमग्रते द्वष्टा क्रोधाध्यातदृशा हरः।
स्मरमालोकयामास शिखाग्राद्यरणान्तिकम्॥९५॥

Having seen that the sex-god again appeared for more nuisance, Mahādeva stared at him from head to feet with extreme anger.

आलोकितस्त्रिनेत्रेण मदने द्युतिमानपि।
प्रादहृत तदा ब्रह्म्यादादारभ्य कक्षवत्॥९६॥

O Brahmin! In spite of Kāmadeva having a strong and radiant aura, lord Śiva's third eye had burnt him into ashes from feet to the head.

प्रदह्मानौ चरणौ द्वष्टाऽसौ कुसुमायुधः।
उत्सर्ज धनुः श्रेष्ठं तज्जगामाथ पञ्चधा॥९७॥

The sex-god threw his bow away and it split into five pieces when he saw his feet burning in fire.

यदासीमुष्टिष्ठस्ये तदुक्मपृष्ठं महाप्रभम्।
स चम्पकतरुजातः सुगन्धाद्यो महाद्युतिः॥९८॥

The portion at which grip is made on the bow was most radiant and fragrant and it became a scanty campaka tree when so split.

नाहस्थानं शुभाकारं यदासीद्वन्नभूषितम्।
तज्जातं केसरारण्यं बकुलं नामतो मुने॥९९॥

O hermit! The Nābhi-sthāna became a tree of Kesarāranya Bakula when so broken. It was decorated with a thunderbolt and was of a beautiful shape.

या च कोटी शुभा हासीदिन्नीलविभूषिता।
जाता सा पाटला रम्या भृङ्गराजिविभूषिता॥ १००॥

Its koṭī studded with Indranīla turned into a rose plant swarmed by the bees.

नाहेपरि तथा मुष्टौ स्थानं शशिमणिप्रभम्।
पञ्चगुल्माऽभवज्जाती शशाङ्ककिरणोज्जवला॥ १०१॥

The portion upside nāha and at the grip was studded with the Candrakānta gem converted it into a white Juhī plant with five petaled flowers.

ऊर्द्ध्वं मुष्ट्या अधः कोट्योः स्थानं विद्रुमभूषितम्।
तस्माद्द्विषुटा मल्ली संजाता विविधा मुने॥ १०२॥

O hermit! Upside grip and below two koṭīs studded with Vidrumamaṇi was converted into a Mālatī plant.

पुष्पोत्तमानि रम्याणि सुरभीणि च नारद।
जातियुक्तानि देवेन स्वयमाचरितानि च॥ १०३॥
मुमोच मार्गणान् भूम्यांछरीरे दह्यति स्मरः।
फलोपगानि वृक्षाणि संभूतानि सहस्रशः॥ १०४॥

O Nārada! Deva of the bow originated several other beautiful and fragrant flowers. Kāmadeva had thrown down his arrows on earth and all of them were converted into a number of fruit giving trees.

चूतादीनि सुगच्छीनि स्वादूनि विविधानि च।
हरप्रसादाज्जातानि भोज्यान्यपि सुरोत्तमैः॥ १०५॥

With the pleasure of Śrī Hara, there were originated numerous types of fragrant and tasty mangoes etc., fruits worth eating for the gods.

एवं दग्धा स्मरं सूरः संयम्य स्वतनुं विषुः।
पुण्यार्थं शिशिराद्रि स जगाम तपसेऽव्ययः॥ १०६॥

Thus, lord Śiva went to the Himālaya for observing penance subsequent to setting Kāmadeva into fire and maintaining balance in the body.

एवं पुरा देववरेण शंभुना

ततस्त्वनङ्गेति महाधनुर्द्वरो

Thus, the supreme god Śambhu during the distant past had burnt into ashes Kāmadeva with his bow and arrows, that great archer was thereafter called Anaṅga and worshipped first by other gods.

Chapter 7

Description of battle of Prahlāda

पुलस्त्य उवाच

ततोऽनङ्गं विभुद्द्वा ब्रह्मन्नारायणो मुनिः।
विहस्यैवं वचः प्राह कन्दर्प इह आस्यताम्॥ १॥

Pulastya said- O Brahmin! The sovereign Nārāyaṇa then smilingly addressed Anaṅga- "O Kandarpa! take your seat here."

तदक्षुब्धत्वमीक्ष्यास्य कामो विस्मयमागतः।
वसन्तोऽपि महाचिन्तां जगामाशु महामुने॥ २॥

The sex-god was stunned with surprise when he saw Nārāyaṇa unaffected by his efforts and O hermit! spring also fell into the trap of worry just then.

ततश्चाप्सरसो दृष्ट्वा स्वागतेनाभिपूज्य च।
वसन्तमाह भगवानेहेहि स्थीयतामिति॥ ३॥

Then lord greeted the divine nymphs and said to the spring- "Come, spring and take a seat here."

ततो विहस्य भगवान्मङ्गरी कुसुमावृताम्।
आदाय प्राक्मुवर्णाङ्गीमूर्वोबर्लां विनिर्ममेष्ट॥ ४॥

God Nārāyaṇa then smiled and took a bunch of flowers, put it on his thigh and thus originated a virgin whose parts of body were golden.

ऊरुद्वां सकन्दर्पो दृष्ट्वा सर्वोङ्गसुन्दरीम्।
अपन्यत तदाऽनङ्गः किमियं सा श्रिया रतिः॥ ५॥

Kandarpa saw her and began to think- "Is she my darling Rati?"

तदेव वदनं चास स्वक्षिप्तकुटिलालकम्।
सुनासावंशाधरोषमालोकनपरायणम्॥ ६॥

She is having eyes, brows, cross eye-lids, nose, upper and lower lips and appearance analogous to Rati. She has an attractive face.

तावेव चाप्यविरलौ पीवरौ मग्नचूचुकौ।
राजेतेऽस्याः कुचौ पीनौ सज्जनाविव संहतौ॥ ७॥

Her pointed breasts with fleshy nipples are fascinating and mutually compact like those of gentlemen.

तदेव तनु चार्वङ्ग्या वलित्रयविभूषितम्।
उदरं राजते श्लक्षणं रोमावलिविभूषितम्॥ ८॥

This beautiful virgin has the same belly slim, three lined, delicate and covered by furs (i.e. like Rati).

रोमावली च जघनाद्याति स्तनतटद्वयम्।
राजते भृङ्गमालेव पुलिनात्कमलाकरम्॥ ९॥

This line of furs ascending towards the breast side from the pubic region appears as a row of bees flying from the bank of a pond to the lotus flowers.

जघनं त्वतिविस्तीर्णं भात्यस्या रसनावृतम्।
क्षीरोदमथने नद्धं भुजंगेनेव मन्दरम्॥ १०॥

Her broadened navel region covered by Karadhanī appeared as if the mountain Mandara is covered by Vāsuki serpent in course of churning Kṣirasāgara.

This fascinating beauty with white complexion analogous to the pollen grown in the lotus has ascended thighs like the stem of a banana tree.

Both her knees, deep phallanges, beautiful legs without furs and both feet as bright as alaktaka are indeed fascinating.

इति संचिन्तयन्कापस्तामनिन्दितलोचनाम्।

O hermit! When Kāmadeva himself was fascinated and began to think so passionately then it is of no use to say anything about the feelings of other persons.

O Nārada! Spring too pondered merely on seeing her- "Is this the capital of Kāmadeva itself?" Or the radiance of the moon is sheltered when night is over and on account of the fear of heat generated from the sun beams.

इत्यं संचिन्तयन्नेव अवष्ट्र्याप्सरोगणम्।

The spring stopped the nymphs and sat in meditation like a sage in deep thoughts.

O great hermit! When resolute Nārāyaṇa saw Kāmadeva etc. caught in surprise, he smiled and said- "O sex-god! O nymphs! O spring! join this virgin generated from my thigh, bring her to heaven and assign Indra as a gift from my side.

इत्युक्ताः कम्पमानास्ते जग्मुर्गृहोर्वशीं दिवम्।

They all shivered deep on these words, brought Urvaśī to heaven and handed over that beautiful virgin to Indra.

O great hermit! Kāma etc. reported the master pertaining to the conduct of those sons of Dharma (i.e. Nara and Nārāyaṇa) before Indra. He was greatly amazed at this entire episode.

एतादृशं हि चरितं ख्यातिमश्यां जगाम ह।

Such a character (of Nara and Nārāyaṇa) attained supreme fame and it spread in the nether world, earth and all the eight directions.

O hermit! A dānava named Prahlāda was enthroned long long ago when most fierce Hiranyakasipu was killed.

The kings, devotees to gods and Brahmins on the earth, used to organise yajña as per the procedure prescribed in the scriptures during the regime of that demon-king.

ब्राह्मणाश्च तपो धर्मं तीर्थयात्रां च कुर्वते।
वैश्याश्च पशुवृत्तिस्थाः शूद्राः शुश्रूषणे रताः॥ २४॥

The Brahmins were engaged in penance, religious affairs and visits to holy places, the Vaiśyas with animal husbandry and the Śūdras with service to the three varṇas.

चातुर्वर्ण्यं ततः स्वे स्वे आश्रमे धर्मकर्मणि।
आवर्त्तत ततो देवा वृत्त्या युक्ताभ्यवम्नुने॥ २५॥

O hermit! The four varṇas thus kept themselves busy with their respective religious activities and heartily followed the system of their āśramas. The gods as a result were thus engrossed in their professions respectively.

ततस्तु च्यवनो नाम भागवेन्द्रो महातपाः।
जगाम नर्मदां स्नातुं तीर्थं चैवाकुलीश्वरम्॥ २६॥

Cyavana, one of great austere hermits in Bhārgava gotra (clan), one day went for having a dip in Narmadā at the holy place Akulīśvara.

तत्र दृष्ट्वा महादेवं नदीं स्नातुमवातरत्।
अवतीर्ण प्रजग्राह नागः केकरलोहितः॥ २७॥

He first bowed his head before Mahādeva and then delighted himself in the river with his bath. A serpent Kekaralohita caught that hermit when he merely stepped into the river.

गृहीतस्तेन नागेन सस्मार मनसा हरिम्।
संस्मृते पुण्डरीकाक्षे निर्विषोऽभूमहोरणः॥ २८॥

That hermit so caught (gripped) by the serpent summoned Hari in his mind and a mere chanting of the name of Puṇḍarīkākṣa, that great serpent lost the power of poison.

नीतस्तेनातिरौद्रेण पश्चगेन रसातलम्।
निर्विषश्चापि तत्याज च्यवनं भुजगोत्तमः॥ २९॥

That poisonless but fierce serpent then took the hermit Cyavana into the nether region and then freed him from his grip.

संत्यक्तमात्रो नागेन च्यवनो भार्गवोत्तमः।
च्यार नागकन्याभिः पूज्यमानः समन्ततः॥ ३०॥

Cyavana, the hermit began to live there duly honoured by the serpent daughters (Nāga-kanyās) immediately when he was freed by the serpent. He was surrounded by those serpent virgins.

विचरन्नविवेशाश्च दानवानां महत्युरम्।
संपूज्यमानो दैत्येन्द्रैः प्रह्लादोऽथ ददर्श तम्॥ ३१॥

In course of moving about voluntarily he entered one day into a vast city of the Dānavas. He was seen by Prahlāda, a king, getting due honour from the demons.

भृगुपुत्रो महातेजाः पूजां चक्रे यथार्हतः।
संपूजितोपविष्टश्च पृष्ठश्चानामयं प्रतिः॥ ३२॥

Prahlāda, the most intelligent king, duly honoured Cyavana, gave him a seat and asked the reason for his visit when he was comfortably seated there.

स चोवाच महाराज महातीर्थं महाफलम्।
स्नातुमेवागतोऽस्थद्य इष्टुं चै वाकुलेश्वरम्॥ ३३॥

He replied- O king! I had come today for a bath in the holy-place of Akulīśvara and with a passion to see the lord.

नद्यमेवावतीर्णोऽस्मि गृहीतश्चाहिना ब्लात्।
समानीतोऽस्मि पाताले दृष्टश्चात्र भवानपि॥ ३४॥

As I was just alighting into the river, a serpent suddenly gripped me, took me to the nether world and here I could see you.

एतच्छुत्वा च वचनं च्यवनस्य दितीश्वरः।
प्रोवाच धर्मसंयुक्तं स वाक्यं वाक्यकेविदः॥ ३५॥

In response to the explanation of Cyavana, the great orator Prahlāda said-

प्रह्लाद उवाच

भगवन्कानि तीर्थानि पृथिव्यां कानि चाप्तरे।
रसातले च कानि स्युरेतद्वकुं त्पमार्हसि॥ ३६॥

Prahlāda said- O lord! Kindly tell me how many holy places are there on the earth, ether and the nether world?"

च्यवन उवाच

पृथिव्यां नैमिषं तीर्थमन्तरिक्षे च पुष्करम्।
चक्रतीर्थं महाबाहो रसातलतले विदुः॥ ३७॥

Cyavana said- O chivalrous king! The most popular holy places on earth, ether and nether world are Naimiṣa, Puṣkara and Cakra tīrtha respectively.

पुलस्त्य उवाच

श्रुत्वा तद्वार्गववचो दैत्यराजो महामुने।
नैमिषं गन्तुकापोऽभूद्वानवानिदमब्रवीत्॥ ३८॥

Pulastya said- O great hermit! Having heard this, Prahlāda tempted to visit Naimiṣa and ordered the demons-

प्रह्लाद उवाच

उत्तिष्ठत्वं गमिष्यामः सातुं तीर्थं हि नैमिषम्।
द्रक्ष्यामः पुण्डरीकाक्षं पीतवाससमच्युतम्॥ ३९॥

Prahlāda ordered- "Be ready, all of us will go for a bath in the holy Naimiṣa and see there Puṇḍarīkākṣa putting Pītāmbara and who is called Acyuta.

पुलस्त्य उवाच

इत्युक्ता दानवेन्द्रेण सर्वेति दैत्यदानवाः।
चक्ररुद्धोगमतुलं सिर्जग्मुश्च रसातलात्॥ ४०॥

Pulastya said- "All demons made compliance to the order, became ready and then came out from that nether world."

ते समधेत्य दैतेया दानवाश्च महाबलाः।
नैमिषारण्यमागम्य स्नानं चक्रमुदान्विताः॥ ४१॥

Those mightiest Dānavas took a bath in Naimiṣāraṇya with pleasure.

ततो दितीश्वरः श्रीमान्मृगव्यां स चचार ह।

The demon king Prahlāda then wished for hunting and started strolling in the forest adjacent to that place. He while strolling saw Sarasvatī river which had cool and pure water.

तस्यादूरे महाशाखं सालवृक्षं शरैश्चितम्।
ददर्श बाणापरान्मुखे लग्नान्परस्परम्॥ ४३॥

He further saw, at a little distance, a huge pīpala tree having vast extended branches but it was shot by arrows stuck there. Some arrows were compact at their points (heads).

ततस्तानद्वुताकारान्बाणान्नागोपवीतकान्।

Prahlāda became angry when he saw those nāgopavīta arrows having excellent shape.

स ददर्श ततोऽदूरात्कृष्णाजिनधरौ मुनी।

He then saw two hermits engrossed deep in penance. They had put the hide of a black stag on the body and had long matted hair.

तयोश्च पर्श्योर्दिव्ये धनुषी लक्षणान्विते।
शार्ङ्गभाजगवं चैव अक्षय्यै च महेषुधी॥ ४६॥

There were kept at their sides, Śāriiga and Ajagava divine bows and two grand and undepleting arrow-holders (tarakasa).

तौ दृष्टाऽमन्यत तदा दाम्भिकाविति दानवः।

किं भवद्द्वयां समारब्धं दद्मं धर्मविनाशनम्।
कव तपः कव जटाभारः कव चेमौ प्रवरायुधौ॥ ४८॥

The demon king Prahlāda deemed them pomp and egoistic and said to them- why are you both doing such ostentation? One side you are immersed in penance and put matted hair so long while you have kept these divine weapons on the other.

अयोवाच नरो दैत्यं का ते चिन्ता दितीश्वर।
सामर्थ्ये सति यः कुर्यात्तसंपद्येत तस्य हि॥ ४९॥

Nara then replied- "O demon king! Why are you so worried about our possession? If someone is competent to execute anything particular, he would have naturally the concerning equipment."

अयोवाच दितीशस्तौ का शक्तिर्युवयोरिह।
मयि तिष्ठति दैत्येन्द्रे धर्मसेतुप्रवर्तके॥ ५०॥

Prahlāda said- When I am here, the sole founder of religion, what power should you both have?

नरसं प्रत्युवाचाथ आवाभ्यां शक्तिर्लज्जिता।
न कश्चिच्छक्तुयाज्जेतुं नरनारायणौ युधि॥ ५१॥

Nara replied- "We possess supreme powers. Nobody can dare to battle with us (Nara and Nārāyaṇa) in the battle-field.

दैत्येश्वरसतः कुद्धः प्रतिज्ञामारुरोह च।
यथाकर्थचिज्जेष्यामि नरनारायणौ रणे॥ ५२॥

Prahlāda then promised- "I will defeat Nara and Nārāyaṇa in battle by virtue of my divine powers."

इत्येवमुक्त्वा वचनं महात्मा

With this resolution, great Prahlāda posted his army at the frontier of that forest, gave tension to his bow, tied the string on it and thus made a challenging sound by pulling and dropping the string.

Nara picked up his Ājagava bow and shot several sharp arrows. These arrows were, however, cut-off by the arrows having several wings shot by Prahlāda. All those arrows were thus shattered into pieces.

Having seen the unique power of Prahlāda and the arrows split by him, Nara gave a bend to his bow again and shot a number of arrows.

एकं नरो द्वौ दितिजेश्वरश्च

नरसु बाणान्प्रमुमोच पञ्च

In a counter to the single arrow from Nara, Prahlāda shot two, three when two arrows were shot by Nara and six arrows when five arrows were shot by Nara.

स चर्षिमुख्यो द्विचतुश्च दैत्यो

O Brahmin! Prahlāda shot eight arrows when seven were shot by Nara and ten arrows for nine arrows from him.

ततोऽप्युत्तरं संख्येतरान्हि बाणान्।

Prahlāda shot fifteen arrows when Nara shot twelve arrows at him. Similarly, he shot seventy-two arrows when Nara shot thirty six arrows.

Three hundred arrows here shot by demon king when Nara shot one hundred arrows. He again shot one thousand arrows against six hundred arrows from Nara's side. Both of them then shot numerous arrows in order to defeat each other.

ततः पत्रिभिर्वीरौ सुभृशं नरदानवौ।
तदा वरान्वैर्युद्धेतां घोररूपैः परस्परम्॥ ६०॥

Nara then covered the earth, ether and directions through a pile of arrows blown. Prahlāda too on his part split them all by shooting arrows having gold wings.

ततस्तु दैत्येन वरास्त्रपाणिना

Both these warriors then hit fierce weapons and arrows at one another.

ततस्तु दैत्येन वरास्त्रपाणिना

महेश्वरास्त्रं पुरुषोत्तमेन

Prahlāda then took a supreme weapon in hand and put Brahmāstra on his bow while Nara (Puruṣottama) exercised Māheśvarāstra. Both these weapons collided with each other and were destroyed simultaneously.

ब्रह्मास्त्रे तु प्रशमिते प्रह्लादः क्रोधमूर्छितः।

Having seen that Brahmāstra failed in its target, Prahlāda was in furiated. He picked up his mace and jumped down from his chariot.

गदापाणिं समायातं दैत्यं नारायणस्तदा।
दृष्टाऽथ पृष्ठतश्चक्रे नरं योद्धुमनाः स्वयम्॥ ६ ४॥

When Nārāyaṇa saw Prahlāda advancing with his mace, he pulled back Nara and came in front for coupling with his attack.

O Nārada! Prahlāda, the demon king with his mace then rushed towards great chivalrous Nārāyaṇa who was with his Śāringa bow.

Chapter 8

Boon offering to Prahlāda

पुलस्त्य उवाच

शार्हपाणिनमायातं दृष्टाऽग्रे दानवेश्वरः।

परिश्राप्य गदा वेगामूर्धि साध्यमताडयत्॥ १॥

Pulastya said- The demon king gave a strong blow on the head of Sādhyā (Nārāyaṇa) when he saw him marching forward.

ताडितस्याथ गदया धर्मपुत्रस्य नारद।

नेत्राभ्यामपतद्वारि वह्निवर्षनिभं भुवि॥ २॥

O Nārada! On account of the severe pain caused by such a hard blow, tears like fire-rain fell from the eyes of Nārāyaṇa onto the ground.

मूर्धि नारायणस्यापि सा गदा दानवार्पिता।

जगाम शतधा ब्रह्मच्छेलशृङ्खे यथाऽशनिः॥ ३॥

O Brahmin! As the thunderbolt is split when it is fallen on the mountain peak, the mace blown on the head of Nārāyaṇa was split into several hundred pieces.

ततो निवृत्य दैत्येन्द्रः समास्थाय रथं द्रुतम्।

आदय कार्मुकं वीरसूणाद्वाणं समाददे॥ ४॥

The demon king then turned back immediately, rode on his chariot and took out an arrow from his tarakasa.

आनन्द्य चापं वेगेन गार्ढपत्राञ्जिलीमुखान्।

मुमोच साध्याय तदा क्रोधाभ्यकारितमानसः॥ ५॥

He then in blind fury shot a number of arrows having vulture wings at Nārāyaṇa.

तानापतत एवाशु बाणांश्चन्द्रार्द्धसन्निभान्।

चिच्छेद बाणैरपरैर्निर्बिभेद च दानवम्॥ ६॥

Nārāyaṇa cut-off those half-moon shaped arrows with his arrows and some other arrows were also shot to hit at Prahlāda.

ततो नारायणं दैत्यो दैत्यं नारायणं शरैः।

आविष्येतां तदाऽन्योन्यं मर्मभिद्धिरजह्नगैः॥ ७॥

Then Nārāyaṇa and Prahlāda both exercised a number of acute and direct hitting arrows on each other.

ततोऽस्त्रे संनिपातो देवानामभवन्मुने।
दिदृशूणां तदा युद्धं लघुं चित्रं च सुषु च॥८॥

O hermit! A crowd of gods desirous to see this short-term, excellent and hurried battle gathered in the sky.

ततः सुराणां दुन्दुभ्यस्त्व खेऽवाद्यन्तं महास्वनाः।
पुष्पवर्षमनौपम्यं मुमुक्षुः साध्यदैत्ययोः॥९॥

Those gods then played the trumpets making a loud noise and showered flowers on both the warriors.

ततः पश्यत्सु दैत्येषु गगनस्थेषु तावुभौ।
अयुध्येतां महेष्वासौ प्रेक्षकप्रीतिवर्द्धनम्॥१०॥

These great warriors and archers then fought a war throwing in surprise the crowd of spectators in the sky who all were gods.

बबन्धतुस्तदाऽकाशं तावुभौ शरवृष्टिभिः।
दिशश्च विदिशश्चैव छादयेतां शरोत्करैः॥११॥

Both of them shot numerous arrows and these covered the entire sky. All directions and the angles of those directions were filled with the stock of arrows so blown.

ततो नारायणश्चापं समाकृष्य महामुने।

तदा दैत्येष्वरः कुदृशापमानम्य वेगवान्।

O great hermit! Nārāyaṇa exercised acute arrows and hit hard at the sensitive spots of Prahlāda's body while Prahlāda too hit at the heart region, both arms and on the face of Nārāyaṇa.

ततोऽस्यतो दैत्यपतेः कार्मुकं मुष्ठिबन्धनात्।
चिच्छेदैकेन बाणेन चन्द्रार्धाकरवर्चसा॥१४॥

Nārāyaṇa then shot an acute half-moon shaped arrow and cut-off the bow held by Prahlāda just from the portion where the fist is made.

अपास्यत धनुश्छिन्नं चापमादाय चापरम्।
अधिज्यं लाघवात्कृत्वा वर्व निशिताञ्छरान्॥१५॥

Prahlāda threw immediately that bow and replaced it with another. He then shot a shower of arrows at Nārāyaṇa.

तानप्यस्य शरान्साध्याश्छित्त्वा बाणैरवारथत्।
कार्मुकं च क्षुरप्रेण चिच्छेद पुरुषोत्तमः॥१६॥

Nārāyaṇa again split those arrows and cut-off that bow too.

छिन्नं छिन्नं धनुदैत्यस्त्वन्यदन्यत्समाददे।
समादत्तं तदा साध्यो मुने चिच्छेद लाघवात्॥१७॥

O hermit! Prahlāda replaced one after another bows but all were cut-off frequently by Nārāyaṇa with his extreme expertise in archery.

संछिन्नेष्वयं चापेषु जग्राह दितिजेष्वरः।
परिघं दारुणं दीर्घं सर्वलोहमयं दृढम्॥१८॥

Prahlāda, when all bows were over, picked up a fierce and formidable Parigha made up of iron in large quantum.

परिगृहाश्च परिघं भ्रामयामास दानवः।
भ्राम्यमाणं स चिच्छेद नाराचेन महामुनिः॥१९॥

He thus gave a circular move to Parigha but, in the meantime, Nārāyaṇa shot an arrow and it was cut into parts.

छिन्ने तु परिघे श्रीमान्ग्रहादो दानवेष्वरः।
मुहूरं भ्राम्य वेगेन प्रचिक्षेप नराग्रजे॥२०॥

When Parigha was cut-off, Prahlāda gave a circle to Mudgara and threw it at Nārāyaṇa.

तमापतन्तं बलवान्मार्गणैर्दशभिर्मुने।
चिच्छेद दशाधा साध्यः स छिन्नो न्यपतद्धुविः॥२१॥

O hermit! The mighty Nārāyaṇa shot ten arrows and cut that Mudgara into ten pieces. It thus fell on the ground.

मुहूरे वितथे जाते प्रासमाविद्य वेगवान्।
प्रचिक्षेप नराग्राय तं च चिच्छेद धर्मजः॥२२॥

Prahlāda took Prāsa and threw it at Nārāyaṇa when he saw that attack by Mudgara has failed. Nārāyaṇa cut it also with his arrows.

प्रासे छिन्ने ततो दैत्यः शक्तिमादाय चिक्षिपे।
तां च चिच्छेद बलवान्क्षुरप्रेण महातपाः॥ २३॥

Prahlāda on failure of attack by Prāsa, took Śakti and threw it immediately but it was also cut into pieces by Nārāyaṇa.

छिन्नेषु तेषु शस्त्रेषु दानवोऽन्यमहद्भुः।
समादाय ततो बाणैरवतस्तार नारद॥ २४॥

O Nārada! The demon king then took other supreme bows (Mahādhanuṣa) and showered arrows on Nārāyaṇa when the stock of all other weapons was finished and could do nothing.

ततो नारायणो देवो दैत्यनाथं जगद्गुरुः।
नाराचेनाजघानाथं हृदयेऽसुरतापसः॥ २५॥

Then Jagadguru and supreme austere Nārāyaṇa made a blow with Nārāca just at the heart of the demon king.

स भिन्नहृदयो ब्रह्मन्देवेनाद्भुतकर्मणा।
निपात रथोपस्थे तमपोवाह सारथिः॥ २६॥

O Brahmin! That demon king fell down at the middle portion of his chariot on account of the severe blow at the heart region by Nārāca (a weapon). His charioteer then immediately took him away.

स संज्ञा सुचिरेणैव प्रतिलभ्य दितीश्वरः।

The demon king came back to consciousness after many hours but he again appeared at that place for another battle. A strong bow this time was in his hand.

तमागतं संनिरीक्ष्य प्रत्युवाच नराग्रजः।
गच्छ दैत्येन्द्र योत्स्यामः प्रातस्त्वाह्निकमाचर॥ २८॥

Having seen him reappeared, Nārāyaṇa said- "O demon king! we will not fight in the morning. Go back and perform Āñhika-karma as prescribed for the morning."

एवमुक्तो दितीशस्तु साध्येनाद्भुतकर्मणा।
जगाम नैमिषारण्यं क्रिया चक्रे तदाऽह्निकोम्॥ २९॥

Prahlāda returned, visited Naimiṣāraṇya and performed Āñhika-karma there.

एवं युध्यति देवे च प्रह्लादो हयसुरो मुनि।
रात्रौ चिन्तयते युद्धे कथं जेष्यामि दाम्भिकम्॥ ३०॥

O hermit! Prahlāda kept his mind busy throughout the night on a strategy to defeat Nārāyaṇa by duly recollecting the experiences of the day.

एवं नारायणेनासौ सहायुध्यत नारद।
दिव्यं वर्षसहस्रं तु दैत्यो देवं न चाजयत्॥ ३१॥

O Nārada! Prahlāda fought for several thousand divine years with Nārāyaṇa; still he could not win him over.

ततो वर्षसहस्रान्ते हाजिते पुरुषोत्तमे।
पीतवाससमधेत्य दानवो वाक्यमब्रवीत्॥ ३२॥

When he could not win Nārāyaṇa in spite of the tremendous battle with him in which he applied his all skill and expertise, he went to lord Viṣṇu and said-

किमर्थं देवदेवेश साध्यं नारायणं हरिम्।
विजेतुं नाऽद्य शक्नोमि एतन्मे कारणं वद॥ ३३॥

O Mahādeva! Please tell me the reason why I could not win victory over Nārāyaṇa till date?

पीतवासा उवाच

दुर्जयोऽसौ महाबाहुस्त्वया प्रह्लाद धर्मजः।
साध्यो विप्रवरो धीमान्वृद्धे देवासुरैरपि॥ ३४॥

Lord Viṣṇu replied- "O Prahlāda! the great chivalrous son of Dharma is beyond your powers and you cannot defeat him. Those intelligent Sādhya Devas are invincible and undefeatable even by all the gods.

प्रह्लाद उवाच

यद्यसौ दुर्जयो देव मया साध्यो रणाजिरे।
तत्कार्यं यत्रतिज्ञातं तदसत्यं भविष्यति॥ ३५॥

Prahlāda said- "O god! If those Sādhya deities are unconquerable, what will then be of my promise? It will then prove a mere fallacy.

हीनप्रतिज्ञो देवेश कथं जीवेत मादृशः।
तस्मात्तवाग्रतो विष्णो करिष्ये कायशोषणम्॥ ३६॥

"O lord! How can a man like me live life when spotted as false and resolute? O Viṣṇu! I will therefore, give-up my breathing before you."

पुलस्त्य उवाच

इत्येवमुक्त्वा वचनं देवाग्रे दानवेश्वरः।
शिरः स्नातस्तदा तस्यौ गृणन्नह्य सनातनम्॥ ३७॥

Pulastyā said- "With these words the demon king Prahlāda set his breathing in head, seated himself there and started chanting the hymns relating to everlasting Brahma."

ततो दैत्यपतिं विष्णुः पीतवासाऽब्रवीद्वच्चः।
गच्छ जेष्ठसि भक्त्या तं न युद्धेन कथंचन॥ ३८॥

Lord Viṣṇu then said to Prahlāda- "Go there again. Remember that you can only win them with devotion and not by ensuing battle."

प्रह्लाद उवाच

मया जितं देवदेव त्रैलोक्यमपि सुव्रत।
न स्थातुं त्वत्सादेन शक्यं किमुत रोषतः॥ ३९॥

Prahlāda said- O god of gods! O great resolute! I have won the three-world by virtue of having your pleasure with me. What to say about these sons of Dharma.

मया जितं देवदेव त्रैलोक्यमपि सुव्रत।
जितोऽयं त्वत्सादेन शकः किमुत धर्मजः॥ ४०॥

भगवानुवाच

परितुष्टोऽस्मि ते दैत्य स्तवेनानेन सुव्रता।

भक्त्या त्वनन्यया चाहं त्वया दैत्य पराजितः॥ ५६॥

Lord said- O great resolute! O Daitya! I am pleased with your prayer. O Daitya! This exclusive devotion has defeated me.

पराजितश्च पुरुषो दैत्य दण्डं प्रयच्छति।

दण्डार्थं ते प्रदास्यामि वरं वृणु यमिच्छसि॥ ५७॥

O Daitya! The defeated man is given punishment but instead of receiving any punishment from you, it is I who will bless you. Ask for anything that you desire.

Prahļāda said- O Nārāyaṇa! You are competent to bless me with what I ask for. Hence, O Jagannātha! May the evil committed on my part through body, mind and speech in course of fighting, all that may be absolved. I pray and ask for it. Please, bless me with this boon.

Nārāyaṇa said- O demon king! May it be as you wish. May your evils so committed be absolved. O demon! Ask for another thing. I will render it also.

प्रह्लाद उवाच

या या जायेत मे बुद्धिः सा सा विष्णो त्वदश्रिता।

देवाचर्ने च निरता त्वचिता त्वत्परायणा॥ ६१॥

Prahļāda said- O Viṣṇu! Whatever inspiration would get birth in my mind may that all be shelter to you, for worship to god and for meditation on you.

नारायण उवाच

एवं भविष्यत्यसुर वरमन्यं यमिच्छसि।

Nārāyaṇa said- O demon! It shall be as desired. O chivalrous! Ask more whatever you like. I shall bless all that without application of my analysis.

प्रह्लाद उवाच

Prahlāda said- O Adhokṣaja! I have got everything with your grace. May my popularity live long with your grace.

नारायण उवाच

अजस्त्रामस्थापि मत्त्रासादाद्यविष्यसि॥ ६४॥

Nārāyaṇa said- It shall be as asked. Besides it, you shall be immortal, always youthful and invulnerable with my grace.

O lion to the demon dynasty! Go back to your residence and always be busy with religious deeds. You will not be betrayed by the bondage of Karma (deed) since your mind will be always with me.

Rule ceaselessly over the demon subjects. O Daitya! Observe supreme religion as prescribed for your race.

पुलस्त्य उवाच

इत्युक्तो लोकनाथेन प्रह्लादो देवमद्वीती।

Pulastyā said- When these words on blessing were over, Prahlāda said to god- "O Jagadguru! Tell me, how should I regain the state, already abandoned?"

तमुवाच जगत्स्वामी गच्छ त्वं निजमाश्रमम्।

हितोपदेष्टा दैत्यानां दानवानां तथा भवा॥ ६८॥

The lord of the universe (Viṣṇu) said- Return to your residence and be preceptor to the Daityas and Dānavas.

नारायणेनैवमुक्तः स तदा दैत्यनाथकः।
प्रणिपत्य विमुङ् तुष्टे जगाम नगरं निजम्॥ ६९॥

Prahlāda accepted this suggestion, bowed before the lord and returned to his residence thereafter.

दृष्टः सभाजितश्चापि दानवैरस्थकेन च।
निमन्त्रितश्च राज्याय न प्रत्यैच्छत्स नारद॥ ७०॥

O Nārada! Andhaka and the Dānavas greeted Prahlāda on his return, requested to accept the throne again but he did not accept that offer.

राज्यं परित्यज्य महासुरेन्द्रो
न्योजयन् सत्पथि दानवेन्द्रान्।
ध्यायन्स्मरन्केशवमप्रमेयं

The great demon king (Prahlāda) thus abounded the state, preached to the Dānavas the ethics, engrossed himself in unique Keśava and attained purity of body through Yoga.

एवं पुरा नारद दानवेन्द्रो

O Nārada! long long ago Prahlāda thus defeated by Puruṣottama Nārāyaṇa, abandoned his state voluntarily and attained supreme position by virtue of his mind exclusively concentrated on lord Nārāyaṇa.

Description of battle of demons and gods

नारद उवाच

Nārada asked- "O hermit! Why did Prahlāda coronate the blind Andhaka in spite of his being well conversant with rules of everlasting Rājadharma?"

देवादिभिः सह कथं समास्ते तद्वदस्व मे॥ ३॥

Nārada asked again- O great resolute! Tell me what was done by Andhaka after the coronation and what was his behaviour with the gods?

शुक्रं पुरोहितं कृत्वा समध्यास्ते ततोऽन्यकः॥ ६॥

Pulastya replied- Andhaka after the coronation, sat in penance for the pleasure of three-eyed lord Mahādeva. He thus was bestowed with powers by the undefeated gods, siddha, hermits and serpents, unburnt by fire and undrowned in water from lord Mahādeva. He then held the rein of state under the priesthood of Śukrācārya.

तत्थक्षेत्रे समुद्योगं देवानामन्यकोऽसुरः।

The demon Andhaka then developed war-craft and strategy for conquering the gods. He thus defeated all the kings on earth.

A fierce battle was then fought. O Nārada! The entire universe was covered with yellow coloured dust. It was so thick that a father was unable to recognise his son and a son his father. O great resolute! Some soldiers began to blow their weapons on their own people and some others began to attack the opponents on account of being tough to recognise.

They were crossing that river through the boats made of broken chariots yet were busy in blowing sharp weapons on each other.

The monsters and demi-gods as also Piśācas were very glad to see such a fierce battle between the demons and gods in which both were meeting to destruction while it was dreadful to the cowards. The Piśāca and monsters were sipping concentrated blood and eating flesh with mirth. The carnivorous birds were busy piercing the flesh in pieces and they would reveal annoyance had any other bird come and interfered with their work.

Showering arrows and making attack with acute weapons those people gave an extreme flow to a fierce battle river whose flow was analogous to that of Mandākinī.

Andhaka too reciprocated the attack on Indra by shooting at him numerous arrows having the shape of peacock wings.

तावन्योन्यं सुतीक्षणात्रैः शरैः सन्नतपर्वभिः।

रुक्मपुड्खैर्महावैराजघतुर्सभावपि॥ ३॥

Both of them injured each other by shooting the arrows of bend nodes, wing shaped and most acute.

Aggrieved Indra then gave a circular motion to thunderbolt and threw it at Andhaka. Andhaka saw it and O Nārada! he also attacked with arrows, weapons and arms. As the fire burns in ashes the trees, the thunderbolt had burnt them all.

ततोऽतिवेगिनं वज्रं दृष्ट्वा बलवतां वरः।

The mightiest Andhaka then jumped from the chariot down without weapon in hand and stood on ground when he saw thunderbolt rapidly approaching him.

रथं सारथिना सार्द्धं साश्वद्वजसकूबरम्।

भस्मं कृत्वाऽथ कुलिशमन्यकं समुपाययौ॥ ७॥

That thunderbolt first burnt into ashes the chariooteer, horse, flag and Kūbara including chariot and then accessed to Andhaka.

तमापतनं वेगेन मुष्टिनाऽऽहत्य भूतले।

The mighty Andhaka blew his fist on thunderbolt knocked it down and began to yell with anger.

तं गर्जमानं वीक्ष्याथ वासवः सायकैर्दृढम्।
वर्वर्ष तान् वारयन् स समध्यायाच्छतक्रुम्॥ ९॥

Indra shot a shower of arrows at him when he saw him yelling in anger. He shattered them all and then rushed to Satakratu (Indra).

आजघान तलेनेभं कुम्भमध्ये पदा करेम।

He slapped at the stomach of Airāvata and hit hard at his trunk by foot. He further gave a sharp blow on his tusk and broke it down.

वाममस्य तथा पार्श्वं समाहत्याच्छकस्वरन्।

And Andhaka then hurriedly hit at the side of that elephant by his left fist. It was intolerable and the giant elephant thus fell down on the ground.

गजेन्द्रात्पतमानाद्य अवप्लुत्य शतक्रतुः।
पाणिना वत्रमादाय प्रविवेशामरावतीम्॥ १२॥

Indra jumped from Airāvata when it was falling, took the thunderbolt in hand and moved hurriedly to Amarāvatī.

पराद्मुखे सहस्राक्षे तद्वत्तब्लं महत्।
पातयामास दैत्येन्द्रः पादमुष्टितलादिभिः॥ १३॥

That demon-king used frequently his fist, legs, hands and killed a considerable part of the divine army when Indra showed his back to the battle.

ततो वैवस्वतो दण्डं परिश्राम्य द्विजोत्तमः।

O great Brahmin! Yama then rushed toward Prahlāda to give a sharp blow with his dañḍa to which he was giving circular motion rapidly.

तमापतनं बाणौर्धैर्वर्व रविनन्दनम्।

When the chivalrous son of Hiranyakaśipu saw the son of Rabi (Yama) marching forward, a shower of arrows flow from his bow.

तं बाणवृष्टिमतुलां दण्डेनाहत्य भास्करिः।
शातयित्वा प्रधिक्षेप दण्डं लोकभयंकरम्॥ १६॥

Yamarāja destroyed that cluster of arrows through his dañḍa and threw them with full might on Prahlāda.

स वायुपथमास्थाय धर्मराजकरे स्थितः।

जज्वाल कालाग्निभो यद्वद्दृशुं जगत्त्यम्॥ १७॥

Having discharged from the hand of Yama, that dañḍa began luminating in flames like Kälagni. It appeared as if the time for destruction of three-world has come.

जाज्वल्यमानमायानं दण्डं दृशदितेः सुताः।

प्राकोशन्ति हतः कष्टं प्रहादोऽयं यमेन हि॥ १८॥

The Daityas began crying when they saw Käladañḍa forwarding- "Alas! Prahlāda is now killed by Yamarāja."

तमाक्रन्दितमाकर्ण्य हिरण्याक्षसुतोऽन्धकः।

प्रोवाच मा भैष्ठ मयि स्थिते कोऽयं सुराधमः॥ १९॥

Having attracted to their cries, Andhaka cooled them by saying- "Don't be afraid. What is the existence of this meanest god till I am living."

इत्येवमुक्त्वा वचनं वेगेनाभिससार च।

जग्राह पाणिना दण्डं हसन् सच्येन नारद॥ २०॥

O Nārada! He rushed with these words and caught that dañḍa with the left hand smilingly.

तमादाय ततो वेगाद्भ्रामयामास चान्धकः।

जगर्ज च महानादं यथा प्रावृषि तोयदः॥ २१॥

Andhaka then gave it a circular motion and cried in anger so loud as if clouds during rainy season thundered.

प्रहादं रक्षितं दृश्वा दण्डादृत्येश्वरेण हि।

साखुवादं दर्दुर्हष्टात्यदानवयूथणाः॥ २२॥

When the commanders in Daitya and Dānavas' army saw Prahlāda defended by Andhaka, they cheered loud and tendered gratitude for him.

भ्रामयन्तं महादण्डं दृश्वा भानुसुतो मुने।
दुःसंहं दुर्धरं पत्वा अन्तर्धानमगायामः॥ २३॥

O hermit! When Yama, the son of Sūrya saw Andhaka has gripped the Mahādaṇḍa and giving in circular motion; he immediately vanished from there assuming it intolerable and acute to bear.

अन्तहिते धर्मराजे प्रह्लादोऽपि महामुने।
दारयामास बलवान्देवसैन्यं समन्ततः॥ २४॥

O great hermit! When Yama so vanished, mighty Prahlāda began to kill the divine army all around.

When Varuṇa riding on Śiśumāra (sūnīśa) had fastened the demons with Pāśa and began to give hard blows from his mace, Virocana immediately appeared there to face him. He gave hard blows with his tomaras, śaktis, arrows, mudgaras, kaṇapa and spears on Varuṇa.

ततस्तं गदयाऽभ्येत्य पातयित्वा धरातले।

Varuṇa rushed at him, hit him hard with his mace, knocked him down and gripped his elephant by Pāśa (strings).

तान्याशाङ्क्षतथा चक्रे वेगाच्च दनुजेश्वरः।

Virocana split in several pieces those pāśas. O Nārada! He caught the loin of Varuṇa in a hard grip.

ततो दन्ती च शृङ्खलाभ्यां प्रचिक्षेप तदाऽव्ययः।

The elephant imperishable then blew its teeth and knocked down Varuṇa on ground. He then crushed him with his chariot under its huge feet.

तं मर्द्यमानं वीक्ष्याथ शशाङ्कः शिशिरांशुमान्।

Having seen Varuṇa so crushed, the moon god rushed there and shot arrows on the elephant.

The elephant suffered severe pain but was not afraid of crushing Varuṇa under its feet. His feet were churning Varuṇa's body barbarously.

O great hermit! Chivalrous Varuṇa gripped tightly both feet of the elephant, lifted his head and body by taking support from his hands and feet, gripped the elephant's tail, fastened Virocana with the serpent and threw him along with the elephant, the chariot and charioteer up into the sky.

As Bhāskara once collapsed the city consisting of multi-storeyed buildings, apparatus, gates and palaces pertaining to Sukeśī, the elephant thrown by Varuṇa fell with a heavy thud on the ground.

Varuṇa then rushed to slaughter other Daityas with mace and Pāśa in his hand. Daityas began to cry in pain as loud as the clouds thunder.

हाहा हतोऽसौ वरुणेन वीरो

Having heard the grievous call from Daityas, Jambha etc. prominent Daityas rushed so fast towards Varuṇa as the insects rush to the flames.

When Varuṇa saw such a composite attack from the Daityas, he left Virocana, immediately spread Pāśa in its full length, gave a circular motion to mace and turned towards Jambha etc. enemies.

As the shield of Maya was penetrated, his injured body fell down on the ground on account of the severe blow from śakti. Śambara's throat too began burning.

That demon began weeping so loudly as the intoxicated elephant trumpets in pain when attacked by a lion. This was due to burning from fire so erupted.

Having heard that piteous cry, Andhaka filled with anger said- "Āha! What is it? Who has defeated Maya and Śambara in battle?

The demon warriors then reported- "The fire is burning him. Rescue him immediately. Nobody other than you can prevent the fire in the battle.

O great hermit! As soon as the report was over, Andhaka picked up Parigha and rushed towards the fire ordering him to stop, stop now.

He gave a sharp blow on the head of fire with a weapon. The fire so injured, then left Śambara and rushed immediately towards Andhaka.

Andhaka again hit hard with Parigha on the head of fire. The fire god could not tolerate such a sharp blow one after another; was badly frightened and ran away from the battle-field.

Andhaka, the most chivalrous demon, then gave sharp blows from his arrows to the wind, moon, sun, Sādhyā, Rudra, Aśvinikumāras, Vasus and giant serpents. They all could not stand there and departed from the battle-field.

Thus, Andhaka subjugated the entire armies of Indra, Rudra, Yama, Soma etc., praised by the dānavas and then descended onto the earth.

He then subjugated all kings, imposed taxes on them, enslaved the entire movable and immovable world and lastly, entered into the nether world and accessed to his Aśmaka city.

In order to render services to Andhaka, then great king to Dānava, Gandharvas including nymphs, Vidyādharaś and group of Siddhas came down to the nether world and began residing there.

Pārvatī in chaste women, Kapilā in cows, blue bull in bulls and Vaitaraṇī is supreme among all dreadful, difficult and intolerable hells, the ungrateful is the most heinous sinner among all other sinners. The sins like the murder of a Brahmin and cow can be absolved when the regrettal prescribed is observed but the sin of destroying what is created by a friend (gentleman) cannot be absolved even if the regrettal observed for as many as several crore years (viz. ungrateful man is deed the most heinous miscreant and such crime is uncompoundable).

Chapter 14

Description of Teachings of Religion

ऋषयः ऊचुः

अहिंसा सत्यमस्तेयं दानं क्षान्तिर्दमः शमः।
अकार्पण्यं च शौचं च तपश्च रजनीचर॥ १॥
दशाङ्गो राक्षसश्रेष्ठ धर्मोऽसौ सार्ववर्णिकः।
ब्राह्मणस्यापि विहिता चातुराश्रम्यकल्पना॥ २॥

The hermits said- O demon king! The religion consisting of ten parts (aṅgas) i.e. non-violence, truthfulness, asatya (afraid of telling a lie), donation, forgiveness, control over senses (dama), śama, generosity, purity (sauca) and penance has been prescribed for all people. A provision of four āśramas has been made for the Brāhmaṇas.

सुकेशिरुवाच

विप्राणां चातुराश्रम्यं विस्तरान्मे तपोधना।
आचक्षण्यं न मे त्रुप्तिः शृणवतः प्रतिपद्यते॥ ३॥

Sukeśi said- O austere hermits! Describe in detail the provision of four āśramas for the Brāhmaṇas. My curiosity is increasing manifold and I am still unsatiated.

ऋषय ऊचुः

कृतोपनयनः सम्यग्ब्रह्मचारी गुरौ वसेत्।
तत्र धर्मोऽस्य यस्तं त्वं कथ्यमानं निशापय॥ ४॥

The hermit said- "The celibate should live at the residence of the preceptor when thread ceremony has been duly performed. His religion prescribed there are being explained by me now. Please, listen to it carefully.

स्वाध्यायोऽथानिशुश्रूषा स्नानं भिक्षाटनं तथा।
गुरोनिवेद्य तद्यामनुज्ञातेन सर्वथा॥ ५॥
गुरोः कर्मणि सोद्योगः सम्यक्प्रीत्युपपादनम्।
तेनाहूतः पठेचैव तत्परो नान्यमानसः॥ ६॥

(This religion is) to do perseverance, serve the fire (i.e. participate in offering), to bathe daily, to go out for alms, to offer the food first to the preceptor and then he should take when allowed by him. Prepared always to act on instructions given by the preceptor, to develop love duly in the heart of the preceptor, to read with mind in concentration when called by the preceptor.

एकं द्वौ सकलान्वाऽपि वेदान्नाप्य गुरोर्मुखात्।
अनुज्ञातो वरं दत्त्वा गुरवे दक्षिणां ततः॥ ७॥
गृहस्थाश्रमकामस्तु गार्हस्थ्याश्रममावसेत्।
दान्नस्थाश्रमं वाऽपि चतुर्थं स्वेच्छयाऽऽत्मनः॥ ८॥

After completion of study in one, two or all the Vedas under the guidance of the preceptor, he should offer dakṣinā (fee) for teaching. Then, those desirous of household life should enter into it or resort to voluntarily Vānaprastha or reclusion with the permission of that preceptor.

तत्रैव वा गुरोर्गेहे द्विजो निष्ठामवानुयात्।
गुरोरभावे ततुत्रे तच्छिष्ये तत्सुतां विना॥ ९॥
शुश्रूषनिरभीमानो ब्रह्मचर्याश्रमं वसेत्।

Or he should determine to live with the preceptor throughout his life and observe Naisthika Brahmacharya till he breathes his last. (If so desired) he should live with the son of the preceptor if he is dead or with any disciple for the lack of his son.

एवं जयति मृत्युं स द्विजः सालकटंकट॥ १०॥
उपावृत्तैस्तु तैस्तस्माद्ब्रह्मस्थाश्रमकाम्यया।
O Śālakaṭaṅkaṭa! He should live always in celibacy and give up ego forever. The dvija living under strict compliance of these rules, conquers the death itself.

असमानार्थकुलजा कन्योद्वाहा निशाचर॥ ११॥

स्वकर्मणा धनं लब्धा पितुदेवाऽतिथीनपि।

सम्प्रक्षसंप्रीणयेद्दक्ष्या सदाचाररते द्विजः॥ १२॥

O monster! After being liberated from there, one should solemnise marriage with a virgin born in a gotra/clan other than his own. The dvija observing courtesy should earn wealth through functions executed by his own industry and satiate duly with keen devotion the Pitṛs, gods and guests.

सुकेशिरुवाच

सदाचारेरेति गदितं युष्माभिर्मम सुव्रताः।

लक्षणं श्रोतुमिच्छामि कथयच्च तदद्य मे॥ १३॥

Sukeśi said- O great resolute! You have described etiquette which I have understood. I want to listen now to its characteristics from you. Please, describe those characteristics.

ऋष्य ऊचुः

सदाचारो निगदितस्तत्व योऽस्माभिरादरात्।

लक्षणं तस्य वक्ष्यामस्तच्छृणुच्च निशाचर॥ १४॥

The hermit said- O monster! Listen to the characteristics of etiquette/courtesy already described by us.

गृहस्थेन सदा कार्यमाचारपरिपालनम्।

न ह्याचारविहीनस्य भद्रमत्र परत्र चा॥ १५॥

The household should always observe etiquette in his life. The man without courtesy cannot see welfare in this material and metaphysical world (after death).

यज्ञानतपांसीह पुरुषस्य न भूतये।

भवन्ति यः समुल्लङ्घ्य सदाचारं प्रवर्तते॥ १६॥

The yajña, donation and penance made/observed by a man contravening etiquette never become benevolent.

दुराचारो हि पुरुषो नेह नामुन नन्दते।

कार्यो यतः सदाचार आचारो हन्त्यलक्षणम्॥ १७॥

The man without etiquette does not feel pleasure in the material and metaphysical world. One should, therefore, always endeavour towards observing etiquette. Etiquette decays the evils adhered to the personality.

तस्य स्वरूपं वक्ष्यामः सदाचारस्य राक्षस।

शृणुच्चैकमनास्त्वं च यदि श्रेयोऽभिवाञ्छसि॥ १८॥

O monster! We, now talk about the features of that etiquette. If you wish any good, then listen to the etiquette with concentration.

धर्मोऽस्य मूलं धनमस्य शाखाः।

पुण्यं च कामः फलमस्य मोक्षः।

असौ सदाचाररतः सुकेशिन्।

संसेवितो येन स पुण्यभोक्ता॥ १९॥

O Sukeśi! Its root is the religion, wealth is one of its branches Kāma is its flower and emancipation is its fruit. The man who has taken care of such and etiquette tree, always enjoys pleasure (punya) in his life.

ब्राह्मेभूर्ते प्रथमं विवुद्धेदनुस्मरेद्देववराम्हर्षीन्।

प्राभातिकं मङ्गलमेव वाच्यं यदुक्त्वान्देवपतिस्त्रिनेत्रः॥

He should first recollect the images of great gods and hermits and chant the morning prayer as propounded by lord Mahādeva.

सुकेशिरुवाच

किं तदुक्तं सुप्रभातं शङ्करेण महात्मना।

प्रभाते यत्पत्न्यर्त्ये मुच्यते पापबन्धनात्॥ २ १॥

Sukeśi said- What is the prayer propounded by god Śaṅkara worth chanting at dawn capable to absolve all sins of the people.

ऋष्य ऊचुः श्रूयतां राक्षसश्रेष्ठ सुप्रभातं हरोदितम्।

श्रुत्वा स्मृत्वा पठित्वा च सर्वपापैः प्रमुच्यते॥ २ २॥

The hermit said- O demon king! Listen to morning pray propounded by Mahādeva. The man is absolved from all evils by listening to recollecting and reading it.

May the earth with smell, water with liquid, wind with touch, fire with flame, ether with word and Mahatatva bless me with a fine morning.

सप्तर्णवाः सप्त कुलाचलाश्च

यच्छन्तु सर्वे मम सुप्रभातम्॥ २७॥

May the seven seas, seven pioneer mountains, seven hermits, seven supreme islands and the earth etc. seven worlds (lokas) render me with a fine morning.

इत्यं प्रभाते परमं पवित्रं
पठेत्स्मरेद्वा शृणुयाच्च भवत्या।

दुःस्वप्ननाशोऽनघं सुप्रभातं
भवेद्य सत्यं भगवत्प्रसादात्॥ २८॥

One should read, recollect or listen to this holiest morning prayer. O innocent! (when it is done) the nightmare is decayed and one obtains a fine morning.

ततः सपुत्राय विचिन्तयेत
धर्मं तथार्थं च विहाय शश्याम्।
उत्थाय पश्चाद्धरित्युदीय

He should then give thought to religion and wealth (essence) and go for defection with the name of Hari on his lips after leaving the bed.

न देवगोद्भावाणवद्विमार्गे
न राजमार्गे न चतुष्पथे च।
कुर्यादथोत्सर्गमपीह गोष्ठे
पूर्वा परां नैव समाश्रितो गाम्॥ ३०॥

Do not defecate on the route of the cow, gods (temple), Brähmaṇa and fire, highways and roundabouts, in cowpen and facing east or west direction.

ततस्तु शौचार्थमुपाहरेन्मृदं
गुदे त्रयं पाणितले दशैव।
तथोभयोः सप्त तथैव पादयो-
र्लिङ्गे तथैकां मृदमाहरेत॥ ३१॥

He should then take soil for attaining purity and smear the anus thrice, left palm seven time, ten times on both palms and once on the penis. (Then it should be washed with clean water after due rubbing).

नान्तर्जलाद्राक्षसं मूषकस्य
बिलाद्य शौचाचरणागतान्त्रैः।
वल्मीकिमृदैव हि शुद्धये सदा
ग्राहा सदाचारविदा नरेण॥ ३२॥

O monster! An enlightened man should not take clay from the bottom of a reservoir, mice burrow residual from that used by others and from the home side. It should be taken from the termite.

उद्दमुखः प्राग्वदनोऽपि विद्वान्
प्रक्षत्यं पादौ भुवि संनिविष्टः।
समाचमेदद्विरफेनिलापि-
रुखं त्रिरादौ परिमृज्य च द्विः॥ ३३॥

Description of Charcter of Sukeśī

पुलस्त्य उवाच

ततः सुकेशिर्देवर्षे गत्वा स्वपुरमुत्तमम्।
समाहूयाद्वीत्सर्वान् राक्षसास्थार्मिकं वचः॥ १॥

Pulastya said- O divine hermit! Sukeśī called all monsters when he got down in his city and told them about the topics on religion.

अहिंसा सत्यमत्तेयं शौचमिद्रियसंयमः।
दानं दया च क्षान्तिश्च ब्रह्मचर्यममानिता॥ २॥
शुभा सत्या च मधुरा वाद्विनत्यं सत्क्षयारतिः।
सदाचारनिषेवित्वं परलोकप्रदायकाः॥ ३॥
इत्यूचुर्मुनयो महां धर्ममाद्यं पुरातनम्।
सोऽहमपाज्ञापये सर्वान्क्रियतामविकल्पतः॥ ४॥

Non-violence, truthfulness, non-stealing, purity, control over senses, donation, kindness, forgiveness, celibacy, humility, sweet and ear pleasing speech, regular affection for noble deeds and observing etiquette are the religions which give pleasure to a man in heaven (Paraloka). The sages have told me of such a most ancient and foremost religion. I therefore instruct you all to observe this religion without pelting logic otherwise.

पुलस्त्य उचाच

ततः सुकेशिवचनात्सर्वं एव निशाचराः।
त्रयोदशाङ्के ते धर्मं चकुर्मुदितमानसाः॥५॥

Pulastyā said- All monsters since then began to observe the religion consisting of thirteen parts (aṅgas) including non-violence.

ततः प्रवृद्धिं सुतरामगच्छंसे निशाचराः।
पुत्रपौत्रार्थसंयुक्ताः सदाचारसमविताः॥६॥

As a result of monsters being enlightened, the forth-coming generation i.e. their sons and grandsons also learned courtesy and thus, they achieved admirable progress and development.

ततस्तु तेजसा तेषां राक्षसानां महात्मनाम्।
गन्तुं नाशकनुवन्सूर्यो नक्षत्राणि न चन्द्रमाः॥७॥

The splendour (Aura) of those gentle monsters developed so much so that the sun, constellations and moon could not move on their route.

ततस्त्रिभुवने ब्रह्मनिशाचरपुरोऽभवत्।
दिवा सूर्यस्य सदृशः क्षणदायां च सूर्यवत्॥८॥

O Brāhmaṇa, the city of monsters in three-world then became moon-like in the day and sun-like at night.

न ज्ञायते गतिव्यर्थमि भास्करस्य ततोऽम्बरे।
शशाङ्कमिव तेजस्वादमन्यन्तं पुरोत्तमम्॥९॥

It then became tough to watch the motion of sun-god as having extra-brilliance, that city looked like the moon in the sky.

स्वं विकासं विमुञ्चन्ति निशामिति व्यचिन्तयन्।
कमलाकेरेषु कमला मित्रमित्यभिगम्य हि।
रात्रौ विकसिता ब्रह्मनिभूति दातुमीप्सवः॥१०॥

O Brāhmaṇa! The lotus stopped blossoming in the day as it confused it for night while considering that city as sun at night. They began to blossom in order to give outstanding honour.

कौशिका रात्रिसमयं बुद्धवा निरगमन्किला।
तान्वायसास्तदा ज्ञात्वा दिवा निष्ठन्ति कौशिकान्॥११॥

The owls came out from their caves creating the day as night and the crows began to hit them hard treating it as the day.

स्नातकास्त्वापगास्वेव स्नानजप्यपरायणाः।
आकण्ठमग्नास्तिष्ठन्ति रात्रौ ज्ञात्वाऽथ वासरम्॥१२॥

The celibate people (snātaka) began to dip deep in river, do japa in standing posture in water treating the night as day.

न व्ययुज्यन्त चक्राक्ष तदा वै पुरदशने।
मर्यमानास्तु दिवसमिदमुच्चैर्षुवन्ति च॥१३॥

The couple of cakravāka birds did not separate from each other due to confusion of being the night as day and began to yell loudly.

नूनं कान्ताविहीनेन केनचिद्कपत्रिणा।
उत्सृष्टं जीवितं शून्ये फूलकृत्य सरितस्तटे॥१४॥

Any male cakravāka has definitely breathed his last lonely at the bank of river on account of severe pain of separation from his partner.

ततोऽनु कृपयाऽविष्टो विवस्वांस्तीव्ररश्मिभिः।
संतापयज्जगत्सर्वं नास्तमेति कथंचन॥१५॥

The sun-god has melted seeing the pain of that bird and forgotten the time for his setting. This is one reason why he is continuously heating up the earth with acute rays.

अन्ये वदन्ति चक्राहो नूनं कश्चिन्मृतोऽभवत्।
तत्कान्तया तपस्ततं भर्तुशोकान्तया ब्रत॥१६॥

Some other say- "Any cakravāka has definitely lost his life and his mate in sheer pain of separation has observed any toughest penance.

आराधितस्तु भगवांस्तपसा वै दिवाकरः।
तेनासौ शशिनिर्जेता नास्तमेति रविर्षृवम्॥१७॥

This is the reason why, god sun pleased on her penance is not setting and he has conquered the moon god.

यज्विनो होमशालासु सह ऋत्विभिरध्वरे।
प्रावर्त्तयन्त कर्मणि रात्रावपि महामुने॥ १८॥

O great hermit! The clients (yajamāna) with Rtvijas are regularly performing yajña in yajñāśālās even in the night.

महाभागवता: पूजां विष्णोः कुर्वन्ति भक्तिः।
रवौ शशिनि चैवान्ये ब्रह्मणोऽन्ये हरस्य च॥ १९॥

Mahābhāgavata (denotes to lord Viṣṇu) are worshipping lord Viṣṇu and other people are doing worship of sun, moon, Brahmā and Śiva.

कामिनश्चाप्यमन्यन्त साधु चन्द्रभसा कृतम्।
यदियं रजनी रम्या कृता सततकौमुदी॥ २०॥

The sensuous people opined that the moon has executed a nice work by featuring regular and attractive night with moonlight.

अन्येऽबृवत्तल्लोकगुरुरस्माभिष्ठकभृद्दशी।
निव्यजेन महागच्छैर्वर्चितः कुसुमैः शुभैः॥ २१॥
सह लक्ष्या महायोगी नभस्यादित्यतुर्जपि।
अशून्यशयना नाम द्वितीया सर्वकामदा॥ २२॥
तेनासौ भगवान्नीतः प्रादाच्छयनमुत्तमप्।
अशून्यं च महाभोगैरनस्तमितशेखरम्॥ २३॥

Some others opined that we performed the worship of lord Viṣṇu, great yogī and discuss-holder with Mahālakṣmī during Śrāvāna etc. four months. It was done with keen obeisance and scented flowers. Sarvakāmadā Aśūnyaśayanā Dvitiyā falls in this very period and the lord has with pleasure provided everlasting rest with all luxuries.

अन्येऽबृवत्युवं देव्या रोहिण्या शशिनः क्षयम्।
दृष्टा तसं तपो घोरं स्त्राराधनकाम्यया॥ २४॥
पुण्यायामक्षयाष्ट्यां वेदोक्तविधिना स्वयम्।
तुष्टेन शभुना दत्तो वक्ष्यास्यै यदृच्छ्या॥ २५॥

Some others said that goddess Rohinī definitely has observed strict penance on the tithi of Akṣayāṣṭamī for recovery of her husband moon's health from T.B. She thus wants the pleasure of Rudra. As lord Śiva has pleased her now, her desire is fulfilled.

अन्येऽबृवंश्चन्द्रमसा ध्रुवमाराधितो हरिः।
द्रत्तेनेह त्वखण्डेन तेनाखण्डः शशी दिवि॥ २६॥

Some other said that the moon has worshipped lord Viṣṇu by observing a penance integrated. This is the reason, the moon is regular (unsplit).

अन्येऽबृवञ्च्छशाङ्केन ध्रुवं रक्षा कृताऽत्मनः।
पदद्वयं समध्यर्थ्य विष्णोरमिततेजसः॥ २७॥

A few others opined that the moon indeed has defended him by worship at the feet of Śrī Viṣṇu, the lord with unique splendour.

तेनासौ दीसिमांश्चन्द्रः परिभूय दिवाकरम्।
अस्माकमानदकरो दिवा तपति सूर्यवत्॥ २८॥

The moon so illuminated has given defeat to the sun and spreading his beams like sun for our pleasure.

लक्ष्यते कारणै रस्तैर्दहुभिः सत्यमेव हि।
शशाङ्कनिर्जितः सूर्यो न विभाति यथा पुरा॥ २९॥

It is being watched due to the presence of several evidences that the sun defeated by the moon is not so powerful as before.

यथापी कमलाः श्लक्षणा रणदभूङ्गणाकुलाः।
विकचाः प्रतिभासन्ते जातः सूर्योदयो ध्रुवम्॥ ३०॥

These beautiful lotus flowers are blossomed and surrounded by the humming commonwealth of bees. This scene ipso-facto appears as if it is dawn.

यथा चामी विभासन्ति विकचाः कुमुदाकराः।
अतो विज्ञायते चन्द्र उदितश्च प्रतापवान्॥ ३१॥

As the bouquet of lily has blossomed hence, it transpires that the mighty moon has arisen.

एवं संभाषतां तत्र सूर्यो वाक्यानि नारद।
अमन्यत किमेतद्धि लोको वक्ति शुभाशुभम्॥ ३२॥

O Nārada! God sun began to think on the opinions so given by different classes of people; that is why these are so different in approach and saying just the reverse to the reality.

एवं संचिन्त्य भगवान्दद्यौ ध्यानं दिवाकरः।
आसमन्ताज्जगद्ग्रस्तं त्रैलोक्यं रजनीचरैः॥ ३३॥

God sun was engrossed in this thinking and saw in concentration that the entire territory of three-world has slept in the grip of monsters all around.

ततसु भगवाज्ञात्वा तेजसोऽव्यसहिष्णुताम्।
निशाचरस्य वृद्धिं तामचिन्तयत योगवित्॥ ३४॥

Having understood properly the rapid progress of monsters and intolerance to their splendour, he began to think on an action plan.

ततोऽज्ञासीघ च तान्सर्वान्सदाचाररताज्जुचीन्।
देवब्राह्मणपूजासु संसक्तार्थमसंयुतान्॥ ३५॥

As a result of the thorough investigation, he concluded that all monsters are enlightened, holy by deeds and worship god and Brāhmaṇas. Thus, he saw that those are religion-abiding.

ततसु रक्षःक्षयकृत्तिपिरद्विष्टकेसरी।
महांशुनखरः सूर्यस्तद्विधातमचिन्तयत्॥ ३६॥

The sun god known as the destroyer of monsters and analogous to the lion with sharp nails of his beams for elephant-like dark began to ponder over suitable tricks to destroy monsters.

ज्ञातवांश्च ततस्तिष्ठद्रं राक्षसानां दिवस्पतिः।
स्वधर्मविच्छिन्नार्थम सर्वधर्मविघातकृत्॥ ३७॥

God sun at last came to ask to search out loopholes helpful enough to breach their religion-abiding nature. Such a shortcoming can destroy all religions.

ततः क्रोधाभिषूतेन भानुना रिपुभेदिभि।
तद्वीतं राक्षसपुरं तन्नष्टं च यथेच्छया॥ ३८॥

The sun so annoyed then watched in depth that monster city through his beams competent in killing the enemy.

स भानुना तदा दृष्टः क्रोधाभिषूतेन चक्षुषा।
निषपाताम्बराद्भृष्टः क्षीणपुण्य इव ग्रहः॥ ३९॥

That city so gazed at with furious eyes by lord sun fell immediately down from the sky like a star lost on account of noble deeds (puṇya).

पतमानं समालोक्य पुरं शालकटङ्कटः।
नमो भवाय शर्वाय इदमुच्चैरुदीरयत्॥ ४०॥

Having seen his city so falling Śalakaṭaṅkaṭa (Sukeśi) chanted the hymn "namo bhavāya sarvāya" with a loud voice.

तदाक्रन्दितमाकर्ण्य चारणा गगनेचराः।
हाहेति चुकुशुः सर्वे हरभक्तः पतत्यसौ॥ ४१॥

All cāraṇas (soothsayers) moving in the sky cried when they heard about that commotion created by the monsters in pain with these words- "Oh! Oh! this Śiva's devotee is falling down!

तदारणवचः शर्वः श्रुतवान्सर्वगोऽव्ययः।
श्रुत्वा संचिन्तयामास केनासौ पात्यते भुविः॥ ४२॥

Omnipresent imperishable Śarva (Śaṅkara) heard the cries so made by cāraṇas and began to think as to who may be so cruel as to dash him down on the earth.

ज्ञातवान्देवपतिना सहस्रकिरणेन तत्।
पातितं राक्षसपुरं ततः कुञ्जस्त्रिलोचनः॥ ४३॥

He came to know very soon that it is sun-god who has dashed down that city of monster. He was filled with anger.

कुञ्जसु भगवाज्ञ्ञभुर्भानुमन्तमपश्यत्।
दृष्टमात्रत्रिलोचेण निषपात ततोऽम्बरात्॥ ४४॥

The furious lord Śiva threw his gaze at sun and within no time he fell down on the earth.

गगनात्स परिभ्रष्टः पथि वायुनिषेविते।
यदद्वया निपतितो यन्त्रमुक्तो यथोपलः॥ ४५॥

Dashed from sky, the sun-god began to fall like a stone sprung up in the route where void has existed (viz. there is absence of air).

ततो वायुपथान्मुक्तः किंशुकोज्ज्वलविग्रहः।
निषपातान्तरिक्षात्स वृतः किन्नरचारणैः॥ ४६॥

Then he crossed the route where air has existed and now began to fall down from space. His body was as white as a flower of canker bloom and he was surrounded by Kinnaras and Cāraṇas.

चरणैर्वेष्टिते भानुः प्रविभात्यम्बरात्पतन्।
अर्द्धपक्वं यथा तालात्कलं कपिपिरावृतम्॥ ४७॥

While falling down from space, god sun appeared like a half-ripened fruit of Tāla tree surrounded by monkeys. This is because he was surround by Kinnaras and Cāraṇas.

ततस्तु ऋषयोऽभ्येत्य प्रत्यूचुर्भानुपालिनम्।
निपत्स्व हरिक्षेत्रे यदि श्रेयोऽभिवाञ्छसि॥ ४८॥

The sages then approached the sun and suggested that for the cause of welfare he should fall in the territory belonging to Hari.

ततोऽब्रवीत्पतन्नेव विवस्वांस्तांस्तपेष्ठनान्।
किं तस्मेत्रं हरे: पुण्यं वदद्यं शीघ्रमेव मे॥ ४९॥

Sun while falling speedily asked those sages- "Tell me immediately where has that holy territory of Hari existed?"

तमूचुर्मुनयः सूर्यं शृणु क्षेत्रं महाफलम्।
साप्तं वासुदेवस्य भावितं तच्छकरस्य च॥ ५०॥

The sages replied- Listen to us about that territory. Presently, it belongs to Vāsudva (Hari) but it will go to lord Śaṅkara in future. This territory of Hari is extended from Yogaśayī to Keśava-darśana. It is known as Vārāṇasi Puri.

योगशायिनपारभ्य यावत्केशवदर्शनम्।
एतस्मेत्रं हरे: पुण्यं नामा वाराणसी पुरी॥ ५१॥

When it was heard, god sun cursed by Śaṅkara at that time fell down in the middle of Varuṇā and Asī rivers.

तच्छ्रुत्वा भगवान्नुर्भवनेत्राभितापितः।
वरणायास्तथैवास्यास्त्वन्तरे निपपात ह॥ ५२॥

As god sun was anxious due to excessive temperature caused to the body as a result of lord Śiva's burning eye-rays, he first took a bath in Asī and then Varuṇā river.

ततः प्रदह्नति तनौ निमज्ज्यास्यां लुलद्रविः।
वरणायां समध्येत्य न्यमज्जत यथेच्छया॥ ५३॥

He began to rush from Asī to Varuṇā and then Varuṇā to Asī frequently like an Alātacakra due to the burning sensation felt by having Śiva's eye imposed.

भूयोऽसि वरणां भूयो भूयोऽपि वरणामसिम्।
लुलंस्त्रिणेत्रवृक्ष्यात्तो भ्रमतेऽलातचक्रवत्॥ ५४॥
एतस्मिन्नन्तरे ब्रह्मन्त्रष्ट्यो यक्षराक्षसाः।
नागा विद्याधरश्चापि पक्षिणोऽप्सरसस्तथा॥ ५५॥

O Brahmin! O hermit! All hermits, monsters, serpents, vidyādhara, birds, nymphs and bhūta-preta on sun's chariot rushed in the meantime to the abode of Brahmā and reported this tragedy.

यावन्तो भास्कररथे भूतप्रेतादयः स्थिताः।
तावन्तो ब्रह्मसदनं गता वेदयितुं मुने॥ ५६॥

Lord Brahmā then visited Mandara mountain, an attractive abode of Maheśvara to ask his grace for sun in company of gods.

ततो ब्रह्मा सुरपतिः सुरैः सार्द्धं समध्ययात्।
रम्यं महेश्वरादासं मन्दरं रविकारणात्॥ ५७॥

He met Śūlapāni there, pleased him for the sake of sun and brought him to Vārāṇasi.

गत्वा दृष्ट्वा च देवेशं शङ्करं शूलपाणिनम्।
प्रसाद्य भास्करार्थाय वाराणस्यामुपानयन्॥ ५८॥

Lord Śaṅkara lifted him up with support of hand, addressed him as lola and again seated him on the chariot.

ततो दिवाकरं भूयः पाणिनाऽदाय शङ्करः।
कृत्वा नामास्य लोलेति रथमारोपयत्पुनः॥ ५९॥

When sun was again seated on his chariot, lord Brahmā went to Sukeśi and settled him again with kith and kin, the subject and city in the sky.

आरोपिते दिनकरे ब्रह्माऽभ्येत्य सुकेशिनम्।
समान्धवं सनगरं पुनरारोपयहिविः॥ ६०॥
समारोप्य सुकेशिं च परिष्वज्य च शङ्करः।
प्रणाम्य केशवं देवं वैराजं स्वगृहं गतः॥ ६१॥

Brahmā returned to his abode known as Vairāja just after he re-settled Sukeśi in sky, embraced lord Śaṅkara and saluted Keśava there.

एवं पुरा नारद भास्करेण

पुरं सुकेशेभूति सन्निपातितम्।

दिवाकरो भूमितले भवेन

क्षिससु दृष्ट्वाऽनलसंप्रदग्धः॥ ६ २ ॥

O Nārada! The sun god during ancient period had thus dashed the city of Sukeśi down on the earth and Mahādeva had thrown down the sun on the ground and not burnt him by the fire dwelling in his third eye.

आरोपितो भूमितलाद्ववेन

भूयोऽपि भानुः प्रतिभासनाय।

स्वयंभुवा चापि निशाचरेन्द्र-

स्वारोपितः खे सपुरः सबधुः॥ ६ ३ ॥

Śaṅkara again established sun for shining regularly from the earth to the sky and Brahmā had settled again Sukeśi with his city and commune in the sky.

इति श्रीवामनपुराणे पुलस्त्यनारदसंवादे सुकेशिचरिते

लोलार्कजननं नाम पञ्चदशोऽध्यायः॥ १५ ॥

for worship of Mahādeva and lord Keśava is now being told by me. Listen to these carefully.

यदा त्वापाढी चायाति द्रुजते चोत्तरायणात्।
तदा स्वप्निति देवेशो भोगिभोगे श्रियः पतिः॥३॥

Śrīpati Deveśa (lord Viṣṇu) slumber on the bed of Śeṣanāga when uttarāyaṇa is over and full moon of Āṣāḍha month comes nearer.

प्रतिसुसे विभौ तस्मिन्देवगन्धवंगुहाकाः।
देवानां मातरश्चापि प्रसुपाश्चाप्यनुक्रमात्॥४॥

The gods, gandharva, guhyaka and devamātas are also asleep when that sovereign god is gone to sleep.

नारद उवाच

कथयस्व सुरादीनां शयने विधिमुत्तमप्।
सर्वमनुक्रमेणैव पुरस्कृत्य जनार्दनम्॥५॥

Nārada requested- Kindly tell me the procedure adopted by the gods including Janārdana and first start it with Hari.

पुलस्त्य उवाच

मिथुनाभिगते सूर्ये शुक्लपक्षे तपोधन।
एकादश्यां जगत्स्वामी शयनं परिकल्पयेत्॥६॥

Pulastya said- O austere hermit! Janārdana, the ruler of this entire universe, goes to sleep on Ekādaśī tithi when the sun enters into the zodiac Gemini during the fortnight when the moon shines.

शेषाहिभोगपर्यङ्कं कृत्वा संपूज्य केशवम्।
कृत्वा पवित्रकं चैव सम्यक्संपूज्य वै द्विजान्॥७॥
अनुज्ञां ब्राह्मणेभ्यश्च द्वादश्यां प्रयतः शुचिः।
लब्ध्वा पीताम्बरधरः स्वस्थो निन्नां समानयन्॥८॥

Subsequent to worship of Śrī Keśava with sacred thread on shoulder and body of Śeṣanāga as a cot, one should lay Pītāmbaradhara on Dvādaśī tithi for sleeping with due permission of Brāhmaṇas and maintaining control on senses as also with observing the purity.

त्रयोदश्यां ततः कामः स्वपते शयने शुभे।
कदम्बानां सुगन्धानां कुसुमैः परिकल्पिते॥९॥

Chapter 16

Description of Sleep of Gods & Austerities on Dvitiyā and Kālāṣṭamī

नारद उवाच

यानेतान्प्रवान् प्राह कामिभिः शशिनं प्रति।
आराधनाय देवाभ्यां हरीशाभ्यां वदस्व तान्॥१॥

Nārada said- Kindly describe the fasts/resolutions you referred to for sensuous people about moon for the worship of Śrī Hari and Śaṅkara.

पुलस्त्य उवाच

शृणुष्व कामिभिः प्रोक्तान्वतान्युण्यान्कलिप्रिय।
आराधनाय शर्वस्य केशवस्य च धीमतः॥२॥

Pulastya said- O Kalipriya Nārada! The holy fasts as referred to by sensuous people

Then on Trayodaśī tithi, Kāmadeva sleeps on a holy cot made up of scented Kadamba flowers.

चतुर्दश्यां ततो यक्षाः स्वपन्ति सुखशीतले।
सौवर्णपङ्कजकृते सुखासीर्णेपधानके॥ १०॥

Then there sleep on Caturdaśī Yakṣas (demi-gods) on cots made by the golden lotus with quilts and sheets duly spread.

पौर्णमास्यामुमानाथः स्वपते चर्मसंस्तरे।
वैयाघ्रे च जटाभारं समुद्गच्छ्यान्यर्चर्मणा॥ ११॥

On Pūrṇamāśī tithi (full moon day) Śaṅkara sleeps on the bed of tiger a hide by tying his matted hair with another hide.

ततो दिवाकरो राशि संप्रथति च कर्कटम्।
ततोऽमराणां रजनी भवते दक्षिणायनम्॥ १२॥

The sun then enters into the zodiac Cancer and from this day Dakṣiṇāyana in the night commences for all gods.

ब्रह्मा प्रतिपदि तथा नीलोत्पलमयेऽनघा।
तत्पे स्वपिति लोकानां दर्शयन्मार्गमुत्तमम्॥ १३॥

O innocent! Brahmā sleeps on the bed of blue lotus on Pratipadā tithi guiding people the right and fair way.

विश्वकर्मा द्वितीयायां तृतीयायां गिरे: सुता।
विनायकश्चतुर्थ्या तु पञ्चम्यामपि धर्मराट्॥ १४॥
षष्ठ्यां स्कन्दः प्रस्वपिति सप्तम्यां भगवान्न्रविः।
कात्यायनी तथाष्टम्यां नवम्यां कमलालया॥ १५॥
दशम्यां भुजगेन्द्रश्च स्वपन्ते वायुभोजनाः।
एकादश्यां तु कृष्णायां साध्या ब्रह्मस्वपन्ति च॥ १६॥

O Brahmin! Viśvakarmā sleeps on dvitiyā, goddess Pārvatī on trtiyā, Gaṇeśa on caturthī, Dharmarāja on pañcamī, Skanda on ṣaṣṭhī, god sun on saptamī, Kātyāyanī on aṣṭamī, Lakṣmī on navamī, the serpents living on air sleep on daśamī and Sādhyā-gaṇas on ekadasī.

एष क्रमस्ते गदितो नभादौ स्वपने मुने।
स्वपत्सु तत्र देवेषु प्रावृट्कालः समाययौ॥ १७॥

O hermit! We have told you the orderly manner for slumbering the gods in śravaṇa etc. months. There comes the rainy season when gods are asleep.

कङ्काः समं बलाकाभिरारोहन्ति नगोत्तमान्।
वायसाश्चापि कुर्वन्ति नीडानि ऋषिपङ्कवा॥ १८॥
वायस्य ख्याते ऋतौ गर्भभरालसाः।

O the great hermit! the particulars of dust rode on the peak of mountains and crows start building their nests while feminine crows kept on sleeping throughout this season due to laxity arisen in their womb.

यस्यां तिष्ठां प्रस्वपिति विश्वकर्मा प्रजापतिः॥ १९॥
द्वितीया सा शुभा पुण्या सुपुण्या शयनोदिता।

The tithi in which Viśvakarmā goes to sleep that sacred dvitiyā tithi is called as Aśūnyaśayanā.

तस्यां तिथावर्च्य हरिं श्रीवत्साङ्कं चतुर्भुजम्॥ २०॥
पर्यङ्कस्थं समं लक्ष्म्या गच्छपुष्पादिभिर्मुने।
ततो देवाय शश्यायां फलानि प्रक्षिपेत्क्रमात्।
सुरधीणि निवेदेष्यं विज्ञाप्यो मधुसूदनः॥ २१॥

O hermit! One should on that tithi first worship Hari having four arms, Śrīvatsa mark on heart and body on Śeṣanāga's cot with Lakṣmī by offering fragrance and flowers etc., then offer fruits and scents and prayer as under-

यथा हि लक्ष्म्या न वियुज्यसे त्वं
त्रिविक्रमानन्तं जगन्निवास।
तथा त्वशून्यं शयनं सदैव
अस्माकमेवेह तव प्रसादात्॥ २२॥

O Trivikrama! O Ananta, O Jagannivāsa! As you never be separated from Lakṣmī, our living should never be void of wife by your grace.

यथा त्वशून्यं तव देव तुल्यं
समं हि लक्ष्म्या वरदाच्युनेश।
सत्येन तेनापितवीर्यं विष्णो
गार्हस्थ्यनाशो न ममास्तु देव॥ २३॥

O god! O Varada! O Acyuta! O Iśa! O lord Viṣṇu! As your bed never is void of Lakṣmī, our household life should never be destroyed by virtue of this truth.

इत्युद्धार्य प्रणम्येण प्रसाद्य च पुनः पुनः।
नक्तं भुजीत देवर्वे तैलक्षारविवर्जितम्॥ २४॥

O divine hermit! subsequent to the prayer so made, one should salute again and again the gracious god for his pleasure and eat food at night without oil and salt mixed.

द्वितीयेऽहि द्विजाग्न्याय फलं दद्याद्विद्यक्षणः।
लक्ष्मीधरः प्रीयतां मे इत्युद्धार्य निवेदयेत्॥ २५॥

The wise man should offer fruit to the learned Brahmin by chanting "May Lakṣmīdhara be gracious to me" on the next day.

अनेन तु विद्यानेन चातुर्मास्यद्वातं चरेत्।
यावद् वृश्चिकराशिस्थः प्रतिभाति दिवाकरः॥ २६॥

One should observe Cāturmāsya fast till the sun remains on the zodiac Scorpio by observing this procedure.

ततो विषुष्वन्ति सुराः क्रमशः क्रमशो मुने।
तुलास्थे तु हरिः पूर्वं कामः पञ्चद्विष्वन्ते॥ २७॥

O hermit! Then the gods awake in an orderly manner. Hari is awakened when the sun enters into the zodiac Libra. Kāma and Śiva awake thereafter.

तत्र दानं द्वितीयायां मूर्तिलक्ष्मीधरस्य तु।
सशम्यासस्तरणोपेता यथा विभवमात्मनः॥ २८॥

Then the icon of Lakṣmīdhara with their bed should be donated according to one's own capacity on Dvitiyā.

एष ब्रतसु प्रथमः प्रोक्तस्तव महामुने।
यस्मिंश्चीर्णं वियोगस्तु न भवेदिह कस्यचित्॥ २९॥

O great hermit! Thus, I have told you about the procedure for the first fast. By observing it, nobody suffers from the pain of separation from his wife throughout his life in this world.

नभस्ये मासि च तथा या सा कृष्णाष्टमी शुभा।
युक्ता मृगशिरेणैव सा तु कालाष्टमी स्मृता॥ ३०॥

Similarly, Kṛṣṇāṣṭamī with Mṛgaśirā constellation in the month of Bhādrapada is assumed as Kālāṣṭamī.

तस्यां सर्वेषु लिङ्गेषु तिथौ स्वपिति शङ्करः।
वसते सन्निधाने तु तत्र पूजाऽक्षया स्मृता॥ ३१॥

God Śaṅkara on that tithi sleeps in all lingas and resides in the premises where these lingas are found. The worship of lord Śaṅkara made on his occasion is assumed as integrated.

तत्र स्नायीत वै विद्वान्गोमूत्रेण जलेन च।
स्नातः संपूजयेत्पूर्वैर्त्तुरस्य त्रिलोचनम्॥ ३२॥

The learned man should take a bath with a mixture of water and cow urine on that tithi. He should worship god Śaṅkara by offering the flower of thorn apple plant after having such a bath.

धूपं केसरनिर्यासं नैवेद्यं मधुसर्पिष्ठो।

O lord! Who is that Mahiṣa and how was his family (clan) known? Who is Raktabija and who is the father of Namara? Please, highlight your answer as before on this query.

पुलस्त्य उवाच

श्रूतां संप्रवक्ष्यामि कथां पापप्रणाशनीम्।
सर्वदा वरदा दुर्गा येयं कात्यायनी मुने॥ ४१॥

Pulastyā said- "I herewith explain the story capable to absolve sons. Please, listen to it. O hermit! Durgā the great goddess is Kātyāyanī and not any other.

पुरा सुरवरौ रौद्रौ जगङ्कोभकरानुभौ।
रम्पश्चैव करम्पश्च द्वावास्तां सुमहाबलौ॥ ४२॥

During the ancient period, there were two dreadful coercive forces to whole world and mighty demon called Rambha and Karambha.

तावपुत्रौ च देवर्षे पुत्रार्थं तेषुपुस्तपः।
बहून्वर्षगणान्दैत्यौ स्थितौ पञ्चनदे जले॥ ४३॥

O divine hermit! Those issueless daityas observed penance for several years standing in the water of Pañcana (five rivers) in order to be blessed with a son.

तत्रैको जलमध्यस्थो द्वितीयोऽप्यग्निपञ्चमीः।
करम्पश्चैव रम्पश्च यक्षं मालवटं प्रति॥ ४४॥

Karambha and Rambha were engrossed in their effort to please Mālavaṭa Yakṣa. One stood in water while the other was seated amid the fire blazed from fire sides (Pañcāgni).

एकं निमग्नं सलिले ग्राहरूपेण वासवः।
चरणाभ्यां समादाय निजघान यथेच्छया॥ ४५॥

Indra came in disguise as a crocodile, pulled the one standing stood in the water by foot and killed him under such plan.

ततो भ्रातरि नष्टे च रम्पः कोपपरिप्लुतः।
वह्नौ स्वशीर्षं संछिद्य होतुमैच्छमहाबलः॥ ४६॥

Rambha was filled with anger when he saw that his brother is dead and prepared to cut his head and throw it into fire.

ततः प्रगृहा केशेषु खड़ङ्गं च रविसप्रभम्।
छेतुकामो निजं शीर्षं वह्निं प्रतिषेधितः॥ ४७॥
उक्तश्च मा दैत्यवरं नाशयात्मानमात्मना।
दुस्तरा परवध्याऽपि स्ववध्याऽप्यतिदुस्तरा॥ ४८॥

The fire restricted the demon (Rambha) who had caught his hair in one hand and the sword as radiant as the sun in the other lifted to cut his head. Agni said- O great demon! Don't kill you yourself because suicide is a heinous sin and bigger than killing another person.

यच्च प्रार्थयसे वीर तद्वदामि यथेष्यितम्।
मा म्लियस्व भृतस्येह नष्टा भवति वै कथा॥ ४९॥

O chivalrous! Ask me what you want. Don't commit suicide because the man so dead leaves no record/account behind him. I will fulfil your desire.

ततोऽब्रवीद्वचो रम्पो वरं चेम्ने ददासि हि।
त्रैलोक्यविजयी पुत्रः स्यान्मे त्वरेजसाऽधिकः॥ ५०॥

Rambha stopped and requested- "If you really are so pleased as to fulfil my desire, I ask for a son having more valour than you and could conquer the three-worlds.

अजेयो दैवतैः सर्वेयुधि दैत्यैश्च पावक।
महाबलो वायुरिव कामरूपी कृतास्त्रवित्॥ ५१॥

O Pāvaka! May he be invincible by all gods, human-beings and daityas. He should be mighty as the wind, industries and expert in the handling of all weapons and arms.

तं प्रोवाच कविर्ब्रह्माद्भेदं भविष्यति।
यस्यां चित्तं समालम्ब्य मरिष्यति ततोऽसुरः॥ ५२॥

O Brahmin! The fire then replied- "very well. This will be as you desired. You will get such a son of particular characteristics from a woman subjected to your intercourse and love.

इत्येवमुक्तो देवेन वह्निं दानवो ययौ।
द्रष्टुं मालवटं यक्षं यक्षैश्च परिवासितम्॥ ५३॥

With this assurance of fire god, Rambha went to see Mālavaṭa Yakṣa surrounded by the Yakṣas.

तेषां पद्मनिधिस्तत्र वसते नान्यचेतनः।
गजाश्च महिषाशाश्च गावोऽजाविपरिप्लुताः॥ ५४॥

The Nidhi of those Yakṣas was called Padma and he used to live there with concentration of mind. There were goats, sheep, horses, buffaloes, elephants and cows in abundance.

तन्दृष्टैव तदा चक्रे भावं दानवार्थिवः।

महिष्यां रूपयुक्तायां त्रिहायण्यां तपोधन॥५५॥

O great austere man! The demon king was attracted to the beauty of a three year old feminine buffalo (viz. he became sensuous to do intercourse).

सा समागाय दैत्येन्द्रं कामयन्ती तरस्त्विनी।

स चापि गमनं चक्रे भवितव्यप्रचोदितः॥५६॥

That feminine buffalo was also filled with appeal and immediately came to the demon. As preponderance is always attached with the future events, Rambha did intercourse with that buffalo.

तस्यां समभवद्भर्भस्तं प्रगृह्याथ दानवः।

पातालं प्रविवेशाथ ततः स्वभवनं गतः॥५७॥

That feminine buffalo became pregnant. He took her, entered into the nether world and then reached his residence.

दृष्ट्य दानवैः सर्वैः परित्यक्तश्च बन्धुभिः।

अकार्यकारकेत्येवं भूयो मालवटं गतः॥५८॥

His siblings and other kith and kin declared him as corrupt and he was then ousted. He, therefore, went again to the Yakṣa Mālavaṭa.

That beautiful buffalo too went with her husband at that sacred and best commune of Yakṣa.

ततस्तु वसतस्तस्य श्यामा सा सुषुवे मुने।

O hermit! During shelter there, that buffalo had delivered a baby-buffalo competent to change his body features at will.

एतामृतुमतीं जातां महिषोऽन्यो ददर्श ह।

When that buffalo again got the reproduction time, any other buffalo seeing her rushed to her for intercourse. She anyhow defended her chastity and care to the demon.

तमुत्रामितनासं च महिषं वीक्ष्य दानवः।

खडगं निष्कृष्टं तरसा महिषं तमुपाद्रवत्॥६२॥

When that demon saw another buffalo chasing his beloved by lifting up his nose, he took out a sword and blew it hard on him.

तेनापि दैत्यस्तीक्ष्णाभ्यां शृङ्गाभ्यां हृदि ताडितः।

निर्भिन्नहृदयो भूमौ निपपात ममार च॥६३॥

That buffalo too hit at the heart of demon by his pointed horns. It pierced the heart of demon and he fell down dead.

मृते भर्तरि सा श्यामा यक्षाणां शरणं गता।

रक्षिता गुह्याकैः साध्वी निवार्य महिषं ततः॥६४॥

That buffalo (she) on the death of her husband sheltered herself under Yakṣas for protection. Guhyakas at last drove that buffalo away and defended that chaste feminine buffalo.

ततो निवारितो यक्षैर्हयारिमर्दनातुरः।

निपपात सरो दिव्यं ततो दैत्योऽभवन्मृतः॥६५॥

The buffalo (so sensuous) fell down in a divine reservoir when Yakṣas gave him sharp blows. On his death, there appeared a daitya from his body.

नमरो नाम विख्यातो महाबलपराक्रमः।

यक्षानाश्चित्य तस्यौ स कालयन श्रापदान् मुने॥६६॥

O hermit! That daitya began to live with Yakṣas and he used to kill the wild animals. This mighty and valorous daitya was later known as Namara.

स च दैत्येश्वरो यक्षैर्पालवटपुरस्सरैः।

चितामारोपितः सा च श्यामां तं चारुहत्पतिम्॥६७॥

Mālavaṭa etc. Yakṣas then put that demon king on pyre for funeral. The feminine buffalo too sat on pyre with her husband and thus, both of them were burnt into ashes.

ततोऽनिमध्यादुत्तस्यौ पुरुषो रौद्रदर्शनः।

व्यद्रावयत्स तान्यक्षान्खङ्गाणिर्भयकरः॥६८॥

No sooner there appeared a dreadful and huge Puruṣa from the pyre so blazed. He drove all Yakṣas.

ततो हतास्तु महिषा: सर्व एव महात्मना।

He then killed all buffaloes except the son of Rambha (who was also a buffalo in physic).

स नामतः स्मृतो दैत्यो रक्तबीजो महामुने।

O great hermit! That demon became famous as Raktabija later on. He subjugated all gods including Indra, Rudra, sun and Maruta etc.

All those demons were so influential yet Hayāri (buffalo) was the supreme, valorous. He subjugated Śambara, Tāraka etc. chivalrous monsters. They all then enthroned him.

When he could not be defeated by joint efforts of fire, sun etc. gods including lokapālas, the moon and sun had vacated their respective orbits and the religion (dharma) was also thrown away from his territory.

Pulastya said- The gods defeated by Mahiṣa left their respective places and appeared before Laksミpati (Śrī Viṣṇu) under lead of lord Brahma with their respective carriers (vāhanas) and weapons.

As a result of anger built up in the minds of Madhusūdana, Śāṅkara, Pitāmaha and Indra etc. gods, rays came out from their mouths.

O hermit! That splendour (ray) was crystallised like the ridge of a mountain in the āśrama of Kātyāyana hermit. That hermit processed (upabṛhmaṇa) that splendour.

The crystallised splendour of all gods and duly processed start glowing like several thousand suns. Such combination of splendour gave birth to caprice and to a huge-eyed and purified body, a goddess called Kātyāyanī.

Her teeth were originated by the splendour of Prajāpati, nose by the splendour of Yakṣas, both ears by the splendour of the wind and both her brows like the Kāmadeva's bow were originated by the splendour of Sādhyā.

The three eyed (Kātyāyanī) then was pleased with the gods and made a peal of laughter. The prominent gods like Indra, Viṣṇu, Rudra, moon, wind, fire and sun etc. began to pray to her.

Salute to the goddess having a pure body with a combination (yoga). She is present everywhere on the earth in the form of sleep. She is temptation, trapā, hunger, fear, gleam, obeisance, memory, health, forgiveness, shade, power, wealth, profession, kindness, illusion and fallacy. Such a goddess in the form of universe is saluted.

The goddess so prayed to gods then rode on a lion and went to the Vindhya mountain having highest peaks which once was restricted from ascending more.

This nectar-pouring assurance made the sun happy and he said with folded hand- "This mountain is restricting my route today. Hence, O lord! Do try to curtail the height of Vindhya."

The mountain accepted the prayer and contracted his body, his peaks lost height and the hermit then easily crossed it to go to the other side. He then said to the mountain.

Pulastya said- That ascetic Kātyāyani so dwelling on the best ridge of the mountain was watched by Caṇḍa and Muṇḍa, two mighty Dānavas.

O demon king! Are you feeling well at this moment? Please, come with us to see Vindhya mountain. A virgin having best characteristics among all divine damsels is dwelling there.

That slim, beautiful virgin has given defeat to clouds by her raven-tress hair, to moon by her face, to three fires (gārhapatya, dakṣiṇa, āhavaniya) by three eyes and conch by the throat.

यदा न देव्या कवचं कृतं शस्त्रनिवारणम्।

When the goddess declined putting shield (kavaca), Viṣṇupañjara strota, as described earlier, was chanted for her defence by those gods.

Pulasty said- Listen to this ancient story which had taken place during the early phase of divine age (Devayuga). It removes the evils from the mind and tenders one with fearlessness.

The demons injured by Kuliśa, pierced heart by śakti, scratched neck by plough, cut-off by axe, split head by daṇḍa and joints cut-off by discus soon deviated, fell down, lost consciousness and a few among them ran away from the battle-field.

The demons were soon badly frightened of the furious Durgā and ran away from the battle-field considering her as a Kālarātri.

When the front portion of the army was so split and Durgā marched forward, Namara riding on an intoxicated elephant, came forward.

The demon then gave a hard blow of śakti on goddess and threw a trident to finish the lion.

The goddess made a loud voice, vomited fire from her mouth and burnt both the weapons immediately. The elephant than caught the lion just at his loin.

(The lion) leapt up suddenly, slapped the demon with his paw, dragged him down from the back of the elephant and put before the goddess his dead body.

O Brahmin! The furious goddess caught the body of that demon from loin, started revolving round with her left hand and began beating him like a drum.

ततोऽदृहासं मुमुचे तादृशे वाद्यतां गते।

With the sound coming out by the beating, the goddess made a peal of laughter. Her fierce laugh originated a number of strange ghosts.

Some among them had tiger-like mouths, the complexion of some other was Vṛka like, some had horse-like face, some other had buffalo like faces while the rest has pig like faces.

The goddess in the company of those ghosts made sharp attacks on the demon's army and killed it all as the thunderbolt destroys the entire crop.

When the front army and its commander were killed, another commander Cikṣura began to fight against gods.

कार्मुकं दृढपाकर्णमाकृष्य रथिनां वरः।
ववर्ष शरजालानि यथा मेषो वसुन्धराम्॥ २३॥

The best demon among the warriors rode on chariots, gave tension up to the ear to his bow and threw a volley of arrows the same way as the clouds rain on the earth.

तान्दुर्गा स्वशरैश्चित्त्वा शरसंधानुपर्वभिः।
सौवर्णपुद्ध्रानपराज्ञराज्ञग्राह षोडश॥ २४॥

The goddess Durgā cut-off that volley of arrows so thrown by her arrows with fantastic nodes and put another sixteen arrows having gold wings on her bow.

ततश्चतुर्भिर्शतुरस्तुरङ्गानपि भासिनी।
हत्वा सारथिमेकेन ध्वजमेकेन चिच्छिदे॥ २५॥

Goddess Durgā killed his four horses by throwing four arrows, his charioteer by an arrow and cut-off the flag by shooting another arrow.

ततस्तु सशरं चापं चिच्छैदैकेषुणाम्बिका।
छिन्ने धनुषि खड़ं च चर्म चादत्तवान्बली॥ २६॥

Ambikā then cut-off his bow with arrow through an arrow. The chivalrous Cikṣura picked up his sword and shield immediately when the bow and arrow were so cut-off.

तं खड़ं चर्मणा सार्द्धं दैत्यस्याधुन्वतो बलात्।
शैश्वतुर्भिर्शिंच्छेद ततः शूलं समाददे॥ २७॥

The goddess threw four arrows and cut-off his sword with shield which he was waving to and fro. He then picked up Śūla.

समुद्यम्य महाशूलं प्राद्रवत्स तथाऽम्बिकाम्। क्रोष्टुको मुदितोऽरण्ये मृगराजवधूं यथा॥ २८॥

He rushed to Ambikā by waving his Śūla so lifted up. His movement appeared as if the fox runs a race toward the lioness when it feels exaggeratedly happy himself.

तस्याभियततः यादौ करौ शीर्षं च पञ्चभिः।
शैश्विंच्छेद संकुद्धा न्यपतत्स हतोऽसुरः॥ २९॥

The goddess filled with anger, threw five arrows on that aggressor (demon), cut-off both his arms, feet and head from the body and thus he fell down dead.

तस्मिन्सेनापतौ क्षुण्णे तदेग्रास्यो महासुरः।
सपाद्रवत वेगेन करालास्यास्तु दानवाः॥ ३०॥

When the commander of the army was so dead, a dreadful monster Ugrāsyā and a demon Karālāsyā rushed to attack the goddess.

बाष्कलश्चोद्धतश्चैव उग्रास्योऽथोग्रकार्मुकः।
दुर्द्धरो दुर्मुखश्चैव विडालनयनोऽपरः॥ ३१॥
एतेऽन्ये च महात्मानो दानवा बलिनां वराः।
कात्यायनीमाद्रवन्त नानाशस्त्राक्षपाणयः॥ ३२॥

The demons Bāskala, Uddhata, Ugrāsyā, Ugrakārmuka, Durdhara, Durmukha and Viḍālanayana and several others then attacked simultaneously the goddess. All of them were well equipped with weapons and had well built bodies.

तान्दृष्टा लीलया दुर्गा वीणां जग्राह पाणिना।
वाद्यामास हसती तथा डमरुकं वरम्॥ ३३॥
Goddess Durgā laughed at them when she saw them advancing took a lyre and ḍamaru in her hands and began playing with them.
यथा यथा वादयते देवी वाद्यानि तानि च।
तथा तथा भूतगणा नृत्यन्ति च हसन्ति च॥ ३४॥

With the sound of those musical instruments played by goddess Kātyāyanī, the ghosts (Bhūtagaṇas) in her company began dancing and merry-making.

ततोऽसुराः शस्त्रधराः समध्येत्य सरस्वतीम्।
अभ्यन्तरंसांश्च सा देवी जग्राह परमेश्वरी॥ ३५॥

The demons so equipped with weapons then started throwing them on Sarasvatī when they reached nearer to her. The goddess caught them by the hair.

प्रगृह्ण केशेषु महासुरांस्ता-
नुत्पत्य सिंहानु नगस्य सानुप्।
ननर्त वीणां परिवादयन्ती

Having caught them by the hair, Kātyāyanī jumped down from her lion, took them at a ridge of that mountain, piped the lyre and began sucking their blood.

ततस्तु देव्या बलिनो महासुर

The mighty and proud demons thus, lost both their apparels and lives. When Mahiṣasura saw such a dreadful end of his mighty commanders, he drove all ghosts away by hitting them with legs, horns, tail, chest and dreadful expiration through the nose.

विषाणकोद्ध्वा च परान्प्रमथ्य

ततोऽम्बिका क्रोधवशं जगाम

He made a dreadful noise like a thunderbolt, hit hard with his horns the other soldiers (gods) fighting for goddess and rushed fast to kill the lion. This made Ambikā more furious.

ततः स कोपादय तीक्ष्णशृङ्खः

Mahiṣa then began destroying the mountain and earth with his sharp horns as he was fiercely in furiated. He polluted even the water of the ocean and covered the clouds with the dust so blown. Thus, he immediately rushed towards goddess Durgā.

सा चाथ पाशेन बबन्ध दुष्टं
स चाप्यभूद्दिनकटः करीन्द्रः।

He then fastened that wicked demon with Pāśa. The demon by virtue of his supernatural powers then turned into an intoxicated elephant, dreadful in look and attack. The goddess immediately cut-off the fore portion of his trunk. He then turned into a buffalo again.

ततोऽस्य शूलं व्यसुजद्वानी
स शीर्णभूलो न्यपतत्पृथिव्याम्।

O great hermit! Mṛdānī then threw Śūla on him but it was split in parts and fell down on the ground. She then shot the śakti given by the fire god but that too lost its edge (viz. it could not act on the body of that demon).

चक्रं हरेदानवचक्रहन्तुः

Then the discus given by Hari was shot but it also proved null and void in spite of its magnificent power to kill all demons as it was seen earlier. The mace given by Kubera too was split and fell down on the ground when thrown at the monster.

जलेशपाशोऽपि महासुरेण
विषाणतुण्डाग्रखुरप्रणन्नः।
निरस्यता कोपितया च मुक्तो

That fierce monster made futile the attack made through Pāśa given by Varuṇa by crushing it under feet, the fore limbs, teeth etc. The dandā given by Yama was also split in several parts when it was used for the attack.

वत्रं सुरेन्द्रस्य च विग्रहेऽस्य

संत्यज्य सिंहं महिषासुरस्य
दुर्गाधिरूढा सहसैव पृष्ठम्॥ ४५॥

The thunderbolt given by Indra was also used in order to give a hard blow but was also split in several micro parts merely when it touched the body of Mahiṣāsura. Durgā then suddenly jumped down from the back of the lion and rode on the back of that monster.

पृष्ठस्थितायां महिषासुरोऽपि

Mahiṣāsura began to leap up frequently on account of having been proud of his power (vīrya) She also began churning his wet body with her delicate feet.

ततोऽस्य शूलेन विभेद कण्ठं

The giant body of that monster (Mahiṣāsura) lost power soon as a result of so churning from feet by the goddess. At the same time, the goddess beheaded him with a blow made by Śūla. A man with a sword in hand then appeared immediately from the beheaded body of that monster.

No sooner had he appeared, than the goddess kicked at his chest region, caught his hair in grip and cut-off his head, immediately. The demon army began wailing on watching such a fierce scene.

Caṇḍa, Muṇḍa, Maya, Tārā and Asilomā etc. mighty monsters were frightened badly and entered immediately into the nether world so as to save themselves from more thrashing by the goddess.

O great hermit! The gods on seeing such a grand victory of goddess Kātyāyānī, the fierce face, enchanting complexion, Nārāyaṇī, sole cause for creation of entire universe, began praying to her with several hymns.

संस्तूयमाना सुरसिद्धसंघैः

Goddess Durgā who sits at the feet of lord Śiva, worshipped by gods and siddhas declared- "I will again appear for the cause of gods." With these words in declaration, that Durgā suddenly vanished from there.

of killing Śumbha monster in order to maintain peace in the world. I am now going to explain it.

That goddess Kauśikī got her birth from the Kośa (by virtue of penance) of goddess Umā, daughter of Himālaya married to lord Śaṅkara.

Again tell in detail that who was the father of Śumbha and Niśumbha? By your grace, I listened such excellent character of goddess Durgā, now recite me in detail about the story of goddess Pārvatī and her birth.

स चासीदेवसेनानीर्देत्यदर्पविनाशनः।

शिवरूपत्वमास्थाय सैनापत्यं समुत्सज्जत॥ ११॥

He was the commander of divine army and destroyed the monsters by virtue of his being chivalrous and skilled in war-craft. He had then shifted to peace and became Śiva. Thus, he resigned from commanding the divine army.

ततो विनाकृता देवाः सेनानाथेन इभुना।

दानवेन्द्रेण विक्रम्य निशुभेन पराजिताः॥ १२॥

The demon king Mahiṣa defeated all gods under forcible attack when he saw that Sambhu is no more commanding the divine army.

ततो जग्मुः सुरेशानं द्रष्टुं चक्रगदाधरम्।

श्वेतद्वीपे महाहंसं प्रपत्ना: शरणं हरिम्॥ १३॥

The gods so defeated went to see Cakragadādhara (lord Viṣṇu) at Śvetadvīpa and sheltered by him. Lord Viṣṇu is the sole ruler of gods and called Mahāhaṁsa (supreme soul).

तानागतान्सुरान्दृष्टा ततः शक्पुरोगमान्।

विहस्य मेघगम्भीरं प्रोवाच पुरुषोत्तमः॥ १४॥

Lord Viṣṇu (Puruṣottama) saw gods, he smiled and said in a tone serious as the clouds.

किं जिताः स्थासुरेन्द्रेण निशुभेन दुरात्मना।

येन सर्वे समेत्यैव मम पार्श्वमुपागताः॥ १५॥

Why have you been defeated by the demon king the barbarous Mahiṣa? why has and the case finally come to me.

तद्युष्माकं हितार्थाय यद्वदामि सुरोत्तमाः।
तत्कुरुस्व जयो यद्धि समाश्रित्य भवेत्ततः॥ १६॥

O great gods! Do as I say in the interest of you all and worth enabling you to conquer demons.

य एते पितरो देवस्त्वनिष्वान्तेति विश्रुताः।
अपीषां मानसी कन्या मेना नामाऽस्ति देवता॥ १७॥

O gods! The divine Pitara known as Agniṣvätta has a virgin (Mānasi) called Menā.

तामाराध्य महातिष्यां श्रद्धया परयाऽमराः।
प्रार्थयस्वं सतीमेनां प्रालेयाद्रिमहार्थतः॥ १८॥

O gods! Do worship of Satī Menā on Mahātithi (Amāvasyā) with keen obeisance and request her to marry Himālaya (viz. accept to be wife of Himālaya).

तस्यां सा रूपसंयुक्ता भविष्यति तपस्विनी।
दक्षकोपाद्यया मुक्तं मलवज्जीवितं प्रियम्॥ १९॥

That usterious virgin who once had abandoned her dear life like night-soil (rubbish) on account of neglect made by Dakṣa (her father) will get birth from the womb of Menā.

सा शङ्करात्सतेजोऽशं जनयिष्यति यं सुतम्।
स हनिष्यति दैत्येन्द्रं शुभ्यं च सपदानुगम्॥ २०॥

The son born as a result of consummation with Śaṅkara of that virgin shall kill the demon king Mahiṣa with his army and all attendants.

तस्माद्वच्छत पुण्यं तत्कुरुस्केत्रं महाफलम्।
तत्र पृथूदके तीर्थे पूज्यनां पितरोऽव्ययाः॥ २१॥

Hence, I suggest you to go at Kurukṣetra, the blessed place and do worship of imperishable ancestors at the holy place of Pṛthūdaka.

महातिष्यां महापुण्ये यदि शत्रुपराभवम्।
भवनाथात्मना सर्वे इच्छ्य क्रियतामिति॥ २२॥

Perform this rite at that most sacred place on Mahātithi if you all wish to give defeat to your enemy.

पुलस्त्य उवाच

इत्युक्त्वा वासुदेवेन देवाः शक्तपुरोगमाः।
कृताञ्जलिपुटा भूत्वा पप्रच्छुः परमेश्वरम्॥ २३॥

Pulastya said- Indra etc. gods asked that supreme god with folded hands when this was suggested by him.

देवा ऊचुः

किं तत्कुरुस्केत्रमिति यत्र पुण्यं पृथूदकम्।
उद्धवं तस्य तीर्थस्य भगवान्प्रद्वीपु नः॥ २४॥

The gods asked- Where is Kurukṣetra that has the holy place Pṛthūdaka? Explain the origin of that holy place.

केयं प्रोक्ता महापुण्या तिथीनामुत्तमा तिथिः।

यस्यासं हि पितरो दिव्या अद्धिः पूज्या प्रयत्नतः॥ २५

Explain again the best day (tithi) most sacrosanct on which we should worship the divine ancestors.

ततः सुराणां वचनाम्भुरारिः कैटभाद्नः।

कुरुस्केत्रोद्भवं पुण्यं प्रोक्त्वांस्तां तिथीमपि॥ २६॥

Murāri, who once had killed the monster Kaiṭabha then began explaining the origin of sacred Kurukṣetra and that holiest the day (tithi).

श्रीभगवानुवाच

सोमवंशोद्भवो राजा ऋक्षो नाम महाबलः।

कृतस्यादौ समभवद्वाक्षात्संवरणोऽभवत्॥ २७॥

Lord said- During the beginning of Kṛta era, a mighty king R̥bha was born in the Soma dynasty. Sarīvaraṇa was originated by R̥ksa.

स च पित्रा निजे राज्ये बाल एवाभिषेचितः।

बाल्येऽपि धर्मनिरतो मद्भक्तश्च सदाऽभवत्॥ २८॥

His father R̥ksa enthroned him when he was merely a child. He was religion abiding and my devotee since childhood.

पुरोहितस्तु तस्यासीद्विसिष्ठो वरुणात्मजः।

स तमध्यापयामास साङ्गन्वेदानुदारथी॥ २९॥

Vasiṣṭha, the son of Varuṇa, was his priest (Purohita). He taught him the Vedas with their angas (parts).

ततो जगाम चारण्ये त्वनध्याये नृपात्मजः।
सर्वकर्मसु निश्चिय वसिष्ठं तपसां निधिम्॥ ३०॥

That prince went to the forest when his study was completed by duly assigning the affairs of the state to the austere Vasiṣṭha.

ततो मृगस्य व्याक्षेपादेकाकी वाजिना वनम्।
वैश्वाजं स जगामाथ मनोन्पोदने तन्मुने॥ ३१॥

Attached with haunting, he then reached alone a deserted forest Vaibhrāja and intoxicated there (viz. engrossed himself in pleasure so deep as to forget other liabilities).

ततस्तु कौतुकाविष्टः सर्वतुकुसुमे वने।
अवित्रमः सुगच्छस्य समन्ताद्वयचरद्वनम्॥ ३२॥

He saw a forest where all seasonal flowers simultaneously blossomed. It geared up his curiosity to see entire forest as the fragrant atmosphere rendered him with extreme pleasure.

सवनान्तं ददर्शाथ फुल्लकोकनदावृतम्।
कहारपद्मकुपुदैः कमलेन्दीवरैरपि॥ ३३॥

He saw the forest covered everywhere with phulla, kokanada, kahāra, padma, lily, lotus and Indīvara flowers.

तत्र क्रीडन्ति सततमप्सरोऽमरकन्यकाः।
तासां मध्ये ददर्शाथ कन्यां संवरणोऽधिकाम्॥ ३४॥

The divine damsels and nymphs were playing there regularly. Sarīvaraṇa saw a most beautiful virgin among them.

दर्शनादेव स नृपः काममार्गणपीडितः।
तथा सा तं समीक्ष्यैव कामबाणातुराऽभवत्॥ ३५॥

With meeting the eyes with each other the prince as also that virgin simultaneously fell a prey to sensuous feelings.

उभौ तौ पीडितौ मोहं जग्मतुः काममार्गणैः।
राजा चलासनो भूम्यां निपपात तुरङ्गमात्॥ ३६॥

Both of them lost consciousness on account of feeling excessive appeal for sex. The king lost control on the horse back and he fell down on the ground immediately.

तपस्येत्य महात्मानो गच्छर्वाः कामरूपिणः।
सिषिचुर्वर्णिणा तेन लब्धसंज्ञोऽभवत्क्षणात्॥ ३७॥

The Gandharvas having power to change their complexion voluntarily soon got him and sprinkled water on his face. Thus, he regained conscious.

सा चाप्सरोभिस्त्पाद्य नीता पितृकुलं निजम्।
ताभिराश्वसिता चापि मधुरैर्वचनाम्बुधिः॥ ३८॥

The nymphs on the other side lifted up that unconscious virgin and brought to her father's home. They revived her by sprinkling water in the form of their sweet words of assurance.

स चाप्यारुह्य तुरां प्रतिष्ठानं पुरोत्तमम्।
गतस्तु मेरुशिखरं कामचारी यथाऽमरः॥ ३९॥

That king too rode on his horse and returned to Pratiṣṭhāna pura as the sensuous gods visit the peak of Meru mountain.

यदा प्रभृति सा दृष्टा चक्षुषा तपती गिरौ।
तदा प्रभृति नाशनाति दिवा स्वप्निति वा निश्च॥ ४०॥

Since the day Sarīvaraṇa, the son of Rkṣa saw Tapati, the divine damsel there, he was so deeply enchanted as he left the day meal and sleep at night.

ततः सर्वविदव्यग्रो विदित्वा वरुणात्मजः।
तपतीतापितं वीरं पार्थिवं तपसां निधिः॥ ४१॥
समुत्पत्य महायोगी गगनं रविमण्डलम्।
विवेश देवं तिग्मांशुं ददर्श स्यन्दने स्थितम्॥ ४२॥

When Vasiṣṭha, the son of Varuṇa saw that chivalrous king so anxious for Tapati by virtue of his intuition and Yoga; he ascended to the sky, entered within sun orbit and saw lord sun seated on his chariot.

तं दृष्ट्वा भास्करं देवं ननाम द्विजसत्तमः।
प्रतिप्रणिमित्थासौ भास्करेणाप्यसावृषिः॥ ४३॥

The great Dvija Vasiṣṭha saluted god sun and rode on his chariot when it was reciprocated by him.

ज्वलज्जटाकलापोऽसौ दिवाकरसमीपगः।
शोभते वासुणिः श्रीमाद्वितीय इव भास्करः॥ ४४॥

Vasiṣṭha looked like a second sun with aura shining and matted hair when he took a seat beside the sun.

ततः संपूजितोऽर्चादीभास्करेण तपोषनः।
पृष्ठश्वागमने हेतुं प्रत्युवाच दिवाकरम्॥४५॥

God sun honoured him by offering Argha etc. and asked about the purpose of his visit. Vasiṣṭha replied-

समायातोऽस्मि देवेश याचितुं त्वां महाद्युते।
सुतां संवरणस्यार्थं त्वं च तां दातुर्महसि॥४६॥

O most radiant god! I have come to ask for the hand of your daughter to Saṁvaraṇa. Please, fulfil my demand.

ततो वसिष्ठाय दिवाकरेण
निवेदिता सा तपती तनूजा।
गृहागताय द्विजपुंगवाय
राज्ञोऽर्थतः संवरणस्य चैव॥४७॥

O gods! lord sun then replied in the affirmative and offered that virgin Tapati for the king Saṁvaraṇa to Vasiṣṭha so came with demand to him.

सावित्रिमासाद्य वचो वसिष्ठः।
स्वमाश्रमं पुण्यमुपाजगामा।
सा चापि संसृत्य नृपात्मजं तं
कृताङ्गलिर्वास्तिणिमाह देवी॥४८॥

Vasiṣṭha then returned to his āśrama with the daughter of sun. That virgin too remembered the prince and said to Vasiṣṭha with folded hands.

तपत्युवाच

सहाप्सरोभिः परिचारिकाभिः।
दृष्टो ह्यरण्येऽपरार्थतुल्यो

Tapati said- O Brahmin! I know the characteristics of the prince I saw in that forest when I was in the company of attendant nymphs and lost my consciousness due to over attraction for him.

पादौ शुभौ चक्रगदासिचिह्नौ

Both this feet are with the marks of discus, mace and axe, his legs and thighs are like an elephant's trunk, his loin is like that of a lion's loin and the middle portion of his body is very thin with three lines drawn thereupon.

ग्रीवास्य शङ्खाकृतिमादधाति
भुजौ च पीनौ कठिनौ सुदीर्घौ।
हस्तौ तथा पदादलोद्धवाङ्गौ
छत्राकृतिस्तस्य शिरो विभाति॥५१॥

His neck is like a conch, both arms sturdy, solid and long, marks of lotus flower on his palms and his head is like an umbrella.

नीलाङ्ग केशः कुटिलाङ्ग तस्य
कर्णौ समांसौ सुसमा च नासा।
दोषाङ्ग तस्याङ्गुलयः सुपर्वा:

His hair is blue and curly, both ears are fleshy, soild nose, fingers of hands and toes of feet are beautiful with nodes and long in size and his teeth are all white.

समुन्नतः षडभिरुदारवीर्य-
स्त्रिभिर्गभीरस्त्रिषु च प्रलम्बः।

That valorous king is unnata from six places, gambhīra from three places, long from three other places, red from five places, dark from four places and humble (bent) from three places.

द्वाभ्यां च शुद्धलः सुरभिश्चतुर्भिः।

He is white at three places and fragrant at four places. Lotus marks are visible at his ten places.¹ O lord! I have already determined to be the bride of that king on the earth.

ददस्व मां नाथं तपस्विमुख्यं
गुणोपपत्राय समीहिताय।
स्वेहात्मकामं प्रवदन्ति सन्तो
दातुं तथाऽन्यस्य विभो क्षमस्त्वम्॥५५॥

O lord! Offer me to that austere and meritorious king only as the scholars say that the virgin passionate to any particular man should not be offered to other. O sovereign! I bid apology if you see any mistake in my statement.

देवदेव उवाच

Lord Viṣṇu said- The austere hermit did meditation on the matter, became happy to know her attachment for Saṁvaraṇa and replied-

देवदेव उवाच
स एव पुत्रि क्षितिपात्मजस्त्वया
दृष्टः पुरा कामयसे यमद्या।

O daughter! You had seen the same king in the forest for which you have been brought here. That Saṁvaraṇa, the son of Rkṣa is coming soon to my āśrama.

1. The meaning to the hymn and above is given in commentary of Rāma Chandra Bhaṭṭa on Vāmanapurāṇa is under- The unnata parts of body are six in number i.e. forehead, shoulder, armpit, neck, loin and thigh, three parts are called gambhīra. These are navel, middle portion and belly, both arms and testicles are long (Pralamba) both eye balls, lips, hands, feet and nails are red (raktima), hair, furs and brows are dark, both brows, both eyelids and ears are humble (bent), teeth and eyes are white and hair, mouth and both armpits are fragrant.

अथाजगामैव नृपस्य पुत्र-
स्तदाश्रमं ब्राह्मणपुंगवस्या।
दृष्टा वसिष्ठं प्रणिपत्य मूर्धा
स्थितां त्वपश्यतपतीं नरेन्द्रः॥५८॥

Shortly that king came to the āśrama of Vasiṣṭha. He bowed his head before Vasiṣṭha, saluted with sheer obeisance and saw Tapati there.

दृष्टा च तां पद्मविशालनेत्रां
संदृष्टपूर्वेयमिति व्यचिन्तयत्।
प्रप्रच्छ केयं ललना द्विजेन्द्र
स वासुणिः प्राह नराधिपेन्द्रम्॥५९॥

He thought he had already seen her when he watched her huge lotus eyes. He asked- "O divine! Who is this spinster?" Vasiṣṭha, the son of Varuṇa replied.

हयं विवस्वदुहिता नरेन्द्र
नामा प्रसिद्धा तपती पृथिव्याम्।
मया तवार्थाय दिवाकरोऽर्थितः
प्रादान्मया त्वाश्रमपापितेयम्॥६०॥

O King! This is the daughter of sun popularly known as Tapati on the earth. Lord sun offered her to me when I so requested for you and thus, she is brought here.

तस्मात्समुत्तिष्ठ नरेन्द्र देव्याः
पाणिं तपत्या विधिबद्धहाणा।
इत्येवमुक्तो नृपतिः प्रहष्टे

Hence, O King! Prepare yourself soon to solemnise marriage with Tapati. The king overflowed with joy and solemnise marriage with Tapati with exercise of all rites prescribed for marriage.

सा तं पतिं प्राप्य मनोऽभिरामं
सूर्यात्मजा शक्तसमप्रभावम्।
रेमे च तेनैव गृहेत्तमेषु

That Tapati (daughter of sun) began to live in the palace with her beautiful and meritorious husband so happily as if Paulomi (daughter of a monster) enjoyed pleasure with Mahendra in the heaven.

Chapter 22

Glorification of Brahma-saras

देवदेव उवाच

तस्यां तपत्यां नरसत्तमेन

जातः सुतः पार्थिवलक्षणस्तु।

स जातकर्मादिभिरेव संस्कृते

ह्यवर्धताज्ज्येन हुतो यथाऽग्निः॥ १॥

Lord Viṣṇu said- "Tapati gave birth to a son, having all characteristics of a king as a result of consummation with that chivalrous Saṁvaraṇa. His body availed growth as the fire on pouring ghee and all rituals like Jātakarma were executed in due course of time."

कृतं च चूडाकरणं तु देवा

विप्रेण मित्रावरुणात्मजेन।

नवाब्दिकस्य द्रवतबन्धनं च

वेदे च शास्त्रे विधिपारागेऽभूत्॥ २॥

O gods! Vasiṣṭha, the son of couple gods Mitra and Varuṇa, executed the ritual of Cūḍākarana for him. The ritual of upanayana was carried out when he attained the age of nine years and thus he acquired outstanding knowledge on the Vedas and scriptures in due course of time.

ततश्चतुःषड्पिरपीह वर्षैः

सर्वज्ञतापश्यगपत्तोऽसौ।

ख्यातं पृथिव्यां पुरुषोत्तमोऽसौ

नामा कुरुः संवरणस्य पुत्रः॥ ३॥

He acquired all requisite standard of knowledge at the age of twenty four years. That son of Saṁvaraṇa got popularity as Kuru in this world.

ततो नरपतिर्दृष्ट्वा पुत्रं तं षोडशाद्विकम्।

दारक्रियार्थमरोद्यलं शुभकुले ततः॥ ४॥

The king Saṁvaraṇa then wished to see the marriage of his learned and meritorious son with a virgin from a noble family.

सौदामीं च सुदामस्तु सुतां रूपाधिकां नृपः।

कुरोरथाय वृतवान्स प्रादात्कुरवेऽपि ताम्॥ ५॥

He thought fit Saudāmī, the daughter of Sudāmā for his meritorious son Kuru in his search for a bride and Sudāmā on his part had also given due consent.

स तां नृपसुतां लब्ध्वा स्वधर्मानविरोधयन्।

रेमे तन्व्या सह तथा पौलोम्या मधवानिव॥ ६॥

Kuru began to enjoy the pleasures of conjugal life as Paulomī (Śaci) with Indra in heaven by taking care of the limits drawn in Dharma and Artha (the essence). He was extremely happy with Saudāmī, his wife.

ततो नरपतिः पुत्रं राज्यभारक्षमं बली।

विदित्वा यौवराज्याय विधानेनाभ्यषेचयत्॥ ७॥

The king then made him crowned prince as he thought him competent to handle the affairs of state aptly.

ततो राज्येऽपिषिक्तस्तु कुरुः पित्रा निजे पदे।

स पालयामास महीं पुत्रवद्य प्रजाः स्वयम्॥ ८॥

Having so enthroned and assigned with all affairs of the state, Kuru began ruling the earth and subject with the same spirit as a father for his children.

स एव क्षेत्रपालोऽभूत्यशुपालः स एव हि।

स सर्वपालक्ष्यासीत् प्रजापालो महाबलः॥ ९॥

He became the most powerful king having a strong command on territory, great ruler, good administrator and just.

ततोऽस्य बुद्धिस्त्वं नाम हास्मिल्लोके गरीयसी।

यावत्कीर्तिः सुसंस्था हि तावद्वासः सुरैः सह॥ १०॥

With the passage of time he came to know that fame is supreme to acquire in this world. Divine dwelling stands for the time, the account of fame is not over.

स त्वेवं नृपतिश्रेष्ठो याथातथ्यमवेक्ष्य च।
विच्चार महीं सर्वा कीर्त्यर्थं तु नराधिपः॥ ११॥

After giving due thought to the factual aspects, that king decided to move around the entire earth in order to acquire fame.

ततो द्वैतवनं नाम पुण्यं लोकेश्वरो बली।
तदासाद्य सुसंतुष्टो विवेशाभ्यन्तरं ततः॥ १२॥

In course of his tours, that powerful king reached Dvaitavana and wished to see interior of the forest.

तत्र देवीं ददर्शन्थ पुण्यां पापविमोचिनीम्।
प्लक्षजां ब्रह्मणः पुत्रीं हरिजिह्वां सरस्वतीम्॥ १३॥
सुदर्शनस्य जननीं हृदं कृत्वा सुविस्तुतम्।
स्थितां भगवतीं कूले तीर्थकोटिभिराप्लुताम्॥ १४॥

He saw there goddess Sarasvatī, the holy river emanating from the Plakṣa tree, the tongue of Hari (Harijihvā), daughter of Brahma, mother of Sudarśana, flowing on a broadened bed and surrounded by several crore holy places at her bank.

तस्यास्तज्जलमासाद्य स्नात्वा प्रीतोऽभवन्नृपः।
समाजगाम च पुनर्ब्रह्मणो वेदिमुत्तराम्॥ १५॥

The king took a dip in that river and his body felt unprecedented cool and fresh. Then he went to the altar of Brahmā (syamantapañcaka) existed at the north.

समन्तपञ्चकं नाम धर्मस्थानमनुत्तमम्।
आसमन्ताद्योजनानि पञ्च पञ्च च सर्वतः॥ १६॥

That holy place Samantapañcaka is spread on a land five yojana each from four sides.

देवा ऊचुः:

कियन्तो वेदयः सन्ति ब्रह्मणः पुरुषोत्तमः।
येनोत्तरतया वेदी गदिता सर्वपञ्चके॥ १७॥

The gods said- "O Puruṣottama! How many altars has Brahmā? As you told Sarvapañcaka, the altar at north."

हरिस्वाच

वेदयो लोकनाथस्य पञ्चधर्मस्य सेतवः।
यासु घेष्टं सुरेशेन लोकनाथेन शंभुना॥ १८॥

Lord Viṣṇu said- "Brahmā, the creator of the world has five altars existing as a bridge to religion and lord Śambhu had performed yajña on them all."

प्रयागो मध्यमा वेदिः पूर्वा वेदिर्याशिरः।
विरजा दक्षिणा वेदिरनन्तफलदायिनी॥ १९॥
प्रतीची पुष्करा वेदिस्त्रिभिः कुण्डेरलकृता।
स्यमन्तपञ्चके चोक्ता वेदिरेवोत्तरा तथा ॥ २०॥

Prayāga is the middle altar, Gayāśira, is the altar at east, Virajā is southern altar, Puṣkara, decorated by three ponds is the western altar and imperishable Syamantapañcaka has been said to be the northern altar.

तदमन्यत राजर्षिरिदं क्षेत्रं महाफलम्।
करिष्यामि कृषिष्यामि सर्वान्कामान्यथेष्यितम्॥ २१॥

The royal saint Kuru thought of making fruit pouring in that area and started cultivating all desires.

इति संचिन्त्य मनसा त्यक्त्वा स्यन्दनमुत्तमम्।
चक्रे कीर्त्यर्थमतुलं स्थानं तत्पार्थिवर्षभः॥ २२॥

He alighted from his chariot with this determination and constructed an unique place for acquisition of fame.

कृत्वा सीरं ससौवर्णं गृह्ण रुद्रवृशं प्रभुः।
वोढारं याम्यमहिं स्वयं कर्षितुमुद्यतः॥ २३॥

He made a plough of gold, yoked the bull of lord Śaṅkara and Paundraka buffalo of Yama and prepared himself for ploughing.

तं कर्षनं नरवरं समभ्येत्य शतक्रतुः।
प्रोवाच राजन्किभिं भवान्कर्तुमिहोद्यतः॥ २४॥

In the meantime, Indra appeared there and enquired of the king- "O king! for what purpose are you ready to act here?"

राजाऽब्रवीत्सुरवरं तपः सत्यं क्षमां दयाम्।
कृषामि शौचदाने च योगं च ब्रह्मचारिताम्॥ २५॥

The king replied- "I intend to grow crops of penance, truth, forgiveness, kindness, purity, generosity, yoga and celibacy here."

तं चोवाच हरिदेवः कस्माद्वीजं नरेश्वरा

Indra said- O king! where from did you get this seed consisting of eight parts (things)? With these words, lord Indra smiled and immediately left that place.

गतेऽपि शक्रे नृपतिरहन्यहनि सीरधृक्।
कृष्टेऽन्यत्समन्ताद्य सप्त क्रोशान्महीपतिः॥ २७॥

The king began to plough the field up to seven kosa from each side and adopted it as a regular practice for a long period.

ततोऽहमभूवं गत्वा कुरो किमिदिप्त्यथ।
तदाऽष्टाङ्गं महाधर्मं सप्ताख्यातं नृपेण हि॥ २८॥

Then one day I also visited there and asked- "O Kuru! what are you doing?" The king replied- "I am cultivating the great religion consisting of eight limbs."

ततो मयाऽस्य गदितं नृप बीजं क्व तिष्ठति।
स चाह मम देहस्थं बीजं तमहमभूवम्।

ततः सव्यो भुजो राजा दत्तश्छिन्नोऽप्यसौ मया॥ ३१॥

I then asked further- "O king! Where is that seed?" The king replied- "It is within my body." I requested- "Give me that seed as I will assist you in sowing and you with plough the field." The king stretched his right arm. I immediately cut-off that arm through discus in several thousand pieces and gave them to you all. Then the king stretched his left arm. I also cut-off that in several micro pieces.

तथैवोरुयुगं प्रादान्मया च्छिन्नौ च तावुभौ।
ततः स मे शिरः प्रादात्सेन प्रीतोऽस्मि तस्य च॥
वरदोऽस्मीत्यथेत्युक्ते कुरुर्वरमयाचत॥ ३२॥

He then offered both thighs to which I also cut into pieces. He then offered his head and I was pleased with him and he asked blessing when I undertook for that.

कुरुस्वाच

Kuru said- May the land so ploughed by me become popular as a holy place and the persons taking a bath and dying here attain great blessings for their noble deeds.

"And O Puṇḍarīkākṣa! O Acyuta! this place known after my name (Kurukṣetra) should be made residence by you with Śāṅkara and other gods. I request for your grace." I nodded positive and then blessed- "O king! receive again the divine body and O resolute! I bless that you will merge with me after death."

शाश्वती तव कीर्तिश्च भविष्यति न संशयः।

Lord Viṣṇu appointed the demi-god Candra, Vāsuki serpent, Śāṅkukarṇa,

Vidyādhara, Sukeśi demon king, Ajāvana, the king and Mahādeva, the fire for defending that holy place.

एतानि सर्वतोऽभ्येत्य रक्षन्ति कुरुजाङ्गलम्।

All the above including their attendants and followers defend Kurujāṅgala from all directions.

The archers, eight thousand in number, restrict the entrance of evil-doers and they do not allow the sinners of this mobile and inert world of creatures to take a dip in the holy river.

There is a holy place Pṛthūdaka just at the centre of it. A holy river with clean water flows from here towards east.

Lord Brahmā had created at the initial phase of creating the earth, water, fire, air and ether etc. all organisms in this holy place and it is called Pṛthūdaka.

Lord Viṣṇu said- During ancient period, the Brahmins asked the old hermit Lomaharṣaṇa about the magnificence of reservoir (sarovara). He was then living at Kurujāṅgala, a place located between Sarasvatī and Drṣadvatī.

ऋषय ऊचुः

(They requested)- Describe the expanse of this reservoir, the magnificence pertaining to the holy places and gods residing and the origin of Vāmana.

Having heard this request from them the highly pleased primeval hermit saluted and said the following words-

लोमहर्षण उवाच

ब्रह्माणमीशं कमलासनस्यं
विष्णुं च लक्ष्मीसहितं तथैव।
रुद्रं च देवं प्रणिपत्य मूर्धा
तीर्थं वरं ब्रह्मासरः प्रवक्ष्ये॥४९॥

Lomaharṣaṇa said- I describe the great holy place of Brahmaśara with the expression of my humble salute to lord Brahmā seated on the lotus, Viṣṇu with Lakṣmī and lord Mahādeva.

रन्तुकादौजसं चापि पावनाच्च चतुर्मुखम्।
सरः सन्निहितं प्रोक्तं ब्रह्मणः पूर्वमेव तु॥५०॥

Brahmā had stated long ago that this reservoir is extended from Rantuka to Aujasa and from Pāvana to Caturmukha.

सरः प्रमाणं यत्प्रोक्तं तच्छृण्वनु द्विजोत्तमाः॥५१॥

O great Dvijas! Listen to the dimension of this reservoir as told by the great soul Vyāsa during the middle period of Kali and Dvāpara (the age).

विश्वेश्वराद्भुत्सिपुरं तथा कन्या जरद्गवी।
यावदोघवती प्रोक्ता तावत्सन्निहितं सरः॥५२॥

This reservoir extends in the length from Viśveśvara to Astipura and from Kanyā Jaradgavī to Oghavatī.

O great Dvijas! Listen to the authoritative dimension, as I heard from Vāmana Purāṇa.

सरः सन्निहितं प्रोक्तं समन्तादर्द्धयोजनम्॥५४॥

This reservoir spread a yojana each from all sides should be considered in expanse from Viśveśvara to Devavara and from Nṛpāvana to the Sarasvatī.

एतदाश्रित्य देवाश्च ऋषयश्च समागताः।

The gods and hermits resort to it and use the water of this reservoir with sole desire of emancipation and other people reside here with a desire to attain heaven after death.

ब्रह्मणा सेवितमिदं सृष्टिकामेन योगिना।
विष्णुना स्थितिकामेन हरिरूपेण सेवितम्॥५६॥

Yogi Brahmā had used this water for creation and Viṣṇu as Hari sipped it for the proper maintenance of the world.

रुद्रेण च सरोमध्यं प्रविष्टेन महात्मना।
सेव्यं तीर्थं महतेजाः स्थाणुत्वं प्राप्तवान्हरः॥५७॥

The great soul Rudra entered at its middle portion and sipped the holy water. He thus attained the essence of being Sthāṇu.

आदैषा ब्रह्मणो वेदिस्ततो रामदृदः स्मृतः।

It was initially an altar of Brahma but subsequently, it was addressed as "Rāmahrada". Later on it was ploughed by Kuru and since then popularly known as Kurukṣetra.

The portion between Tarantuka and Arantuka as also Rāmahrada and Caturmukha is Samantapañcaka Kurukṣetra and this very place is called the north altar of Brahmā.

Chapter 23

Description of Bali's Coronation as the King of demons

ऋषय ऊचुः

बूहि वामनमाहात्म्यमुत्पत्तिं च विशेषतः।
यथा बलिनीयमितो दत्तं राज्यं शतक्रतोः॥ १॥

The hermits said- "Describe particularly the magnificence of Vāmana and his origin and please explain how lord Vāmana had bridled Bali and returned the heaven to Indra which was conquered by him."

लोमहर्षण उवाच

शृण्वन्तु मुनयः प्रीता वामनस्य महात्मनः।
उत्पत्तिं च प्रभावं च निवासं कुरुजाङ्गले॥ २॥

Lomaharṣaṇa said- O sages! listen with pleasure to the origin, magnificence and his dwelling in Kurujāṅgala.

तथैव वंशं दैत्यानां शृण्वन्तु द्विजसत्तमाः।
यस्मिन्वंशे समभवद्वलिवैरोचनिः पुरा॥ ३॥

O great Dvijas! Further, listen about the demon dynasty in which Bali, the son of Virocana born in the distant past.

दैत्यानामादिपुरुषो हिरण्यकशिष्युः पुरा।
तस्य पुत्रो महातेजाः प्रह्लादो नाम दानवः॥ ४॥

राज्यं कृतं च तेनेषु त्रैलोक्ये सचराचरे।
कृतयज्ञेषु दैत्येषु त्रैलोक्ये दैत्यतां गते॥ ६॥

Long ago, Hiranyakasipu was the king of demons. Prahlāda, the valorous demon, was his son. Prahlāda was the father of Virocana and Virocana was blessed with Bali as son. On the death of Hiranyakasipu, Bali ruled properly over the three-world as he had defeated the gods from their respective places and positions. The gods however, did tremendous effort to defend but could not stay before the demon army led by Bali, resulting to which three-world was subjugated by demons.

जये तथा बलवतोर्मयशम्भरयोस्तथा।
शुद्धासु दिक्षु सर्वासु प्रवृत्ते धर्मकर्मणि॥ ७॥

The mighty Maya and Śambara conquered. Everywhere spread the religious acts and the directions got purity.

दिक्षु सर्वासु गुप्तासु गगने दैत्यपालिते।
वेदेषु मखशोभां च स्वर्गस्थां दर्शयत्सु च॥ ९॥

God sun too shifted to dakṣināyana (i.e. favourable to the demons). Prahlāda, Śambara, Maya and Anuhrāda etc. demons began to defend the state from all directions. The sky too was subjugated by the demons. The gods began to see the yajña then hosted in the heaven.

प्रकृतिस्थे ततो लोके वर्तमाने च सत्प्ये।
अभावे सर्वपापानां धर्मभावे सदोत्थिते॥ १०॥

The entire world stood rigid in nature and began compliance of the religion. As evils ceased, the spiritual conscience rooted undeviated.

प्रजापालनयुक्तेषु भ्राजमानेषु राजसु।
स्वधर्मयुक्तेषु तथा सर्वेषांश्रमवासिषु॥ ११॥

The religion was duly established in its four segments. The evil reduced to stand on a single segment. All kings took care of their subjects and people from all āśramas began to follow the acts prescribed for them as per their respective religion.

अधिषिक्तोऽसुरैः सर्वैर्दत्यराज्ये बलिस्तदा।
हष्टेष्वसुरसंघेषु नदत्सु मुदितेषु च॥ १२॥

The demons at this peaceful phase of time, enthroned Bali and the community of demons as a whole celebrated festivities at that auspicious moment.

अथाश्चुपगता लक्ष्मीर्बलि पद्मान्तरप्रभा।
पदोद्यतकरा देवी वरदा सुप्रवेशिनी॥ १३॥

Lakṣmī, the goddess having radiance of lotus petal, who blessed with wealth came to Bali. A lotus flower was in her hand.

श्रीस्वाच

प्रीताऽस्मि तव भद्रं ते देवराजपराजये॥ १४॥

Lakṣmī said- O great victorious king! O valorous demon king! I am graceful to you for the defeat that you gave to Indra. I bless you with all good things.

यत्त्वया युधि विक्रात्य देवराजः पराजितः।
दृष्ट्वा ते परमं सत्त्वं ततोऽहं स्वयमागता॥ १५॥

Since you have conquered the divine state by virtue of the valour you showed in the battle-field, I have therefore, came to see you.

नश्चर्यं दानवव्याघ्रं हिरण्यकशिषोः कुले।
प्रसूतस्यासुरेन्द्रस्य तव कर्मेदमीदृशम्॥ १६॥

O great demon! It's not so surprising a matter as you were born in the family of the demon king Hiranyakasipu.

विशेषितस्त्वया राजदैत्येन्द्रः प्रणितामहः।
येन भुक्तं हि निखिलं त्रैलोक्यमिदमव्ययम्॥ १७॥

O king! You are more peculiar them your great grandfather Hiranyakasipu because you are ruling over the three-world entirely.

एवमुक्त्वा तु सा देवी लक्ष्मीदैत्यनृपं बलिम्।
प्रविष्टा वरदा सेव्या सर्वदेवमनोरमा॥ १८॥

With these words addressed to Bali, that Lakṣmī goddess entered with him- the goddess worshipped by all gods, who is worth adoration, is a favourite and gracious to all.

तुष्ट्य देव्यः प्रवरा हीः कीर्तिर्द्वितिरेव च।
ग्रामा धृतिः क्षमा शक्तिर्द्विदिव्या महापतिः॥ १९॥

प्रपद्यन्ते तु दैत्येन्द्रं त्रैलोक्यं सचराचरम्।

All great goddesses Hṛī,¹ Kīrti,² Dyuti,² Prabhā, Dhṛiti,³ Kṣamā, Bhūti,⁴ Ṣuddhi,⁵ Divyā, Mahāmati,⁶ Śruti, Smṛti, Idā,⁷ Śānti, Puṣṭi,⁸ Kriyā and the nymphs expert at singing and dance then were pleased with Bali and they began to serve him in varied ways. Thus, Bali the follower of Brahma obtained the unique prosperity of the entire three-world.

Lomaharṣaṇa said- When Indra saw that the three-world has been subjugated by Bali, he went to his mother who was then living on mountain Meru, all safe as a residence.

समीपं प्राप्य मातुश्च कथयामास तां गिरम्।

आदित्याश्च यथा युद्धे दानवेन पराजिताः॥ ३॥

He described the complete events pertaining to the battle against demons which resulted in defeat for the gods when he safely reached there before his mother.

अदितिरुवाच

Aditi said- O son! you cannot kill Bali, the son of Virocana even if you join gods with Marudgaṇas if the state of affair is so dangerous.

सहस्रशिरसा शक्यं केवलं हनुमेव हि।

तेनैकेन सहस्राक्षं हनुं नान्येन शक्यते॥ ५॥

O thousand-eyed son! Only a thousand heads (lord Viṣṇu) can kill him in the battle and he cannot be killed by any other ways.

तद्विष्णुच्छाद्य पितरं कश्यपं ब्रह्मादिनम्।

पराजयार्थं दैत्यस्य बलेस्तस्य महात्मनः॥ ६॥

I will ask your father Kaśyapa, follower of Brahma, for the defeat of that great soul Bali.

Chapter 24

Vicotry of Bali on gods

ऋषय ऊचुः

देवानां बूहि मे कर्म यदवृत्तास्ते पराजिताः।
कथं देवाधिदेवोऽसौ विष्णुर्वर्मनतां गतः॥ १॥

The hermits said- Please, tell us what activity caused such a defeat for the gods and how the god Viṣṇu became Vāmana.

लोमहर्षण उवाच

बलिसंस्थं च त्रैलोक्यं दृष्ट्वा देवः पुरंदरः।

1. Bashfulness.
2. Splendour
3. Fortitude.
4. Prosperity.
5. Magnificence.
6. Supreme Intelligence.
7. The earth.
8. Nourishment.

The gods then went to Kaśyapa who was filled with splendour, austerity, the son of sage Marīci, glowing with the radiance of Brahma, who was Devaguru, the first born Puruṣa. His aura was like the sun beams, his body was blazing with tremendous flame like the fire of sacrifice. He was pondered over perseverance, follower of Brahma, truthful, preceptor of gods and demons alike and his influence was great because of having been graced by Lakṣmī.

यः स्त्रष्टा सर्वलोकानां प्रजानां पतिरुत्तमः।
आत्मभावविशेषेण तृतीयोऽयं प्रजापतिः॥ १२॥

He is the third Prajāpati on account of being his creator of the three worlds, the best Prajāpati and spiritually being great.

अथ प्रणम्य ते वीरा: सहादित्याः सुरर्षभाः।
ऊचुः प्राञ्जलयः सर्वे ब्रह्माणमिव मानसाः॥ १३॥

All gods went in the company of Aditi saluted him and reported the following matter as Nārada reported the matter to his father i.e. Brahma.

अजेयो युधिष्ठिरेण बलिदैत्यो बलाधिकः।
तस्माद्विद्यन्त नः श्रेयो देवानां पुष्टिवर्धनम्॥ १४॥

Indra has been defeated by the mightiest demon Bali. Hence, suggest the measures benevolent for the gods now so that they could become more powerful.

श्रुत्वा तु वचनं तेषां पुत्राणां कश्यपः प्रभुः।
अकरोद् गमने बुद्धिं ब्रह्मलोकाय लोककृत्॥ १५॥

Kaśyapa, the creator of world (loka) decided to visit the abode of Brahmā for appropriate suggestions in the matter.

कश्यप उवाच
शक्र गच्छाम सदनं ब्रह्मणः परमाङ्गुतम्।
तथा पराजयं सर्वे ब्रह्मणः ख्यातुमुद्यताः॥ १६॥

Kaśyapa said- O Indra! Let us go to the most excellent abode of lord Brahmā and report the matter there immediately.

सहादित्यास्ततो देवा याताः काश्यपमाश्रमम्।
प्रस्थिता ब्रह्मसदनं ब्रह्मर्षिगणसेवितम्॥ १७॥

All gods went with Aditi to that āśrama then marched quickly towards the abode of Brahmā duly protected and surrounded by the hermits.

ते मुहूर्तेन संप्राप्ता ब्रह्मलोकं सुवर्चसः।
दिव्यैः कामगमैर्यनैर्यथाहैः सुमहाबलैः॥ १८॥

All those gods, mighty and brilliant reached there within seconds through their divine aircraft operated merely by the desire.

ब्रह्माणं प्रष्टुमिच्छन्तस्तपोराशिं तमव्ययम्।
अश्यगच्छन्त विस्तीर्णा ब्रह्मणः परमां सभाम्॥ १९॥

Those people so desirous to see lord Brahmā entered into the assembly hall spacious enough to sit and discuss.

षट्पदोऽनीतमधुरां सामगैः समुदीरिताम्।
श्रेयस्करीमपित्रघ्नीं दृष्ट्वा संजहसुस्तदा॥ २०॥

They were pleased to see the auditorium from where the murmuring sound of bees was coming out from chanting Sāma, a place all benevolent and worth killing the enemies.

ऋचो बहुचमुख्यैश्च प्रोक्ताः क्रमपदाक्षरैः।
शुश्रवुस्त्वमरव्याघ्रा विततेषु च कर्मसु॥ २१॥

Those gods heard the Rgās of the Rgveda chanted systematically by the best scholars in course of executing several intensive rituals there.

यज्ञविद्यावेदविदः पदक्रमविदस्तथा।
स्वरेण परमर्षीणां सा बभूव प्रणादिता॥ २२॥

The auditorium echoed continuous with the voice of the supreme hermits, well learned in the Vedas, the procedure of yajña.

The gods heard the voice of the expert in sāṁstaras of yajña, the educationist (learned), the scholars learned in the meaning of Vedic hymns, the Dvijas expert in all learning and experienced in the best Lokāyatikas.¹ They all were chanting hymns. The sons of Kaśyapa saw there the best Brahmins who were expert at executing japa, havana in an orderly manner. Lokapitāmaha Brahmā was seated in that auditorium.

चराचरगुरुः श्रीमान्विद्यया वेदमायया।
उपासन्त च तत्रैव प्रजानां पतयः प्रभुम्॥ २६॥

The Prajāpatis present there were adoring lord Brahmā who is the preceptor to the gods and demons alike and enriched with Vidyā (learning) and Vedamāyā.

O the great Dvijas! Lord Brahmā was being worshipped by Dakṣa, Pracetā, Pulaha, Marīci, Bhṛgu, Atri, Vasiṣṭha, Gautama and Nārada, all learnings, the ether, air, splendour, water, earth, word, touch, complexion, essence and smell, nature, deformation, another great causes, the four Vedas with their aṅgas (parts) and lokapati, ethics, offering, resolution, breathing (prāṇa) and by numerous others. O great dvijas! Artha, Dharma, Kāma, anger, gaiety, Venus, Jupiter, Mars, Mercury, Saturn and demon head stars were also present in an orderly manner there. Marudgaṇas, Viśvakarmā, Vasu, sun, moon, day, night, fortnight, month and six seasons were also there.

The best among religion abiding hermits Kaśyapa entered that auditorium filled with all desires, splendour, brilliance, radiating with splendour of Brahma (the knowledge). It was indescribable and beyond imagination. He turned towards Brahmā in that auditorium who was seated on the best chair and saluted him with all hermits known to Brahma.

ततः प्रणम्य चरणौ नियताः परमात्मनः।
विमुक्ताः सर्वपापेभ्यः शान्ता विगतक्लमषाः॥ ३७॥

All those resolute attained de-nova mental power; their sins were absolved and they cooled down when they saluted that supreme soul.

दृष्टा तु तान्सुरान्सर्वान्कश्यपेन सहागतान्।

Lord of celestials Brahmā said when he saw the gods came there with Kaśyapa.

Chapter 25

Departure of Kaśyapa and gods to Kṣirasāgara

ब्रह्मोवाच

यदर्थमिह संप्राप्ता भवन्तः सर्व एव हि
चिन्तयाम्यहमव्यग्रे तदर्थं च महाबलाः॥ १॥

Brahma said- O mighty gods! I am pondering over the matter earlier for which you all have now come to me.

भविष्यति च वः सर्वं काङ्क्षतं यत्सुरोत्तमाः।
बलेर्दानवपुरुषस्य योऽस्य जेता भविष्यति॥ २॥
न केवलं सुरादीनां गतिर्मम स विश्वकृत्।
त्रैलोक्यस्यापि नेता च देवानामपि स प्रभुः॥ ३॥

O great gods! Your desire shall reap complete success. The creator of the universe who will defeat the demon king Bali is not only the god of gods but I also adore him and consider him saviour. He is the leader of the three-worlds and sovereign to all gods.

यः प्रभुः सर्वलोकानां विश्वेशश्च सनातनः।
पूर्वजोऽयं सदाप्याहुरादिदेवं सनातनम्॥ ४॥

The god of all worlds, forefather to all is also addressed as Sanātana Ādideva.

तं देवापि महात्मानं न विदुः कोऽप्यसाविति।
देवानस्मान् श्रुतिं विश्वं स वेत्ति पुरुषोत्तमः॥ ५॥

The gods etc. do not know that supreme soul but he is well introduced to the gods, myself, Śruti and the universe very well.

तस्यैव तु प्रसादेन प्रवक्ष्ये परमां गतिम्।
यदि योगं समाप्त्याय तपश्चरति दुश्शरम्॥ ६॥

भवन्तस्तत्र वै गत्वा तपसा शंसितवताः।
अपृतं स्थानमासाद्य तपश्चरत दुश्शरम्॥ ८॥

I, on his pleasure suggest to you the best measures for resolving your problem. All people go to the best place addressed by scholars as Amṛta. It is located at the northern bank of Kṣīrasāgara that falls at north from here. The creator of this universe is seated there in a tough penance under Yoga. You all resolute should at that place and sit in tough penance.

ततः श्रोष्यथ संघुष्टां स्निग्धगम्भीरनिःस्वनाम्।
उष्णान्ते तोयदस्येव तोयपूर्णस्य निःस्वनम्॥ ९॥
रक्तां पुष्टाक्षरां रम्यामभयां सर्वदा शिवाम्।
वाणीं परमसंस्कारां वदतां ब्रह्मवादिनाम्॥ १०॥
दिव्यां सत्याकरीं सत्यां सर्वकल्पणाशिनीम्।

सर्वदेवाधिदेवस्य ततोऽसौ भवितात्मनः॥ ११॥
तस्य ब्रह्मसमाप्त्यां तु योगब्रह्मविसर्जने।
अमोघं तस्य देवस्य विश्वतेजो महात्मनः॥ १२॥
कस्य किं वो वरं देवा ददामि वरदः स्थितः।
स्वागतं वः सुश्रेष्ठा मत्समीपमुण्डगताः॥ १३॥

You will hear at the end of the summer season the voice of that lord. It will appear as a thundering cloud, tender with grave sound, filled with love, attractive, impressive words intertwined, all benevolent, processed like the follower of Brahma, divine, truthful and competent to abolish the evils. Thus, when Yogavrata of metaphysician Kaśyapa will be over, lord Viṣṇu will address you all- "O gods! I greet you all come to me. I want to bless you. Ask you all the desirous thing and each will definitely receive the same.

ततोऽदितिः कश्यपश्च गृहणीयातां वरं तदा।

उक्तश्च परया वाचा तथाऽस्त्विति स वक्ष्यति॥ १५॥

Aditi and Kaśyapa then bowed their heads at the feet of lord Brahma and wished that the god might appear as their son with his pleasure. He impliedly fulfil their desire when it is blessed by him.

देवा ब्रुवन्तु ते सर्वे कश्यपोऽदितिरेव च।
तथाऽस्त्विति सुराः सर्वे प्रणाम्य शिरसा प्रभुम्।
श्वेतद्वीपं समुद्दिश्य गताः सौम्यदिंशं प्रति॥ १६॥

Kaśyapa, Aditi and all gods accepted unanimously the suggestion, bowed their heads in honour and marched towards north from the Śvetadvīpa.

तेऽचिरेणैव संप्राप्ताः क्षीरोदं सरितां पतिम्।
यथोद्दिष्टं भगवता ब्रह्मणा सत्यवादिना॥ १७॥
They all reached shortly the bank of Kṣīrasāgara as suggested by lord Brahmā.
ते क्रान्ताः सागरान्सर्वान्पर्वतांश्च सकाननाम्।

Those gods crossed on their way all oceans of this earth, the mountains surrounded by forests and numerous other divine rivers too.

अपश्यन्त तमो घोरं सर्वसत्त्वविवर्जितम्।

They all then saw the land deserted, unseen by the sun, and surrounded by the endless darkness from all sides.

Whey they finally reached the place known as Amṛta, the learned hermit Kaśyapa consecrated all gods of Kāmadavrata for one thousand years in order for the pleasure of that Yogi, thousand-eyed, benevolent Nārāyaṇa.

ब्रह्मचर्येण मौनेन स्थाने वीरासनेन च।

All gods then sat in strict penance by observing celibacy, silence and in posture of Virāsana in an orderly manner.

Lord Kaśyapa chanted a Vedic psalm known as the supreme soul Viṣṇu for attaining their grace.

Grant of boon to Aditi by lord Viṣṇu

लोमहर्षण उवाच

एवं सुतोऽथ भगवान्वासुदेव उवाच ताम्।
अदृश्यः सर्वभूतानां तस्याः संदर्शने स्थितः॥ १॥

Lomaharṣaṇa said- Lord Vāsudeva, invisible to all creatures appeared before her as a result of the prayer so made and said-

श्रीभगवानुवाच

मनोरथांस्त्वमदिते यानिच्छस्यभिवाज्ञितान्।
तांस्त्वं प्राप्यसि धर्मज्ञे मत्रासादान्नं संशयः॥ २॥

Lord Viṣṇu said- O religion abiding Aditi! You shall undoubtedly receive all that is desired by you under my grace.

शृणु त्वं च महाभागे वरो यस्ते हृदि स्थितः।

मदर्शनं हि विफलं न कदाचिद्भविष्यति॥ ३॥

O great lady! Ask for whatever you desire and listen that a glimpse of me by the devotees seldom proves fruitless.

यथेह त्वद्वने स्थित्वा निरात्रं वै करिष्यति।

सर्वे कामाः समृद्धते मनसा यानिहेच्छति॥ ४॥

Whosoever person shall live in this forest for three nights with penance, all his desires will be fulfilled by my pleasure.

दूरस्योऽपि वनं यस्तु अदित्याः स्परते नरः।

सोऽपि याति परं स्थानं किं पुनर्निवसन्नरः॥ ५॥

For to say of the man who resides in that forest when merely remembering once the Aditivana enables a man living at far distance to attain the supreme abode.

यथेह ब्राह्मणान्यज्ञा त्रीन्वा द्वावेकमेव वा।

भोजयेच्छद्वया युक्तः स याति परमां गतिम्॥ ६॥

Whosoever person shall offer food to fire, a tree, two or even only one Brahmin with sheer obeisance definitely will attain the best position in his life.

अदितिरुवाच

यदि देवः प्रसन्नस्वं भक्त्या मे भक्तवत्सल।
त्रैलोक्याधिष्ठितः पुत्रस्तदस्तु मम वासवः॥ ७॥

Aditi said- O merciful god! I wish to see my son Indra, the ruler of three-worlds if you indeed are pleased with my devotion.

हतं राज्यं हतश्चास्य यज्ञभाग इहासुरैः।
त्वयि प्रसन्ने वरद तत्राज्ञोतु सुतो मम॥ ८॥

The monsters have exhorted his state and the share in offering (yajña). O gracious lord! My son should regain his right with your pleasure.

हतं राज्यं न दुःखाय मम पुत्रस्य केशव।
प्रपन्नदायविभूषणे बाधां मे कुरुते हृदि॥ ९॥

O Keśava! The confiscation of the state from my son is not a matter of worry to me but the bereavement of coparcenary share from the subjugated is the strong cause for my pain.

भगवानुवाच

कृतः प्रसादो हि मया तव देवि यथेष्टितम्।
स्वांशेन चैव ते गर्भे संभविष्यामि कश्यपात्॥ १०॥

The lord said- O goddess! I have graced on you as per your desire. I will come to your womb soon by virtue of coition by Kaśyapa through my own rays and thus, will become your son.

तव गर्भे समुद्भूतस्ततस्ते ये त्वरातयः।
तानहं च हनिष्यामि निर्वृता भव नन्दिनि॥ ११॥

I will kill all your enemies after birth from your womb. O Nandinī! return now to your āśrama.

अदितिरुवाच

प्रसीद देवदेवेश नमस्ते विश्वभावन।
नाहं त्वामुदरे वोढुपीश शक्ष्यामि केशव।
यस्मिन्नन्तितिं सर्वं विश्वयोनिस्त्वमीश्वरः॥ १२॥

Aditi said- O god of the gods! Please, be gracious. O beloved of the whole universe! I salute you. O Keśava! O Isā! I will not able to endure you as everything is within yourself. You are Viśvayoni and Isvara.

श्रीभगवानुवाच

अहं च त्वां वहिष्यामि आत्मानं चैव नन्दिनि।
न च पीडां करिष्यामि स्वस्ति तेऽस्तु व्रजाप्यहम्॥ १३॥

The lord said- O Nandini! I will bear you as well as myself and you will feel no pain during pregnancy. I wish all good of you and now leave this place.

इत्युक्त्वाऽन्तहिते देवेऽदितिर्गर्भं समादधे।
गर्भस्थिते ततः कृष्णो चचाल सकला क्षितिः।
चकम्पिरे महाशैला जग्मुः क्षोभं महाब्ययः॥ १४॥

With these words, the lord suddenly vanished. Aditi was conceived within due course of time. The whole universe became capricious since the day Krṣṇa came into the womb of Aditi. The mountains started shivering and oceans frequently rising with tides.

यतो यतोऽदितिर्याति ददाति पदमुत्तमम्।
ततस्ततः क्षितिः खेदान्ननाम द्विजपुण्गवाः॥ १५॥

O great Brāhmaṇas! The earth falling under the feet of Aditi during pregnancy pressed down on her walking.

दैत्यानामपि सर्वेषां गर्भस्थे मधुसूदने।
बभूव तेजसो हानिर्यथोक्तं परमेष्ठिना॥ १६॥

As lord Brahmā had stated earlier, the splendour (so developed by demons by observing religion) of demons began decreasing since the day the lord Madhusūdana appeared in the womb of Aditi.

इति श्रीवामनपुराणे पुलस्त्यनारदसंवादे अदितिवरप्रदानवरणे
अष्टविंशोऽध्यायः॥ २८॥

Bali said- O grandfather! The demons have lost their splendour and their physique is now appearing as singed by fire. Why have all these suddenly become as beaten by Brahmadaṇḍa?

दुरिष्टं किं तु दैत्यानां किं कृत्या विधिनिर्मिता।
नाशायैषा समुद्भूता येन निस्तेजसोऽसुराः॥ ३॥

Has anything wrong taken place for the demons? or any Kṛtyā has been arisen for the destruction of the demons? Otherwise, tell me the reason for the fading of the monsters.

लोमहर्षण उवाच

इत्यसुरवरस्तेन पृष्ठः पौत्रेण ब्राह्मणाः।

Lomaharṣaṇa said- O Brahmins! Prahlāda peeped deep into matter for long when so enquired by Bali. He then replied.

प्रह्लाद उवाच

सद्यः समुद्राः क्षुभिता दैत्या निस्तेजसः कृताः॥ ५॥

Prahlāda said- The mountains are trembling, the earth is losing her patience, the oceans are frequently rising with tides and the demons have lost splendour.

सूर्योदय यथा पूर्वं तथा गच्छन्ति न ग्रहाः।
देवानां च परा लक्ष्मीः कारणेनानुमीयते॥ ६॥

The stars are not moving as before the sun rises. The peculiar Lakṣmī of gods through reason is estimated.

महदेत्महाबाहो कारणं दानवेश्वर।
न ह्यल्पामिति मन्त्रव्यं त्वया कार्यं कथंचन॥ ७॥

O great arm! O king of demons! It is certainly a major cause. One should not deem it a simple matter and you should exercise any measure for it (In case, it is not done, the dire-consequences in future are not ruled out).

प्रह्लादः प्राह दैत्येन्द्रं बलिं वैरोन्निं ततः॥ १५॥

He saw dwarf-shaped lord in the womb of Aditi. Prahlāda fell in the net of overwhelming surprise when he saw all Vasus, Rudras, both Aśvinikumāras, Marutas, Sādhyas, Viśvedevas, Ādityas, Gandharvas, serpents, monsters, his son Virocana, Bali, Jambha, Kujambha, Naraka, Bāṇa, other monsters including himself and the earth, ether, air, water, fire, oceans, mountains, rivers, islands, reservoirs, animals, birds, all human beings, reptiles, Brahmā (the creator), Śiva, stars, constellations, galaxy and all Prajāpatis including Dakṣa. However, he soon returned to conscious and said Bali, the son of demon king Virocana.

तत्संज्ञातं मया सर्वं यदर्थं भवतामियम्।
तेजसो हानिस्त्पन्ना शृण्वन्तु तदशेषतः॥ १६॥

I have now fully known the cause for the loss of your splendour. Listen to it in detail.

देवदेवो जगद्योनिरयोनिर्जगदादिजः।

प्रभुः प्रमाणं मानानां सप्तलोकगुरोर्गुरुः।
स्थितिं कर्तुं जगन्नाथः सोऽचिन्त्यो गर्भतां गतः॥ १८॥

Jagannātha, the god of gods, the yoni of the world, ayoni, the foremost born in the world, unborn, Vareṇya, Varada, Hari, supreme in Parāvars, the axiom of gentlemen in the material and metaphysical world, the authoritative dimension god, preceptor to the preceptors of all the seven lokas has come in the womb for re-establishing stability in this world.

मनादिमध्यो भगवाननन्तः।
त्रैलोक्यपंशेन सनाथपेकः।

कर्तुं महात्पाऽदितिजोऽवतीर्णः॥ १९॥

The god of gods, greatest, beyond the creation of beginning, middle and the last (viz. unborn, unlied, undead), unending great soul god has incarnated in the form of son to Aditi for the welfare of this entire universe.

O the king of demon! Vāsudeva never seen even by Rudra, Brahma, Indra, Sun, Moon and Marīci etc. has been born with one of his rays (Kalā).

यमक्षरं वेदविदो वदन्ति
विशन्ति यं ज्ञानविधूतपापाः।
यस्मिन्नविष्टा न पुनर्भवन्ति
तं वासुदेवं प्रणामामि देवम्॥ २१॥

He is addressed as syllable by the people learned in the Vedas, the innocent people by virtue of their knowledge merge with him and never again fall in the cycle of born and death. I salute Vāsudeva of such characteristics.

भूतान्यशेषाणि यतो भवन्ति
यथोर्मयस्तोयनिधेरजस्मम्।

तं वासुदेवं प्रणतोऽस्थचिन्त्यम्॥ २२॥

I salute Vāsudeva who originates all creatures ceaselessly like the sea waves and calls back to them all within him at the time of great devastation (Mahāpralaya).

न यस्य रूपं न बलं प्रभावो
न च प्रतापः परमस्य पुंसः।
विज्ञायते सर्वपितामहादैसं

I salute daily Vāsudeva whose complexion, power, influence and magnificence is even unknown to Brahmā etc. gods.

स्पर्शग्रहित्री रसना रसस्या।
घ्राणं च गच्छग्रहणे नियुक्तं
न घ्राणचक्षुः श्रवणादि तस्य॥ २४॥

(It is true that) he has provided all creatures with eyes to see, skin to touch, tongue to enjoy taste and nose to smell but he himself is without these sensory organs.

स्वयंप्रकाशः परमार्थतो यः
सर्वेश्वरो वेदितव्यः स युक्त्या।
शक्यं तमीड्यमनधं च देवं

The god of all (Sarveśvara) who himself is light, can be realised through the application of mind. I salute that powerful, adorable, innocent, omnipresent, Īśa, Hari.

यैनैकदंडेष्ठं समुद्धृतेयं

The ever stable earth lifted up by him on a single tooth (viz. when god Viṣṇu incarnated as Varāha) is so powerful as all creatures live on it. He sleeps after merging the entire world within him. I salute such magnificent god Viṣṇu.

अंशावतीर्णं च येन गर्भे
हतानि तेजांसि महाऽसुराणाम्।
नमामि तं देवमनन्तमीश

I salute the god who is like an axe to the world tree (viz. at the time of destruction) ad who had pull out the splendour of mighty demons even when he was in the womb.

देवो जगद्योनिरयं महात्मा
स षोडशांशेन महासुरेन्द्राः।
सुरेन्द्रमातुर्जठरं प्रविष्टे
हतानि वस्तेन बलं वर्षूष्णि॥ २८॥

O great demons! That great soul god in the form of world-yoni has introduced himself into the womb of Indra's mother having sixteenth fraction of his art (Kalā) or rays. He has pull all your physical powers now.

बलिस्त्वाच
तात कोऽयं हरिनाम यतो नो भयमागतम्।
सन्ति मे शतशो दैत्या वासुदेवबलाधिकाः॥ २९॥

Bali enquired- O grandfather! Who is such Hari now become cause for our fright? Here are several thousand demons with us who are more mighty than Vāsudeva.

विप्रचित्तिः शिबिः शंकुरयः शंकुस्तथैव च।
हयशिरा अश्वशिरा भङ्गकारो महाहनुः॥ ३०॥
प्रतापीः प्रधशः शुभ्यः कुक्कराक्षश्च दुर्जयः।
एते चान्ये च मे सन्ति दैतेया दानवास्तथा॥ ३१॥

Among these demons, some are Vipracitti, Śibi, Śāṅku, Ayahśāṅku, Hayaśirā, Aśvaśirā, Bhainkāra, Mahāhanu, Pratāpī, Praghaśa, Śambhu, Durjaya and Kukurākṣa.

महाबला महाबीर्या भूभारधरणक्षमाः।
एषामेकैकशः कृष्णो न वीर्यद्वेष्टनं संमितः॥ ३२॥

All these are great warriors, valorous and even capable to hold the burden of the entire earth. Kṛṣṇa is not even comparable to half power which each of these demons holds.

लोमहर्षण उवाच

पौत्रस्यैतद्वचः श्रुत्वा प्रह्लादो दैत्यसन्तमः।
सक्रोधश्च बलिं प्राह वैकुण्ठाक्षेपवादिनम्॥ ३३॥

Lomaharṣaṇa said- Prahlāda got angry at listening to such a statement derogating the power of god Viṣṇu from his grandson. He said to Bali.

विनाशमुपयास्यन्ति दैत्या ये चापि दानवाः।
येषां त्वमीदृशो राजा दुर्बुद्धिरविवेकवान्॥ ३४॥

All these monsters and demons shall be killed under the rule of such a foolish and malafide king as you are.

देवदेवं महाभागं वासुदेवमजं विभूम्।
त्वामुते पापसंकल्पः कोऽन्य एवं वदिष्यति॥ ३५॥

O evil mind! Who except you shall make such derogatory comments on the god of gods, sovereign Vāsudeva and Mahābhāga Aja?

य एते भवता प्रोक्ताः समस्ता दैत्यदानवाः।
सब्रह्मकास्तथा देवाः स्थावरान्ता विभूतयः॥ ३६॥

ऋते विनाशाभिमुखं त्वामेकपविवेकिनम्।
दुर्बुद्धिमजितात्मानं वृद्धानां शासनातिगम्॥ ३९॥

Who except you, destruction, fool, evil-minded, ignorant to soul (Ajitātmā), violator of elder's advice; will put such derogatory remarks about the revered god who has originated all these demons and monsters told by you including gods, the movable and immovable properties, you yourself, me, these mountains, trees, rivers and forest found in this world with all oceans and islands by one mere friction of his art.

शोच्योऽहं यस्य मे गेहे जातस्तव पिताऽधमः।
यस्य त्वमीदृशः पुत्रो देवदेवावमानकः॥ ४०॥

It is a matter of anxiety to me that the cunning son I am blessed with who could reproduce a son speaking insults to the god of god Viṣṇu.

तिष्ठत्यनेकसंसारसंघातौघविनाशिनि।
कृष्णे भक्तिरहं तावदवेश्यो भवता न किम्॥ ४१॥

For to say your devotion for Kṛṣṇa, the destroyer of the entire world with its creatures, had you not at least take a care of my honour, (who is your grandfather).

न मे प्रियतरः कृष्णादपि देहोऽयमात्मनः।
इति जानात्ययं लोको भवांश्च दितिनन्दन॥ ४२॥

O son of Diti! You yourself including this whole world also knows the fact that I love Kṛṣṇa beyond my own life. (viz. no value of my life without Kṛṣṇa).

जानन्नपि प्रियतरं प्राणेभ्योऽपि हरिं मम।
निन्दां करोषि तस्य त्वमकुर्वन्नौरवं मम॥ ४३॥

In spite of duly known to the fact that I love Kṛṣṇa more than my life, you shown disrespect me condemning that god in my presence.

विरोचनस्तव गुरुर्गुरुस्तस्याप्यहं बले।
ममापि सर्वजगतां गुरुर्नारायणो हरिः॥ ४४॥

O Bali! Your preceptor (father) is Virocana, I am his preceptor (father) and my preceptor (father) is Nārāyaṇa Hari.

निन्दां करोषि तस्मिंस्त्वं कृष्णे गुरुरुर्गुरुरौ।
यस्मात्तस्मादिहैव त्वमैश्वर्याद् भूंशमेष्यसि॥ ४५॥

(When this is the position) you are condemning your preceptor (Virocana), his preceptor (Prahlāda) and my preceptor Śri Kṛṣṇa. Hence, your prosperity shall lick the dust as a result of such gross humiliation.

स देवो जगतां नाथो बले प्रभुर्जनार्दनः।
नव्यहं प्रत्यवेक्ष्यस्ते भक्तिमानत्र मे गुरुः॥ ४६॥

O Bali! That supreme Janārdana is the master of this whole universe. Considering me devoted to my preceptor (viz. I myself) you should have not criticised me.

एतावन्मात्रमप्यत्र निन्दता जगतो गुरुम्।
नापेक्षितस्त्वया यस्मात्स्माच्छापं ददामि ते॥४७॥

O accused of criticising the preceptor of this whole universe! as you have not taken the least care of me, I curse you.

यथा मे शिरसम्छेदादिदं गुरुतरं बले।
त्वयोक्तमच्युताक्षेपं राज्यभ्रष्टस्तथा पत॥४८॥

O Bali! the derogatory remark you made on Acyuta is more cruel than my murder. Hence, dethroned soon and live a pauper's life.

यथा न कृष्णादपरः परित्राणं भवार्णवे।
तथाऽचिरेण पश्येयं भवन्तं राज्यविच्युतम्॥४९॥

As there is no other saviour except lord Kṛṣṇa from the ocean of worldly living, may I see you soon dethroned.

इति श्रीवामनपुराणे सरोपाहात्म्ये उन्निश्चोऽध्यायः॥२९॥

O grandfather! As you have been aggrieved due to my obstinacy, I therefore, accept decay of fame and dethroning.

त्रैलोक्यराज्यमैश्वर्यमन्यद्वा नातिदुर्लभम्।
संसारे दुर्लभास्तात् गुरवो ये भवद्विधाः॥५॥

O grandfather! It is not tough to gain ruling over three-world, the luxury or anything other but a preceptor like you are rarely found.

प्रसीद तात मा कोपं कर्तुमर्हसि दैत्यप।
त्वक्तोपपरिदण्डोऽहं परितप्ये दिवानिशम्॥६॥

O guardian of demons! Be happy and spit on the anger now. I am burning in the fire erupted through your anger.

प्रह्लाद उवाच

वत्स कोपेन मे मोहो जनितस्तेन ते मया।
शापो दत्तो विवेकश्च मोहेनापहतो मम॥७॥

Prahlāda said- O grandson! I was gripped in affection and it had destroyed within moment my discretion. Hence, I cursed you.

यदि मोहेन मे ज्ञानं नाक्षिं स्याम्हासुर।
तत्कथं सर्वगं जानन्हरिं कद्यच्छपाप्यहम्॥८॥

O great demon! Had my discretion not vanished that moment, how then I would have cursed because god is omnipresent.

यो यः शापो मया दत्तो भवतोऽसुरपुंगवः।
भाव्यमेतेन नूनं तस्मात्वं मा विषीद वै॥९॥

O demon king! Don't be anxious any more as the curse will definitely act fully in the course of time.

अद्यप्रभृति देवेशो भगवत्पच्युते हरौ।
भवेथा भक्तिमानीशो स ते त्राता भविष्यति॥१०॥

I suggest you to become a devotee to that lord Acyuta from this day and he only can defend you.

तथा तथा वदिष्यामि श्रेयस्त्वं प्राप्यसे यथा॥११॥

O warrior! You have remembered that god of gods when I cursed you. Hence, I will say all which will good for you.

लोमहर्षण उवाच

एवं सुतो हषीकेशः स तदा वामनाकृतिः।
प्रहस्य भावगम्भीरमुवाचारुडसंपदम्॥ ३२॥

Lomaharṣaṇa said- The dwarf Hṛṣīkeśa then smiled and said in an impressive and elegant manner.

सुतोऽहं भवता पूर्वमिन्द्रादैः कश्येन च।
पया च वः प्रतिज्ञातमिन्द्रस्य भुवनत्रयम्॥ ३३॥

You yourself, Indra etc. gods and Kaśyapa had prayed to me during ancient period. I had also promised to return the empire of heaven to Indra amid your presence.

भूयश्चाहं सुतोऽदित्या तस्याश्चापि मयाश्रुतम्।
यथा शक्राय दास्यामि त्रैलोक्यं हतकण्टकम्॥ ३४॥

Aditi had then worshipped me and I again promised her that I would give Indra an empire consisting of the three-world absolutely free from encumbrances.

सोऽहं तथा करिष्यामि यथेन्द्रो जगतः पतिः।
भविष्यति सहस्राक्षः सत्यमेतद् ब्रवीमि वः॥ ३५॥

I shall chalk out a plan there to enthrone the thousand-eyed Indra on the empire of three-worlds. I am giving a true statement to all of you present here.

ततः कृष्णाजिनं ब्रह्मा हषीकेशाय दत्तवान्।
यज्ञोपवीतं भगवान्ददौ तस्य बृहस्पतिः॥ ३६॥

Lord Brahmā then gave the hide of a black stag to Hṛṣīkeśa and lord Jupiter gave a sacrificial thread (yajñopavīta).

आशाढ्मददाद्यपं मरीचिर्ब्रह्मणः सुतः।
कमण्डलुं वसिष्ठश्च कौशं चीरमथाङ्गिराः।
आसनं चैव पुलहः पुलस्त्यः पीतवाससी॥ ३७॥

Marīci, the son of Brahmā, gave him a stick of Palāsa. Vasiṣṭha gave a kamanḍalu and Aṅgirā gave a silk cloth. Pulaha gave an āsana and Pulastya gave two yellow tint clothes.

उपतस्युश्च तं वेदाः प्रणवस्वरभूषणाः।
शास्त्राण्यशेषाणि तथा सांख्ययोगोक्त्यश्च याः॥ ३८॥

Vedas with chanting "Om", all scriptures and the dictums contemplated on philosophies like Sāṁkhya Yoga etc. automatically inserted themselves into his mind.

स वामनो जटी दण्डी छत्री धृतकमण्डलः।

सर्ववेदमयो देवो ब्लेष्वरमभ्यगात्॥ ३९॥

That Vāmana (dwarf) with matted hair, a stick, an umbrella and a water-pot (kamaṇḍala) then went to the offering (yajña) hosted by demon king Bali.

यत्र यत्र पदं विप्रा भूभागे वामनो ददौ।

ददाति भूमिर्विवरं तत्र तत्राभिपीडिता॥ ४०॥

O Brahmins! The land pressed by the feet of Vāmana while walking were turned into deep trenches on his way to Bali.

स वामनो जडगतिर्मुटु गच्छन्सपर्वताम्।

साञ्चिद्वीपवतीं सर्वा चालयामास मेदिनीम्॥ ४१॥

The slow motion of Vāmana shook the entire earth consisting of oceans, islands and mountains even when he was putting his steps gently.

बृहस्पतिस्तु शनकैर्मार्गं दर्शयते शुभम्।

तथा क्रीडाविनोदर्थमतिजाङ्घ गतोऽभवत्॥ ४२॥

Jupiter became a guide to him and he also put a brake on his swift walking. For the sake of joking and recreation, he was also walking with him at slow speed.

ततः शेषो महानागो निःसुत्यासौ रसातलात्।

साहाय्यं कल्पयामास देवदेवस्य चक्रिणः॥ ४३॥

The great serpent came up from the nether region and began assisting that god with discus in hand.

तदद्यापि च विख्यातमहेर्विलमनुज्ञमम्।

तस्य संदर्शनादेव नागेष्यो न भयं भवेत्॥ ४४॥

That sacred place is popular even today as Ahivila. A man seldom fears serpents when he merely visits that place and sees it.

Chapter 31

Description of the characters of Vāmana and Bali

लोमहर्षण उवाच

सपर्वतवनामुर्वीं दृष्टा संक्षुभितां बलिः।
पप्रच्छोशनसं शुक्रं प्रणिपत्य कृताञ्जलिः॥ १॥

Lomaharṣaṇa said- Bali asked Śukrācārya the reason for the shaking of the entire earth with all forests and mountains.

आचार्य क्षोभमायाति साक्षिभूमिधरा मही।
कस्माद्य नासुराभागान्प्रतिगृह्णन्ति वह्नयः॥ २॥

O Ācārya! What is the reason for the shaking of this entire earth consisting of oceans and mountains and why the fire is not accepting (burning) the oblation offered for the share of monsters?

इति पृष्ठेऽथ बलिना काव्यो वेदविदां वरः।
उवाच दैत्याधिपतिं चिरं ध्यात्वा महापतिः॥ ३॥

Having questioned by Bali, Śukrācārya, the foremost of Vedic scholars, concentrated his mind a long on the topic enquired and then told to the chief of demons.

अवतीर्णे जगद्योनिः कश्यपस्य गृहे हरिः।
वामनेह रूपेण परमात्मा सनातनः॥ ४॥

The everlasting supreme soul and the cause of this world (jagadyoni) has been born as Kaśyapa's son.

स नूनं यज्ञमायाति तव दानवपुंगवः।
तत्यादन्यासविक्षोभादियं प्रचलिता मही॥ ५॥

O demon king! He is undoubtedly, coming to your place of offering and this earth is shivering due to the steps he takes in walking.

कप्पते गिरयश्चैव क्षुभिता मकरालयाः।
नेत्रं भूतपतिं भूमिः समर्था वोदुमीश्वरम्॥ ६॥

By this very reason, these mountains are trembling, the oceans are on tides and this land is not capable to bear the burden of its own master.

सदेवासुरगच्छर्वा यक्षराक्षसपन्नगा।
अमैव धूता भूमिरापोऽप्निः पवनो नभः।
धारयत्यखिलान्देवान्मनुष्यांश्च महासुरान्॥७॥

He himself holds all gods, Gandharvas, demi-gods, monsters, the earth including serpents, the water, fire, air, ether, human beings and all great monsters.

इयमस्य जगद्वातुर्माया कृष्णस्य गह्यरी।
धार्यधारकभावेन यथा संपीडितं जगत्॥८॥

It is the grave illusion of this world holding Kṛṣṇa and this illusion of the holder and the held in turn is being perceived as the vacillation of the world.

तत्सन्निधानादसुरा न भागर्हः सुरद्विषः।
भुञ्जते नासुराभागानपि तेन त्रयोऽग्नयः॥९॥

As he is near, the monsters being enemies to the gods have been denied the oblation (Havi) and due to such influence, the three-fires are not accepting the share of monsters.

शुक्रस्य वचनं श्रुत्वा हृष्टरोमाऽब्रवीद्वलिः।
धन्योऽहं कृतपुण्यश्च यतो यज्ञपतिः स्वयम्॥१०॥
यज्ञमध्यागतो ब्रह्मन्तः कोऽन्योऽधिकः पुमान्।

Bali was in deep exhilaration on hearing the statement of Śukrācārya. He said- O Brahmin! I am the luckiest and most successful of persons as the master himself of offering (yajñapati) is approaching me. Who is there any better person than me?

यं योगिनः सदोद्युक्ताः परमात्मानमव्ययम्।
द्रष्टुमिच्छन्ति देवोऽसौ ममाध्वरमुपेष्यति।
यन्मयाचार्यं कर्तव्यं तन्मपादेष्टुमर्हसि॥११॥

Yogins stake their life in meditation only to see that supreme and imperishable God and he himself is coming today to my place of offering. O Ācārya (Preceptor)! order me what should I do for him?

शुक्र उवाच
यज्ञभागभुजो देवा वेदप्रामाण्यतोऽसुरा।
त्वया तु दानवा दैत्य यज्ञभागभुजः कृताः॥१२॥

Sukra said- O monster! The Vedas authorise only the gods to enjoy the oblations offered in yajña but you have made the monsters to accept them.

अयं च देवः सत्त्वस्थः करोति स्थितिपालनम्।
विसृष्टं च तथाऽयं च स्वयमप्ति प्रजाः प्रभुः॥१३॥

The god approaching here nourishes and gives stability to the world. He too creates the universe and he himself destroys the creation so made. All this is done on the basis of sattva property (guṇa).

भवांस्तु वन्दी भविता नूनं विष्णुः स्थितौ स्थितः।
विदित्वैवं महाभाग कुरु यत्ते मनोगतम्॥१४॥

As god Viṣṇu is engaged in administrative function, you definitely will fall in bondage. Keep this important thing in your mind and do whatever you think best.

त्वयाऽस्य दैत्याधिपते स्वल्पकेऽपि हि वस्तुनि।
प्रतिज्ञा नैव वोढव्या वाच्यं साम तथाऽफलम्॥१५॥

O demon king! Don't bind yourself under any promise and do merely a humble chat that will not involve in giving anything.

कृतकृत्यस्य देवस्य देवार्थं चापि कुर्वतः।
अलं दद्यां धनं देवे त्वेतद्वाच्यं तु याचतः।
कृष्णस्य देवभूत्यर्थं प्रवृत्तस्य महासुरः॥१६॥

O great monster! God Kṛṣṇa is under resolution to favour gods and execute something in their favour. He is determined to bring back prosperity to the gods. Hence don't say that you will give enough money for gods.

बलिस्त्रवाच

ब्रह्मान्कथमहं बूयामन्येनापि हि याचितः।
नास्तीति किमु देवेशं संसारस्याधहारिणः॥१७॥

Bali said- O Brahmin! How can I say even to the common people that the thing begged for is not with me? When this is the position of my conscience, how shall the god of gods be denied by me?

ब्रतोपवासैर्विवैर्यः प्रभुर्गृहते हरिः।
स मे वक्ष्यति देहीति गोविन्दः किमतोऽधिकम्॥१८॥

Countless fasts and resolutions are observed in order to see that Hari and when he himself is coming and will beg me for anything, what achievement more than it will be for me to please him?

यदर्थं सुमहारम्भा दमशौचगुणान्वितैः।

यज्ञाः क्रियन्ते यज्ञेशः स मां देहीति वक्ष्यति॥ १९॥

The god (yajñeśa) himself will beg for something with expressive words from me for whose grace the people observe Dama, purity etc. virtues and perform the most expensive offerings (yajña).

तत्साधु सुकृतं कर्म तपः सुचरितं च नः।

यन्मां देहीति विश्वेशः स्वयमेव वदिष्यति॥ २०॥

As the ruler of this world himself will ask for something from me, it indicates it climax of achievement and confirms the process through which I observed austerity.

नास्तीत्यहं गुरो वक्ष्ये तमभ्यागतमीश्वरम्।

प्राणात्मां करिष्येऽहं न तु नास्ति जने व्वचित्॥ २१॥

O preceptor! Whether you suggest that I should answer in the negative to such a god coming as a beggar? I think it is better to die than to say 'no' to any person.

नास्तीति यन्मया नोक्तमन्येषामपि याचताम्।

वक्ष्यामि कथमायाते तस्मिन्नभ्यागतेऽच्युते॥ २२॥

When I have never refused anything to any person till date, how then will I refuse Acyuta anything on his arrival?

श्लाघ्य एव हि वीराणां दानाद्यापत्समागमः।

न बाधाकारि यद्यानं तदङ्गं बलवत्स्मृतम्॥ २३॥

The excess donation may bring sometimes adversity to the bold persons but O preceptor! the donation not causing any hurdle in anyway is undoubtedly considered a better donation.

मद्राज्ञे नासुखी कष्ठिन्न दरिद्रो न चातुरः।

न दुःखितो न चोद्धिग्नो न शमादविवर्जितः॥ २४॥

हष्टस्तुष्टः सुगच्छी च तृपः सर्वसुखान्वितः।

जनः सर्वो महाभाग किमुताहं सदा सुखी॥ २५॥

Nobody in my realm is pauper, ailing, anxious, sad and in grief and all are virtuous. O lord! all people are healthy, sturdy, satisfied, meritorious and happy here. What to say more when I am also happy always?

एतद्विशिष्टमत्राहं दानबीजफलं लभेत्।

विदितं मुनिशार्दूलं मयैतत् त्वन्मुखवाच्छुतम्॥ २६॥

O sage laureate! I have come to know through your information that I am going to gain the best fruit for donation of a distinct thing.

मत्रसादपरो नूनं यज्ञेनाराधितो हरिः।

मम दानमवाप्यासौ पुष्ट्याति यदि देवताः॥ २७॥

If he satiates the gods by virtue of the donation received from me, it prima-facie purported the pleasure of Hari on my prayer through this offering (yajña).

एतद्विजवरे दानबीजं पतति घेद्गुरौ।

जनार्दने महापात्रे किं न प्राप्तं ततो मया॥ २८॥

विशिष्टं मम तद्वानं परितुष्टाश्च देवताः।

उपभोगाच्छतगुणं दानं सुखकरं स्मृतम्॥ २९॥

If the seed of my donation is sown this time in the king seed, great eligible and revered Janārdana, what is then left escaped from me? The donation is considered a hundred times greater than enjoyment (consumption).

मत्रसादपरो नूनं यज्ञेनाराधितो हरिः।

तेनाभ्येति न संदेहो दर्शनादुपकारस्फृत्॥ ३०॥

Hari as worshipped by me through yajña is definitely pleased with me. He, undoubtedly, is coming here to gratify me.

अथ कोपेन चाभ्येति देवभागोपरोधतः।

पां निहत्नुं ततो हि स्याद्वृद्धः श्लाघ्यतरोऽच्युतात्॥ ३१॥

If he is coming to kill me on account of my restrictions imposed on offering oblations to gods, such a death under his anger too will be for good.

एतज्ञात्वा मुनिश्रेष्ठ दानविघ्नकरेण मे।

नैव भाव्यं जगन्नाथे गोविन्दे समुपस्थिते॥ ३२॥

O great sage! take clear notice of my determination and please don't interfere on donation to god when he arrives here.

लोमहर्षण उवाच

इत्येवं वदतस्तस्य प्राप्तस्तत्र जनार्दनः।

सर्वदेवमयोऽचिन्त्यो मायावामनरूपधृक्॥ ३३॥

Lomaharṣaṇa said- As Bali could finish his statement, Janārdana in dwarf form by illusion appeared there.

तं दृष्ट्वा यज्ञवाटं तु प्रविष्टमसुराः प्रभुम्।

जग्मुः प्रभावतः क्षोभं तेजसा तस्य निष्ठभाः॥ ३४॥

The monsters lost their splendour and began trembling when they saw Hari entered in the place of offering.

जेपुश्च मुनयस्तत्र ये समेता महाघ्वरे।

वसिष्ठो गाढिजो गर्गो अन्ये च मुनिसत्तमाः॥ ३५॥

Vasiṣṭha Viśvāmitra, Garga and other renowned sages present at that yajña sat on japa (silent chanting).

बलिश्चैवाखिलं जन्म मेने सफलमात्मनः।

ततः संक्षेभमापत्रो न कश्चिकिंचिदुक्त्वान्॥ ३६॥

Bali took it as the greatest achievement of his life. As all monsters were trembling and anxious, nobody said anything to Bali.

प्रत्येकं देवदेवेशं पूजयामास तेजसा।

अथासुरपतिं प्रहृं दृष्ट्वा मुनिवरांश्च तान्॥ ३७॥

देवदेवपतिः साक्षाद्विष्णुवामनरूपधृक्।

तुष्टाव यज्ञं वह्निं च यजमानमर्थार्चित्।

यज्ञकर्मणिकारस्थान् सदस्यान् द्रव्यसंपदम्॥ ३८॥

Dazzled by the glowing presence of Hari, everyone adored him there. The dwarf form god Viṣṇu appreciated the yajña, fire, clients, authorised members for performing that yajña and the items used for offering when he was given honour by Bali and those all great hermits.

सदस्याः पात्रमखिलं वामनं प्रति तत्क्षणात्।

यज्ञवाटस्थितं विग्राः साधु सञ्चित्युदीरयन्॥ ३९॥

O Brahmins! all members to that function then arrived there and began appreciating the god Vāmana.

स चार्धमादाय बलिः प्रोद्भूतपुलकस्तदा।

पूजयामास गोविन्दं प्राह चेदं महासुरः॥ ४०॥

Over-excited Bali took Arghya, worshipped Govinda and said to him.

बलिस्तुवाच

सर्वं च सकलां पृथ्वीं भवतो वा यदीप्सितम्।

तददामि वृणुष्वेष्टुं ममार्थाः सन्ति ते प्रियाः॥ ४२॥

Bali said- I give the items like gold, gems, elephant, horses, women, ornaments, cows and villages. The entire earth or, whatever you ask. Please, say what you want. All my possessions are yours.

इत्युक्तो दैत्यपतिना प्रतिगर्भान्वितं वचः।

प्राह समितगर्भीरं भगवान्वामनाकृतिः॥ ४३॥

Vāmana laughed at such an ear-pleasing request of Bali and seriously said-

ममानिशरणार्थाय देहि राजन्पदत्रयम्।

सुवर्णग्रामरत्नादि ततर्थिभ्यः प्रदीयताम्॥ ४४॥

O king! give me only a piece of land measuring three steps as I want to construct a fire-place (agniśālā). Give gold, villages and gems etc. things to other desirous people.

बलिस्तुवाच

त्रिभिः प्रयोजनं किं ते पदैः पदवतां वरा।

शतं शतसहस्रं वा पदानां मार्गतां भवान्॥ ४५॥

Bali said- O the supreme designated! What use will you do of mere three steps measuring land? Ask for at least a land measuring one hundred or one hundred thousand steps.

श्रीवामन उवाच-

एतावता दैत्यपते कृतकृत्योऽस्मि मार्गणे।

अन्येषामर्थिनां वित्तमिच्छया दास्यते भवान्॥ ४६॥

Lord Vāmana replied- O demon king! I am thankful to you and am satisfied. Satisfy other persons with the donation as per their desire.

एतच्छुत्वा तु गदितं वामनस्य महात्मनः।
वाचयामास वै तस्मै वामनाय महात्मने॥४७॥

Hearing these words of great souled Vāmana, Bali gave word to the great Vāmana.

पाणौ तु पतिते तोये वामनोऽभूदवामनः।
सर्वदेवमयं रूपं दर्शयामास तत्क्षणात्॥४८॥

When the custom of donation was under process, Vāmana became gigantic with pouring water drops in his palm. He then showed his body consisting of all gods within it.

चन्द्रसूर्यौ तु नयने द्यौः शिरश्चरणौ क्षितिः।
पादाङ्गुल्यः पिण्डाचासु हस्ताङ्गुल्यश्च गुह्यकाः॥४९॥

(In such a gigantic form) the sun and moon were his eyes, ether was his head, earth was his two feet, the devils were his toes and Guhyaka were the fingers on hand.

विश्वेदेवाश्च जानुस्था जड्ये साध्या: सुरोत्तमाः।
यक्षा नखेषु संभूता रेखास्वप्सरसस्तथा॥५०॥

Viśvedevas were his thighs, Sādhyas both his pubic, Yakṣas his nails and nymphs the lines.

दृष्टिरूपक्षाण्यशेषाणि केशाः सूर्याशवः प्रभोः।
तारका रोमकूपाणि रोमेषु च महर्षयः॥५१॥

All constellations were his sight, sun-beams were his hair, galaxies were his furs and the hermits were seated on those furs.

बाह्वो विदिशस्तस्य दिशः श्रोत्रे महात्मनः।
अश्विनौ श्रवणे तस्य नासा वायुर्महात्मनः॥५२॥

Directions on their angles were his arms, directions were both his ears, both Aśvinikumāras were his ear-balls and air was his nose.

प्रसादे चन्द्रमा देवो मनो धर्मः समाप्तिः।
सत्यपस्याभवद्वाणी जिह्वा देवी सरस्वती॥५३॥

Moon was his forehead and Dharma was his mind, truth was his speech and his tongue was goddess Sarasvatī.

ग्रीवाऽदितिर्देवमाता विद्यास्तद्वलयस्तथा।
स्वर्गद्वारमधूमैत्रं त्वष्टा पूषा च वै भूवौ॥५४॥

God's mother Aditi was his neck, Vidyā (learning) was his shoulders, heaven door was his anus and Tvaṣṭā and Pūṣā were his brows.

मुखे वैश्वानरश्चास्य वृष्णौ तु प्रजापतिः।
हृदयं च परं ब्रह्म पुंस्त्वं वै कश्यपे मुनिः॥५५॥

Vaiśvānara was his mouth and Prajāpati was his testicles, supreme Brahma was his heart and sage Kaśyapa was his Puruṣtvā.

पृष्ठेऽस्य वस्त्रो देवा मरुतः सर्वसंधिषु।
वक्षस्थले तथा रुद्रो धैर्यं चास्य महार्णवाः॥५६॥

Vasu was his back, Marutas were all his body joints, Rudra was his chest and the great oceans were in his patience.

उदरे चास्य गच्छर्वा मरुतश्च महाबलाः।
लक्ष्मीर्घेद्या धृतिः कान्तिः सर्वविद्याश्च वै कटिः॥५७॥

Gandharva and mighty mantras were in his belly and Lakṣmī wisdom, patience, splendour and all learning have existed in his loin.

सर्वज्योतीषि यानीह तपश्च परमं महत्।
तस्य देवाश्चिदेवस्य तेजः प्रोद्भूतपुत्रपम्॥५८॥

All luminaries and supreme Mahat tapa¹ are the splendid lustre of the Great God.

तनौ कुक्षिषु वेदाश्च जानुनी च महामखाः।
इष्टयः पशवक्षास्य द्विजानां चेष्टितानि च॥५९॥

The Vedas were on his body and armpits and great Iṣṭis of yajña, the endeavour of animals and Brahmins were both his pubic zones.

तस्य देवमयं रूपं दृष्ट्वा विष्णोर्महात्मनः।
उपसर्पन्ति ते दैत्याः पतङ्ग इव पावकम्॥६०॥

As the moths go to the flames, those demons rushed to that great soul Viṣṇu in such a gigantic form.

1. The very exalted austerity.

चिक्षुरस्तु महादैत्यः पादाङ्गुष्ठं गृहीतवान्।
दन्ताभ्यां तस्य वै ग्रीवामङ्गुठेनाहनङ्घरिः॥ ६ १॥

The great monster Cikṣura gripped his big toe under teeth. Lord gave a hard blow through the thumb and injured his neck.

प्रमथ्य सर्वानसुरान् पादहस्तलैर्विभुः।
कृत्वा रूपं महाकायं संजहाराशु मेदिनीम्॥ ६ २॥

He churned badly all monsters by using his palms and toes and snatched the earth shortly from them.

तस्य विक्रमतो भूमि चन्द्रादित्यौ स्तनान्तरे।
नभो विक्रममाणस्य सक्षिदेशे स्थितावुभौ॥ ६ ३॥

The moon and sun were at the middle portion of his nipples while they shifted at the navel at the time of measuring the ether.

परं विक्रममाणस्य जानुमूले प्रभाकरौ।
विष्णोरासां स्थितस्यौ देवपालनकर्मणि॥ ६ ४॥

Moon and sun shifted to the pubic zone when lord Viṣṇu measured the supreme loka (world) for divine cause.

जित्वा लोकत्रयं तांश्च हत्वा चासुरपुण्वान्।
पुरंदराय त्रैलोक्यं ददौ विष्णुरुक्तमः॥ ६ ५॥

with his gigantic steps, lord Viṣṇu killed all mighty monsters, measured the three-worlds and gave them back to Indra.

सुतलं नाम पातालमधस्ताद्वसुधातलात्।
बलेर्दत्तं भगवता विष्णुना प्रभविष्णुना॥ ६ ६॥

That mightiest god Viṣṇu then gave Bali the empire of Sutala named nether world which was just beneath the earth.

अथ दैत्येश्वरं प्राह विष्णुः सर्वेश्वरेश्वरः।

इदानीं भुवनं सर्वं दत्तं शक्राय वै पुरा॥ ६ ९॥

Lord Viṣṇu then said to Bali- As I have accepted the water given by you on my palm, you therefore, enjoy longevity for a Kalpa and become Indra when Vaivasvata Manvantara is over and Sāvarṇika Manvantara will commence. This is because I have already given Indra sanction to rule throughout the Manvantara currently in existence.

The provision of the period which is worked out for some more than the seventy one frequency of four ages viz. the period of one Manvanatara, I will regulate the enemies of Indra during this entire period.

O Bali! He had worshipped me with sheer reverence for a long time. Hence, follow my words and enter into the nether world called Sutala and enjoy the divine pleasure there. There are several thousand palaces, reservoirs enriched with full blossoms lotus, fountains and streams flowing with clean and pure water. O demon king! reside there up to the period told by me. Smear scent on body, wear beautiful garments, garlands and sandal, enjoy the company of several hundred beautiful women, their dance and songs and remember that unless you give honour to Brahmins and gods, you will not enjoy all desirous pleasures there. In case, you forget my advice, the Pāśa (lord) of Varuṇa will grip you very hard.

बलिरुवाच

Bali said- O god! O lord! What will the material for my consumption in the nether world? I need them in abundance so that I could keep your grace always in mind without worries.

श्रीभगवानुवाच-

दानान्यविधिदत्तानि श्राद्धान्यश्रोत्रियाणि च।

The Lord said- The donations made by you without following the procedure prescribed, the obeisance without calling expert Brahmins and the havanas you have performed till date without reverence, will bless you there.

अदक्षिणास्तथा यज्ञाः क्रियाश्चाविधिना कृताः।
फलानि तव दास्यन्ति अधीतान्यब्रतानि च॥७९॥

The yajña you have performed without fee (dakṣinā) given to Brahmins, the deeds performed haphazard and the sturdy without resolution shall fructify for you there.

उदकेन विना पूजा विना दर्शणं याः क्रियाः।
आज्येन च विना होमः फलं दास्यन्ति ते बलेः॥८०॥

O Bali! The worship made without water, the ritual without using kuśa grass and the havana without ghee will become fruitful to you.

यश्चेदं स्थानमाश्रित्य क्रियाः काञ्छिकरिष्यति।

Whosoever will perform any activity (religious) at this place, will never be subjugated by the monsters.

Śrāddha, donation, fast or resolution and any activity either made abiding by procedure or not by any person at holiest Jyeṣṭhāśrama and the reservoir called Viṣṇupada Sarovara shall all fructify undoubtedly for him.

ज्येष्ठ मासि सिते पक्षे एकादश्यमुपेष्टिः।

The man attains to the supreme position by observing fast on Ekādaśī of bright fortnight in the month of June (Jyeṣṭha) month, a bath in Viṣṇupada reservoir calls Brahmin and satisfies him with dakṣinā.

लोमहर्षण उवाच

बलेर्वरमिमं दत्त्वा शक्राय च त्रिविष्टपम्।

Lomaharṣaṇa said- After gracing this way Bali and giving the empire of the three-world to Indra, the lord in so gigantic a complexion vanished.

शशास च यथापूर्वमिन्द्रस्त्रैलोक्यपूर्जितः।
निःशेषं च तदा कालं बलिः पातालमास्थितः॥८६॥

The mighty Indra then took over the affairs of the three-world and Bali resided/ruled the nether world throughout the period as suggested by god Viṣṇu.

इत्येतत् कथितं तस्य विष्णोर्महात्म्यमुत्तमम्।
वामनस्य शृण्वन् यस्तु सर्वपापैः प्रमुच्यते॥८७॥

Thus, the best episode pertaining to that god Vāmana was explained. Whosoever will listen to this magnificent story shall definitely be absolved from his sins.

O great Brahmins! Those people shall enjoy healthy living and peace of mind (free from anxiety due to affection) who keep in memory the collocation between Bali and Prahlāda, the deliberation of Bali and Śukra and the noble deeds of Bali and Viṣṇu.

च्युतराज्यो निजं राज्यमिष्टप्राप्ति वियोगवान्।

(By listening to it) the Brahmin gets proper learning in the Vedas, the Kṣatriya conquers the earth and the Vaiśya receives prosperity as also the Śūdra attains pleasure. Its listening absolves a man from his sins.

O goddess! You are the mother of all lokas (worlds) and Araṇi (originator) of the gods. O goddess! all positions of truth, falsehood, leading to emancipation and wealth (essence) are annexed with you like two joint things (matter). O goddess! The supreme knowledge syllable and this mortal world has always existed within you.

Mārkaṇḍeya eulogises Sarasvatī

ऋषय उच्चुः:

The hermits asked- How did the best river Sarasvatī among all other rivers originate? We see it flowing in Kurukṣetra.

How did this holiest river adopt the western direction with its meeting in reservoir, originating several holy places at along its banks and its visible and invisible flow?

The evildoers and whosoever reside there keen of emancipation by putting appropriate control over their senses, get rid of the painful chain of sins coming down from several evils committed in numerous preceding lines and can see the almighty in their hearts.

Account of the forests, rivers and tirthas of Kurukṣetra

ऋषय ऊचुः-

वनानि सप्त नो बूहि सप्त नद्यश्च याः स्मृताः।
तीर्थानि च समग्राणि तीर्थस्नानफलं तथा॥ १॥

The hermits said- Describe please, the magnificence of those seven forests, nine rivers, all holy places and a bath in them.

येन येन विद्यानेन यस्य तीर्थस्य यत्फलम्।
तत्सर्वं विस्तरेणेह बूहि पौराणिकोत्तमा॥ २॥

O best among the hermits learned in the Purāṇas! Kindly tell us the procedure to be adopted for each and every holy place in order to reap perfect grace.

लोमहर्षण उवाच-

शृणु सप्त वनानीह कुरुक्षेत्रस्य मध्यतः।
येषां नामानि पुण्यानि सर्वपापहराणि च॥ ३॥

Lomaharṣaṇa said- Listen to the names of the seven forests of Kurukṣetra as by merely listening to these names, a man attains perfect freedom from the clutches of evils.

काम्यकं च वनं पुण्यं तथाऽदितिवनं महत्।
व्यासस्य च वनं पुण्यं फलकीवनमेव च॥ ४॥
तत्र सूर्यवनस्थानं तथा मधुवनं महत्।
पुण्यं शीतवनं नाम सर्वकल्पघनाशनम्॥ ५॥
वनान्येतानि वै सप्त नदीः शृणुत मे द्विजाः।

दृष्टद्विती महापुण्या तथा हिरण्यवती नदी।
वर्षाकालवहाः सर्वा वर्जयित्वा सरस्वतीम्॥ ८॥

These names are Kāmyak-vana, Aditivana, Vyāsavana, Pulakīvana, Sūryavana, Madhuvana and Śītavana. All these are sacred forests. O Brahmins! now listen to the names of the holy rivers. These are- Sarasvatī, Vaitaranī,¹ Āpagā, Mandākinī, Gaṅgā, Madhusravā, Vāsu, Kauśikī, Dṛṣadvatī and Hiranyavatī. All rivers besides Sarasvatī among these only flow during the rainy season.

The journey should be started when the gatekeeper demi-god Rantuka is duly seen and saluted.

ततो गच्छेत विप्रेन्द्रा नामाऽदितिवनं महत्।
अदित्या यत्र पुत्रार्थं कृतं घोरं महत्पः॥ १२॥

O Brahmins! Aditivana should then be visited. Aditi had observed strict penance here for being blessed with a son.

तत्र स्नात्वा च दृष्ट्वा च अदितिं देवमातरम्।

1. This is no doubt the modern Bytarni, which flows through the north of Orissa; and if it is rightly classed here, the Rksa Range must include the hills which stretch along the south of Chota Nagpore.

पुत्रं जनयते शूरं सर्वदोषविवर्जितम्।
आदित्यशतसंकाशं विमानं चाधिरोहति॥ १३॥

He should then say with folded hands- O king of demi-gods! a man is absolved from his evils when graced by you. Bless me that I could get success for what I have proposed. Pañcanada, another holy place should then be visited. God Rudra had (constructed) flown five rivers here for the demons. It is, therefore, called Pañcanada.

कोटिर्थानि रुद्रेण समाहत्य यतः स्थितम्।
तेन त्रैलोक्यविख्यातं कोटिर्थं प्रचक्षते॥ २८॥

लोमहर्षण उवाच-

मानुषस्य तु पूर्वेण क्रोशमात्रे द्विजोत्तमाः।

The persons doing śrāddha on the bank of Āpagā river shall undoubtedly receive their mission duly achieved.

Saraka-tīrtha is then worth seeing as it is a rare holy place in the three-worlds. A sight of god Maheśvara on the fourteenth day of dark fortnight enables a man to get success in his mission and after death to deserve a place in the abode of Śiva. O great Dvija! Saraka holds three crore holy places in its lap.

Lord Viṣṇu turned in his original form and Śiva in the form of a linga. Nārada duly worshipped them.

O great Brahmins! One should then go to the holy place Rasāvarta. A bath with devotion renders the best achievement to the devotee here.

चैत्रशुक्लचतुर्दश्यां तीर्थे स्नात्वा हृलेपके।
पूजयित्वा शिवं तत्र पापलेपो न विद्यते॥ ४६॥

The evils even cannot touch a man when he takes a bath in the holy place Alepaka on the fourteenth day of the bright fortnight in the month of Caitra (March) and then offer homage to lord Śiva.

ततो गच्छेद्धि विप्रेन्द्राः फलकीवनमुत्तमम्।
यत्र देवाः सगन्धर्वा साध्याश्च ऋषयस्तथा।
तपश्चरन्ति विपुलं दिव्यं वर्षसहस्रकम्॥ ४७॥

O great Brahmins! One should then visit the holy place Phalakīvana. Here reside the gods, gandharvas, sādhyas and hermits. They do penance strictly for one thousand divine years.

दृष्टव्यां नरः स्नात्वा तर्पयित्वा च देवताः।
अग्निष्ठोमातिरात्राभ्यां फलं विन्दति मानवः॥ ४८॥

The man receives the fruit of offering like Agniṣṭoma and Atrirātra by taking a bath in the river Dr̥ṣadvatī and do tarpaṇa of gods.

सोमक्षये च संप्राप्ते सोमस्य च दिने तथा।
यः श्राद्धं कुरुते पर्वतस्तस्य पुण्यफलं शृणु॥ ४९॥

Listen to the fruit of śrāddha on the fifteenth day of the dark fortnight (amāvasyā) with Monday here.

गयायां च यथा श्राद्धं पितृग्रीणाति नित्यशः।
तथा श्राद्धं च कर्तव्यं फलकीवनमाश्रितैः॥ ५०॥

As śrāddha made on Gayā satiates the Pitṛs daily, the persons living in Phalkīvana should perform śrāddha in the same manner.

मनसा स्मरते यस्तु फलकीवनमुत्तमम्।
तस्यैव पितरस्त्रूपे प्रयास्यन्ति न संशयः॥ ५१॥

The man who ever brings to memory the Phalakīvana, his Pitṛs too are satiated definitely.

तत्रापि तीर्थं सुमहत्सर्वदैवरलंकृतम्।
तस्मिन्सात्सु पुरुषो गोसहस्रफलं लभेत्॥५२॥

A holy place sumahat is located there. It is surrounded by gods and the man taking a bath here receives the fruit of the donation of one thousand cows.

पाणिखाते नरः स्नात्वा पितॄन् संतर्प्य मानवः।
अवाप्युदाद् राजसूयं सांख्यं योगं च विन्दति॥५३॥

The man receives the fruit of Rājsūya yajña, Sāṃkhyā (knowledge) and Yoga (karma) when he takes a bath in Pāṇikhātā-tīrtha and do tarpaṇa for Pitṛs.

ततो गच्छेद्धि सुमहत्तीर्थं मिश्रकमुत्तमम्।
तत्र तीर्थानि मुनिना मिश्रितानि महात्मना॥५४॥
व्यासेन मुनिशार्दूल दधीच्यर्थं महात्मना।
सर्वतीर्थेषु स स्नाति मिश्रके स्नाति यो नरः॥५५॥

Another holy place Miśraka is then worth visiting. O great hermits! The great soul Vyāsa had mixed the water of all holy places here for Dadhīci. The man taking a bath in Miśraka-tīrtha thus, is considered as if he has bathed in all holy places.

ततो व्यासवनं गच्छेन्नियतो नियताशनः।
मनोजवे नरः स्नात्वा दृष्टा देवं मनीषिणम्॥५६॥
मनसा चिन्तितं सर्वं सिद्ध्यते नात्र संशयः।

तत्र स्नात्वा च वै देवान्पितॄश्च प्रयतो नरः।
स देव्या समनुज्ञातो यथा सिद्धिं लभेन्नरः॥५८॥

One should then impose control over one's senses and observe punctuality in diet. Vyāsavana is then the next visiting place. A bath in "Manojava" and the sight of lord Śiva undoubtedly renders the man with desired success. A bath and worship of gods and Pitṛs in Madhuvatī, a holy place pertaining to goddess, endows supreme axiom/achievement by the grace of goddess.

कौशिक्याः संगमे यस्तु दृष्टद्वत्यां नरोत्तमः।
स्तायीत नियताहारः सर्वपापैः प्रमुच्यते॥५९॥

A bath at the confluence of Kauśikī and Drṣadvatī rivers effaces all the sins attached with a man.

ततो व्यासस्थलौ गच्छेद्यत्र व्यासेन धीमता।
पुत्रशोकाभिभूतेन देहत्यागाय निश्चयः॥६०॥
कृतो देवैश्च विश्रेन्द्रं पुनरुत्थापितस्तदा।
अभिगम्य स्थलौ तस्य पुत्रशोकं न विन्दति॥६१॥

O great Brahmins! There comes then Vyāsatālī where the learned Vedavyāsa had decided to take his last breath in agony of his son's death. However, the gods had again inspired and consoled him. A man seldom suffers from the agony of his son's death whosoever visits there.

किंदत्तं कूपमासाद्य तिलप्रस्थं प्रदाय च।
गच्छेद्य परमां सिद्धिं ऋणैर्मुक्तिमवाप्युत्तम्॥६२॥

A visit at Kīndatta Kūpa and donation of sesamum a prastha (a certain measurement of quantum) ensures supreme achievement and liberty from the burden of debts to a man.

अहं च सुदिनं चैव द्वे तीर्थे भुवि दुर्लभे।
तयोः स्नात्वा विशुद्धात्मा सूर्यलोकमवाप्युत्तम्॥६३॥

The two holy places- Ahṇa and Sudina are among the rare places on the earth. A bath in them ensures achieving the abode of sun for a man.

कृतजप्यं ततो गच्छेत् त्रिषु लोकेषु विश्रुतम्।
तत्रापि भिषेकं कुर्वते गङ्गायां प्रयतः स्थितः॥६४॥

तत्र स्नात्वा श्रद्धानां कोटियज्ञफलं लभेत्।
ततो वामनकं गच्छेन्निषु लोकेषु विश्रुतम्॥६६॥
यत्र वामनरूपेण विष्णुना प्रभविष्णुना।
बलेरपहतं राज्यमिन्द्राय प्रतिपादितम्॥६७॥

One should then go at Krtajapya, a holy place renowned throughout the three worlds. Regular dwelling and bath in the Gaṅgā as also worship of Mahādeva endows one with the fruit of Aśvamedha (horse sacrifice). Kotī-tīrtha is also there where a bath and homage to Kotīsvāra gives a man the fruit of a crore yajñas. Then there is Vāmanaka, another holy place known to the three-worlds. It is the same place where Vāmana (dwarf) from Viṣṇu had trickily confiscated the empire from Bali and headed it over to Indra.

तत्र विष्णुपदे स्नात्वा अर्चयित्वा च वामनम्।
सर्वपापविशुद्धात्मा विष्णुलोकमवाप्नुयात्॥६८॥

The man attains the abode of Viṣṇu when duly purified by a bath in Viṣṇupada, a holy place and worship of god Vāmana.

ज्येष्ठाश्रमं च तत्रैव सर्वपातकनाशनम्।
तं तु दृष्ट्वा नरो मुक्तिं संप्रयाति न संशयः॥६९॥

Jyeṣṭhāśrama is also located there. A mere sight of this place enables a man to get emancipation.

ज्येष्ठे मासि सिते पक्षे एकादश्यामुपेषितः।
द्वादश्यां च नरः स्नात्वा ज्येष्ठत्वं लभते नृषु॥७०॥

A man gets better living than common men if he observes fast on the eleventh day of bright fortnight in the month of Jyeṣṭha (June) month and takes bath on Dvādaśī (the twelfth day).

तत्र प्रतिष्ठिता विप्रा विष्णुना प्रभविष्णुना।
दीक्षाप्रतिष्ठासंयुक्ता विष्णुप्रीणनतत्परा:॥७१॥

The magnificence lord Viṣṇu had blessed with supreme position to the Brahmins who were qualified in procedure of yajña etc. and who had worshipped him with due honour.

तेभ्यो दत्तानि श्राद्धानि दानानि विवधानि च।
अक्षयाणि भविष्यन्ति यावन्मन्वन्तरस्थितिः॥७२॥

The donations given to Brahmins fructify undepleting and gain stability up to one Manvantara (viz. the period in which four eras cycled seventy one time).

तत्रैव कोटिर्थीं च त्रिषु लोकेषु विश्रुतम्।
तस्मिस्तीर्थे नरः स्नात्वा कोटियज्ञफलं लभेत्॥७३॥

There also exists Kotī-tīrtha, a renowned holy place throughout the three worlds.

कोटीश्वरं नरो दृष्ट्वा तस्मिस्तीर्थे महेश्वरम्।
महादेवप्रसादेन गाणपत्यमवाप्नुयात्॥७४॥

The person receives Gāṇapatiya by the grace of Mahādeva when he pay homage to Kotīsvāra Maheśvara in that holy place.

तत्रैव सुमहतीर्थं सूर्यस्य च महात्मनः।
तस्मिन्स्नात्वा भक्तियुक्तः सूर्यलोके महीयते॥७५॥

The great holy place of great soul Sūryadeva is there. The man is adored in the abode of sun by taking a bath with sheer devotion there.

ततो गच्छेद्य विप्रेन्द्रास्तीर्थं कल्पनाशनम्।
कूलोत्तारणनामानं विष्णुना कल्पितं पुरा॥७६॥
वर्णनामाश्रमाणां च तारणाय सुनिर्मलम्।

O great Brahmins! One should then go to Kulottāraṇa-tīrtha. It sways all sins attached to a man. It had been installed by god Viṣṇu for the purification of the people abiding by their religion as prescribed by the Varṇāśrama long ago.

ब्रह्मचर्यात्परं मोक्षं य इच्छन्ति सुनिर्मलम्।
तेऽपि तत्तीर्थमासाद्य पश्यन्ति परमं पदम्॥७७॥

The people willing emancipation through celibacy also see supreme position by a visit there.

ब्रह्मचारी गृहस्थश्च वानप्रस्थो यतिस्तथा।
कुलानि तारयेत्स्नातः सप्त सप्त च सप्त च॥७८॥

The celibate, householder (Gr̥hastha), Vānaprasthī and recluse do welfare for as many as twenty one generations preceding by taking a bath there.

ब्राह्मणः क्षत्रिया वैश्या: शूद्रा ये तत्परायणाः।
स्नाताः भक्तियुताः सर्वे पश्यन्ति परमं पदम्॥७९॥

The Brahmins, Kṣatriya, Vaiśya or Śūdra taking a bath in that holy place receive supreme positions.

दूरस्थोऽपि स्परेद्यस्तु कुरुक्षेत्रं सवाप्ननम्।
सोऽपि मुक्तिमवानोति किं पुनर्निवसन्नरः॥८०॥

The man at far distant place can also attain emancipation by only bringing the scene of Kurukṣetra into his mind. What to say about the man who is permanently living there?

Chapter 37

Account of the tirthas of Kurukṣetra

लोमहर्षण उवाच-

पवनस्य हृदे स्नात्वा दृष्ट्वा देवं महेश्वरम्।
विमुक्तः कलुषैः सर्वैः शैवं पदमवाप्नुयात्॥ १॥

Lomaharṣaṇa said- A bath in the reservoir called Pavana and a vision of Maheśvara effaces all sins of a man and he obtains the position of welfare (Śiva).

पुत्रशोकेन पवनो यस्मिल्लीनो बभूव ह।
ततः सब्रहकर्देवैः प्रसाद्य प्रकटीकृतः॥ २॥

God Pavana was merged in this very reservoir on account of gloom for the separation of his son and Brahmā etc., gods had then pleased him and made him to appear again during ancient period.

ततो गच्छेत अपृतं स्थानं तच्छूलपाणिनः।
यत्र देवैः सगच्छर्वैः हनुमान् प्रकटीकृतः॥ ३॥

One would then go to Amṛta-sthāna of Śūlapāṇi where the gods with gandharvas originated Hanuman.

तत्र तीर्थं नरः स्नात्वा अपृतत्वमवाप्नुयात्।
कुलोत्तारणमासाद्य तीर्थसेवो द्विजोत्तमः॥ ४॥
कुलानि तारयेत् सर्वान्यातामहपितामहान्।
शालिहोत्रस्य राजर्खेस्तीर्थं त्रैलोक्यविश्रुतम्॥ ५॥
तत्र स्नात्वा विमुक्तस्तु कलुषदर्देहसंभवैः।
श्रीकुञ्जं तु सरस्वत्यां तीर्थं त्रैलोक्यविश्रुतम्॥ ६॥
तत्र स्नात्वा नरो भक्त्या अग्निष्ठोमफलं लभेत्।
ततो नैमिषकुञ्जं तु समासाद्य नरः शुचिः॥ ७॥
नैमिषस्य च स्नानेन यत्युण्यं तत्समाप्नुयात्।
तत्र तीर्थं महाख्यातं वेदवत्या निषेवितम्॥ ८॥

A bath in that holy place makes a man immortal. The Brahmin conscious of his clan visit at Kulottaraṇa and satiates with emancipation all generations preceding of his paternal and maternal grandfather. A bath in Śālihotra holy place sways all the physical evils deliberately or innocently committed by a man. Śrīkuñja is a holy place known to the three worlds in Sarasvatī. A bath in that holy place endows a man with the fruit of Agniṣṭoma yajña. Then there comes Naimiṣakuñja. A bath in this place gives the fruit of a bath in the holy place of Naimiṣāraṇya. A renowned holy place on the bank of Vedavatī has existed there.

रावणेन गृहीतायाः केशेषु द्विजसत्तमाः।
तद्वधाय च सा प्राणान्मुमुचे शोककर्शिता॥ ९॥

O great Brahmins! During ancient period, once Rāvaṇa caught her by the hair and in a fit of gloom she wished him killed shortly and took her last breath at this very place.

ततो जाता गृहे राजो जनकस्य महात्मनः।
सीता नामेति विख्याता रामपत्नी पतिद्रवता॥ १०॥

She was then born as daughter of Janaka and became a chaste wife of lord Rāma. She is still remembered with other chaste ladies.

सा हता रावणेनेह विनाशायात्मनः स्वयम्।
रामेण रावणं हत्वा अभिषिष्य विभीषणम्॥ ११॥
समानीता गृहं सीता कीर्तिरात्मवता यथा।
तस्यास्तीर्थं नरः स्नात्वा कन्यायज्ञफलं लभेत्॥ १२॥
विमुक्तः कलुषैः सर्वैः प्राप्नोति परमं पदम्।
ततो गच्छेत सुमहदब्रह्मणः स्थानमुत्तमम्॥ १३॥
यत्र वर्णावरः स्नात्वा ब्राह्मणं लभते नरः।
ब्राह्मणश्च विशुद्धात्मा परं पदमवाप्नुयात्॥ १४॥

Rāvaṇa had abducted her for his self-destruction. As the great resolute (Jitacitta) gets fame, Rāma killed Rāvaṇa, enthroned Vibhiṣāṇa and came back to the throne of Ayodhyā. A man gets the fruit as Kanyādāna by taking a bath in this holy place. All his evils are effaced and one attains supreme position. One should then visit the best and great place of Brahmā. A bath here makes even a man of inferior varṇa get elements of a Brahmin and thus attains the supreme place.

ततो गच्छेत् सोमस्य तीर्थं त्रैलोक्यदुर्लभम्।
यत्र सोमस्तपस्तप्त्वा द्विजराज्यमवासवान्॥ १५॥

Then there comes Soma-tīrtha where the moon had obtained the elements of a great Dvija as he had observed strict penance here.

तत्र स्नात्वाऽर्चयित्वा च स्वपितृन्दैवतानि च।
निर्मुक्तः स्वर्गमायाति कार्तिक्यां चन्द्रमा यथा॥ १६॥

By bath and worship of Piṭṛs and gods, a man is purified as the moon light of full-moon in the month of Kārtika (October).

सप्तसारस्वतं तीर्थं त्रैलोक्यस्यापि दुर्लभम्।
यत्र सप्त सरस्वत्य एकीभूता वहन्ति च॥ १७॥
सुप्रभा काञ्छनाक्षी च विमला मानसहदा।
सरस्वत्योषनामा च सुवर्णुर्विमलोदका॥ १८॥

A holy place, Saptasārasvata is a rare place in the three-worlds. The seven branches of Sarasvatī river known as Suprabhā, Kāñcanākṣī, Viśālā, Mānasahṛdā, Sarasvatī, Oghanāmā, Vimalodakā and Suveṇu conglomerate into one and then a single river flows.

पितामहस्य यजतः पुष्करेषु स्थितस्य ह।
अबुवन् ऋषयः सर्वे नायं यज्ञो महाफलः॥ १९॥
न दृश्यते सरिच्छेष्टा यस्मादिह सरस्वती।
तच्छुत्वा भगवान्नीतः सप्ताराथ सरस्वतीम्॥ २०॥

When all hermits prepared for doing yajña for lord Brahmā in the holy place of Puṣkara, they said- "This yajña shall not fructify with grand success because the holiest river Sarasvatī is not being seen here." Brahmā summoned Sarasvatī through meditation when he heard this averment from the hermits appointed for executing yajña.

पितामहेन यजता आहूता पुष्करेषु वै।
सुप्रभा नाम सा देवी तत्र ख्याता सरस्वती॥ २१॥

The Sarasvatī so summoned by lord Brahmā when seated for yajña in Puṣkara appeared and called Suprabhā.

तां दृष्ट्वा मुनयः प्रीता वेगयुक्तां सरस्वतीम्।
पितामहं मानयन्तीं ते तु तां बहु मेनिरे॥ २२॥

Having seen Sarasvatī flowing swiftly for keeping up the honour of Brahmā, the hermits honoured it very much.

एवमेषा सरिच्छेष्टा पुष्करस्या सरस्वती।
समानीता कुरुक्षेत्रं माङ्गणेन महात्मना॥ २३॥

The great soul Maṅkaṇa brought this holiest and long-existing Sarasvatī and appeared in Puṣkara at Kurukṣetra.

नैमिषे मुनयः स्थित्वा शौनकाद्यास्तपोधनाः।
ते पृच्छन्ति महात्मानं पौराणं लोमर्घणम्॥ २४॥

Śaunaka etc. sages gathered in Naimiṣāraṇya asked the most aged (due to longevity) Lomaharṣaṇa.

कथं यज्ञफलोऽस्माकं वर्ततां सत्पथे मुने।
ततोऽब्रवीम्हाभागः प्रणम्य शिरसा मुनीन्॥ २५॥

"How shall the fruit for yajña come to all of us who always walk through the path of welfare?" That learned hermit bowed his head in honour and continued further.

सरस्वती स्थिता यत्र तत्र यज्ञफलं महत्।
एतच्छुत्वा तु मुनयो नानास्वाध्यायवेदिनः॥ २६॥
समागम्य ततः सर्वे सप्तस्ते सरस्वतीम्।
सा तु ध्याता ततस्त्र ऋषिभिः सत्रयाजिभिः॥ २७॥
समागता प्लावनार्थं यज्ञे तेषां महात्मनाम्।
नैमिषे काञ्छनाक्षी तु स्मृता मङ्गणकेन सा॥ २८॥
समागता कुरुक्षेत्रं पुण्यतोया सरस्वती।
गयस्य यजमानस्य गयेष्वेव महाक्रतुम्॥ २९॥
आहूता च सरिच्छेष्टा गययज्ञे सरस्वती।
विशालां नाम तां प्राहूर्घ्ययः संशितव्रताः॥ ३०॥

The great fruit of yajña has always existed where Sarasvatī resides. The sages learned several Vedas and then remembered Sarasvatī together. When so summoned by the hermits performing session (yajña of long form) river Sarasvatī appeared and known as Kāñcanākṣī to flow through the land of Naimiṣa to give purity to it. That famous river again entered in the form of Sarasvatī when the sage Mañkaṇa summoned her. In the offering (yajña) executed by Gaya at Gayā region, Sarasvatī was summoned again and the hermits gave it the name of Viśālā.

सरित्सा हि समाहूता मङ्गणेन महात्मना।
कुरुक्षेत्रं समायाता प्रविष्टा च महानदी॥ ३१॥

That river summoned by the great soul Mañkaṇa entered in Kurukṣetra.

उत्तरे कोशलाभागे पुण्ये देवर्षिसेविते।
उद्धालकेन मुनिना तत्र ध्याता सरस्वती॥ ३२॥

The hermit Uddālaka summoned Sarasvatī to north Kauśala province which was surrounded by the divine hermits.

आजगाम सरिच्छेष्ठा तं देशं मुनिकारणात्।
पूज्यमाना मुनिगणैर्वल्कलाजिनसंवृतैः॥ ३३॥

Thus, Sarasvatī, the holiest river entered into that province for that sage and worshipped by the sages, wearing tree bark and stag hide for clothes. She got popularity as Manoharā and she is capable to efface all sins.

मनोहरेति विख्याता सर्वपापक्षयावहा।
आहूता सा कुरुक्षेत्रे मङ्गणेन महात्मना।
ऋषेः समाननार्थाय प्रविष्टा तीर्थमुत्तमम्॥ ३४॥

She appeared to give honour to the call of the great soul Mañkaṇa in the holiest place of Kurukṣetra.

सुवेणुरिति विख्याता केदारे या सरस्वती।
सर्वपापक्षया ज्ञेया ऋषिसिद्धनिषेविता॥ ३५॥

Sarasvatī river famous as Suveṇu is worshipped by the hermits and siddhas. She is called a river effacing all sins.

साऽपि तेनेह मुनिना आराध्य परमेश्वरम्।
ऋषीणामुपकारार्थं कुरुक्षेत्रं प्रवेशिता॥ ३६॥

She too appeared in Kurukṣetra for the good of hermits by virtue of the worship made by that sage.

दक्षेण यजता साऽपि गङ्गाद्वारे सरस्वती।
विमलोदा भगवती दक्षेण प्रकटीकृता॥ ३७॥

Dakṣa while performing yajña in Gangadvāra originated goddess Sarasvatī.

समाहूता यथौ तत्र मङ्गणेन महात्मना।
कुरुक्षेत्रं तु कुरुणा यजिता च सरस्वती॥ ३८॥

When Sarasvatī worshipped by Kuru at Kurukṣetra flew there when she was duly summoned there.

सरोमध्ये समानीता मार्कण्डेयेन धीमता।
अभिष्ठूय महाभागः पुण्यतोयां सरस्वतीम्॥ ३९॥
यत्र मङ्गणकः सिद्धः सप्तसारस्वते स्थितः।
नृत्यमानश्च देवेन शंकरेण निवारितः॥ ४०॥

Learned Mārkaṇḍeya brought Sarasvatī in the middle of reservoir through his worship in depth. Lord Śaikara had at the same place prevented Mañkaṇaka who was dancing in the holy place of Saptasārasvata.

Chapter 38

Praise of Śiva by Maṅkaṇaka

ऋषय ऊचुः-

कथं मङ्कणकः सिद्धः कस्माज्जातो महानृषिः।
नृत्यपानस्तु देवेन किर्पर्य स निवारितः॥ १॥

The hermits said- How did Maṅkaṇaka attain special achievement? Who was the father of that great hermit? Why did Mahādeva restrain from him doing dance?

लोमहर्षण उवाच-

कश्यपाच सुतो जज्ञे मानसो मङ्कणो मुनिः।
स्नानं कर्तुं व्यवसितो गृहीत्वा वल्कलं द्विजाः॥ २॥

Lomaharṣaṇa said- The hermit Maṅkaṇaka was the son of Kaśyapa born when he summoned him through intuition. One day he went to take a bath with a tree bark (Balkala) in his hand.

तत्रा गता ह्यप्सरसो रम्भाद्याः प्रियदर्शनाः।
स्नायन्ति रुचिराः स्त्रिघास्तेन सार्थमनिदित्ताः॥ ३॥

The beautiful nymphs like Rambhā etc. also were there and all those most beautiful nymphs began to take a bath with them.

ततो मुनेस्तदा क्षोभाद्रेतः स्कन्नं यदध्यसि।
तद्रेतः स तु जग्राह कलशे वै महातपाः॥४॥

The semen of that sage ejaculated in the river there but it was picked up by that great ascetic in a pitcher.

सप्तथा प्रविभागं तु कलशस्थं जगाम ह।
तत्रष्यतः सप्त जाता विदुर्यान्मस्तो गणान्॥५॥
वायुवेगो वायुबलो वायुहा वायुमण्डलः।
वायुज्वालो वायुरेतो वायुचक्रश्च वीर्यवान्॥६॥
एते ह्यपत्यास्तस्थर्येर्धारयन्ति चराचरम्।
पुरा मङ्गणकः सिद्धः कुशाग्रेणेति मे श्रुतम्॥७॥
क्षतः किल करे विप्रास्तस्य शाकरसोऽस्त्रवत्।
स वै शाकरसं दृष्ट्वा हर्षविष्टः प्रनृत्वान्॥८॥

The semen so collected in the pitcher was divided into seven parts. Seven hermits were born from it and were called Marutas. Their names are- Vāyuvega, Vāyubala, Vāyuhā, Vāyamandala, Vāyujvāla, Vāyureta and mighty Vāyucakra. These seven sons of that hermit holds the movable and immovable world. O Brahmins! I heard that the kuśa point had injured the hand of Mañkaṇaka. Śākarasa began oozing from his hand as a result of such an injury. When he saw that oozing fluid, he became happy and began dancing in merriment.

ततः सर्वं प्रनृतं च स्थावरं जड़यन्तं च यत्।
प्रनृतं च जगदृष्ट्वा तेजसा तस्य मोहितम्॥९॥
ब्रह्मादिभिः सुरैस्तत्र ऋषिभिष्ठ तपोधनैः।
विज्ञसो वै महादेवो मुनेरर्थे द्विजोत्तमाः॥१०॥

This dance had influenced the entire movable and immovable world. When Brahmā etc. gods and austere hermits saw the entire world dancing, they requested Mahādeva.

नायं नृत्येद्यथा देव तथा त्वं कर्तुमर्हसि।
ततो देवो मुनिं दृष्ट्वा हर्षविष्टमतीव हि॥११॥

सुराणां हितकामार्थं महादेवोऽभ्यभाषत।
हर्षस्थानं किमर्थं च तवेदं मुनिसत्तम।
तपस्विनो धर्मपथे स्थितस्य द्विजसत्तम॥१२॥

O god! Do such a thing that can impose restrictions on his dancing. When god Mahādeva saw the hermits in happy moods, he said for their good- O great sages! O great Dvija! What is the reason for your great merriment? You all are austere and religion abiding.

ऋषिस्वाच-

किं न पश्यसि मे ब्रह्मान्कराच्छाकरसं स्रुतम्।
यं दृष्ट्वाऽहं प्रनृतो वै हर्षेण महताऽच्चितः॥१३॥

The hermit said- O Brāhmaṇa! Are you not seeing that Śākarasa is oozing from my hand which the kuśa straw injured? As this is a phenomenon to me, I am very happy and in a vagary of mirth I am dancing.

तं प्रहस्याब्रवीदेवो मुनिं रागेण मोहितम्।
अहं न विस्मयं विप्रं गच्छामीह प्रपश्यताम्॥१४॥

God Mahādeva laughed and replied to the said sage so enchanted- O Brahmin! Look here I am not feeling any surprise to see this.

एवमुक्त्वा मुनिश्रेष्ठं देवदेवो महाद्युतिः।
अदग्नुल्यग्रेण विप्रेन्द्राः स्वाङ्गुष्ठ ताडयद् भवः॥१५॥

O Brahmins! With these words god Mahādeva hit on his thumb by the tip of his finger.

ततो भस्म क्षतात्समान्निर्गतं हिमसत्रिभम्।
तददृष्ट्वा ब्रीडितो विप्रः पादयोः पतितोऽब्रवीत्॥१६॥

Then ashes as white as ice (i.e. clean) began to come out from the injured part. The Brāhmaṇa were ashamed to see it and fell on the feet of god Mahādeva. He said-

नान्यं देवादहं मन्ये शूलपाणेर्महात्मनः।
चराचरस्य जगतो वरस्त्वमसि शूलधृक्॥१७॥

I do not consider you different from Śūlapāṇi Mahādeva. O Śūlapāṇi, you are the best among this movable and immovable world.

त्वदश्रयाश्च दृश्यन्ते सुरा ब्रह्मादयोऽनघ।
पर्वस्त्वमसि देवानां कर्ता कारयिता महत्॥ १८॥

O innocent by deeds! Brahmā etc. gods are seen as your shelter. You are the first among all gods, you are the creator, nourisher and of supreme form (Mahāsvarūpa).

त्वत्प्रसादात् सुराः सर्वे मोदन्ते ह्यकुतोभयाः।
एवं सुत्वा महादेवमृषिः स प्रणतोऽब्रवीत्॥ १९॥

All gods enjoy the pleasure fearlessly under your grace. After the prayer so made, the hermit bowed his head and said-

भगवंस्त्वतप्रसादाद्भिरुपो मे न क्षयं द्रजेत्।
ततो देवः प्रसन्नात्मा तपूषि वाक्यमब्रवीत्॥ २०॥

O god! Nay my penance not deprecate or subside in any way. Mahādeva then was pleased and said to that hermit.

ईश्वर उवाच-

तपसे वर्द्धतां विप्र मत्प्रसादात् सहस्रथा।
आश्रमे चेह वत्स्यामि त्वया सार्जुमहं सदा॥ २१॥

The god said- O Brahmin! may your penance increase several thousand ways. I will always reside in this āśrama with you.

सप्तसारस्वते स्नात्वा यो मार्मचिष्यते नरः।
न तस्य दुर्लभं किञ्चिदिह लोके परत्र च॥ २२॥
सारस्वतं च तं लोकं गमिष्यति न संशयः।
शिवस्य च प्रसादेन प्राप्नोति परमं पदम्॥ २३॥

The man who will worship me by taking a bath in this Saptasārasvata, nothing shall be rare to him in this world and in the world of metaphysics. He shall definitely attain the Sārasvatataloka and occupy a supreme position under my grace (Śiva).

इति श्रीवामनपुराणे पुलस्थनारदसंवादे सरोमाहात्म्ये
अष्टत्रिशोऽध्यायः॥ ३८॥

Lomaharṣaṇa said- One should then visit Auśanasa, a holy place. The Uśana (Venus) had got magnificence having good catch on accomplishments.

तस्मिन् स्थात्वा विमुक्तस्तु पातकैर्जन्मसंभवैः।
ततो याति परं ब्रह्म यस्मान्सवर्तते पुनः॥२॥

The man approaches the supreme Brahma free from the cycle of birth and death and an accumulation of his earlier evils.

रहोदरो नाम मुनिर्यत्र मुक्तो बभूव ह।
महता शिरसा ग्रस्तस्तीर्थपाहात्यदर्शनात्॥३॥

It was the grace of seeing this holy place that freed Rahodara, a sage anxious due to the heavy head stuck with him.

ऋषय ऊचुः
कथं रहोदरो ग्रस्तः कथं मोक्षमवासवान्।
तीर्थस्य तस्य माहात्म्यमिच्छामः श्रोतुमादरात्॥४॥

The hermits said- How was Rahodara, the hermit stuck with a head and how was he freed? We want to listen to you about this magnificence of holy place in detail.

लोमहर्षण उवाच
पुरा वै दण्डकारण्ये राघवेण महात्मना।
वसता द्विजशार्दूला राक्षसास्तत्र हिंसिताः॥५॥

Lomaharṣaṇa said- O great Brahmins! Mahātmā Rāghava had slaughtered the monsters while living in Daṇḍakavana.

तत्रैकस्य शिरच्छिन्नं राक्षसस्य दुरात्मनः।
क्षुरेण शितधारेण तत्पात महावने॥६॥

A head of a monster fell in that great forest as somewhere a sharp edged weapon had slit the same. It was the momentum of blow that his head was thrown at such a long distance.

रहोदरस्य तल्लग्नं जड्णयां वै यदृच्छया।
वने विचरतस्तत्र अस्थि भित्त्वा विवेश ह॥७॥

Eventually it finally fell on the thigh of Rahodara, the sage who was strolling at that time. So high presence it had that it got fixed there by fracturing the bone.

Chapter 39

Praise of Auśanasa Tīrtha

लोमहर्षण उवाच-

ततस्त्वौशनसं तीर्थं गच्छेतु श्रद्धयान्वितः।
उशना यत्र संसिद्धो ग्रहत्वं समाप्तवान्॥१॥

स तेन लग्नेन तदा द्विजातर्ने शशाक ह।
अभिगन्तु महाप्राज्ञस्तीर्थान्यायतनानि च॥८॥

On account of fixing that head on his thigh, the hermit was unable to visit holy places and temples.

स पूतिना विस्ववता वेदनार्तो महामुनिः।
जगाम सर्वतीर्थानि पृथिव्यां यानि कानि च॥९॥

Fainting with intolerable pain, he visited anyhow all holy places on the earth. Due to the deep wound a foul smell began to spread and pus started secreting.

ततः स कथयामास ऋषिणां भावितात्मनाम्।
तेऽब्रुवन् ऋषयो विप्र प्रयाह्नौशनसं प्रति॥१०॥

One day he told about the event thoroughly to the hermits. they advised- "Go to the holy place of Auśanāsa."

तेषां तद्वचनं श्रुत्वा जगाम स रहोदरः।
ततस्त्वौशनसं तीर्थं तस्योपस्पृशतस्तदा॥ ११॥
तच्छिरश्वरणं मुक्त्वा पपातान्तर्जले द्विजाः।
ततः स विरजा भूत्वा पूतात्मा वीतकल्पषः॥ १२॥

ते श्रुत्वा ऋषयः सर्वे तीर्थमाहात्म्यमुन्तमम्।
कपालमोचनमिति नाम चक्रुः समागताः॥ १३॥

O Dvijas! Rahodara went to Auśanāsa. A mere touch of the water proved so magnificent as the head so stuck, fell down into that water. The pain due to the injury vanished within seconds and the hermit returned to his hermitage happily. He again reported how the cure was effected at Auśanāsa. The hermits present there unanimously named it Kapālamocana, when they heard of such a surprising event.

तत्रापि सुमहतीर्थं विश्वामित्रस्य विश्रुतम्।
ब्राह्मणं लब्धवान्यत्र विश्वामित्रो महामुनिः॥ १४॥

A holy place of Viśvāmitra is also there. Here, Viśvāmitra had got the essence of Brāhmaṇa.

स्मिस्तीर्थवरे स्मात्वा ब्राह्मणं लभते ध्रुवम्।
ब्राह्मणस्तु विशुद्धात्मा परं पदमवाप्नुयात्॥ १५॥

Whosoever takes a bath in that holy place, definitely attains the essence of Brāhmaṇa and so a pure hearted Brāhmaṇa attains the supreme position.

ततः पृथूदकं गच्छेन्नियते नियताशनः।
तत्र सिद्धस्तु ब्रह्मर्षि रुषाङ्गुर्नाम नामतः॥ १६॥

One should regulate his routine and put a check on his senses and then visit the holy place Pṛthūdaka. A Brahmarṣi Ruṣāṅgu had got accomplishments (siddhis) here.

जातिस्मरो रुषाङ्गुस्तु गङ्गाद्वारे सदा स्थितः।
अन्तकालं ततो दृष्ट्वा पुत्रान्वचनमब्रवीत्।
इह श्रेयो न पश्यामि नयध्वं मां पृथूदकम्॥ १७॥

The great soul Ruṣāṅgu lived throughout his life at Gaṅgādvāra (Hardvāra) but when he saw the time of last breath coming nearer, he called his sons and said- "Take me to Pṛthūdaka as I do not see any welfare here."

विज्ञाय तस्य तद्वावं रुषङ्गेस्ते तपोदनाः।
तं वै तीर्थे उपानिष्टुः सरस्वत्यास्तपोदनम्॥ १८॥

Giving due honour to the last wish of their father, the austere sons took him to Pṛthūdaka (Sarasvatī-tīrth).

स तैः पुत्रैः समानीतः सरस्वत्यां समाप्लुतः।
स्मृत्वा तीर्थगुणान्सर्वान्नाहेदमृषिसत्तमान्॥ १९॥
सरस्वत्युत्तरे तीर्थे यस्यजेदात्मनस्तनुम्।
पृथूदके जप्यपरो नूनं चामरता ब्रजेत्॥ २०॥

That great soul hermit took a bath in Sarasvatī, remembered the magnificence of the holy places and declared- "The man receives the element of god at death who takes his last breath in Pṛthūdaka, holy place.

तत्रैव ब्रह्मयोन्यस्ति ब्रह्मणा यत्र निर्मिता।
पृथूदकं समाश्रित्य सरस्वत्यास्ते स्थितम्॥ २१॥

ऊर्ध्वभ्यां वैश्यजातीयाः पद्म्यां शूद्रास्ततोऽभवन्॥ २३॥

The Brahmayoni-tīrtha installed by Brahma also falls there. Brahmā prepared himself for acquiring Brahmajñāna which was utilised by him for the wealth of the four varṇas. He seated himself at the bank of Sarasvatī in Āthūdaka. When he was engrossed in the plan of creation, Brāhmaṇa originated from his mouth, Kṣatriyas from his arms, Vaiśyas from both thighs and Śūdra originated from his feet.

चातुर्वर्णं ततो दृष्टा आश्रमस्यं ततस्ततः।
एवं प्रतिष्ठितं तीर्थं ब्रह्मयोनीति संज्ञितम्॥ २४॥

He then saw the four varṇas settled with several stages (āśramas). Brahmayoni, the holy place, was so originated/established.

तत्र सात्वा मुक्तिकामः पुनर्योनिं न पश्यति।
तत्रैव तीर्थं विख्यातमवकीर्णेति नामतः॥ २५॥
यस्मिस्तीर्थे बको दालभ्यो धृतराष्ट्रमर्घणम्।
जुहाव वाहनैः सार्थं तत्राबुध्यत्तो नृपः॥ २६॥

The man desirous of emancipation does not observe his rebirth on the earth. Another holy place is Avakīrṇa here. A hermit Dālbhya (as he was born in Dalbha gotra) Vaka his name had once set the angry Dhṛtarāṣṭra with his chariot into ashes here and then the king could understand his knowledge.

कथं प्रतिष्ठितं तीर्थमवकीर्णेति नामतः।
धृतराष्ट्रेण राजा च स किमर्थं न प्रसादितः॥ २७॥

The hermit asked- How was Avakīrṇa installed and why had the king Dhṛtarāṣṭra pleased Dālbhya Vaka?

लोमहर्षण उवाच-
ऋषयो नैमिषराण्या दक्षिणार्थं ययुः पुरा।
तत्रैव च बको दालभ्यो धृतराष्ट्रमयाचत्॥ २८॥

Lomaharsana said- Long long ago, the hermits residing in Naimiṣāraṇya visited the place of Dhṛtarāṣṭra for dakṣiṇā (alms). One of the hermits Vaka begged for alms (contribution) from Dhṛtarāṣṭra.

तेनापि तत्र निन्दार्थमुक्तं पश्यन्तं तु यत्।
ततः क्रोधेन महता मांसामुक्तत्य तत्र ह॥ २९॥

पृथूदके महातीर्थे अवकीर्णेति नामतः।

जुहाव धृतराष्ट्रस्य राष्ट्रं नरपतेस्ततः॥ ३०॥

The king Dhṛtarāṣṭra told something tantamount to humiliation in a language used by village folk and untrue. Vaka (born in gotra of Dālbhya) was aggrieved at such a behaviour and he vowed to cut flesh and started doing havana of those organs with the intention to destroy the entire kingdom and the king.

हृयमाने तदा राष्ट्रे प्रवृत्ते यज्ञकर्मणि।

अक्षीयत ततो राष्ट्रं नृपतेरुच्छेन वै॥ ३१॥

The nation began falling in morality, bona-fides etc. virtues in the mind of the subject and determination of ruling thus, started due to yajña in strong to destroy.

ततः स चिन्तयामास ब्राह्मणस्य विचेष्टितम्।

पुरोहितेन संयुक्तो रत्नान्यादाय सर्वशः॥ ३२॥

प्रसादनार्थं विग्रस्य हृवकीर्णे ययौ तदा।

ब्राह्मणा नावमन्तव्या: पुरुषेण विजानता।

अवज्ञातो ब्राह्मणस्तु हन्यात्रिपुरुषं कुलम्॥ ३४॥

He then thought over the matter, took it as the act of Brāhmaṇa the king Dhṛtarāṣṭra visited Avakīrṇa holy place in order to please the Brahmin. When the king bowed to the extent the sage had wished, it caused pleasure to the hermit. He said to the king- "A scholar should not disobey the Brahmin because the humiliated Brahmin destroys as many as three generations of the concerned to cause pain to such a level of feelings.

एवमुक्त्वा स नृपयिं राज्येन यशसा पुनः।

उत्थापयामास ततस्तस्य राजो हिते स्थितः॥ ३५॥

He uplifted the king with the stately affairs as also the fame and became a well-wisher and friendly to him.

तस्मिस्तीर्थे तु यः स्माति श्रहथानो जितेन्द्रियः।

स प्राप्येति नरो दिव्यं मनसा चिन्तितं फलम्॥ ३६॥

The man having control on his senses and reverence in mind everyday receives the desired fruits.

तत्र तीर्थं सुविख्यातं यायातं नाम नामतः।
यस्येह यजमानस्य मधु सुखाव वै नदी॥ ३७॥

A holy place known as Yāyāta has existed here. The river had flow with honey for the nutrition of the people seated there in penance.

तस्मिन्स्नातो नरो भक्त्या मुच्यते सर्वकिलिष्टैः।
फलं प्राप्नोति यज्ञस्य अश्वमेधस्य मानवः॥ ३८॥

The man is absolved from all sins by taking a dip in that river and the fruit of Aśvamedha can be had from it.

मधुस्रवं च तत्रैव तीर्थं पुण्यतमं द्विजाः।
तस्मिन्स्नात्वा नरो भक्त्या मधुना तर्पयेत्पितॄन्॥ ३९॥

O Dvijas! A holy place known as Madhusrava has also existed there. A devotee should do tarpana for his forefathers by offering honey to them.

तत्रापि सुमहत्तीर्थं वसिष्ठोद्वाहसंज्ञितम्।
तत्र स्नातो भक्तियुतो वासिंष्ठं लोकमानुयात्॥ ४०॥

A grand and attractive holy place Vasiṣṭhodvāha has also existed there. The man taking a bath in it, receives the loka of Vasiṣṭha.

इति श्रीवामपुराणे पुलस्त्यनारदसंवादे सरोमाहात्म्ये
एकोनचत्वारिंशोऽध्यायः॥ ३९॥

Lomaharṣaṇa said- On account of competition there arose superfluous envy in the mind of Viśvāmitra to cross the limits of Vasiṣṭha the renowned hermit (Sattvavadi) in intelligence.

आश्रमो वै वसिष्ठस्य स्थाणुतीर्थे बभूव ह।
तस्य पश्चिमदिग्भागे विश्वामित्रस्य धीमतः॥३॥

The hermitage of Vasiṣṭha was located in the holy place of Sthāṇu, the āśrama of Viśvāmitra was located at its west.

यत्रेष्वा भगवान्स्थाणः पूजयित्वा सरस्वीतम्।
स्थापयामास देवेशो लिङ्गाकारां सरस्वतीम्॥४॥
वसिष्ठसत्र तपसा घोरस्तपेण संस्थितः।
तस्येह तपसा हीनो विश्वामित्रो बभूव ह॥५॥

The god of gods Sthāṇu (Śiva) first performed yajña and then established Sarasvatī in the form of linga. Vasiṣṭha was engrossed in deep penance there. But, Viśvāmitra was inferior to him in austerity.

सरस्वतीं सपाहूय इदं वचनमब्रवीत्।
वसिष्ठं मुनिशार्दूलं स्वेन वेगेन आनय॥६॥
इहाहं तं मुनिश्रेष्ठं हनिष्यामि न संशयः।
एतच्छुत्वा तु वचनं व्यथिता सा महानदी॥७॥

He called Sarasvatī and said- Bring the hermit Vasiṣṭha with your low (i.e. float him with you). I will kill that great sage at this place. That great river Sarasvatī was shocked to listen to this order.

तथा तां व्यथितां दृष्ट्वा वेपमानां महानदीम्।
विश्वामित्रोऽवदल्कुद्धो वसिष्ठं शीघ्रमानय॥८॥

As Viśvāmitra was in anger, he again ordered- "Go immediately and bring Vasiṣṭha here."

ततो गत्वा सरिच्छेष्टां वसिष्ठं मुनिसत्तमम्।
कथयामास रुदती विश्वामित्रस्य तद्वचः॥९॥

The river went with a heavy heart to the hermit Vasiṣṭha and told him very sadly.

तपः क्रियाविशीर्णा च भृशं शोकसम्बन्धिताम्।
उवाच तां सरिच्छेष्टां विश्वामित्राय मां वह॥१०॥

Chapter 40

Account of the Vasiṣṭha-apavāha-tīrtha in Kurukṣetra

ऋषय ऊचुः-

वसिष्ठस्यापवाहोऽसौ कथं वै संबभूव ह।
किमर्थं सा सरिच्छेष्टा तमृषिं प्रत्यवाहयत्॥१॥

The hermits then asked- How had the Vasiṣṭhapavāha originated? Why had that rivulet swept away that hermit?

लोमहर्षण उवाच-

विश्वामित्रस्य राजर्षेर्वसिष्ठस्य महात्म्यनः।
भृशं वैरं बभूवेह तपः स्पर्द्धाकृते महत्॥२॥

तस्य तद्वचनं श्रुत्वा कृपाशीलस्य सा सरित्।
चालयामास तं स्थानत् प्रवाहेणाभ्यसस्तदा॥ ११॥

He suggested to the sad river- "Flow me to Viśvāmitra; I am ready. So he was flown with the water waves to him from that place.

स च कूलापहरेण मित्रावरुण्यो सुतः।
उहमानश्च तुष्टव तदा देवीं सरस्वतीम्॥ १२॥

As the river carrying safely through her banks that Mitrāvaraṇa (son of Mitra and Varuṇa jointly) began to pray to Sarasvatī.

पितामहस्य सरसः प्रवृत्ताऽसि सरस्वती।
व्यासं त्वया जगत्सर्वं तवैवाभ्योभिरुत्तमैः॥ १३॥

O Sarasvatī! You came out from the reservoir of lord Brahmā. You have surrounded the entire world with your clean water.

त्वमेवाकाशगा देवी मेधेषु सृजसे पथः।
सर्वास्त्वापस्त्वमेवेति त्वतो वयमधीमहे॥ १४॥

You turn in a goddess moving on ether by filling clouds with water. You have existed in the form of all waters. We do study from you (viz. it is the only influence that inspires us for doing perseverance).

पुष्टिर्घृतिस्तथा कीर्तिः सिद्धिः कान्तिः क्षमा तथा।
स्वधा स्वाहा तथा वाणी तवायत्तमिदं जगत्॥ १५॥

You are the endower of health, holding, fame, brilliance, forgiveness, prudence and speech. This entire world is enslaved of you.

त्वमेव सर्वभूतेषु वाणीरूपेण संस्थिता।
एवं सरस्वती तेन सुता भगवती तदा॥ १६॥
सुखेनोवाह तं विप्रं विश्वामित्राश्रमं प्रति।
न्यवेदयत्तदाऽ खिन्ना विश्वामित्राय तं मुनिम्॥ १७॥

You have existed in the form of speech in all organisms. Goddess Sarasvatī so prayed brought that Brahmin comfortably to the āśrama of Viśvāmitra. She offered that innocent sage for Viśvāmitra very sadly.

तमानीतं सरस्वत्या दृष्टा कोपसमन्वितः।
अथान्विषत्प्रहरणं वसिष्ठान्तकरं तदा॥ १८॥

When Viśvāmitra found Vasiṣṭha brought to his home, he began to search for a weapon to kill him with.

तं तु कृद्धमभिप्रेक्ष्य ब्रह्महत्याभयान्नदी।
अपेवाह वसिष्ठं तं पद्येन चैवाभ्यसस्तदा।
उभयोः कुर्वती वाक्यं वञ्चयित्वा च गाधिजम्॥ १९॥

River Sarasvatī saw that violent excitement in Viśvāmitra, smelt of a Brahmin's murder, she immediately turned and flew with his body from there. It again took care in depth of comfortability of Vasiṣṭha.

ततोऽपवाहितं दृष्टा वसिष्ठपृष्ठिसन्तमम्।
अब्रवीक्तोधरक्ताक्षो विश्वमित्रो महातपाः॥ २०॥

The most austere Viśvāmitra was over excited seeing that Sarasvatī has disobeyed him. He thundered a curse on her.

यस्मान्मा सरितां श्रेष्ठे वञ्चयित्वा विनिर्गता।
शोणितं वह कल्याणि रक्षोग्रामणिसंयुताः॥ २१॥

O great river! As you have disobeyed me, carry blood instead of water and pieces of demon's bodies.

ततः सरस्वती शसा विश्वामित्रेण धीमता।
अवहच्छोणितोन्मिश्रं तोयं संवत्सरं तदा॥ २२॥

The gracious river had borne the curse of Viśvāmitra as long as for a year and carried with her the blood of demons.

अथर्वायश्च देवाश्च गच्छर्वाप्सरसस्तदा।
सरस्वतीं तदा दृष्टा बभूवर्भृशदुःखिताः॥ २३॥

Having seen Sarasvatī so dirty, all hermits, gods, gandharvas and nymphs fell into grief.

तस्मिस्तीर्थवरे पुण्ये शोणितं समुपावहत्॥ २४॥
ततो भूतपिशाचाश्च राक्षसाश्च समागताः।

Blood began to flow in that sacrosanct holy place. Devils and Piśācas gathered on the banks of Sarasvatī.

ततस्ते शोणितं सर्वे पिबन्ति सुखमासतः।
तृप्तश्च सुभृशं तेन सुखिता विगतज्वराः।
नृत्यनश्च हसनश्च यथा स्वर्गजितस्तथा॥ २५॥

They began to live peacefully by sipping the blood so flowing with Sarasvatī. They felt gaiety to the extent that they here got heaven through their valour and began dancing in a state of happiness.

कस्यचित्तव्यं कालस्य मुनयः सतोधनाः।
तीर्थयां समाजगमुः सरस्वत्यां तपोधनाः॥ २६॥

With the passage of certain time, the hermits went to the banks of Sarasvatī.

तां दृष्टा राक्षसैर्घेरैः पीयमानां महानदीम्।
परित्राणे सरस्वत्याः परं यत्नं प्रचक्रिरे�॥ २७॥

They (the hermits) began to think over a strategy to rescue Sarasvatī so surrounded by demons due to the flowing of blood (the best diet of rude monsters) for satiating demons.

ते तु सर्वे महाभागाः समागम्य महाद्रताः।
आहूय सरितां श्रेष्ठामिदं वचनमब्लवन्॥ २८॥
किं कारणं सरिच्छेष्टे शोणितेन ह्रदो ह्यमम्।
एवमाकुलतां यातः श्रुत्वा वेत्स्यामहे वयम्॥ २९॥

All those great resolute and lucky people summoned together the river Sarasvatī and said- O great river! We want to listen as to why the reservoir is full of blood?

ततः सा सर्वमाचष्ट विश्वामित्रविचेष्टितम्।
ततस्ते मुनयः प्रीताः सरस्वत्यां समानयन्।
अरुणां पुण्यतोयौधां सर्वदुष्कृतनाशनीम्॥ ३०॥
दृष्टा तोयं सरस्वत्या राक्षसा दुःखिता भृशम्।
ऊचुस्तान्वै मुनीन्सर्वान्दैत्ययुक्ताः पुनः पुनः॥ ३१॥

She then described to them all about the foul play of Viśvāmitra with Vasiṣṭha. The hermits then brought Aruṇa river to make pure the water of Sarasvatī. The demons became sad when they saw the water of Sarasvatī so purified. He began to say frequently to all sages in a state of pain and worry.

वयं हि क्षुधिताः सर्वे धर्महीनाश्च शाश्वताः।
न च नः कामकारोऽयं यद्युयं पापकारिणः॥ ३२॥
युष्माकं चाप्रसादेन दुष्कृतेन च कर्मणा।
पश्चोऽयं वर्धतेऽस्माकं यतः स्मो ब्रह्मग्रक्षसाः॥ ३३॥

All of us live hungry and seldom abide by the rules. It is not our self will that we are committing sins, but our party gets growth due to your neglect and evil acts towards us. We all are Brahmarākṣasa (the people who are lapsed from the essence of Brahma in spite of their birth in the Brahmin community).

एवं वैश्याश्च शूद्राश्च क्षत्रियाश्च विकर्मभिः।
ये ब्राह्मणान्द्रिष्टिं ते भवतीह राक्षसाः॥ ३४॥

The Vaiśya, Śūdra and Kṣatriya too become demons, turn into the tendency of monsters as a result of their various bad activities and are envious to Brahmins.

योषितां चैव पापानां योनिदोषेण वर्द्धते।
इयं संततिरस्माकं गतिरेषा सनातनी॥ ३५॥

Our generations receive a spurt due to the defects of yoni (genital) of misconduct of women. It is the perpetual process of our growth.

शक्ता भवन्तः सर्वेषां लोकानामपि तारणे।
तेषां ते मुनयः श्रुत्वा कृपाशीलाः पुनश्च ते॥ ३६॥
ऊचुः परस्परं सर्वे तथ्यमानाश्च ते द्विजाः।
क्षुतकीटवपनं च यद्येच्छिष्टाशितं भवेत्॥ ३७॥
केशावपन्नमाधूतं मारुतश्वासदूषितम्।
एभिः संस्पृष्टमन्नं च भागं वै राक्षसां भवेत्॥ ३८॥
तस्माज्जात्वा सदा विद्वान् अन्नान्येतानि वर्जयेत्।
राक्षसानामसौ भुड्के यो भुड्के अन्नमीदृशम्॥ ३९॥

You are capable to do welfare of all lokas. The gracious sages made mutual consult and said- The food is polluted when it comes in touch with sneeze and insects, when it is residual after eating, hair dropped in it, received with insult and polluted by excreted air. It becomes the share of monsters.

शोधयित्वा तु तत्तीर्थमृषयस्ते तपोधनाः।
मोक्षार्थं रक्षसां तेषां संगमं चाप्यकल्पयन्॥ ४०॥

The scholar should take notice of these things and give up such food. One who eats such polluted food, eats only the share of monsters.

१.रुणायाः सरस्वत्याः संगमे लोकविश्रुते।
त्रिरात्रोपेषितः स्नातो मुच्यते सर्वकिल्बृष्टैः॥४१॥

That man becomes free from the clutches of all evils who observes fast for three nights and takes a bath in the confluence of Aruṇā and Sarasvatī rivers.

प्राते कलियुगे घोरे अधर्मे प्रत्युपस्थिते।
अरुणासंगमे स्नात्वा मुक्तिमाप्नेति मानवः॥४२॥

On introduction of the gross Kaliyuga with its devastating effects and the communication or spread off demoralise activities, the man taking a bath in the confluence of Aruṇā and Sarasvatī attains emancipation.

ततस्ते राक्षसाः सर्वे स्नाताः पापविवर्जिताः।
दिव्यमालाम्बरधराः स्वर्गस्थितिसमन्विताः॥४३॥

All those monsters then took a bath, received purity of heart, put on divine garlands and clothes and got better positions in heaven.

इति श्रीवामनपुराणे पुलस्त्यनारसंवादे सरोमाहात्ये fruit equal to that of the cows donated in number one thousand.

सोमतीर्थं च तत्रापि सरस्वत्यास्ते स्थितम्।
यस्मिन्नातस्तु पुरुषो राजसूयफलं लभेत्॥४॥

Somatīrtha has existed on the bank of Sarasvatī there. The man who takes a bath in it, receives the fruit equal to the Rājasūya yajña.

रेणुकाश्रममासाद्य श्रद्धानो जितेन्द्रियः।
मातुभक्त्या तु यत्पुण्यं तत्पुण्यं प्राप्नुयान्नरः॥५॥

The man of keen reverence in heart and who has control on his senses, obtains fruits equal to that received in the form of a mother's blessing.

तस्मिन्नातस्तु पुरुषो यशसा च समन्वितः।
कुमारपुरमाजोति कृत्वा श्राद्धं तु मानवः॥७॥

The holy place installed by Brahma absolves the man from the debts of gods, hermits and ancestors. The man becomes illustrious by taking a bath in Ojasa, the place where once Kumāra (Kārtikeya) was coronated. He receives Kumāra Pura as a blessing for the śrāddha made there.

चैत्रघट्यां सिते पक्षे यस्तु श्राद्धं करिष्यति।
गयाश्राद्धे च यत्पुण्यं तत्फलं प्राप्नुयान्नरः॥८॥

The man who will take a bath here on the sixth day of the bright fortnight in the month of Caitra (March) receives the fruit as obtained by how he had observed śrāddha in Gayā.

संनिहत्यां यथा श्राद्धं राहुग्रस्ते दिवाकरे।
तथा श्राद्धं तत्र कृतं नात्र कार्या विचारणा॥९॥

When the sun is gripped by the demon head viz. at the time of solar eclipse and one does śrāddha and the śrāddha observed here is analogous to the view of the magnificence. One should, therefore, doubt on it.

ओजसे हाक्षयं श्राद्धं वायुना कर्थितं पुरा।

Chapter 41

Account of Kurukṣetra-tīrthas and Praise of the Prācī Sarasvatī

लोमहर्षण उवाच-

समुद्रास्तत्र चत्वारो दर्विणा आहताः पुरा।
प्रत्येकं च नरः स्नातो गोसहस्रफलं लभेत्॥१॥

Lomaharṣaṇa said- The hermit Darvi brought there four oceans. A man attains the fruit of the donation made of a thousand cows.

यत्क्षित्यते तस्मिस्तपस्तीर्थे द्विजोत्तमाः।
परिपूर्णं हि तत्पर्वमपि दुष्कृतकर्मणः॥२॥

O great Dvijas! The penance made there gets perfection even when it is made by an evil-doer.

The air had declared several eras ago that the śrāddha observed in Ojasa attains everlasting position. One should, therefore, observe śrāddha there sure.

यस्तु स्नानं श्रद्धानश्चैत्रषष्ठ्यां करिष्यति।
अक्षम्यपुदकं तस्य पितृणामुपजायते॥ ११॥

The pitaras of a person taking a bath with reverence for the peace of mind here on the sixth day of the bright fortnight in Caitra (March) month, receive undepleting water in the heaven (viz. they never feel the discomfort of drinking water while living in heaven).

तत्र पञ्चवटं नाम तीर्थं त्रैलोक्यविश्रुतम्।

A holy place Pañcavaṭa has existed there. This place is popularly known throughout the three-worlds. God Mahādeva himself seated there in the form of a Yogi.

तत्र स्नात्वाऽर्चयित्वा च देवदेवं महेश्वरम्।

The man receives the position of Gaṇapati by taking a dip and worshipping the god of gods Maheśvara. He then lives in the company of gods.

कुरुस्तीर्थं च विख्यातं कुरुणा यत्र वै तपः।
तस्मं सुधोरं क्षेत्रस्य कर्षणार्थं द्विजोत्तमाः॥ १४॥

O great Dvijas! The popular holy place Kurुśīrtha has existed here. Kuru had seated in strict penance here for ploughing the land.

तस्य घोरेण तपसा तुष्ट इन्द्रोऽब्रवीद्वचः।
राजर्थे परितुष्टोऽस्मि तपसाऽनेन सुब्रत॥ १५॥

Indra said when pleased with his deep penance- "O king hermit! I am pleased with the penance made by you."

यज्ञं ये च कुरुक्षेत्रे करिष्यन्ति शतक्रतोः।
ते गमिष्यन्ति सुकृताँल्लोकान्पापविवर्जितान्॥ १६॥

The people observing sacrifice (yajña) for Indra in Kurukṣetra attain the lokas made for noble men and the evils committed by them earlier are effaced.

अवहस्य ततः शक्तो जगाम त्रिदिवं प्रभुः।

यदा तु तपसोग्रेण संतसं देहमात्मनः।
ततः शक्तोऽब्रवीत्प्रीतो बूहि यत्ते चिकीर्षितम्॥ १८॥

God Indra then went to heaven. He laughed to see his Herculean task. Before departing, he made several enquiries ridiculously. When Kuru cultivated his body through toughest penance, Indra asked with love- "Ask for what you desire?"

कुरुस्त्वाच-

ये श्रद्धानास्तीर्थेऽस्मिन्मानवा निवसन्ति ह।
ते प्राप्नुवन्ति सदनं ब्रह्मणः परमात्मनः॥ १९॥

Kuru replied- "May the devotees living at this place, attain the abode of Brahma."

अन्यत्र कृतपापा ये पञ्चपातकदूषिताः।

May the people who had committed any evil anywhere and vitiated of five offences (viz. murder of Brahmins, liquor sipping, theft, sex with preceptor's wife and contact of any kind with these miscreants), receive supreme position by mere a dip in this place!

कुरुक्षेत्रे पुण्यतमे कुरुक्षेत्रं द्विजोत्तमाः।
तं दृष्ट्वा पापमुक्तस्तु परं पदमवाप्नुयात्॥ २१॥

O Dvijas! Kuru is the most sacrosanct place in Kurukṣetra; the evil-doers even receive supreme position merely when they visit here.

कुरुक्षेत्रे नरः स्नातो मुक्तो भवति किल्बिषैः।
कुरुणा समनुज्ञातः प्राप्नोति परमं पदम्॥ २२॥

A man is absolved from all sins by taking a bath in Kurukṣetra and attains supreme position under the grace of Kuru.

स्वर्गद्वारं ततो गच्छेत् शिवद्वारे व्यवस्थितम्।
तत्र स्नात्वा शिवद्वारे प्राप्नोति परमं पदम्॥ २३॥

One should visit then the gate of heaven (Stargadvāra) existed in Śivadvāra (the door of welfare). The man taking a bath in Śivadvāra attains supreme position.

मध्ये अनरकं तीर्थं त्रैलोक्यस्यापि दुर्लभम्॥ २५॥

One should then visit Anaraka, a holy place popular throughout the three worlds. Brahmā exists at its east, Maheśvara at south, Rudrapatnī in the west, Padmanābha in the north and in the middle of them this place has existed.

यस्मिन्स्नातास्तु मुच्येत पातकैरुपपातकैः।

स मुक्तः कलुषैः सर्वैः प्रयाति परमं पदम्।
अन्यत्रापि यदा षष्ठी मङ्गलेन भविष्यति॥ ३०॥

A man is freed from evils and heinous evils committed. A bath on the sixth day of Vaiśakha (May) if it falls on Tuesday, absolves the man from all evils attached. One should donate kalaśa (metal pitcher) full of four Karaka (special vessel) and Apūpas (Mūlapuā) this day after a bath. He should prior to donation worship the god by offering Karakas cooked with cereal. The men taking a bath with this procedure, attains the supreme position after decay of sins attached. If there is the sixth day of month with Tuesday, the bath on that day also fructifies in spite of the month not being Vaiśakha (May).

तत्रापि मुक्तिफलदा कृत्वा तस्मिभविष्यति।

O great Dvijas! The holy place of places viz. the best holy place Kāmyaka-vana is considered. A man receives supreme position as a result of a bath taken there.

यस्मिन्प्रविष्टमात्रस्तु मुक्तो भवति किल्बिषैः।।
यमाश्रित्य वनं पुण्यं सविता प्रकटः स्थितः॥ ३३॥

Even an entrance into this place absolves the sins of a man thoroughly. The sun as Pūṣā has apparently existed in this sacrosanct forest.

पूषा नाम द्विजश्रेष्ठा दर्शनामुक्तिमाप्नुयात्।।
आदित्यस्य दिने प्राप्ते तस्मिन्स्नातस्तु मानवः।।
विशुद्धदेहो भवति मनसा चिन्तितं फलम्॥ ३४॥

O Brahmins! A sight of Pūṣā ensures emancipation of the people. The man taking a bath in that place on Sunday receives the pure body and thus he obtains the desired objects.

Chapter 42

Description of Durgā-tīrtha and others

ऋषय ऊद्युः

काम्यकस्य तु पूर्वेण कुञ्जं देवैनिषेवितम्।
तस्य तीर्थस्य संभूतिं विस्तरेण ब्रवीतु नः॥ १॥

The hermits said- Kindly explain the origin of Kanjatīrtha worshipped by the gods in detail which is located at the east of Kāmyaka.

लोमहर्षण उवाच-

शृणवन्तु मुनयः सर्वे तीर्थमाहात्म्यमुत्तमम्।
ऋषीणां चरितं श्रुत्वा मुक्तो भवति किल्विष्टः॥ २॥

Lomaharṣaṇa said-O hermits! listen to the best magnificence of all holy places. A man is absolved from sins by giving ear to the character of hermits.

नैमिषारण्ये ऋषयः कुरुक्षेत्रं समागताः।
सरस्वत्यास्तु स्नानार्थं प्रवेशं न च लेभिरे॥ ३॥

The hermits of Naimiṣaranya came to take a bath in Sarasvatī at Kurukṣetra but they could not enter.

ततस्तु कल्पयामासु स्तीर्थं यज्ञोपवीतिकम्।
शेषास्तु मुनयस्तत्र न प्रवेशं हि लेभिरे॥४॥

They then constructed a holy place namely "yajñopavītika", the rest of hermits could not access even to it.

रनुकस्याश्रमात्तावद् यावतीर्थं सचक्रकम्।
ब्राह्मणैः परिपूर्णं तु दृष्ट्वा देवी सरस्वती॥५॥
हितार्थं सर्वविप्राणां कृत्वा कुञ्जानि सा नदी।
प्रयाता पश्चिमं मार्गं सर्वभूतिहते स्थिता॥६॥

Goddess Sarasvatī constructed the groves and then she moved towards west for the welfare of all organisms. As the number of devotees living on her banks was increasing, goddess took their comforts in mind and groves were grown there.

पूर्वप्रवाहे यः स्नाति गङ्गास्नानफलं लभेत्।
प्रवाहे दक्षिणे तस्या नर्मदा सरितां वरा॥७॥
पश्चिमे तु दिशाभागे यमुना संश्रिता नदी।
यदा उत्तरो याति सिंशुभूर्वति सा नदी॥८॥

The people who take a bath at the starting place of this river obtain the fruit equal to a bath in the Ganges. At its south side flows Narmadā and Yamunā at the west. It is Sindhu when it flows towards north.

एवं दिशप्रवाहेण याति पुण्या सरस्वती।
तस्यां स्नातः सर्वतीर्थं स्नातो भवति मानवः॥९॥

Thus, the sacred river Sarasvatī flows in several directions. The man taking a bath in them automatically has taken a bath in all holy places.

ततो गच्छेद् द्विजेष्ठा मदनस्य महात्मनः।
तीर्थं त्रैलोक्यविख्यातं विहारं नाम नामतः॥१०॥

O great Brahmins! There is another holy place worth visit at Madanavihāra as it is addressed. It is famous throughout the world.

यत्र देवाः समागम्य शिवदर्शनकाङ्क्षणः।
समागता न चापश्यदेवं देव्या समन्वितम्॥११॥

At this place, the gods desirous of seeing lord Śiva mere come but nobody among them could see god Śiva conjugally compact to each other in body.

ते सुवन्तो महादेवं नन्दिनं गणनायकम्।
ततः प्रसन्नो नन्दीशः कथयामास चेष्टितम्॥१२॥
भवस्य उमया सार्धं विहारे क्रीडितं महत्।
तच्छ्रुत्वा देवतास्तत्र पल्लीराहूय क्रीडिताः॥१३॥

On their failure, an idea emerged and they began to worship Nāndī (the gaṇa of Śiva cardinal popularly known as carrier to lord Śaṅkara having the body of a bull). Nāndī was pleased and described the play of lord Śiva with Umā, (daughter of Himālaya) in varied ways in that "Vihāra". The gods also called their cows and began to play with them in varied ways.

तेषा क्रीडाविनोदेन तुष्टः प्रोवाच शंकरः।
योऽस्मिस्तीर्थे नरः स्नाति विहारे श्रद्धयाऽन्वितः॥१४॥
धनधान्यप्रियैर्युक्तो भवते नात्र संशयः।
दुर्गातीर्थं ततो गच्छेद्वृग्या सेवितं महत्॥१५॥

Lord Śaṅkara was pleased with them and declared that whosoever men take a bath here with observing all serenity shall always be in the company of his beloved and prosperity. One should then visit great holy place Durgā.

यत्र स्नात्वा पितृन्यूज्य न दुर्गतिमवाप्नुयात्।
तत्रापि च सरस्वत्याः कूलं त्रैलोक्यविश्रुतम्॥१६॥

The man who takes a bath and worships in pitaras seldom is deteriorated in material as also metaphysical terms. A well famous in the three-world has existed there.

दर्शनानुक्रिमानोति सर्वपातकवर्जितः।
यस्तत्र तर्पयेद्वान्यितंश्च श्रद्धयान्वितः॥१७॥
अक्षयं लभते सर्वं पितृतीर्थं विशिष्यते।
मातृहा पृथी हयश्च ब्रह्महा गुरुतत्पगः॥१८॥
स्नात्वा शुद्धिमवानोति यत्र प्राची सरस्वती।
देवमार्गप्रविष्टा च देवमार्गेण निःसृता॥१९॥

A mere visit to this holy place blesses the man with emancipation after cleaning all evils with reverence. The man who does tarpaṇa of gods and pitṛs gets everlasting supply of desired material things. Pitṛtīrtha has specific magnificence. The heinous evils such as murder of father or mother or courtship with the teacher's wife can be washed forever in the holy water of this place. So, a dip is enough in the water here. The Sarasvatī at its course facing east has entered through the divine route and emanated from the divine route also.

प्राचीं सरस्वती पुण्या अपि दुष्कृतकर्मणाम्।
त्रिरात्रं ये करिष्यन्ति प्राचीं प्राप्य सरस्वतीम्॥ २०॥
न तेषां दृष्टतं किञ्चिदेहमाश्रित्य तिष्ठति।
नरनारायणौ देवौ ब्रह्मा स्थाणुस्तथा रविः॥ २१॥
प्राचीं दिशं निषेवते सदा देवाः सवासवाः।
ये तु श्राद्धं करिष्यन्ति प्राचीमाश्रित्य मानवाः॥ २२॥
तेषां न दुर्लभं किञ्चिदिहं लोके परत्र च।
तस्मात्राची सदा सेव्या पञ्चम्यां च विशेषतः॥ २३॥
पञ्चम्यां सेवमानस्तु लक्ष्मीवान् जायते नरः।
तत्र तीर्थमौशनसं त्रैलोक्यस्यापि दुर्लभम्॥ २४॥
उशना यत्र संसिद्धं आराध्य परमेश्वरम्।
ग्रहमध्येषु पूच्यते स तस्य तीर्थस्य सेवनात्॥ २५॥

Sarasvatī with its course at east, gratifies even the evildoers also. The man who observes fast for three nights loses all evils in body. Both gods Nara and Nārāyaṇa, Brahmā, Sthānu, Sun and Indra including all gods always live in the east. The man doing śrāddha in Prācī Sarasvatī is nothing left of rare thing in this world and in that world also. One should therefore, always and on the day of Pañcamī (the fifth day of either fortnight) take a bath in Sarasvatī taking the flow towards east. The man who takes a bath here on Pañcamī, obtains wealth in abundance. Auśavaśa is a holy place rare in the three worlds. Śukrācārya got here accompaniments in course of praying to Parameśvara. As a result of residing here the people gain so much intelligence as they are worshipped amid the stars.

एवं शुक्रेण मुनिना सेवितं तीर्थमुत्तमम्।
ये सेवने श्रद्धानास्ते यान्ति परमां गतिम्॥ २६॥

The best holy place where austerity conducted by Śukra hermit was fulfilled ensures the supreme position in the heaven when a dip is taken in this place.

यस्तु श्राद्धं नरो भक्त्या तर्मिस्तीर्थे करिष्यति।
पितरस्तारितास्तेन भविष्यन्ति न संशयः॥ २७॥

A śrāddha with sheer devotion undoubtedly uplifts his pitaras by the inner soul satisfied.

चतुर्मुखं ब्रह्मतीर्थं यत्र मर्यादया स्थितम्।

अष्टम्यां कृष्णपक्षस्य चैत्रे मासि द्विजोत्तमाः।
ते पश्यन्ति परं सूक्ष्मं यस्मात्रावतते पुनः॥ २९॥

O great Dvijas! A reservoir with four corners cylindrical shaped is called Brahm-tīrtha. A bath here on the fourteenth day of eight fortnights and a bath on the eighth day of the dark fortnight with fast and half there at night enables a man to perceive the supreme essence (in its most micro form) and he thus becomes free from the swing of frequent birth and death.

स्थाणुतीर्थं ततो गच्छेत्सहस्रलिङ्गशोभितम्।
तत्र स्थाणुवर्टं दृष्ट्वा मुक्तो भवति किल्विषः॥ ३०॥

One should then visit Sthānu-tīrtha looking magnificent with one thousand lingas. A sight of Sthānu banyan makes the man free from evils.

 लिङ्गनां दर्शनात्पुण्यं स्पर्शनेन च किं फलम्।

The hermits asked- O great hermit! Tell us in detail about the holy place Sthānuvata and the magnificence of the banyan tree there.

How did the reservoir originate, how was it filled with dust? What are the blessings of a visit there to see the lingas and touching them and what magnificence does this reservoir bear?

लोमहर्षण उवाच-

शृणुनु मुनयः सर्वाः पुराणं वामनं महत्।
यच्छुत्वा मुक्तिप्राप्नोति प्रसादाद्वामनस्य तु॥ ३॥

Lomaharṣaṇa said- O all sages! listen to the great Vāmana Purāṇa so magnificent as merely listening to this episode ensures emancipation for a man.

The hermit Mārkaṇḍeya went to him and asked humbly about the magnificence attached to the reservoir, its expanse and location etc. in detail.

मार्कण्डेय उवाच-

ब्रह्मपुत्र महाभाग सर्वशास्त्रविशारद।
बूहि मे सरमाहात्म्यं सर्वपापभयापहम्॥ ६॥

Mārkaṇḍeya said- O Sanatkumāra! You are skilled in all the scriptures and are the son of revered Brahmā. Please, tell us about the magnificence subsiding/effacing the force of evils.

O great Dvija! Tell us further about the number of visible and invisible holy places and the number of liṅgas existed there. Do these provide one with emancipation? Tell also about the fruit for seeing the banyan tree and its origin.

The fruits of Pradakṣṇiā (round revolving) a visit, the visible and invisible holy places, their observation (a sight at them) and the circumstance in which lord Śiva (Sthānu) appeared in the middle of the reservoir are the topics of our curiosity. Further, tell us how god Indra filled again completely this reservoir with dust, the magnificence of Sthānu-tīrtha, the fruit of Cakra-tīrtha, its magnificence with Sūrya-tīrtha and Soma-tīrtha.

शंकरस्य च गुह्यानि विष्णोः स्थानानि यानि च।

O learned sage! Tell us in detail about the secret places (spots) of god Śaṅkara and Viṣṇu located on the bank of Sarasvatī.

बूहि देवाधिदेवस्य माहात्म्यं देव तत्त्वतः।
विञ्चास्य प्रसादेन विदितं सर्वमेव च॥ १३॥

As you know everything by the grace of god Brahmā, please tell about the magnificence of the god of gods very clearly.

लोमहर्षण उवाच-

मार्कण्डेयवचः श्रुत्वा ब्रह्मात्मा स महामुनिः।
अतिभक्त्या तु तीर्थस्य प्रवणीकृतमानसः॥ १४॥

Lomaharṣaṇa said- The mind of hermit was impressed by the praise as made by Mārkaṇḍeya about the sheer devotion for the holy place.

पर्यङ्कं शिथिलीकृत्य नमस्कृत्य महेश्वरम्।
कथयामास तत्सर्वं यच्छुतं ब्रह्मणः पुरा॥ १५॥

He first loosened his posture in which he was seated earlier, bowed his head to god Śaṅkara and described all events pertaining to the long ancient as he had listened from Brahmā, his father.

सनत्कुमार उवाच-

नमस्कृत्य महादेवमीशानं वरदं शुभम्।
उत्पत्तिं च प्रवक्ष्यामि तीर्थानां ब्रह्माभाषिताम्॥ १६॥

Sanatkumāra said- I bow before the factors blessings, Varadātā (who gives as desired) Mahādeva, Īśāna and start telling about the holy places, as heard from Brahmā.

पूर्वमेकार्णवे घोरे नष्टे स्थावरजङ्गमे।
बृहदण्डमधूदेकं प्रजानां बीजसंभवम्॥ १७॥

Long ago, a gigantic egg originated in the form of reproduction (seed) when the entire world with the movable as also immovable objects was destroyed.

तस्मिन्नण्डे स्थितो ब्रह्मा शयनायोपचक्रमे।
सहस्रयुगार्थन्तं सुख्वा स प्रत्यबुद्ध्यत॥ १८॥

Brahmā existed within that egg and he wanted to relax in slumber. Thus, he slept for several thousand eras and then awoke.

सुप्तोस्थितसदा ब्रह्मा शून्यं लोकमपश्यत।
सृष्टि चिन्तयतस्तस्य रजसा मोहितस्य च॥ १९॥

Brahmā, on getting back consciousness, looked around him and found nothing in the cosmic world. Rajoguṇa inserted in his mind suddenly and he began to think of creation.

रजः सृष्टिगुणं प्रोक्तं सत्त्वं स्थितिगुणं विदुः।
उपसंहारकाले च तमोगुण प्रवर्त्तत :॥ २०॥

Rajoguṇa (Rajas property) is considered creative and Sattvaguṇa is promoter. At the line of devastation, the Tāmasa tendency is originated.

गुणातीतः स भगवान्व्यापकः पुरुषः स्मृतः।
तेनेदं सकलं व्याप्तं यत्किञ्चिज्जीवसंज्ञितम्॥ २१॥

(Actually) god is beyond property (guṇa) and omnipresent. He is called Puruṣa. All matters considered organisms are spread by virtue of his art.

स ब्रह्मा स च गोविन्द ईश्वरः स सनातनः।
यस्तं वेद महात्मानं स सर्ववेद निष्ठितम्॥ २२॥

He himself is Brahmā, Viṣṇu and immortal Maheśvara. The person known to that great soul becomes omniscient and free from bondage.

किं तेषां सकलैस्तीर्थैराश्रमैर्वा प्रयोजनम्।
येषां मननकं चित्तमात्मन्येव व्यवस्थितम्॥ २३॥

Whose unending citta (mind and heart) is managed in the soul; there is no necessity of visiting holy places and āśramas.

आत्मा नदी संयमपुण्यतीर्था
सत्योदाका शीलशमादियुक्ता।
तस्यां स्नातः पुण्यकर्मा पुनाति
न वारिणा शुद्ध्यति चान्तरात्मा॥ २४॥

The river constituted by modesty, meditation with realisation of soul is with many holy places in the form of control over the senses and it is filled with water in the form of truth. The man taking a bath in it, gets the pleasure of both purity of heart and mind. Here water cannot purify the river soul.

एतत्रधानं पुरुषस्य कर्म
यदात्मसंबोधसुखे प्रविष्टम्।
ज्ञेयं तदेव प्रवन्दति सन्त-
स्तत्राप्य देही विजहाति कामान्॥ २५॥

It is the main duty of a man to take entrance in the pleasure of self-knowledge (Ātmajñāna). The saints consider him the learned. A man with self-knowledge gives up all his wishes.

नैतादृशं ब्राह्मणस्यास्ति वित्तं
यथैकता समता सत्यता च।
शीलं स्थितिर्दण्डविद्यानवर्जन-
मक्रोधनश्चोपरमः क्रियासु॥ २६॥

There is no other wealth analogous to maintain reluctance from the activities, the virtues like unity, equity, truthfulness, modesty and non-violence through control on temper for a Brahmin in this world.

एतद् ब्रह्म समासेन मयोक्तं ते द्विजोत्तमा।
यज्ञात्वा ब्रह्म परमं प्राप्त्यसि त्वं न संशयः॥ २७॥

O great Dvija! I have explained this knowledge in brief to you. You will definitely access to Brahma when you duly understand it.

इदानीं शृणु चोत्पत्तिं ब्रह्मणः परमात्मनः।
इमं चोदाहरंस्तत्र श्लोकं नारायणं प्रति॥ २८॥

Now listen to the origin of Brahma, the supreme soul. The people reproduce the following hymn about Nārāyaṇa.

आपो नारा वै तनव इत्येवं नाम शुश्रूपः।
तासु शेते स यस्माद्य तेन नारायणः स्मृतः॥ २९॥

Āpa viz. water is called Nāra and (of supreme soul) Tanau. He sleeps on it hence, addressed as Nārāyaṇa.

विशुद्धः सलिले तस्मिन्विज्ञायात्मगतं जगत्।
अण्डं विभेदं भगवांस्तस्मादोमित्यजायत॥ ३०॥

As the god awakened, he understood that the world is shrunk in the egg and he thus, penetrated the egg. "Om" the syllable came out as a result of such penetration.

ततो भूरभवत्स्पाद्धुव इत्यपरः स्मृतः।
स्वः शब्दश्च तृतीयोऽभूद्धूर्भुवः स्वेति संज्ञिताः॥ ३१॥

Then it gave birth to Bhūḥ, Bhuvah and Svaha in an orderly manner. Completely they called "Bhūrbhuvaḥ Svāhāḥ."

तस्मात्तेजः समभवत्तस्वितुरविण्यं यत्।
उदकं शोषयामास यत्तेजोऽणुविनिः सृतम्॥ ३२॥

The splendour that shows with sun was than originated from it. This splendour so come out of the egg dried the water up.

तेजसा शोषितं शेषं कललत्वमुपागतम्।
कललाद्दुदं ज्ञेयं ततः कठिन्यतां गतम्॥ ३३॥

In course when the water was being absorbed, the Śeṣa converted it in the form of gastrula (kalala); it originated Buda-buda (marrow) and then it was solidified.

कठिन्याद्दरणी ज्ञेया भूतानां धारिणी हि सा।
यस्मिन्स्थाने स्थितं ह्याणं तस्मिन् संनिहितं सरः॥ ३४॥

This crystallisation gave birth to the earth and it holds all beings on its breasts. Saṁhitā reservoir is located where that egg was originated and observed by Brahmā.

यदाद्यं निःसृतं तेजस्तस्मादादित्य उच्यते।
अण्डमध्ये समुत्पन्नो ब्रह्मा लोकपितामहः॥ ३५॥

As the splendour originated very first (Ādi), the sun was called Āditya. Lokapitāmaha Brahma was originated from the middle portion of that egg.

उत्त्वं तस्याभवन्मेरुरर्जरायुः यर्वताः स्मृताः।
गर्भेदकं समुद्राश्च तथा नद्यः सहस्रशः॥ ३६॥
नाभिस्थाने यदुदकं ब्रह्मणो निर्मलं महत्।
महत्सरसेन पूर्णं विमलेन वराभ्यसा॥ ३७॥

The outer shell of the egg is the Meru mountain and other mountains are considered the Jarayu (internal crust) of that egg. Ocean and several thousand rivers and the garbhodaka the clean water at the navel zone of Brahma, had filled the reservoir with that magnificent water.

तस्मिन्मध्ये स्थाणुरूपी वटवृक्षो महामनाः।

The banyan tree with its vast trunk has existed just at the middle of it. Brahmin, Kṣatriya and Vaiśya varṇas came out from that tree and Śūdras originated for the service of Dvijas. Then the great hermits Sanaka etc. originated from the mind of inexpressible and unborn Brahmā.

पुनश्चिन्तयतस्तस्य प्रजाकामस्य धीमतः।
उत्पन्ना ऋषयः सप्त ते प्रजापतयोऽभवन्॥ ४०॥

The seven hermits were originated from Brahmā so doing efforts for creation. The all became Prajāpati.

पुनश्चिन्तयतस्तस्य रजसा मोहितस्य च।
बालखिल्याः समुत्पन्नास्तपः स्वाध्यायतत्पराः॥ ४१॥

When Brahma under the influence of doing creation again thought for it, Balkhilyas the hermits having great perseverance originated.

ते सदा स्नाननिरता देवार्चनपरायणाः।
उपवासैर्वैस्तीवैः शोषयन्ति कलेवरम्॥४२॥

They always do bath daily, worship gods, observe several fasts and put command on their body through penance.

वानप्रस्थेन विधिना अग्निहोत्रसमन्विताः।
तपसा परमेणह शोषयन्ति कलेवरम्॥४३॥

They exploit their body for arranging Agnihotra, follow Vānaprastha rite and do strict penance.

दिव्यं वर्षसहस्रं ते कृशा धमनिसंतताः।
आराधयन्ति देवेशं न च तुष्टि शंकरः॥४४॥

They sat on penance for several thousand divine years and became weakest in body and mere breathing was remained with them but god Śaṅkara took no notice of them. He did not appear.

ततः कालेन महता उमया सह शंकरः।
आकाशमार्गेण तदा दृष्टा देवी सुदुःखिता॥४५॥

तच्छुत्वा वचनं देव्याः पिनाकी पातिताश्वकः।
प्रोवाच प्रहस्मूर्धा चारुचन्द्रांशुशोभितः॥४८॥

After a long lapse of period, god Śaṅkara was on his tour with Umā through the ether. The goddess with great resolutions saw them and said to Śaṅkara- "These hermits are bearing great pains in this forest of Devadāra tree. O god! be graceful to me and remove their pains. O god! I ask you if the evils committed by them are so large in account that they could not attain purity even when they exploited their body to the extent that mere bones and some flesh has been left with them." God Śaṅkara laughed at it and said-

श्रीमहादेव उवाच-

न वेत्सि देवि तत्त्वेन धर्मस्य गहना गतिम्।
नैते धर्म विजानन्ति न च कामविवर्जिताः॥४९॥

Srī Mahādeva said- O goddess! The position of religion is deepest and you are still alien to it. These people neither know the essence of religion nor are they free from Kāma (acts or appeal for sex).

न च क्रोधेन निर्मुक्ताः केवलं मूढबुद्धयः।
एतच्छुत्वाऽब्रवीदेवी मा भैवं शंसितव्रतान्॥५०॥
देव प्रदर्शयात्मानं परं कौतूहलं हि मे।
स इत्युक्त उवाचेदं देवीं देवः स्मिताननः॥५१॥

Anger is also affiliated with them. These are merely stupid. The goddess said- "Don't say these words specially for these people who are seated on long penance. O god! Please make your appearance before them. I am in surprise at your statement used for them. Śaṅkara laughed at this and said-

तिष्ठ त्वमत्र यास्यामि यत्रैते मुनिपुंगवाः।
साधयन्ति तपो घोरं दर्शयिष्यामि चेष्टितम्॥५२॥

Stop here. I play some art where these hermits are seated in gross penance.

इत्युक्ता तु ततो देवी शंकरेण महात्मना।
गच्छस्वेत्याह मुदिता भर्तरं भुवनेश्वरम्॥५३॥
यत्र ते मुनयः सर्वे काष्ठलोष्टसमाः स्थिताः।
अधीयाना महाभागः कृतानिसदनक्रियाः॥५४॥

The goddess felt happiness and said- "You should go surely to the place where those living hermits well known to Agnihotra, perseverance and who are this time looking as wood and lump of clay.

तान्विलोक्य ततो देवो नग्नः सर्वाङ्गासुन्दरः।
वनभालाकृतार्पीडो युवा भिक्षाकपात्लभृत्॥५५॥
आश्रमे पर्यटभिक्षां मुनीनां दर्शनं प्रति।
देहि भिक्षां ततश्चोक्त्वा ह्याश्रमादाश्रमं यथौ॥५६॥

God Śaṅkara converted his body into an ascetic naked fully in body and young. He started asking for alms serially from one āśrama to another.

तं विलोक्याश्रमगतं योषितो ब्रह्मवादिनाम्।
सकौतुकस्वभावेन तस्य रूपेण मोहिताः॥५७॥
प्रोच्यः परस्परं नार्य एहि पश्याम भिक्षुकम्।

गृहणं भिक्षामूच्युस्तासं देवं मुनियोषितः।
स तु भिक्षाकपालं तं प्रसार्य बहु सादरम्॥५९॥

The wives of those Brahma followers attracted towards him, were surprised and with a curiosity to see him more closely they said to each other- "Come with us. We should see this beggar." They collected the fruits and roots, went to the beggar and said- "receive alms." He also stretched the alms pot (kapāla) in honour before them.

देहि देहि भिक्षां शिखं वोऽस्तु भवतीभ्यस्तपोवने।
हसमानस्तु देवेशस्तत्र देव्या निरीक्षितः।
तस्मै दत्त्वैव तां भिक्षां प्रपञ्चुस्ताः स्मरतुराः॥६०॥

Pārvatī was seeing lord Śaṅkara saying O native of this place of penance! give alms. May all you see welfare. He was laughing with words. Some of the ladies asked him as they were incited for courtship.

नार्य ऊच्यः

कोऽसौ नाम व्रतविधिस्त्वया तापस सेव्यते।
यत्र नमेन लिङ्गेन वनमालाविभूषितः।
भवान्वै तापसो हृषी शूहि स्मो यदि मन्यसे॥६१॥

The ladies said- O ascetic! tell us the purpose for observing so hard penance at the youth and that too with a naked body. If you sanction, we can offer ourselves for courtship.

इत्युक्तस्तापसीभिस्तु प्रोवाच हसिताननः।
इदमीदृग् व्रतं किञ्चित्र रहस्यं प्रकाशते॥६२॥

Śaṅkara laughed again and said- "The purpose of this penance cannot be told as it is mysterious enough."

शृण्वन्ति बहवो यत्र तत्र वाऽख्या न विद्यते।
अस्य व्रतस्य सुभगा इति मत्वा गमिष्यथा॥६३॥

O lucky woman! This mystery cannot be explained in the presence of several people. Take this thing as explanation and go on your way to home.

एवमुक्तास्तदा तेन ताः प्रत्यूच्युस्तदा मुनिम्।
रहस्ये हि गमिष्यामो मुने नः कौतुकं महत्॥६४॥

They replied immediately- O sage! As we are curious enough to know, we shall go at solitude with you.

इत्युक्त्वा तास्तदा तं वै जगृहुः पाणिपल्लवैः।
काचित्कण्ठे सकर्दर्पा बाहुभ्यामपरास्तथा॥६५॥
जानुभ्यामपरा नार्यः केशेषु ललितापराः।
अपरास्तु कटीरस्ये अपरा पादयोरपि॥६६॥

With these words they all simultaneously gripped his body through arms, some were hung on to his neck, some others gripped him in arms, some gripped his pubic, some began pulling his hair, some wrapped with his loin and certain others caught his feet.

क्षोभं विलोक्य मुनय आश्रमेषु स्वयोषिताम्।
हन्यतामिति संधाय्य काष्ठपाषाणपाणयः॥६७॥
पातयन्ति स्म देवस्य लिङ्गमूर्खत्य भीषणम्।
पतिते तु ततो लिङ्गे गतोऽनर्थानमीश्वरः॥६८॥

When the sages saw and smelt commotion, they rushed there with stones and logs, made hard blows on his penis and it fell down on the ground and with the falling of liṅga (penis) god vanished.

देव्या स भगवान् रूद्रः कैलासं नगमाश्रितः।
पतिते देवदेवस्य लिङ्गं नष्टे चराचरे॥६९॥
क्षोभो बभूव सुमहानृषीणां भावितात्मनाम्।

विरिञ्चिं शरणं यामः स हि ज्ञास्यति चेष्टितम्।
एवमुक्ताः सर्वं एव मुनयः लङ्घिता भृशम्॥७२॥

God Śaṅkara then returned to Kailāsa with goddess Umā then. The entire movable and immovable properties of this nature began to meet destruction on account of the fall of the liṅga. The innocent hermits were aggrieved at seeing this. One of worst hermits said- "Me do not know the existence of that ascetic. We should go before Brahma to come to a clear position. He only can tell the mystery of this event." All hermits were ashamed to hear this.

ब्रह्मणः सदनं जग्मुर्देवैः सह निषेवितम्।

प्रणिपत्याथ देवेशं लज्जयाऽधोमुखाः स्थिताः॥७३॥

They reached the abode of Brahmā duly filled with gods, saluted him and stood hesitating before him.

अथ तानुःखितान्दृष्ट्वा ब्रह्मा वचनमब्रवीत्।

अहो मुश्चा यदा यूयं क्रोधेन कलुषीकृताः॥७४॥

न धर्मं च क्रियां कांचिज्ज्ञायते मूढबुद्धयः।

श्रूयतां धर्मसर्वस्वं तापसाः क्रूरचेष्टिताः॥७५॥

विदित्वा यद्गुह्यः क्षिप्रं धर्मस्य फलमान्यात्।

योऽसावात्मनि देहऽस्मिन्विभूतिर्यो व्यवस्थितः॥७६॥

सोऽनादिः स महास्थाणु पृथक्त्वे परिसूचितः।

मणिर्यथोपद्यानेन धत्ते वर्णोज्ज्वलोऽपि वै॥७७॥

मनसो भेदमाश्रित्य कर्मभिश्चोपचीयते॥७८॥

ततः कर्मवशाद्गुद्देषे संभेगान् स्वर्गानारकान्।

तन्मनः शोधयेद्वीमान्जानयोगमुपक्रमै॥७९॥

Brahmā consoled them by saying- "Oh! you all are stupid because your hearts filled with impurity of anger. O idiots! you don't know the procedure of religion. O cruel ascetics! listen to the mystery of religion that pours immediately with the fruits. The immortal sovereign in our body is unborn and Mahāsthānu. It appears more different than the body. As the gem of white colour gets the colour of the metal in which it is studded, the soul too joins with the mind, resorts to the discrimination of mind and exhibited through deed/acts. Then he endures the vicissitudes of life according to his activeness. The wise man should do purification of mind by the applications of knowledge and yoga etc. measures.

तस्मिन् शुद्धे ह्यन्तरात्मा स्वयमेव निराकुलः।

न शरीरस्य संक्लेशैरपि निर्द्वन्नात्मकः॥८०॥

शुद्धिमानोति पुरुषः संशुद्धं यस्य नो मनः।

क्रिया हि नियमनार्थाय पातकेभ्यः प्रकीर्तिताः॥८१॥

यस्मादत्याविलं देहं न शीघ्रं शुद्ध्यते किल।

तेन लोकेषु पार्गोऽयं सत्पथस्य प्रवर्तकः॥८२॥

On being that mind purified the inner soul automatically becomes Nirākula (free from anxiety). The man not purified in mind never becomes pure from the pains exploiting the body. The rituals have been provided for avoiding the evils. The impure soul doesn't become pure shortly. Hence, this true way of loka has been enforced.

वर्णाश्रमविभागोऽयं लोकाध्यक्षेण केनचित्।

निमित्तं मोहमाहात्म्यं चिह्नं चोत्तमभागिनाम्॥८३॥

Any chairperson (promoter) of loka (world) has made this provision of classification in Varṇāśrama as a symbol of magnificence of affliction.

भवन्तः क्रोधकामाभ्यामभिभूताश्रमे स्थिताः।

ज्ञानिनामाश्रमो वेशम अनाश्रमपर्योगिनाम्॥८४॥

You are filled with anger and sex in spite of living in āśrama. The home is like an āśrama for scholars and it is not an āśrama for the stupid.

क्वच च न्यस्तसप्तस्तेच्छा क्वच च नारीमयो भ्रमः।

क्वच क्रोधमीदृशो घोरं येनात्मानं न जानथ॥८५॥

This illusion of yours in feminine matter ipso facto shows that you are deeply immersed in the well of temptation while a thorough detachment is necessary. Your anger has made you blind to identity with your soul.

यत्क्रोधनो यजति यद् ददाति

यद् वा तपस्तपति यज्जुहोति तस्य।

न तस्य प्राप्नोति फलं हि लोके

मोघं फलं भवति तस्य हि क्रोधस्य॥८६॥

The yajña arranged, the donation made or the penance or havana whatever is made gives no fruit to him. All fruits go for waste when the man is of loose temperament.

Chapter 44

Eulogy of Śiva by Gods

सनत्कुमार उवाच-

ब्रह्मणो वचनं श्रुत्वा ऋषयः सर्वे एव ते।
पुनरेव च प्रपञ्चुर्जगतः श्रेयकारणम्॥१॥

Sanatkumāra said- All those hermits asked for the measure for the welfare of the world when they heard the statement of Brahmā.

ब्रह्मोवाच-

गच्छामः शरणं देवं शूलपाणिं त्रिलोचनम्।
प्रसादाहेवदेवस्य भविष्यथ यथा पुरा॥२॥

Brahmā said- let us go to the shelter of Śūlapāṇi Trilocana. All of you will become again as before by the grace of that god.

इत्युक्ता ब्रह्मणा सार्द्धं कैलासं गिरिमुन्तमम्।
ददृशुस्ते समासीनमुमया सहितं हरम्॥३॥

Those people went to the best mountain of Kailāśa in the company of Brahmā. They saw there Śaṅkara seated with Umā.

ततः स्तोतुं समारब्धो ब्रह्मा लोकपितामहः।
देवाण्डिदेवं वरदं त्रैलोक्यस्य प्रभुं शिवम्॥४॥

Lokapitāmaha Brahmā had then started worshipping god Śaṅkara, the master of three-worlds.

ब्रह्मोवाच-

अनन्ताय नमस्तुभ्यं वरदाय पिनाकिने।
महादेवाय देवाय स्थाणवे परमात्मने॥५॥

Brahmā said- I salute Vardātā, Pināka holder, Mahādeva, Sthāṇu form and unending god.

नमोऽस्तु भुवनेशाय तुष्यं तारकं सर्वदा।
ज्ञानानां दायको देवस्त्वमेकः पुरुषोत्तमः॥६॥

O Bhuvaneśvara! You ferry this life-boat across the river of this universe. I salute you. You are only Puruṣottama and knowledge providing god.

नमस्ते पदागर्भाय पदाशाय नमो नमः।
घोरशतिस्वरूपाय चण्डक्रोधं नमोऽस्तु ते॥७॥

Salute to Padmagarbhā and Padmeśa frequently. O Cañḍakrodhā! You are the treasure of peace. I salute you.

नमस्ते देवं विश्वेशं नमस्ते सुरनायकं।
शूलपाणे नमस्तेऽस्तु नमस्ते विश्वभावन॥८॥

O god of the universe! salute to you. O head of gods! salute to you. O Śūlapāṇi! salute to you. O Viśvabhāvana! salute to you.

एवं स्तुतो महादेवो ब्रह्मणा ऋषिभिस्तदा।
उवाच मा भैर्वज्जत लिङ्गं वो भविता पुनः॥९॥

God Mahādeva on this prayer assured- "Don't be afraid. You should now move. The linga will again be as before."

क्रियतां मद्वचः शीघ्रं येन मे प्रीतिस्तमा।
भविष्यति प्रतिष्ठायां लिङ्गस्यात्र न संशयः॥१०॥

Follow my words immediately. I will undoubtedly feel pleasure of establishing the linga.

ये लिङ्गं पूजयिष्यन्ति मापकं भक्तिमाश्रिताः।
न तेषां दुर्लभं किञ्चिद्भविष्यति कदाचन॥११॥

Nothing shall be rare to the devotees to my linga anytime.

सर्वेषामेव पापानां कृतानामपि जानता।
शुद्ध्यते लिङ्गपूजायां नात्र कार्या विचारणा॥१२॥

All evils even if deliberately committed are purified by worshipping the liṅga. One should not doubt about it.

युष्माभिः पातितं लिङ्गं सारथित्वा महत्सरः।
सञ्चिन्त्यां तु विख्यातं तस्मिंशीघ्रं प्रतिष्ठितम्॥१३॥

Pick up the linga cut-off by you all and establish immediately in the holy place popular with the name of Sāñinihatya.

यथाऽभिलिप्तिं कामं ततः प्राप्त्यथ ब्राह्मणाः।
स्थाणुनामा हि लोकेषु पूजनीयो दिवौकसाम्॥१४॥

O Brahmins! you will see your wishes fulfilled by doing this. This linga popular as Sthāṇu shall be adorable to gods.

स्थाणवीश्वरे स्थितो यस्मात्ततः स्थाणवीश्वरः स्मृतः।
ये स्मरन्ति सदा स्थाणुं ते मुक्ताः सर्वकिल्विष्टैः॥१५॥

भविष्यन्ति शुद्धदेहा दर्शनान्मोक्षगामिनः।
इत्येवमुक्ता देवेन ऋषयो ब्रह्मणा सह॥ १६॥
तस्माद्वारवनालिङ्गं नेतुं समुपचक्रमुः।
न तं चालयितुं शक्तास्ते देवा ऋषिभिः सह॥ १७॥

That liṅga due to being it at Sthāṇviśvara shall be called Sthāṇaviśvara. The people always remembering Sthāṇu shall be absolved from their evils attached and the sight at Sthāṇviśvara with a clean heart will enable them to attain emancipation. All hermits including Brahmā then began to state a plan to carry away that liṅga from Dāruvana. But the gods including hermits found them unable to carry the same.

श्रमेण महता युक्ता ब्रह्माणं शरणं ययुः।
तेषां श्रमाभिपन्नानामिदं ब्रह्माऽब्रवीद्वचः॥ १८॥

They sheltered to Brahmā when they sweated in their efforts. Brahmā inspired them when he saw them exhausted.

किं वा श्रमेण महता न यूयं वहनक्षमाः।
स्वेच्छया पातितं लिङ्गं देवदेवेन शूलिनाः॥ १९॥

What purpose is of hard labour? You all cannot pick it up because Mahādeva deliberately has dropped it down.

तस्मात्मेव शरणं यास्यामः सहिताः सुराः।
प्रसन्नश्च महादेवः स्वयमेव स नविष्यति॥ २०॥

Hence, O gods! Let us go to his shelter together. Mahādeva himself will pick up his liṅga with his pleasure.

इत्येवमुक्ता ऋषयो देवाश्च ब्रह्मणा सह।
कैलासं गिरिमासेद् रुद्रदर्शनकाङ्क्षिणः॥ २१॥

All hermits and gods, therefore, reached Kailāsa mountain with the intention to see lord Śaṅkara. Brahmā also accompanied them.

न च पश्यन्ति ते देवं ततश्चिन्तासमन्विताः।
ब्रह्माणमूर्च्छुमन्यः क्व स देवो महेश्वरः॥ २२॥

They didn't see Śaṅkara there. The hermits asked Brahmā in a state of worry- "Where is that god Maheśvara?"

ततो ब्रह्मा चिरं ध्यात्वा ज्ञात्वा देवं महेश्वरम्।
हस्तिरूपेण तिष्ठन्तं सुनिभिर्मानसः स्तुतम्॥ २३॥

Brahmā then peeped deeply at the master and saw that Maheśvara worshipped and prayed by hermits is in the form of an elephant.

अथ ते ऋषयः सर्वे देवाश्च ब्रह्मणा सह।
गता महत्सरः पुण्यं यत्र देवः स्वयं स्थितः॥ २४॥

All hermits and gods then reached that sacred reservoir with Brahmā where Śaṅkara was himself present.

न च पश्यन्ति तं देवमन्विष्टस्ततस्ततः।
ततश्चिन्तान्विता देवा ब्रह्मणा सहिता स्तिथाः॥ २५॥
पश्यन्ति देवीं सुप्रीतां कमण्डलुविभूषिताम्।
प्रीयमाणा तदा देवी इदमदं वचनमबृवीत्॥ २६॥

They tried their best to see god Śaṅkara but could not succeed. Those people worried with Brahmā saw a goddess with Kamaṇḍala (water-pot) in her hands. The goddess said with grace.

श्रमेण महता युक्ता अन्विष्टतो महेश्वरम्।
पीयतामप्युतं देवास्ततो ज्ञास्यथ शंकरम्।
एतच्छुत्वा तु वचनं भवान्या समुदाहतम्॥ २७॥
सुखोपविष्टास्ते देवाः पपुस्तदप्युतं शुचि।
अनन्तरं सुखासीनाः पप्रच्छुः परमेश्वरीम्॥ २८॥

All of you are exhausted now in search of Maheśvara. O gods! sip the nectar here. Then only you could see Śaṅkara. The gods sipped that sacred nectar by sitting in comfortable posture as suggested by that goddess (Bharāṇī). Those people then asked that Parameśvarī (goddess).

क्व स देव इहायातो हस्तिरूपधरः स्थितः।
दर्शितश्च तदा देव्या सरोमध्ये व्यस्थितः॥ २९॥

The god in elephant form had come here but where is he now? The goddess indicated the middle of the reservoir where Śaṅkara was seated.

दृष्टा देवं हर्षयुक्ताः सर्वे देवाः सहर्षिभिः।
ब्रह्माणमग्रतः कृत्वा इदं वचनमबृवन्॥ ३०॥

All gods led by Brahmā saw happily the god and said-

त्वया त्यक्तं महादेव लिङ्गं त्रैलोक्यवन्दितम्।
तस्य चानयने नाम्यः समर्थः स्यान्महेश्वरः॥ ३१॥

O Mahādeva! the linga once abandoned by you is not easy to bring here. Our effort have failed.

इत्येवमुक्तो भगवान्देवो ब्रह्मादिर्भिरः।
जगाम ऋषिभिः सार्द्धं देवदारुवनाश्रमम्॥ ३२॥

God Mahādeva went to the āśrama located in Dāruvana in the company of Brahmā etc. gods.

तत्र गत्वा महादेवो हस्तिस्तप्त्यरो हरः।
करेण जग्राह ततो लीलया परमेश्वरम्॥ ३३॥

The elephant form god Mahādeva went there and lifted up that linga playfully in his trunk.

तमादाय महादेवः सूर्यमानो महर्षिभिः।
निवेशयामास तदा सरःपर्ष्वे तु पञ्चिमे॥ ३४॥

Mahādeva so prayed by hermits established it at the west side of that reservoir.

ततो देवाः सर्वं एव ऋषयश्च तपेषनाः।
आत्मानं सफलं दृष्ट्वा स्तवं चक्रुमीश्वरे॥ ३५॥

All gods and the austere hermits then so became successful to pick up the linga from there. Happily they began to pray to Mahādeva.

Thus, god Śaṅkara abandoned the elephant form and inserted him into the linga when so prayed to by Brahmā in the company of all gods and hermits.

Chapter 45

Description of Sthāṇu liṅga

सनकुमार उवाच-

अथोवाच महादेवो देवान्ब्रह्मपुरोगमान्।
ऋषीणां चैव प्रत्यक्षं तीर्थमाहात्म्यमुत्तमम्॥ १॥

Sanatkumāra said- God Mahādeva told about the best magnificence of holy place to Brahmā etc. gods in the presence of hermits.

एतत्सान्निहतं प्रोक्तं सरः पुण्यतमं महत्।
मयोपसेवितं यस्मात्स्मानुक्तिप्रदायकम्॥ २॥

This reservoir has been considered supremely holy and called Sāñnihita. As it is enriched with my presence, it renders emancipation.

इह ये पुरुषाः केचिद्ब्राह्मणाः क्षत्रिया विशः।
लिङ्गस्य दर्शनादेव पश्यन्ति परमं पदम्॥ ३॥

The people of Brāhmaṇa, Kṣatriya and Vaiśya varṇa, receive the supreme position by seeing the liṅga.

अहन्यहनि तीर्थानि आसमुद्रात्सरंसि च।
स्थाणुतीर्थं समेष्वन्ति मध्यं प्राप्ते दिवाकरे॥ ४॥

All holy places from the oceans to the reservoir come and mix with Sthāṇu-tīrtha at noon daily.

स्तोत्रेणानेन च नरो यो मां स्तोष्यन्ति भक्तिः।
तस्याहं सुलभो नित्यं भविष्यामि न संशयः॥ ५॥

I will appear and grace the person who, will pray to me with these hymns. I undertake it.

इत्युक्त्वा भगवान्नद्रो हान्तर्धनं गतः प्रभुः।
देवाश्च कृष्णः सर्वे स्वानि स्थानानि भेजिरे॥ ६॥

With these words, god Rudra vanished. All gods and hermits then returned to their respective places.

ततो निरन्तरं स्वर्गं मानुषैर्मिश्रितं कृतम्।
स्थाणुलिङ्गस्य माहात्म्यदर्शनात्स्वर्गमाप्नुयः॥ ७॥

Then the entire heaven was filled with people. It is the magnificence of Sthāṇu-liṅga that a man gets to heaven by merely seeing it.

ततो देवः सर्वे एव ब्रह्माणां शरणं यद्युः।
तानुवाच तदा ब्रह्मा किमर्थमिह चागताः॥ ८॥

Then all gods sheltered themselves under god Brahmā. Brahmā then asked- "For what purpose, have all of you come here?"

ततो देवाः सर्वे इदं वचनमब्लवन्।
मानुषेभ्यो भयं तीव्रं रक्षास्माकं पितामहः॥ ९॥

Then all gods said- O Pitāmaha! I am extremely afraid of people. Please, defend us all.

तानुवाच तदा ब्रह्मा सुरांस्त्रिदशनायकः।
पांशुना पूर्यतां शीघ्रं सारः शक्रेहितं कुरु॥ १०॥

Then god Brahmā said to those gods- "O Indra! fill the reservoir immediately with the dust and fulfil your desire."

ततो वर्ष भगवान्यांशुना पाकशासनः।
सप्ताहं पूर्यामास सरो देवैस्तदा वृतः॥ ११॥

God Indra, the killer of Pakarākṣasa surrounded by gods, rained dust and filled the reservoir with it.

तं दृष्ट्वा पांशुवर्षं च देवदेवो महेश्वरः।
करेण धारयामास लिङ्गं तीर्थवटं तथा॥ १२॥

Maheśvara, the greatest god held liṅga and tīrtha Vata, in his hand when the dust was being filled in it.

तस्मातुपूण्यतमं तीर्थमाद्यं यत्रोदकं स्थितम्।
तस्मिन्स्नातः सर्वतीर्थैः स्नाते भवति मानवः॥ १३॥

Thus, the reservoir filled with water earlier has become the holiest place. The man who takes a bath in it, is considered as if he has taken a bath in all holy places.

यस्त्र कुरुते श्राद्धं वटलिङ्गस्य चान्तरे।

तस्य प्रीताश्च पितरो दास्यन्ति भुवि दुलभ्यम्॥ १४॥

The devotee doing śrāddha in the middle of banyan and liṅga thus appeases his Pitṛs and gets rare things on the earth under their grace.

पूरितं च ततो दृष्टा ऋषयः सर्वं एव ते।

पांशुना सर्वगात्राणि स्पृशन्ति श्रद्धया युताः॥ १५॥

All those hermits began to smear dust on their body when they saw the reservoir filled with dust.

तेऽपि निर्वृतपापास्ते पांशुना मुनयो गताः।

पूज्यमानाः सुरगणैः प्रयाता ब्रह्मणः पदम्॥ १६॥

Those sages also went to Brahma-loka, praised by gods and became free from evils.

ये तु सिद्धा महात्मानस्ते लिङ्गं पूजयन्ति च।

ब्रजन्ति परमां सिद्धिं पुनरावृत्तिदुर्लभाम्॥ १७॥

The ascetics used to worship that liṅga began to receive supreme accomplishments making them free from the cycle of birth and death.

एवं ज्ञात्वा तदा ब्रह्मा लिङ्गं शैलमयं तदा।

आदौ लिङ्गं तदा स्थाप्य तस्योपरि दधार तत्॥ १८॥

Brahma pressed liṅga a little bit more and kept the liṅga made of stone in it.

ततः कालेन महता तेजसा तस्य रञ्जितम्।

तस्यापि स्पर्शनात्सिद्धाः परं पदमवाप्नुयात्॥ १९॥

With the passage of some time the liṅga made of boulder also became powerful as it had got the influence of the first liṅga put at its base. Its touch began to lead man for emancipation.

ततो देवैः पुनर्ब्रह्मा विज्ञसो द्विजसत्तमाः।

एते यान्ति परां सिद्धिं लिङ्गस्य दर्शनान्नराः॥ २०॥

O great Dvija! The gods then informed Brahmā again that the people are receiving greater achievements merely by touching the liṅga made of stone.

तच्छुत्वा भगवान्ब्रह्मा देवानां हितकाम्यया।

उपर्युपरि लिङ्गानि सप्त तत्र चकार ह॥ २१॥

God Brahmā took the welfare of gods in mind and established seven liṅgas one on the other.

ततो ये मुक्तिकामाश्च सिद्धाः शमपरायणाः।

सेव्यं पांशुं प्रयत्नेन प्रयाताः परमं पदम्॥ २२॥

The siddhaganas detached by worldly enjoyments and desirous of emancipation then started putting the dust on their head and got emancipation.

पांशवोऽपि कुरुक्षेत्रे वायुना समुदीरिताः।

महादुष्कृतकर्पाणं प्रयन्ति परं पदम्॥ २३॥

The dust flown by wind in Kurukṣetra too renders even the evil-doers with supreme position.

अज्ञानाज्ञानतो वाऽपि स्त्रियो वा पुरुषस्य वा।

नश्यते दुष्कृतं सर्वं स्थाप्तुर्तीर्थप्रभावतः॥ २४॥

The evils committed either innocently or deliberately are destroyed by the influence of Sthānu-tīrtha.

लिङ्गस्य दर्शनात्मुक्तिः स्पर्शनाच वटस्य च।

तत्सन्निध्वा जले स्नात्वा प्राप्नोत्यभिमतं फलम्॥ २५॥

A sight of the liṅga and a touch ensures emancipation. The man receives deserved fruit when he takes a bath in the water near to it.

पितॄणां तर्पणं यस्तु जले तस्मिन्करिष्यति।

बिन्दौ बिन्दौ तु तोयस्य अनन्तफलभाग्भवेत्॥ २६॥

The person doing tarpaṇa of his ancestors gets unending fruits as countless quantity of drops conglomerated with the river water.

यस्तु कृष्णातिलैः सार्वं लिङ्गस्य पश्चिमे स्थितः।

तर्पयेच्छ्रद्धया युक्तः स प्रीणाति युगत्रयम्॥ २७॥

यावन्मन्वन्तरं प्रोक्तं यावल्लिङ्गस्य संस्थितिः।

तावत्रीताश्च पितरः पिबन्ति जलमुत्तमम्॥ २८॥

At the west from liṅga, tarpaṇa with black sesamum is provided. The person who follows this procedure satiates his Pitṛs as long as three ages. Up to the period of Manvanatara and the liṅga is existed, the Pitṛagaṇa derive clear water happily.

कृते युगे सान्निहत्यं त्रेतायां वायुसंज्ञितम्।
कलिद्वापरयोर्मध्ये कूपे रुद्रहृदं स्मृतम्॥ २९॥

The reservoir called Sāñnihatya in Kṛtayuga is supreme to take a bath. The reservoir called Vāyu is worth worship in Tretā. The well called Rudrahrada is the best to bathe in Kali and Dvāpara Yugas.

चैत्रस्य कृष्णपक्षे च चतुर्दश्यां नरोत्तमः।
स्नात्वा रुद्रकरे तीर्थे परं पदमवानुयात्॥ ३०॥

A man of purity of heart receives supreme position by taking a bath in Rudrahrada on the fourteenth day of the dark fortnight in the month of Caitra (March).

यस्तु वटे स्थितो रात्रौ ध्यायते परमेश्वरम्।
स्थाणार्वटप्रसादेन मनसा चिन्तितं फलम्॥ ३१॥

The man who concentrate on god by sitting under a banyan tree, receives the desired fruit by the grace of Sthāṇu vaṭa.

इति श्रीवामनपुराणे पुलस्त्यनारदसंवादे सरोमाहात्म्ये
पञ्चचत्वारिंशोऽध्यायः॥ ४५॥

of these two holy places. A mere vision of it renders the man with emancipation.

The sages, sādhyas, ādityas, vasus, marutas and fuel have made their dwelling in these holy places.

अन्ये ये प्राणिनः केचित् प्रविष्टाः स्थाणुमुक्तम्।
सर्वपापविनिर्मुक्ताः प्रयान्ति परमां गतिम्॥६॥

Other organisms also receive supreme position by their entrance only into this holiest holy place Sthānu.

अस्ति तत्सनिधौ लिङ्गं देवदेवस्य शूलिनः।
उमा च लिङ्गरूपेण हरपार्श्वं न मुञ्चति॥७॥

A liṅga of the god of gods Mahādeva has existed near it. Umā existed there in the form of liṅga does not abandon her collateral conduct with Śaṅkara.

तस्य दर्शनमात्रेण सिद्धिं प्राप्नोति मानवः।
वटस्य उत्तरे पार्श्वे तक्षकेण महात्मनाः॥८॥
प्रतिष्ठितं महालिङ्गं सर्वकामप्रदायकम्।
वटस्य पूर्वदिग्भागे विश्वकर्मकृतं महत्॥९॥
लिङ्गं प्रत्यद्गम्युखं दृष्ट्वा सिद्धिमाप्नोति मानवः।
तत्रैव लिङ्गरूपेण स्थिता देवी सरस्वती॥१०॥

The man by a mere sight of them attains accomplishments. The great soul Takṣaka has installed a Mahāliṅga at the north collateral contact of the banyan tree. A sight of the liṅga facing west endows supreme position to a devotee.

प्रणम्य तां प्रथलेन बुद्धिं मेधां च विन्दति।
वटपार्श्वे स्थितं लिङ्गं ब्रह्मणा तत्रतिष्ठितम्॥११॥

इति श्रीवामनपुराणे पुलस्त्यनारदसंवादे सरोमाहात्म्ये

मनोस्तु क्षुवतः पुत्र उत्पन्नो मुखसंभवः।
पृथिव्यां चतुरन्तायां राजासीद् धर्मरक्षिता॥५॥

A son was born from the sneezing of Manu. He became a king defending religion on this whole earth.

तस्य पत्नी बभूवाथ भया नाम भयावहा।
मृत्योः सकाशादुत्पन्ना कालस्य दुहिता तदा॥६॥

Bhayā was his fierce wife. She was born from Mṛtyu, the daughter of Kāla.

तस्यां समभवद्वेनो दुरात्मा वेदनिन्दकः।
स दृष्टा पुत्रवदनं कुद्धो राजा वेन ययौ॥७॥

Vena, the rude condemning the Veda was born from her. The king became angry on looking at the face of his son and went into the forest.

तत्र कृत्वा तपो घोरं धर्मेणावृत्य रोदसी।
प्राप्तवान् ब्रह्मसदनं पुनरावृत्तिदुर्लभम्॥८॥

The king observed gross penance there, covered the middle part of the earth and ether with religion and departed to Brahmaloka from where nobody returns to the world consisting of the cycle of birth and death.

वेनो राजा समभवत्समस्ते क्षितिमण्डले।
स मातामहदोषेण तेनः कालात्मजात्मजः॥९॥
घोषयामास नगरे दुरात्मा वेदनिन्दकः।
न दातव्यं न यष्टव्यं न होतव्यं कदाचन॥१०॥

Vena then became the king of the entire earth. On account of inspiration he got from the defects of his grandfather (maternal) that rude opponent to the Vedas declared that "people are strictly prohibited for arranging donation, yajña and havana." He was the son of Bhayā, the daughter of Kāla.

अहमेकोऽत्र वै वन्ध्यः पूज्योऽहं भवतां सदा।
मया हि पालिता यूयं निवसन्वं यथासुखम्॥११॥

Only I alone am worth worship for you in this world; live happily under my defence and maintenance.

तन्मत्तोऽन्यो न देवोऽस्ति युष्माकं यः परायणम्।
एतच्छुत्वा तु वचनमृषयः सर्व एव ते॥१२॥

परस्परं समागम्य राजानं वाक्यमबूवन्।
श्रुतिः प्रमाणं धर्मस्य ततो यज्ञः प्रतिष्ठितः॥ १३॥

There is no other god except me who could be worth worship by you all. All hermits together made a representation before the king and said- "The Vedas are the only authority for religion. The yajña gets fulfilment or perfection when the Vedas are duly perused and followed."

यज्ञर्विना नो प्रीयन्ते देवाः स्वर्गनिवासिनः।
अप्रीता न प्रयच्छन्ति वृष्टिं सस्यस्य वृद्धये॥ १४॥

The gods living in heaven do not please if yajñas are not performed and they do not rain for the proper growth of cereals.

तस्माद्यज्ञश्च देवैश्च धायते सचराचरम्।
एतच्छुत्वा क्रोधदृष्टिर्वेनः प्राह पुनः पुनः॥ १५॥

The movable and immovable entire world is held by yajñas and gods. Vena became angry on this and declared frequently.

न यष्टव्यं न दातव्यमित्याह क्रोधमूर्च्छितः।
ततः क्रोधसमाविष्टा ऋषयः सर्वे एव ते॥ १६॥
निर्जघुर्यन्त्रपूतैस्ते कुशैर्वज्रसमन्वितैः।

सव्यं तस्मात्समुत्तस्थौ पुरुषो हस्वदर्शनः।
तमूर्च्छर्षयः सर्वे निषीदतु भवानिति॥ १९॥

With words- "yajña and donations are worthless to perform", he became blind with fury. All those hermits also lost their temper on such criticism to the Vedas and they killed him by shooting kuśa made strong like thunderbolt by reciting hymns. As the state thereafter became without a king, a chaotic situation prevailed. Decoity and other crimes spurted up rapidly. The people aggrieved of the situation, once visited those great hermits. They churned the left hand of Vena and thus appeared a dwarf man. He said to the hermits- "Please, be seated."

तस्मान्निषादा उत्पन्ना वेनकल्पसंभवाः।
ततस्ते ऋषयः सर्वे ममग्न्युदक्षिणं करम्॥ २०॥

Niṣāda were originated representing the evils committed by Vena. All hermits then churned the right hand of that corpse.

पश्यमाने करे तस्मिन्नुत्पन्नः पुरुषोऽपरः।

A man tallest like the Sala tree having divine characteristics was born as a result of so much churning.

अभ्यषिङ्गन्युथिव्यां तं राजानं भूमिपालकम्।

All gods including Indra encorontated him as king to the earth. He then ruled properly on the earth. The marks of bow-arrows, discus and flag etc. were found on his body.

पित्राऽपरञ्जिता तस्य तेन सा परिपालिता।
तत्र राजेतिशब्दोऽस्य पृथिव्या रञ्जनादभूत्॥ २४॥

His father had made the subject upset in varied ways while he ruled very generously and provided maintenance to him. As he ruled judiciously, he was called Rājā.

इत्येवं चिन्तयानस्य नारदोऽस्याजगाम ह॥ २६॥

Having rode on throne, he thought on the measures keeping the soul of his father satiated in heaven. He was known to the fact that on account of infringement on the Vedas and prohibitions on yajña as he exercised, his soul would not find pleasure in heaven. When he was just thinking on this topic, Nārada appeared there.

तस्मै स चासनं दत्त्वा प्रणिपत्य च पृष्ठवान्।

पिता मम दुराचारो देवब्राह्मणनिदकः।

He offered a seat, saluted and then asked him- O lord! You know all the good and bad of these worlds. O Brahmin! Do you know, my atheist father, critic of the Vedas and Brahmins and just reverse to as expected from a king, had gone to heavenly abode.

ततोऽब्रवीन्नारदसं ज्ञात्वा दिव्येन क्षम्भुषा।

Nārada looked at him thoughtfully and said- "He was born in a community of Mleccha and suffering from ailments like leprosy and T.B.

तच्छुत्वा वचनं तस्य नारदस्य महात्मनः।
चिन्तयामास दुःखार्तः कथं कार्यं मया भवेत्॥ ३०॥

The prediction as made by Nārada, shocked Rājā deep and he thought on the appropriate act to do for bringing back some comforts to him.

इत्येवं चिन्तयानस्य पर्तिर्जाता महात्मनः।

The great soul arrived finally at an idea that the son is one who makes free his Pitṛs from fear.

He then asked Nārada- "O sage! Tell me the measure to bring some comforts for my father who is so suffering in his rebirth.

नारद उवाच-

Nārada said- "go at Sāñinīhita (reservoir) tīrtha of Sthānu and give him a physical bath there.

एतच्छुत्वा तु वचनं नारदस्य महात्मनः।

Rājā assigned the stately affairs to his minister and left the palace to exercise the measures suggested by Nārada.

He saw his father suffering from leprosy and T.B. in the family of Mlecchas at north direction of his empire.

I will cure the ailments under my care if so allowed by you all. All Mlecchas put their heads on his feet in honour to his generosity and replied- "Very well. Do as you like." He then called the palanquin bearers and ordered them- "Bring this Dvija carefully to my residence. They lifted-up the palanquin, brought him Sthānu-tīrtha through the route of Kurukṣetra, put the palanquin comfortably down and then returned to their home. They were given remuneration just double than usual by the Rājā.

When the king was putting off his clothes to give a bath on a fine noon, Vāyu warned- "O king! Don't so dare. Keep in mind the importance of the holy place. Defend its magnificence. This man is stuck with grown evils. Remember that criticising the Vedas is a heinous crime and it is beyond the cure by giving a bath at this great holy place. Instead of any success to your effort, the honour everlasting of this holy place shall be subsided."

The Rājā became very anxious when he heard the warning so given by Vāyu. He said- "This man is badly suffering from a heinous offence."

I will do everything suggested by gods for regrettal of this offence. All gods then suggested- "Take a bath in all holy places, bring water from there and then clean his body with so accumulated waters. A bath in each holy place found from Ojasa to Culuka on the bank of Sarasvatī river ensures the emancipation for a man. This man indulged in self-satisfying acts and used to criticise the gods. The Brahmins had, therefore, abandoned him. It never be purified. Hence, you first take a bath in all holy places, bring water from there and then sprinkle that water on his body. The sprinkling of so accumulated water shall definitely purify him. Rājā constructed an āśrama there, kept him there and went on a pilgrimage on behalf of his father (the man so suffering). The began to take bath of holy places and then wash his body continuously. In that course, a dog came there. He was a Mahanta (the priest) on a convent located in Sthānu-tīrtha in his previous life and responsible for keeping the money offered by devotees, the worship and for protection of the donated wealth. No doubt he was surviving an ideal life and taking all judicious measures to defend the wealth and worship punctually but at a certain phase of period, he deviated himself from religion. He began to squander the wealth offered to the temple. On his death, his evil acts produced him before Yama and he ordered- "go back in birth as a dog. Don't stay here anymore." He thus was born in the yoni of a dog in Saugandhika Vana.

ततः कालेन महता श्वयूथपरिवर्तिः।

परिभूत सरमया दुःखेन महता वृतः॥५६॥

After a long lapse of time, one day he was in a herd of dogs chasing a bitch. She offered her for courtship with other dogs but humiliated him. It caused deep shock in his mind.

अतीव तुष्या युक्तः सरस्वत्यां ममज्ज ह।

तत्र संलुतदेहसु विमुक्तः सर्वकिल्वैषः॥५८॥

Burning in the fire of humiliation so made, he left immediately Daivata-vana and reached near holy reservoir of Sāñinihatya. As he had raced long distance, he jumped into Sarasvatī river in order to satisfy his thirst and to refresh his tired body. All his evils were effaced due to the specific grace of the holy water.

विरक्तदृष्टिश्च शुनः क्षेणेण च ततः परम्॥६१॥

He then entered into a hermitage to satisfy his hunger. As the man (Vena in previous birth) feared of his sudden entrance in cottage his body was touched by him. As he was frightened, his body rolled on and he fell in the reservoir of Sthānu-tīrtha. By virtue of regular bath given by his son, the water of all holy places so used, the water drops so poured on his body from that dog and his fall suddenly in Sthānu-tīrtha all combindly made him detach himself from the worldly affairs.

As he had gained an innovated healthy body under the grace of that holy place and the service rendered by his son, he was now a pure soul. He therefore, saluted Sthānu god (Śiva) and began praying.

वेन उवाच-

प्रपद्ये देवपीशानं त्वामजं चन्द्रभूषणम्।
महादेवं महात्मानं विश्वस्य जगतः पतिम्॥६३॥

Vena prayed- "I take shelter of Aja, Candrabhūṣana (who holds moon on head as ornament), Iśāna, Deva, Mahātmā (the great soul), Mahādeva and the master of this entire world.

The dog was also freed from the account of evils and went to the abode of Śiva. After being free from the debts of Pitṛ, Rājā ruled happily, reproduced sons and perpetually performed yajña during his life-time. He gave in donation the desired things to Brahmins and enjoyed luxury throughout his life.

Formation of the Caturmukha-liṅgas and Śiva's eulogy by Brahmā

मार्कण्डेय उवाच-

चतुर्मुखानामुत्पत्तिं विस्तरेण मपानघ।
तथा ब्रह्मेश्वराणां च श्रोतुमिद्धा प्रवत्तते॥ १॥

Mārkaṇḍeya said- O innocent! I am curious to listen about the origin of four mouthed Brahmā and Brahmeśvara.

सनत्कुमार उवाच-

शृणु सर्वपशेषेण कथयिष्यामि तेऽनघ।
ब्रह्माणः स्रष्टुकामस्य यद् वृत्तं पदाजन्मनः॥ २॥

Sanatkumāra said- O innocent! Listen now to the complete detail on Brahmā, the god born from the lotus flower. I am going to explain it.

उत्पन्न एव भगवान्ब्रह्मा लोकपितामहः।
ससर्ज सर्वभूतानि स्थावराणि चराणि च॥ ३॥

Brahmā with his birth created immediately the movable and immovable organisms.

पुनश्चिन्तयतः सृष्टि जज्ञे कन्या मनोरमा।
नीलोत्पलदलश्यामा तनुमध्या सुलोचना॥ ४॥

In next turn, a beautiful virgin, having a dark complexion analogous to a blue petal lotus, thin loins and attractive eyes.

तां दृष्ट्वाभिमतां ब्रह्मा मैथुनायाजुहाव ताम्।
तेन पापेन महता शिरोऽशीर्यत वेद्यसः॥ ५॥

Brahmā called her for coition. It being an evil, Brahmā lost his head immediately.

तेन शीर्णेन स ययौ तीर्थं त्रैलोक्यविश्रुतम्।
सान्निहत्यं सरः पुण्यं सर्वपापक्षयावहम्॥ ६॥

He picked up that fallen head and visited Sānnihatyā reservoir, a place capable to absolve all evils.

तत्र पुण्ये स्थाणुतीर्थे ऋषिसिद्धनिषेविते।
सरस्वत्युत्तरे तीरे प्रतिष्ठाय चतुर्मुखः॥ ७॥
आराधयामास तदा धूपैर्गच्छैर्मनोरमैः।
उपहारैस्तथा हृदै सौद्रसूक्तैर्दिने दिने॥ ८॥

In that sacred place Sthānu surrounded by hermits and siddhas, he installed a Śiva-liṅga having four mouths at the north facing bank of Sarasvatī. He then began worship regularly by offering Dhūpa, fragrance, beautiful gifts and chanting Rudra Sūtkas.

तस्यैवं भक्तियुक्तस्य शिवपूजापरस्य च।
स्वयमेवाजगामाश्च भगवान्नीललोहितः॥ ९॥

Impressed by the worship so made, god Nilalohita Śiva himself appeared there.

तमागतं शिवं दृष्ट्वा ब्रह्मा लोकपितामहः।
प्रणाम्य शिरसा भूषौ सुतिं तस्य चकार ह॥ १०॥

ब्रह्मोवाच-

नमस्तेऽस्तु महादेव भूतभव्य भवाश्रय।
नमस्ते सुतिनित्याय नमस्त्रैलोक्यपालिने॥ ११॥

Brahmā saluted Śiva and started praying him- O Mahādeva! You are the only shelter for the past, present and future. I salute you. Salute to the nourisher of this entire world and you are worshipped daily.

नमः पवित्रदेहाय सर्वकल्पघनाशिने।
चराचरगुरो गुह्यगुह्यानां च प्रकाशकृत्॥ १२॥

Salute to the god having pure body and who efface the evils of the devotees. O preceptor of the movable and immovable world! You disclose even the mystery of mysteries.

रोगा न यान्ति भिषजैः सर्वरोगविनाशन।

रौरवाजिनसंवीत वीतशोक नमोऽस्तु ते॥ १३॥

You eradicate the ailments so chronic as recovery not possible by the physicians. O god you put the hide of Ruru stag on body. You are free from the agony. I salute you.

वारिकल्लोलसंभूत्यमहाबुद्धिविघट्टने।

त्वं नामजापिनो देव न भवन्ति भवाश्रयाः॥ १४॥

O organiser of great wisdom! The Ganges water flows with musical tone from your matted hair. The people chanting your name never fall dump in the world sea.

नमस्ते नित्यनित्याय नमस्त्रैलोक्यपालन।

शंकरायाप्रेमयाय व्याधीनां शमनाय च॥ १५॥

Salute to everlasting god. Salute to the nourisher of three-worlds, Saṅkara, Aprameya (Immeasurable) and destroyer of ills.

परायापरिमेयाय सर्वभूतप्रियाय च।

योगेश्वराय देवाय सर्वपापक्षयाय च॥ १६॥

Salute to Para (Supreme), Illimitable, dear to all creatures, master in yoga, god and the remover of all evils.

नमः स्थाणवे सिद्धाय सिद्धवन्दिस्तुताय च।

भूतसंसाररुग्णय विश्वरूपाय ते नमः॥ १७॥

Salute to god worshipped by Sthānu,¹ siddha² an the people chanting hymns. You are first to the world of organisms and you are in universal form.

फणीन्द्रोक्तमहिने ते फणीन्द्राङ्गदध्यारिणो।

फणीन्द्रवरहाराय भास्कराय नमो नमः॥ १८॥

1. Immovable.

2. Perfected.

O magnificent as described by the king serpent, you hold the Aṅgada of serpent king, garland of serpent king and the form of Bhāskara (the Sun).

एवं सुतो महादेवो ब्रह्माणं प्राह शंकरः।
न च मन्युस्त्वया कार्ये भाविन्यर्थे कदाचन॥ १९॥

Śaṅkara said to Brahmā when he was pleased by virtue of worship- "You should not weep for the things about which preponderance of possibility has existed."

पुरा वराहकल्पे ते यम्याऽपहतं शिरः।
चतुर्मुखं च तदभूत्रं कदाचिन्नशिष्यति॥ २०॥

I had cut-off your head during Varāhakalpa.¹ It has now been replaced by four mouths and it will never destroy.

अस्मिन्सन्निहिते तीर्थे लिङ्गानि मम भक्तिः।
प्रतिष्ठाप्य विषुक्तस्त्वं सर्वपापैर्भविष्यसि॥ २१॥

By installing my lingas with devotion in this Sāñnihita Tīrtha, you will escape from all evils.

सुष्टुकामेन च पुरा त्वयाऽहं प्रेरितः किल।
तेनाहं त्वां तथेत्युक्त्वा भूतानां देशवर्त्तिवत्॥ २२॥
दीर्घकालं तपस्तप्त्वा मग्नः संनिहिते स्थितः।
सुप्रहान्तं ततः कालं त्वं प्रतीक्षां ममाकरोः॥ २३॥

You had inspired me during ancient period for the creation of this universe. I had undertaken the responsibility. I observed prolonged penance like an organism and then engrossed in Sāñnihita reservoir with thoughts about creation. You had waited on me for a longer period.

स्त्रृंरं सर्वभूतानां मनसा कल्पितं त्वया।
सोऽब्रवीत्वां तदा दृष्ट्वा मां मग्नं तत्र चाप्ससि॥ २४॥

You then concentrated on the creator of all creatures in mind. He saw me immersed in water and said to you.

यदि मे नाग्रजस्त्वन्यस्ततः स्फृश्यामहं प्रजाः।
त्वयैवोक्तश्च नैवास्ति त्वदन्यः पुरुषोऽग्रजः॥ २५॥

If nobody other is senior to me, I will do creation. You said- "no other person than him was there."

स्थापुरेष जले मनो विवशः कुरु मद्भितम्।
स सर्वभूतानसुजहश्चादीश्च प्रजापतीन्॥ २६॥

This Sthānu is immersed in water and not in position to do any act. Do a good for me. He created Dakṣa etc. Prajāpatis and all creatures.

यैरिमं प्रकरोत्सर्वं भूतग्रामं चतुर्विधम्।

ताः सृष्टमात्राः क्षुधिताः प्रजाः सर्वाः

जङ्गमानि च भूतानि दुर्बलानि बलीयसाम्।

विहितात्राः प्रजाः सर्वाः पुनर्जग्मुर्यथागतम्॥ ३०॥

Thus, he made him to originate the Bhūtagrāma. O Brahman! The subject of their generation, he felt hunger and ran to gobble up even Prajāpati on account of starving. He ran to Pitāmaha for giving defence and said- "Make provision for the profession of subjects. You have provided them food. The medicines became food for immovable and the weak movable became the food for the strongly built creatures, when the subject got food they returned to their respective places.

ततो ववृधिरे सर्वाः प्रीतियुक्ताः परस्परम्।

क्रोधेन महता युक्तो लिङ्गमुत्पाट्य चाक्षिपम्।

तत्क्षिप्तं सरसो मध्ये ऊर्ध्वमेव यदा स्थितम्॥ ३३॥

Then they all began to prosper in a mutually loving and cordial atmosphere. The created beings attaining prosperity, and you the Lord of the Universe being pleased, I emerged out of the water and saw the progeny, and seeing them, I endowed them with my own splendour. Then seeing the subject, I eradicated Liṅga and hurled it down immediately into the lake, and it stood there erect.

स मुक्तः पातकैः सर्वरम्यागमनोद्भवैः।
इत्युक्त्वा भगवान्देवस्त्रैवान्तरधीयत॥ ३६॥

Since then the linga became famous as Sthāṇu. A man at a mere vision is absolved from all sins and attains emancipation. He does not return again to the cycle of birth and death. The person residing in his holy place with well controlled mind and heart on the eighth day of dark fortnight is absolved from all evils causing on account of irregularity in diet and arbitrary actions. With these words, Mahādeva vanished from there.

ब्रह्मा विशुद्धपापस्तु पूज्य देवं चतुर्मुखम्।
लिङ्गानि देवदेवस्य सम्मुच्छेऽसरमध्यतः॥ ३७॥

Brahmā purified from sins, worshipped Mahādeva and installed lingas of the god of gods in the middle of the reservoir.

आद्यं ब्रह्मसरः पुण्यं हरिपर्श्वे प्रतिष्ठितम्।
द्वितीयं ब्रह्मसदनं स्वकीये ह्याश्रमे कृतम्॥ ३८॥

He first installed Brahmaśara collateral to Hari and then constructed Brahmaśadana in this āśrama.

तस्यैव पूर्वदिभ्यागे तृतीयं च प्रतिष्ठितम्॥।
चतुर्थं ब्रह्मणा लिङ्गं सरस्वत्यास्तटे कृतम्॥ ३९॥

Brahmā installed the third linga at its east and installed the fourth linga on the bank of Sarasvatī.

एतानि ब्रह्मतीर्थानि पुण्यानि पावनानि च।
ये पश्यन्ति निराहारास्ते यान्ति परमां गतिम्॥ ४०॥

The people observing fast and seeing these holy places of Brahma receive supreme position. All these places are capable of removing evils.

एतानि पूजयित्वा तु दृष्टा भक्तिसमन्विताः।

The people who merely see the liṅga installed at collateral to Hari in Kṛtayuga, at Brahmā's āśrama in Tretā, at its east in Dvāpara and on the bank of Sarasvatī in Kaliyuga and who worship them, achieve supreme position by making them free from the net of all evils.

सृष्टिकाले भगवता पूजितस्तु महेश्वरः।
सरस्वत्युत्तरे तीरे नामा ख्यातश्चतुर्मुखः॥ ४३॥

At the time of creation Maheśvara was worshipped by the Lord on the northern bank of Sarasvatī, popularly known as Caturmukha.

तं प्रणाम्य श्रद्धानो मुच्यते सर्वकिलिंघैः।
लीलासंकरसंभूतैस्तथा वैभाण्डसंकरैः॥ ४४॥

The man saluting him gets absolved from all sins originated from Lolāsāṅkarya and Vaibhāṅḍasāṅkarya.

तथैव द्वापरे प्राप्ते स्वाश्रमे प्रार्च्यं शंकरम्।
विमुक्तो राजसैर्भावैर्वर्णसंकरसंभवैः॥ ४५॥

Similarly, Brahmā freed him from the Réjasatic temperament originated from Varnasāṅkarya¹ by worshipping Śāṅkara in his āśrama at the advent of Dvāpara.

ततः कृष्णाचर्तुर्दश्यां पूजयित्वा तु यानवः।
विमुक्तः पातकैः सर्वभोज्यस्याश्रसंभवैः॥ ४६॥

The man worshipping there on the fourteenth day of the dark fortnight is absolved from the evils stuck due to taking the food not eatable.

कलिकाले तु संप्राप्ते वसिष्ठाश्रमास्थितः।
चतुर्मुखं स्थापयित्वा ययौ सिद्धिमनुत्तमाम्॥ ४७॥

Brahmā got grand success (siddhi) by installing Caturmukha at Vasiṣṭhāśrama when there entered the Kaliyuga.

The people who worship Mahādeva by observing fast, with reverence and by putting strong control on their senses definitely attain the supreme position.

सा बद्धा संस्थिता ब्रह्मस्तत्रैव गिरिकन्यका।
आपोमयी प्लावयन्ती ब्रह्मणो विमला जटा॥ १६॥

O Brahmin! That daughter of mountain then began to live within grip of Brahmā's matted hair and could not take any outer flow.

या सा रागवती नाम सपि नीता सुरैर्दिवम्।
ब्रह्मणे तां निवेद्यैवं तामव्याह प्रजापतिः॥ १७॥

The gods took Rāgavatī also in the heaven and offered her to Brahmā. She was told the same thing by Brahmā.

साऽपि कुद्धाऽब्रवीन्ननं तथा तप्ये महत्तपः।
यथा मन्नामसंयुक्तो महिष्णो भविष्यति॥ १८॥

She also became angry and said- "I will definitely do such a penance as the killer of Mahiṣa will be known after my name.

तामप्यथाशपद् ब्रह्मा संध्या पापे भविष्यसि।
या मद्वाव्यमलद्ध्यं वै सुरैर्लद्धयसे बलात्॥ १९॥

Brahmā cursed her also- "O evil doer lady! You will become Sañdhya as you have violated my words which always complied by all gods.

साऽपि जाता मुनिश्रेष्ठं संध्यारागवती ततः।
प्रतीच्छत् कृत्तिकायोगं शैलेया विग्रहं दृढम्॥ २०॥

O great sage! That daughter of mountain Rāgavatī became Sañdhya and began waiting for Kṛttikā Yoga for her joining therewith.

ततो गते कन्यके द्वे ज्ञात्वा मेना तपस्त्विनी।
तपसो वारयामास उमेत्येवाब्रवीत् सा॥ २१॥

The chaste Menā resisted her third daughter Kālī from doing penance as she had seen the result of her two girls. She therefore addressed her as 'Umā'.

तदेव माता नामास्याश्वके पितृसुता शुभा।
उपेत्येव हि कन्यायाः सा जगाम तपेवनम्॥ २२॥

The daughter of Pitṛs, the philanthropic and affectionate mother Menā gave the same name Umā to her youngest daughter. She also went to Tapovana (the forest suitable for penance).

ततः सा मनसा देवं शूलपाणिं वृषष्वजम्।
रुद्रं चेतसि संघार्य तपस्तेषे सुदुष्करम्॥ २३॥

She then kept in mind Śūlapāṇi Vṛṣadhvaja Rudra and seated on gross penance.

ततो ब्रह्माऽब्रवीदेवानाच्छध्वं हिमवत्सुताम्।
इहानयध्वं तां कालीं तपस्यन्तीं हिमालये॥ २४॥

Brahmā then said to gods one day- "Go at Kālī, the daughter of Himālaya and call her here. She is observing penance there."

ततो देवाः समाजग्मुदृदृशः शैलनन्दिनीम्।
तेजसा विजितास्तस्या न शेकुरसपर्तुम्॥ २५॥

Then the god came at that place and saw the daughter of Himālaya. They however, dazzled of the radiance around her aura and could not go near to her.

इन्द्रोऽमरगणैः सार्थं निर्दूतस्तेजसा तथा।
ब्रह्मणोऽधिकतेजोऽस्या विनिवेद्य प्रतिष्ठितः॥ २६॥

Indra including over gods were faded of her radiance. They came back and reported Brahmā that due to excessity of the radiant complexion, their efforts met failure.

ततो ब्रह्माऽब्रवीत् सा हि धूतं शंकरवल्लभा।
यूथं सतेजसा नूनं विक्षिपास्तु हतप्रभाः॥ २७॥

Brahmā said- "She will definitely become the wife of god Śaṅkara as you all have dazzled of her splendour."

तस्माद् भजध्वं स्वं स्वं हि स्थानं भो विगतज्जराः।
सतारकं हि महिषं विदध्वं निहतं रणे॥ २८॥

Hence, O gods! Be worriless and return to your respective places. Consider it confirm that Mahiṣa along with Tāraka shall be killed in battle.

इत्येवमुक्ता देवेन ब्रह्मणा सेन्द्रकाः सुराः।
जप्तुः स्वान्येव धिष्यानि सद्यो वै विगतज्जराः॥ २९॥

All gods including Indra became tension free and returned to their respective places immediately when they heard this declaration from Brahmā.

उमामपि तपस्यन्तीं हिमवान् पर्वतश्चराः।
निवर्त्य तपसस्तस्मात् सदारो हनयद् गृहान्॥ ३०॥

Himālaya went at Tapovana with his wife Menā and brought Umā at home when the penance was over.

देवोऽप्याश्रित्य तद्रौद्रं व्रतं नाम निराश्रयम्।
विच्छार महाशैलान् मेरुप्रायान् महामतिः॥ ३१॥

The great learned Mahādeva also observed that fierce fast called Nirāśraya (nothing to take for survival) and began strolling on the great mountains like Meru etc.

स कदाचिम्महाशैलं हिमवनं समागतः।
तेनार्चितः श्रद्धयाऽसौ तां रात्रिमवसद्धरः॥ ३२॥

One he went at the great mountain of Himālaya. He stayed for a night when it was requested by Himālaya.

द्वितीयेऽहि गिरीशेन महादेवो निपन्नितः।
इहैव तिष्ठस्व विभो तपःसाधनकारणात्॥ ३३॥

On the next day, the king mountain invited Mahādeva and said- "O sovereign god! Live here for penance."

इत्येवमुक्तो गिरिणा हर्षके मतिं च ताम्।
तथावश्रममाश्रित्य त्यक्त्वा वासं निराश्रमम्॥ ३४॥

On request of Himālaya, Śiva thought it right suggestion. He abandoned nomadic movement and began to live in āśrama.

वसतोऽप्याश्रमे तस्य देवदेवस्य शूलिनः।
तं देशमगमत् काली गिरिराजसुता शुभा॥ ३५॥

The most handsome third daughter of Himālaya (king of mountains) Kālī visited that place when Śaṅkara, the lord of gods was becoming an Āśramite.

तामागतां हरो दृष्ट्वा भूयो जातां प्रियां सतीम्।
स्वागतेनाभिसंपूज्य तस्यौ योगरतो हरः॥ ३६॥

Śiva provided entertainment as possible when saw that Satī had come in her rebirth and again engrossed with meditation.

सा चाभ्येत्य वरारोहा कृताञ्जलिपरिग्रहा।
ववन्दे चरणौ शैवौ सखीभिः सह भासिनी॥ ३७॥

That beautiful virgin put her folded hands on the feet of Mahādeva along with her girl-friends (viz. She saluted with keen reverence).

ततस्तु सुचिराच्छर्वः समीक्ष्य गिरिकन्याकाम्।
न युक्तं चैवमुक्त्वाऽथ सगणोऽन्तर्दिये ततः॥ ३८॥

Śaṅkara stared at Kālī for several minutes, blurted as- "It is not good" and vanished immediately with his gaṇas.

साऽपि शर्ववचो रौद्रं श्रुत्वा ज्ञानसमन्विता।
अन्तर्दुःखेन दहन्ती पितरं प्राह पार्वती॥ ३९॥

The words delivered by Śaṅkara shocked in depth Pārvatī and she aptly submitted her resolution before her father.

तात यास्ये महारण्ये तसु घोरं महत्पः।
आराधनाय देवस्य शंकरस्य पिनाकिनः॥ ४०॥

"O father! I will set out for strict penance in a dense forest for the cause of pleasing god Śaṅkara."

तथेत्युक्तं वचः पित्रा पादे तस्यैव विस्तुते।
ललिताञ्ज्या तपस्तेषे हराराधनकाम्यया॥ ४१॥

The father said- "Very well". Lalitā (Pārvatī) then began worship for Śiva's pleasure at the broad valley of Himālaya when so permitted by her father.

तस्याः सख्यस्तदा देव्याः परिचर्या तु कुर्वते।
समिल्कुशफलं चापि मूलाहरणमादितः॥ ४२॥

Her girl friends also began attending her. They supplied woods, kuśa, fruits and roots etc. for her worship.

विनोदनार्थं पार्वत्या मृग्नमयः शूलघृण् हरः।
कृतश्च तेजसा युक्तो भद्रमस्त्वति साऽब्रवीत्॥ ४३॥

Those (girl friends) constructed an icon of god Śaṅkara with trident in his hand for recreation of Pārvatī. Pārvatī appreciated and liked their effort and said- "well done".

पूजां करोति तस्यैव तं पश्यन्ती मुहुर्मुहुः।
ततोऽस्यासुष्ठिमगमच्छृङ्ख्या त्रिपुरान्तकृत्॥ ४४॥

She engrossed with worship to that icon and gaze frequently to it. With the passage of time, god Śaṅkara pleased on her worship.

बटुरुपं समाधाय आषाढी मुञ्जमेखली।

कमण्डलुव्यग्रकरो भस्मासृणितविग्रहः।
प्रत्याश्रमं पर्यटन्स तं काल्याश्रमपागतः॥ ४६॥

He then picked up a stick of Palāśa in hand, put mekhala of Muñja, sacred thread, umbrella, hide of stag on body, kamandalu in hand, ash smeared on body and became a beggar. He reached at the āśrama of Kālī finally on his visit to all other āśramas.

तमुत्थाय तदा काली सखीभिः सह नारद।
पूजयित्वा यथान्यायं पर्यपृच्छदिदं ततः॥ ४७॥

O Nārada! Kālī and her girl-mates stood up in his honour, provided entertainment and then asked.

उमोवाच—
कस्मादागम्यते भिक्षो कुत्र स्थाने तवाश्रमः।
क्व च त्वं परिगन्तासि मम शीघ्रं निवेदय॥ ४८॥

Umā said- O beggar! Tell me immediately the place from where you came. Where is your āśrama and where will you go now?

भिक्षुरुवाच—
ममाश्रमपदं बाले वाराणस्यां शुचिव्रते।
अथातस्तीर्थयात्रायां गमिष्यामि पृथूदकम्॥ ४९॥

The beggar said- "O virgin on sacred fast! My āśrama is at Vārāṇasī. I am on pilgrimage. I will go at Pṛthūdaka from here.

देव्युवाच-

किं पुण्यं तत्र विप्रेन्द्र लब्धासि त्वं पृथूदके।
पथि स्नानेन च फलं केषु किं लब्धवानसि॥ ५०॥

The goddess further enquired- "O great Vipra! What will the fruit you gain in Pṛthūdaka? What fruits have you already obtained as a result of bath in holy places visited by you on way to here?"

भिक्षुरुवाच-

मया सनां प्रयागे तु कृतं प्रथममेव हि।
ततोऽथ तीर्थे कुञ्जाम्रे जयन्ते चण्डिकेश्वरे॥ ५१॥
बन्धुवृन्दे च कर्कचे तीर्थे कनखले तथा।
सरस्वत्यामग्निकुण्डे भद्रायां तु त्रिविष्टपे॥ ५२॥
कोनटे कोटितीर्थे च कुञ्जके च कृशोदरि।
निष्कामेन कृतं स्नानं ततोऽभ्यासां तवाश्रमम्॥ ५३॥

The beggar replied- O thin roin virgin! I have first taken bath in Prayāga and in a serial to my way here I took bath in Kubjāmra, Jayanta, Candikeśvara, Bandhuvṛnda, Karkandha, Kanakhala, Sarasvatī, Agnikuṇḍa, Bhadrā, Triviṣṭapa, Konaṭa, Koṭi-tīrtha and Kubjaka.

इहस्थां त्वां समाधाय गमिष्यामि पृथूदकम्।
पृच्छामि यदहं त्वां वै तत्र न क्रोद्धुर्मर्हसि॥ ५४॥

After conversation with you, my next visit will be at Pṛthūdaka. Don't be angry if I ask some questions to you.

अहं यस्तपसाऽत्मानं शोषयामि कृशोदरि।
बाल्येऽपि संयततनुस्ततः श्लाघ्यं द्विजन्मनाम्॥ ५५॥

O thin belly virgin! It is all good for Brāhmaṇas if he utilises his youth for penance and I am on the same path.

किमर्थं भवती रौद्रं प्रथमे वयसि स्थिता।
तपः समाश्रिता भीरु संशयः प्रतिभाति मे॥ ५६॥

But O delicate virgin! Why are you observing such strict penance even at so young age? It fills my mind with suspicion.

प्रथमे वयसि स्त्रीणां सह भर्ता विलासिनि।
सुभोगा भोगिताः काला द्वजन्ति स्थिरयौवने॥५७॥

O spinster! O charming virgin! The women generally live in close touch of their husbands and enjoy the carnal and material pleasures.

तपसा वाञ्छयनीह गिरिजे सचराचराः।
रूपाभिजनमैश्वर्यं तद्य ते वर्तते बहु॥ ५८॥

O daughter of mountain! The creatures generally observe penance for attaining complexion, noble family and luxury but all these are already rested with you.

तत्किर्मर्थमपास्यैतानलंकाराङ्गाधृताः।
चीनांशुकं परित्यज्य किं त्वं वल्कलधारिणी॥५९॥

Why has you then put mated hair instead of putting ornaments on body? Why has you put tree bark on body by setting aside the silk and Cināsiuka garments?

पुलस्त्य उवाच-

ततस्तु तपसा दुद्धा देव्याः सोमप्रभा सखो।
भिक्षुवे कथयामास यथावत् सा हि नारद॥६०॥

Pulastya said- O Nārada! Somaprabhā, one of girl-friends to Pārvatī then told the factual position for which she was observing the fast.

सोमप्रभोवाच-

तपश्चर्या द्विजश्रेष्ठ पार्वत्या येन हेतुना।
तं शृणुच्च त्वयिं काली हरं भर्तारमिच्छति॥६१॥

Somaprabhā said- O great Brahmin! Listen to the cause for which Pārvatī is engaged in penance. This Kālī, wants to see Śiva as her husband.

पुलस्त्य उवाच

सोमप्रभाया वचनं श्रुत्वा संकम्प्य वै शिरः।
विहस्य च महाहासं भिक्षुराह वचस्त्वदम्॥६२॥

Pulastya said- The beggar laughed with head gestures on listening it and replied.

भिक्षुर्वाच-

वदामि ते पार्वति वाक्यमेवं
केन प्रदत्ता तव बुद्धिरेषाः।

कथं करः पल्लवकोमलस्ते
समेष्यते शार्वकरं ससर्पम्॥६३॥

The beggar said- "O Pārvatī! I ask you the name of person so inspired you. How your hands delicate as a leaf would join the serpent moving hand of Śiva?

तथा दुकूलाम्बरशालिनी त्वं
मृगार्चिर्याभिवृतस्तु रुद्रः।
त्वं चन्दनाक्ता स च भस्मभूषितो
न युक्तरूपं प्रतिभाति मे त्विदम्॥६४॥

You put beautiful garments while Śiva put tigers' hide on body. You smear sandal on body while Śiva smear the ash. Hence, it is not matching anyhow to my mind.

पुलस्त्य उवाच-

एवं वादिनि विप्रेन्द्र पार्वती भिक्षुमब्रवीत्।
मा मैवं वद भिक्षो त्वं हरः सर्वगुणाधिकः॥६५॥

Pulastya said- O great Brahmin! Pārvatī replied immediately to him- O beggar! Don't say such thing. Śāṅkara is the best among all merits.

शिवो वाऽप्यथवा भीमः सधने निर्धनेऽपि वा।
अलंकृतो वा देवेशस्तथा वाऽप्यनलंकृतः॥६६॥

निवार्यतामयं भिक्षुर्विवक्षुः स्फुरिताधरः।
न तथा निन्दकः पापी यथा शृणवन् शशिप्रभेः॥६७॥

Irrespective of Śiva's being fierce or gentle, rich or poor, ornamented or without ornament. Whatever he is, he will definitely become my husband. O Śāśiprabhā! Prohibit him from advancing as his lips indicate that he will again say something wrong for Śiva. The person criticising is not considered so evildoer as who listens it.

पुलस्त्य उवाच-

इत्येवमुक्त्वा वरदा समुत्थातुमैच्छत।
ततोऽत्यजद्भिक्षुरूपं स्वरूपस्थोऽभवच्छिवः॥६८॥

Pulastya said- With these word, Pārvatī wished to go anywhere. God Śiva in the meantime, abandoned his disguised form and appeared there.

भूत्वोवाच प्रिये गच्छ स्वमेव भवनं पितुः।
तवार्थाय प्रहेष्यामि महर्षीन् हिमवद्गृहे॥ ६९॥

He said- O beloved! Go back to your father's mansion. I will send the great hermits to the home of Himavat.

यद्येह रुद्रमीहन्त्या मृण्यश्चेश्वरः कृतः।
असौ भद्रेश्वरेत्येवं ख्यातो लोके भविष्यति॥ ७०॥

This clay icon made by you were in order to focus your mind for, Śaṅkara shall gain popularity in the world as Bhadreśvara.

देवदानवगच्छर्वा यक्षाः किंपुरुषोरगाः।
पूजयिष्यन्ति सततं मानवाश्च शुभेष्ववः॥ ७१॥

The gods, demons, gandharva, yakṣa, kinnaras (eunuch), serpent and human-beings will worship this icon for fulfilment of their desires.

इत्येवमुक्ता देवेन गिरिराजसुता मुने।
जगामाप्वरमाविश्य स्वमेव भवनं पितुः॥ ७२॥

O sage! Pārvatī immediately complied with the instructions of Śiva and went back through sky route at Himālaya.

शङ्करोऽपि महातेजा विसृज्य गिरिकन्यकाम्।
पृथूदकं जगामाथ स्नानं चक्रे विद्यानतः॥ ७३॥

The great god Śaṅkara too visited at Pr̥thūdaka and took bath after seeing up the daughter of mountain king.

ततस्तु देवप्रवरो महेश्वरः।
पृथूदके स्नानमपास्तकल्प्यषः।
कृत्वा सनन्दिः सगणः सवाहनो
महागिरिं मन्दरमाजगाम॥ ७४॥

The god of gods Maheśvara absolved from impurity by virtue of bath in Pr̥thūdaka and then returned to the great mountain Mandara with his Nandī, gaṇas and carrier (vāhana).

आयाति त्रिपुरान्तके सह गणैर्द्वहर्षिभिः सप्तभि-

The mountain king was exhilarated seeing seven hermits, the gaṇas and Śaṅkara came at his abode. He entertained them by offering divine fruits, roots, tubers (kanda) and clean water.

Chapter 52

Prayer of Gods to Himalaya for settlement of marriage of Umā with Śiva

पुलस्त्य उवाच-

ततः संपूजितो रुद्रः शैलेन प्रीतिमानभूता
सस्मार च महर्षीस्तु अरुच्यत्या समं ततः॥ १॥

Pulastyā said- Rudra pleased on getting such entertainment from the mountain king and he then remembered all hermits including Arundhatī.

ते संस्मृतास्तु ऋषयः शंकरेण महात्मना।
समाजगमुर्भहशैलं मन्दरं चारुकन्दरम्॥ २॥

On so summoned by Śaṅkara, those hermits came at the great mountain Mandara where beautiful caves were existing.

तानागतान्समीक्ष्यैव देवस्त्रिपुरनाशनः।
अभ्युत्थायाभिपूज्यैतानिदं वचनमब्रवीत्॥ ३॥

Mahādeva, the killer of Tripura monster, stood up in their honour, saluted and then said.

धन्तोऽयं पर्वतश्चेष्ठः श्लाघ्यः पूज्यश्च दैवतैः।
धूतपापस्तथा जातो भवतां पादपङ्कजैः॥ ४॥

This best mountain is graced, appreciated by gods and adorable but now with your lotus feet here, it has been absolved of all sins.

स्थीयतां विस्तुते रम्ये गिरिप्रस्थे समे शुभे।
शिलासु पदावर्णासु श्लक्षणासु च पृदुष्पिणी॥ ५॥

Please, be seated on the lotus colour, smooth and soft boulders of this huge, attractive, plain and beautiful ridge.

पुलस्त्य उवाच-

इत्येवमुक्ता देवेन शंकरेण महर्षयः।
समवेत्य त्वरुत्यत्या विविशुः शैलसानुनि॥६॥

Pulastya said- the hermits seated on ridge with Arundhatī when so suggested by god Śaṅkara.

उपविष्टे ऋषिषु नन्दी देवगणाग्रणीः।
अर्धादिना समध्यर्च्य स्थितः प्रयत्नानसः॥७॥

When the hermits so seated comfortably, the pioneer gaṇa Nandī stood up after offering arghya etc. to them.

ततोऽब्रवीत्सुरपतिर्धर्म वाक्यं हितं सुरान्।
आत्मनो यशसो वृद्धै च सपर्णीन्विनयान्वितान्॥८॥

Siva then most humbly said illustrious, benevolent and religion abiding words.

हर उवाच-

कश्यपात्रे वारुणेय गाधेय शृणु गौतम।
भरद्वाज शृणुष्व त्वमङ्गिरस्त्वं शृणुष्व च॥९॥
ममासीद्वक्षतनुजा प्रिया सा दक्षकोपतः।
उत्सर्ज रसी प्राणान् योग दृष्ट्या पुरा किल॥१०॥

Śaṅkara said- "Listen, O Kaśyapa! O Atri! O Vasiṣṭha! O Viśvāmitra! O Gautama! O Bharadvāja! O Āṅgirā!" You all know, Satī, the daughter of Dakṣa was my beloved during ancient period. She abandoned her life by practising profound and abstract contemplation in the past.

साऽद्य भूयः समुद्भूता शैलराजसुता उमा।
सा मदर्थाय शैलेन्द्रो याच्यतां द्विजसन्तमाः॥११॥

She has born as daughter of Himālaya now. O great Dvijas! I therefore, request you all to ask her hand for me from Himālaya.

पुलस्त्य उवाच-

सपर्णयश्चैवमुक्ता बाढमित्यबृवन्वचः।
ॐ नमः शंकरायेति प्रोक्त्वा जग्मुहिमालयम्॥१२॥

Pulastya said- "On these words, the seven hermits said- 'Very good' and visited at Himālaya with 'Om Namah Śaṅkarāya' on their lips."

ततोऽप्यरुद्धतीं शर्वः प्राह गच्छस्व सुन्दरि।
पुरञ्चर्तो हि पुरञ्चीणां गर्ति धर्मस्य वै विदुः॥१३॥

Siva then instructed Arundhatī! O beautiful lady! Accompany them to Himālaya as the women only know the feminine maters better than the men.

इत्येवमुक्ता दुर्लभ्यं लोकाचारं त्वरुद्धती।
नपस्ते रुद्र इत्युक्त्वा जगाम पतिना सह॥१४॥

Arundhatī, the most popular chest woman in this world, chanted "salute to Rudra" and accompanied with her husband.

गत्वा हिमाद्रिशिखरमोषधिप्रस्थमेव च।
ददृशुः शैलराजस्य पुरी सुरपुरीमिव॥१५॥

They all saw the city of Himālaya analogous to the heaven from one of its ridges. It was covered by the medicinal plants grown everywhere.

ततः संपूज्यमानास्ते शैलयोषिद्विरादरात्।
सुनाभादिभिरव्यग्रैः पूज्यमानास्तु पर्वतैः॥१६॥
गच्छर्वैः किनरैर्यक्षस्तथाऽन्यैस्तपुरस्सरैः।
विविशुर्भवनं रम्यं हिमाद्रेहाटकोज्ज्वलम्॥१७॥

The wives of Himālaya, Sunābha etc. stable mountains, Gandharvas, Kinnaras, Yakṣas and other gave them due entertainment and they entered finally in the golden shade palace of Himālaya.

ततः सर्वे महात्मानस्तपसा धौतकल्पणाः।
समासाद्य महाद्वारं संतस्युद्ध्राःस्थकारणात्॥१८॥

Then the high-souled ones who had shaken off their sins by penance, reaching the principal gate had to stop at the gate for enquiry of the gate-keeper.

ततस्तु त्वरितोऽभ्यागाद् द्वाःस्योऽद्विर्गच्छमादनः।
धारयन्वै करे दण्डं पद्मरागमयं महत्॥१९॥

The door-keeper Gandhamādana mountain with a huge log of Padmarāga immediately came there.

ततस्तमूरुमुनयो गत्वा शैलपतिं शुभम्।
निवेदयास्मान् संप्राप्तान् महत्कार्यार्थिनो वयम्॥२०॥

The hermits said- "Give message to the king mountain that we have come with important matter to discuss."

इत्येवमुक्तः शैलेन्द्रो ऋषिभिर्गच्छमादनः।

जगाम तत्र यत्रास्ते शैलराजोऽप्रिभिर्वृतः॥ २ १॥

Complying with their message, Gandhamādana went to Himālaya, surrounded by several mountains.

निषण्णो भुवि जानुभ्यां दत्त्वा हस्तौ मुखे गिरिः।

दण्डं निक्षिप्य कक्षायामिदं वचनमब्रवीत्॥ २ २॥

He knelt down on the ground, placed both hands near mouth, putting the stick in the armpit replied as follows :

गच्छमादन उवाच-

इमे हि ऋषयः प्राप्ता शैलराज तवार्थिनः।

द्वारे स्थिताः कार्यिणस्ते तत्र दर्शनलालसाः॥ २ ३॥

Gandhamādana said- "O king mountain! Some hermits have come with some important mater to discuss with you and they are stood at the gate waiting to see you.

पुलस्त्य उवाच-

द्वाःस्थवाक्यं समाकर्ण्य समुत्थायाच्चलेश्वरः।

स्वयमभ्यागमद्वारि समादायार्घ्यमुत्तमम्॥ २ ४॥

Pulastyā said- Himālaya stood up, pick-up arghya in hands and approached himself at the gate.

तानर्च्यार्घ्यादिना शैलः समानीय सभातलम्।

उवाच वाक्यं वाक्यज्ञः कृतासनपरिग्रहान्॥ २ ५॥

He gave arghya, pay homage, brought them in assembly and said when they seated comfortably.

अनध्रवृष्टिः किमियमुताहोऽकुसुमं फलम्।

अप्रत्यक्यमचिन्त्य च भवदागमनं त्विदम्॥ २ ६॥

Himālaya said- "How this sudden visit have you taken today as your arrival here is beyond imagination and unexpected."

अद्याप्रभृति धन्योऽस्मि शैलराड्या सत्तमाः।

संशुद्धदेहोऽस्यदैव यद्भवन्तो मपाजिरम्॥ २ ७॥

आत्मसंसर्गसंशुद्धं कृतवन्तो द्विजोत्तमाः।

O great hermits! I am graced today and for my real position as king mountain. As you have purified my palace by your sight, feet and by contact of your great soul like a bath in Sārasvata holy place; my body is purified today.

दासोऽहं भवतां विप्राः कृतपुण्यश्च साम्रातम्।

O Brahmins! I am slave to you all. I have got the fruit for noble deeds today. Please, order me what should I do for you all.

सदारोऽहं समं पुत्रैर्भृत्यैर्नप्तुभिरव्ययाः।

किंकरोऽस्मि स्थितो युष्मदाज्ञाकारी तदुच्यताम्॥ ३ ०॥

O hermits! I am mere servant to you with wife, sons, grandsons and all servants. Hence, please, order me.

पुलस्त्य उवाच-

शैलराजवचः श्रुत्वा ऋषयः संशितव्रताः।

ऊचुरङ्गिरसं वृद्धं कार्यमद्रौ निवेदय॥ ३ १॥

Pulastyā said- The hermits said Aṅgirā, the renowned sage- "Please, tell the purpose of our arrival here to Himālaya."

इत्येवं चोदितः सर्वैर्ऋषिभिः कश्यपादिभिः।

प्रत्युवाच परं वाक्यं गिरिराजं ताङ्गिराः॥ ३ २॥

Aṅgirā so requested by all Ṛṣis with Kaśyapa etc. spoke the most excellent words to the king of mountains Himālaya.

अङ्गिरा उवाच-

श्रूयतां पर्वतश्रेष्ठ येन कार्येण वै वयम्।

सपागतास्त्वत्सदनमरुद्यत्या समं गिरे॥ ३ ३॥

Aṅgirā said- O king of mountains! Listen to the purpose of our arrival at your home with Arundhatī.

योऽसौ महात्मा सर्वात्मा दक्षयज्ञक्षयंकरः।

On both collateral's of Śiva, there were Viṣṇu on eagle and Brahmā on swan.

गजाधिरूढो देवेन्द्रश्छत्रं शुक्रपटं विभोः।
धारयामास विततं शच्या सह सहस्रदृक्॥१०॥

Indra, the thousand eyed god rode on elephant and held a wide umbrella of white cloth.

Yamunā, the best river rode on tortoise and began to walk with white fan (carṇvara) in her hand.

हंसकुन्देन्दुसङ्घाशं बालव्यजनमुत्तमम्।

The holiest river Sarasvatī too rode on elephant with fan (carṇvara) analogous to Hamsa, Kunda and Indu.

ऋतवः षट् समादाय कुसुमं गच्यसंयुतम्।
पञ्चवर्णं महेशानं जग्मुस्ते कामचारिणः॥१३॥

The six seasons began to walk with procession with five-coloured fragrant flowers.

Pṛthūdaka rode on elephant intoxicant as Airāvata and began walking with smearing items (anulepana).

अनुजग्मुर्घादेवं वादयन्तश्च किनराः॥१५॥

Gandharvas including Tumbaru moved with singing melodious songs and Kinnara with plying on musical instruments. They were at the back side of Śiva.

नृत्यन्त्योऽप्सरसश्वै स्तुवन्तो मुनयश्च तम्।
गच्यवा यान्ति देवेशं त्रिणेत्रं शूलपाणिनम्॥१६॥

The nymphs moved dancing and sages and Gandharva moved with chanting psalms on Śūlapāni Trilocana.

एकादशं तथा कोट्यो रुद्राणां तत्र वै ययुः।
द्वादशैवादितेयानामष्टौ कोट्यो वसूनपि॥१७॥
सप्तष्टिस्तथा कोट्यो गणानामुषिसत्तम।

O great sages! Thus, eleven crore Rudras, twelve crore Ādityas, eight crore Vasus, Sixty seven crore gaṇas and twenty four crore Udhrvaretā hermit took departure from there.

असंख्यातानि यूथानि यक्षकिन्नरस्ततम्।
अनुजग्मुर्घेशानं विवाहाय समाकुलाः॥१९॥

Yakṣa, Kinnara and monsters were in uncountable groups and all were moved impatiently for the marriage of Śiva. They were following god Śaṅkara.

ततः क्षणेन देवेशः क्षमाधराधिपतेस्तलम्।
संप्राप्तस्त्वागमन् शैलाः कुञ्जरस्थाः समन्ततः॥२०॥

The god of gods reached on Himālaya within second. The mountains rode on elephants had surrounded him from four sides.

ततो नाम भगवांस्त्रिणेत्रः स्थावराधिपम्।
शैलाः प्रणेमुरीशानं ततोऽसौ मुदितोऽभवत्॥२१॥

God Śaṅkara saluted the king mountain and other mountains saluted Śiva. He was filled with you.

समं सुरैः पार्षदैश्च विवेश वृषकेतनः।
नन्दिना दर्शिते मार्गे शैलराजपुरं महत्॥२२॥

God Śaṅkara on bull entered in the grand palace of king mountain with gods and counsellors following Nandi the guide.

जीमूतकेतुरायात इत्येवं नगरस्त्रियः।
निजं कर्म परित्यज्य दर्शनव्यापृताभवन्॥ २३॥

The women living in city left their respective works and engrossed in seeing Jimūtaketu Śaṅkara when the heard commotion of his arrival.

माल्यद्वयमन्या चादाय करेणकेन भासिनी।
केशपाणं द्वितीयेन शंकराभिमुखी गता॥ २४॥

A woman with half made garland in one hand and scattered hair on other, rushed towards Śaṅkara.

अन्याऽलक्षकरागाढ्यं पादं कृत्वा कुलेक्षणा।
अनलक्षकमेकं हि हरं द्रष्टुमुपागता॥ २५॥

Another woman was smearing mahāvara on her feet but when she heard the commotion, forgot that she had smeared mahāvara on a single foot.

एकेनाक्षणाऽङ्गितेनैव श्रुत्वा भीममुपागतम्।
साञ्जनां च प्रगृह्णान्या शलाकां सुषु धावति॥ २६॥

One more woman rushed towards Śiva with Añjana on a eye and the pouch and splint for other eye.

अन्या सरसनं वासः पाणिनादाय सुन्दरी।
उन्मत्तेवागमन्नग्ना हरदर्शनलालसा॥ २७॥

In a passion to see Śaṅkara, another woman had forgotten that she was changing apparels. She rushed naked with clothes on her hand.

अन्याऽतिक्रान्तपीशानं श्रुत्वा स्तनभरालसा।
अनिन्दत रुषा बाला यौवनं स्वं कृशोदरी॥ २८॥

On thin loin virgin with heavy breasts felt uneasiness due to mature youth while running and began to condemn her youth for such disturbance in seeing Śaṅkara.

इत्थं स नागरस्त्रीणां क्षोभं संजनयन् हरः।
जगाम वृषभारूढो दिव्यं श्वशुरमन्दिरम्॥ २९॥

Śaṅkara on bull thus, entered in the divine palace of his father-in-law by arousing passions in the heart of the women living in that city.

ततः प्रविष्टं प्रसमीक्ष्य शंभुं
शैलेन्द्रवेशमन्यबला ब्रुवन्ति।

स्थाने तपो दुश्शरमधिकाया-
श्रीर्ण महानेष सुरस्तु शंभुः॥ ३०॥

The women present in the palace said king mountain that the penance has been rightly observed as Śaṅkara is indeed, a great god.

स एष येनाङ्गमनङ्गतां कृतं
कर्दर्पनामः कुसुमायुधस्य।

क्रतोः क्षयी दक्षविनाशकर्ता
भगाक्षिहा शूलधरः पिनाकी॥ ३१॥

This Śaṅkara had once set in fire Kandarpa (god of sex). He is Kratukṣayī, Dakṣa destroyer, Bhagākṣi hantā, Śūladhara and Pinākī.

नमो नमः शंकर शूलपाणे
मृगारिचर्माघ्वर कालशत्रो।

महाहिराराङ्गितकुण्डलाय
नमो नमः पार्वतिवल्लभाय॥ ३२॥

O Śaṅkara, the holder of trident, the wearer of the tiger's skin, the subduer of Kāla, the god of death, the wearer of the necklace and Kuṇḍala of great serpents, lover of Pārvati! “Frequent salute to you.”

इत्थं संस्तूयमानः सुरपतिविधृतेनातपत्रेण शंभुः।
सिद्धैर्वर्ण्या: सयक्षैरहिकृतवलयी चारुभस्मोपलिसः।
अग्रस्थेनाग्रजेन प्रमुदितमनसा विष्णुना चानुगेन
वैवाहीं मङ्गलाढ्यां हुतवहमुदितामारुरोहाथ वेदीम्॥

So propitiated and shadowed by umbrella held by Indra, adorable to Siddhas and Yakṣas, with the bracelet of a snake, ash-smeared body, with Brahmā delighted at heart before him, followed by Viṣṇu, Śiva went at the marital altar where sacred fire was blazing.

आयाति त्रिपुरान्तके सहचरैः सार्थं च सप्तर्षिभि
वृग्रोऽभूत्रिरिराजवेशमनि जनः काल्याः समालंकृतौ।
व्याकुल्यं समुपागताष्ठा गिरयः पूजादिना देवताः
प्रायो व्याकुलिता भवन्ति सुहृदः कन्याविवाहोत्सुकाः॥

The citizen and inhabitants of palace were busy with making-up Kālī, giving proper entertainment to gods when Śiva visited there with his attendants and Saptarṣis. The gentlemen usually keep them busy with serving the guests so came.

प्रसाद्य देवीं गिरिजां ततः स्त्रियो
दुकूलशुक्राभिवृताङ्ग्यष्टिकाम्।
भ्रात्रा सुनाभेन तदोत्सवे कृते
सा शंकराभ्याशमथोपपादिता॥ ३५॥

The women decorated Pārvatī with white silk garments and her brother Sunābha took her to Śaṅkara for marital rituals to be performed.

ततः शुभे हमर्यतले हिरण्यमये
स्थिताः सुराः शंकरकालिचेष्टितम्।
पश्यन्ति देवोऽपि समं कृशाङ्ग्या
लोकानुजुष्टं पदमाससादा॥ ३६॥

The gods seated in gold studded palace began to see the marital rituals of Śaṅkara and Pārvatī. Mahādeva too seated at the sacred place with thin body Pārvatī.

यत्र क्रीडा विचित्राः सुकुसुपतरवो वारिणो बिन्दुपातै-
र्गच्छाढैर्गच्छौर्णः प्रविरलमवनौ गुणिठतौ गुणिडकायाम्
मुक्तादामैः प्रकामं हरगिरितनया क्रीडनार्थं तदाऽच्छत्
पश्चात् सिन्दूरपुञ्जेरविरतवित्तेष्यक्रतुः क्षमां सुरक्ताम्॥

In a circled land duly decorated by beautiful flowers, Śaṅkara and Pārvatī sprinkled water and fragrant scents on each other. They hit each other by Muktādāma and then made the earth red by pouring vermillion.

ए वं क्रीडां हरः कृत्वा समं च गिरिकन्य्या।
आगच्छद् दक्षिणां वेदिषुषिभिः सेवितं दृढाम्॥ ३८॥

Thus, Śaṅkara with the daughter of Himālaya came at the south altar surrounded by Ṛṣis when such playing was over.

अथाजगाम हिमवान् शुक्राप्वरधरः शुचिः।
पवित्रपाणिरादाय मधुपर्कमथोज्ज्वलम्॥ ३९॥

Then Himavān came there with white madhuparka. He had put Pavitri and white garments on body.

उपविष्टस्त्रिनेत्रसु शाक्रीं दिशमपश्यत।
समर्पिकांश्च शैलेन्द्रः सूपविष्टेऽवलोकयन्॥ ४०॥

Śaṅkara was looking at east direction while seated and the king mountain took seat properly facing Saptarṣis.

सुखासीनस्य शर्वस्य कृताङ्गलिपुटो गिरिः।
प्रोवाच वचनं श्रीमान् धर्मसाधनमात्मनः॥ ४१॥

The mountain (Himālaya) with folded hands spoke words leading to virtue and merit to Śaṅkara-

हिमवानुवाच-
मत्पुत्रीं भगवान् कालीं पौत्रीं च पुलहाग्रजे।
पितॄणामपि दौहित्रीं प्रतीच्छेमां मयोदिताम्॥ ४२॥

Himavān said- O god! Please, accept the grand daughter of Pulahāgraja, Pitara's daughter's daughter and my daughter being so given to you.

पुलस्त्य उवाच-
इत्येवमुक्त्वा शैलेन्द्रो हस्तं हस्तेन योजयन्।
प्रादात् प्रतीच्छ भगवन् इदमुद्यैरुदीरयन्॥ ४३॥

Pulastya said- "With these words the king mountain joined the hand of Pārvatī with that of Śaṅkara and pronounced loudly- O god! Accept her."

हर उवाच-
न मेऽस्ति माता न पिता तथैव
न ज्ञातयो वाऽपि च बान्धवाद्याः।
निराश्रयोऽहं गिरिशृङ्खलासी
सुतां प्रतीच्छामि तवाद्विराज॥ ४४॥

Śaṅkara said- O king mountain! I am without father, mother, coparceners or siblings. I live on the peak of a mountain lonely. I accept your daughter.

इत्येवमुक्त्वा वरदोऽवपीडयत्
करं करेणादिकुमारिकायाः।
सा चापि संस्पर्शमवाय शंभोः।
परां मुदं लब्धवती सुरर्वे�॥ ४५॥

With these words, Śaṅkara took the hand of Pārvatī in his hand. O divine hermit! A touch with Śaṅkara's hand pleased her also.

तथाऽधिरूढो वरदोऽथ वेदि
सहाद्रिपुत्रा मधुपक्षमशन्।
दत्त्वा च लाजान् कलमस्य शुक्रां-
स्ततो विरच्छी गिरिजामुवाच॥४६॥

Then Śaṅkara seated on altar with mountain daughter while eating madhuparka. Then Brahmā gave white fried paddy (khīla) to Pārvatī and said-

कालि पश्यस्व वदनं भर्तु शशधरप्रभम्।
समदृष्टिः स्थिरा कुरुव्याग्ने: प्रदक्षिणम्॥४७॥

O Kālī look at the moon like face of your husband and do pradakṣinā (round turn) of fire by maintaining all equity in mind.

ततोऽप्तिका हरमुखे दृष्टे शैत्यमुपागता।
यथाऽर्कतश्मसंतसा प्राप्य वृष्टिमिवावनी॥४८॥

When Pārvatī looked at the face of Śaṅkara, she felt herself so satiated as the earth satiates with water of rain after excessive warm by the sun.

भूयः प्राह विभोर्वक्त्रमीक्षस्वेति पितामहः।
लज्जया साऽपि दृष्टेति शनैर्ब्रह्माणमब्रवीत्॥४९॥

Pitāmaha said again- "Look at the face of Vibhu." She hesitatingly replied- "I have seen".

समं गिरिजया तेन हुताशस्त्रिःप्रदक्षिणम्।
कृतो लाजाञ्छ हविषा समं क्षिप्ता हुताशने॥५०॥

Pārvatī then made three Parikramās of fire and offered lāvā (khīla) with the oblation (haviṣya) to fire.

ततो हराद्धिर्मालिन्या गृहीतो दायकारणात्।
किं याचसि च दास्यामि मुञ्चस्वेति हरोऽब्रवीत्॥५१॥

Mālinī caught the feet of Śaṅkara with demand of Nega (reward). Śaṅkara asked- "Leave my feet and ask what do you want. I will certainly give it to you."

मालिनी शंकरं प्राह मत्सख्या देहि शंकर।
सौभाग्यं निजगोत्रीयं ततो मोक्षमवाप्यसि॥५२॥

Mālinī said- O Śaṅkara! Give my friend the pleasure of your gotra. Only the, I will leave your feet.

अथोवाच महादेवो दत्तं मालिनि मुञ्च माम्।
सौभाग्यं निजगोत्रीयं योऽस्यास्तं शृणु वच्मि ते॥५३॥

Mahādeva said- O Mālinī! I have given it and please, leave my feet. I tell you her pleasure of gotra. Listen to it.

योऽसौ पीताम्बरधरः शङ्खधृद् मधुसूदनः।
एतदीयो हि सौभाग्यो दत्तोऽमद्ग्रोत्रमेव हि॥५४॥

I give the prosperity of Madhusūdana holding Pitāmbara and conch and my own gotra.

इत्येवमुक्ते वचने प्रमुमोच वृष्टव्यजम्।
मालिनी निजगोत्रस्य शुभचारित्रमालिनी॥५५॥

Thus, the high conduct Mālinī left the feet of Śaṅkara when he undertook properly and in expressive words.

यदा हरो हि मालिन्या गृहीतश्चरणे शुभे।
तदा कालीमुखं ब्रह्मा ददर्श शशिनोऽधिकम्॥५६॥

Brahmā saw the face of Kālī, more beautiful than the moon when Mālinī had suddenly caught the feet of Śaṅkara.

तद् दृष्ट्वा क्षोभमगमत् शुक्रच्युतिमवाप च।
तच्छुक्रं बालुकायां च खिलोचक्रे ससाध्वसः॥५७॥

An attractive sight of Kālī excited Brahmā and his semen ejaculated. On account of fear, he covered the semen by throwing lump of sand on it.

ततोऽब्रवीद्धरो ब्रह्मन् द्विजान् हनुमर्हसि।

Śaṅkara knew the fact and said- O Brahman! Don't slaughter Brahmans. These all are Bālkhilya hermits, so graced by you.

ततो महेशवाक्यान्ते समुत्तस्युस्तपस्विनः।

As the statement of Śaṅkara could over, there originated eighty eight thousand Bālkhilya ascetics from the sand.

Śaṅkara went Kautukāgāra (isolated place) when marriage was fully solemnised. He enjoyed courtship with Pārvatī at night and got up early in the next morning.

Aṣṭamūrti Śaṅkara then honoured and provided entertainment to Brahmā, Viṣṇu, Indra etc. gods, saluted them and bade farewell. He then began to live on Mandara mountain with his Bhūtagaṇas.

Chapter 54

Birth of Gaṇesa

पुलस्त्य उवाच

ततो गिरौ वसन् रूद्रः स्वेच्छया विचरन् मुने।
विश्वकर्माणमाहूय प्रवोच कुरु मे गृहम्॥१॥

Pulastyā said- O sage! Once Śaṅkara said Viśvakarmā while living on the Mandara mountain happily- "construct a house for me."

तत्शक्तार शर्वस्य गृहं स्वस्तिकलक्षणम्।
योजनानि चतुःषष्ठिः प्रमाणेन हिरण्मयम्॥२॥

He constructed a house as long as sixty four yojana, marked with Svāstika and gold-work severally.

Hence, O Mahādeva! I am going to observe the supreme penance. I will do effort so decent that you will never again address me as Kālī.

इत्येवमुक्त्वा गिरिजा प्रणम्य च महेश्वरम्।
अनुज्ञाता त्रिषेत्रेण दिवमेवोत्पात ह॥ १०॥

With these words Pārvatī saluted god Śaṅkara, asked his permission and moved through the sky route.

समुत्पत्य च वेगेन हिमाद्रिशिखरं शिवम्।
टङ्कच्छिंश्रं प्रयत्नेन विधात्रा निर्मितं यथा॥ ११॥

She went at the ridge of Himādri appearing as if it made Brahmā pointed to skilful cutting.

ततोऽवतीर्थं सम्मारं जयां च विजयां तथा।
जयन्तीं च महापुण्यां चतुर्थीमपराजिताम्॥ १२॥

On descending from sky at mountain, she remembered Jayā, Vijayā, Mahāpuṇyā, Jayantī and Aparajitā.

ता: संसृताः समाजग्मुः कालीं द्रष्टुं हि देवताः।
अनुज्ञातास्तथा देव्याः शुश्रूषां चक्रिरे शुभाः॥ १३॥

All these goddesses just then came to see Kālī. All these began to serve her.

ततस्तपसि पार्वत्यां स्थितायां हिमवद्वनात्।
समाजगाम तं देशं व्याघ्रो द्रृष्टानखायुधः॥ १४॥

When Pārvatī seated on penance, a tiger having sharp teeth and nails came there from a adjacent forest.

एकपादस्थितायां तु देव्यां व्याघ्रस्त्वचिन्तयत्।
यदा पतिष्ठते चेयं तदादास्यामि वै अहम्॥ १५॥

He thought to pounce and eat flesh of Pārvatī when she will fall because she was stood on her single foot.

इत्येवं चिन्तयन्नेव दत्तदृष्टिर्मृगाधिष्ठिः।
पश्यमानस्तु वदनमेकदृष्टिरजायता॥ १६॥

That tiger stared at the face of Pārvatī with an imagination that soon or after, she will fall from mountain and he will then satiate his hunger.

ततो वर्षशतं देवी गृणन्ती ब्रह्मणः पदम्।
तपोऽतप्यत्तोऽभ्यागाद् ब्रह्मा त्रिभुवनेश्वरः॥ १७॥

Then the goddess did penance as long as the period of one hundred years. She was chanting Brahma mantra. Brahmā, the master of three-worlds then appeared there.

पितामहस्तोवाच देवीं प्रीतोऽस्मि शाश्वते।
तपसा धूतापापाऽसि वरं वृणु यथोप्सितम्॥ १८॥

Brahmā said to goddess- O Sanātanī! I am glad to see you. You are absolved of sins now. Ask whatever pleases you.

अथोवाच वचः काली व्याघ्रस्य कमलोद्धवा।
वरदो भव तेनाहं यास्ये प्रीतिमनुज्ञाम्॥ १९॥

Kālī replied- O lotus born! Please, grace on this tiger. It will really be the more cause for my pleasure.

ततः प्रादाद्वरं ब्रह्मा व्याघ्रस्याद्गुतकर्मणः।
गाणपत्यं विभौ भक्तिमजेयत्वं च धर्मिताम्॥ २०॥

Brahmā bestowed that tiger the leadership of gaṇas, devotion for Śaṅkara, religion abiding and unconquered.

वरं व्याघ्राय दत्त्वैवं शिवकान्तामथाद्वीत्।
वृणीष्व वरमव्यग्रा वरं दास्ये तवाम्बिके॥ २१॥

He said to Pārvatī after blessing the tiger- O Ambikā! Ask anything with balanced mind and heart. I will bestow you with that thing.

ततो वरं गिरिसुता प्राह देवी पितामहम्।
वरः प्रदीयतां महां वर्णं कनकसंनिभम्॥ २२॥

Pārvatī said to Brahmā! O Brahmin! I want to see my complexion as fair as the gold.

तथेत्युक्त्वा गतो ब्रह्मा पार्वती चाभवत्ततः।
कोशं कृष्णं परित्यज्य पद्मकिञ्चलकसन्निभा॥ २३॥

Brahmā blessed by saying- "May it be as desired." He then returned to his abode. The dark complexion of Pārvatī too turned into a complexion like ovule of lotus.

तस्मात् कोशाच्च संजाता भूयः कात्यायनी मुने।
तामभ्येत्य सहस्राक्षः प्रतिजग्राह दक्षिणाम्।
प्रोवाच गिरिजां देवो वाक्यं स्वार्थाय वासवः॥ २४॥

O sage! Kātyāyanī originated from that dark complexion. The thousand eyed Indra received daksinā from her. He requested Pārvatī-

इन्द्र उवाच

इयं प्रदीयतां महां भगिनी मेऽस्तु कौशिकी।
त्वक्लोशसंभवा चेदं कौशिकी कौशिकोऽप्यहम्॥ २५॥

Indra said- "Please, give her to me. May this Kauśikī be my sister from today. As she has originated from your complexion, it is Kauśikī and I myself is Kauśika also.

तां प्रादादिति संश्रुत्य कौशिकीं रूपसंयुताम्।
सहस्राक्षोऽपि तां गृह्ण विस्थं वेगाज्जगाम च॥ २६॥

King of gods, Indra took Kauśikī at Vindhyaśala when Pārvatī stated- "I have given."

तत्र गत्वा त्वथोवाच तिष्ठस्वात्र महाचले।
पूज्यमाना सुरैर्नामा ख्याता त्वं विस्थवासिनी॥ २७॥

Indra said to Kauśikī at Vindhya! O mighty goddess! Live here. The gods will worship you and you will be popularly known as Vindhayavāsinī.

तत्र स्थाप्य हरिदेवों दत्त्वा सिंहं च वाहनम्।
भवामरारिहन्त्रीति उक्त्वा स्वर्गमुपागमत्॥ २८॥

He thus, settled the goddess there, offered a lion as carrier (vāhana) and wished- "May! You be killer to the enemies of gods." He then returned to the heaven.

उमाऽपि तं वरं लब्ध्वा मन्दरं पुनरेत्य च।
प्रणाम्य च महेशानं स्थिता सविनयं मुने॥ २९॥
ततोऽमरगुरुः श्रीमान् पार्वत्या सहितोऽव्ययः।
तस्थौ वर्षसहस्रं हि महामोहनके मुने॥ ३०॥

O sage, being blessed with the boon, reaching Mandara again and bowing down to Maheśvara, Umā remained there modestly. O sage! Śrīmān (majestic), imperishable (Impersihable), Amaraguru (master of the gods) then remained immersed in sensual enjoyment with Pārvatī for one thousand years.

महामोहस्थिते रुद्रे भुवनश्चेलुरुद्धताः।
चुक्षुभुः सागराः सप्त देवश्च भयमागमन्॥ ३१॥

This existing of god Rudra in Mahāmoha made all creatures in three-worlds arbitrary and autocrat. They began to be corrupt. All the seven seas excited and the gods threatened.

ततः सुरा सहेत्रेण ब्रह्मणः सदनं गताः।
प्रणाम्योचुर्महेशानं जगत् क्षुब्धं तु किं त्विदम्॥ ३२॥

The gods then visited at abode of Brahmā with Indra. They saluted Brahmā and asked- "Why has this entire world so excited?"

तानुवाच भवो नूनं महामोहनके स्थितः।
तेनाक्रान्तास्त्विमे लोका जगमुः क्षोभं दुरत्ययम्॥ ३३॥

He replied- "It means Mahādeva is definitely existed in Mahāmohanaka. These lokas are excited as an impact of his being in Mahāmohanka.

इत्युक्त्वा सोऽभवत्तूष्णीं ततोऽम्भूच्युः सुरा हरिम्।
आगच्छ शक्र गच्छामो यावत्तत्र समाप्यते॥ ३४॥

With these words, he observed silence. The gods then said to Indra. O Śakra! Unless Mahāmohanaka is over we should move.

सप्तासे मोहने बालो यः समुत्पत्यतेऽव्ययः।
स नूनं देवराजस्य पदमैन्द्रं हरिष्यति॥ ३५॥

The child born on the salvation of affection, shall be immortal and snatch the position of Indra definitely.

ततोऽमराणां वचनाद् विवेको बलधातिनः।
भयाज्ञानं ततो नष्टं भाविकर्पप्रचोदनात्॥ ३६॥

The desecration on account of so said by gods and knowledge on account of fear was lost in Indra as something otherwise was wished by almighty.

ततः शक्रः सुरैः सार्थं वह्निना च सहस्रदृक्।
जगाम मन्दरगिरिं तच्छङ्गे न्यविशत्तम्॥ ३७॥

The thousand eyed Indra then went at the mountain Mandara with fire god and others. They seated on its peak.

अशक्ताः सर्वं एवैते प्रवेष्टुं तद्दवाजिरम्।
चिन्तयित्वा तु सुचिरं पावकं ते व्यसर्जयन्॥ ३८॥

They however, could not enter into the house of Mahādeva. After a long run deliberation, they first sent fire there.

स चाभ्येत्य सुरश्रेष्ठो दृष्टा द्वारे च नन्दिनम्।
दुष्क्वेशं च तं मत्वा चिन्तां वह्निः परां गतः॥ ३९॥

The god fire went there, saw Nandī at the gate, thought it impossible to enter and worried.

स तु चिन्ताणवे मग्नः प्रापश्यच्छंभुसद्यनः।
निष्कामन्तीं महापद्भिं हंसानां विमलां तथा॥ ४०॥

As he was worrying, he saw a huge row of swans coming out from the house of Śambhu.

असाधुपाय इत्युक्त्वा हंसरूपे हुताशनः।
वञ्चयित्वा प्रतीहारं प्रविवेश हराजिरम्॥ ४१॥

Considering it a good option, the fire disguised as swan, defrauded the gate-keeper and thus, entered in the house of Mahādeva.

प्रविश्य सूक्ष्ममूर्तिश्च शिरोदेशे कपर्दिनः।
प्राह प्रहस्य गम्भीरं देवा द्वारि स्थिता इति॥ ४२॥

The micro body fire reached near the head of Mahādeva, laughed there and said in serious tone- "gods are stood at the gate."

तच्छुत्वा सहसोत्याय परित्यज्य गिरे: सुताम्।
विनिष्कान्तोऽजिराच्छर्वो वह्निना सह नारदा॥ ४३॥

O Nārada! Mahādeva heard these words and got up immediately. He left Pārvatī aside and came out through corridor with fire.

विनिष्कान्ते सुरपतौ देवा मुदितमानसाः।
शिरोभिरवर्णीं जरमुः सेन्द्राकर्शशिपावकाः॥ ४४॥

Seeing Śaṅkara came out from the room moon, sun and fire including Indra etc. became happy and in honour to Śiva, they all put their head on the ground.

ततः प्रीत्या सुरानाह वदध्वं कार्यमाशु मे।
प्रणामावनतानां चो दास्येऽहं वरमुत्तमम्॥ ४५॥

Then god Mahādeva said to gods- "Please, tell me the work. I will give you all as per desire.

देवा ऊचुः

यदि तुष्टोऽसि देवानां वरं दातुमिहेच्छसि।
तदिह त्यज्यतां तावन्महामैथुनमीश्वरा॥ ४६॥

The gods said- O Īśvara! If you are pleased and wish to render the gods their desired, please, give up this Mahāmaithuna (great courtship) immediately.

ईश्वर उवाच

एवं भवतु संत्यक्तो मया भावोऽमरोत्तमाः।
ममेदं तेज उद्रिक्तं कश्चिद् देव प्रतीच्छतु॥ ४७॥

The gods said- O great gods! Be it as you desired. I give up the attachment. Any gods among you should entertain this semen within him.

पुलस्त्य उवाच

इत्युक्ता: शंभुना देवाः सेन्द्रचन्द्रदिवाकराः।
असीदन्त यथा मग्नाः एड्वं वृन्दारका उव॥ ४८॥

Pulastya said- Moon, sun etc. gods including Indra because very said like an elephant trapped in marshy land when they heard Śaṅkara.

सीदसु दैवतेष्वेवं हुताशोऽभ्येत्य शंकरम्।
प्रोवाच मुञ्च तेजस्वं प्रतीच्छाम्येष शंकर॥ ४९॥

The fire went to Śaṅkara when he saw the gods so sad and said- O Śaṅkara ejaculate please. I will hold it with me.

ततो मुमोच भगवांसंप्रेतः स्कन्नमेव तु।
जलं तृष्णाने वै यद्वैलपानं पिपासितः॥ ५०॥

God Śiva then released the semen which had trickled down, as if a thirsty man sometimes sips even the oil also to get rid of his thirst.

ततः पीते तेतसि वै शार्वे देवेन वह्निना।
स्वस्थाः सुराः समाप्न्य हरं जग्मुत्तिविष्टपम्॥ ५१॥

When the semen was so sipped by fire, the gods returned worryless to the heaven with permission of Śambhu.

संप्रयातेषु देवेषु हरोऽपि निजमन्दिरम्।
समभ्येत्य महादेवीमिदं वचनमब्रवीत्॥ ५२॥

Mahādeva too entered in his room on gods' departure and said to Mahādevī-

देवि देवैरिहाम्बेत्य यत्नात् प्रेष्य हुताशनम्।
नीतः प्रोक्तो निषिद्धस्तु पुत्रोत्पत्तिं तवोददरात्॥ ५३॥

O goddess! The gods called me by secretly sending fire here and suggested not to reproduce child from your womb.

साऽपि भर्तुवर्चं श्रुत्वा कुञ्जा रक्तान्तलोचना।
शशाप दैवतान् सर्वान् नष्टपुत्रोद्धवा शिवा॥ ५४॥

The goddess was filled with anger for gods as they had denied her from the pleasure of being a mother. She cursed them-

यस्मान्नेच्छन्ति ते दुष्टा मम पुत्रमथौरसम्।
तस्माते न जनिष्यन्ति स्वासु योषित्सु पुत्रकान्॥ ५५॥

As those wicked do not wish to see the birth of child from my womb, they shall also not reproduce children from their wives.

एवं शस्त्रा सुरान्नौरी शौचशालामुपागमत्।
आहूय मालिनीं स्नातुं मतिं चक्रे तपोधन॥ ५६॥

After so curse given, Gaurī entered in toilet called Mālinī and said that she wants to take bath.

मालिनी सुरभिं गृह्ण श्लक्षणमुद्वर्तनं शुभा।
देव्यङ्गमुद्वर्तयते कराभ्यां कनकप्रभम्।
तत्स्वेदं पार्वती चैव मेने कीदृगुणेन हि॥ ५७॥

The beautiful Mālinī took fragrant massage matter and began to smear it on golden body of goddess by using both hands. Pārvatī began to ponder upon the property existed in perspiration.

मालिनी तूर्णपर्यग्मूहं स्नानस्य कारणात्।
तस्यां गतायां शैलेयी मलाद्यक्रे गजाननम्॥ ५८॥

Mālinī went to bath room immediately. Gaurī build Gajānana from that perspiration.

चतुर्भुजं पीनवक्षः पुरुषं लक्षणात्कितम्।
कृत्वोत्सर्ज भूम्यां च स्थिता भद्रासने पुनः॥ ५९॥

She built a man having four arms and broad chest with all masculine characteristics and put it on the ground. She then seated on a good seat.

मालिनी तच्छिरः स्नानं ददौ विहसती तदा।
ईषद्वासमुखीं दृष्टा मालिनीं प्राह नारद॥ ६०॥

Mālinī gave bath to goddess from bath with smile. The goddess asked Mālinī when she noticed her smiling.

किमर्थं भीरु शनकैर्हससि त्वमतीव च।
साऽथोवाच हसायेवं भवत्यास्तनयः किल॥ ६१॥
भविष्यतीति देवेन प्रोक्तो नन्दी गणाधिपः।

यस्माद् देवैः पुत्रकामः शंकरो विनिवारितः।
एतच्छुत्वा वचो देवी सस्नौ तत्र विधानतः॥ ६३॥

O caprice (Bhīma)! Why are you laughing so slowly? Mālinī said- I am smiling on the words of Mahādeva as he had said that you will give birth to a son. Certainly, it will be. As the gods restricted Śaṅkara to wish a son, a memory of his statement has made me to smile on futility. The goddess took proper bath there after listening to Mālinī.

स्नात्वाऽर्च्य शंकरं भक्त्या समभ्यागाद् गृहं प्रति।
ततः शंघुः समागत्य तस्मिन् भद्रासने त्वपि॥ ६४॥

अपत्यं हि विदित्वा च प्रीतिमान् भुवनेश्वरः॥ ६६॥

The goddess entered in her room after bath and homage to Śaṅkara. Mahādeva also took bath on the same seat used earlier by goddess. That artificial man was lying under that seat. The perspiration of Umā, the water and perspiration mixed with ash from Śaṅkara's body got combination and that man got up with a loud trumpet from his trunk. Considering him as his son, god Śaṅkara exhilarated.

तं चादाय हरो नन्दिमुवाच भग्नेत्रहा।
रुद्रः स्नात्वाऽर्च्य देवादीन् वाग्भिरद्धिः पितॄनपि॥ ६७॥

Mahādeva, the destroyer of Bhaga's eye took him and said to Nandi- "It is my own son." Śaṅkara worshipped gods through psalm and ancestors through water after bath.

जप्त्वा सहस्रनामानमुमापार्श्वपुणागतः।

ततः प्रीता गिरिसुता तं पुत्रं परिषष्टजे॥७०॥

He then chanted Sahastranāma and went to Umā. Śaṅkara smiled and said her- O daughter of mountain! Look at your meritorious son. Pārvatī saw it with surprise that the perspiration of her body has built a man having trunk of an elephant. Umā then embraced that so.

मूर्छिं चैनमुपाद्वाय ततः शर्वेऽब्रवीदुमाम्।

यस्माज्जातस्ततो नामा भविष्यति विनायकः।

Śambhu smelt his head and said- O goddess! You son has born without Nāyaka (womb). Hence, he will be addressed as Vināyaka. He will remove the several hundred types of hurdles usually appearing while executing noble deeds.

पूजयिष्यन्ति चैवास्य लोका देवि चराचकराः।
इत्येवमुक्त्वा देव्यास्तु दत्तवांस्तनयाय हि॥७३॥

ते सर्वे परमेशेन देव्याः प्रीत्योपपादिताः।
देवी च स्वसुतं दृष्टा परां मुदमवाप च॥७५॥

O goddess! The entire movable and immovable world will adore him. With these words, Śambhu nominated Vināyaka as Ghaṭodara, the principal gaṇa and gross Mātṛgaṇas and Bhūtas responsible for hurdles were made his assistants. In order to win the heart of Umā, god Śaṅkara originated all of them. They goddess too pleased to see her son so honoured.

The goddess then began to enjoy sex with Śambhu on Mandarācala having a number of beautiful cares. O Vibinu! Similarly, the goddess Kātyāyanī was originated who had killed two fierce demons Śumbha and Niśumbha during long past.

Chapter 55

The story of Śumbha-Niśumbha and slaying of Caṇḍa and Muṇḍa

पुलस्य उवाच-

कश्यपस्य दनुर्नामा भार्यासीद् द्विजसत्तमा।

तस्याः पुत्रत्रयं चासीत् सहस्राक्षाद् बलाधिकम्॥ १॥

Pulastyā said- O great dvija! Danu was the wife of Kaśyapa. She gave birth to three sons who were mightier than Indra.

ज्येष्ठः शुभ्य इति ख्यातो निशुभ्यापरोऽसुरः।

तृतीयो नमुचिर्नाम महाबलसमन्वितः॥ २॥

The eldest among them was Śumbha, the middle was Niśumbha and the youngest and third number son was Namuci.

योऽसौ नमुचिरित्येवं ख्यातो दनुसुतोऽसुरः।

तं हनुमिच्छति हरिः प्रगृह्ण कुलिशं करे॥ ३॥

Indra wished killing Namuci, the famous son of Danu by a hard blow of thunderbolt.

त्रिविवेशं समायान्तं नमुचिस्तदभयादथा।
प्रविवेश रथं भानोस्ततो नाशकदच्युतः॥४॥

When Indra was proceeding ahead, Namuci saw him and entered in the sun chariot under influence of fright. Due to this cause, he could not kill him.

शक्रस्तेनाथं समयं चक्रे सह महात्पना।
अवध्यतं वरं प्रादाच्छल्लैरस्त्रैश्च नारद॥५॥

O Nārada! The great soul Indra then established an alliance with him and booned him that the arms and weapons will prove futile to kill him.

ततोऽवध्यत्वमाज्ञाय शस्त्रादस्त्राय नारदः।
संत्वज्य भास्कररथं पातालमुदयादथ॥६॥

O Nārada! When that monster was confirmed of the fact that he cannot be kill by arms and weapons, he left the shelter of sun's chariot and entered into nether.

स निमज्जन्नपि जले सामुद्रं फेनमुत्तमम्।
ददृशे दानवपतिस्तं प्रगृह्णेदमब्रवीत्॥७॥

That demon saw the best white foam of the sea while immersed in water. He got hold of it and wished-

यदुक्तं देवपतिना वासवेन वचोऽस्तु तत्।
अयं स्पृशतु मां फेनः कराभ्यां गृह्ण दानवः॥८॥
मुखनासाक्षिकण्ठादीन् संममार्ज्ज यथेच्छया।
तस्मिच्छक्रोऽसृजद् वत्रमन्तर्हितमपीश्वरः॥९॥

May that all fructify as king god Indra has booned. May this froth touch me. With these words, the monster took froth in his both hands and started smearing it on his mouth, nose and ears etc. God Indra originated secretly his thunderbolt within that froth.

तेनासौ भग्ननासास्यः पापात च ममार च।
समये च तथा नष्टे ब्रह्महत्याऽस्पृशद्वरिम्॥१०॥

He fell down dead as his nose and mouth both were split. Indra fell in sin of Brahmins murder as his promise was breached.

स वै तीर्थं समासाद्य स्नातः पापादमुच्यता।
ततोऽस्य भ्रातरौ वीरौ कुद्धौ शुम्भनिशुम्भकौ॥११॥

He could efface his sins when visited at holy places and took bath there. When his elder brothers Sumbha and Niśumbha heard this mystery, they filled with anger.

उद्योगं सुमहत्कृत्वा सुरान् बाधितुमागतौ।
सुरास्तेऽपि सहस्राक्षं पुरस्कृत्व विनिर्युः॥१२॥

Both of them raided on the gods with intention to kill them all. The gods under leadership of Indra also marched forward to face them.

7- I am most valorous and huge armed demon and famous as Raktabija in the world.

The two ministers of Mahiṣāsura named Caṇḍa and Muṇḍa have immersed deep in water as they feared of goddess. Mahādevī has also killed our king Mahiṣa at Vindhya mountain. Tell me that who is your father and what is your popular name? To what extent you are valorous and influencive in term of physical power?

Sumbha and Niśumbha replied- I am wedlock son of Danu and popularly addressed as Śumbha. This is my younger brother popularly known as Niśumbha. He is killer of enemies.

This Niśumbha has defeated several times the great gods like Indra, Rudra, Divākara etc. and many other powerful warriors.

They went near Raktabija and asked humbly- "Who is this stood beside you? He replied- It is Śumbha and that is Niśumbha, his younger brother. These have defeated the gods several times.

एतावाश्रित्य तां दुष्टां महिषधीं न संशयः।
अहं विवाहयिष्यामि रत्नभूतां जगत्त्रये॥ २६॥

I will undoubtedly make that wicked Mahiṣāsura killer but beautiful woman with assistance of these two monsters.

चण्ड उवाच-

न सम्यगुक्तं भवता रत्नार्हेऽसि न साम्प्रतम्।
यं प्रभुः स्यात्स रत्नार्हस्तस्माच्छुभ्नाय योज्यताम्॥ २७॥

Caṇḍa said- "You have not said right. You are still incompetent to get that gem. Only a king is able to receive such gem. Hence, think this only for Śumbha.

तदाच्यक्षे शुभ्नाय निशुभ्नाय च कौशिकीप्।

They described then Kauśikī so originated before Śumbha and Niśumbha.

ततः शुभ्नो निजं दूतं सुग्रीवं नाम दानवम्।

Then Śumbha sent his messenger, the demon Sugrīva to Vindhavāsinī.

स गत्वा तद्वच्यः श्रुत्वा देव्यागत्य महासुरः।
निशुभ्नशुभ्नावाहेदं मन्युनाभिपरिष्टुतः॥ ३०॥

That monster went there, became furious when heard otherwise from goddess and with burning in anger he said to Śumbha and Niśumbha.

सुग्रीव उवाच-

युवयोर्वचनाहेदी प्रदेष्टुं दैत्यनायकौ।

Sugrīva said- O commanders of monster! I had gone to goddess as suggested by you all. I said to her- O luckiest virgin! Śumbha, the greatest monster has communicated to you- "I am the ruler of three-worlds. O beautiful lady! All gems once had with heaven, earth and nether are always stored in my treasure. O thin loin lady! Caṇḍa and Muṇḍa have told you a gem. Hence, choose either me or my younger brother for being your husband.

सा चाह मां विहसती शृणु सुग्रीव मद्वचः।

She laughed and replied me- O Sugrīva! Listen to me. You have truly said that the ruler of three-world Śumbha is capable to keep gem with him.

किं त्वस्ति दुर्बिनीताया हृदये मे मनोरथः।
यो मां विजयते युद्धे स भर्ता स्यान्महासुरः॥ ३६॥

But O great monster! I have promised to marry with a man who will defeat me in battle. I cannot deviate from this promise.

मया चोक्ताऽवलिप्ताऽसि यो जयेत् ससुरासुरान्।
स त्वां कथं न जयते सा त्वमुत्तिष्ठ भास्मिनि॥ ३७॥

I said to her- "You have become proudy. The monster who has conquered all gods and demons will in fact, conquer you also. Hence, O beautiful spinster! "Please stand-up."

साऽथ मां प्राह किं कुर्मि यदनालोचितः कृतः।

She then said to me- "What should I do? I have resolved without giving mind to the possibilities otherwise. Hence, go and report Śumbha as stated by me.

तयैवमुक्तस्त्वध्यागां त्वत्सकाशं महासुरः।

Hence, O great monster! I have come to you for reporting the same as she said. She is like blazing flame. Please, take in notice the report and do as you think good.

पुलस्त्य उवाच-

इति सुग्रीववचनं निशम्य स महासुरः।

Pulastya said- Having heard the report, that great monster Śumbha, said Dhūmrālocana who was at some distance from him.

शुभं उवाच-

Śumbha said- O Dhūmrākṣa! go there immediately and bring here that rude like slave by catching her hair in fist.

On seeing Kauśikī he fell in illusion and said- O Idiot! Come immedately. Kauśikī! Penetrate a wish to see Śumbha your husband. In case, you deny, I will grip your hair forcibly and carry there."

श्रीदेव्युवाच-

प्रेषितोऽसीह शुभेन बलान्नेतुं हि मां किल।
तत्र किं हृबला कुर्याद्यथेच्छसि तथा कुरु॥ ४५॥

Śrīdevī said- It is certain that Śumbha has sent you for carrying me forcibly. What can a weak woman do now? Do as you wish.

1. An army consisting of 21,870 elephants, 21,870 chariots, 65,610 horses, and 109,350 foot. (Since an anūkiṇī consists of 27 vāhiṇīs, and 27 is the cube of 3, aksauhiṇī may be a compound of 2. aksa and vāhiṇī; or it may possibly be connected with 1. aksa, axle, car.) [Monier Williams Sanskrit English Dictionary]

पुलस्त्य उवाच-

एवमुक्तो विभावर्या बलवान् धूमप्रलोचनः।
समश्यथावत् त्वरितो गदामादाय वीर्यवान्॥ ४६॥

Pulastya said- Dhūmralocana rushed with mace towards here when he heard such reply from the goddess.

तमापतनं सगदं हुंकारेणैव कौशिकी।
सबलं भस्मसाद्यक्रे शुष्कयग्निरेत्यनयम्॥ ४७॥

Kauśikī made a ear-piercing voice from her mouth and burnt him with army as the fire burns the dry fuel into ash.

ततो हहाकृतमधूज्जगत्यस्मिन्शराचरे।
सबलं भस्मसानीतं कौशिक्या वीक्ष्य दानवम्॥ ४८॥

Having observed the scene so created by Kauśikī by burning that mighty monster with his army, the entire universe including movable and immovable organisms frightened severally.

Sumbha also heard that loud voice. He then ordered marching Cañḍa and Muṇḍa with powerful monsters as also the mightiest monster Ruru. They marched happily. Their unique army with elephants, horses and chariots shortly got that place where Kauśikī was present. When the lion running fast and piercing their bodies. He very artfully knocked down some soldiers by slapping, some other by mouth, some with nails and some others with hitting by his chest. They all so being killed by the care dwelling lion and the ghost assisting goddess ran away to Cañḍa and Muṇḍa. When they saw their army so troubled they became dangerous with fury and their lips began oscillation.

Both monsters rushed fast towards goddess as moth rushes towards flame. The goddess became angry to see those fierce monsters forwarding.

The goddess raised her three lined brow up. From the curved brow in forehead, Yoginī Kālī came out immediately. Her mouth was looking most dangerous.

She furiated and killed some of the enemies consisting of elephant, chariot and horses by blows of sword and some other by Khatvāṅga.

Then Ambikā began to throw in her mouth the elephant with carma, goad, Mudgara, bow, gongs and yantra.

She put in her mouth the chariot with its wheels and structure, the horses and warriors and began chewing.

एकं जग्राह केशेषु ग्रीवायामपरं तथा।

She called death for some by gripping hair, some by pressing neck and some others by hitting hard through feet.

When Ruru saw that dreadful scene in which the entire army was being so churned by goddess, he immediately rushed there Cañḍī saw him forwarding and gave a hard blow of Khatvāṅga on his head. He fell down on ground like a fallen tree cut-off at root. Thus, he was dead.

ततसं पतिं दृष्टा पशोरिव विभावरी।

The goddess cut-off the portion of his body from ears to the feet when saw him on the ground. It was done just as hide of a dead animal is pulled out.

सा च कोशं समादाय बबन्ध विमला जटाः।
एका न बन्धमगमपत्तामुत्पाट्याक्षिपद्मुवि॥ ६ ५॥

She tied her matted hair with that hide (skin). A matted hair was escaped from tie-up. Hence, she pulled in from root and threw on the ground.

सा जाता सुतरां रौद्री तैलाभ्यक्तिशिरोरुहा।

That portion of her matted hair turned into a fierce goddess. Her hair were soaked in oil and her half body was dark while another half was fair (white).

साऽब्रवीद्वारमेकं तु मारयामि महासुरम्।
तस्या नाम तदा चक्रे चण्डमारीति विश्रुतम्॥ ६ ७॥

She said- "I shall rather kill atleast one great monster." The goddess had since then addressed by the name, Cañḍamārī.

प्राह गच्छस्व सुभगे चण्डमुण्डविहानय।
स्वयं हि मारयिष्यामि तावानेतुं त्वर्महसि॥ ६ ८॥

The goddess said- O Subhage! Bring her Cañḍa and Mundā. I will kill them myself. You are capable to bring them here.

Cañḍamārī then rode on donkey as fast as eagle in running, chased them fiercely. She was naked in body.

यतो गतौ हि तौ दैत्यौ तत्रैवानुययौ शिवा।
सा दर्दश तदा पौण्ड्रं महिषं वै यमस्य च॥ ७ १॥

Goddess chased them at every place wherever they go. Finally, she saw Pañḍra buffalo on Yama there.

She pulled up the serpentine horn of that buffalo and rushed after those monsters with that horn in her hand.

तौ चापि भूमिं संत्यज्य जग्मतुर्गग्नं तदा।

Both monsters left the earth then and approached to the ether. Maheśvarī chased them rapidly there also.

The goddess saw Garuḍa, a predator of Karkoṭaka the serpent king. He was stunned when saw the goddess in such fierce form.

The Garuḍa became as dull as a piece of flesh an account of fear. His wings were fell in sheer fright.

With wings of Garuḍa and serpent Karkoṭaka, the goddess continuously chased the frightened Caṇḍa and Muṇḍa.

संप्रासौ च तदा देव्या चण्डमुण्डौ महासुरौ।
बद्धौ कर्कोटकेनैव बद्धवा विश्वमुपागमत्॥ ७७॥

The goddess then reached at Caṇḍa and Muṇḍa, the great monsters she fastened them by the serpent Karkoṭaka and brought at the mountain of Vindhya.

She offered these monsters to the goddess Kauśikī, made an excellent garland of the monsters' heads and Garuḍa's wings intertwined in the thread made of their skin and offered it also to goddess Kauśikī. She further offered a Ghaghara made of tiger's hide to her.

स्वजमन्या खरेन्द्रस्य पत्रैर्मूर्छिं निबध्य च।

She made another garland from the wings of Garuḍa, tied it around her head and began to suck the blood of monsters.

चण्डं त्वादाय चण्डं च मुण्डं चासुरनायकम्।
चकार कुपिता दुर्गा विशिरस्कौ महासुरौ॥ ८१॥

The Pracaṇḍa Durgā then gripped Caṇḍa and the commander of monster's army Muṇḍa and cut-off their heads in a fit of anger.

तयोरेवाहिना देवी शेखरं शुष्करेवती।

कृत्वा जगाम कौशिक्या: सकाशां मार्यया सह॥ ८२॥

The goddess Śuṣkarevatī approached to Kauśikī with Caṇḍamārī and an ornament for her which was a garland made up of their heads intertwined with the thread of serpent.

समेत्य साऽब्रवीदेवि गृह्णतां शेखरोत्तमः।
ग्रथितो दैत्यशीर्षाभ्या नागराजेन वेष्टितः॥ ८३॥

They said when approached there- O goddess! Accept this best head ornament intertwined with the serpent king in which heads are fixed.

तं शेखरं शिवा गृह्ण चामुण्डा मूर्छिं विस्तृतम्।
बबस्य प्राह चैवैनां कृतं कर्म सुदारुणम्॥ ८४॥

The goddess Śivā fastened that head ornament around Cāmuṇḍā's head and said- "You have really executed the most fierce work."

शेखरं चण्डमुण्डाभ्यां यस्माद्वारयसे शुभम्।
तस्माल्लोके तव ख्यातिश्चामुण्डेति भविष्यति॥ ८५॥

As you have put a good head ornament of Caṇḍa and Muṇḍa's head, you will gain popularity as Cāmuṇḍā in this world.

इत्येवपुक्त्वा वचनं त्रिनेत्रा

That goddess holding the garland of Caṇḍa and Muṇḍa's heads was so address by Kauśikī and then said to Digambarā- "Kill your these armies of enemy."

सा त्वेवमुक्ताऽथ विषाणकोट्या

Accepting this order, that goddess with fast running Rāsahha began to kill the aggressive army of enemy from the fore-point of Viṣāṇa and started eating the bodies of monsters.

Birth of Kārtikeya

नारद उवाच

कथं समहिषः क्रौञ्चो भिन्नः स्कन्देन सुव्रत।
एतन्मे विस्तराद् ब्रह्मन् कथयस्वामित्युते॥ १॥

Nārada asked- O great resolute Brahmin! Tell me in detail that how Skanda had killed Krauñca with Mahiṣa.

पुलस्त्य उवाच

शृणुच्च कथयिष्यामि कथां पुण्यां पुरातनीम्।
यशोवृद्धिं कुमारस्य कातिकेयस्य नारद॥ २॥

Pulastyā said- O Nārada! I explain the ancient story of Kumāra Kārtikeya. Please listen to it. It enhances the fame of the devotee.

यत्तीर्तं हुताशेन स्कन्नं शुक्रं पिनाकिनः।
तेनाक्रान्तोऽभवद् ब्रह्मन् मन्दतेजा हुताशनः॥ ३॥

O Brahmin! The fire had sipped that ejaculated semen of god Śaṅkara. The splendour of fire became dull due to impact of it.

ततो जगाम देवानां सकाशमित्युतिः।
तैश्चापि प्रहितस्तूर्णं ब्रह्मलोकं जगाम ह॥ ४॥

Then the most splendour for fire went to the gods and he on being sent by them it immediately went to the abode of Brahma.

स गच्छकुटिलां देवीं ददर्श पथि पावकः।
तां दृष्ट्वा प्राह कुटिले तेज एतसुदुर्द्वरम्॥ ५॥

The fire saw the goddess named Kuṭilā on his way to abode of Brahmā. Having seen in the fire said- O Kuṭilā! This splendour is unbearable.

महेश्वरेण संत्वरं निरहेद् भुवनान्यपि।
तस्मात् प्रतीच्छ पुत्रोऽयं तव धन्यो भविष्यति॥ ६॥

This splendour (semen) ejaculated by Śaṅkara will burn all lokas. Hence, please, hold it. You will receive a meritorious son from it.

इत्याग्निना सा कुटिला स्मृत्वा स्वमतमुत्तमम्।
प्रक्षिप्तस्वाभ्यसि मम प्राह वह्निं महापगा॥ ७॥

The great river Kuṭilā said to Agni as she recollected her mission in mind- "Drop it on my water."

ततस्त्वधारयदेवी शार्व तेजस्त्वपूषुषत्।
हुताशनोऽपि भगवान् कामचारी परिश्रमन्॥ ८॥

That goddess then held the semen of Śaṅkara and began providing nutrition. God fire also began to make tour voluntarily.

रोमशश्वक्षिकेशाद्याः सर्वे जाता हिरण्यमायाः।

The fire had held that semen for fire thousand years. Due to such long pregnancy, the flesh, bone, blood, marrow, intestine, skin, furs, share, moustache, eyes and hair etc. turned into golden colour. This is the reason, the fire is called as Hiranyaretā.

पञ्चवर्षसहस्राणि कुटिला ज्वलनोपमम्।
धारयन्ती तदा गर्भे ब्रह्मणः स्थानमागता॥ ११॥

Kuṭilā went at the abode of Brahmā by holding that fire like womb for five thousand years.

तां दृष्ट्वा पद्मजन्मा संतप्त्यन्तीं महापगाम्।
दृष्ट्वा प्रप्रच्छ केनायं तव गर्भः समाहितः॥ १२॥

Brahmā, the god lotus saw that great river very sad and asked- "Tell me that how had you conceived?"

सा चाह शाङ्करं यत्तच्छुक्रं पीतं हि वह्निना।
तदशक्तेन तेनाद्य निक्षिसं मयि सत्तम॥ १३॥

She replied- O great Brāhmaṇa! as the fire who had once sipped that semen of Śaṅkara but on account of being unable to bear, he dropped it on me.

पञ्चवर्षसहस्राणि धारयन्त्या पितामह।
गर्भस्य वर्तते कालो नायं पपात कर्हिचित्॥ १४॥

She said-O great Brahmā! A period of five thousand years have been lapsed since I conceived, but the delivery is still awaited."

तच्छुत्वा भगवानाह गच्छ त्वपुदयं गिरिम्।
तत्रास्ति योजनशतं रौद्रं शरवणं महत्॥ १५॥

Lord Brahmā said- "Go at Udayācala. A huge forest of Sarpata measuring one hundred yojana is existed there."

तत्रैनं क्षिप सुश्रोणि विस्तीर्णे गिरिसानुनि।
दशवर्षसहस्रान्ते ततो बालो भविष्यति॥ १६॥

O the lady of thin loin! Drop it on that extended mountain ridge. It will turn in child form after ten thousand years.

सा श्रुत्वा ब्रह्मणो वाक्यं रूपणी गिरिमाणता।
आगत्य गर्भं तत्याज मुखेनैवाद्रिनन्दिनी॥ १७॥

That great river went on the mountain after hearing to the statement of Brahmā and did abortion through her mouth.

सा तु संत्यज्यं तं बालं ब्रह्माणं सहस्रांगमत्।
आपोमयी मन्त्रवशात्संजाता कुटिला सती॥ १८॥

She went back immediately near Brahmā by leaving that child there. The Sati Kuṭilā turned into river due to curse.

तेजसा चापि शार्वेण रौक्मं शरवणं महत्।
तत्रिवासरताश्चाच्ये पादपा मृगपक्षिणः॥ १९॥

On account of splendour of Śaṅkara, that forest of Sarapata turned into gold radiance. The trees, stags and birds residing there also turned into gold.

ततो दशसु पूर्णेषु शरद्वशशतेष्वथा।
बालार्कदीसि: संजातो बालः कमललोचनः॥ २०॥

When thus, ten thousand years passed, a child having eyes lotus-like and full of splendour like a sun was born there.

उत्तानशायी भगवान्दिव्ये शरवणे स्थितः।
मुखेऽङ्गुष्ठं समाक्षिष्य रुदोद घनराडिव॥ २१॥

The gods sleeping on his back, with thumb in mouth began weeping like a cloud in that divine Śaravaṇa.

एतस्मिन्नतरे दिव्यः कृत्तिकाः षट् सुतेजसः।
ददृशुः स्वेच्छया यान्त्यो बालं शरवणे स्थितम्॥ २२॥

In the meantime, the all six Kṛttikas saw that child in Śaravaṇa when they were walking voluntarily on their way.

कृपायुक्ताः समाजग्मुः यत्र स्कन्दः स्थितोऽभवत्।
अहं पूर्वमहं पूर्वं तस्मै स्तन्येऽधिचुक्रुशुः॥ २३॥

These Kṛttikas fell in pity and went there where Skanda was lying. In order to feed him milk, each of them wanted her turn first than others. They raised a dispute saying- "I will feed first the baby."

विवदन्तीः स ता दृष्टा षण्मुखः समजायता।
अबीभरश्च ताः सर्वाः शिशुं स्नेहाद्य कृत्तिकाः॥ २४॥

That Kumāra suddenly turned into six mouthed child when he saw that those are disputing with each other. Thus, he fulfilled the desire of all of them. Those Kṛttikas then brought up properly that child with them.

प्रियमाणः स ताभिस्तु बालो दृष्टिमगान्मुने।
कार्त्तिकेयेति विज्ञातो जातः स बलिनां वरः॥ २५॥

O sage! That child was grown in their custody. He became famous as Kārttikeya among the strong built people.

एतस्मिन्नतरे ब्रह्मन्यावकं प्राह पद्मजः।
कियत्प्रमाणः पुत्रस्ते वर्तते साम्प्रतं गुहः॥ २६॥

O Brahmin! Brahmā in the meantime, asked the fire- "What age has your son Guha attained this time?"

स तद्वचनमाकर्ण्य अजानन्सं हरात्मजम्।
प्रोवाच पुत्रं देवेश न वेदि कतमो गुहः॥ २७॥

The fire being unfamiliar to that child as Śaṅkara's son, then enquired- O god! I am not familiar to Śaṅkara's son. Tell me that who is Guha?

तं प्राह भगवान् यत्तु तेजः पीतं पुरा त्वया।
त्रैयम्बकं त्रिलोकेश जातः शरवणे शिशुः॥ २८॥

The god said to him- O the god of three-world! The semen sipped by you once during long ago has now born in the form of a child.

श्रुत्वा पितामहवचः पावकस्त्वरितोऽभ्यगात्।
वेगिनं मेषमारुहा कुटिला तं दर्दश ह॥२९॥

On hearing to the statement of Brahmā, the god fire went there rapidly by riding on the goat. Kuṭilā saw him going there.

ततः पप्रच्छ कुटिला शीघ्रं क्व ब्रजसे कवे।
सोऽब्रवीत् पुत्रदृष्ट्यर्थं जातः शरवणे शिशुम्॥३०॥

Kuṭilā then asked- O god fire! Where are you going? He said- "I am going to see a child born in Śaravaṇa."

साऽब्रवीत्तनयो महां ममेत्याह च पावकः।
विवदन्तौ ददर्शाथ स्वेच्छाचारी जनार्दनः॥३१॥

She said that child is mine and the fire said it is mine. Janārdana who was walking voluntarily saw them disputing with each other.

तौ पप्रच्छ किमर्थं वा विवादिमह चक्रयः।
तावृचतुः पुत्रहेतो रुद्रशुक्रोद्भवाय हि॥३२॥

Janārdana asked both of them- "Why are you disputing? They replied- "For the son born from the semen of Rudra."

तावुवाच हरिदेवो गच्छ तं त्रिपुरान्तकम्।
स यद्यक्ष्यति देवेशस्तल्कुरुद्ध्वमसंशयम्॥३३॥

Viṣṇu advised them- "Go at Tripurāntaka. Do then whatever is suggested by that god."

इत्युक्तौ वासुदेवेन कुटिलाग्नी हरान्तिकम्।
समध्येत्येचतुर्सत्यं कस्य पुत्रेति नारद॥३४॥

O Nārada! Kuṭilā and fire both went to Śaṅkara when so advised by Vāsudeva and asked the fact that whose son was that child?

रुद्रस्तद्वाक्यमाकर्ण्य हर्षनिर्भरमानसः।
दिष्ट्या दिष्ट्येति गिरिजां प्रोद्भूतपुलकोऽब्रवीत्॥३५॥

The mind of Śaṅkara was filled with pleased. He pleased and said to Girijā- "It is the chance. It is a chance."

ततोऽम्बिका प्राह हरं देव गच्छाव तं शिशुम्।
प्रष्टुं समाश्रयेद्यं स तस्य पुत्रो भविष्यति॥३६॥

Ambikā then said to Śaṅkara- O god! We should go there and ask that child. He will be the son of the person whose shelter is preferred by him.

बाढमित्येव भगवान् समुत्तस्यौ वृष्ट्यजः।
सहोमयाम कुटिलया पावकेन च धीमता॥३७॥

God Śaṅkara Pārvatī, Kuṭilā and fire god said- "very good" and stood up together.

संप्राप्तास्ते शरवणं हराग्निकुटिलाम्बिकाः।
ददृशः शिशुकं तं च कृत्तिकोत्सङ्घशायिनम्॥३८॥

Śaṅkara, Pārvatī, Kuṭilā and fire went together in Śaravaṇa. They saw that child looping on the lap of Kṛttikā.

ततः स बालकस्तेषां मत्वा चिन्तितमादरात्।
योगी चतुर्मूर्तिरभूत् षण्मुखः स शिशुस्त्वपि॥३९॥

That six mouthed child understood their intention and in spite of being Yogi, he turned into four bodies.

कुमारः शंकरमगाद्विशाखो गौरिमागमत्।
कुटिलामगमच्छाखो महासेनोऽग्निमध्ययात्॥४०॥

Kumāra went to Śaṅkara, Viśākha went to Girijā, Śākha went to Kuṭilā and fire god became happiest.

ततः प्रीतियुतो रुद्र उपा च कुटिला तथा।
पावकश्चापि देवेशः परां मुदमवाप च॥४१॥

Then Rudra, Umā, Kuṭilā and fire god became happiest.

ततोऽब्रुवन् कृत्तिकास्ताः षण्मुखः किं हरात्मजः।
ता अब्रवीद्वरः प्रीत्या विधिवद् वचनं मुने॥४२॥

Then those Kṛttikās asked- whether Śadanama is the son of Śaṅkara? O sage! Śaṅkara said them all-

नामा तु कात्तिकेयो हि युष्माकं च तनयस्त्वसौ।
कुटिलाया: कुमारेति पुत्रोऽयं भविताऽव्ययः॥४३॥

O Kṛttikās! He will be your son and addressed as Kārttikeya and this immortal Kumāra will be the son of Kuṭilā.

स्कन्द इत्येव विरच्यातो गौरीपुत्रो भवत्वसौ।
गुह इत्येव नामा च ममासौ तनयः स्मृतः॥४४॥

He will be son of Gaurī and addressed as

Skanda. He will be my son also and addressed as Guha.

महासेन इति ख्यातो हुताशस्यासु पुत्रकः।
शारद्वत इति ख्यातः सुतः शरवणस्य च॥४५॥

He will be a popular son of fire as Mahāsena. As Śāradvata, he will be the son of Śaravaṇa.

एवमेष महायोगी पृथिव्यां ख्यातिमेष्यति।
षडास्यत्वान् महाबाहुः षण्मुखो नाम गीयते॥४६॥

Thus, this Mahāyogī will gain popularity on the earth. Being his six mouths he will be famous as Śaṇmukha.

इत्येवमुक्त्वा भगवान् शूलपाणिः पितामहम्।
सम्मार दैवतैः सार्द्धं तेऽप्याजग्मुस्वरात्तिः॥४७॥

Śūlapāṇi Śaṅkara brought in memory Pitāmaha Brahmā including all gods. They all came there quickly.

प्रणिपत्य च कामारिमुमां च गिरिनन्दिनीम्।
दृष्ट्वा हुताशनं प्रीत्या कुटिलां कृत्तिकासत्था॥४८॥
ददृशुर्बालपत्युग्रं षण्मुखं सूर्यसन्निभम्।
मुष्णान्तमिव चक्षुषिं तेजसा स्वेन देवताः॥४९॥

Those gods saluted Kāmāri Śaṅkara and Pārvatī. They saw the fire god, Kuṭilā and Kṛttikās very happy and saw there further the most aggressive, sun like glittering and dazzling all eyes with radiance a child having six mouths.

कौतुकाभिवृताः सर्वे एवमूचुः सुरोत्तमाः।
देवकार्यं त्वया देव कृतं दिव्याऽनिना तथा॥५०॥

Those great gods said amazingly- O god! You including goddess and fire have performed the assignment which should be executed by the gods.

तदुत्तिष्ठ ब्रजामोऽद्य तीर्थमौजसमव्ययम्।
कुरुक्षेत्रं सरस्वत्यामभिषिञ्चाम षण्मुखम्॥५१॥

Hence, please, stand-up we should now go at Aujasa, the everlasting holy place. We should sprinkle water on this six mouthed child in Sarasvatī by taking a visit at Kurukṣetra.

सेनायाः पतिरस्त्वेष देवगच्छर्वकिनराः।

महिषं घातयत्वेष तारकं च सुदारुणम्॥५२॥

O gods, gandharvas and kinnaras! May he become our commander and kill the Mahiṣa and the fierce Tāraka.

बाढमित्यब्रवीच्छर्वः समुत्तस्युः सुरास्ततः।
कुमारसहिता जग्मुः कुरुक्षेत्रं महाफलम्॥५३॥

Śaṅkara said- "very good". All gods then stood up and went at Kurukṣetra with Kumāra.

तत्रैव देवताः सेन्ना रुद्रब्रह्मजनार्दनाः।
यत्नमस्याभिषेकार्थं चक्रुमुनिगणैः सह॥५४॥

Indra, Rudra, Brahmā, Janārdana etc. all gods including hermits then did Abhiṣeka of that Kumāra.

ततोऽम्बुना सप्तसप्तमुद्रवाहिना
नदीजलेनापि महाफलेन।
वरौषधीभिश्च सहस्रमूर्तिभिः
स्तदाय्यषिञ्चन् गुहमच्युताद्याः॥५५॥

Then Acyuta etc. gods did Abhiṣeka of Guha by mixing the pure water of Sarasvatī and the rivers flowing down into seven seas as also with the best medicines.

अभिषिञ्चति सेनायां कुमारे दिव्यरूपिणि।
जगुर्गच्छर्वपतयोपतयो ननृतुश्चाप्सरोगणाः॥५६॥

When Kumāra got Abhiṣeka for the designation of army commander, the king gandharvas did singing and the nymphs started dancing.

अभिषिक्तं कुमारं हि गिरिपुत्री निरीक्ष्य हि।
स्नेहादुत्सङ्गं स्कन्दं मूर्ध्यजिघ्नमुहुर्मुहुः॥५७॥

Girījā picked up Kumāra with affection in her lap when he saw that he has been selected as commander of the army. She began to smell his head again and again.

जिघती कात्तिकेयस्य अभिषेकार्द्धमाननम्।
भात्यद्रिजा यथेन्द्रस्य देवमाताऽदितिः पुरा॥५८॥

Pārvatī looked like Aditi, the mother of gods who smelt head of Indra during ancient period when she also smelt the face of Kārtikeya, which was soaked in water.

तदाभिषिक्तं तनयं दृष्टा शर्वे मुदं ययौ।
पावकं कृत्तिकश्चैव कुटिला च यशस्विनी॥५९॥

Then Śaṅkara, the fire, Kṛttikās and illustrious Kuṭīlā became happy to see their son so appointed on the higher position.

ततोऽभिषिक्तस्य हरः सेनापत्ये गुहस्य तु।
प्रमथांश्चतुरः प्रादाच्छक्तुल्यपराक्रमान्॥६०॥

Chapter 58

Killing of Tāraka and Mahiṣa

पुलस्त्य उवाच

सेनापत्येऽभिषक्तस्तु कुमारो दैवतैरथ।
प्रणिपत्य भवं भक्त्या गिरिजां पावकं शुचिम्॥ १॥
षट् कृत्तिकाश्च शिरसां प्रणम्य कुटिलामपि।
ब्रह्माणं च नमस्कृत्य इदं वचनमश्वीत्॥ २॥

Pulastyā said- So appointed on commander post by gods, Kumāra saluted Śaṅkara, Pārvatī and the sacred fire. He then bowed his head before six Kṛttikas and Kuṭīlā. Finally, he saluted Brahmā and said-

कुमार उवाच

नमोऽस्तु भवता देवा ओं नमोऽस्तु तपोधनाः।
युष्मत्रसादाज्जेष्यामि शङ्कु महिषतारकौ॥ ३॥

Kumāra said- O gods! I salute you all. O great austere! I salute you with chanting "Om" the supreme syllable. I will conquer Mahiṣa and Tāraka both enemies.

शिशुरस्मि न जानामि वक्तुं किञ्चन देवताः।
दीयतां ब्रह्मणा सार्द्धमनुज्ञा मम साम्प्रतम्॥ ४॥

O gods! I am merely a child and alien to art of speaking. Please allow me to submit this time you all including Brahmā.

इत्येवमुक्ते वचने कुमारेण महात्मना।
मुखं निरीक्षन्ति सुराः सर्वे विगतसाध्वसाः॥ ५॥

All gods began to gaze at him when the great soul Kumāra so stated.

आदाय दक्षिणे पाणौ स्कन्दान्तिकमुपागमत्॥ ६॥

Śaṅkara stood up affectionately for his son, gave Brahmā support of his right hand and came to Skanda.

Umā then said to her son- O every killer son! Come here. Do pray and salute of Viṣṇu the world's adorable god.

ततो विहस्याह गुहः कोऽयं मातर्वदस्व माम्।

Guha then said smiling- O Mother! tell me that who is he? Explain his great fullness that even make the people of higher status like us to bow before him.

तं माता प्राह वचनं कृते कर्मणि पदाभूः।
वक्ष्यते तव योऽयं हि महात्मा गरुडध्वजः॥ ९॥

His mother said- "Brahmā will tell you when the work is over that who is this Garuḍa riding greatman?"

केवलं त्विह मां देवस्त्वत्पिता प्राह शंकरः।

You father, god Śaṅkara has told me only that nobody among us and among the creatures is not greater than him.

Lord Viṣṇu, having bestowed his benedictions on Kārtikeya who stood folded-handed in benediction gave him order.

नारद उवाच

Indra replied- "I have done Pradakṣinā earlier than you. Kumāra protested and said- "You have not made it first."

मया पूर्वं मया पूर्वं विवदन्तौ परस्परम्।
प्रायोचतुर्पूर्हेशाय ब्रह्मणे माधवाय च॥ १० ६॥

Both of them began disputing on this issue by saying he was first- he was first. Thus, they went to Śaṅkara, Brahmā and Viṣṇu and reported it before them.

अथोवच हरिः स्कन्दं प्रष्टुमर्हसि पर्वतम्।

Viṣṇu said to Skanda- "Ask the mountain Krauñca. The man named by mountain shall be considered the first who made parikramā.

तन्माधववचः श्रुत्वा क्रौञ्चमभ्येत्य पावकिः।
पप्रच्छाद्विमिदं केन कृतं पूर्वं प्रदक्षिणम्॥ १०८॥

Hearing the words of Nārāyaṇa, the fire-born God reached to Krauñca mountain and asked him that "Eho circumambulated first?"

इत्येवमुक्तः क्रौञ्चस्तु प्राह पूर्वं महामतिः।

Krauñca, the wise mountain said- "O Guha! Indra had done it first and then you had made it."

एवं ब्रुवन्तं क्रौञ्चं स क्रोधात्प्रस्फुरिताधरः।

Kumāra furiated on mountain, he blew the sakti and the entire mountain along with Mahiṣāsura penetrated in pieces. It was completely collapsed.

On the death of his son, the might Sunābha, son of Himālaya came there very fast. Brahmā, Indra, Rudra, Vāyu, Aśvinikumāra, Vasu etc. gods, returned to heaven when they conformed of the death of Mahiṣāsura by Guha.

Mighty Kumāra intended to kill his maternal uncle through the hard blows of sakti. However, Viṣṇu appeared in the meantime, embraced him and prohibited him by saying that he was Guha's preceptor.

Himālaya came to Sunābha, took him with hand, brought towards other side and Hari, the rider on Garuḍa took Kumāra with peacock to heaven very fast.

Viṣṇu said to him- "O Kumāra! Go at the holy place Pṛthūdaka in order to absolve from sin. That place is like an axe to the tree of evils.

इत्येवमुक्तो हरिणा कुमार-
स्त्वयेत्य तीर्थं प्रसमीक्ष्य शंभुम्।

Following the words of Hari, Kumāra went at Pṛthūdaka. He saw Mahādeva there. He took bath, worshipped gods, regained the splendour like sun and then returned to the residential mountain of Mahādeva.

The Gaṇeśvara Sucakranetra began to observe penance for the pleasure of god Śaṅkara in Mahāśrama situated on the mountain. Śaṅkara pleased on such strict penance and prepared to give him desired.

देवात् स वक्रे वरमायुधार्थे

छिन्याद्यथा त्वत्प्रतिमं करेण

He asked for having special weapon with him. "O god! Please, give me an excellent discus which may torn into pieces the multitude of the arms of the enemy Bāṇa in a matchless fashion.

तमाह शंभुर्वज दत्तमेतद्
वरं हि चक्रस्य तवायुधस्य।
बाणस्य तद्वाहुवनं प्रवृद्धं

Mahādeva said to him- "Go now. I have given discus for which you asked. It shall definitely, suppress the over grown arms power of Bāñāsura.

वरे प्रदत्ते त्रिपुरान्तकेन
गणेश्वरः स्कन्दमुपाजगाम।

When Skanda so received the discus, Gaṇeśvara went to him, bowed on his feet, prayed and described the grace of Mahādeva before him.

वधं त्रिनेत्रात्पजशक्तिभेदात्।
क्रौञ्चस्य मृत्युः शरणागतार्थं

Thus, I have completely described the episode pertaining to the slaughter of Mahiṣāsura by the son of Śaṅkara. Krauñca was spoiled as he had sheltered the sinner. This episode effaces the evils and increases the account of noble deeds.

Defeat of demon Andhaka

नारद उवाच

योऽसौ मन्त्रयतां प्राप्तो दैत्यानां शरताडितः।

Nārada said- Please, tell us that the demon suddenly. Killed by an arrow thrown on him while he was busy in discussing matters in a meeting, who was that person who attacked so fiercely?

पुलस्त्य उवाच

Pulastya said- O great hermit! Ripujita was the king in Raghu dynasty. He had a son meritorious, great soul chivalrous, enemy killer, mighty and generous to do equal with friends, Brahmins, blinds, paupers and misers.

नारद उवाच

किमर्थं गालवस्यासौ साधयामास सत्तमा।

Nārada said- What work in favour of the hermit Gālava, had performed by that son of king by throwing that arrow?

Pulastya said- The hermit Gālava was doing penance at āśrama during long ago. The demon Pātālaketu used to create hurdles in his penance and disturbances to his meditation. He was doing this all under influence of ignorance.

न चेष्यतेऽसौ तपसो व्ययं हि

In spite of being capable to turn his body into ashes, he was not intended to misuse the power so acquired. He looked at sky and exhaled long, hot and bitter air.

Then there fell a horse beautiful down from the ether. It had been declared by an invisible sound simultaneously that the horse so dropped down can cross a distance of one thousand yojana in a day.

The hermit assigned that horse to king Rādhvaja and continued his penance. The prince thereafter went to that demon and injured him by an arrow.

Nārada said- O great resolute! Please tell us who had dropped that horse down on earth and who made that intangible declaration? I am curious to listen about all this.

Pulastya said- The illustrious and mighty chief of the Gandharva, the musician to lord Indra named Viśvāvasu had dropped the horse down on the earth for his daughter on behalf of Rādhvaja.

नारद उवाच

कोऽर्थो गन्धर्वराजस्य येनाप्रैषीन्महाजवम्।

Nārada said- "What was the purpose of that Gandharva in sending that horse and what purpose was of the king Kuvalayāśva?"

पुलस्त्य उवाच

Pulastya said- Viśvāvasu had a daughter Madālasā. She was filled with intoxication. She was modest, the best among all women in three-worlds, a beautiful one and her radiance was like moon-light.

तां नन्दनो देवरिपुस्तरस्वी

Pātālaketu, an enemy of gods saw her enjoying at Nandana forest and abducted her. That special horse was given for her defence.

After killing that demon, the prince got that virgin having the best thighs and married her. The prince with that deer eyed virgin was looking as if Indra is there with his wife Indrāṇī.

नारद उवाच

एवं निरसे महिषे तारके च महासुरे।
हिरण्याक्षसुतो धीमान्किमचेष्टत वै पुनः॥ १५॥

Nārada said- What had Andhaka done when the great demon Tāraka and Mahiṣa were killed? Andhaka was the son of notorious demon Hiranyaśā.

पुलस्त्य उवाच

तारकं निहतं दृष्टा महिषं च रणेऽस्यकः।
क्रोधं चक्रे सुदुर्बुद्धिर्देत्यानां देवसैन्यहा॥ १६॥

Pulastyā said- When Andhaka saw Tāraka and Mahiṣa both killed in battle, he filled with anger. He was destroyer of divine army and most cunning demon.

ततः स्वल्प्यपरीवारः प्रगृह्ण परिघं करे।
निर्जगामाथ पातालाद्विच्छार च मेदिनीम्॥ १७॥

He then took Parigha in hand and came out from nether with a few soldiers. He came upon earth and began strolling.

ततो विचरता तेन मन्दरे चारुकन्दरे।
दृष्टा गौरी च गिरिजा सखीमध्ये स्थिता शुभा॥ १८॥

While so strolling, he saw Gaurī, the daughter of Himālaya on mountain Mandara covered by the caves.

ततोऽभूत् कामबाणार्तः सहसैवाच्यकोसुरः।
तां दृष्टा चारुसर्वाङ्गीं गिरिराजसुतां वने॥ १९॥

Having seen that beautiful daughter of Himālaya, Andhaka suddenly filled with sensuous feeling.

अथेवाचासुरो मूढो वचनं मन्मथास्यकः।
कस्येयं चारुसर्वाङ्गीं वने चरति सुन्दरी॥ २०॥

Then Andhaka, that idiot and sensuous demon said- whose daughter is this beautiful virgin?

इयं यदि भवेन्नैव ममान्तःपुरवासिनी।
तन्मदीयेन जीवेन क्रियते निष्फलेन किम्॥ २१॥

If I could not make her my bride it is but useless living for me? (viz. I should get her at any cost as my bride).

यदस्यास्तनुमध्याया न परिष्वङ्गवानहम्।

अतो दिङ् मम रूपेण किं स्थिरेण प्रयोजनम्॥ २२॥

Condemn to my formidable complexion being its useless if I could not get the pleasure of embracing this thin loin virgin.

स मे बस्युः स सचिवः स भ्राता साम्परायिकः।
यो मामसितकेशीं तां योजयेन् पृगलोचनाम्॥ २३॥

He would only be my brother, secretary, sibling and the comrade in war who would make my meeting with that beautiful virgin.

इत्यं वदति दैत्येन्द्रे प्रह्लादो बुद्धिसागरः।

पिद्याय कर्णौ हस्ताभ्यां शिरःकम्पं वचोऽब्रवीत्॥ २४॥

The wise Prahlāda covered his ears with both hands, nodded his head in rejection when he heard this averment from the demon king Andhaka. He said-

मा मैवं वद दैत्येन्द्र जगतो जननी त्वियम्।
लोकनाथस्य भार्येयं शंकरस्य त्रिशूलिनः॥ २५॥

O demon king! Don't say this. She is the mother of world and wife of Śaṅkara, the trident holder and monster of this whole universe.

मा कुरुष्व सुदुर्बुद्धिं सद्यः कुलविनाशिनीम्।
भवतः परदारेयं मा निमज्ज रसातले॥ २६॥

Don't do such act as this will immediately destroy the whole clan. She is other's wife for you. Hence, don't fall in nether. (viz. Don't be so cunning).

सत्सु कुत्सितमेवं हि असत्स्वपि हि कुत्सितम्।
शत्रवस्ते प्रकुर्वन्तु परदारावगाहनम्॥ २७॥

May! Such act condemned by gentlemen as also the wicked to perform by your enemies.

किञ्चित् त्वया न श्रुतं दैत्यनाथ

गीतः इनोकं गाधिना पार्थिवेन।

दृष्टा सैन्यं विप्रधेनुप्रसक्तं

तथ्यं पश्यं सर्वलोके हितं च॥ २८॥

O king demon! Whether have you not heard the benevolent, factual and preventive hymn chanted by Gādhi king when he saw his son

Viśvāmitra applying force to snatch the Brahmin's cow.

वरं प्राणास्त्वयाज्या न च पिशुनवादेष्वभिरतिः

वरं कलीबैर्भाव्यं न च परकलत्राभिगमनं
वरं विक्षणार्थित्वं न च परथनास्वादमसकृत्॥२९॥

It is good to abandon the life but not good to fall in affection when anything has been brought forward by any back-biter. Better to keep silence then to tell a lie. It is good to live impotent but courtship with other's wife is always prohibited. Better to ask for alms than using other's money frequently.

स प्रह्लादवचः श्रुत्वा क्रोधान्यो मदनार्दितिः।
इयं सा शत्रुं जननीत्येवमुक्त्वा प्रदुदुवे॥ ३०॥

The sensuous Andhaka rushed toward that virgin saying that she is the mother of that enemy. He became furious on bearing this averment of Prahlāda.

ततोऽन्धवान् दैतेया यन्मुक्ता इवोपल्लाः।
तान् रुरोद्ध बलान्नन्दी वत्रोद्यतकरोऽव्ययः॥ ३१॥

The other demons then chased him like a stone threw from an apparatus. Imperishable Nandī took thunderbolt in his hand and resisted him forcibly.

मयतारपुरोगास्ते वारिता द्रवितास्तथा।
कुलिशेनाहतास्तूर्णं जग्मुर्भीता दिशो दशः॥ ३२॥

All those demons including Maya and Tāraka etc. so resisted and driven, departed to the ten directions.

तानर्दितानणे दृष्टा नन्दिनाऽस्यकदानवः।
परिघेण समाहत्य पातयामास नन्दिनम्॥ ३३॥

When Andhaka saw all of them so suffered, he hit hard by Parigha on Nandī and knocked him down.

शैलेयं पतितं दृष्टा धावमानं तथाऽस्यकम्।
शतरूपाऽभवद्वौरी भयात्स्य दुरात्मनः॥ ३४॥

When Gaurī saw Nandī knocked down and Andhaka coming rapidly. She bursted him into several thousand forms due to his fear.

ततः स देवीगणमध्यसंस्थितः

परिष्मृपन् भाति महासुरेन्द्रः।
यथा वने मत्तकरी परिष्मृपन्

The fierce demon moving among goddesses was looked as if an intoxicated elephant moves among the several feminine elephants.

न परिज्ञातवांस्तत्र का तु सा गिरिकन्यका।
नात्राश्र्वर्य न पश्यन्ति चत्वारोऽमी सदैव हि॥ ३६॥

He could not understand that who is the daughter of mountain? The four type people are not seen always hence, there is no surprise if he could not recognise the daughter of mountain, Gaurī.

न पश्यतीह जात्यस्यो रागास्योऽपि न पश्यति।
न पश्यति मदोन्मत्तो लोभाक्रान्तो न पश्यति।
सोऽपश्यमानो गिरिजां पश्यन्नपि तदाऽस्यकः॥ ३७॥

These people are- (1) the blind by birth, (2) the man blind of affection, (3) the intoxicant and (4) the greedy man. This was the reason, Andhaka could not see Girijā while she was present there.

प्रहारं नाददत्तासां युवत्य इति चिन्तयन्।
ततो देव्या स दुष्टात्मा शतावर्या निराकृतः॥ ३८॥

That demon did not attack on them considering them all the women. It was the goddess Śatāvarī who hit hard on him.

कुट्ठितः प्रवरैः शस्त्रैर्निपपात महीतले।
वीक्ष्यास्यकं निपतितं शतरूपा विभावरी॥ ३९॥
तस्मात् स्थानादपाक्रम्य गताऽन्तर्धानमिदिका।

कुर्वन्तः सुमहाशब्दं प्राद्रवन्त रणार्थिनः।
तेषामापततां शब्दं श्रुत्वा तस्थौ गणेश्वरः॥ ४१॥

He fell down on the earth when crushed body by the specific weapons. The hundred form goddess Ambikā vanished suddenly from there when she saw Andhaka so knocked down. The commanders of army in demons and monsters simultaneously made a tumult and rushed to attack on goddess. When Gaṇeśvara heard the commotion so made by monsters, he suddenly stood up.

आदाय वत्रं बलवान् मधवानिव कोपितः।
 दानवान् समयान् वीरः पराजित्य गणेश्वरः॥४२॥
 समर्थेत्याम्बिकां दृष्टा वकन्दे चरणौ शुभौ।

 अन्यकोऽपि स्मृतिं लब्ध्वा अपश्यन्नदिनन्दिनीम्।
 स्वबलं निर्जितं दृष्टा ततः पातालमाइवत्॥४६॥

Furiated Gaṇeśvara took thunderbolt analogous to Indra's weapon, defeated all monsters including Maya, went to Ambikā and bowed his head on her feet. The goddess also instructed her varied forms- "Go whenever you like. Stole on the earth and receive worship from the human beings there. You all will reside in orchards, forests, regetations and trees. Be fearless and now move from here. All of them kept the words of Ambikā, bowed their heads, received honour from eunuchs (Kinnaras) and then moved to all directions. Andhaka got conscious after sometime, but could not see Girijā there. He saw that his whole army was badly crushed so, he returned back to the nether.

ततो दुरात्मा स तदाऽन्यको मुने
 पातालमध्येत्य दिवा न भुड्के।
 रात्रौ न शेते मदनेषुताङ्गितो
 गौरीं स्मरन्कामबलाभिपन्नः॥४७॥

O sage! Andhaka could not forget the beauty of Gaurī, became sensuous and anxious to get her. His mind was stuck to Gaurī so severely that neither he used to take food in the day nor slept for seconds at the night.

The story of Demon Mūra

नारद उवाच

क्व गतः शंकरो ह्यासीद्वेनाम्बा नदिना सह।

अस्यकं योधयामास एतन्ये वक्तुमर्हसि॥ १॥

Nārada said- "Tell me please where Śaṅkara was at the time Gaurī and Nandi fought against Andhaka?"

पुलस्त्य उवाच

यदा वर्षसहस्रं तु महामोहे स्थितोऽभवत्।

तदाप्रभृति निस्तेजाः क्षीणवीर्यः प्रदृश्यते॥ २॥

Pulastya said- After the end of great affection for one thousand years, god Śaṅkara had lost splendour and felt him very weak.

स्वमात्मानं निरीक्ष्याथ निस्तेजोऽशं महेश्वरः।

तपोऽर्थाय तदा चक्रे मर्ति मतिमतां वरः॥ ३॥

When wisest Śaṅkara guessed of his power loss, he decided to observe penance in order to regain the power and splendour.

स महाव्रतमुत्पाद्य समाश्वास्याप्तिकां विभुः।

शैलादिं स्थाप्य गोपारं विच्चार महीतले॥ ४॥

That sovereign Śaṅkara resorted to great fast (resolution), assured Ambikā of his decision, handed over the security to Nandi (Śaila etc.) and started walking on the earth.

महामुद्रार्पितग्रीवो महाहिकृतकुण्डलः।

धारयाणः कटीदेशे महाशङ्खस्य मेखलाम्॥ ५॥

He put Mahāmudrā in neck, earrings of great serpents and Mekhalā of Mahāśaṅkha (conch) on his loin region.

कपालं दक्षिणे हस्ते सव्ये गृह्ण कमण्डलुम्।

एकाहवासी वृक्षे हि शैलसानुनदीष्टन् ॥ ६॥

He began to stroll around the trees in plains, climb on the mountain peaks and on the river banks with Narakapāla in his right hand and Kamaṇḍalu in left hand.

स्थानं त्रैलोक्यमास्थाय मूलाहारोऽम्बुधोजनः।

वाव्याहारस्तथा तस्यौ नववर्षशतं क्रमात्॥ ७॥

He passed nine hundred years in tour around three worlds and lived on roots, water and air as his diet during this period.

ततो वीटां मुखे क्षिप्य निरुच्छवासोऽभवद् यतिः।
विस्तुते हिमवत्पुष्टे रथे समशिलातले॥ ८॥

That ascetic then took a seat on upper Himālaya at an attractive and plain surface of the ridge and controlled his breathing by putting Viṭā on his mouth.

ततो वीटां विदार्यैव कपालं परमेष्ठिनः।
साऽर्चिर्भवति जटामध्यान्निबण्णा धरणीतले॥ ९॥

That Viṭā blazing with flames later on entered into the skull, penetrated the forehead, came out from the middle portion of matted hair and fell down on the earth.

वीटया तु पतन्त्याऽद्रिर्दरितः क्षमासमोऽभवत्।
जातस्तीर्थवरः पुण्यः केदार इति विश्रुतः॥ १०॥

On account of such sudden fall of Viṭā, the mountain burst and turned into plain land. The holy place Kedāra became famous at that part of the land.

ततो हरो वरं प्रादात् केदाराय वृषभघ्वजः।
पुण्यवृद्धिकरं ब्रह्मन् पापञ्चं मोक्षसाधनम्॥ ११॥

O Brahmin! Mahādeva, the bull rider then endowed Kedāra with power to absolve sin, enhance noble deed (punya) and ensure emancipation to the devotees.

ये जलं तावके तीर्थे पीत्वा संयमिनो नराः।
मधुमांसनिवृत्ता ये ब्रह्मचारिवते स्थिताः॥ १२॥
षण्मासाद्वारयिष्यन्ति निवृत्ताः परपाकतः।
तेषां हत्पङ्कजेच्चेव मल्लिङ्गं भविता धृवम्॥ १३॥

Those self-controlled men who would drink your water and practise a vow of celibacy for six months without eating flesh, liquor and the food prepared and offered by others, shall surely have my liṅga appeared on the lotus of their hearts.

न चास्य पापेभिरतिर्भविष्यति कदाचन।
पितृणामक्षयं श्राद्धं भविष्यति न संशयः॥ १४॥

They will never indulge them in sins and the śrāddha made by them for ancestors shall be undepleting and keep all in satiation.

स्नानदानतपांसीहं होमजप्यादिकाः क्रियाः।
भविष्यन्त्यक्षया नृणां मृतानामपुनर्भवः॥ १५॥

A bath, donation, penance, offering (Homa) and Japa etc. performed here shall be undepleting and the devotees shall never fall in the trap of birth and death again.

एतद्वारं हरातीर्थं प्राप्य पुण्यति देवताः।
पुनाति पुंसां केदारस्त्रिनेत्रवचनं यथा॥ १६॥

That Kedāra, the holy place since then began to render people with purity and gods with satiations by virtue of Mahādeva's grace.

केदाराय वरं दत्त्वा जगाम त्वरितो हरः।
स्नातुं भानुसुतां देवीं कालिन्दीं पापनाशिनीम्॥ १७॥

Mahādeva having so blessed Kedāra, immediately went to Yamunā known as Kālindī and daughter of sun god for bath.

तत्र स्नात्वा शुचिर्भूत्वा जगामाथ सरस्वतीम्।
वृतां तीर्थशतैः पुण्यैः प्लक्षजां पापनाशिनीम्॥ १८॥

After bath there, god Śaṅkara went Sarasvatī a river emanating from Plakṣa tree, surrounded by several hundred holy places with fresh and pure body.

अवतीर्णस्तः स्नातुं निमग्नश्च महाप्ससि।
दुपदां नाम गायत्रीं जजापान्तर्जले हरः॥ १९॥

He descended for bath, took a dip and began chanting Drupadā Gāyatrī in the water of that holy river.

निमग्ने शंकरे देव्यां सरस्वत्यां कलिप्रिय।
साग्रः संवत्सरो जातो न चोन्मज्जत ईश्वरः॥ २०॥

O favourite to Kali (Nārada)! God Śaṅkara took so deep dip in that river that he did not come up while period of a complete year passed since that day.

एतस्मिन्नतरे ब्रह्मन् भुवनाः सप्त सार्णवाः।

O Brahmin! The seven bhuvanas began to shiver with meantime and constellations with stars began falling on the earth.

आसनेष्यः प्रचलिता देवाः शक्तपुरोगमाः।

The prominent gods including Indra, trembled on their seats and the hermits in such amazing circumstance began enchanting- "May! The universe be defended."

ततः क्षुब्धेषु लोकेषु देवा ब्रह्माणमागमन्।
दृष्टेषुः किमिदं लोकाः क्षुब्धाः संशयमागताः॥ २३॥

The gods came to Brahmā when all worlds was seen so excited. They saluted him and asked- "Why the lokas have been so excited and filled with doubts?"

तानाह पद्मसंभूतो नैतद् वेद्यि च कारणम्।
तदागच्छत वो युक्तं श्रृङ्खं चक्रगदाधरम्॥ २४॥

Lotus born Brahmā replied- "I don't know why is this being. Come you all with me. It is good to see lord Viṣṇu who holds Cakra and Gadā."

पितामहेनैवमुक्ता देवाः शक्तपुरोगमाः।
पितामहं पुरस्कृत्य मुरारिसदनं गताः॥ २५॥

Thus addressed by Brahmā, Indra and all other gods followed Brahmā and they visited at the abode of Murāri under his lead.

नारद उवाच

कोऽसौ मुरारिर्वर्षे देवो यक्षो नु किनरः।
दैत्यो वा राक्षसो वापि पार्थिवो वा तदुच्यताम्॥ २६॥

Nārada said- O divine hermit! Please, tell me who is this Murāri? Whether he is any god, yakṣas, kinnara, demon, monster or any man?

पुलस्त्य उवाच
योऽसौ रजःसत्त्वमयो गुणवांश्च तमोमयः।
निर्युणः सर्वगो व्यापी मुरारिर्घुसूदनः॥ २७॥

Pulastyā said- Omnipresent, holder of three property (viz. sattva, rajas and tamas), tangible and intangible Madhusūdana is popular as Murāri.

नारद उवाच

योऽसौ मुर इति ख्यातः कस्य पुत्रः स गोयते।
कथं च निहतः संख्ये विष्णुना तद्वदस्व मे॥ २८॥

Nārada said- "Please, tell me that who was Mura? Whose son was he? How did Viṣṇu kill him in the battle?"

पुलस्त्य उवाच

श्रूयतां कथयिष्यामि मुरासुरनिर्बहृणम्।
विचित्रमिदमाख्यानं पुण्यदं पापनाशनम्॥ २९॥

Pulastyā said- "Listen! I am going to describe that eccentric, holy and sin effacing episode."

कश्यपस्यौरसः पुत्रो मुरो नाम दनूद्ववः।
स ददर्श रणे शस्तान् दितिपुत्रान् सुरोत्तमैः॥ ३०॥

Kaśyapa got his son Mura from the womb of Danu. He saw all demons defeated by gods in the battle.

ततः स मरणाद्वीतस्तप्त्वा वर्षगणान्बहून्।
आराध्यामास विभुं ब्रह्माणमपराजितम्॥ ३१॥

He was frightened to see that dreadful scene, observed penance for several years in deserted place and focused his mind on exclusive worship of sovereign Brahmā.

ततोऽस्य तुष्टो वरदः प्राह वत्स वरं वृणु।
स च वद्वे वरं दैत्यो वरमेनं पितामहात्॥ ३२॥

Later-on Brahmā pleased and said- "O dear! Ask for your pleasure. That demon asked from Pitāmaha.

यं यं करतलेनाहं स्फूरेयं समरे विभो।
स स मद्भस्तसंस्पृष्टस्त्वमरोऽपि मरत्वतः॥ ३३॥

O sovereign god! The man touched by me through the palm should die irrespective of his being mortal or immortal.

बाढमित्याह भगवान् ब्रह्मा लोकपितामहः।
ततोऽभ्यागाम्हतेजा मुरः सुरगिरिं बली॥ ३४॥

God Brahmā said- "Be it as you desired." That mighty demon Mura then reached at Surgiri hill (abode of the gods).

समेत्याहृयते देवं यक्षां किन्नरपेव वा।
न कश्चिद्युयुधे तेन समं दैत्येन नारद॥ ३५॥

O Nārada! He challenged the gods, yakṣa, kinnara etc. there for battle but nobody came up for fight against him.

ततोऽमरावतीं क्रुद्धः स गत्वा शक्रमाहृयत्।
न चास्य सह योद्धुं वै मर्ति चक्रे पुरंदरः॥ ३६॥

He then visited at Amarāvatī in a furious mood. He challenged god Indra there. Indra too gave up idea to fight against him.

ततः स कर्मद्यम्य प्रविवेशामरावतीम्।
प्रविशन्त न तं कश्चिन्निवारयितुमुत्सहेत्॥ ३७॥

He then entered in Amarāvatī with his hand lifted up. Nobody could dare to impose restriction on his such entrance.

स गत्वा शक्रसदनं प्रोवाचेन्द्रं पुरसदा।
देहि युद्धं सहस्राक्षं नो चेत् स्वर्गं परित्यज॥ ३८॥

He thus, reached at the palace of Indra and said- "O thousand eyed! Do battle with me or give up the heaven immediately."

इत्येवमुक्तो मुरुणा ब्रह्मन् हरिहस्तदा।
स्वर्गराज्यं परित्यज्य भूरारः समजायत॥ ३९॥

O Brahmin! Following the words of Mura, Indra left the throne at once and started moving on the earth.

ततो गजेन्द्रकुलिशौ हतौ शक्रस्य शत्रुणा।
सकलत्रो महातेजा देवैः सह सुतेन च॥ ४०॥
कालिन्द्या दक्षिणे कूले निवेश्य स्वपुरं स्थितः।
मुख्यापि महाभोगान् बुभुजे स्वर्गसंस्थितः॥ ४१॥

The demon Mura seized Indra's elephant and thunderbolt. Indra settled at the southern bank of Yamunā with his wife, son and gods and Mura enjoyed the pleasure of heaven since then.

दानवाश्वापरे रौद्रा मयतारपुरोगमाः।
मुरमासाद्य मोदन्ते स्वर्गे सुकृतिनो यथा॥ ४२॥

Other fierce monsters like Maya and Tāraka too accessed to Mura in heaven and began enjoying all luxuries like the people who receive them as a result of noble deeds performed earlier.

स कदाचिन्महीपृष्ठं समायातो महासुरः।
एकाकी कुञ्जरासूढः सरयूं निमग्नं प्रति॥ ४३॥

Later-on that monster descended any day on the earth, rode on elephant and thus, reached at the bank of Sarayū.

स सरस्वास्तटे वीरं राजानं सूर्यवंशजम्।
ददृशे रघुनामानं दीक्षितं यज्ञकर्मणि॥ ४४॥

He saw a mighty king Raghu of solar dynasty performing sacrifices on the bank of Sarayū river.

तमुपेत्याब्रवीदैत्यो युद्धं मे दीयतामिति।
नो चेन्निर्वर्ततां यज्ञो नेष्टव्या देवतास्त्वया॥ ४५॥

That monster went to him and said- "do battle with me or stop the yajña. You cannot worship gods.

तमुपेत्य महातेजा मित्रावरुणसंभवः।
प्रोवाच बुद्धिमान् ब्रह्मान् वसिष्ठस्तपतां वरः॥ ४६॥

O Brahmin! Vasiṣṭha, the son of Mitra and Varuṇa, the wise ascetic went to him and said-

कि ते जितैरनरैर्देत्य अजिताननुशासय।
प्रहर्तुमिच्छसि यदि तं निवारय चान्तकम्॥ ४७॥

O monster! What will be the benefit of your accomplishment if consumed on defeating the human beings? Defeat those who are still undefeated. In case, you are so prepared, do an attack on Yama, the death god.

स बली शासनं तुभ्यं न करोति महासुरा।
तस्मिन्निते हि विजितं सर्वं मन्यस्व भूतलम्॥ ४८॥

O fierce monster! He is mighty and do not follow your order. In case, you won him, consider that you have then won this entire earth.

स तद्वसिष्ठवचनं निशम्य दनुपुंगवः।
जगाम धर्मराजानं विजेतुं दण्डयणिनम्॥ ४९॥

Having heard these words from Vasiṣṭha, that demon marched to vanquish Daṇḍapāṇi, the lord of virtues.

तमायानं यमः श्रुत्वा मत्वाऽवध्यं च संयुगे।
स समारह्य महिषं केशवान्तिकमागमत्॥५०॥

Having heard the march of that monster and being known him undefeated, Yama immediately rode on buffalo and went to see god Keśava.

समेत्य चाभिवादैनं प्रोवाच मुखेष्टितम्।
स चाह गच्छ मामद्य प्रेषयस्व महासुरम्॥५१॥

He reached there, bowed his head and then reported the strategy of Mura. He said- "Go at once to that monster and send him to me."

स वासुदेववचनं श्रुत्वाऽभ्यागात् त्वरान्वितः।
एतस्मिन्नतरे दैत्यः संप्राप्ते नगरीं मुरः॥५२॥

Following Vāsudeva's statement, he returned immediately. Just then Mura, the demon entered into his city.

तमागतं यमः प्राह किं मुरे कर्तुमिच्छसि।
वदस्व वचनं कर्ता त्वदीयं दानकेश्वर॥५३॥

Yama said to him- O Mura! Tell me your intention first. O demon king! I follow you.

पुर उवाच

यम प्रजासंयमनान्निवृत्तिं करुमहसि।
नो चेत् तवाद्य छित्वाऽहं मूर्धनं पातये भुवि॥५४॥

Mura said- O Yama! Stop the regulation imposed on the subject with immediate effect nonetheless you will be beheaded.

तमाह धर्मराङ् वाक्यं यदि मां संयमाद् भवान्।
गोपियति मुरो सत्यं करिष्ये वचनं तव॥५५॥

O Brahmin! Dharmarāja replied- "I will certainly follow you if you could defend me from the power that regulates me."

मुरस्तमाह भवतः कः संयन्ता वदस्व माम्।
अहमेनं पराजित्य वारयामि न संशयः॥५६॥

Mura said to him- "Tell me that who is your regulating god? I will undoubtedly, put check on him and subjugate."

यमस्तं प्राह मे विष्णुर्देवश्चक्रगदाधरः।
श्वेतद्वीपनिवासी यः स मां संयमतेऽव्ययः॥५७॥

Yama replied- God Viṣṇu, the holder of cakra, mace, resident of white island, the imperishable is my regulating god. I work under his orders.

तमाह दैत्यशार्दूलः क्वासौ वसति दुर्जयः।
स्वयं तत्र गमिष्यामि तस्य संयमनोद्यतः॥५८॥

The lion monster Mura said to Yama- "Where does that sovereign live? I myself will go there to subjugate him.

तमुवाच यमो गच्छ क्षीरोदं नाम सागरम्।
तत्रास्ते भगवान्विष्णुर्लोकनाथो जगन्मयः॥५९॥

Yama, the god of death said to him "Go at the ocean of milk (Kṣīrasāgara). God Viṣṇu, the master of universe lives there."

मुरस्तद्वाक्यमाकर्ण्य प्राह गच्छामि केशवम्।
किंतु तु त्वया न तावद्धि संयम्या धर्म मानवाः॥६०॥

Mura heard this and said- O Dharmarāja! I go to Keśava but instruct you not regulating the human beings until I return.

स प्राह गच्छ त्वतो वा प्रवर्तिष्ये जयं प्रति।
संयन्तुर्वा यथा स्याद्धि ततो युक्तं समाचरा॥६१॥

He said to Mura- "Go now. I will do effort to win your regulating authority. Do battle only thereafter."

इत्येवमुक्त्वा वचनं दुर्घाष्यिमगमन्मुरः।
यत्रास्ते शेषपर्यङ्के चतुर्मूर्तिर्जनार्दनः॥६२॥

With these words, Mura reached at Kṣīrasāgara. Janārdana, the four-formed god was there on the bed of Anantanāga.

नारद उवाच

चतुर्मूर्तिः कर्थं विष्णुरेक एव निगद्यते।
सर्वगत्वात्कथमपि अव्यक्तत्वाद्य तद्वद्॥६३॥

Nārada asked- Please, explain that why does god Viṣṇu consider Caturmūrti while he is one? Whether he is so address due to being his omniscient and inexpressible.

पुलस्त्य उवाच

अव्यक्तः सर्वगोऽपीह एक एव महामुने।
चतुर्मूर्तिर्जगन्नाथो यथा ब्रह्मस्तथा शृणु॥६४॥

Pulastyā said- O Brahmin! He is one in spite of being inexpressible and omniscient. Listen to the reason for being him addressed as Caturmūrti.

अप्रतर्क्यमनिर्देशं शुक्लं शान्तं परं पदम्।
वासुदेवाख्यमव्यक्तं स्मृतं द्वादशपत्रकम्॥ ६५॥

The best position as Vāsudeva has been said Apratarkya, Anirdeśya, white, tender, inexpressible and Dvādaśapatraka.

नारद उवाच

कथं शुक्लं कथं शान्तमप्रतर्क्यमनिन्दितम्।
कान्यस्य द्वादशैवोक्ता पत्रका तानि मे वद॥ ६६॥

Nārada asked- How is he Śukla, Śānta, Apratarkya and Anindita? Please, explain the so called Dvādaśapatraka of him.

पुलस्त्य उवाच

शृणुच्च गुह्यं परमं परमेष्ठिप्रभाषितम्।
श्रुतं सनत्कुमारेण तेनाख्यातं च यन्मम॥ ६७॥

Pulastyā said- Listen to the secret statement laid down by god Brahmā. Sanatkumāra had heard the same and told to me.

नारद उवाच

कोऽयं सनत्कुमारेति य ब्रह्मणः स्वयम्।
तवापि तेन गदितं वद मामनुपूर्वशः॥ ६८॥

Nārada said- Kindly, tell me in orderly manner about Sanatkumāra to whom Brahmā addressed and from whom you came to know those secret words.

पुलस्त्य उवाच

धर्मस्य भार्याऽहिंसाख्या तस्यां पुत्रचतुष्टयम्।
संजातं मुनिशार्दूलं योगशास्त्रविचारकम्॥ ६९॥

Pulastyā said- Ahimsā (non-violence) is the wife of Dharma. She gave birth to four sons. O great sage! All of them were expert in Yogaśāstra.

ज्येष्ठः सनत्कुमारोऽभूद् द्वितीयश्च सनातनः।
तृतीयः सनको नाम चतुर्थश्च सनदनः॥ ७०॥

Sanatkumāra was the eldest, Sanātana was the next, Sanaka was the third and Sanadana was the fourth son.

सांख्यवेत्तारमपरं कपिलं वोद्धुमासुरिम्।
दृष्ट्वा पञ्चशिखं श्रेष्ठं योगयुक्तं तपोनिधिम्॥ ७१॥

They all visited to Kapila (expert in Sāṃkhya Śāstra), Voḍhu, Āsuri and Pañcaśikha (expert in Yoga).

ज्ञानयोगं न ते दद्युज्यार्यसोऽपि कनीयसम्।
मानमुक्तं महायोगं कपिलादीनुपासतः॥ ७२॥

They never imparted spiritual knowledge to the juniors. The people worshipping Kapila etc. were said mere quantum to Mahāyoga as he was not interested to preach everything so known to him.

सनत्कुमाराभ्येत्य ब्रह्माणं कमलोद्घवम्।
अपृच्छद् योगविजानं तमुवाच प्रजापतिः॥ ७३॥

Sanatkumāra went to lotus born Brahmā and asks science on Yoga. Prajāpati said to him.

ब्रह्मोवाच

कथयिष्यामि ते साध्य यदि पुत्रत्वमिच्छसि।
यस्य कस्य न वक्तव्य तत्सत्यं नान्यथेति हि॥ ७४॥

O Sādhyā! I will tell you only when you wish to be my son. As it is true, not otherwise, it should not be made common to know for all.

सनत्कुमार उवाच

पुत्र एवास्मि देवेश यतः शिष्योऽस्यहं विभो।
न विशेषोऽस्ति पुत्रस्य शिष्यस्य च पितामहो॥ ७५॥

Sanatkumāra said- O god of gods! I am your son as I am your pupil. O Pitāmaha! There is no difference between a son and pupil.

ब्रह्मोवाच

विशेषः शिष्यपुत्राभ्यां विद्यते धर्मनन्दन।
धर्मकर्मसमायोगे तथापि गदतः शृणु॥ ७६॥

Brahmā said- O son of Dharma! There is no difference between a son and pupil particularly when religious ceremony and noble deeds and executed. I tell you that thing, please, listen to it.

पुन्नामो नरकात् त्राति पुत्रस्तेनेह गीयते।
शेषपापहरः शिष्य इतीयं वैदिकी श्रुतिः॥७७॥

It is a Vedic dictum that the son saves his father from falling in the hell called Pūrnī, he therefore is called "Putra". The pupil on other side, absolves the remaining sins and called Śiṣya.

सनत्कुमार उवाच

कोऽयं पुन्नामको देव नरकात् त्राति पुत्रकः।
कस्माच्छेषं ततः पापं हरेच्छिष्यश्च तद्वद॥७८॥

Sanatkumāra said- O god! Please, tell that what is the hell addressed as Pūrnī from which the son defends his father. Further, what are the residual sins from which the pupil (Śiṣya) defends.

ब्रह्मोवाच

एतत् पुराणं परमं महर्षे
योगाङ्गयुक्तं च सदैव यच्च।
तथैव चोग्रं भयहारि मानवं
वदामि ते साध्य निशामयैनम्॥७९॥

Brahmā said- O great sage! I am going to tell you an episode, most ancient, defending from fear and pertaining to the components of Yoga. O Sādhyā! Listen it carefully.

इति श्रीवामनपुराणे पूलस्त्यनारदसंवादे भैरवप्रादुर्भवे
षष्ठितमोऽध्यायः॥६०॥

Thefting of fruits, wandering and uprooting trees is heinous evil. It is addressed as the second hell.

Chapter 61

The story of Demon Mura

ब्रह्मोवाच

परदाराभिगमनं पापीयांसोपसेवनम्।
पारुष्यं सर्वभूतानां प्रथमं नरकं मतम्॥ १॥

Brahmā said- Courtship with other's wife, acquaintance of the evildoers and harsh attitude for all living organisms is addressed as the first hell.

फलस्तेयं महापापं फलहीनं तथाऽटनम्।
छेदनं वृक्षजातीनां द्वितीयं नरकं स्मृतम्॥ २॥

विरोधं बस्युभिष्ठोक्तं नवमं नरपाचनम्॥९॥

The acts like expelling Brahmin from the country, stealing of the Brahmin's wealth, criticising Brahmins and protesting siblings is the ninth Narapācana hell.

शिष्टाचारविनाशं च शिष्टद्वेषं शिशोर्वधम्।

शास्त्रस्तेवं धर्मनाशं दशमं परिकीर्तिम्॥१०॥

Rude behave, envy against civilised people, infanticide, stealing of scriptures and dissolution of one's own religion is called the tenth hell.

षड्हनिनयं घोरं षाङ्गुण्यप्रतिषेधनम्।

एकादशममेवोक्तं नरकं सद्विरुत्तमम्॥११॥

Destroying attitude towards Vedic learning consisting of six components and prohibition of royal-properties (guṇas) viz., alliance, war etc. is said by scholars as the eleventh gross hell.

सत्सु निन्दा सदा वैरमनाचारमसक्लिया।

संस्कारपरिहीनत्वमिदं द्वादशमं स्मृतम्॥१२॥

Always envious of gentlemen, evil-doing, nuisance and uncultured living is called the twelfth hell.

हानिर्धर्मार्थकामानामपवर्गस्य हारणम्।

संभेदः संविदामेतत् त्रयोदशममुच्यते॥१३॥

Loss of Dharma (noble deed), Artha (essence, wealth) and Kāma (worldly desires), denial of emancipation and an attitude to create discrimination among these is called the thirteenth hell.

कृपणं धर्महीनं च यद्वज्यं यद्य वह्निदम्।

चतुर्दशममेवोक्तं नरकं तद्विराहितम्॥१४॥

Miser, atheist (evildoer), wicked (denied by society) and one who sets things on fire is called the fourteenth hell (Vigarhita).

अज्ञानं चाय्यसूत्यत्वमशौचमशुभावहम्।

स्मृतं तत्पञ्चदशकमसत्यवचननि ह॥१५॥

The ignorance, impurity, envy, evil-doing, dirty and the untrue statements is called the fifteenth hell.

आलस्यं वै षोडशममाक्रोधं च विशेषतः।

सर्वस्य चाततायित्वमावासेष्वग्निदीपनम्॥१६॥

Laziness, excess fury, coercive attitude for all and setting home on fire is called the sixteenth hell.

इच्छा च परदारेषु नरकाय निगद्यते।

ईर्ष्याभावश्च सत्येषु उद्धृतं तु विगर्हितम्॥१७॥

Attachment for other's wife, jealous attitude for truth and a behave stubborn and worth condemning has been said as renderer of hell very certain.

एतैस्तु पापैः पुरुषः पुन्नामाद्यैर्न संशयः।

संयुक्तः प्रीणयेद्वै संतत्या जगतः पतिम्॥१८॥

The man stuck with these Punnāma etc. sins pleases Janārdana, the master of universe through his son.

प्रीतः सृष्ट्या तु शुभया पापाद्येन मुच्यते।

पुन्नामनरकं घोरं विनाशयति सर्वतः॥१९॥

Janārdana pleased on the meritorious children, destroy the hell addressed as Punnāma as a result of the noble acts performed by such children.

एतस्मात् कारणात् साध्य सुतः पुत्रेति गद्यते।

अतः परं प्रवक्ष्यामि शेषपापस्य लक्षणम्॥२०॥

O Sādhyā! This the reason 'Suta' is called Putra. I now tell the characteristics of residual sin.

ऋणं देवर्षिभूतानां मनुष्याणां विशेषतः।

पितॄणां च द्विजश्रेष्ठं सर्ववर्णेषु चैकता॥२१॥

ओंकारादपि निर्वृतिः पापकार्यकृतश्च यः।

मत्स्यादश्च महापापमग्न्यागमनं तथा॥२२॥

O great Dvija! The heinous offences are debt of gods, hermits, organisms particularly the debts of human beings and ancestors, unity among all Varṇas, abandon of chanting 'Om', evil-doing, eating fish and courtship with a woman prohibited.

घृतादिविक्रयं घोरं चण्डालादिपरिग्रहः।

स्वदोषच्छादनं पापं परदोषप्रकाशनम्॥२३॥

Sale of ghee etc., receiving donation from Cañḍāla etc., hiding one's own fault and revealing the defects of others are the gross offences.

मत्सरित्वं वागदुष्टत्वं निष्ठुरत्वं तथा परम्।
टोकित्वं तालवादित्वं नामा वाचादप्यर्थर्मजम्॥ २४॥
दारुणत्वमध्यार्थित्वं नरकावहमुच्यते।
एतैश्च पापैः संयुक्तः प्रीणयेद्यदि शंकरम्॥ २५॥
ज्ञानाधिकमशेषेण शेषं पापं जयेत्ततः।
शारीरं वाचिकं यतु मानसं कायिकं तथा॥ २६॥
पितृमातृकृतं यद्य कृतं यद्याश्रितैर्नैः।
भ्रातुभिर्बाच्यवैश्वापि तस्मिङ्गन्मनि धर्मज्ञ॥ २७॥
तत्सर्वं विलयं यति स धर्मः सुतशिष्ययोः।
विपरीते भवेत्साध्य विपरीतः पदक्रमः॥ २८॥

Manipulation, harsh speech, cruelty, comments and criticism abruptly on mere name telling, fierce attitude and the activities not permitted under law (religion) are the cause for hell. If a man filled with these evils worships Śaṅkara, he can control on residual evils completely by virtue of his grace. O the son of Dharma! All activities executed by body, speech and mind in previous life, the activities performed by father, the dependants and siblings are merged with. O Sādhyā! It is the religion of the son and the pupil. Reverse position is to avail if these are executed wrongly.

तस्माच्च पुत्रश्च शिष्यश्च हि विद्यातव्यौ विपश्चिताः।
एतदर्थमधिद्याय शिष्याच्छेष्टतरः सुतःः।
शेषात् तारयते शिष्यः सर्वतोऽपि हि पुत्रकः॥ २९॥

The scholar should therefore, establish the tradition of son and the pupil. The son is better than the pupil on the basis of very purpose. The pupil absolves from the residual sins while the son defends from all evils.

पुलस्त्य उवाच

पितामहवचः श्रुत्वा साध्यः प्राह तपोथनः।
त्रिः सत्यं तव पुत्रोऽहं देव योगं वदस्व मे॥ ३०॥

Pulastya said- The ascetic Sanatkumāra said to Brahmā- O god! I give statement on oath that I am your son. Hence, please preach me Yoga.

तमुवाच महायोगी त्वन्मातापितरौ यदि।
दास्येते च ततः सूनर्दयादो मेऽसि पुत्रक॥ ३ १॥

Mahāyogī Brahmā then said- O son! You will be may Dāyāda (adopted) son if your parent voluntarily offer you to me.

सनत्कुमारः प्रोवाच दायादपरिकल्पना।

येयं हि भवता प्रोक्ता तां मे त्वं व्याख्यातुर्मर्हसि॥ ३ २॥

Sanatkumāra said- O god! What is meant by the term Dāyāda (adopted) son? Please, explain the same to me.

तदुक्तं साध्यमुख्येन वाक्यं श्रुत्वा पितामहः।

प्राह प्रहस्य भगवाङ्घणु वत्सेति नारद॥ ३ ३॥

O Nārada! Brahmā laughed on the words from the foremost of Sādhyas and said- O son! Listen now.

ब्रह्मोवाच

औरसः क्षेत्रजश्चैव दत्तः कृत्रिम एव च।

गूढोत्पन्नोऽपविद्धश दायादा बास्यवास्तु षट्॥ ३ ४॥

Brahmā said- there are six Dāyāda- Aurasa, Ksetraja, Datta, Kṛtrima, Gūḍhotpanna and Apaviddha.

अमीषु षट्सु पुत्रेषु कृष्णपिण्डादिक्रियाः।

गोत्रसाम्यं कुले वृत्तिः प्रतिष्ठा शाश्वती तथा॥ ३ ५॥

By these six sons, the debt, Piṇḍa, Gotrasāmya, wealth transactions, Kulavṛtti and stable prestige is established.

कानीनश्च सहोदश्च क्रीतः पौनर्भवस्तथा।

स्वयं दत्तः पारशवः षडायादबास्यवाः॥ ३ ६॥

There are similarly six Adāyāda. These are- Kānīna, Sahoḍha, Krīta, Paunarbhava, Svayarīndatta and Pāraśava.

अमीभिर्कृष्णपिण्डादिक्रिया नैवेह विद्यते।

नामधारक एवेह न गोत्रकुलसंमतः॥ ३ ७॥

These cannot perform the Piṇḍa etc. rituals and absolve from the debt. These are merely nominees. These are not conformed by Gotra and Kula.

तत्स्य वचनं श्रुत्वा ब्रह्मणः सनकाग्रजः।
उवाचैषां विशेषं मे ब्रह्मन् व्याख्यातुमर्हसि॥३८॥

Hearing the words of Brahmā, Sanatkumāra¹ said- O Brahman! Please, tell me the specific characteristic of all them.

ततोऽब्रवीत् सुरपतिविशेषं शृणु पुत्रक।
औरसो यः स्वयं जातः प्रतिबिम्बमिवात्मनः॥३९॥

Brahmā said- O son! I tell you specifically. Please, listen to it. The son born by one's own participation in courtship is called Aurasa (wedlock). He is one's own image (pratibimba).

क्लीबोन्मत्ते व्यसनिनि पत्यौ तस्याज्ञया तु यः।
भार्या ह्वानातुरा पुत्रं जनयेद्देवत्रजस्तु सः॥४०॥

The son born from the womb of one's own wife as a result of her intercourse by other person but under his permission and on account of his being impotent, intoxicant or eccentric is called Kṣetraja.

एतत् तवोक्तं देवस्य रूपं द्वादशपत्रकम्।
यस्मिन् ज्ञाते मुनिश्रेष्ठ न भूयो मरणं लभेत्॥ ६७॥

O great sage! I have described this twelve petal form of god. A knowledge on it defends the man from the frequent cycle of birth and death.

चतुर्बाहुमुदाराङ्गं श्रीवत्सधरमव्ययम्॥ ६८॥

O great sage! These three expressive mūrtis originate from the inexpressive. Marīci etc. hermits and other several thousand persons have been born from this form.

कृतान्तवाक्यात् पुनराससाद॥ ७२॥

O sage! I have described the most ancient and wisdom enhancing form of god Viṣṇu before you. The wicked Muru visited to Viṣṇu when so suggested by Yama.

तमागतं प्राह मुने मधुघ्नः
प्रासादसि केनासुरकारणेन।
स प्राह योद्धुं सह वै त्वयाऽद्य
तं प्राह भूयः सुरशूत्रहन्ता॥ ७३॥

O sage! Madhusūdana asked him- O monster! What purpose is for your arrival here? He said- I have come here to battle against you. God Viṣṇu again said to him-

यदीह मां योद्धुमुपागतोऽसि
तक्लप्यते ते हृदयं किमर्थम्।
ज्वरातुरस्येव मुहुर्मुहुर्वै
तत्रास्मि योत्स्ये सह कातरेण॥ ७४॥

If you really have come for fight, why then your heart is throbbing frequently as it happens when a man suffers from fever. Hence, I will not fight against a coward.

इत्येवमुक्तो मधुसूदनेन
मुरस्तदा स्वे हृदये स्वहस्तम्।
कथं देवं कस्येति मुहुरस्तथोक्त्वा
निपातयामास विपन्नबुद्धिः॥ ७५॥

When god Viṣṇu asked Muru, he said how? Where? Whose? Frequently and best conscious of the magnificence of his touch. He put his hand on heart.

हरिश्च चक्रं मृदुलाधवेन
मुमोच तदधृत्कमलस्य शत्रोः।
चिच्छेद देवास्तु गतव्यथाभवन्
देवं प्रशंसन्ति च पद्मनाभम्॥ ७६॥

Hari Took his discus and penetrated the heart of that enemy. All gods then began to pray god Padmanābha as their worry is now over.

एतत्वोक्तं मुरदैत्यनाशनं
कृतं हि युक्त्या शितचक्रपाणिना।
अतः प्रसिद्धं समुपाजगाम
मुरारिरित्येव विभूत्वसिंहः॥ ७७॥

I have thus, told you the destruction of Mura demon by god Viṣṇu, the holder of sharp discus. Sovereign Nr̥simha on account of this event became famous as Murāri.

इति श्रीबामनपुराणे पुलस्त्यनारदसंवादे भैरवप्रादुर्भावे
मुरवधो नामैकषष्टितमोऽध्यायः॥ ६ १॥

Chapter 62

The story of Demon Mura

पुलस्त्य उवाच

ततो मुरारिभुवनं समभ्येत्य सुरास्ततः।
अचुर्देवं नप्रस्कृत्य जगत्संक्षुष्टिकारणम्॥१॥

Pulasty said- All gods then visited at Viṣṇu, bowed their heads in however and asked him the reason for sudden excitement of the universe.

तच्छुत्वा भगवान्ग्राह गच्छामो हरपन्दिरम्।
स वेत्स्यति महाज्ञानी जगत्सुखं चराचरम्॥२॥

God Murāri heard the curiosity and said- Let us go to Śiva. That great scholar definitely would know the reason for the anxiety of the movable and immovable world.

तथोक्ता वासुदेवेन देवाः शक्रपुरोगमाः।
जनार्दनं पुरस्कृत्य प्रजग्मुर्मदं गिरिम्।
न तत्र देवं वृषं न देवीं न च नन्दिनम्॥३॥

Indra etc. gods followed god Vāsudeva and reached at the mountain Mandar. They did not see Mahādeva, the bull, goddess Pārvatī and Nandī there.

शून्यं गिरिमपश्यन्त अज्ञानतिमिरावृताः।
तान् मूढदृष्टीन् संप्रेक्ष्य देवो विष्णुर्महाद्युतिः॥४॥
प्रोवाच किं न पश्यद्वं महेशं पुरतः स्थितम्।
तमूचुर्नैव देवेशं पश्यामो गिरिजापतिम्॥५॥

On account of being gripped with ignorance, these people saw that mountain void. God Viṣṇu when saw the gods so sinking in ignorance, addressed them- "Whatever you people not seeing Mahādeva just front of you all? They replied we are not seeing the husband of mountain's daughter.

न विद्यः कारणं तद्य येन हष्टिर्हता हि नः।

तानुवाच जगन्मूर्तिर्यूयं देवस्य सागसः॥६॥

We do not know the reason why our vision has been destroyed. God Viṣṇu (Jaganmūrtti) said- You are offender of god Śiva.

पापिष्ठा गर्भहत्तारो मृडान्याः स्वार्थतत्पराः।

तेन ज्ञानविवेको वै हतो देवेन शूलिनाः॥७॥

You people have struck to heinous offence as you had destroyed the womb of Mrḍānī. God Śūlapāṇi had therefore, seized your discretion and conscious both.

येनाग्रतः स्थितमपि पश्यन्तोऽपि न पश्यथ।

तस्मात् कायविशुद्ध्यर्थं देवदृष्ट्यर्थमादरात्॥८॥

तस्मक्ख्येण संशुद्धाः कुरुत्वं स्नानमीश्वरे।

क्षीरस्नाने प्रसुज्ञीत सार्द्धं कुम्भशतं पुरा॥९॥

This is the reason, Saṅkara is before you still you are unable to see him. Hence, all people should purify your mind and soul by observing Tapta-kṛcchra in order to see god and take bath with sheer reverence. O gods! Arrange one hundred fifty pitchers of milk in order to give bath to the god.

दधिस्नाने चतुःषष्ठिर्द्वित्रिशद्विषोऽहंणे।

पञ्चागव्यस्य शुद्धस्य कुम्भाः षोडश कीर्तिताः॥१०॥

(Then for his bath) a provision of sixty four pitchers full of curd, thirty two pitchers ghee and sixteen pitcher pure Pañcagavya has been made.

मधुनोऽष्टौ जलस्योक्ताः सर्वे ते द्विगुणाः सुराः।

ततो रोचनया देवमष्टोत्तरशतेन हि॥११॥

अनुलिम्पेत् कुड्कुमेन चन्दनेन च भक्तिः।

बिल्वपत्रैः सकमलैः धत्तूरसुरचन्दनैः॥१२॥

मन्दरैः पारिजातैश्च अतिमुक्तैस्थाऽर्चयेत्।

अगुरुं सह कालेयं चन्दनेनापि धूपयेत्॥१३॥

O gods! A bath with eight pitcher full of honey and bath with water just double in number of pitchers has been stated. One should then smear gorocana, kumkuma and sandal as much as one hundred eight times. Then worship with bilvapatra, lotus, horn fruit

(dhattūrā), sura-candana, Mandāra, Pārijāta and Atimukta flowers should be made.

जसव्यं शतरुद्रीयं ऋग्वेदोक्ते पदक्रमैः।

एवं कृते तु देवेशं पश्यत्वं नेतरेण हि॥ १४॥

You should then do japa on Śatarudrīya in serial to padas laid down in Rgveda. By doing this, you will be able to see the god of gods. There is no other measure to see him.

इत्युक्त्वा वासुदेवेन देवाः केशवमबृवन्।

विधानं तप्तकृच्छ्रस्य कथ्यतां मधुसूदन्।

यस्मिक्षीर्णे कायशुद्धिर्भवते सार्वकालिकी॥ १५॥

The gods said Keśava- O Madhusūdana! Please, tell us the provision of Tapta-kṛcchra that renders physical purity every time.

वासुदेव उवाच

ऋहमुष्णाः पिबेदाप ऋहमुष्णां पयः पिबेत्।

ऋहमुष्णां पिबेत्सर्पिर्वायुभक्षो दिनत्रयम्॥ १६॥

Vāsudeva said- One should sip hot water for three days, three day then hot milk, three days, in hot ghee and live on air for another three days.

पला द्वादश तोयस्य पलाष्टौ पयसः सुराः।

षट्पलं सर्पिषः प्रोक्ता दिवसे दिवसे पिबेत्॥ १७॥

O gods! One should sip twelve pala water, eight pala milk and six pala ghee during the above-said days.

पुलस्त्य उवाच

इत्येवमुक्ते वचने सुराः कायविशुद्धये।

तप्तकृच्छ्रहस्यं वै चक्रुः शक्रपुरोगमा॥ १८॥

Pulastyā said- Indra etc. gods then observe Tapta-kṛcchra fast for bringing in purity to the body.

ततो व्रते सुराक्षीर्णे विमुक्ताः पापतोऽभवन्।

विमुक्तपापा देवेशं वासुदेवमथाबृवन्॥ १९॥

The gods absolved from sins when that fast was observed. The gods so absolved from sins said to Vāsudeva-

क्वासौ वद जगन्नाथं शंभुस्तिष्ठति केशव।

यं क्षीराद्यभिषेकेण स्नापयामो विधानतः॥ २०॥

O Jagannātha! O Keśava! Please, tell that where is Śambhu existed? See that we can give bath to him with milk etc. only when we could see Mahādeva.

अथोवाच सुरान्विष्णुरेष तिष्ठति शंकरः।

महेहे किं न पश्यत्वं योगंश्चायं प्रतिष्ठितः॥ २१॥

God Viṣṇu said to gods- God Śaṅkara is existed in my body. Whether you all are still unable to see?

तमूचुर्नैव पश्यामस्त्वत्तो वै त्रिपुरान्तकम्।

सत्यं वद सुरेशानं महेशानः क्व तिष्ठति॥ २२॥

Those people said to him- We people are not seeing god Śaṅkara in you too. O Sureśāna! Tell us in fact that where is Maheśa existed?

ततोऽव्यातामा स हरिः स्वहत्पङ्कजशायिनम्।

दर्शयामास देवानां मुरारिलिङ्गमैश्वरम्॥ २३॥

Avyaya soul Murāri Hari then showed the divine liṅga sleeping in his heart lotus to all gods.

ततः सुराः क्रमेणैव क्षीरादिभिरनन्तरम्।

स्नापयामास देवानां मुरारिलिङ्गमैश्वरम्॥ २४॥

The gods then gave bath to that everlasting, stable and immortal liṅga with milk etc. in a systematic manner.

गोरोचनया त्वालिष्य चन्दनेन सुगच्छिना।

बिल्वपत्राम्बुजैर्देवं पूजयामासुरञ्जसा॥ २५॥

They worshipped thereafter that god by smearing gorocana, the fragrant sandal and by offering bilvapatra and lotus flowers.

प्रधूप्यागुरुणा भक्त्या निवेद्य परमैष्वरीः।

जप्त्वा इष्टशतनामानं प्रणामं चक्रिरे ततः॥ २६॥

The gods then offered the supreme medicines with lighting Dhūpa etc. They chanted one hundred eight names of Śaṅkara and saluted.

नारद उवाच

इत्येवं चिन्तयन्तश्च देवदेतौ हरीश्वरौ।

कथं योगत्वमापन्नौ सत्त्वान्धतमसोद्दत्वौ॥ २७॥

All gods began to think that how integration has been established between Hari, born with sattva while Śaṅkara born with Tamas?

पुलस्त्य उवाच

सुराणां चिन्तितं ज्ञात्वा विश्वमूर्तिरभूद्विभुः।
सर्वलक्षणसंयुक्तः सर्वायुधधरोऽव्ययः॥ २८॥

When Hari came to know the doubt looming in the minds of gods, he turned him into Avyaya, Vibhu, Viśvamūrti with all characteristics and weapons in his hands.

सार्वं त्रिनेत्रं कनकाहिकुण्डलं
जटागुडाकेशरखगर्षभव्यजम्।
समाधवं हारभुजङ्गवक्षसं

दृष्टैव देवा हरिशंकरं तं
नमोऽस्तु ते सर्वगताव्ययेति।
प्रोक्तप्रणमाः कपलासनाद्या-
शक्रुर्मतिं चैकतरां नियुज्य॥ ३१॥

O hermit! The gods saw with surprise Viṣṇu comprising simultaneously and in a single body serpent earrings, matted hair, bull, garland of serpent, Piñaka, Śūla, Ājagava bow, Kaparda, Mahādeva with Khatvāṅga, gong, stag hide, three eyes, Pītāmbara, Cakra, Asi, plough, Śārṅga bow, conch, kamala kuṇḍala, guḍākeśa, eagle, garland. Brahmā etc. gods said- "salute to omniscient avyaya" and thus introduced with the integrated form of Hari and Śaṅkara.

तनेकचिन्तान् विज्ञाय देवान् देवपरिहरिः।
प्रगृह्याभ्यद्रवत्तूर्णं कुरुक्षेत्रं स्वपाश्रमम्॥ ३२॥

When Viṣṇu saw that the gods are known properly the integration we took them to his āśrama at Kurukṣetra.

ततोऽपश्यन्त देवेशं स्थाणुभूतं जले शूचिम्।

दृष्टा नमः स्थाणवेति प्रोक्त्वा सर्वेऽहुपाविशन्॥ ३३॥

Those all gods then saw the god of gods Sthāṇu immersed into water. They spoke unanimously- "Salute to Sthāṇu" and seated there.

ततोऽब्रवीत् सुरपतिरेहेहि दीयतां वरः।
क्षुब्धं जगज्जगन्नाथ उमज्जस्व प्रियातिथे॥ ३४॥

Indra then said- O Jagannātha!¹ O Priyātithi!² "This entire world has been agitated." Come to us and bestow a boon.

ततस्तां मधुरां वाणीं शुश्राव वृषभध्वजः।
श्रुत्वोत्तस्थौ च वेगेन सर्वव्यापी निरञ्जनः॥ ३५॥

Mahādeva, the bull rider then heard that melodious speech. The omnipresent Nirañjana then stood up on the water.

नमोऽस्तु सर्वेदवेष्यः प्रोवाच प्रहसन्हरः।
स चागतः सुरैः सेन्द्रैः प्रणतो विनयान्वितैः॥ ३६॥

He said smiling- "Salute to all gods. Indra etc. gods saluted humbly to god Śaṅkara so came there.

तमूर्चुदेवताः सर्वास्त्यज्यतां शंकर द्रुतम्।
महाव्रतं त्रयो लोकाः क्षुब्धास्त्वत्तेजसावृताः॥ ३७॥

All gods said to him- "O Śaṅkara! Give up this great resolution immediately. Three worlds have been excited due to the splendour so increased by virtue of penance made by you..

अथोवाच महादेवो मया त्वक्तो महाव्रतः।
ततः सुरा दिवं जग्मुर्हष्टाः प्रयत्नमानसाः॥ ३८॥

God Mahādeva then said- "I abandon just this Mahāvrata. The gods then returned to heaven with all satisfaction and balanced mind.

ततोऽपि कप्पते पृथ्वी साभिद्वीपाचला मुने।
ततोऽभिचिन्तयदुदुः किमर्थं क्षुभिता मही॥ ३९॥

1. Master of the universe.
2. Fond of guests.

O sage! The sea, island and mountains on the earth were shivering. Rudra then thought why is the earth so trembling?

ततः पर्यचरच्छूली कुरुक्षेत्रं सप्तन्ततः।
ददर्शीधवतीतिरे उशनसं तपोनिधिम्॥४०॥

Śaṅkara, the holder of trident then began to walk around Kurukṣetra. He saw ascetic Uśana on the bank of Oghavati.

ततोऽब्रवीत्सुरपतिः किमर्थं तथ्यते तपः।
जगत्कोभकरं विप्रं तच्छीघ्रं कथ्यतां मम॥४१॥

God Śaṅkara said to him- O Brahmin! Tell me that why are you doing penance to the extent that this entire world is excited.

उशना उवाच

तवाराधनकामार्थं तथ्यते हि महत्तपः।
संजीविनीं शुभा विद्यां ज्ञातुमिच्छे त्रिलोचनम्॥४२॥

Uśanā said- "I am observing the great penance with a desire to worship you. O three eyed god! I want to know the benevolent Sañjīvani learning.

हर उवाच

तपसा परितुष्टोऽस्मि सुतसेन तपोधन।
तस्मात् संजीविनीं विद्या भवान् ज्ञास्यति
तत्त्वतः॥४३॥

Mahādeva said- O ascetic! I am happy to see the penance so properly observed by you. Hence, you will know Sanjīvani learning with its original and real form.

वरं लब्ध्वा ततः शुक्रस्तपसः संन्यवर्त्तत।
तथापि चलते पृथ्वी सात्प्रियभूषणगावृता॥४४॥

Sukra then did over his penance. The earth consisting of sea, mountain, tree etc. was still shivering.

ततोऽगम्यमहादेवः सप्तसारस्वतं शुचि।
ददर्श नृत्यमानं च ऋषिं मङ्गणसंज्ञितम्॥४५॥

Then the sacrosanct Mahādeva went to Saptasārasvata. He saw there Maṅkaṇa, a hermit dancing.

भावेन पोष्ण्यति बालवत् स
भुजौ प्रसार्यैव ननर्त वेगात्।

तस्यैव वेगेन समाहता तु
च्चालं भूर्भूमिधरैः सहैव॥४६॥

He was dancing like a child innocently and forgetting everything. His hands were spread wide and he was jumping on heels. The rhythm of dance was so splendid that the earth was shivering with mountains.

तं शंकरोऽस्येत्य करे निगृह्ण
प्रोवाच वाक्यं प्रहसन् महर्षे।
किं भावितो नृत्यसि केन हेतुना

Śaṅkara accessed to him, caught his hand and said with smile on lips- O hermit! Why and for what purpose are you dancing? Please, tell me that why are you so happy?

स ब्राह्मणः प्राह ममाद्य तुष्टि-
येनेह जाता शृणु तद्विजेन्द्र।
बहून् गणान् वै मम तथ्यतस्तपः
संवत्सरा: कार्यविशेषणार्थम्॥४८॥

That Brahmin said- O great Dvija! Listen to all that pleases me. A number of years passed to the penance I observed in order to bring down my body.

ततोऽनु पश्यामि करात् क्षतोत्यं
निर्गच्छते शाकरसं ममेह।
तेनाद्य तुष्टोऽस्मि भृशं द्विजेन्द्र
येनास्मि नृत्यामि सुभावितात्मा॥४९॥

I see now that the injured part of my hand is pouring with vegetable juice. This has pleased me and it is the sole reason for my intoxicated dance in exhilaration.

तं प्राह शंभुद्विजं पश्य महं
भस्मं प्रवृत्तोऽङ्गुलितोऽतिशुक्लम्।

Sambhu said to him- O Dvija! Look at me. A white ash is coming out from my finger when I hit here. Yet I am not so happy. You have definitely become mad.

श्रुत्वाऽथ वाक्यं वृषभध्वजस्य
मत्ता मुनिर्मङ्गणको महर्षे।
नृत्यं परित्यज्य सुविस्मितोऽथ

O great hermit! Mañkaṇaka stopped dancing when he heard Śaṅkara. He surprised enough and bowed to his feet very humbly.

तमाह शंभुद्विज गच्छ लोकं

इदं च तीर्थं प्रवरं पृथिव्यां

Sambhu said to him- O Dvija! Go to the inaccessible abode of Brahmā. This holiest place will pour with the fruits analogous to Pṛthūdaka.

On being said by Mahādeva, the austere Mañkaṇaka installed an icon at Kurukṣetra and went to abode of Brahma.

The earth got stability when the hermit Mañkaṇaka went to the abode of Brahmā. Mahādeva too returned at his sacred residence on Mandara mountain.

Chapter 63

The story of king Daṇḍaka

नारद उवाच

गतोऽधकस्तु पाताले किमचेष्टत दानवः।
शंकरो मन्दरस्थोऽपि यद्यकार तदुच्यताम्॥ १॥

Nārada said- What did Andhaka, the monster do in nether? Further tell that what did Mahādeva do while living on Mandara mountain?

पुलस्य उवाच

पातालस्थोऽध्यको ब्रह्मन् बाध्यते मदनाग्निना।
संतसविग्रहः सर्वान् दानवानिदमब्रवीत्॥ २॥

Pulastyā said- O Brāhmaṇa! Andhaka felt excess lust while he was living at nether world. His body was excited. He said to all monsters.

स मे सुहत्स मे बन्धुः स भ्राता स पिता मम।
यस्तामदिसुतां शीघ्रं मपान्तिकमुपानयेत्॥ ३॥

He is my true friend, sibling, brother and father who will bring that mountain's daughter to me.

एवं ब्रुवति दैत्येन्द्रे अस्यके मदनान्थके।
मेघगण्डीरनिर्दोषं प्रह्लादो वाक्यमब्रवीत्॥ ४॥

When the monster said these words, Prahlāda became serious and said-

येयं गिरिसुता वीर सा माता धर्मतस्तव।
पिता त्रिनयने देवः श्रूयतामप्त्र कारणम्॥ ५॥

O warrior! The daughter of mountain is your mother by religion and three-eyed Śaṅkara is your father. Listen to the reason for this-

तव पित्रा ह्यपुत्रेण धर्मनित्येन दानव।
आराधितो महादेवः पुत्रार्थाय पुरा किल॥ ६॥

O monster! Your father was religion abiding but issueless. He therefore, did a firm penance long ago for the pleasure of god Śiva.

तस्मै त्रिलोचनेनासीद्वतोऽस्योऽप्येव दानवः।
पुत्रकः पुत्रकामस्य प्रोक्त्वेत्यं वदनं विभो॥ ७॥

O monster! The three eyed god gave him a blind son and said-

नेत्रत्रयं हिरण्याक्षं नर्मर्थमुमया मम।
पिहितं योगसंस्थस्य ततोऽध्वमभवत्तमः॥ ८॥

O Hiranyākṣa! One day Umā had closed my three eyes just for merriment when I was in meditation. It originated Tama in the form of darkness.

तस्माच्च तमसो जातो भूतो नीलघनस्वनः।
तदिदं गृह्णतां दैत्यं तवौपयिकमात्मजम्॥ ९॥

An organism thundering like cloud was born from that darkness. His complexion too was blue like cloud. O monster! Receive it. It is an appropriate son for you.

यदा तु लोकविद्विष्टं दुष्टं कर्म करिष्यति।
त्रैलोक्यजननीं चापि अभिवाञ्छिष्यतेऽधमः॥ १०॥

धातयिष्यति वा विप्रं यदा प्रक्षिप्य चासुरान्।
तदाऽस्य स्वयमेवाहं करिष्ये कायशोधनम्॥ ११॥

When this mean-child will do wicked activities, fall in affection for Pārvatī or kill the Brahmins by sending monsters, I myself will do purification of his body.

एवमुक्त्वा गतः शंभुः स्वस्थानं मन्दराचलम्।
त्विपिताऽपि समव्यागात्वामादाय रसातलम्॥ १२॥

Śambhu went to Mandarācala with these words and your father also came to netherland with you.

एतेन कारणेनाम्बा शैलेयी भविता तव।
सर्वस्यापीह जगतो गुरुः शंभुः पिता ध्रुवम्॥ १३॥

Hence, mountain's daughter is your mother and Śambhu, the preceptor to entire world is your father.

भवानपि तपोयुक्तः शास्त्रवेत्ता गुणाप्लुतः।
नेदृशे पापसंकल्पे मतिं कुर्याद्वद्वद्विधः॥ १४॥

You are acetic, known to Śāstras and enriched with a number of strange qualities. Hence, the man like you should not indulge your mind in such evil some acts.

त्रैलोक्यप्रभुरव्यक्तो भवः सर्वैर्नमस्कृतः।
अजेयस्तस्य भार्येयं न त्वमर्हेऽमरादन॥ १५॥

O enemy of gods! In expressive Śiva is the ruler of three worlds. You should not even think of any affection for his life.

न चापि शक्तः प्रासुं ता भवावृशैलनृपात्मजाम्।
अजित्वा सगणं रुद्रं स च कामोऽथ दुर्लभः॥ १६॥

You cannot receive that mountain's daughter without giving defeat to Śaṅkara including his gaṇas. Hence, your such desire is rare and impossible.

यस्तरेत्सागरं दोर्ध्या पातयेद्गुवि भास्करम्।
मेरुमुत्पाटयेद्वापि स जयेच्छूलपाणिनम्॥ १७॥

Only a man capable to cross the sea by swimming or knock down sun on the ground or root out the Meru mountain can conquer Śaṅkara.

उत्ताहेस्विदिमां शक्याः क्रियां कर्तुं नरैर्बलात्।
न च शक्यो हरो जेतुं सत्यं सत्यं पयोदितम्॥ १८॥

Or the above-said works can be done with manpower but Śaṅkara still is undefeated. I have said this all solemnly.

किं त्वया न श्रुतं दैत्यं यथा दण्डो महीपतिः।
परस्त्रीकामवान् मूढः सराष्ट्रो नाशमासवान्॥ १९॥

O monster! Have you not listen that the idiot king Daṇḍa was ruined with his state as he once wished to do courtship with other's wife?

आसीहण्डो नाम नृपः प्रभूतबलवाहनः।
स च वदे महातेजाः पौरोहित्याय भार्गवम्॥ २०॥

A king, daṇḍa had a large army and carriers (vāhanas). He appointed Śukrācārya as his priest (Purohita).

ईजे च विविधैर्यज्ञैर्नृपतिः शुक्रपालितः।
शुक्रस्यासीघ्रं दुहिता अरजा नाम नामतः॥ २१॥

The king performed a number of yajñas under super vision of Śukrācārya. Śukrācārya had a daughter Arajā.

शुक्रः कदाचिदगमद् वृषपर्वाणिमासुरम्।
तेनार्चितश्चिरं तत्र तस्यौ भार्गवसत्तमः॥ २२॥

Śukrācārya once had gone to Vṛṣaparvā. Bhārgava stayed there for several period there when he required so to him.

अरजा: स्वगृहे वह्नि शुश्रूषन्ती महासुर।
अतिष्ठत सुचार्वद्वी ततोऽभ्यागान्नराधिपः॥ २३॥

O great monster! The beautiful Arajā was at her home serving the fire. Once that king visited there.

स प्रच्छ वव शुक्रोति तमूचुः परिचारिकाः।
गतः स भगवान् शुक्रो याजनाय दनोः सुतम्॥ २४॥

He asked- where is Śukrācārya? The home-maids replied- he had gone to arrange yajña at Danunandana.

प्रच्छ नृपतिः का तु तिष्ठते भार्गवाश्रमे।
तास्तपूचुरुरोः पुत्री संतिष्ठत्यरजा नृप॥ २५॥

The king asked- whether any female is in the āśrama of Bhārgava? They replied- O king! Arajā, the daughter of preceptor is there.

तामाश्रमे शुक्रसुतां द्रष्टुमिक्ष्वाकुनन्दनः।
प्रविवेश महाबाहुर्ददर्शारजसं ततः॥ २६॥

The chivalrous Ikṣvāku's son entered into āśrama to see that daughter and saw Arajā.

तां दृष्ट्वा कामसंतप्तसत्क्षणादेव पार्थिवः।
संजातोऽन्यक दण्डसु कृतान्तबलचोदितः॥ २७॥

O Andhaka! On account of the shadow of event, the king motivated and become passionate to see her.

ततो विसर्जयामास भृत्यान् भ्रातृन् सुहल्तमान्।
शुक्रशिष्यानपि बली एकाकी पृष्ठ आव्रजत्॥ २८॥

The mighty king removed all maids, brothers, intimate friends and the disciples of Śukrācārya from there and entered lonely at her room.

तपागतं शुक्रसुता प्रत्यत्याय यशस्विनी।
पूजयामास संहष्टा भ्रातृभावेन दानव॥ २९॥

The illustrious daughter of Śukra honoured that king as her brother happily.

ततस्तामाह नृपतिर्बाले कामान्तिपितम्।
मां समाहादयस्वाद्य स्वपरिष्वङ्घवारिणा॥ ३०॥

The king said to her- O virgin! I am badly burning in the fire of lust. Satiate me with water of embrace today.

साऽपि प्राह नरश्रेष्ठ मा विनीनश आतुरः।
पिता मम महाक्रोधात् त्रिदशानपि निर्देहेत्॥ ३१॥

Arajā said- O great king! Don't destroy yourself under gimmick of lust. My father can even burn into ash the gods too.

मूढबुद्धे भवाभ्याता ममापि त्वनयाप्लुतः।
भगिनी धर्मतस्तेऽहं भवाजिष्यः पितुर्मम॥ ३२॥

O idiot! You are my brother but presently, affection has made you blind. I am your sister by religion because you are the disciple of my father.

सोऽद्वीद्वीरु मां शुक्रः कालेन परिष्वस्ति।

कामाग्निर्निर्दहति मामदौव तनुपथ्यमे॥ ३३॥

That Dandaka said- O coward! Śukra will burn and anytime in future but O thin loin beauty! The fire of lust is burning my body presently.

सा प्राह दण्डं नृपतिं मुहूर्तं परिपालय।

तमेव याचस्व गुरुं स ते दास्यत्यसंशयम्॥ ३४॥

Araja said to Danda- O king! Wait just for a muhūrta (four hours). Ask your preceptor and I think, he will definitely offer me to you.

दण्डोऽब्रवीत्सुतन्वङ्गिः कालक्षेपो न मे क्षमः।

च्युतावसरकर्तृत्वे विघ्नो जायेत सुन्दरिः॥ ३५॥

Danda said- "O beautiful virgin! I am unable to see for more time. The work meets to hurdle if opportunity is once lost."

ततोऽब्रवीय विरजा नाहं त्वां पार्श्विवात्पज।

दातुं शक्ता स्वात्मानं स्वतन्त्रता न हि योषितः॥ ३६॥

Araja replied- O king! I am unable to surrender myself to you as the women are never free to take such decision.

किं वा ते बहुनोक्तेन मा त्वं नाशं नराधिप।

गच्छस्व शुक्रशापेन सभृत्यज्ञतिबाच्यवः॥ ३७॥

O king! It is no use of saying anything excess. Don't ruin your servants, family and near and dears due to curse of Śukrācārya.

ततोऽब्रवीत्त्रपतिः सुतनु शृणु चेष्टितम्।

चित्राङ्गदाया यद् वृत्तं पुरा देवयुगे शुभेः॥ ३८॥

The king replied- O beautiful virgin! Listen to an episode on Citrāngadā which took place long ago during Devayuga'.

विश्वकर्मसुता साख्वी नामा चित्राङ्गदाऽभवत्।

रूपयौवनसंपन्ना पद्महीनेव पद्मिनी॥ ३९॥

Viśvakarmā had a celibate virgin Citrāngadā. She was most beautiful, in youth and appeared as Padminī without Padma.

सा कदाचिन्महारणं सखीभिः परिवारिता।

जगाम नैमिषं नाम स्नातुं कमललोचना॥ ४०॥

That lotus eyed virgin went one day with her girl-friends for bath in a dense forest Naimiṣā.

सा स्नातुमवतीर्णा च अथाभ्यागान्नरेश्वरः।

सुदेवतनयो धीमान्सुरथो नाम नामतः।

ता दर्दश च तन्वङ्गीं शुभाङ्गो मदनातुरः॥ ४१॥

She descended into water for bath. In the meantime, the wise king Suratha, the son of Sudeva reached there. He filled with lust when he saw that virgin.

तं दृष्ट्वा सा सखीराह वचनं सत्त्वसंयुतम्।

असौ नराधिपसुतो मदनेन कदर्शते॥ ४२॥

मदर्थे च क्षमं मेऽस्य स्वप्रदानं सुरूपिणः।

सख्यस्तामबृवन् बाला न प्रगल्भाऽसि सुन्दरिः॥ ४३॥

Citrāngadā told her friends when she saw Suratha- "that prince is feeling appeal for me." It is therefore, good to offer myself to satiate him as he is of beautiful complexion. The friends suggested- "O beautiful virgin! You are still intact and not free to do this."

अस्वातन्त्र्यं तवास्तीह प्रदाने स्वात्मनोऽनघे।

पिता तवास्ति धर्मिष्ठः सर्वशिल्पविशारदः॥ ४४॥

O innocent virgin! You are not independent to surrender yourself as your father is most religious and expert in all crafts.

न ते युक्तमिहात्मानं दातुं नरपतेः स्वयम्।

एतस्मिन्नन्तरे राजा सुरथः सत्यवाकः सुधीः॥ ४५॥

समर्थेत्याऽब्रवीदेनां कन्दर्पशरपीडितः।

त्वं मुख्ये मोहयसि मां दृष्ट्यैव मदिरेक्षणे॥ ४६॥

Hence, it is not good for you to surrender here before the prince. In the meantime the wise and truthful Suratha came to them and said- O enchanting beauty! O intoxicated girl! I am just enticed on mere a sight at your face.

त्वदृष्टिशरणातेन स्मरेणाभ्येत्य ताडितः।

तन्मां कुचतले तत्प्ये अभिशायितुमर्हसि॥ ४७॥

The cupid has pierced me with the arrow of your glances. Hence, allow me to rest on the bed of your breasts.

नो चेत् प्रथक्ष्यते कामो भूयो भूयोऽतिदर्शनात्।

ततः सा चारुसर्वाङ्गी राजा राजीवलोचना॥ ४८॥

1. The age of the gods, the first age of the world (krita),

वार्यमाणा सखीभिस्तु प्रादादात्मानमात्मना।
एवं पुरा तया तन्या परित्रातः स भूपतिः॥४९॥

Otherwise the sensuality will burn me if I gaze at you frequently. That lotus eyed beautiful virgin had then offered her to the king without taking in notice the words of her mates. Thus, that thin loin girl had satiated that king.

तस्मात्त्वमपि सुश्रोणि मां परित्रातुर्महसि।
अरजस्काऽब्रवीद्धण्डं तस्या यद् वृत्तमुत्तरम्॥५०॥
किं त्वया न परिज्ञातं तस्मात् ते कथयाप्यहम्।

आत्मा प्रदत्तस्तस्माद्विन न विवाहो भविष्यति।
विवाहरहिता नैव सुखं लस्यसि भर्तुतः॥५३॥

Hence, O girl of beautiful buttocks! You too defend me. Arajā, the daughter of Śukra said to the king Daṇḍa- whether you do not aware of its consequence? Hence, I warn you. When that youth lady offered her to Suratha, her father had cursed her. O idiot girl! You have crossed all limits made for womanhood and offered her for sex. You would have to pass your rest of life without marriage. Thus, you will not enjoy the pleasure of husband throughout your life.

न च पुत्रफलं नैव पतिना योगमेष्यसि।
उत्सृष्टमात्रे शापे तु ह्यापोवाह सरस्वती॥५४॥
अकृतार्थं नरपतिं योजनानि त्रयोदशा।
अपकृष्टे नरपतौ साऽपि मोहमुपागता॥५५॥

You shall neither bless with son nor enjoy courtship with husband when this curse was over, the river Sarasvatī swept the king up to a distance of thirteen yojana. She too fainted when the king so swept away.

ततस्ताः सिष्ठिः सख्यः सरस्वत्या जलेन हि।

The girl-mates then sprinkled water of Sarasvatī river on her face. The coldest water turned the body of Citrāṅgadā into unconscious state. They thought that she is dead. So, they went to forest for collecting woods to make her pyre. When they all were out, she regained conscious and saw around. When she did not see the king and her mates, she fell down in Sarasvatī river. O king! The river Sarasvatī threw her on the curvy waves of Gomatī. The great river Gomatī too threw her in a dense forest filled with lions and tiger. I have thus, heard the consequence of such surrender as made by her independently before the king.

तस्मान्न दास्याम्यात्मानं रक्षन्ती शीलमुत्तमम्।
तस्यास्तद्वचनं श्रुत्वा दण्डः शक्रसमो बली।

I shall therefore, not surrender myself to you. The king Daṇḍa who was as mighty as Indra himself laughed and rebutted the sense expressed by Arajā.

दण्ड उवाच

तस्या यदुत्तरं वृत्तं तत्पितुश्च कृशोदरि।
सुरथस्य तथा राज्ञस्तच्छ्रेतुं मतिमादधा॥६४॥

Daṇḍa said- O thin loin beauty! Listen to the events taken place later-on with the king Suratha and the father of Citrāṅgadā.

यदाऽवकृष्टे नृपतौ पतिता सा महावने।
तदा गगनसंचारी दृष्टवान् गुह्यकोऽज्जनः॥६५॥

When she fell in a dense forest and bereaved of the king so swept away, a Guhyaka Añjana saw her when he was moving through the sky route.

ततः सोऽभ्येत्य तां बालां परिसान्त्व्य प्रयत्नतः।
प्राह मा गच्छ सुभगे विषादं सुरथं प्रति॥६६॥

He then went to the virgin, consoled her anyhow and said- O Subhage! Don't wail for Suratha.

द्वृक्मेष्यसि तेन त्वं संयोगमसितेक्षणे।
तस्माद्रच्छस्व शीघ्रं त्वं दुष्टं श्रीकण्ठमीश्वरम्॥६७॥

O black eyed girl! You will definitely see him. Go as early as possible to see god Śrī Kanṭha.

इत्येवमुक्ता सा तेन गुह्यकेन सुलोचना।
श्रीकण्ठमागता तूर्णं कालिन्द्या दक्षिणे तटे॥६८॥

That beautiful eyed virgin! Went shortly at southern bank of Yamunā river where Śrī Kanṭha's temple was situated.

दृष्टा महेशं श्रीकण्ठं स्नात्वा रविसुताजले।
अतिष्ठत शिरोनम्ना यावन्मध्यस्थितो रविः॥६९॥

She took bath in the water of Yamunā, saw Maheśvara Śrī Kanṭha and bowed her head from morning till noon.

अथाजगाम देवस्य स्नानं कर्तुं तपोषनः।
शुभः पाशुपताचार्यः सामवेदी ऋतुष्वजः॥७०॥

In the meantime, Rādhvaja came Śrī Kanṭha for bath. He was meritorious, Pāśupatācārya, Sāmavedi and austere.

ददर्श तत्र तन्वङ्गी मुनिश्चित्राङ्गदां शुभाम्।
रत्नमिव स्थितां पुण्यामनङ्गपरिवर्जिताम्॥७१॥

Then the sage saw the slender-bodied beautiful lady lying as if she was the virtuous Rati abandoned by her cupid Kāmadeva.

तां दृष्टा स मुनिष्ठानमगमत् केयमित्युता।
अथ सा तमृषि वन्द्य कृताञ्जलिरुपस्थिता॥७२॥

That sage stressed on his mind to recollect data if he ever saw her. She came to him, bowed on his feet and then stood with folded hands before him.

तां प्राह पुत्रि कस्यासि सुता सुरसुतोपमा।
किर्मध्यमागताऽसीह निर्मनुष्यमृगे वने॥७३॥

The hermit asked her- O daughter! Who is your father? You appear as divine damsels. Tell me, why have you come in this deserted (without animals and human beings)?

ततः सा प्राह तमृषि याथा तथ्यं कृशोदरी।
श्रुत्वार्षिः कोपमगमदशपच्छिल्पिनां वरम्॥७४॥

That beautiful girl then submitted true reported about her. The sage became furious on hearing it and cursed on Viśvakarmā, the best craftsman of heaven.

यस्मात् स्वतनुजातेयं परदेयाऽपि पापिना।
योजिता नैव पतिना तस्माच्छाखापृगोऽस्तु सः॥७५॥

As that sinner has closed the doors of even the another husband for his daughter by curse so severally. May! He turn into the body of a monkey.

इत्युक्त्वा स महायोगी भूयः स्नात्वा विधानतः।
उपास्य पश्चिमां संध्यां पूजयामास शंकरम्॥७६॥

That Mahāyogi then took bath again, observed sandhyā facing west and worshipped the god Śaṅkara.

संपूर्ज्य देवदेवेशं यथोक्तविधिना हरम्।
उवाचागम्यतां सुशृं रुदन्तीं पतिलालसाम्॥७७॥

When the worship as prescribed is scripture was over, he said to Cītrāngadā who was desirous of husband and had beautiful brows and teeth.

गच्छस्व सुभगे देशं सप्तगोदावरं शुभम्।
तत्रोपास्य महादेवं महानं हाटकेश्वरम्॥७८॥

O Subhage! Go at the country known as Saptagodāvara worship Hāṭakeśvara Mahādeva there and reside.

तत्र स्थिताया रम्भोरु ख्याता देववती शुभा।
आगमिष्यति दैत्यस्य पुत्री कन्दरपालिनः॥७९॥

O Rambhoru! A meritorious girl Devavatī, the daughter of demon Kandaramālī will come to see you during your stay there.

तथाऽन्या गुह्यकसुता नन्दयन्तीति किञ्चुता।
अङ्गनस्यापि तत्रापि समेष्वति तपस्त्विनी।
तथाऽपरा वेदवती पर्जन्यदुहिता शुभा॥८०॥

Besides this, Nandayantī, an austere girl of Añjana Guhyaka and Kalyāñī, the daughter of Vedavatī, the cloud will also come there.

यदा तिस्तः समेष्वन्ति सप्तगोदावरे जले।
हाटकाख्ये महादेवे तदा संयोगमेष्वसि॥८१॥

When these three will come at Hāṭakeśvara in Saptagodāvara, you will meet with them.

इत्येवमुक्ता मुनिना बाला चित्राङ्गदा तदा।
सप्तगोदावरं तीर्थमगमत्वरिता ततः॥८२॥

The virgin Citrāṅgadā followed the words of that sage and immediately visited at Saptagodāvara, the holy place.

संप्राप्य तत्र देवेशं पूजयन्ती त्रिलोचनम्।
समध्यास्ते शुचिपरा फलपूलाशनाऽभवत्॥८३॥

She made a strict routine of observing worshipped to god Śaṅkara, she lived on the wild fruits and roots and observed the celibacy.

स चर्षिर्जनसंपन्नः श्रीकण्ठायतनेऽलिखत्।
श्लोकमेकं महाख्यानं तस्याश्च प्रियकाम्यया॥८४॥

That scholar sage inscribed a hymn from a great episode in Śrī Kañtha temple keeping in mind her all good.

न सोस्ति कान्त् त्रिदशोऽसुरो वा।
यक्षोऽथ मर्त्यो रजनीचरो वा।
इदं हि दुःखं मृगशावनेत्रा।
निमार्जयेद्यः स्वपराक्रमेण॥८५॥

Here is no gods, monsters, yakṣas, men and demons who can defend a stag-eyed virgin through his valour.

इत्येवमुक्त्वा स मुनिर्जगाम।
दद्वुं विभुं पुष्करनाथपीडयम्।
नन्दीं पयोष्णीं मुनिवृद्वन्द्यां।
संचिन्तयन्नेव विशालनेनाम्॥८६॥

Having done this, that sage again thought about that stag-eyed girl and then went at the bank of Payoṣṇī river duly appreciated by sages in order to see the sovereign god Puṣkaranātha.

Chapter 64

Liberation of Jābāli

दण्ड उवाच-

चित्राङ्गदायास्त्वरजे तत्र सत्या यथासुखम्।
स्मरन्त्याः सुरथं वीरं महान्कालः सप्तभ्यगात्॥ १॥

Danḍa said- O Arajā! Citrāṅgadā caused lapse of longer period there with memory of chivalrous Suratha in her mind.

विश्वकर्माऽपि मुनिना शासो वानरतां गतः।
न्यपतन्मेसशिखराद्बृष्टं विधिनोदितः॥ २॥

Viśvakarmā cursed by the sage had to become monkey. On account of the force of eventuality he came down on the earth from the high ridge of Meru mountain.

वनं धोरं सुगुल्माद्यं नदीं शालूकिनीमनु।
शाल्वेयं पर्वतश्रेष्ठं समावसति सुन्दरि॥ ३॥

O beautiful virgin! He began to live on the best mountain Śālveya surrounded by dreadful forest near the river Śālukini.

तत्रासतोऽस्य सुचिरं फलमूलान्यथाश्नतः।
कालोऽत्यगाद्वरारोहे बहुवर्षगणो वने॥ ४॥

O beautiful lady! “He passed several years in that forest and lived on wild fruits and roots.”

एकदा दैत्यशार्दूलः कन्दराख्यः सुतां प्रियाम्।
प्रतिगृह्ण सप्तभ्यागात्भ्यातां देववतीमिति॥ ५॥

Once upon a time, a demon named Kandara, came there with his dear daughter Devavatī.

तां च तद्वनमायन्तीं समं पित्रा वराननाम्।
ददर्श वानरश्रेष्ठः प्रजग्राह बलात्करे॥ ६॥

The foremost among monkeys saw Devavatī coming to the forest with his father and caught his hand forcibly.

ततो गृहीतां कपिना स दैत्यः स्वसुतां शुभे।
कन्दरो वीक्ष्य संकुद्धः खड्गमुद्यम्य चाद्रवत्॥७॥

O virtuous one, when the demon Kandara saw her daughter gripped by monkey, he picked up sword and chased him.

तमापतत्तं दैत्येन्द्रं दृष्ट्वा शाखामृगो बली।
तथैव सह चार्वद्वया हिमाचलमुपागमतः॥८॥

The mighty monkey fled to the Himālayas with that beautiful-bodied lady when he saw the lord of demons forwarding.

ददर्श च महादेवं श्रीकण्ठं यमुनातटे।
तस्याविद्वे गहनमाश्रमं ऋषिवर्जितम्॥९॥

He saw Mahādeva Śrīkaṇṭha on the bank of Yamunā and a huge āśrama (hermitage) but without any sage there.

तस्मिन्महाश्रमे पुण्ये स्थाप्य देववतीं कपिः।
न्यमज्जत स कालिन्द्यां पश्यतो दानवस्य हि॥१०॥

He kept Devavatī at that sacred āśrama and dived into the Kālindi (Yamunā) water. Kandara saw this scene with his eyes.

सोऽजानत् तां पृतां पुत्रीं समं शाखामृगेण हि।
जगाम च महातेजाः पातालं निलयं निजम्॥११॥

Kandara guessed of the death of his daughter with that monkey by drowning in Yamunā. He therefore, returned to his state, the nether world.

स चापि वानरो देव्या कालिन्द्या वेगतो हतः।
नीतः शिरीति विख्यातं देशं शुभजनावृतम्॥१२॥

Goddess Kālindi took with her waves that monkey to the land called Śivi and full of virtuous people.

ततस्तीत्वाऽथ वेगेन स कपिः पर्वतं प्रति।
गन्तुकामो महातेजा यत्र न्यस्ता सुलोचना॥१३॥

The monkey then crossed that river and intended to return to the mountain where that beautiful eyed girl was kept by him.

अथापश्यत् समायान्तमञ्जनं गुहाकोत्तमम्।

नन्दयन्त्या समं पुत्रा गत्वा जिगमिषुः कपिः॥१४॥

He then saw the best of the Yakṣas, named Añjana who was coming with his daughter Nandayantī.

तां दृष्ट्वाऽमन्यत श्रीमास्येयं देववती द्वृकम्।
तन्मे वृथा श्रमो जातो जलमज्जनसंभवः॥१५॥

The monkey confused of her for Devavatī and thought that his endeavour to sink on river has perhaps gone waste.

इति सचिन्तयन्नेव समाद्रवत सुन्दरीम्।
सा तद्वयाद्य न्यपतन्नदीं चैव हिरण्वतीम्॥१६॥

Than that monkey rushed towards her. In a sheer fright, that beautiful lady fell into the river Hiraṇvatī.

गुह्यको वीक्ष्य तनयां पतितामापगाजले।
दुःखशोकसमाक्रान्तो जगामाञ्जनपर्वतम्॥१७॥

When Guhyaka (Yakṣa) saw his daughter drown into river, he was shocked with sorrow and grief and went back to the Añjana mountain.

तत्रासौ तप आस्थाय मौनव्रतधरः शुचिः।
समाप्ते वै महातेजाः संवत्सरगणान्बहून्॥१८॥

That great man (Guhyaka) sat on penance for several years. He observed purity and silence.

नन्दयन्त्यपि वेगेन हिरण्वत्याऽपवाहिता।
नीता देशं महापुण्यं कोशलं साधुभिर्युतम्॥१९॥

The river Hiraṇvatī took with her waves Nandayantī to holiest Kośala country inhabited by saints and gentlemen.

गच्छन्ती सा च सदती ददृशे वटपादम्।
प्रोहप्रावृततनुं जटाधरमिवेश्वरम्॥२०॥

She was weeping bitterly as she strolled about, and then saw a banyan tree. That banyan was with a number of airy roots like Maheśvara's matted hair.

तं दृष्ट्वा विपुलच्छायं विशश्राम वरानना।
उपविष्टा शिलापट्टे ततो वाचं प्रशुश्रवे�॥२१॥

That beautiful virgin sat on a stone lying under the dense shadow of that tree. She then heard a speech.

न सोऽस्ति पुरुषः कश्चिद्यस्तं बूयात्तपोद्धनम्।
यथा सतनयस्तुभ्यमुद्भूते वटपादपे॥ २२॥

'Alas' there is any person here who can report R̥tadhvaja that his son is fastened with this banyan tree.

सा श्रुत्वा तां तदा वाणीं विस्पष्टाक्षरसंयुताम्।
तिर्यगूर्ध्वमध्यैव समन्तादवलोकयन्॥ २३॥

She looked here and there all around to find the man so explaining because that voice was clear and precise.

ददृशे वृक्षशिखरे शिंशुं पञ्चाल्बिकं स्थितम्।
पिङ्गलाभिर्जटाभिसतु उद्धर्द्धं यत्नतः शुभ्रे॥ २४॥

O virtuous lady! she saw a five year old child at the top of that tree. He was duly fastened by the aerial roots of banyan.

तं विगृहनं दृष्टैव नन्दयन्ती सुदुःखिता।
प्राह केनासि बद्धस्त्वं पापिना वद बालक॥ २५॥

Nandyanati became sad and addressed that speaker- "O child! Tell me that who is the sinner of fastening you in this manner?

सतामाह महाभागे बद्धोऽस्मि कपिना वटे।
जटास्वेवं सुदुष्टेन जीवामि तपसो बलात्॥ २६॥

That infant replied- O great lady! A wicked monkey has fastened me with aerial roots here. I am living on the power of my penance.

पुरोन् मत्तपुरेत्येव तत्र देवो महेश्वरः।
तत्रास्ति तपसो राशिः पिता मम ऋत्वजः॥ २७॥

During long past, god Maheśvara dwelled at a place called Puronmattapurā. My father R̥tadhvaja used to be there. He was austere.

तस्यास्मि जपमानस्य महायोगं महात्मनः।
जातोऽलिवृद्धसंयुक्तः सर्वशास्त्रविशारदः॥ २८॥

When that exhalted self was contemplating a deep meditation, I was born, proficient in all the scriptures and attended by a row of bees.

ततो मामब्रवीत्तातो नामकृत्वा शुभानने।
जाबालीति परिख्याय तच्छणुष्व शुभानने॥ २९॥

O good complexion virgin! My father addressed me as Jābali and listen to what he was said to me.

पञ्चवर्षसहस्राणि बाल एव भविष्यसि।
दशवर्षसहस्राणि कुमारत्वे चरिष्यसि॥ ३०॥

He said- you shall remain a boy for five thousand years and Kumāra (youth) for ten thousand years thereafter.

विंशति यौवनस्थायी वीर्येण द्विगुणं ततः।
पञ्चवर्षशतान् बालो भोक्ष्यसे बन्धनं दृढम्॥ ३१॥

You will enjoy manhood for twenty thousand years and shall pass old age just double to that period. Five hundred years of your childhood shall pass in firm bondage.

दशवर्षशतान्येव कौमारे कायपीडनम्।
यौवने परमान् भोगाद्विसहस्रसमास्तथा॥ ३२॥

You shall suffer from physical pains during teenage upto ten thousand years and you will enjoy the supreme pleasures upto two thousand years during manhood.

चत्वारिंशत्तान्येव वार्धके वलेशमुत्तमम्।
लप्यसे भूमिशत्याद्यं कदनाशनभोजनम्॥ ३३॥

During forty thousand years of old age, you shall have to suffer severe pains. You shall be compelled to lie on ground and eat coarse food.

इत्येवमुक्तः पित्राऽहं बालः पञ्चाल्बदेशिकः।
विचारामि महोपृष्ठं गच्छन् सातुं हिरण्वतीम्॥ ३४॥

When the statement of my father was over, I was at the age of five years walking on earth to see and bath at the river Hiraṇyatī.

ततोऽपश्यं कपिवरं सोऽवदन्मां बत्र यास्यसि।
इप्ता देववतीं गृहा मूढं न्यस्तां महाश्रम्ये॥ ३५॥

I saw a monkey on the way. He said to me- O foolish fellow! "Where are you going with Devavati, kept by me in this great āśrama?"

ततोऽसौ मां समादाय विस्फुरनं प्रयत्नतः।
वटाग्रेऽस्मिन्नुद्बन्ध जटाभिरपि सुन्दरि॥ ३६॥

Then, O beautiful lady! He caught me and tied me to the top of this banyan tree by my matted hair. I was shivering that time with fear.

तथा च रक्षा कपिना कृता भीरु निरन्तरैः।
लतापाशैर्महायन्नप्रधस्ताद् दुष्टबुद्धिना॥ ३७॥

O delicate lady! That wicked monkey made a cage by using several creepers as cord, kept me beneath and restrained me continuously.

अभेद्योऽयमनाक्रम्य उपरिष्ठात्थाप्यथः।
दिशां मुखेषु सर्वेषु कृतं यन्त्रं लतामयम्॥ ३८॥

That cage made up of creepers was very strong from four sides and cannot be pierced even from up or down side.

संयम्य मां कपिवरः प्रयातोऽमरपर्वतम्।
यथेच्छया मया दृष्टमेतत्ते गदितं शुभे॥ ३९॥

That monkey thereafter voluntarily went at Amara mountain and I am here so fastened. O lady! I have told all that seen by me.

भवती का महारण्ये ललना परिवर्जिता।
समायाता सुचावङ्गी केन सार्थेन मां वद॥ ४०॥

O beautiful virgin! Tell me that who are you and have come with whom in this dreadful forest?

साऽब्रवीदङ्गो नाम गुह्यकेन्द्रः पिता मम।
नन्दयन्तीति मे नाम प्रम्लोचार्गभसंभवा॥ ४१॥

She replied! "Añjana, the lord of Yakṣas is my father. My name is Nandayantī. My mother is Pramlocā.

तत्र मे जातके प्रेक्षमृषिणा मुद्गलेन हि।
इयं नरेन्द्रमहिषी भविष्यति न संशयः॥ ४२॥

Mudgala, a great sage had predicted that this girl shall undoubtedly become a queen.

तद्वाक्यसमकालं च व्यनद् देवदुन्तुष्मिः।
शिवा चाशिवनिर्घोषा ततो भूयोऽब्रवीन्मुनिः॥ ४३॥

Celestial drums in heaven were piped just then and auspicious as well as inauspicious sounds were reported simultaneously. The sage again had declared :

न संदेहो नरपतेर्महाराज्ञी भविष्यति।
महान्तं संशयं घोरं कन्याभावे गमिष्यसि॥ ४४॥

There is no scope of doubt that this virgin will become the queen of a king. However, she will remain in a precarious condition during her maidenhood. The sage left that place with such wonderful statement.

ततो जगाम स ऋषिरेवमुक्त्वा वचोऽद्भुतम्।
पिता मामपि चादाय समागन्तुमथेच्छत॥ ४५॥

My father then wished once to visit at holy place with me. When we were on the way, a monkey sprang up from the bank of Hiranyatī.

तीर्थं ततो हिरण्वत्यास्तीरात् कपिरथोत्पत्तत्।
तद्वयाद्य मया ह्वात्मा क्षिसः सागरगाजले।
तथाऽस्मि देशमानीता इमं मानुषवर्जितम्॥ ४६॥

Due to fear I rushed but suddenly fell into the river. The river has carried me to this deserted land.

श्रुत्वा जाबालिरथं तद्वचनं वै तयोदितम्।
प्राह सुन्दरि गच्छस्व श्रीकण्ठं यमुनातटे॥ ४७॥

Jābāli heard this report and said- O nice lady! Go at Śrīkanṭha situated on the bank of Yamunā river.

तत्रागच्छति मध्याहे मत्पिता शिवमर्चितुम्।
तस्मै निवेदयात्मानं ततः श्रेयोऽधिलप्यसे॥ ४८॥

My father comes there to worship Śaṅkara exactly at noon. Report to him about you. You shall definitely receive bliss from him.

ततस्तु त्वरिता काले नन्दयन्ती तपोनिधिम्।
परित्राणार्थमगमद्विमाद्रेव्यमुनां नदीम्॥ ४९॥

Nandayantī then speedily started for a holy hermitage and reached at R̥tadhvaja, a holy place situated on the bank of Yamunā river in the Himādri for her defence.

सात्वदीर्घेण कालेन कन्दमूलफलाशना।
संप्राप्ता शंकरस्थानं यत्रागच्छति तापसः॥ ५०॥

She took the wild fruits and roots on the way and reached at that place of Śaṅkara where the ascetics used to visit daily in the noontime.

ततः सा देवदेवेशं श्रीकण्ठं लोकवन्दितम्।

प्रतिवन्द्य ततोऽपश्यदक्षरांस्तान्महामुने॥५१॥

O great sage! She then worshipped the god of gods Śrīkaṇṭha and looked at the words inscribed there.

तेषामर्थं हि विज्ञाय सा तदा चारुहासिनी।

तज्जाबाल्पुदितं श्लोकमलिख्यच्यान्यमात्मनः॥५२॥

Having understood the meaning of that hymn, that virgin inscribed the words spoken by Jābāli and one more hymn relating to her.

मुद्गलेनास्मि गदिता राजपत्नी भविष्यति।

सा चावस्थामिमां प्रासा कश्चिन्मां त्रातुमीश्वरः॥५३॥

The hermit Mudgala had once declared that I will become queen. But I am passing these days in such piteous condition. Whether there is any lord who could defend me?

इत्युल्लिख्य शिलापटे गता स्नातुं यमस्वसाम्।

ददृशे चाश्रमवरं मत्तकोक्तिनादितम्॥५४॥

She wrote this on a slab of stone and then descended in Yamunā for bath. She discovered there an attractive hermitage resonant with the sweet songs of cuckoo.

ततोऽमन्यत सात्रष्टिर्नूनं लिष्टिति सन्तमः।

इत्येवं चिन्तयन्ती सा संप्रविष्टा महाश्रमम्॥५५॥

She then fenced that the hermit definitely lives here. Guessing this in mind, she entered in that sacred āśrama.

ततो ददर्श देवाभां स्थितां देववतीं शुभाम्।

संशुष्कास्यां चलन्तेरां तु परिम्लानामिवाङ्गिनीम्॥५६॥

She then saw the virtuous Devavatī of divine lustre, with face emaciated and eyes moving like a withered lotus.

सा चापतन्ती ददृशे यक्षजां दैत्यनन्दिनी।

केयमित्येव संचिन्त्य समुत्थाय स्थितोऽभवत्॥५७॥

Devavatī saw the Yakṣa's daughter approaching her. She stood up thinking that "who is she."

ततोऽन्योन्यं समालिङ्ग्य गाढं गाढं सुहत्तया।

पप्रच्छतु स्थान्योऽन्यं कथयामासतुसदा॥५८॥

Then both of them embrace one another friendly and began enquiring and talking each other.

ते परिज्ञाततत्त्वार्थे अन्योन्यं ललनोत्तमे।

समासीने कथाभिस्ते नानारूपाभिरादरात्॥५९॥

Both these virgins transacted the true events which took place in their lives and began to say stories in order to get recreation.

एतस्मिन्नतरे प्रापः श्रीकण्ठ स्नातुमादरात्।

स तत्त्वज्ञो मुनिश्रेष्ठो अक्षराण्यवलोकयन्॥६०॥

In the intervening time, that learned sage came near Śrīkaṇṭha for bath and saw the words inscribed on a the slab.

स दृष्टा वाचयित्वा च तदर्थमधिगम्य च।

मुहूर्त ध्यानमास्थाय व्यजानाच्च तपोनिधिः॥६१॥

He watched, read and understood the meaning. A concentration for second, gave him the exact knowledge on the matter.

ततः संपूज्य देवेशं त्वया स ऋतध्वजः।

अयोध्यामगमस्थिप्रं द्रष्टुमिक्षवाकुमीश्वरम्॥६२॥

The hermit Rādhvaja then worshipped the god of gods and went Ayodhyā to see the king Ikṣvāku.

तं दृष्टा नृपतिश्रेष्ठं तापसो वाक्यमब्रवीत्।

श्रूयतां नरशार्दूल विज्ञसिर्मम पार्थिवा॥६३॥

The ascetic met to the chief of kings and said- O king!, the bravest of men, listen to my report.

मम पुत्रो गुणैर्युक्तः सर्वशास्त्रविशारदः।

उद्घद्वः कपिना राजन् विषयाते तवैव हि॥६४॥

O king! A monkey has tied up my meritorious and learned son in the border of your realm.

तं हि मोदयितुं नान्यः शक्तस्त्वतनयादृते।

शकुनिर्नाम राजेन्द्र स ह्यस्त्रविधिपारगः॥६५॥

O king! Nobody else but only your expert archer son Śakuni can make him free from the ties.

तन्मुनेर्वाक्यमाकर्ण्य पिता मम कृशोदरि।
आदिदेशं प्रियं पुत्रं शकुनिं तापसान्वये॥ ६६॥

O slender-waisted one, hearing those words of the hermit, my father asked his dear son Śakuni to go in company with the ascetic.

ततः स प्रहितः पित्रा भ्राता मम महाभुजः।
संप्राप्तो बन्धनोद्देशं समं हि परमर्षिणा॥ ६७॥

My brother in compliance with the order of his father then reached at the place where the son of sage was fastened in his company.

दृष्टा न्यग्रोधमत्युच्चं प्रोरोहास्तृतदिद्युमुखम्।
ददर्श वृक्षशिखरे उद्भूतमृषिपुत्रकम्॥ ६८॥

He observed the son of sage tied at the top of that huge and tall banyan tree. It was covered with the dense aerial roots from all sides.

तांश्च सर्वाल्लतापाशान् दृष्टवान्स समन्ततः।
दृष्टा स मुनिपुत्रं तं स्वजटासंयंतं वटे॥ ६९॥
धनुरादाय बलवानर्थिज्यं स चकार ह।
लाघवादृष्टिपुत्रं तं रक्षण्डिच्छेदमार्गणैः॥ ७०॥

He inspected properly those creepers from all sides, the position of sage's son tied by the roots, picked up the bow and began to cut the root very aptly so that the child could escape of blows.

कपिना यत्कृतं सर्वं लतापाशं चतुर्दिशम्।
पञ्चवर्षशते काले गते शक्तस्तदा शैरः॥ ७१॥

The grip of creepers made by that monkey could finally cut-off when as much as five hundred years passed.

लताच्छन्नं ततस्तूर्णमारुरोह मुनिर्वटम्।
प्राप्तं स्वपितरं दृष्टा जाबालिः संयतोऽपि सन्॥ ७२॥
आदरात् पितरं मूर्धा वबन्दत विधानतः।
संपरिष्वज्य सु मुनिर्मूर्ध्याद्याय सुतं ततः॥ ७३॥

The sage R̥tadvaja then climbed up that huge tree surrounded by creepers. Jābāli bowed his head for father in his honour inspite of his being tied. That sage smelt his forehead and embraced him.

उन्मोचयितुमारुद्धो न शशाक सुसंयतम्।
ततस्तूर्णं धनुर्चर्षस्य बाणांश्च शकुनिर्बली॥ ७४॥
आरुरोह वटं तूर्णं जटा मोचयितुं तदा।
न च शक्वोति संच्छन्नं दृढं कपिवरेण हि॥ ७५॥

He then started opening the ties but being these very strong, he failed. Mighty Śakuni then kept his bow and arrow on the ground and climbed up on banyan tree to open those knots. He himself failed to open those knots made by the monkey.

जटा न शक्तिता स्तेन संप्रयोचयितुं जटाः।
तदाऽवतीर्णः शकुनिः सहितः परमर्षिणा॥ ७६॥

When he was not able to disentangle the boy from his matted locks, Śakuni and the great sage together descended down on the earth.

जग्राह च धनुर्बाणांश्चकार शरमण्डपम्।
लाघवादर्दर्घचन्द्रैस्तां शाखां चिच्छेद स त्रिधा॥ ७७॥

He then picked up bow and arrows and made a bower of arrows. Then he used half crescent arrows to cut that branch into three segments.

शाखया कृत्या चासौ भारवाही तपोधनः।
शरसोपानमार्गेण अवतीर्णोऽथ पादपात्॥ ७८॥

The child (Jābāli) came down from tree with the branch of tree so cut-off through the leaders made by Śakuni from his arrows.

तस्मिस्तदा स्वे तनये ऋतध्वज-
स्त्रातो नरेन्द्रस्य सुतेन धन्विना।
जाबालिना भारवहेन संयुतः।
समाजगामाथ नदीं स सूर्यजाम्॥ ७९॥

When his son was so liberated by the valorous son of the king, he took Jābāli at the bank of the river Yamunā with him.

Chapter 65

Marriage of Citrāṅgadā

दण्डक उवाच

एतस्मिन्नरे बाले यक्षासुरसुते मुने।
समागते हरं द्रष्टुं श्रीकण्ठं योगिनां वरम्॥ १॥

Danḍaka said- During such intervening period, the daughter of Yakṣa and the Asura both came to see Śrīkanṭha Mahādeva.

ददृशाते परिम्लानसंशुष्ककुसुमं विभुम्।
बहुनिर्मल्यसंयुक्तं गते तस्मिन् ऋतव्यजे॥ २॥

Rādhvaja having departed from the temple till then, both these virgins found the lord among faded and dried flowers and strewn over with many remains of offerings of garlands.

ततस्तं बीक्ष्य देवेण ते उभे अपि कन्यके।
सापयेते विधानेन पूजयेतामहर्निशम्॥ ३॥

When they saw Śrīkanṭha, both the maidens washed him according to prescriptions and worshipped him day and night.

तात्यां स्थितात्यां तत्रैव ऋषिरभ्यागमद्वनम्।
द्रष्टुं श्रीकण्ठमव्यक्तं गालवो नाम नामतः॥ ४॥

When they were living there, a sage named Gālava came to see inscrutable Śrīkanṭha in that forest.

स दृष्टा कन्यकायुग्मं कस्येदमिति चिन्तयन्।
प्रविवेशं शुचिः स्नात्वा कालिन्द्या विमले जले॥ ५॥
ततोऽनुपूजयामास श्रीकण्ठं गालवो मुनिः।
गायेते सुस्वरं गीतं यक्षासुरसुते ततः॥ ६॥

When he saw two virgins, a thought came in his mind as whose daughter they might be? He took bath in the pure water of Yamunā, gained purity in heart and soul and then worshipped Mahādeva Śrīkanṭha. The daughter of Yakṣa and monster then began singing in melodious voice.

ततः स्वरं समाकर्ण्य गालवस्ते अजानता।
गन्धर्वकन्यके चैते संदेहो नात्र विद्यते॥ ७॥

Hearing their voice, Gālava guessed of them as daughters of any Gandharva because only they were so expert in singing.

संपूज्य देवमीशानं गालवस्तु विधानतः।
कृतजप्यः समध्यास्ते कन्याभ्यामभिवादितः॥ ८॥

Having done worship, Gālava did Japa of Śrīkanṭha. Both maidens saluted him and he then seated there.

ततः पप्रच्छ स मुनिः कन्यके कस्य कथ्यताम्।
कुलालङ्कारकरणे भक्तियुक्ते भवस्य हि॥ ९॥

That sage asked- “Tell me that who is your father?” You are meritorious and devotee to god Śaṅkara.

तमूचतुर्मुनिश्रेष्ठं याथातथं शुभानने।
जातो विदितवृत्तान्तो गालवस्तपतां वरः॥ १०॥

Then two pretty-faced maidens reported the real facts before Gālava and thus, he could knew all about them.

समुद्ध तत्र रजनीं ताभ्यां संपूजितो मुनिः।
प्रातरुद्धाय गौरीशं संपूज्य च विधानतः॥ ११॥

The sage honoured by both virgins stayed that at night. In next morning, he worshipped Śaṅkara, the husband of Gaurī according to the injunctions.

ते उपेत्याब्रवीद्यास्ये पुष्करारण्यमुत्तमम्।
आपन्नयामि वां कन्ये समनुज्ञातुमर्हथः॥ १२॥

He then went to them and said- I shall go to excellent Puṣkara forest. So, I want to ask your permission to my mission. Please, give your consent.

ततस्ते ऊर्चतुर्ब्रह्मनुर्लभं दर्शनं तव।
किमर्थं पुष्करारण्यं भवान्यास्यत्यथादरात्॥ १३॥

Both maidens asked him- O Brāhmaṇa! your meeting is rare. Why are you visiting Puṣkara forest with such reverence?

ते उवाच महातेजा महत्कार्यसमन्वितः।
कार्तिकी पुण्यदा भविमासान्ते पुष्करेषु हि॥ १४॥

The most learned and noblest sage said to them- "The full moon night of Kārtika

(November) month is approaching nearer. It gives rare boons as a result of bath in Puṣkara.

ते ऊर्जुवं यामो भवान्यन्त्र गमिष्यति।

न त्वया स्म विना ब्रह्मन्त्रि स्थातुं हि शकुवः॥ १५॥

Both of them replied- We will follow you everywhere you go. O Brahmin! We cannot remain here without you.

बाढमाह मुनिश्चेष्टस्ततो नत्वा महेश्वरम्।

गते च ऋषिणा सार्दू पुष्करारण्यमादरात्॥ १६॥

The hermit said- "It's very well." They, saluted Maheśvara and went to Puṣkara forest with the hermit.

तथाऽन्ये ऋषयस्तत्र समायाताः सहस्रशः।

पार्थिवा जानपद्याश्च मुक्त्वैकं तमृतध्वजम्॥ १७॥

Barring Ṛtadhvaja, there were gathered several thousand hermits, the kings and the citizens of the Janapadas (district).

ततः स्नाताश्च कार्तिक्यामृषयः पुष्क्रेष्वथ।

राजानश्च महाभागा नाभागेक्ष्वाकुसंयुताः॥ १८॥

The hermits, the illustrious kings including Nābhāga and Ikṣvāku etc. took bath in Puṣkara, the holy place on the day of Kārtika Pūrṇimā.

गालवोऽपि समं ताभ्यां कन्यकाभ्यामवातरत्।

स्नातुं स पुष्करे तीर्थे मध्यमे धनुषाकृतौ॥ १९॥

Gālava too descended to take bath in Puṣkara, the holy place in the shape of bow with those two maidens.

निमग्नश्चापि ददृशे महामत्स्यं जलेशयम्।

बह्वीभिर्मत्स्यकन्याभिः प्रीयमाणं पुनः पुनः॥ २०॥

When he took dip in depth, a huge size fish was seen there being frequently gratified by many female fish again and again.

स ताश्चाह तिमिर्मुख्याः यूयं धर्मं न जानथ।

जनापवादं घोरं हि न शक्तः सोदुपुल्लच्छम्॥ २१॥

That fish said to them "You are infatuated, do not know what is morality?" I cannot bear excessive and dreadful public censure.

तास्तामूर्च्छामत्स्यं किं न पश्यसि गालवम्।

तापसं कन्यकाभ्यां वै विचरन्तं स्थेच्छया॥ २२॥

Those female fish said to the great fish- "Whether you are not seeing an ascetic Gālava moving freely in company of two virgins."

यद्यसावपि धर्मात्मा न बिभेति तपोधनः।

जनापवादात्तत्किं त्वं बिभेषि जलमध्यगः॥ २३॥

"When this virtuous-souled ascetic is not afraid of public blame, why do you, dwelling inside water as you are, fear any reproach?"

तत्स्नात्श्चाह स तिमिनैष वेत्ति तपोधनः।

रागान्यो नापि च भयं विजानाति सुबालिशः॥ २४॥

That great fish replied- "This ascetic is blind of affection and does not know the morality. He is blind with lust and has no fear of the blame that pierces later-on."

तच्छुत्वा मत्स्यवचनं गालवो ब्रीडया युतः।

नोत्ततार निमग्नोऽपि तस्यौ स विजितेन्द्रियः॥ २५॥

Gālava ashamed of listening to such remark. He did not come up and by virtue of his extreme powers remained at the bottom of river for a longer period.

स्नात्वा ते अपि रम्भोरु समुनीर्यं तटे स्थिते।

प्रतीक्षन्त्वौ पुनिवरं तदर्शनसमुत्पुके॥ २६॥

Both those virgins came out from the river after bath, stood up at the bank and waited curiously for that sage.

वृत्ता च पुष्करे यात्रा गता लोका यथागतम्।

ऋषयः पार्थिवाश्चान्ये नाना जानपदास्तदा॥ २७॥

All sages, the kings and citizen returned back to their respective place when this journey to Puṣkara was completed.

तत्र स्थितैका सुदती विश्वकर्पतनूरुहा।

चित्राङ्गदा सुचार्वद्वी वीक्षन्ती तनुमध्यमे॥ २८॥

There was left only Citrāṅgadā, a beautiful lady with attractive teeth. That daughter of Viśvakarmā was stood there and gazing at those two virgins.

ते स्थिते चापि वीक्षन्त्यौ प्रतीक्षन्त्यौ च गालवम्।
संस्थिते निर्जने तीर्थे गालवोऽन्तर्जले तथा॥ २९॥

Both of them too stood in that deserted place for long as they were waiting for Gālava. However, Gālava had determined not to come up from water, so he remained there.

ततो मयोक्तो नैवास्मि कपे देववतीत्यहम्।

I replied- O monkey! I am not Devavatī and my name is Vedavatī. I always live on the mountain Meru.

That wicked monkey then attacked me. I suddenly climbed on the tree of Bandhujiva.

The monkey hit hard by kicks and collapsed that tree. I remained hugged to a large branch of that tree.

The monkey then threw that tree in sea. I was frightened badly and fell into the see along with that tree.

ततोप्यरतलाद् वृक्षं निपतन्तं यदृच्छ्या।

All movable and immovable beings saw the scene of that tree falling down from the sky of its own accord.

All those cried with grief when they saw me falling down along with the tree. The Siddhas and Gandharvas said- “Oh! It is piteous scene.” Brahmā had declared himself that this maiden will become the queen of high-souled Indradyumna, the son of Manu, the Kartā¹ of several thousand sacrifices.

तां वाणीं मधुरां श्रुत्वा मोहमस्यागता ततः।

The mighty wind, the friend of fire has then brought me here with its strong waves. O pretty lady! I could now see you here.

So, stand up please. Let us move from here and see that who are the girls standing at the northern bank of this Puṣkara river, we should enquire them.

These four maidens then began to live in that holy place near the confluence of seven Godāvarī waters and engaged themselves in the worship of god Śaikara.

When one thousand years passed, the fatigued load-bearer Jābāli left the hope and returned with his father at the district of Śākala.

The king Indradyumna, son of Manu was residing there. He came out from palace with Arghya in his hand when he learned of their presence.

The king then said- O Brāhmaṇa! a maiden of mine too is missing. I have done enormous labour to search her. To whom should I say about her?

I had cut a mountain-like tree falling from the sky into several thousand pieces in compliance with the words of Siddhas.

न चैव सा वरारोहा विभिन्ना लाघवान्मया।

I very aptly defended that beautiful virgin from injury. But I don't know where is she. I am therefore, ready to go with you in search of her.

इत्येवमुक्त्वा स नृपः समुत्थाय त्वरान्वितः।
स्यन्दनानि द्विजाभ्यां स भ्रातृपुत्राय चार्पयत्॥६५॥

That king immediately stood-up and gave chariots to both Brahmins and his nephew too.

They began to investigate on the earth in systematic manner on the chariots. They saw an eminent ascetic seated on penance when they reached at Badarī āśrama. The young hermit was found to be emaciated by austerities, miserable, bearing matted locks, besmeared with dirt and mud and he was breathing hard.

तपुपेत्याद्वीद्राजा इन्द्रद्युम्नो महाभुजः।

The king Indradyumna went to him and said- O ascetic! Tell me that why are you seated on such strict penance at this early stage? Further, please, tell us that what is your mission? He enquired- ‘Please, tell me first that who are you and why are you so anxious to ask me, a hermit lean and afflicted with grief?’

He replied- O ascetic! O sovereign! I am the son of Manu, brother of Ikṣvāku and king of Śākalapura. The ascetic also narrated all his previous life.

श्रुत्वा प्रोवाच राजर्षिर्मा मुञ्चस्व कलेवरम्।
आगच्छ यामि तन्वङ्गी विद्येतुं भ्रातृजोऽसि मे॥७२॥

The pious king then said- “Don't abandon your life.” You are my nephew come, we should go in search of that slender-bodied lady.

इत्युक्त्वा संपरिष्वज्य नृपं धमनिसंततम्।
समारोप्य रथं तूर्णं ताप्साभ्यां च्यवेदयत्॥७३॥

With these words, he embraced the weak prince. He rode him on a chariot and presented him before both ascetics.

ऋषवजः सपुत्रस्तु तं दृष्टा पृथिवीपतिम्।
प्रोवाच राजन्नेहोहि करिष्यामि तव प्रियम्॥७४॥

When Rādhavaja saw that prince, he along with his son said- O prince! “Come, come here. I will do good for you.”

याऽसौ चित्राङ्गदा नाम त्वया दृष्टा हि नैमिषे।
सप्तगोदावरे तीर्थं सा मरैव विसर्जिता॥७५॥

I have left by myself Cītrāngadā who was beheld by you in Naimiṣa in the holy confluence of seven Godāvaris.

तदागच्छथ गच्छामः सौदेवस्यैव कारणात्।

Hence, come with us. Let us all go there for the son of Sudeva. We shall see three more maidens there.

That hermit consoled the son of Sudeva, accompanied by Indradyumna and his own son, they began to move towards Saptagodāvara on the chariot under lead of Śakuni where those maidens had gone.

एतमिन्नतरे तन्वी धृताची शोकसंयुता।

In the meantime, Ghṛtācī, the slender-bodied girl afflicted with grief was strolling on the Udayagiri in search of her daughter.

तमासाद च कपि पर्यपृच्छत् तथाप्सराः।

The Apsaras got that monkey there. She asked him- “O monkey! Tell me the truth if you have seen my daughter anywhere?”

That monkey replied- “I have seen a maiden named Devavatī and kept her at a great āśrama near Śrīkaṇṭha temple at the bank of Kālindī river where birds and deers are found abundantly.” I have reported this fact to you truly.

सा प्राह वानरपते नामा वेदवतीति सा।

Ghṛtācī said- O chief of monkeys! She is Vedavatī and not Devavatī. Hence, come with me and we should go there together.

धृताच्यास्तद्वचः श्रुत्वा वानरस्त्वरितक्रमः।

The monkey was agreed to Ghṛtācī and went jumpingly in company of her towards Kauśikī river.

ते चापि कौशिकीं प्राप्ता राजविग्रवरास्त्रयः।

Those three great princely sages too reached near Kauśikī river with Jābāli and Rādhavaja on the speedy chariots.

They alighted from the chariot and came near to the river for bath. Ghṛtācī too came for bath in that river.

तामन्वेव कपिः प्रायादृष्टे जाबालिना तथा।

The monkey too came behind her and Jābāli saw him. He immediately reported his father and the mighty king about monkey’s appearance there.

स एव पुनरायाति वानरस्तात वेगवान्।
पूर्वं जटाच्येव बलाद्येन बद्धोऽस्मि पादये॥८८॥

O father! That powerful monkey is coming again. It is the same monkey who once forcibly tied me with the aerial roots of banyan tree with my matted locks.

तज्जाबालिवचः श्रुत्वा शकुनिः क्रोधसंयुतः।

सशर्ण धनुरादाय इदं वचनमब्रवीत्॥८९॥

Having heard Jābāli, Śakuni became furious, picked up his bow fitted with arrow and said-

ब्रह्मन्त्रदीयतां महामाज्ञा तात वदस्व माम्।

यावदेनं निहन्यद्य शरेणैकेन वानरम्॥९०॥

O Brahmin! O father! Give me permission. Tell me that should I kill this monkey at once with a single arrow?

इत्येवमुक्ते वचने सर्वभूतहिते रतः।

महर्षिः शकुनिः प्राह हेतुयुक्तं वचो महत्॥९१॥

The great hermit engaged in doing good to all beings then said to Śakuni :

न कष्ठित्तात केनापि बद्धते हन्यतेऽपि वा।

वधबन्धौ पूर्वकर्मवश्यो नृपतिनन्दन॥९२॥

O prince! “None can be killed or fettered by another.” O son of a king! “Slaughter and imprisonment are governed by past deeds.”

इत्येवमुक्त्वा शकुनिमृषिर्वानरमब्रवीत्।

एहोहि वानरास्माकं साहाय्यं कर्तुमर्हसि॥९३॥

The sage then said to the monkey- “O monkey! Come up. It is proper for you to help us.”

O young lady, thus addressed by the hermit, the great monkey saluted the sage with folded hands and said- “O Brahmin! Instruct me that what should I do at this moment?”

इत्युक्ते प्राह स मुनिसं वानरपतिं वचः।

The sage then said to the lord of monkeys- “You had tied my son with his matted hair with the banyan tree.”

न चेन्मोचयितुं वृक्षाच्छक्तुयामोऽपि यत्ततः।
तदनेन नरेन्द्रेण त्रिथा कृत्वा तु शाखिनः॥९६॥

In spite of our best efforts, we could not make him finally free from that tree. Hence, this king had cut that tree into three pieces.

शाखां वहति मत्सूनुः शिरसा तां विमोचय।

दशवर्षशतान्यस्य शाखां वै वहतोऽगमनः॥९७॥

My son is still bearing the burden of the branch of that tree. Please, make him free now. He had now completed ten centuries since he has been carrying the branch.

There is no person who could make him free. That monkey gradually untied the matted locks of Jābāli and those were quickly unleashed. The sage Rādhvaja was then pleased and wished to give him a boon.

He said to monkey- “Ask whatever you desire.” Viśvakarmā in the form of that monkey begged this boon from Rādhvaja- “O Brāhmaṇa! if you really are intended to give me a boon, please, remove the impact of curse once thundered on me by youself.” O ascetic, “Recognise me as Tvaṣṭā,” the father of Citrāngadā.

I have become monkey due to your curse. Whatever sins I have committed in this monkey form, please destroy them by your blessing. Rтадhvaja said- “the curse shall be effaced when you will give birth to a mighty son from the womb of Ghrtacī.” That monkey became happy with the blessings of Rтадhvaja.

O slender-waisted lady, the eminent monkey descended immediately for bath in the river. Thereafter, they all took bath and doing (Tarpana of ancestors)¹ and gods and returned by their chariots, while Ghrtacī proceeded to the heaven. That monkey chased her very fast.

They alighted from the chariots to relax there. Their chariooteers also took bath, offered water for horses and then left them for gazing in the attractive forest region.

Those horses satisfied within a moment because there was grass abundantly grown. Those horses then began speeding near the temple. Having heard the sound coming from hoofs of horses, those maidens went at the temple of Hātakeśvara with curiosity to see what is it and looked around getting up on the attic.

O beautiful lady! The monkey with Ghṛtācī also attended them after taking bath in the holy Godāvarī. He was also desirous of visiting Hāṭakeśvara.

The ascetic Rādhvaja then instructed the monkey- "Go at the mountain Añjana to bring Guhyaka (Yakṣa) here."

Bring here the demon king Kandaramālī from the nether world and king of Gandharva Parjanya from the heaven.

The monkey with rapid speed went on the mountain Añjana, invited Guhyaka from there and proceeded to the mountain of gods thereafter.

He invited Parjanya there, suggested him the route to the great hermitage situated in Saptagodāvara and then went to the netherland.

He leapt rapidly when he saw Gālava near Māhiṣmatī and brought him immediately near the holy place Saptagodāvara.

All were stood up to honour Gālava when they saw him approaching near. They too worshipped Mahādeva and saluted the hermits. Those great kings also honoured the ascetic and deriving immense pleasure, sat down comfortably. Yakṣa, Gandharva and demon all greatmen then came there.

The daughters when saw their fathers, their huge eyes filled with tears of joy. They all embraced their fathers. When Citrāngadā saw her other mates meeting their fathers, she also started weeping. Then R̄tadhvaja sage narrated her the fact.

मा विषादं कृथा: पुत्रि पिताऽयं तव वानरः।
सा तद्वचनमाकर्ण्य व्रीडोपहतचेतना॥ १४४॥

"O daughter! Don't be dejected. This monkey is your father." She ashamed of listening these words.

कथं तु विश्वकर्माऽसौ वानरत्वं गतोऽधुना।
दुष्पुत्रां मयि जातायां तस्मात्यक्षे कलेवरम्॥ १४५॥

How could Viśvakarmā, my father becomes a monkey? Perhaps it has been due to the birth of an inauspicious daughter as I am. Therefore, I shall give up my body.

She made up her mind to suicide and said to R̄tadhvaja- O Brāhmaṇa! please, absolve all sins committed by me. I am the sole cause for this state of my father. I therefore, desire to die soon. Please, allow me. Then the sage consoled her and said- "Don't weep any more in this matter."

इत्येवमुक्ते वचने मुनिना भावितात्मना॥ १४९॥

The future events cannot be ceased by death. Hence, don't abandon your body. Your father shall again become a celestial artisan when Ghṛtācī gives birth to a son. "There is no scope of doubt in this regard," narrated by the hermit, whose soul was purified by meditation.

Ghṛtācī then went to Citrāngadā and said—“O daughter! Give up agony.” There is no doubt that I shall give birth to a son from courtship with your father within forthcoming ten months. Citrāngadā became happy when it was said by Ghṛtācī.

Citrāngadā waited to see her father at the time of her marriage. Those beautiful maidens were also eager for her pleasure waited during that period for her marriage.

That nymph gave birth to a son Nala at Godāvāri-tīrtha when ten month's period was over. With this birth of a son, Viśvakarmā was also liberated from his monkey-hood.

He went to his beloved daughter and embraced her. Viśvakarmā then summoned the king of gods Indra, the lord of gods and Kinnaras happily. Remembered by Viśvakarmā, Indra surrounded by the multitude of Maruts, and together with gods accompanied by Rudras came at the holy place Hāṭaka.

Indradyumna said to Rādhavaja when gods, gandharvas and apsaraes came there—“O

Brāhmaṇa! give Jābāli the daughter of Kandaramālī.”

Your son should solemnise the marriage with the daughter of demon. Śakuni, the beautiful prince should be wed to Nandyantī.

May this Vedavatī remain as my spouse, while the daughter of Viśvakarma (Citrāngadā) be the wife of Suratha. The sage said to the king—“Be it so”.

ततोऽनुचकुः संहष्टा विवाहविधिपुत्तमम्।

Then those all people solemnised the marriage happily and followed the due procedure. Gālava became Rtvika¹ and offered havya (oblations) in a ritual manner.

Following this, Indradyumna then accepted Vedavatī, Śakuni accepted the daughter of Yakṣa and Suratha accepted the hand of Citrāngadā as his wife. In this order, O slender-waisted one, they all were married in a systematic manner.

Chapter 66

Reduction of King Danda to ashes

अरजा उवाच-

नात्मानं तव दास्यामि बहुनोक्तेन किं तव।

रक्षन्ती भवतः शापादात्मानं च महीपते॥१॥

Arajā said- O lord of the earth! It is no use saying much to you. I shall defend myself and

He enquired her- “O daughter! Who has done intercourse with you? Who is playing with the furious snake?”

कोऽद्यैव याम्यां नगरीं गमिष्यति सुदुर्भवितः।
यस्त्वा शुद्धसमाचारां विष्वंसयति पापकृत्॥ १॥

Tell me that who is such wicked sinner now willing to go to the abode of Yama on this very day? Who has polluted you, my nice charactered- daughter.?

ततः स्वपितरं दृष्ट्वा कम्पमाना पुनः पुनः।
रुदन्ती ब्रीडयेपेता मन्दं मन्दमुवाच ह॥ १०॥

Then seeing her father, Arajā told with tremble, pain and continous weeping to her father-

तव शिष्येण दण्डेन वार्यमाणेन चासकृत्।
बलादनाथा रुदती नीताऽहं वचनीयताम्॥ ११॥

Your disciple Dañḍa had committed this offence even when I protested, wept and begged him not to do such evil act. I could not defend myself as forcibly he had put me in this blame-worthy state.

एतत् पुत्रा वचः श्रुत्वा क्रोधसंरक्तलोचनः।
उपस्पृश्य शुचिर्भूत्वा इदं वचनमद्वीतीत्॥ १२॥

Śukrācārya filled with anger and his eyes became red. He did ācamana, purified his mouth by sipping water and then said these words-

यस्मात् तेनाविनीतेन मत्तो हाभयमुत्तमम्।
गौरवं च तिरस्कृत्य च्युतथर्माऽरजाः कृता॥ १३॥
तस्मात् सराष्ट्रः सबलः सभृत्यो वाहनैः सह।
सप्तरात्रान्तराद् भस्म ग्रावदृष्ट्या भविष्यति॥ १४॥

“As that wicked had humiliated the preaching delivered by me during study and made Arajā corrupt; he along with his kingdom, army, servants and means of conveyance shall be reduced to ashes as a result of continuous raining with hailstorms within seven nights.”

इत्येवमुक्त्वा मुनिपुङ्गवोऽसौ
शप्त्वा स दण्डं स्वसुतामुवाच।

He so cursed Dañḍa with these words and then turned towards his daughter. He consoled her saying that- “O daughter! Stay here in this very place to practice austerities for the purging of your sin.”

शप्त्वेत्यं भगवान् शुक्रो दण्डमिक्ष्वाकुनन्दनम्।

जगाम शिष्यसहितः पातालं दानवालयम्॥ १६॥

Lord Śukra thereafter, took his disciples in company and went to nether world where the demons were living.

दण्डोऽपि भस्मसाद्भूतः सराष्ट्रबलवाहनः।

महता ग्रावर्वेण सप्तरात्रान्तरे तदा॥ १७॥

On account of excessive rain with hailstorms, Dañḍa was destroyed within seven nights with his state, army and chariot.

एवं तदण्डकारण्यं परित्यज्यन्ति देवताः।

आलयं राक्षसानां तु कृतं देवेन शंभुना॥ १८॥

The gods therefore, avoided the forest Dañḍakāraṇya and Śambhu made that place abode of demons.

एवं परकलत्राणि नयन्ति सुकृतीनपि।

भस्मभूतान् प्राकृतांसु महान्तं च पराभवम्॥ १९॥

Thus, the intercourse with other's wife is so disastrous that it burns into ashes even well-doing laymen. What to say than of the common people as they definitely are destroyed?

तस्मादस्यक दुर्बुद्धिनं कार्या भवता त्वियम्।

प्राकृताऽपि दहेनारी किमुताहोद्विनन्दिनी॥ २०॥

O Andhaka! You should therefore, avoid to commit such offence. When an ordinary woman can burns a man in ashes, what to say about the consequence for committing such offence with the daughter of mountain?

शंकरोऽपि न दैत्येश शक्यो जेतुं सुरासुरैः।

द्रष्टुमध्यमितौजस्कः किमु योधयितुं रणे॥ २१॥

O demon king! Nobody among gods and demons can defeat Śaṅkara. When it is impossible to see god Mahādeva in battle, how then imagining a battle with him is possible?

पुलस्त्य उवाच-

इत्येवमुक्ते वचने क्रुद्धस्ताप्रेक्षणः श्वसन्।

वाक्यमाह महातेजा: प्रह्लादं चान्धकासुरः॥ २२॥

Pulastyā said : This being said, the demon Andhaka, possessing immense power, filled with anger, his eyes copper-red, took a deep breathe and replied-

किं प्राप्त्वा रणे योद्धुं शक्तलिणयनोऽसुर।

एकाकी धर्मरहितो भस्मारुणितविग्रहः॥ २३॥

O demon! Whether that ash smeared body, lonely and impious person abiding three eyed can dare to battle with me?

नान्धको बिभियादिन्द्रान्नामरेभ्यः कथंचन।

स कथं वृषपत्राक्षाद् बिभेति स्त्रीमुखेक्षकात्॥ २४॥

How I (Andhaka) can fear from one whose eyes resemble marmelos Vṛṣa leaves and who gazes at women's face, when I never afraid of Indra or other gods?

तच्छुत्वाऽस्य वचो घोरं प्रह्लादः प्राह नारद।

न सम्यगुक्तं भवता विरुद्धं धर्मतोऽर्थतः॥ २५॥

O Nārada! Prahlāda, on being so heard from him said- "You have spoken incorrectly. Your statement is just contrary to Dharma (the sacred law) and Artha (worldy gains)."

हुताशनपतङ्गाभ्यां सिंहकोष्ठुकयोरिव।

एतेषामेभिरुदितं यावदन्तरमस्यक।

तावदेवान्तरं चास्ति भवतो वा हरस्य च॥ २७॥

O Andhaka! The difference between you and Mahādeva is so large as it is seen between fire and an insect, a lion and a jackal, a huge elephant and a maśaka¹ and between gold and the stone.

वारितोऽसि मया वीरं भूयो भूयश्च वार्यसे।

शृणुष्व वाक्यं देवर्षेरसितस्य महात्मनः॥ २८॥

1. Mosquito.

O valorous! I have restricted you and tried my efforts to prohibit you from indulging such heinous activity. Listen to the dictum laid down by the renowned sage Asita in this context :

यो धर्मशीलो जितमानरोषो

विद्याविनीतो न परोपतापी।

स्वदारतुष्टः परदारवर्जी

न तस्य लोके भयमस्ति किञ्चित्॥ २९॥

The person religion abiding, without anger and ego, polite and learned, avoiding cause for pain of others', contented with his own wife and without any lust for other's wife is free from all fears in this world.

यो धर्महीनः कलहप्रियः सदा

परोपतापी श्रुतिशास्त्रवर्जितः।

परार्थदोरेष्मुरवर्णसंगमी

सुखं न विन्देत परत्र चेह॥ ३०॥

The man not abiding religion, indulging in quarrels every time, putting others in pain, alien to Vedas and scriptures, tempted to others' wife and wealth and who does courtship with varṇas other than his own; cannot feel pleasure either in this material world or in the next.

धर्मान्वितोऽभूद् भगवान् प्रभाकरः

विद्याऽन्वितोऽभूमनुरक्षपुत्रः

स्वदारसंतुष्टमनास्त्वगस्त्यः॥ ३१॥

God Prabhākara (Sun) was attended with virtue, hermit Vāruṇī (Vaiśṭha) had abandoned the anger, Manu, the son of Sun god was learned and Agastya was contented with his own wife.

एतानि पुण्यानि कृतान्यमीभि-

र्मया निबद्धानि कुलऋमोक्त्या।

तेजोन्विताः शापवरक्षमाश्च

These meritorious deeds, which I have related as a traditional saying, were done by them. Consequently, all these ascetics became powerful, capable of pronouncing a curse and granting a boon, and worthy of respect by gods and Siddhas.¹

अथर्वयुक्तोऽङ्गसुतो बभूव

Hiranyaśākha, the son of Diti was tempted to grab other's wealth, his younger brother was fool and evil-hearted and the valorous Yadu was interested in doing intercourse with the women of other varṇas.² All these perished in ancient times because of their haughtiness.

तस्माद् धर्मो न संत्याज्यो धर्मो हि परमा गतिः।
धर्महीना नरा यान्ति रौरवं नरकं महत्॥ ३५॥

One should therefore, not abandon Dharma because religion is the supreme position to acquire for a man. The atheist or non-religious people fall in the wide hell called Raurava.

धर्मस्तु गदितः पुंभिस्तारणे दिवि चेह च।
पतनाय तथाऽधर्म इह लोके परत्र च॥ ३६॥

The people have said the religion as a sole boat that ferry them across this world and the world where everyone has to go after death.

त्याज्यं धर्मान्वितैर्नित्यं परदारोपसेवनम्।
नयन्ति परदारा हि नरकानेकविंशतिम्।
सर्वेषामपि वर्णनामेष धर्मो श्ववोऽन्यक॥ ३७॥

Courtship with other's wife is strictly prohibited particularly for the religion abiding people. The wives of others carry the man to suffer in twenty one hells. O Andhaka! This is the eternal duty of all varṇas.

परार्थपरदारेषु यदा वाज्ञां करिष्यति।
स याति नरकं घोरं रौरवं बहुलाः समाः॥ ३८॥

The man who tempts to other's wealth and wife, definitely falls in gross hell called Raurava for several years.

एवं पुराऽसुरपते देवर्षिरसितोऽव्ययः।
प्राह धर्मव्यवस्थानं खगेन्द्रायारुणाय हि॥ ३९॥

O lord of the demons! The great soul hermit Asita had long ago laid down this dictum before Garuḍa and Aruṇa.

तस्मात् सुदूरतो वर्जेत् परदारान् विचक्षणः।
नयन्ति निकृतिप्रज्ञं परदाराः पराभवम्॥ ४०॥

The wise man should therefore, abandon even the thinking of coition with other's wife. Others' wives lead men of humble wisdom to discomfiture.

पुलस्त्य उवाच-

इत्येवमुक्ते वचने प्रह्लादं प्राह चान्यकः।
भवान् धर्मपरस्त्वेको नाहं धर्मं समाचरेऽ॥ ४१॥

Pulastya said- Andhaka replied Prahlāda that “You are the only person devoted to religion. I do not practice Dharma.”

इत्येवमुक्त्वा प्रह्लादमन्यकः प्राह शम्बरम्।
गच्छ शम्बर शैलेन्द्रं मन्दरं वद शंकरम्॥ ४२॥

Andhaka then ordered Śambara- O Śambara! go at the mountain Mandara, the chief of the mountains and say there to Śaṅkara-

भिक्षो किमर्थं शैलेन्द्रं स्वर्गोपम्यं सकन्दरम्।
परिभुज्ञसि केनाद्य तव दतो वदस्व माम॥ ४३॥

O beggar! why is it that you enjoy the great mountain Mandara which is heaven like and surrounded by several caves? Tell me that who has given you this mountain for residing?

तिष्ठन्ति शासने महं देवाः शक्तपुरोगमाः।
तत् किमर्थं निवासे मामनादृत्य मन्दरे॥ ४४॥

1. Semi-divine beings of the Bhūvar-loka.
2. Castes.

Indra etc. all gods follow my orders. How are you living on this mountain Mandara with sheer disobedience to me?

यदीष्टस्तव शैलेन्द्रः क्रियतां वचनं मम।

येयं हि भवतः पत्नी सा मे शीघ्रं प्रदीयताम्॥४५॥

If you really like this mountain, do then as I say. Give me your wife immediately.

इत्युक्तः स तदा तेन शम्बरो मन्दरं द्रुतम्।

जगाम तत्र यत्रास्ते सह देव्या पिनाकशृङ्कः॥४६॥

Śambara immediately followed the order and went at mountain Mandara where the wielder of the Pināka bow was staying along with the goddess Pārvatī.

गत्वोवाचान्यकवचो याथातथ्यं द्वन्नोः सुतः।

तमृतरं हरः प्राह शृणवत्या गिरिकन्यया॥४७॥

Śambara gave the message exactly as it was given by Andhaka there. Śaṅkara replied in presence of Pārvatī (daughter of mountain) :

ममायं मन्दरो दत्तः सहस्राक्षेण धीमता।

तत्र शक्नोभ्यहं त्यक्तुं विनाज्ञां वृत्रवैरिणः॥४८॥

The wise hundred-eyed Indra has given me this mountain. Hence, I cannot abandon it without orders from the enemy of Vṛtra.

यद्याब्रवीद् दीयतां मे गिरिपुत्रेति दानवः।

तदेषा यातु र्वं कापं नाहं वारयितुं क्षमः॥४९॥

The demon has raised demand for Pārvatī, she is free to go if so desired by herself. I cannot resist her.

ततोऽब्रवीत् गिरिसुता शम्बरं मुनिसत्तम्।

बूहि गत्वाऽन्यकं वीर मम वाक्यं विपश्चितम्॥५०॥

O great sage! Pārvatī then said to Śambara-O chivalrous! Give a message from me to Andhaka:

अहं पताका संग्रामे भवानोश्च देविनौ।

प्राणद्यूतं परिस्तीर्य यो जेष्ठति स लप्स्यते॥५१॥

"I am like a flag (of victory) in war. You and Śaṅkara are the players around a dice-board of life. The one who shall take risk of life and defeat the other opponent, shall be accepted by me."

इत्येवमुक्तो मतिमान् शम्बरोऽन्यकमागमत्।

समागम्याब्रवीद् वाक्यं शर्वगौर्योश्च भाषितम्॥५२॥

The wise Śambara went to Andhaka and reported there the message given by Śaṅkara and Pārvatī.

तच्छुत्वा दानवपतिः क्रोधदीपेक्षणः श्वसन्।

समाहूयाब्रवीद् वाक्यं दुर्योधनमिदं वचः॥५३॥

The eyes of demon king reddened with anger. He exhaled long, calling Duryodhana ordered-

गच्छ शीघ्रं महाबाहो भेरीं सान्नाहिकीं दृढाम्।

ताडयस्व सुविश्रब्धं दुःशीलामिव योषितम्॥५४॥

O large-armed one! Go immediately and beat hard, without any hesitation, the war preparatory drum, like a woman of evil-conduct.

समादिष्टोन्यकेनाथ भेरीं दुर्योधनो बलात्।

ताडयामास वेगेन यथाप्राणेन भूयसा॥५५॥

Duryodhana followed the order and began blowing the drum with full power and speed.

सा ताडिता बलवता भेरी दुर्योधनेन हि।

सत्वरं भैरवं रावं रुरावं सुरभी यथा॥५६॥

The trumpet so piped by mighty Duryodhana made a loud sound like Surabhi.

तस्यास्तं स्वरमाकर्ण्य सर्वं एव महासुराः।

समायाताः सभां तूर्णं किमेतदिति वादिनः॥५७॥

When demons heard the loud sound of trumpet, they rushed with curiosity and entered within seconds in the assembly.

याथातथ्यं च तान् सर्वानाह सेनापतिर्बली।

ते चापि बलिनां श्रेष्ठाः सन्नद्वा युद्धकाङ्क्षिणः॥५८॥

The mighty commander-in-chief then revealed the facts before them. Those all warriors then got ready to fight.

सहान्यका निर्ययुस्ते गजैसूर्ष्टैर्हयै रथैः।

अन्यको रथमास्थाय पञ्चनल्वप्रमाणतः॥५९॥

ऋष्मकं स पराजेतुं कृतबुद्धिर्विनिर्ययौ।

They came out under lead of Andhaka with elephants, camels, horses and chariots.

Andhaka with decision to defeat Śaṅkara came out on a chariot measuring five furlongs (Nalva) with determination to defeat the three-eyed deity.

जप्तः कुजप्तो हुण्डश तुहुण्डः शम्बरो बलिः॥ ६०॥

बाणः कार्तस्वरो हस्ती सूर्यशत्रुमहोदरः।

अयः शडकुः शिबिः शाल्वो वृषपर्वा विरोचनः॥ ६१॥

दुर्योधनश्च पाकश्च विपाकः कालशम्बरौ।

एते चान्ये च बहवो महावीर्या महाबलाः।

प्रजग्मुरुत्सुका योद्धुं नानायुधधरा रणे॥ ६३॥

The demons Jambha, Kujambha, Hunḍa, Tuhunḍa, Śambara, Bali, Bāṇa, Kārtasvara, Hastī, Süryaśatru, Mahodara, Ayaḥśaṅkuḥ, Śibi, Śālva, Viṣaparavana, Virocana, Hayagrīva, Kālanemi, Samhlāda, Kālanāśana, Śarabha, Śalabha, strong Vipracitti, Duryodhana, Pāka, Vipāka, Kāla and Śambara and other numerous mighty and valorous demons picked up their weapons and set out for fight with curiosity.

इत्यं दुरात्मा दनुसैन्यपाल-

स्तदात्यको योद्धुमना हरेण।

महाचलं मन्दरमयुपेयवान्

स कालपाशावसितो हि मन्दथीः॥ ६४॥

Thus the evil-hearted, foolish Andhaka, the commander-in-chief of demons army went at Mandara mountain with a decision to fight against Śaṅkara as the time of his death was near.

इति श्रीवामनपुराणे पुलस्त्यनारदसंवादे भैरवप्रादुर्भावे

Pulastya said- Śaṅkara too when Śambara departed, summoned Nandī and said- "O Sailādi! call all those who are under your dominion."

ततो महेशवचनान्नदी तूर्णतरं गतः।

Nandī went out immediately in compliance with Śaṅkara's words and summoned Gaṇa-chiefs with ācamana'.

नन्दिना संस्मृताः सर्वे गणनाथाः सहस्रशः।
समुत्पत्य त्वरायुक्ताः प्रणतास्त्रिदशेश्वरम्॥ ३॥

All chiefs of Gaṇas, being thousands in number came immediately where Śaṅkara was and bowed their heads before him.

आगतांश्च गणान्नदी कृताञ्जलिपुटोऽव्ययः।

Immortal Nandī then informed Śaṅkara that all the Gaṇas had arrived.

नन्दुवाच-

यानेतान् पश्यसे शंभो त्रिनेत्राञ्जलिलाब्शुचीन्।
एते रुद्रा इति ख्याताः कोट्य एकादशैव तु॥ ५॥

Nandī said- O Śambhu! The neat and clean Gaṇas having three eyes, matted hairs are called Rudras. They are eleven crores in number.

वानरास्थान् पश्यसे यान् शार्दूलसमविक्रमान्।
एतेषां द्वारपालास्ते मन्त्रामानो यशोधनाः॥ ६॥

The faced and valorous like lions bears the same name as myself and are the door-keepers of Rudras. They regard fame as the only wealth.

षष्ठमुखान् पश्यसे यांश्च शक्तिपाणीजिष्ठिष्ठव्यजान्।
षट् च षष्ठिस्तथा कोट्यः स्कन्दनाम्भः कुमारकान्॥ ७॥

The six-faced Śākhas with śakti in their hand and rode on peacock are Skanda Kumāras. These are sixty six crores in number.

एतावत्यस्तथा कोट्यः शार्खा नाम षडाननाः।

Chapter 67

Vision of Sadāśiva

पुलस्त्य उवाच-

हरोऽपि शम्बरे याते समाहूयाथ नन्दिनम्।
प्राहामन्त्रय शैलादे ये स्थितास्तव शासने॥ १॥

1. Sipping water.

विशाखास्तावदेवोक्ता नैगमेयाश्च शंकर॥८॥

O Śāṅkara! The Gaṇas called Śākhas having six faces are in same number (sixty-six crores) and Viśākhas as also Naigameya Gaṇas are also in same number.

सप्तकोटिशतं शंभो अमी वै प्रमथोत्तमाः।

एकैकं प्रति देवेश तावत्यो ह्यपि मातरः॥९॥

O Śambhu! Those worthy Pramathas are in seven hundred crores number. O god of gods! They have each, as many Māṭrkās.¹

भस्मारुणितदेहश्च त्रिनेत्राः शूलपाणयः।

एते शैवा इति प्रोक्तास्तव भक्ता गणेश्वराः॥१०॥

These ash-smeared bodies, three eyed gaṇas having Śūla² in hand are called Śaivas. All these pioneer Gaṇas are your devotees.

एते गणास्त्वसंख्याताः साहायार्थं समागताः॥११॥

O sovereign! Numerous other ash-smeared bodies with weapons in hands are Pāśupata Gaṇas. They have also came here to serve you.

पिनाकधारिणो रौद्रा गणाः कालमुखापरे।

Your other gaṇas called Kālamukhas, fierce in body, having dangerous face, holding Pināka bows, wearing matted locks and devoted to you have also come here.

इमे प्राप्ता गणा योद्धुं महाव्रतिन उत्तमाः॥१३॥

The excellent Gaṇas Mahāvratī expert in fighting with Khaṭvāṅga³ and having red shield have also come to fight for you.

निराश्रया नाम गणाः समायाता जगद्गुरो॥१४॥

O preceptor of the universe! The nude Gaṇas Nirāśrayas have also come here. They observe silence and hold bells as weapon in their hands.

1. Mother-goddesses.
2. Javelins.
3. Skull-clubs.

सार्धद्विनेत्राः पदाक्षाः श्रीवत्साङ्कृतवक्षसः।

समायाता खगारुदा वृषभध्वजिनोऽव्ययाः॥१५॥

The Gaṇas possessing two and a half eyes, with lotus like eyes, mark of Śrīvatsa on their chests, seated on birds, bull-bannered have also come here. All of them are imperishable.

महापाशुपता नाम चक्रशूलधरास्तथा।

भैरवो विष्णुना सार्द्धमधेदनार्चितो हि यैः॥१६॥

They are called the Mahāpāśupatas, holding discuses and Śūla in their hands. They have worshipped Bhairava with Viṣṇu identically.

इमे मृगेन्द्रवदनाः शूलबाणधनुर्धराः।

गणास्त्वद्रोमसंभूता वीरभद्रपुरोगमाः॥१७॥

These are the lion-faced Gaṇas with Virabhadra as their leader, holding spears, arrows and bows and originating from the hair on your body.

एते चान्ये च बहवः शतशोऽथ सहस्रशः।

साहायार्थं तवायाता यथा प्रीत्यादिशस्त्व तान्॥१८॥

These and several hundred other gaṇas too have come for assisting you. Give them order as per your choice.

ततोऽभ्येत्य गणाः सर्वे प्रणेमुर्वृषभध्वजम्।

तान् करेणैव भगवान् समाश्वास्योपवेशयत्॥१९॥

All Gaṇas then bowed their heads before the bull-riding god. God gave hint of acceptance through his hand and wished that they should take their seats.

महापाशुपतान् दृष्ट्वा समुत्थाय महेश्वरः।

संपरिष्वजताध्यक्षांस्ते प्रणेमुर्महेश्वरम्॥२०॥

Maheśvara seeing the Mahāpāśupatas, rose and embraced his army commanders. They all saluted him with reverence.

ततस्तद्बुततमं दृष्ट्वा सर्वे गणेश्वराः।

सुचिरं विस्मिताक्षाश्च वैलक्ष्यमगमत् परम्॥२१॥

The eyes of all Gaṇas began dizzying of having an eye on that excellent scene. Then they all wondered for a very long time and were ashamed to the extreme.

विस्मिताक्षान् गणान् दृष्टा शैलादिर्योगिनां वरः।
प्राह प्रहस्य देवेशं शूलपाणिं गणाधिपम्॥ २२॥

When the great Yogi Śailādi etc. saw them dizzy eyed, they smiled and said to the god of gods Śūlapāni!

विस्मितामि गणा देव सर्व एव महेश्वर।
महापाशुपतानां हि यत् त्वयालिङ्गं कृतम्॥ २३॥

O god Maheśvara! Your embrace of Mahāpāśupatas have threw these all Gaṇas in surprise.

तदेतेषां महादेव स्फुटं त्रैलोक्यविन्दकम्।
रूपं ज्ञानं विवेकं च वदस्व स्वेच्छया विभो॥ २४॥

Hence O Mahādeva! O sovereign! Describe as you please about their complexion, knowledge and conscience that have reached the three-world.

प्रमथाधिपतेर्वर्क्यं विदित्वा भूतभावनः।
बभाषे तान् गणान् सर्वान् भावाभावविचारिणः॥ २५॥

Understanding the sayings of Parmatha-chief, the lord of the creator addressed all those Gaṇas, considerers of existence and non-existence.

रुद्र उवाच

भवद्विर्भक्तिसंयुक्तैर्हरो भावेन पूजितः।
अहंकारविमूढैश्च निन्दद्विर्वैष्णवं पदम्॥ २६॥

Rudra said- You all have worshipped Hara with reverence but condemned the devotees of Viṣṇu on account of ignorance causing dullness to mind.

तेनाज्ञानेन भवतोऽनादृत्यानुविरोधिता।
योऽहं स भगवान् विष्णुर्विष्णुर्यः सोऽहमव्ययः॥ २७॥

On account of such ignorance looming in you all, special honour was given to them while you have been disregarded. Listen that Viṣṇu and I myself are one and equal. There is no dividing line between both of us.

नावयोर्वै वै विशेषोऽस्ति एका मूर्तिर्द्विधा स्थिता।
तदमीभिर्नरव्याघैर्भक्तिभावयुतैर्गणे॥ २८॥

1. Carrying a trident in his hand.

यथाहं वै परिज्ञातो न भवद्विस्तथा हरिः।
येनाहं निन्दितो नित्यं भवद्विमूढबुद्धिभिः॥ २९॥
तेन ज्ञानं हि वै नष्टं नातस्त्वालिङ्गिता मया।
इत्येवमुक्ते वचने गणाः प्रोचुम्हेश्वरम्॥ ३०॥

There lies no discrimination between us. A single form is seen in two reflections. These Gaṇas therefore, know me better than you all. No doubt can be raised in their conscience. When I take the matter from this angle, you all have so condemned me instead of praying. This is the reason, you all have lost your discretion. I therefore, has not embraced you. On this, the Gaṇas said to Maheśvara.

कथं भवान्यथैवयेन संस्थितोऽस्ति जनार्दनः।
भवान् हि निर्मलः शुद्धः शान्तः शुक्लो
निरञ्जनः॥ ३१॥

"How is it that you are identical with Janārddana?" You are of pure heart, sacrosanct, always in peace, white and Nirañjana (detached) while Viṣṇu is attached.

स चाप्यञ्जनसङ्काशः कथं तेनेह युज्यते।

विहस्य मेघगम्भीरं गणानेवमुवाच ह।
श्रूयतां सर्वमाख्यास्ये स्वयशोवद्दुनं वचः॥ ३३॥

In these circumstances, how can he join or integrate with you? Having heard such substantial pleas, Jimūta-vāhana² Śaṅkara smiled and thundered to Gaṇas like the cloud and said- "I shall tell everything that enhances my own glory in detail.

न त्वेव योग्या यूयं हि महाज्ञानस्य कर्हिचित्।
अपवादभयाद्गुह्यं भवतां हि प्रकाशये॥ ३४॥

You all are not entitled to acquire Mahājñāna.³ Yet due to fear that you may blame, I disclose the cryptic element before you all.

प्रियध्वमपि चैतेन यन्मचित्तास्तु नित्यशः।
एकरूपात्मकं देहं कुसूधं यत्तमास्थिताः॥ ३५॥

2. Cloud-dwelling.

3. Highest-knowledge.

By having exclusive devotion to me, other people are also dear to you. Make your indiscriminative or integrated relation with the god to whom you worship.

पयसा हविषाद्यैश्च स्नपनेन प्रथलतः।

I never please on the devotees who give bath to my icon with milk or ghee and smear sandal etc. without any concentration.

यत्नात्कक्षमादाय छिन्दध्वं मम विग्रहम्।
नरकार्हं भवद्वक्ता रक्षामि स्वयशोऽर्थतः॥ ३७॥

Take a saw in your hand and cut me in pieces, yet I shall defend you all hell-bearing devotees for my fame.

माऽयं वदिष्यते लोको महान्तमपवादिनम्।
यथा पतन्ति नरके हरभक्तास्तपस्विनः ॥ ३८॥

(This is because) this world will call me a highly scandalous person, by saying that the devotees to Śaṅkara fall in hell.

ब्रजन्ति नरं धोरं इत्येवं परिवादिनः।
अतोऽर्थं न क्षिपाम्यद्य भवतो नरकेऽनुत्ते॥ ३९॥

The people criticising this way, fall in the gross hell. I therefore, do not want to throw you in that gross hell.

यन्निन्दध्वं जगन्नाथं पुष्कराक्षं च मन्मयम्।
स चैव भगवाज्ञार्थः सर्वव्यापी गणेश्वरः॥ ४०॥

The Puṣkarākṣa¹ Jagannātha criticised by you is actually god Śarva, the head of gaṇas and omnipresent god. He is of my own form.

न तस्य सदृशो लोके विद्यते सचराचरे।
श्वेतमूर्तिः स भगवान्यीतो रक्तोऽञ्जनप्रभः॥ ४१॥

Nobody analogous to him is existed in this movable and immovable world. That god has white, yellow, red and dark aura or complexion.

तस्मात्परतं लोके नान्यद् धर्मं हि विद्यते।
सान्त्विकं राजसं चैव तामसं मिश्रकं तथा॥ ४२॥

There is no other Dharma in this world better than him. That god Sadāśiva, adored by all people holds the Sattva, Rājasa, Tāmasa and the mixed properties (guṇa).

स एव धते भगवान्सर्वपूज्यः सदाशिवः।
शकरस्य वचः श्रुत्वा शैवाद्याः प्रमथोत्तमाः॥ ४३॥

Hearing Śaṅkara's words, Śaiva and other Gaṇas then enquired- "O god! Kindly describe the characteristics of Sadāśiva."

प्रत्यूर्भगवन्नूहि सदाशिवविशेषणम्।
तेषां तद्वापितं श्रुत्वा प्रमथानामथेश्वरः।
दर्शयामास तदूपं स च शैवं निरञ्जनम्॥ ४४॥

When the god of Pramathas (Śaṅkara) saw curiosity of Gaṇas, he showed his Sadāśiva form.

ततः पश्यन्ति हि गणाः तमीशं वै सहस्रशः।
सहस्रवक्त्रचरणं सहस्रभुजमीश्वरम्॥ ४५॥

The several thousand Gaṇas then saw that god having thousand mouths, thousand feet and thousand arms.

दण्डपाणिं सुदुर्दृश्यं लोकैव्यासं समन्ततः।
दण्डसंस्थाऽस्य दृश्यन्ते देवप्रहरणास्तथा॥ ४६॥

He was everywhere in all lokas, Daṇḍapāṇī² and rarest to see. All weapons of god were also seen comprised in his Daṇḍa.

ततस्वेकमुखं भूयो ददृशुः शंकरं गणाः।
रौद्रैश्च वैष्णवैश्वैव धृतं चिह्नैः सहस्रशः॥ ४७॥

The Gaṇas then saw one mouthed Śaṅkara with several thousands marks of Rudra and Viṣṇu.

अर्द्धेन वैष्णवपुरुद्धेन हरविग्रहः।
खगाद्वजं वृषास्तुङं खगास्तुङं वृषध्वजम्॥ ४८॥

The half part of that form was of Hara and another half was of Viṣṇu (the bird rider). Further, one fraction of that half was of bull rider while the another fraction was of bird rider.

यथा यथा त्रिनयने रूपं धते गुणागणीः।
तथा तथा च जायन्ते महापाशुपता गणाः॥ ४९॥

1. Lotus-eyed.

2. Sovereign with club in hand.

With the changing of forms by three eyed god, more and more Gaṇas i.e. Mahāpāśupatas came into being.

ततोऽभवद्वैकरूपी शंकरो बहुरूपवान्।
क्षणाच्छ्वेतः क्षणाद्रूपः पीतो नीलः क्षणादपि॥५०॥
मिश्रको वर्णहीनश्च महापाशुपतस्तथा।
क्षणाद्वति स्त्रेन्द्रः क्षणाच्छंभुः प्रभाकरः॥५१॥
क्षणाद्वृच्छकरो विष्णुः क्षणाच्छर्वः पितामहः।
ततस्तदद्भुततमं दृष्ट्वा शैवादयो गणाः॥५२॥
अजानन्त तदैक्येन ब्रह्मविष्णवीशभास्करान्।
यदाऽभिन्नमन्यत देवदेवं सदाशिवम्॥५३॥

Then the multi-formed Śaṅkara converted into single-formed. He also appeared with two forms, single form and without any form. He continuously changed his complexion within seconds and seen as white, red, yellow, blue, mixed coloured, colourless and Mahāpāśupata. Śrī Śaṅkara was seen Indra at a moment, Sūrya at another moments, Viṣṇu and Pitāmaha (Brahmā) etc. in half instant of time. Momentary changes were seen one after another. The gaṇas Śaiva etc. were confirmed that Brahmā, Viṣṇu, Iśa and Bhāskara are one and there lies no duality when they find such phenomenal scene.

तदा निर्धूतपापास्ते समजायन्त राष्ट्रदाः।
तेष्वेवं धूतपापेषु अभिन्नेषु हरीश्वरः॥५४॥
प्रीतात्मा विवभौ शंभुः प्रीत्या युक्तोऽब्रवीद्वचः।
परितुष्टोऽस्मि सर्वेषां ज्ञानेनानेन सुव्रताः॥५५॥

When all attendants of Śiva realised Sadāśiva as an integrated god, they all come out from the trap of evils. When the discrimination in their minds was effaced, Śambhu pleased on them. He said affectionately- "O great resolute! I am happy on being you all so conscious."

वृणुष्वं वरमानन्त्यं दास्ये वो मनसेप्तिम्।
उच्चुस्ते देहि भगवन्वरमस्माकमीश्वर।
भिन्नदृष्ट्युद्धवं पापं यत्तदध्रुवं प्रयातु नः॥५६॥

"Now ask your desires to uncountable number. I will give you whatever boon you desire." They said- O god! O Maheśvara! Endow us with absolving all sins crept in our minds due to sense of dualism.

पुलस्थ्य उवाच-

बाढमित्यब्रवीच्छवश्चक्रे निर्घूतकल्पणान्।
संपर्यज्वजताव्यक्तस्तान्सर्वानाणयूथपान्॥५७॥

Pulastya said- Śaṅkara wished as they desired and removed their evil feelings with embracement to all those heads of Gaṇa-regiments..

इति विभुना प्रणतार्तिहरेण
गणपत्यः वृषमेघरथेन।
श्रुतिगदितानुगमेनेव मन्दरं
गिरिमवत्य समध्यवसन्तम्॥५८॥

Then all heads of Gaṇas spread over the entire territory of Mandara mountain from all sides with Śaṅkara, the bull and cloud riding god. It was arranged in accordance with the Vedic injunctions.

आच्छादितो गिरिवरः प्रमथैर्धनामै-
राभाति शुक्लतनुरीश्वरपादजुष्टः।
नीलाजिनातततनुः शरदभ्रवर्णो
यद्वद्विभाति बलवान्वृषभो हरस्या॥५९॥

As the mighty bull of Śaṅkara having fair complexion like clouds of pleasant season (Śarada) covered with the hide of blue stag is looked, the white mountain Mandara was looking the same when all Pramathas having cloud complexion covered it.

Andhaka's fight with Śiva

पुलस्त्य उवाच-

एतस्मिन्नन्तरे प्राप्तः समं दैत्यस्ताऽन्यकः।

मन्दरं पर्वतश्चेष्टुं प्रमथाश्रितकन्दरम्॥ १॥

Pulastyā said- In the meantime, Andhaka reached at the greatest of mountains Mandara, where Pramathas were living. His army of demons was also with him.

प्रमथा दानवान्दृष्टा चक्रुः किलकिलाध्वनिम्।

When Pramathas saw demons, they made a loud voice 'kil-kil' and began to play with several trumpets and other war striking instruments in sheer excitement.

That fierce sound had pierced the heart of ether and the earth viz. everywhere echo of these was heard because it was the same big-bang as occurs at the time of great devastation (Pralaya). Vināyaka, the god removing hurdles was moving through sky route that time. He therefore, also heard that voice.

With great indignation, he went at the mountain Mandara in company of Pramathas and saw there his father.

Mahādeva then said to Mālinī, Jayā, Vijayā, Jayantī and Aparājitā-

After, instructing all of them, God Śaṅkara took śūla in his hand and left happily from home with a determination of victory.

The heads of gaṇas immediately surrounded Śaṅkara as soon as he came out from the house from four sides and pronounced the voice for 'victory, victory'.

O hermit! When Śaṅkara, protector of the world, started for the battle, having spear in hand, there appeared good, modest and benevolent indications indicative of victory.

When Mahādeva, the sovereign god with crescent on his forehead, the all-pervading god covering the past, present and the future, smiled and said to Śailādi (Nandī) :

शशिशेखर उवाच-

निमित्तानीह दृश्यन्ते संभूतानि गणेश्वर॥ १७॥

Śāṅkara said- O Nandī! O heads of Gaṇas! There are good indications appearing to my eyes (for the omens have appeared and are seen here). Hence, I will definitely achieve victory. I will not suffer from defeat by any means.

तच्छंभुवचनं श्रुत्वा शैलादिः प्राह शंकरम्।

Śailādi replied- “O Mahādeva! How can it be doubted that you will vanquish the enemies? You will definitely conquer.”

O Nārada! Echo from drum, the slogans and the sound of other war declaring instruments then began to spread throughout the sky.

The furious Mahāpāśupatas and other Gaṇas then began slaughtering the demons army within seconds when the gods were just looking on.

O Brahman! That mace as hard as thunderbolt split into several hundred pieces when so blown on the frontal globe of Gaṇapati. This phenomenon took place the same way as the thunderbolt is split in several hundred pieces if befallen on the ridge of Meru mountain.

When Rāhu (the devil head) saw the mace infructuous and the Pārṣada (Gaṇeśa) coming, he just appeared and gripped him tightly with his fastening arms, with a view to protect his maternal uncle.

Inspite of so gripped by Rāhu, Vināyaka dragged with force the demon and gave a sharp blow from his axe on his head.

That demon divided into two parts and fell down. The mighty Rāhu still not loosened his grip, O Nārada! He did his every effort to cut-off the arm grip and get liberty yet he failed.

When Tuhuṇḍa was so killed and Rāhu lost power to sustain, the five Gaṇeśvaras simultaneously forced their way into the army of demons with a view to disgorging the venom of their wrath upon them.

Killing of Jambha and Kujambha

पुलस्य उवाच-

ततः स्वसैन्यमालक्ष्य निहतं प्रमथैरथा।

अस्यकोऽध्येत्य शुक्रं तु इदं वचनमब्रवीत्॥१॥

Pulastya said- When Andhaka saw his army incessantly being killed by Pramathas, he went to Śukrācarya and said-

भगवंस्त्वां समाश्रित्य वयं बाधाप देवताः।

अथान्यानपि विप्रर्थे गन्धर्वसुरकिन्नरान्॥२॥

O lord! O great Brahmin! Having obtained you as our asylum, we will kill the gods and others, also the Gandharvas, Suras and Kinnaras.

तदियं पश्य भगवन् मया गुप्ता वरुथिनी।

अनाथेव यथा नारी प्रमथैरपि काल्यते॥३॥

O god! Please, see that the army so defended by me is being destroyed by Pramathas like a woman without support of her husband.

कुजम्भाद्याश्च निहता भ्रातरो मम भार्गव।

अक्षवाः प्रमथाश्चामी कुरुक्षेत्रफलं यथा॥४॥

O Bhārgava! My brothers Kujambha and others have been killed and these Pramathas are imperishable like immortal fruits of Kurukṣetra, the holiest place.

तस्मात् कुरुष्व श्रेयो नो न जीयेम यथा पैरः।
जयेम च परान् युद्धे तथा त्वं कर्तुमर्हसि॥५॥

Hence, do welfare of us all so that we remain undefeated by the enemies and further, exercise such a measure that ensure our victory in the battle.

शुक्रोऽस्यकवचः श्रुत्वा सान्त्वयन् परमाद्भुतम्।

इत्येवमुक्त्वा वचनं विद्यां संजीवनीं कविः।

O divine hermit! The Brahmarṣi Śukrācārya listened to Andhaka, consoled the demon king and said- "I will do all effort for your welfare and do your favour." With these words, Śukrācārya used his Sañjīvanī Vidyā¹ by virtue of being his a great resolute.

तस्यामावर्त्यमानायां विद्यायामसुरेश्वराः।
ये हताः प्रथमं युद्धे दानवास्ते समुत्थिताः॥८॥

When that Vidyā was used, all the demon kings and the demons killed earlier in war came back to life.

कुजम्भादिषु दैत्येषु भूय एवोत्थितेष्वस्था।
युद्धायाभ्यागतेष्वेव नन्दी शंकरमद्वीतुः॥९॥

When Nandī saw Kujambha etc. demons, revived and forwarding for re-fighting, he said to Śāṅkara :

प्रहादेव वचो महां शृणु त्वं परमाद्भुतम्।
अविचिन्त्यमसहां च मृतानां जीवनं पुनः॥१०॥

O Mahādeva! Listen to my phenomenal statement : "It is beyond imagination and tolerance to see revival of once dead demons."

ये हताः प्रपर्थैर्देत्या यथाशक्त्या रणाजिरे।
ते समुज्जीविता भूयो भार्गवेणाथं विद्यया॥११॥

The demons killed by Pramathas in battle have once again brought back to life by Bhārgava by virtue of application of his Sañjīvanī Vidyā.

तदिदं तैर्महादेव महत्कर्म कृतं रणे।
संजातं स्वत्प्रमेवेशं शुक्रविद्याबलाश्रयात्॥१२॥

Hence, O Mahādeva! O god! The enormous labour made by us in battle has now been proved futile due to the Vidyā (learning) applied by Śukrācārya.

इत्येवमुक्ते वचने नन्दिनं कुलनन्दिनम्।
प्रत्युवाच प्रभुः प्रीत्या स्वार्थसाधनमुत्तमम्॥१३॥

These words being said by Nandi, the bestower of joy to his family, Mahādeva said to Nandī, the words leading to the best accomplishment of his object-

गच्छ शुक्रं गणपते ममान्तिकमुपानय।
अहं ते संयमिष्यामि यथायोर्गं समेत्य हि॥१४॥

O lord of Gaṇas! "Go to Śukra and bring him quickly to me. I shall restrain him after encountering according to circumstances."

इत्येवमुक्तो स्त्रेण नन्दी गणपतिस्ततः।

When Rudra so ordered, the master of Gaṇas, Nandī entered into the army of demons with an intention to seize Śukrācārya.

Similarly, Maya and Hlāda etc. demons, holding numerous type of arms and weapons in battle-field rushed towards Nandī.

बलयोर्घोरसङ्काशो सुप्रमथयोरथः॥ २४॥

A loud commotion and sound (Halaha-la-sound) was produced from the two armies of Pramathas and demons.

तमन्तरमुपागम्य नन्दी संगृह्य वेगवान्।
रथाद् भार्गवमाक्रामत्सिंहः क्षुद्रमृगं यथा॥ २५॥

At the same time, Nandī got opportunity to seize Bhārgava, attacked him from the chariot as a lion grips a tiny animal.

तमादाय हराभ्याशमागमद्विनायकः।
निपात्य रक्षिणः सर्वानन्थ शुक्रं न्यवेदयत्॥ २६॥

Gaṇanāyaka approached to Śaṅkara cleaning the way by killing demons and ultimately brought Śukrācārya before him.

तमानीतं कविं शर्वः प्राक्षिपद्वदने प्रभुः।
भार्गवं त्वावृततनुं जठरे स न्यवेशयत्॥ २७॥

God Śaṅkara threw Śukra into his mouth and put him comfortably in his belly.

स शंभुना कविश्रेष्ठो ग्रस्तो जठरमास्थितः।
तुष्टाव भगवन्तं तं मुनिर्वाभिरथादरात्॥ २८॥

Thus gobbled within stomach by Śambhu, Śukrācārya began to praise respectfully the glorious one while in the belly of god.

शुक्र उवाच-

वरदाय नमस्तुर्भ्यं हराय गुणशालिने।
शंकराय महेशाय अम्बकाय नमो नमः॥ २९॥

Śukra prayed- “Obeisance to Hara, the meritorious and bestower of boons. Frequent salute to Śaṅkara, Maheśa, Tryambaka.”

जीवनाय नमस्तुर्भ्यं लोकनाथ वृषाकपे।
मदनाग्ने कालशत्रो वामदेवाय ते नमः॥ ३०॥

O Lokanātha! O Vṛṣākapi! You are in the form of life. I salute you. O fire like god! O Kālaśatru! Salute to you, O Vāmadeva.

Frequent salute to three-eyed, Hara, Śaṅkara, husband of Umā, Jimūtaketu,

प्रीतो वरं वरय ददि तवेत्युवाच।
सं प्राह देववर देहि वरं ममाद्य
यद्वै तवैव जठरात् प्रतिनिर्गमोऽस्तु॥ ३२॥

When the great poet so prayed, Śaṅkara said- "I am pleased with you. Ask everything desired, I will give you the same." He requested- "O god! Give me boon to come out from your stomach."

ततो हरोऽक्षीणि तदा निस्त्व्य

Śaṅkara then closed his eyes and said- "O great Dvija (Brahmana)! Now come out. Bhārgava began to stroll in the belly of Mahādeva when god instructed with these words.

परिघ्रमन् ददर्शाय शंभोरेवोदरे कविः।
भुवनार्णवपातालान् वृतान् स्थावरजङ्घैः॥ ३४॥

While so strolling within the belly of Śaṅkara, Śukrācārya saw the earth, ocean and nether world covered by movable and immovable things.

स दृष्टा कौतुकाविष्टः परिब्रह्म भार्गवः।
तत्रासतो भार्गवस्य दिव्यः संवत्सरे गतः॥ ३८॥

Bhārgava curiously began to walk there observing Ādityas, Vasus, the host of Maruts, Viśvedevas, Gaṇas, Yakṣas, Kinnaras, Gandharvas, host of Apsarases, Sages, human beings, Sādhyas, animals, insects, ants, trees, creepers, mountains, buds, fruits, roots, plants, terrestrial, aquarium, Animiṣas,⁸ Sanimiṣas,⁹ quadrupeds, human beings (two leg creatures), immovable, movable, inexpressible, expressible (tangible and intangible), with qualities (Saguṇas) and without qualities (Nirguṇas). Having seen these things, possessed of curiosity, Śukra roamed here and there and one divine year passed with Śukra dwelling there.

न चान्त्मलभद् ब्रह्मांस्ततः श्रान्तोऽभवत् कविः।
स श्रान्तं वीक्ष्य चात्मानं नालभन्निर्गमं वशी।

O Brahmins! Śukra could not find the end of the route and he tired badly there. When he found him unable to walk more and could not find the exit, nothing else he did but resorted to god Mahādeva.

शुक्र उवाच-

विश्वरूप महारूप विश्वरूपाक्षसूत्रधृक्।
सहस्राक्ष महादेव त्वामहं शरणं गतः॥ ४०॥

Śukra said- O Viśvarūpa! O Mahārūpa! O Viśvarūpākṣa!¹⁰ O Sūtradhṛī!¹¹ O Sahastrākṣa!¹² O Mahādevo! I have come to you for my refuge.

9. Those which do not wink their eyes.
10. Mighty in form.
11. Wearing a many-coloured rosary.
12. Having thousand eyes.

O Śaṅkara! O Śambhu! O Śarva! O Sahastranetrāñghra!¹ O Bhujāñgabhūṣaṇa!² I have seen all lokas (worlds) in your belly and now I am badly exhausted. Hence, finally came to your shelter.

इत्येवमुक्ते वचने महात्मा
शंभुर्वचः प्राह तदा विहस्य।
निर्गच्छ पुत्रोऽसि ममाधुना त्वं
शिश्नेन भो भार्गववंशचन्द्र॥ ४२॥

The great soul Śambhu laughed on this and said- "You have now become my son. Hence, O descendant of Bhārgava dynasty! Come out from my penis now."

नामा तु शुक्रेति चराचरास्त्वां
स्तोष्यन्ति नैवात्र विचारमन्यत्।
इत्येवमुक्त्वा भगवान् मुमोच
शिश्नेन शुक्रः स च निर्जगाम॥ ४३॥

The entire movable and immovable world will now pray you calling 'Śukra'. There is no more scope for thinking otherwise. God Mahādeva then released Śukra from his penis route and he came out safely.

विनिर्गतो भार्गववंशचन्द्रः
शुक्रत्वमापय महानुभावः।
प्रणम्य शंभुं स जगाम तूर्ण

Released from the route of penis, thus, having obtained the acquaintance of semen gland, Śukra, the moon like descendant in Bhārgava dynasty bowed his head before Śambhu and immediately joined the army of mighty demons.

भार्गवे पुनरायाते दानवा मुदिताभवन्।
पुनर्युद्धाय विद्युर्मृतिं सह गणेश्वरै॥ ४५॥

The demons pleased on safe return of Bhārgava. They again determined to fight against Gaṇeśvaras.

1. Having thousand eyes and thousand feet.
2. Having serpents as your ornaments

गणेश्वरास्तानसुरान् सहापरगणैरथा।

The Gaṇeśvaras including all gods desirous of victory fought fiercely against those demons.

ततोऽसुरगणानां च देवतानां च युध्यताम्।
द्वद्वयुद्धं समभवद्वोररूपं तपोधन॥ ४७॥

O austere! A fierce battle was then started between mighty demons and the gods.

अथको नन्दिनं युद्धे शङ्कुकर्णं त्वयः शिराः।
कुम्भध्वजं बलिर्थीमान्नदिष्टेण विरोचनः॥ ४८॥

Andhaka began to fight against Nandī, Ayahśirā against Śaṅkukarṇa, wise Bali against Kumbhadhvaja and Virocana against Nandiṣeṇa.

Aśvagṛīva fought against Viśākha, Śākha against Vṛitra, Bāṇa, the foremost among the demons with Bala, the son of Nigama.

Vināyaka, the great valorous with an axe in hand began to fight against mighty demon-chief Tuhuṇḍa and Duryodhana began fighting against the powerful Ghaṇṭākarṇa.

हस्ती च कुण्डजठरं ह्लादो वीरं घटोदरम्।
एते हि बलिनां श्रेष्ठा दानवाः प्रमथास्तथा।
संयोधयन्ति देवर्षे दिव्याब्दानां शतानि षट्॥ ५१॥

Hasti began fighting against Kuṇḍajathara and Hlāda began fighting against Ghaṇṭodara. O divine hermit! All these mighty demons and Pramathas fought continuously till six hundred divine years were over.

शतक्रतुमथायानां वत्रपाणिमभिस्थितम्।
वारायामास बलवान् जम्भो नाम महासुरः॥ ५२॥

The mighty and great demon Jambha, countered Indra who was forwarding with thunderbolt in his hand.

शंभुनामाऽसुरपतिः स ब्रह्माणमयोधयत्।
महौजसं कुजम्भश्च विष्णुं दैत्यान्तकारिणम्॥५३॥

The demon king Śambhu began fighting against Brahmā and Kujambha the mighty demon began fighting against Viṣṇu, the destroyer of demons.

विवस्वन्तं रणे शाल्वो वरुणं त्रिशिरास्तथा।
द्विष्ठूर्धा पवनं सोमं राहुमित्रं विरुपद्धक्॥५४॥

Śālva began fighting against Yama, Trisirā against Varuṇa, Dvīmūrdhā against Pavana, Rāhu against Soma and Virūpadhṛk against Mitra.

अष्टौ ये वसवः ख्याता धराद्यास्ते महासुरान्।

सरभः शलभः पाकः पुरोऽथ विष्णुः पृथुः।
वातापी चेल्लवलश्चैव नानाशस्त्रास्त्रयोधिनः॥५६॥

The eight Vasus renowned as Dharā etc. names coped with eight archers in demons' army. These were Sarabha, Śalabha, Pāka, Pura, Vipṛthu, Pṛthu, Vātāpī and Ilvala. Those demons began fighting with numerous type of arms and weapons.

विश्वेदेवगणान् सर्वान् विष्वक्सेनपुरोगमान्।
एक एव रणे रौद्रः कालनेमिर्महासुरः॥५७॥

A dreadful demon Kālanemi began fighting lonely against Viśvedeva Gaṇas with Viśvaksena as their leader.

एकादशैव ये रुद्रास्तानेकोऽपि रणोत्कटः।
योधयामास तेजस्वी विद्युम्भाली महासुरः॥५८॥

A mighty demon Vidyunmālī, furious in battle, faced lonely the eleven Rudras.

द्वावश्चिनौ च नरको भास्करानेव शम्बरः।
साध्यान् मरुदण्डश्चैव निवातकवचादयः॥५९॥

Naraka fought against born Aśvinikumāras, Śambara against Adityas and Nivāta, Kavaca etc. fought against Sādhyas and Marudgaṇas.

एवं द्वन्द्वसहस्राणि प्रमथामरदानवैः।
कृतानि च सुराद्वानां दशतीः षट् महामुने॥६०॥

O great sage! Several thousand couples of Pramathas and demons thus, fought continuos war up to sixty divine years.

यदा न शक्तिता योद्धुं दैवतैरपरादयः।
तदा मायां समाश्रित्य ग्रसन्तः क्रमशोऽव्ययान्॥६१॥

When demons failed in defeating the gods, they resorted to fallacy (tactics) and started grasping the gods under manipulations.

ततोऽभवच्छैलपृष्ठं प्रावृडभ्रसमप्रभैः।
आवृतं वर्जितं सर्वैः प्रमथैरमरैरपि॥६२॥

The mountain without Pramathas and gods then covered with the lustre of demons like the rainy clouds.

दृष्ट्वा शून्यं गिरिप्रस्थं ग्रसतांश्च प्रमथामरान्।
क्रोधादुत्पादयामास रुद्रो जृम्भायिकां वशी॥६३॥

When Rudra saw the mountain region void of Pramathas and gods badly gripped in by demons, he in vagary of anger, originated Jṛimbhāyikā.

तथा स्पृष्टा दनुसुता अलसा मन्दभाषिणः।
वदनं विकृतं कृत्वा मुक्तशस्त्रं विजृम्भिरे॥६४॥

When Jṛimbhāyikā touched the demons, they began to talk slowly, fell in laxity, curved their mouths and started yawning.

जृम्भायेषु च तदा दानवेषु गणेश्वराः।
सुराश्च निर्युस्तूर्णं दैत्यदेहेभ्य आकुलाः॥६५॥

When demons yawned, the Gaṇeśvaras and gods immediately came out from their mouths and thus, became scot-free from the anxiety.

मेघप्रभेभ्यो देत्येभ्यो निर्गच्छन्तोऽमरोत्तमाः।
शोभन्ते पद्मप्राक्षा मेघेभ्य इव विद्युतः॥६६॥

The great lotus-eyed gods while coming out from the body of demons appeared like clouds, looked as brilliant as lightening coming out from the clouds.

गणामरेषु च समं निर्मतेषु तपोधन।
अयुद्यन्त महात्मानो भूय एवातिकोपिताः॥६७॥

O austere! The gaṇas and gods when so came out, the mighty demons filled with anger and started fighting.

ततस्तु देवैः सगणैः दानवाः शर्वपालितैः।
पराजीयन्त संग्रामे भूयो भ्युस्त्वहर्निशम्॥६८॥

The gaṇas and gods under lead of Śambhu then frequently gave bitter defeat to demons in battle, day and night.

त्रस्त्रिनेत्रः स्वां संध्यां सप्ताव्यशतिके गते।
कालेऽभ्युपासत तदा सोऽष्टादशभुजोऽव्ययः॥६९॥

When a period of seven hundred years lapsed in such fighting incessantly, the three eyed, eighteen arms god Mahādeva began to observe his sandhyā (meditation).

संस्पृश्यापः सरस्वत्यां स्मात्वा च विधिना हरः।
कृतार्थो भक्तिमान् मूर्खा पुष्पाञ्जलिमुपाक्षिप्तः॥७०॥

He took bath in Sarasvatī river, touched the water and offered a handful of flowers with his head bowed in reverence.

ततो ननाम शिरसा ततश्चक्रे प्रदक्षिणम्।
हिरण्यगर्भेत्यादित्यमुपतस्थे जजाप हा॥७१॥

He then did salute by bowing his head, made Pradakṣiṇā¹ and prayed as also did japa with Hiranyagarbha etc. hymns, the sun god.

त्वष्टे नमो नमस्तेऽस्तु सम्युग्मार्य शूलधृक्।
नर्न भावगम्भीरं दोर्दण्डं भ्रामयन् बलात्॥७२॥

Śūlapāṇi² then pronounced duly the hymn- "Tvastre Namo Namaste stu", began whirling his arms with force and danced.

परिनृत्यति देवेशे गणाञ्छैवामरास्तथा।
नृत्यते भावसंयुक्ता हरस्यानुविलासिनः॥७३॥

When Gaṇas and Gods saw Hara dancing, they also followed him. Thus, all began dancing.

संध्यापुपास्य देवेशः परिनृत्य यथेच्छया।
युद्धाय दानवैः सादर्धं मतिं भूयः समादद्ये॥७४॥

When sandhyā and dancing was over, the god of gods decided again to fight against the demons.

ततोऽमरगणैः सर्वैस्त्रिनेत्रभुजपालितैः।
दानवा निर्जिताः सर्वे बलिभिर्यवर्जितैः॥७५॥

The mighty and fearless gods under defence of Śāṅkara's arm, won all demons in war.

स्वबलं निर्जितं दृष्ट्वा मत्वाऽजेयं च शंकरम्।
अस्यकः सुन्दमाहूय इदं वचनमद्वीत्॥७६॥

When Andhaka saw his army defeated badly and victory of Śāṅkara, he called Sunda and said:

सुन्द भ्राताऽसि मे वीर विश्वास्यः सर्ववस्तुषु।
तद्वदाम्यद्य यद्वाक्यं तच्छुत्वा यस्क्षमं कुरु॥७७॥

O warrior Sunda! You are my brother and loyal to me in all matters. Hence, listen to carefully what I say and complete the same as early as you can.

दुर्जयोऽसौ रणपटुर्धर्मात्मा कारणात्तरैः।
समासते हि हदये पदाक्षी शैलनन्दिनी॥७८॥

This pious-minded Śiva is undefeatable because of expert in war-craft and strategy. The lotus-eyed Pārvatī has however, won my heart and I want to gain her at any cost.

तदुत्तिष्ठस्व गच्छामो यत्रासते चारुहसिनी।
तत्रैनां मोहयिस्यामि हरस्यपेण दानवा॥७९॥

Hence, be ready now. Let us go, where the lotus-eyed Pārvatī is living. "O demon! I will turn my complexion into Śāṅkara's and thus, enchant her."

भवान्भवस्यानुचरो भव नन्दी गणोश्वरः।
ततो गत्वाऽथ भुक्त्वा तां जेष्यामि प्रमथान्सुरान्॥८०॥

You should go with me in disguise of Nandī there. I will enjoy with her to the extent of my satiation and then conquer these Pramathas and gods.

इत्येवमुक्ते वचने बाढं सुन्दोऽभ्यभाषत।
समजायत शैलादिरस्यकः शंकरोऽप्यभूत्॥८१॥

Sunda replied- "Very well, I am ready to serve you." He immediately turned into Nandi's complexion and Andhaka became Śiva.

2. Holder of lance.

नन्दिस्त्रौ ततो भूत्वा महासुरचमूपती।

The chivalrous Andhaka and his assistant Sunda in disguise of Śiva and Nandī went then at the place where Pārvatī was. There were several wounds on their body due to battle.

हस्तमालम्ब्य सुन्दस्य अस्थको हरपन्दिरम्।
विवेश निर्विशद्केन चित्तेनासुरसत्तमः॥ ८३॥

Andhaka fearlessly entered the home of Śiva holding the hand of Sunda.

तं दृष्ट्वा मालिनीं प्राह सुययां विजयां जयाम्॥ ८५॥

When Pārvatī saw Śiva coming with Nandī and there were several wounds on their bodies, she entered her home hurriedly and ordered to illustrious Mālinī, Suyaśā, Vijayā and Jayā :

जये पश्यस्व देवस्य मदर्थे विग्रहं कृतम्।
शत्रुभिर्दानववरैस्तुनिष्ठस्व सत्त्वरम्॥ ८६॥

“O Jayā! Look at the body of my husband. How has his body formed with wounds. Hence, stand-up immediately.”

घृतमानय पौराणं बीजिकां लवणं दधि।
ब्रणभङ्गं करिष्यामि स्वयमेव पिनाकिनः॥ ८७॥

Bring immediately here the pre-stored ghee, bijikā,¹ salt and curd. I myself will soothe and dress the wounds of Śaṅkara, the Pināka holder.

O Suyaśā! “Dress the injuries of your master immediately.” Considering Andhaka as Śiva, she then stood-up and approached to him. When she approached near and stressed on herself to scrutinise indepth the characteristics on complexion of Śiva. O Brahmin! She saw that both the Vṛṣa signs existed in his collaterals were absent. Hence, she understood that he is actually a demon, clandestinely turned in Śiva's complexion.

O sage! As soon as Pārvatī smelt manipulation of demon, she ran away from there. Andhaka too left behind Sunda and chased Pārvatī speedily.

अपस्कारान्तरं भञ्जन् पादलुतिभिराकुलः।
तमापतनं दृष्ट्वै गिरिजा प्राद्रवद्याद्॥ ९३॥

He ran with anxiety crushing the rubbles and other hurdles on the way under his feet. Girijā frightened badly when she saw that demon is forwarding to her.

O great sage! The goddess then reached in a garden with her maids. Andhaka chased her there too.

तथापि न शशापैनं तपसो गोपनाय तु।

In spite of such contravention made by Andhaka, she still held control on her anger and finally entered the radiant Arka flower on account of fear.

ततोऽमरगणशेषो विष्णुश्चक्रगदाधरः ॥१८॥

O great sage! The battle between Pramatha and gods thereafter took a fierce shape when Andhaka rejoined his army. In the meantime, there appeared god Viṣṇu with discus and gadā in his hands.

He began killing the demons with a desire to do good to Śāṅkara. The arrows shot from Śāringa bow killed five, six, seven or eight demons simultaneously the same way as the sun beams shatter the clouds. Janārdana (Viṣṇu) killed a few among them by the blows of mace and some others by discus.

खड्डेन च चकर्तान्यान् दृष्ट्यान्यान् भस्मसाद् व्यथात्।

हलेनाकृष्ण चैवान्यान् मुसलेन व्यचूर्णयत् ॥२१॥

He killed some demons by giving blows of sword, turned into ash some other by his sight and dragged some demons, he crushed with pestle.

Garuḍa killed countless demons by attack he made through wings, beak and the chest. Ādipuruṣa (the first born) Brahmā revolved the great lotus round and sprinkled water on all of them. The gaṇas and gods each obtained energy equaled more than one hundred young elephants when that droplets touched their bodies.

On other side, these droplets began killing demons with their chariots (vāhanas) as the mountains are destroyed when thunderbolt is befallen on them. When Indra saw Brahmā and Viṣṇu killing these chivalrous demons; he too rushed there with thunderbolt.

O Nārada! When the demon king Bala saw Indra's joining war, he left aside Brahmā, sitting on the aircraft and Viṣṇu with mace in his hand. He rushed towards Indra fiercely for an attack on him. Bala was a demon lord undefeated till then by all gods and demons.

When Indra saw Bala forwarding, he gave a round turn to thunderbolt by using his thousand arms and threw it targeting his head with saying- "O stupid! You are now killed."

O sage! That thunderbolt split into several thousand pieces when blown on his head. Bala then rushed towards Indra. O great hermit! The king of gods badly threatened and turned back from the battle.

When Jambha saw Indra showing back to the battle, he came forward and said- "It is not good for you O Indra. You are the king of all movable and immovable worlds. Showing conduct slanted for a king like yours.

O great sage! Indra feared badly when Jambha scorned so bitterly. He approached to Viṣṇu and said- "O god! Listen to me. O governor of past and future! You are my only master."

जप्त्वास्तर्जयतेऽत्यर्थं मां निरायुधमीक्ष्य हि।

Seeing me without weapons, Jambha is challenging me with taunts. O god! Please, give weapons to me to carry on fighting. I have come in your shelter.

तमुवाच हरिः शक्रं त्यक्त्वा दर्प ब्रजायुधाना।

Viṣṇu said to Indra- "Go to the fire god and pray him for any weapon. I think, fire god will accede to your humble request and provide you with suitable weapons.

जनार्दनवचः श्रुत्वा शक्रस्त्वरितविक्रमः।
शरणं पावकमगादिदं चोवाच नारद॥ ११४॥

O Nārada! Indra complied with Viṣṇu's suggestion immediately. He reached to fire god and requested-

शक्र उवाच-
निष्ठतो मे बलं वत्रं कृशानो शतधा गतम्।
एष चाहूयते जप्त्वास्तम्भादे ह्यायुधं मम॥ ११५॥

Indra said- "O Agni! My thunderbolt has split into several hundred pieces when I was killing Bala. Now, Jambha is challenging me.

Hence, please, provide me with any suitable weapon."

पुलस्त्य उवाच-

तमाह भगवान्वह्निः प्रीतोऽस्मि तव वासव।
यत्क्वं दर्पं परीत्यज्य मापेव शरणं गतः॥ ११६॥

Pulastyā said- "Agni (God fire) replied- O Vēsava (Indra)! I am pleased on you, because you have come here setting aside the feeling of superiority."

इत्युद्यार्यं स्वशक्त्यास्तु शक्तिं निष्काम्य भावतः।
प्रादादिन्द्राय भगवान्नोचमानो दिवं गतः॥ ११७॥

The ever luminary god fire made appear another Śakti-weapon from his śakti and gave it to Indra and went to heaven.

तामादाय तदा शक्तिं शतघण्टां सुदारुणाम्।
प्रत्युद्ययौ तदा जप्त्वं हन्तुकामोऽरिमर्दनः॥ ११८॥

Indra, the suppresser of enemy then returned to battle-field for killing Jambha with Śakti he so received from fire god. It was fierce with one hundred bells.

तयातियशसा दैत्यः सहसैवाभिसंद्रुतः।
क्रोधं चक्रे तदा जप्त्वो निजघानं गजाधिपम्॥ ११९॥

When Indra suddenly chased Jambha, he furiously hit hard on his Airāvata.¹

जप्त्वमुष्टिनिपातेन भग्नकुम्भकटो गजः।
निपात यथा शैलः शक्रवज्रहतः पुरा॥ १२०॥

The elephant lost its forehead region due to severe blow of fist and it fell on ground as the mountains earlier were fell when thunderbolt thrown by Indra.

पतमानाद् द्विपेन्द्रानु शक्रश्चालुत्य वेगवान्।
त्यक्त्वैव मन्दरगिरि पपात वसुधातले॥ १२१॥

Indra immediately jumped from falling elephant, escaped from Mandara mountain and began falling straight way on the ground.

पतमानं हरिं सिद्धाश्चारणाश्च तदाऽब्रुवन्।
मा मा शक्र पतस्वाद्य भूतले तिष्ठ वासव॥ १२२॥

1. The master-elephant.

When he was so falling, the Siddhas and Cāraṇas said- "O Indra! Don't fall on the earth! Stop please."

स तेषां वचनं श्रुत्वा योगी तस्यौ क्षणं तदा।
प्राह चैतान् कथं योत्स्ये अपः शत्रुभिः सह॥ १२३॥

Yogī Indra made balance for a second and said- "How will I fight these enemies without carrier (vāhana)?"

तमूचुर्देवगन्धर्वा मा विषादं द्रजेश्वर।
युध्यस्व त्वं समासृह्य प्रेषयिष्याम यद् रथम्॥ १२४॥

The gods and gandharvas replied- O god! Don't be grievous. We are sending a chariot for yours continuing the war. Please, accept it and carry on fighting.

इत्येवमुक्त्वा विपुलं रथं स्वस्तिकलक्षणम्।
वानरध्वजसंयुक्तं हरिभिर्हरिभिर्युतम्॥ १२५॥
शुद्धजाम्बुनदपयं किञ्चिणीजालमण्डितम्।
शक्राय प्रेषयामासुविश्वावसुपुरोगमाः॥ १२६॥

Viśvāsu etc. then sent a grand chariot for Indra. Its shape was that of Svastika (an auspicious mark), Hanuman on its flag, green colour horses were yoked with it. It was made up of pure gold and tingeing bells were fixed.

तमागतमुदीक्ष्याथ हीनः सारथिना हरिः।
प्राह योत्स्ये कथं युद्धे संयमिष्ये कथं हयान्॥ १२७॥

When Indra saw that chariot without charioteer he said- "How will I do both functions simultaneously i.e. controlling the horse and fighting.

यदि कश्चिद्द्वि सारथ्यं करिष्यति ममाधुना।
ततोऽहं घातये शत्रूशास्त्वयेति कथंचन॥ १२८॥

In case, someone acts as charioteer to me, I can destroy the enemies and can do nothing without it.

ततोऽब्द्विवस्ते गन्धर्वा नास्माकं सारथिर्विभो।
विद्यते स्वयमेवाश्वास्त्वं संयन्तुमिहर्विष्मि॥ १२९॥

Gandharva then replied- O king! We have no charioteer this time. You yourself can control the horses.

इत्येवमुक्ते भगवांस्त्यक्त्वा स्यन्दनमुत्तमम्।
क्षमातलं निपपातैव परिभ्रष्टसगम्बरः॥ १३०॥

These words having been said, Lord Indra then left the most excellent chariot and fell down on the ground with a big thud. His garlands and garments both scattered.

चलन्मौलिर्मुक्तकचं परिभ्रष्टायुधाङ्गदः।
पतपानं सहचार्कं दृष्टा भूः समकप्पत॥ १३१॥

(Indra while falling from the mountain to ground), His crown was unsteady, hair of the head scattered and his weapons as also bracelet fell down on ground. The earth began shivering when it saw the fall of Indra.

पृथिव्यां कम्पमानायां शारीकर्षस्तपस्तिनी।

भार्याऽब्रवीत् प्रभो बालं बहिः कुरु यथासुखम्॥ १३२॥

When the wife of hermit Śamika felt the earth shivering, she said- "Dear husband! Take this baby conformably out from the hermitage."

स तु शीलावचः श्रुत्वा किमर्थमिति चाद्रवीत्।
सा चाह श्रूयतां नाथ दैवज्ञपरिभाषितम्॥ १३३॥
यदेयं कम्पते भूमिस्तदा प्रक्षिप्यते बहिः।
यद्वाहातो मुनिश्चेष्ट तद्वेदद्विगुणं मुने॥ १३४॥

Hearing the words of Śilā, He told- But why? She replied- O husband! Please, listen. The astrologers say that the things should be taken out from the home as things existed outside become twofold (viz. Increase just double).

एतद्वाक्यं तदा श्रुत्वा बालमादाय पुत्रकम्।
निराशङ्को बहिःशीघ्रं प्राक्षिपत् क्षमातले द्विजः॥ १३५॥

Then, hearing these words, the Brahmin took his son immediately out and put him on the ground.

भूयो गोयुगलार्थाय प्रविष्टो भार्या द्विजः।
निवारितो गता वेला अर्द्धहनिर्भविष्यति॥ १३६॥

When he was again entering into cowshed to take two cows out her wife forbade and said that earthquake is now over and the things taken out this moment will reduce to just half.

इत्येवमुक्ते देवर्षिर्बहिर्निर्गम्य वेगवान्।
ददर्श बालद्वितयं समरूपमवस्थितम्॥ १३७॥

This being said, O hermit! Brahmin then came out of the house and saw that two babies of analogous form are lying there.

तं दृष्टा देवताः पूज्य भार्या चाङ्गुतदर्शनाम्।
प्राह तत्त्वं न विन्दामि यत् पृच्छामि वदस्व

He then came in, worshipped god and then said to his genius wife- "I don't know the mystery lying with this. Hence, please give answer to my queries."

बालस्यास्य द्वितीयस्य के भविष्यद् गुणा वद।
भाग्यानि चास्य यद्योक्तं कर्म तत् कथयाथुना॥ १३९॥

First tell me that what qualities the other baby will acquire? Tell further, their luck as also the activities they will perform in their life.

सोऽब्रवीत्राद्य ते वक्ष्ये वदिष्यामि पुनः प्रभो।
सोऽब्रवीद् वद मेऽद्यैव नोचेन्नाशनामि

His wife replied- O dear husband! I will not reply you today on these matters wait for another time, please. He stressed on her and said that he will abandon food if it is not explained today.

सा प्राह श्रूयतां ब्रह्मन् वदिष्ये वचनं हितम्।
कातरेणाद्य यत्पृष्ठं भाव्यं कासुरयं किल॥ १४१॥

She replied- O Brahmin! Listen to the facts, I am now going to disclose. As you are hurry to answer, this baby shall definitely be a craftsman (Śilpi).

इत्युक्त्वति वाक्ये तु बाल एव त्वचेतनः।
जगाम साहां शक्रस्य कर्तुं सौत्यविशारदः॥ १४२॥

The baby was just innocent that time yet he stood-up and went to assist Indra to drive his chariot will expertise.

तं ब्रजन्तं हि गच्छर्वा विश्वावसुपुरोगमाः।
ज्ञात्वेन्द्रस्यैव साहाय्ये तेजसा समवर्धयन्॥ १४३॥

Viśvāvasu and other Gandharvas blessed that infant with enormous energy when he was on his way to see Indra.

गच्छर्वतेजसा युक्तः शिशुः शक्रं समेत्य हि।
प्रोवाचैहेहि देवेश प्रियो यन्ता भवामि ते॥ १४४॥

The infant energised with blessing of Gandharvas approached to Indra and said- "O king of god! Come, please. I offer my services as an expert charioteer to you."

तच्छुत्वास्य हरिः प्राह कस्य पुत्रोऽसि बालक।

Indra enquired- O baby! Tell me that who is your father? How will you bridle the horses? I am doubtful in this matter.

सोऽब्रवीदृषितेजोर्यं क्षमाभवं विद्धि वासव।
गच्छर्वतेजसा युक्तं वाजियानविशारदम्॥ १४६॥

He replied- O Vāsava! Consider me promoted by the semen of hermit, born from land and equipped with splendour of Gandharvas. I am expert in handling the chariot.

तच्छुत्वा भगवाञ्छक्रः खं भेजे योगिनां वरः।
स चापि विप्रतनयो मातलिर्नामविश्रुतः॥ १४७॥

God Indra when satisfied, went to the ether and that Brahmin's son renowned later-on as Mātali too followed him.

ततोऽधिरूढस्तु रथं शक्रस्त्रिदशपुंगवः।
रश्मीन् शमीकतनयो मातलिः प्रगृहीतवान्॥ १४८॥

Indra then rode on chariot and Mātali; the son of sage Śamīka held the bridle.

ततो मन्दरमागम्य विवेश रिपुवाहिनीम्।

सशरं पञ्चवर्णार्थं सितरक्तासितारुणम्।
पाण्डुच्छायां सुश्रेष्ठसं जग्राह समार्गणम्॥ १५०॥

They then marched towards to battle-field at Mandara mountain. When they were entering, Indra saw a bow having painted with five colours i.e. white, red, dark, pink and yellow, with an arrow. He picked up it.

ततस्तु मनसा देवान् रजः सत्त्वतमोमयान्।
नमस्कृत्य शरं चापे साधिज्ये विनियोजयत्॥ १५१॥

He then summoned Brahmā, Viṣṇu and Śiva in mind, bowed his head, gave tension to the string and put an arrow on bow.

ततो निश्चेरत्युग्रां शरा बहिणवाससःः।
ब्रह्मेशविष्णुनामाङ्गा सूदयन्तोऽसुरान् रणे॥ १५२॥

Several arrows came out from that single arrow with names of Brahmā, Viṣṇu and Maheśvara inscribed on them and the demons could not bear the blows so hard.

आकाशं विदिशः पृथ्वीं दिशश्च स शरोत्करैः।
सहस्राक्षोऽतिपटुभिष्ठादयामास नारद॥ १५३॥

O Nārada! That thousand eyed god shot a volley of arrows aptly and covered the sky, the earth, directions and the sub-directions with them.

गजो विद्धो हयो भिन्नः पृथिव्यां पतितो रथः।
महामात्रो धरां प्रासः सद्यः सीदज्ञरातुरः॥ १५४॥

The elephants penetrated, horses slaughtered, chariots fell on ground and the elephant drivers fell down dead with cries.

पदाति: पतितो भूमौ शक्रमार्गणताङ्गितः।
हतप्रधानभूयिष्ठं बलं तदभवद् रिपो॥ १५५॥

The infantry killed badly on account of injury caused by the arrows shot by Indra. About a major part of prominent commanders in demons army thus, finished.

तं शक्रबाणाभिहतं दुरासदं

When the demon Kujambha and Jambha saw that victorious army killed by Indra's arrows, they rushed towards him with mace in their hands.

तावापत्तौ भगवान् निरीक्ष्य
सुदर्शनेनारिविनाशनेन।
विष्णुः कुञ्जम्भं निजधान वेगात्
स स्यन्दनाद् गामगमद् गतासुः॥ १५७॥

God Viṣṇu, the destroyer of the enemies, seeing these two demons coming, struck hard Kujambha with his Sudarśana-cakra. He fell down on the earth from the chariot and was dead on the ground.

तस्मिन्हते भ्रातरि माधवेन
जम्भस्ततः क्रोधवशं जगाम।
क्रोधान्तिः शक्रमुपाद्रवद् रणे

When Kujambha was so killed by Médhava (Viṣṇu), Jambha filled with anger. He rushed towards Indra in sheer anger the same way as the stag in stable of puzzle runs towards lion.

तपापतनं प्रसपीक्ष्य शक्र-
स्त्यक्त्वैव चापं सशरं महात्मा।
जग्राह शक्तिं यमदण्डकल्पां
तामग्निदत्तां रिपवे ससर्ज॥ १५९॥

When Indra saw him forwarding swiftly, he left aside the bow and arrow and threw the śakti like Yama's dāṇḍa given by fire god on him.

शक्तिं सधण्टां कृतनिःस्वनां वै
दृष्ट्वा पतन्तीं गदया जघान।
गदां च कृत्वा सहसैव भस्मसाद्

When Jambha saw the śakti with bells forwarding, he hit it by his mace that śakti set mace in fire and penetrated the heart of Jambha within seconds.

शक्त्या स भिन्नो हृदये सुरारिः
पापात भूम्यां विगतासुरेव।
तं वीक्ष्य भूमौ पतितं विसंजं

That god's enemy fell down dead when his heart was so pierced. When demons saw him dead, they terrified and set back to the battle-field.

जम्भे हते दैत्यबले च भग्ने

When Jambha was killed and demons army so scattered, all gaṇas appreciated the valour exhibited by Indra and worshipped Hari. Indra went to Śaṅkara and stood up there.

इति श्रीवामनपुराणे पुलस्त्यनारदसंवादे भैरवप्रातुभर्विः

"O mighty charioteer! Bring forward any chariot just before Mahādeva. I will kill the army of Pramathas and gods by shorting with volley of arrows.

इत्यस्थकवचः श्रुत्वा सारथिस्तुरगांस्तदा।

O sage! When charioteer was so ordered by Andhaka, he lashed very powerful the dark coloured horses with whip.

ते यत्नोऽपि तुरगाः प्रेर्यमाणा हरं प्रति।
जघनेष्ववसीदतः कृच्छ्रेणोहुश्च तं रथम्॥७॥

The horses so forwarded to Śaṅkara were feeling pain in legs and anyhow were pulling that chariot.

वहन्तस्तुरगा दैत्यं प्राप्ताः प्रमथवाहिनीम्।
संवत्सरेण साग्रेण वायुवेगसमा अपि॥८॥

In spite of being fastest as air in speed, the horses carrying that demon could reach at Mandara after a period of year.

ततः कार्मुकमानस्य बाणजालौर्गणश्वरान्।
सुरान् संछादयामास् सेन्द्रोपेन्द्रमहेश्वरान्॥९॥

Andhaka there gave bend to his bow and covered all gods including, Gaṇeśvara, Indra, Upendra (Viṣṇu) and Maheśvara with a volley of arrows.

बाणैश्छादितमीक्ष्यैव बलं त्रैलोक्यरक्षिता।
सुरान् प्रोवाच भगवांश्क्रपाणिर्जनार्दनः॥१०॥

When Janārdana, the holder of discus and defender of three-worlds saw the army covered by arrows, he said to gods.

विष्णुरुचाच-
किं तिष्ठत्वं सुश्रेष्ठा हतेनानेन वै जयतः।
तस्मान्मद्वचनं शीघ्रं क्रियतां वै जयेप्सवः॥११॥

Viṣṇu said- O gods! Why have you so seated? Victory in its real meaning can be gained only when this demon is killed. Hence, you all gods act as I suggest for obtaining that victory.

शास्यन्तामस्य तुरगाः समं रथकुटुम्बिना।

Chapter 70

Defeat of Andhaka and eulogy of Śiva by Andhaka

पुलस्त्य उवाच-

तस्मिंस्तदा दैत्यबले च भग्ने
शुक्रोऽब्रवीदस्थकमासुरेन्द्रम्।
एहोहि वीराद्य गृहं महासुरा
योत्स्याम भूयो हरमेत्य शैलम्॥१॥

Pulastyā said- When the army of demons so scattered, Śukra said to Andhaka- O chivalrous demon! Return to home this time, we will come again on this mountain and fight against Śaṅkara.

तमुवाचास्थको ब्रह्मान् न सम्प्रभवतोदितम्।
रणान्नैवापयास्यामि कुलं व्यपदिशन् स्वयम्॥२॥

Andhaka said to him- O Brahmin! You have not said outright. I shall not bring scar to my family by showing back to the battle-field.

पश्य त्वं द्विजशार्दूलं मम वीर्यं सुदुर्धरम्।
देवदानवगर्वान् जेष्ये सेन्द्रमहेश्वरान्॥३॥

O great Dvija! See please, my prominent valour. I will conquer and subjugate all gods, demons and gandharvas including Indra and Maheśvara.

इत्येवमुक्त्वा वचनं हिरण्याक्षसुतोऽस्थकः।
समाश्वास्याब्रवाच्छंभुं सारथिं मधुराक्षरम्॥४॥

With these words Andhaka, the son of Hiranyākṣa, inspired in sweet voice, his charioteer Śambhu and said-

सारथे वाहय रथं हराभ्याशं महाबला।
यावन्निहिन्मि बाणौधैः प्रमथापरवाहिनीम्॥५॥

Kill his horses with the charioteers and make the enemy without chariot by splitting the chariot.

विश्वं तु कृतं पश्यादेन धक्षयति शंकरः।
नोपेक्ष्यः शत्रुरुद्दिष्टो देवाचार्येण देवताः॥ १३॥

Śaṅkara will set him on fire after he losses his chariot and charioteer. O gods! Jupiter, the preceptor of gods has truly said that one should not neglect his enemy.

इत्येवमुक्ताः प्रमथा वासुदेवेन सामराः।
चक्रवैर्गं सहेन्द्रेण समं चक्रघरेण च॥ १४॥

When Vāsudeva so instructed, all Pramathas and gods including Indra and Viṣṇu attacked fiercely.

तुरगणां सहस्रं तु मेघाभानं जनार्दनः।
निमिषान्तरमात्रेण गदया विनिपोथयत्॥ १५॥

Janārdana killed one thousand horses having cloud like complexion by blowing mace within seconds.

हताश्चात् स्थन्दनात् स्कन्दः प्रगृह्य रथसरथिम्।
शक्त्या विभिन्न हृदयं गतासु व्यसृजद्धुविः॥ १६॥

Skanda pulled the chariot so broken will all horses killed out and pierced his heart by hitting śakti. When he found dead, the corpse was thrown on the ground.

विनायकाद्याः प्रमथाः समं शक्तेण दैवतैः।
सध्वजाक्षं रथं तूर्णमभञ्जत तपोधनाः॥ १७॥

Austerious Vināyaka et. In company of Indra etc. gods broke into pieces shortly the chariot with flag and the axis.

सहस्र स महातेजा विरथस्त्वज्ज्य कार्मुकम्।
गदामादाय बलवानभिदुद्राव दैवतान्॥ १८॥

The mighty Andhaka kept aside his bow when he lost his chariot and rushed towards gods with mace in his hand.

पदान्यष्टौ ततो गत्वा मेघगम्भीरया गिरा।
स्थित्वा प्रोवाच दैत्येन्द्रो महादेवं स हेतुमत्॥ १९॥

He walked eight steps, stopped then and said Mahādeva in sensuous voice his motive.

भिक्षो भवान् सहनीकस्त्वसहायोऽस्मि साम्प्रतम्।
तथापि त्वां विजेष्यामि पश्य मेऽद्य पराक्रमम्॥ २०॥

O beggar! You have an army this time and I am lonely and helpless yet I will conquer you. See my valour today.

तद्वाक्यं शंकरः श्रुत्वा सेन्द्रासुरगणांस्तदा।
ब्रह्मणा सहितान् सर्वान् स्वशरीरे न्यवेशयत्॥ २१॥

Śaṅkara merged all gods including Indra and Brahmā within him when he heard the statement of Andhaka.

शरीरस्थांस्तान् प्रमथान् कृत्वा देवांश्च शंकरः।
प्राह एहोहि दुष्टात्मन् अहमेकोऽपि संस्थितः॥ २२॥

When Śaṅkara kept all gods within his belly, he said- "O ciked! Come now because I also lonely stood here.

तं दृष्ट्वा महदाश्चर्यं सर्वामरणक्षयम्।
दैत्यः शंकरप्रभ्यागाद्गदामादाय वेगवान्॥ २३॥

That demon saw amazingly that merger of gods yet he picked up mace in his hand and went to Śaṅkara within second.

तमापतनं भगवान्दृष्ट्वा त्यक्त्वा वृषोत्तमम्।
शूलपाणिर्मिश्रस्ये पदातिः प्रत्यतिष्ठता॥ २४॥

When Śūlapāṇi saw him approaching fast, he left the mountain and stood on feet at the mountain.

वेगेनैवापतनं च विभेदोरसि भैरवः।
दासुणं सुमहद् रूपं कृत्वा त्रैलोक्यभीषणः॥ २५॥

Bhairava made a fierce form of his body and pierced the heart of Andhaka so approaching.

दंश्करालं रविक्रोटिसंनिभं
मृगारिचर्मभिवृतं जटाधरम्।
भुजङ्गहारामलकण्ठकन्दरं
विंशार्द्धबाहुं सषड्दर्शलोचनम्॥ २६॥

(That form of Śaṅkara) was with fierce jaws, glowing with the light of one crore suns, covered by the hide of tiger, it had matted hair, its neck was decorated by snake garland, it had ten arms and three eyes.

एतादृशेन रूपेण भगवान् भूतभावनः।
बिभेद शत्रुं शूलेन शुभदः शाश्वतः शिवः॥ २७॥

Siva in such fierce form penetrated the heart of enemy by blowing Śūla on his heart. Śaṅkara, the god is all benevolent, immortal, loved by all creatures.

सशूलं भैरवं गृह्य भिन्नेऽप्युरसि दानवः।
विजहारतिवेगेन क्रोशमात्रं महामुने॥ २८॥

O great sage! In spite of so penetrated his heart, that demon gripped Bhairava with Śūla and pulled him to a distance of one kosa.

ततः कथंचिद्दग्धवान् संस्तभ्यात्मानमात्मना।
तूर्णमुत्पाटयामास शूलेन सगदं रिपुम्॥ २९॥

Then the god stopped him from so pulling through stronger check on mind, gave a sharp blow by Śūla on the enemy with mace.

दैत्याधिष्ठपिष्ठ गदां हरमूर्खिं च्यापातयत्।
कराभ्यां गृह्य शूलं च समुत्पत्त दानवः॥ ३०॥

The demon king also hit hard on the forehead of Śaṅkara by his mace and he sprang upside with Śūla gripped in hand.

संस्थितः स महायोगी सर्वधारः प्रजापतिः।
गदापातक्षताद्बूरि चतुर्धाऽसुगथापतत्॥ ३१॥

That Mahāyogī being basis of all creatures remain undeviated and in standing posture but the blood streams abundantly began flowing in four number from his forehead due to severe blow of mace.

पूर्वधारासमुद्भूतो भैरवोऽनिसमप्रभः।
विद्याराजेति विख्यातः पद्मालाविभूषितः॥ ३२॥

The blood stream facing east gave birth to Bhairava known as Vidyārāja. His complexion was like glowing fire and a lotus garland was around his neck.

तथा दक्षिणधारोत्थो भैरवः प्रेतमण्डितः।
कालराजेति विख्यातः कृष्णाञ्जनसमप्रभः॥ ३३॥

The south facing stream gave birth to a Bhairava known as Kālarāja. He was of Kṛṣṇāñjana glowing with preta like complexion.

अथ प्रतीचीधारोत्थो भैरवः पत्रभूषितः।
अतसीकुमुपप्रख्यः कामराजेति विश्रुतः॥ ३४॥

The renowned Bhairava Kārāja was originated from the blood stream facing crest direction. He was decorated by the leaves like Atasīpuṣpa.

उद्धराधरवश्वान्यो भैरवः शूलभूषितः।
सोमराजेति विख्यातश्वकमालाविभूषितः॥ ३५॥

From the blood stream facing north, the Bhairava called Somarāja with Śūla, discus in hand, garland in neck was originated.

क्षतस्य रुधिरात् जातो भैरवः शूलभूषितः।
स्वच्छन्दराजो विख्यातः इन्द्रायुधसमप्रभः॥ ३६॥

The blood from the injury gave birth to renowned Bhairava called Svaccandarāja.

भूमिस्थाद् रुधिराजातो भैरवः शूलभूषितः।
ख्यातो ललितराजेति सौभाङ्गनसमप्रभः॥ ३७॥

From the blood fell on earth, Lalitarāja Bhairava was originated. His complexion was like Srubhāñjana and Śūla in his hand.

एवं हि सप्तरूपोऽसौ कथ्यते भैरवो मुने।
विघ्नराजोऽष्टमः प्रोतो भैरवाष्टकमुच्यते॥ ३८॥

O sage! Thus seven Bhairavas were originated from the wound made by Andhaka on the head of Śaṅkara. The eighth Bhairava is called Vighnarāja. Thus, there are eight Bhairavas in all.

एवं महात्मना दैत्यः शूलप्रोतो महासुरः।
छत्रवद् धारितो ब्रह्मन् भैरवेण त्रिशूलिना॥ ३९॥

O Brahman! The great soul Triśūlī thus, held the Śūla stabbed demon like an umbrella.

तस्यासृगुल्बणं ब्रह्मज्ञूलभेदादवापतत्।
येनाकणं महादेवो निमग्नः सप्तमूर्तिमान्॥ ४०॥

O Brahmin! Excessive blood was poured from that demon due to deep wound so given by Śūla. Mahādeva in seven forms that time was soaked fully with that blood.

ततः स्वेदोऽभवद्भूरि श्रमजः शंकरस्य तु।
ललाटफलके तस्याज्जाता कन्याऽसृगाम्लता॥ ४१॥

On account of excessive labour so made, perspiration caused on the forehead of Śaṅkara. It gave birth to a virgin fully soaked in blood.

यद्भूम्यां न्यपतद्विप्र स्वेदबिन्दुः शिवाननात्।

तस्मादङ्गारपुज्ञाभो बालकः समजायत॥ ४२॥

O Brahmin! The sweat drops fallen from the face of Śaṅkara on ground originated a child with complexion of fire (viz. Yellow).

स बालस्तुषितोऽत्यर्थं पपौ सूर्यरमास्यकम्।

कन्या चोक्त्वा संजातमसृविलिहेऽद्धुत्॥ ४३॥

That thirsty baby began sipping the blood of Andhaka and that excellent girl too stood-up and began licking the blood so oozing.

ततस्तामाह बालार्कप्रभां भैरवमूर्तिमान्।

शङ्करो वरदो लोके श्रेयोऽर्थाय वचो महत्॥ ४४॥

Śaṅkara, in the form of Bhairava that live, said to that virgin having complexion as that of sun with blessing voice.

त्वां पूजयिष्यन्ति सुरा ऋषयः पितरोरगाः।

यक्षविद्याधरश्चैव मानावश्च शुभंकरि॥ ४५॥

पुलस्त्य उवाच-

इत्यं महेश्वरो ब्रह्मन्सुतो दैत्याधिपेन तु।
प्रीतियुक्तः पिङ्गलाक्षो हैरण्याक्षमुवाच ह॥६७॥

Pulastyā said- O Brahmin! When so prayed by demon king Andhaka, Maheśvara, the yellow eyed god said to him-

सिद्धोऽसि दानवपते परितुष्टोऽस्मि तेऽस्यक।
वरं वरय भद्रं ते यमिच्छसि विनाऽम्बिकाम्॥६८॥

O demon king! You have now become Siddha. I am pleased with you. Ask whatever please you except Ambikā. May you see all welfare.

Andhaka said- Ambikā is my mother and you Tryambaka are my father. I pray at the feet of mother. Ambikā is adorable to me.

O Maheśvara! I want stable and undeviating devotion at your feet and removal of my monstrous spirits. Please, render me with such boon.

महादेव उवाच-

एवं भवतु दैत्येन्द्र पापं ते यातु संक्षयम्।
मुक्तोऽसि दैत्यभावाच्च भृङ्गी गणपतिर्भव॥७२॥

Mahādeva said- O king of demons! Be it as you have desired. May your all evils destroy. You are now free from the monstrous feelings. Be now my Gaṇapati Bhṛṅgī.

इत्येवमुक्त्वा वरदः शूलाग्रादवतार्य तम्।

With these words, god Mahādeva brought down Andhaka from the point of Śūla and filled his would merely of touching thereupon.

ततः स्वदेहतो देवता ब्रह्मादीनाजुहाव सः।
ते निश्चेऽस्मर्हात्मानो नपस्यन्तत्रिलोचनम्॥७४॥

He then summoned Brahmā etc. gods existed in his body. All those great souls came out with salute to three eyed god.

गणान् सनन्दीनाहूय संनिवेश्य तदाग्रतः।
भृङ्गिनं दर्शयामास द्विवं नैषोऽस्यकेति हि॥७५॥

He called all gaṇas including Nandī, ordered to take seat there, introduced Bhṛṅgi with them and said- "He is definitely not Andhaka now."

तं दृष्टा दानवपतिं संशुष्कपिणितं रिपुम्।
गणाधिपत्यमापन्नं प्रशाशं सुर्वृष्टज्जम्॥७६॥

They all appreciated the bull riding god Mahādeva when they saw that the enemy demon king turned in skeleton and now made the head of gaṇas.

तत्सतान् प्राह भगवान्संपरिष्वज्य देवताः।

The god then embraced those gods and said- O gods! Go now to your respective places and live happily in the heaven.

The one thousand eyed Indra should also go at the white Malaya mountain and return to heaven after completing the task there.

इत्येवमुक्त्वा त्रिदशान्समाभाष्य व्यसर्जयत्।
पितामहं नमस्कृत्य परिष्वज्य जनार्दनम्॥७९॥

He saluted Pitāmaha, embraced Janārdana and did conversation with gods and so bade good-bye to all. These all gods so given farewell then returned to the heaven.

Mahendra went Malayācala, accomplished his work there and then returned to the heaven. When Śakra etc. gods so returned to their respective places, god Śiva honoured gaṇas according their position and status and bade them fare-well. O Nārada! The gaṇas too rode on their carriers (vehicles) after seeing Śaṅkara and returned to those worlds (abodes) where the cows give desired things, the trees bestow with all desired fruits.

Where there are rivers in which nectar flows and the reservoirs filled with Pāyasa.¹ When Pramathas returned to their respective places, Maheśvara took the hand of Andhaka in his hand and went at the Mandara mountain with his Nandī. After the passage of two thousand years, Śaṅkara returned to his home.

त्यक्त्वाऽर्ककुसुमं तूर्णं सखीस्ताः समुपाह्यत्।

He saw Girijā within white colour Arka flower. When Pārvatī saw Śaṅkara with proper examination of the special marks on his body, she came out from that flower and then called all her maids. Jayā etc. all goddesses immediately came there when so called by Pārvatī.

Surrounded by the maids, Pārvatī stood-up with an appetite to see Hara. The three eyed god saw first Girijā then turned towards that demon and Nandī and ultimately, embraced her. He then said- O goddess! I have made Andhaka your slave now.

Gaṇeśvara Nandī and Andhaka both touched the feet of Ambikā. O great sage! Andhaka then started praying Gaurī with sin effacing, evil crushing and Vedas affirmed psalm.

Bhavānī pleased on Andhaka having so prayed by him. She said- “O son! I am pleased on you. As the best thing desired by you.”

भृग्निरुचाच-

 तथेश्वरे च सततं भक्तिरस्तु ममाम्बिके॥१३॥

Bhṛigī said- O Pārvatī! O Ambikā! I ask you that all sins committed by me three ways (i.e. physical, mental, speech) and be my firm devotion for the god.

पुलस्त्य उवाच-

Pulastya said- Gaurī then blessed the son of Hiranyākṣa. Be it as desired by you. He became one of the heads of gaṇas and engrossed his mind always with worship of god Śiva.

Chapter 71

Birth of the seven Maruts in the different Manvantaras

नारद उवाच-

मलयेऽपि महेन्द्रेण यत्कृतं ब्राह्मणर्षभा।
निष्पादितं स्वकं कार्यं तम्भे व्याख्यातुर्महसि॥ १॥

Nārada said- O great Dvija! Listen to the task executed by Mahendra at Malaya mountain from me also.

पुलस्त्य उवाच-

श्रूयतां यम्हेन्द्रेण मलये पर्वतोत्तमे।
कृतं लोकहिते ब्रह्मनात्मनश्च तथा हितम्॥ २॥

Pulastyā said- O Brahmin! The book executed by Mahendra at the mountain Malaya for the welfare of the world and his own is worth listening. Hence, listen to it carefully.

अन्धासुरस्यानुचरा मयतारपुरोगमाः।
ते निर्जिताः सुरगणैः पातालगमनोत्सुकाः॥ ३॥

The servants of Andhaka demon i.e. Maya, Tāra etc. intended to go into nether when they were defeated by the gods.

ददृशुर्मलयं शैलं सिद्धार्थ्युषितकन्दरम्।
लताविमानसंछत्रं मत्तसत्त्वसमाकुलम्॥ ४॥
चन्दनैरुरगाक्रान्तैः सुशीतैरतिसेवितम्।
माधवीकुसुमामोदं ऋष्यर्चितहरं गिरिम्॥ ५॥

Those people saw Malaya mountain adored by hermits, caves used as residence by siddhās, surrounded by the creepers filled with the intoxicated creatures, covered by the cold blood serpents and filled with the fragrance of Mādhavī flower.

तं दृष्टा शीतलच्छायं श्रान्ता व्यायामकर्षिताः।
मयतारपुरोगास्ते निवासं समरोचयन्॥ ६॥

The demons Maya, Tārā etc. were tired and felt weakness in body when they reached there, so they wished to reside there.

तेषु तत्रोपविष्टेषु प्राणतृसिप्रदोऽनिलः।
विवाति शीतः शनकैर्दक्षिणो गम्यसंयुतः॥ ७॥

When they seated there, the cold breeze from south direction was blown with satiating effect to the breathing they felt there.

तत्रैव च रत्नं चक्रः सर्वं एव महासुराः।
कुर्वन्तो लोकपूज्ये विद्वेषं देवतागणे॥ ८॥

All mighty demons started living there without giving ear to the protest made by the gods worshipped by all human beings.

ताज्जात्वा शंकरः शक्रं प्रेषयन्मलये सुरान्।
स चापि ददृशे गच्छन्यथि गोमातरं हरिः॥ ९॥

Sankara came to know their forcibly living there. He therefore, sent Indra there. Indra saw a cow on his way to Malaya mountain.

तस्याः प्रदक्षिणां कृत्वा दृष्टा शैलं च सुप्रभम्।
ददृशे दानवान् सर्वान् संहष्टान् भोगसंयुतान्॥ १०॥

He made a Pradakṣinā (round turn) of the mountain and then saw demons living happily with all their enjoyments at that all radiant mountain.

अथाजुहाव बलहा सर्वनेव महासुरान्।
ते चाप्याययुरव्यग्राः विकिरन्तः शोत्करान्॥ ११॥

Indra then challenged all these mighty demons. They also forwarded by shorting volley of arrows without feeling least anxiety.

तानागतान् बाणजालैः रथस्थोऽद्भुतदर्शनः।
छादयामास विप्रर्वेण गिरिं वृष्ट्या यथा घनः॥ १२॥

O Brahmin! Indra was on chariot and looked excellent. He covered all those demons within net of arrow in such a way that it seemed as if clouds have covered the mountains with raining.

ततो बाणैरवच्छाय मयादीन् दानवान्हरिः।
पाकं जघान तीक्ष्णग्रैर्मार्गणैः कङ्कवाससैः॥ १३॥

Indra then covered Maya etc. demons with arrows and slaughtered Pāka named demon by acute arrows having shape of Kaika wings.

तत्र नाम विभुर्लेखे शासनत्वात् शैर्दृढैः।

पाकशासनतां शक्रः सर्वामरपर्तिविभुः॥ १४॥

There the all-pervading Śakra (Indra), lord of all immortals came to be called Pākāśāsana owing to his striking (Pāka) with forceful arrows.

तथाऽन्यं पुरनामानं बाणा सुरसुतं शैरैः।

सुपुद्दखैर्दरयामास ततोऽभूत्स पुरन्दरः॥ १५॥

He similarly, killed Pura, the son of Bāṇasura by shooting arrows having shape of decent wings. This is the reason for addressing him as Purandara.

हत्वेत्यं समरेऽजैषीद् गोत्रभिहानवं बलम्।

तत्रापि विजितं ब्रह्मन् रसातलमुपागमत्॥ १६॥

O Brahmin! Indra gave defeat to the army of demons in battle by slaughtering those demons. So subjugated remaining soldiers of demons' army then shifted to the nether world.

एतदर्थं सहस्राक्षः प्रेषितो मलयाचलम्।

अन्यकेन मुनिश्रेष्ठ किमन्यच्छ्रोतुमिच्छसि॥ १७॥

O great sage! God Śaṅkara for the same purpose had sent thousand eyed Indra at the mountain Malaya. What more do you want to listen?

नारद उवाच-

किमर्थं दैवतपतिर्गर्भभित्क्ष्यते हरिः।

एष मे संशयो ब्रह्मन् हृदि संपरिवर्तते॥ १८॥

Nārada said- O Brahmin! A doubt is looming in my mind that why is Indra, the lord of gods called Gotrabhit?

पुलस्त्य उवाच-

श्रूयतां गोत्रभिच्छकः कीर्तितो हि यथा मया।

हते हिरण्यकशिपौ यद्यकारारिमर्दनः॥ १९॥

Pulastyā said- Listen to carefully that why has I addressed Indra as Gotrabhit and what did Indra do after Hiranyakasipu was killed?

दितिर्विनष्टपुत्रा तु कश्यपं प्राह नारद।

विभो नाथोऽसि मे देहि शक्रहन्तारमात्मजम्॥ २०॥

O Nārada! Diti said Kaśyapa on the death of her son- "O god! You are my husband. So, please, endow me with a son who could kill Indra.

कश्यपस्तामुवाचाथ यदि त्वमसितेक्षणे।

संवत्सराणां दिव्यानां ततस्त्रैलोक्यनायकम्।

Kaśyapa said to her- O dark eyed lady! You will be able to give birth mighty son to kill Indra only when you could observe purity upto one hundred divine years. O darling! There is no other measure to exercise than it.

इत्येवमुक्ता सा भर्त्रा दितिर्नियममास्थिता।

गर्भधानं ऋषिः कृत्वा जगामोदयपर्वतम्॥ २३॥

Having heard this suggestion, Diti resorted to the rule. At the due time, Kaśyapa participated in intercourse and went at Udayagiri.

गते तस्मिन् मुनिश्रेष्ठः सहस्राक्षोऽपि सत्वरम्।

तमश्रमपुषागम्य दिर्ति वचनमब्रवीत्॥ २४॥

Indra went at that cottage just when the sage took departure and said to Diti-

कर्त्तिष्याव्यनुशूश्रूषां भवत्या यदि मन्यसे।

बाढमित्यब्रवीद् देवी भाविकर्मप्रचोदिता॥ २५॥

"I will wait upon you, if you please." As the forthcoming events definitely take place, Diti permitted Indra to serve her.

समिदाहरणादीनि तस्याक्षके पुरंदरः।

विनीतात्मा च कार्यार्थी छिद्रान्वेषी भुजङ्गचत्॥ २६॥

Purandara began to investigate the loopholes like a serpent in order to achieve success in his aim and began to bring wood (samidhā) etc. for Diti.

एकदा सा तपोयुक्ता शौचे प्रहति संस्थिता।

जानुभ्यामुपरिस्थाप्य मुक्तकेशा निजं शिरः।

सुघ्वाप केशप्रान्तैस्तु संश्लिष्टचरणाऽभवत्॥ २८॥

When a period of one thousand years passed, the lady over cautious in maintaining purity, took bath from head to feet, her hair were unlocked, she put her head on pubic and eventually began slumbering. Her hairs covered her feet.

तमन्तरमशौचस्य ज्ञात्वा देवः सहस्रदृक्।
विवेश मातुरुदरं नासारन्ध्रेण नारदा॥ २९॥

O Nārada! Thousand-eyed Indra searched the loophole and entered into the ovary of mother through nostril.

प्रविश्य जठरे कुञ्जे दैत्यमातुः पुरंदरः।
ददर्शोर्ध्वमुखं बालं कटिन्यस्तकरं महत्॥ ३०॥

Entering into the ovary, the furious Indra saw there a baby with his hands on loins and mouth upside lifted.

तस्यैवास्येऽथ ददृशे पेशीं मांसस्य वासवः।
शुद्धस्फटिकसङ्काशां कराभ्यां जगृहेऽथ ताम्॥ ३१॥

Vāsava saw a vein white as sphatic in his mouth. He lightly gripped that muscle with couple hand.

ततः कोपसमाधातो मांसपेशीं शतक्रतुः।
कराभ्यां मर्दयामास ततः सा कटिनाऽभवत्॥ ३२॥

Indra in sheer anger churned that muscle by hand resulting which it became very hard.

उर्ध्वेनार्थं च बृद्धे त्वधोऽर्थं बृद्धे तथा।
शतपर्वाऽथ कुलिशः संजातो मांसपेशितः॥ ३३॥

The half part of that muscle滑ided upside and another half滑ided downside. Thus, a thunderbolt with hundred knots was formed by that muscle.

तेनैव गर्भं दितिं वज्रेण शतपर्वणा।
चिछेद सप्तधा ब्रह्मन् स रुरोद च विस्वरम्॥ ३४॥

O Brahmin! Indra cut-off the womb in seven parts by using that thunderbolt. That baby began to weep loudly in the womb.

ततोऽप्यबुध्यत दितिरजानाच्छक्रचेष्टितम्।
शुश्राव वाचं पुत्रस्य रुदमानस्य नारद॥ ३५॥

O Nārada! Diti then awakened and she understood the offence so committed by Indra. She heard the voice of so weeping baby.

शक्रोऽपि प्राह मा मूढं स्दस्वेति सुघर्षरम्।
इत्येवमुक्त्वा चैकैकं भूयश्चिछ्देद सप्तधा॥ ३६॥

Indra too said- O idiot! Don't weep with "thundering" sound. He again cut of each part in seven pieces with these words.

ते जाता मरुतो नाम देवभृत्याः शतक्रतोः।
मातुरेवापचारेण चलते ते पुरुस्कृताः॥ ३७॥

They thus, became later-on the servants of gods and called Maruta. Due to the mistake committed by mother, the run forward.

ततः सकुलिशः शक्रो निर्वाप्य जठरात् तदा।
दितिं कृताञ्जलिपुटः प्राह भीतसु शापतः॥ ३८॥

Indra then came out from the every ovary of Diti, frightened of the curse to be given by her and said with folded hands-

प्रमास्ति नापराधोऽयं यच्छस्तस्तनयस्तव।
तवैवापनयाच्छस्तस्तन्मे न क्रोद्धुर्महसि॥ ३९॥

I have committed no offence in cutting-off the baby in your womb. You had bent downward and this mistake in taking care of sanctity caused this all. Hence, you should not angry with me.

दितिरुवाच

न तवात्रापराधोऽस्ति मन्ये दिष्टमिदं पुरा।
संपूर्णं त्वपि काले वै योऽशौचत्वमुपागतः॥ ४०॥

Diti said- "You have committed no mistake at all. I consider it predestined. Perhaps, on account of such preponderance of event, a slight mistake in taking care of purity has committed by me just at the time when period was matured.

पुलस्त्य उवाच-

इत्येवमुक्त्वा तान्बालान्परिसान्व्य दितिः स्वयम्।
देवराजा सहैनांसु प्रेषयामास भामिनी॥ ४१॥

Pulasty said- Diti consoled those babies with these words to Indra and sent them all in company of him.

एवं पुरा स्वानपि सोदरान् स
गर्भस्थितानुञ्जरितं भयार्तः।

बिभेद वत्रेण ततः स गोत्रभित्

ख्यातो महर्षे भगवान् महेन्द्रः॥४२॥

O great sage! Indra had thus, cut-off his sibling in pieces within the womb of his mother during long past. This is the reason, he got another name as Gotrabhit (viz. one who had killed his siblings).

Chapter 72

Birth of the seven Maruts

नारद उवाच-

यदमी भवता प्रोक्ता मरुतो दितिजोत्तमाः।
तत्केन पूर्वमासन् वै मरुमार्गेषु कथ्यताम्॥ १॥

Nārada said- Kindly explain that at what branch or route Maruts were existed before their origin from Diti as you have already told to us?

पूर्वमन्वन्तरेष्व समतीतेषु सत्तमा।
के त्वासन्वायुमार्गस्थासन्मे व्याख्यातुर्महसि॥ २॥

O great hermit! Kindly tell me specifically that which branch of Maruts was existed at air route when the previous Manvantara passed by?

पुलस्त्य उवाच-

श्रूयतां पूर्वमरुतामुत्पत्तिं कथयामि ते।
स्वायंभुवं समारभ्य यावन्मन्वन्तरं त्विदम्॥ ३॥

Pulastyā replied- I explain now the story pertaining to the origin of Marudgaṇas from Svāyambhuva Manvantara to current Manvantara before you. Please, listen to it carefully.

स्वायंभुवस्य पुत्रोऽभूम्ननुर्नाम प्रियद्रवतः।
तस्यासीत्सवनो नाम पुत्रस्त्रैलोक्यपूजितः॥ ४॥

Priyavrata was the son of Svāyambhuva Manu and Savana renowned throughout the three-world was the son of that Priyavrata.

स चानपत्यो देवर्षे नृपः प्रेतगतिं गतः।
ततोऽसदत्स्य पली सुवेदा शोकविह्ला॥ ५॥

O sage! Savana could not reproduce children and thus, dead without issue. He therefore, obtained Pretagati (as per Hindu ritual, the man if dead without son, becomes Preta). His wife Sudeva began weiling bitterly on his sudden death.

न ददाति तथा दश्युं समालिङ्ग्य स्थिता पतिष्ठ।
नाथ नाथेति बहुशो विलपन्ती त्वनाथवत्॥ ६॥

She did not offer the corpse for pyre, embraced tightly her husband's dead body and started weeping with loud cries as an orphan.

तामन्तरिक्षादशरीरणी वाक्।
प्रोवाच मा राजपत्नीह रोदीः।
यद्यस्ति ते सत्यमनुज्ञमं तदा
भवत्वयं ते पतिना सहायिनः॥ ७॥

An intangible voice in the meantime came from the sky and addressed her- "O queen! Do not weep. If you are so chaste, this fire of your chastity shall turn in pyre for both of you together."

सा तां वाणीमन्तरिक्षान्निशम्य
प्रोवाचेदं राजपुत्री सुवेदा।
शोचाम्येन पर्युषं पुत्रहीनं
नैवात्मानं मन्दधार्यं विहङ्ग॥ ८॥

Sudevā heard this voice and said- "O space moving voice! I am weeping for this king who has dead without son and seldom for my being."

सोऽथाब्रवीन्मा रुदस्वायताक्षि।
पुत्रास्त्वतो भूमिपालस्य सप्त।
भविष्यति वह्निमारोह शीघ्रं
सत्यं प्रोक्तं श्रद्धस्व त्वमद्य॥ ९॥

The voice again suggested- O huge eyed lady! Don't weep. You will shortly given birth to seven sons from consummation with the same king. Hence, sit on pyre immediately. I am telling you the truth. Have faith on me.

इत्येवमुक्ता खचरेण बाला
चितौ समारोप्य पतिं वराहम्।
हुताशमासाद्य पतिब्रता तं
संचिन्तयन्ती ज्वलनं प्रपन्ना॥ १० ॥

That lady followed the suggestion given by that intangible voice, put the corpse of her husband on pyre, kept in mind the memory of him, lit the fire and thus, resorted to fire.

ततो मुहूर्तान्विपतिः श्रिया युतः
समुत्तस्थौ सहितो भार्याऽसौ।
खमुत्पाताथ स कामकारी
समं महिष्या च सुनाभपुन्ना॥ ११ ॥

Within hours when the fire blazed, that king stood-up with her wife from pyre, ascended to the sky and began strolling there voluntarily.

तस्याम्बरे नारद पार्थिवस्य
जाता रजोगा महिषीं तु गच्छतः।
स दिव्ययोगात् प्रतिसंस्थितोऽम्बरे
भार्यासहायो दिवसानि पञ्च॥ १२ ॥

O Nārada! While ascending to sky, the queen got menstruation and that king stayed in sky with divine sextile there for five days. His wife also was with him.

ततस्तु षष्ठेऽहनि पार्थिवेन
ऋतुर्न वस्योऽद्य भवेद्विचिन्त्य।
राम तन्या सह कामचारी
ततोऽम्बरात्माच्यवतास्य शुक्रम्॥ १३ ॥

The sensuous king took care of utilising the cycle of reproduction and began enjoying intercourse with his wife on the sixth day of menstruation. He was finally ejaculated from the sky.

शुक्रोत्सर्गावसाने तु नृपतिर्भार्या सह।
जगाम दिव्यया गत्या ब्रह्मलोकं तपोधन॥ १४ ॥

O austere! That king moved to the abode of Brahma just after he ejaculated. His wife also followed him.

तदम्बरात् प्रचलितमध्रवर्णं
शुक्रं समाना नलिनी वपुष्यती।
चित्रा विशाला हरितालिनी च
सप्तर्षिपत्न्यो ददृशुर्यथेच्छया॥ १५ ॥

O great hermit! The seven spouses of hermits saw. The semen as white as Abhraka falling from the sky with curiosity and attraction. These wives were- Samānā, Nalinī, Vapusmatī, Citrā, Viśalā, Haritā and Alinī.

तदद्वा पुष्करे न्यस्तं प्रत्यैच्छन्त तपोधन।
मन्यमानास्तदमृतं सदा यौवनलिप्सया॥ १६ ॥

O austere! They all considered the semen as nectar and kept it safely in Puṣkara with a desire to receive enduring youth.

ततः स्नात्वा तु विधिवत्संपूज्य तान् निजान् पतीन्।
पतिभिः समनुज्ञासाः पपुः पुष्करसंस्थितम्॥ १७ ॥

ब्रह्मतेजोविहीनास्ता जाताः पत्न्यस्तपस्विनाम्।
ततस्तु तत्यजुः सर्वे सदोषास्ताश्च पत्नयः॥ १९ ॥

They all took bath, honoured their husbands, asked their permission and then sipped that semen considering the same as if nectar. No sooner they sipped that semen ejaculated by the king, all of them were lost of Brahma splendour. The ascetics considered them defective and gave up their ties with them.

सुषुवुः सप्त तनयान् रुदतो भैरवं मुने।
तेषां रुदितशब्देन सर्वमापूरितं जगत्॥ २० ॥

O sage! The wives of those hermits wept bitterly throughout the period the womb matured in their belly and gave birth finally seven sons. All babies were wept so loud as it echoed the entire territory of the world.

अथाजगाम भगवान्ब्रह्मा लोकपितामहः।
सप्तभ्येत्याब्रवीद् बालान् मा रुदध्वं महाबलाः॥ २१ ॥

Subsequently god Brahma appeared there. He went to the babies and said- O brave babies! "Don't weep so loud."

मरुतो नाम यूयं वै भविष्यत्वं वियद्यराः।
इत्येवमुक्त्वा देवेशो ब्रह्मा लोकपितामहः॥ २२॥
तानादाय वियद्यारि मासुतानादिदेश ह।
ते त्वासन्मस्तस्त्वाद्या मनोः स्वायंभुवेऽन्तरे॥ २३॥

You all will be addressed as Marut and stroll freely in the sky. He then took them all to sky and ordered them to reside there. These babies were the foremost Marut during the regime of Svāyambhuva Manu.

स्वारोचिषे तु मरुतो वक्ष्यामि शृणु नारद।
स्वारोचिषस्य पुत्रस्तु श्रीमानासीत् ऋतध्वजः॥ २४॥

O Nārada! I will now tell you about Marut's originated during the regime of Svārocīṣa Manu. Listen it patiently. Rādhvaja was the son of Svārocīṣa.

तस्य पुत्राभवन् सप्त सप्तार्थिः प्रतिमा मुने।
तपोऽर्थं ते गताः शैलं महामेरुं नरेश्वराः॥ २५॥

O sage! He had seven sons having fire like complexion. The all kings went at great Meru mountain for penance.

आराधयन्तो ब्रह्माणं पदमैन्द्रमथेष्ववः।
ततो विपश्चिन्नापाथ सहस्राक्षो भयातुरः॥ २६॥

They began worshipping Brahmā with an intention to obtain the throne of god Indra. When Indra took notice of their resolution, he was badly frightened.

पूतनामप्सरोमुख्यां प्राह नारद वाक्यवित्।
गच्छस्व पूतने शैलं महामेरु विशालिनम्॥ २७॥

O Nārada! Skilled orator Indra called the chief nymph Pūtanā and ordered- "O Pūtanā! Go at Mahāmeru mountain."

तत्र तप्यन्ति हि तपः ऋतध्वजसुता महत्।
यथा हि तपसो विघ्नं तेषां भवति सुन्दरि॥ २८॥
तथा कुरुष्व मा तेषां सिद्धिर्भवतु सुन्दरि।
इत्येवमुक्ता शक्रेण पूतना रूपशालिनी॥ २९॥
तत्राजगाम त्वरिता यत्रातप्यन्ते ते तपः।
आश्रमस्याविद्वे तु नदी मन्दोदवाहिनी॥ ३०॥

The sons of Kratudhvaja are engrossed with penance there. O charming lady! Exercise all that could disturb them and create circumstances just contrary to drive their mind away from the intention they have made. Beautiful Pūtanā immediately went there and saw them engrossed with penance. A rivulet with soft flow was nearby that place.

तस्यां स्नातुं समायाताः सर्वं एव सहोदराः।
साऽपि स्नातुं सुचार्वद्वी त्ववतीर्णा महानदीम्॥ ३१॥

All those siblings came there to take a bath in morning. That beautiful nymph too descended in that rivulet at the same time for bath.

ददृशुस्ते नृपाः स्नातां ततश्चक्षुभिरे मुने।
तेषां च प्राच्यवच्छुक्रं तत्पौ जलचारिणी॥ ३२॥
शह्वनी ग्राहमुख्यस्य महाशह्वस्य वल्लभा।
तेऽपि विभ्रष्टतपसो जग्मू राज्यं तु पैतृकम्॥ ३३॥

O sage! When those princes saw her bathing there, they were highly excited and ejaculated in the river. The semen so discharge was sipped by Śāṅkhī, the wife of a crocodile Mahāśāṅkha. Thus, their penance was breached and they returned back desperately to their father's kingdom.

सा चाप्सरा: शक्रमेत्य याथातथं न्यवेदयत्।

निवेदयामास तदा ऋतध्वजसुतेषु वै।
तथाऽभ्येत्य महात्मानो योगिनां योगधारिणः॥ ३६॥

That nymph also returned to Indra and reported the event. Subsequently, a fisherman after several year once caught in net that Śāṅkhī, crocodile. When he saw it was crocodile instead of fish, he left her at the bank and went to Kratudhvaja. He reported the matter there before those princes. Those expert Yogī immediately went to her (crocodile's wife).

नीत्वा स्वमन्दिरं सर्वे पुरवाप्यां समुत्सृजन्।
ततः क्रपाच्छंखिनी सा सुषुवे सप्त वै शिशून्॥ ३७॥

They brought her to the palace and released in a vast reservoir there. That crocodile gave birth to seven sons subsequently.

जातमात्रेषु पुत्रेषु मोक्षभावमगाद्य सा।
अमातृपितृका बाला जलमध्यविहारिणः॥ ३८॥

The crocodile was dead immediately after delivery and the parentless babies began to live in the water.

सत्न्यार्थिनो वै रुस्तुरथाभ्यागात्पितामहः।
मा रुदध्वमितीत्याह मरुतो नाम पुत्रकाः॥ ३९॥

They started weeping loudly for milk. Brahmā appeared their for their assistance and consoled them by saying- "O sons! Don't weep. You all shall be addressed as Marut.

यूयं देवा भविष्यत्वं वायुस्कन्धविचारिणः।
इत्येवमुक्त्वाथादाय सर्वास्तान् दैवतान् प्रति॥ ४०॥
नियोज्य च मरुन्मार्गे वैराजं भवनं गतः।
एवमासंश्च मरुतो मनोः स्वारोचिषेऽन्तरे॥ ४१॥

"You will stroll on the shoulder of the air." With these words, Brahmā took all those gods with him, set them at the air route and returned to his abode. Thus, Maruts were originated during the regime of Svārocīṣa Manu.

उत्तमे मरुतो ये च ताङ्गुण्यष्ट तपोदेन।
उत्तमस्यान्ववाये तु राजासीत्रिष्ठाद्याधिपः॥ ४२॥
वपुष्मानिति विख्यातो वपुषा भास्करोपमः।
तस्य पुत्रो गुणश्चेष्टो ज्योतिष्मान्थार्मिकोऽभवत्॥ ४३॥

O austere! Listen to about Maruts during Manvantara (uttama). In the dynasty of uttama, there was a renowned king Vapuṣmāna having complexion as bright as the sun. He was Niṣadhādhipa. He had a religious and meritorious son called Jyotiṣmāna.

स पुत्रार्थी तपस्तेपे नदीं मन्दाकिनीमनु।
तस्य भार्या च सुश्रोणी देवाचार्यसुता तथा॥ ४४॥
तप्त्युरणयुक्तस्य बभूव परिचारिका।
सा स्वयं फलपुष्पाम्बुसमिलुशं समाहरत्॥ ४५॥

He began to exercise penance on the bank of Mandākinī as he was desirous of getting a son. His wife, Kalyāṇī, the daughter of Jupiter (preceptor to gods) began to assist him during that penance. She herself used to collect fruits, flowers, water, fuel and kuśa grass.

चकार पदापत्राक्षी सम्यक् चातिशिष्ठूजनम्।
पर्ति शुश्रूषमाणा सा कृशा धमनिसंतता॥ ४६॥

That lotus-eyed beautiful woman used to greet all guests at the cottage there. Owing to such hard living during penance, her body became thin and lean and the veins appeared on the skin.

तेजोयुक्ता सुचार्वद्वी दृष्टा सप्तर्षिर्भिर्वने।
तां तथा चारुसर्वाङ्गीं दृष्ट्वाऽथ तपसा कृशाम्॥ ४७॥
पप्रच्छुस्तपसो हेतुं तस्यास्तद्विरेव च।
साऽद्वीतीनयार्थाय आवाभ्यां वै तपःक्रिया॥ ४८॥

The seven hermits (Saptarśis) once met that beautiful and bright lady living in a forest. They saw that her body became thin and lean. During their stay there, they asked that why were they observing such strict penance. She replied- "Both of us are desirous of a son."

ते चास्यै वरदा ब्रह्मन् जाताः सप्त महर्षयः।
द्रजध्वं तनयाः सप्त भविष्यन्ति न संशयः॥ ४९॥
युवयोर्गुणसंयुक्ता महर्षीणां प्रसादतः।
इत्येवमुक्त्वा जग्मुस्ते सर्व एव महर्षयः॥ ५०॥

O Brahmin! They blessed her by saying- "Now return to your kingdom. You will definitely give birth to seven sons by virtue of our blessing. With these words, all those hermits had taken departure from there."

स चापि राजर्षिरगात् सभार्यो नगरं निजम्।

अवाप गर्भं तन्वद्वी तस्मात्पतिसत्तमात्।
गुर्विण्यामय भार्यायां ममारासौ नराधिपः॥ ५२॥

Following the suggestion of Saptarśis, that king returned to his palace with wife from forest. After a lapse of several years, that queen conceived and just then the king was dead.

सा चाप्यारोदुमिच्छती भर्तारं वै पतिद्रवता।
निवारिता तदाऽमात्यैर्न तथाऽपि व्यतिष्ठत॥५३॥

The chaste lady was passionate to sit on pyre with her husband but the ministers tried to console her. She did not still put ear to their suggestions and became stubborn to die with husband.

समारोद्याथ भर्तारं चितायामारुहच सा।
ततोऽग्निमध्यात् सलिले मांसपेश्यपतन्मुने॥५४॥

She put the corpse of her husband on pyre and then sat on the same with it. O sage! When the pyre was blazing in flames, a muscle from body from the middle portion of pyre fell in the water.

साऽभसा सुखशीतेन संसिक्तां सप्तधाऽभवता।
तेऽजायन्नाथ मरुत उत्तमस्यान्तरे मनोः॥५५॥

The muscle divided in seven pieces when immersed into cold water. Those seven pieces became Maruts during regime of Uttama Manu.

तामसस्यान्तरे ये च मरुतोप्यभवन्युरा।
तानहं कीर्तयिष्यामि गीतनृत्यकलिप्रिया॥५६॥

O hermit! You are fond of singing, dancing and the lover of strife. I will describe about very first the Maruts born on first Manvantara.

तामसस्य मनोः पुत्रो ऋतध्वज इति श्रुतः।
स पुत्रार्थी जुहावानौ स्वमांसं सृष्टिरं तथा॥५७॥

The son of Tāmasa Manu was famously called Rādhvaja. He offered his flesh and blood of his body in order to obtain a son.

अस्थीनि रोमकेशांश्च स्नायुमज्जायकृदधनम्।
शुक्रं च चित्रगौ राजा सुतार्थी इति नः श्रुतम्॥५८॥

We all have heard that the king desirous of son had offered his bones, furs, hair, nerves, marrow, liver and semen in fire.

सप्तस्वेवार्द्धिषु ततः शुक्रपातादनन्तरम्।
मा मा क्षिप्स्वेत्यभवच्छब्दः सोऽपि मृतो नृपः॥५९॥

Who semen was throw on seven fires, a voice was heard restricting for doing that act with- "don't throw, don't throw" and that king was dead suddenly.

ततस्तस्माद्बुद्धिवहात्समधा तत्तेजसोपमाः।
शिशवः समजायन्त ते रुदन्तोऽभवन् मुने॥६०॥

O sage! Seven brilliant babies then appeared from those seven type fires and began weeping there.

तेषां तु ध्वनिमाकर्ण्य भगवान्यद्वासंभवः।
समागम्य निवार्याथ स चक्रे मरुतः सुतान्॥६१॥

God Padmayoni came there and prohibited them from so weeping. He made those seven babies Marut gods.

ते त्वासन् मरुतो ब्रह्मांस्तामसे देवता गणाः।
येऽभवत्रैवते तांश्च शृणुष्व त्वं तपोद्यन॥६२॥

O Brahmin! Those seven babies became the god Marut during the period of Tāmasa Manvantara. O great resolute! The Maruts born during Raivata Manvantara had the following account of their life.

रैवतस्यान्ववाये तु य आसीद्विपुजिद्धनी।
रिपुजिनामतः ख्यातो न तस्यासीत्सुतः किल॥६३॥

Ripujit was a popular king in the dynasty of Raivata. He was a victorious king and had strong control on senses but issueless.

स समाराध्य तपसा भास्करं तेजसां निधिम्।
अवाप कन्यां सुरतिं तां प्रगृह्ण गृहं ययौ॥६४॥

He worshipped god Bhāskara through strict penance and got a daughter Surati under that god's grace. He took her to his palace.

तस्यां पितृगृहे ब्रह्मन्वसन्त्यां स पिता मृतः।
साऽपि दुःखपरीताङ्गी स्वां तनुं त्यक्तुमुद्यता॥६५॥

O Brahmin! The father of that girl was dead when she was unmarried. She too became ready under severe influence of grief to commit suicide.

ततसां वारयामासुर्द्वयः सप्त मानसाः।
तस्यामासक्तचित्तास्तु सर्व एव तपोद्यनाः॥६६॥

Seven mind-born¹ rsis forbade her from doing that as all of them were fell in love with her.

1. Mānasa.

अपारयन्ती तदुःखं प्रज्वाल्यामिन् विवेश ह।
ते चापश्यन्त ऋष्यस्तच्छिता भावितास्तथा॥ ६७॥

That spinster however, could not endure the grief, she burnt fire and seated on that pyre, the hermits fell in love with her saw her so burning.

तां मृतामृषयो दृष्टा कष्टं कष्टेति वादिनः।
प्रजगमुर्ज्वलनाद्यापि सप्ताजायन्त दारकाः॥ ६८॥

They expressed grief by saying- "it is a matter of regret" and then walked from there away. Seven sons then born from that pyre.

ते च मात्रा विनाभूता रुरुदुस्ताम्पितामहः।
निवारयित्वा कृतवांल्लोकनाथो मरुद्धणान्॥ ६९॥

They began weeping due to lack of mother. God Brahmā consoled them any how and then designated on the position of Maruts.

रैवतस्यान्तरे जाता मरुतोऽमी तपोधन।
शृणुच्च कीर्तयिष्यामि चाक्षुषस्यान्तरे मनोः॥ ७०॥

O great resolute! Those seven babies were later-on called Maruts during Raivata Manvantara. I will now describe the Maruts who born during the regime of Cākṣuṣa Manu. Please, listen to carefully.

आसीन्मङ्किरति ख्यातस्तपस्वी सत्यवाक् शुचिः।
सप्तसारस्वते तीर्थे सोऽतप्त भवन्॥ ७१॥

There was an ascetic called Mañki. He was truthful and sacrosanct. He had observed strict penance in Saptasārasvata Tīrtha.

विघ्नार्थं तस्य तुषितां देवाः संप्रेषयन् वपुम्।
सा चाच्येत्य नदीतीरे क्षोभयामास भामिनी॥ ७२॥

The gods sent a nymph called "vapu" in order to impede his penance. That nymph descended down at the bank of river and enchanted to her beauty, he was excited.

ततोऽस्य प्राच्यवच्छुक्रं सप्तसारस्वते जले।
तां चैवाच्यशपन्मूढां मुनिर्मङ्कणको वपुम्॥ ७३॥

He was ejaculated when taking bath in Saptasārasvata. The sage Mañkaṇak cursed that stupid "vapu" too.

गच्छ लब्धाऽसि मूढे त्वं पापस्यास्य महत् फलम्।
विष्वंसयिष्यति हयो भवतीं यज्ञसंसदि॥ ७४॥

O stupid nymph! Go on your way immediately. You will receive very hard for so impeding in my penance. The horse in yajña saṅsada shall destroy you under hoofs.

एवं शप्त्वा ऋषिः श्रीमान् जगामाथ स्वमाश्रमम्।
सरस्वतीभ्यः सप्तभ्यः सप्त वै मरुतोऽभवन्॥ ७५॥

That great hermit after inflicting curse, returned back to his cottage subsequently, the seven Sarasvatī's gave birth to seven Maruts.

येषां श्रुते जन्मनि पापहानि-

O hermit! I have now completely described the episode on the origin of Maruts present in the space during ancient period. This account of their origin results in the decay of evils and great introduction of religion (noble deed) with the man merely by withering to it.

Appearance of Vāmana and the slaughter of Kālanemi

पुलस्त्य उवाच-

एतदर्थं बलिर्देत्यः कृतो राजा कलिप्रिय।

मन्त्रप्रदाता प्रह्लादः शुक्रशासीत्पुरोहितः॥ १॥

Pulastya said- O Kalipriya! Bali the demon was therefore, made king. Prahlāda was his minister and Śukra was the priest (Purohita).

ज्ञात्वाऽभिषिक्तं दैतेयं विरोचनसुतं बलिम्।

दिदृक्षवः समायाता समयाः सर्वे एव हि॥ २॥

When Maya and all other demons knew about incorporation of Bali, the son of Virocana, they came to see him there.

तानागतान्निरीक्ष्यैव पूजयित्वा यथाक्रमम्।
पप्रच्छ कुलजान्सर्वान्निकु श्रेयस्करं मम॥ ३॥

Bali honoured his kith and kins came there and asked- "What is good for me?"

तमूचुः सर्व एवैनं शृणुष्व सुरमर्दन।
यत्ते श्रेयस्करं कर्म यदस्माकं हितं तथा॥ ४॥

All of them suggested- "O suppressor of gods! Listen to all good for you coupled with good for your interests."

पितामहस्तव बली आसीद् दानवपालकः।
हिरण्यकशिपुर्वारः स शक्रोऽभूजगत्रये॥ ५॥

The greatest god Viṣṇu appeared in disguise of lion and pierced his heart in the presence of all respected demons.

अपकृष्टं तथा राज्यमन्यकस्य महात्मनः।
तेषामर्थे महाबाहो शंकरेण त्रिशूलिना॥ ७॥

O great warrior! The trident holder Śaṅkara had took over the kingdom of mighty Andhaka for those gods.

तथा तव पितृव्योऽपि जप्त्वः शक्रेण घातितः।

Similarly, Indra had killed your brother Jambha and Viṣṇu had killed Kujambha like an animal before you.

शम्भुः पाको महेन्द्रेण भ्राता तव सुदर्शनः।

Mahendra had killed Śambhu, Pāka and your own brother Sudarśana. Your father Virocana was also killed.

O Brahmin! When the demon heard of his family massacre through Śakra (Indra), he issued instructions to all demons to be ready for war.

रथैरन्ये गजैरन्ये वाजिभिष्मापरेऽसुराः।
पदातयस्तथैवान्ये जग्मुर्युद्धाय दैवतैः॥ ११॥

A certain number of demons were on chariots, some on elephants, some on horses and some on foot while marching past to fight a war against the gods.

वामपार्श्वमवष्ट्रभ्य शाल्वः प्रथितविक्रमः।

The fierce and mighty commander-in-chief Maya had gone to the fore portion of the army. Bali was at the middle of the army, Kālanemi at the back, the popular valorous Śalva was that left and the dreadful Tāraka was at the right collateral of that army.

दानवानां सहस्राणि प्रयुतान्यर्बुदानि च।

O Kalipriya (Nārada)! Thousands, millions and billions of demons departed to battle against the gods.

श्रुत्वा ऽसुराणामुद्योगं शक्रः सुरपतिः सुरान्।
उवाच योगं दैत्यांस्तान् योद्धुं सबलसंयुतान्॥ १५॥

God Indra when heard of the preparation made on part of demons, said to the gods- all of us should march past for fighting against those demons.

इत्येवमुक्त्वा वचनं सुरराट् स्यन्दनं बली।
समारुरोह भगवान् यत्पातलिवाजिनम्॥ १६॥

With these words, mighty god Indra rode on the chariot controlled by Mātali.

समारुद्धे सहस्राक्षे स्यन्दनं देवतागणाः।
स्वं स्वं वाहनमारुद्धा निश्चेरुद्धकाङ्क्षिणः॥ १७॥

When Indra rode on chariot, all gods rode on their respective chariots and began doing march past for the battle.

राजर्घयस्था सिद्धा नानाभूतश्च संहताः।

गजानन्ये रथानन्ये हयानन्ये समारुहन्॥ १९॥

Āditya, Vasu, Rudra, Sādhya, Viśvedeva, Aśvinikumāra, Vidyādhara, Guhyaka, Yakṣa, Rākṣasa, Pannaga,¹ Rājarsi,² Siddha and several types of Bhūtas³ were joined with them. Some were on elephants, some others on chariots and a few among them rode on the horses.

विमानानि च शुभ्राणि पक्षिवाहानि नारद।

O Nārada! Some gods went there riding on the white aircrafts driven by the birds.

एतस्मिन्नतरे धीमान्वैनतेयः समागतः।

तस्मिन्विष्णुः सुरश्रेष्ठ अधिरुहा समभ्यगात्॥ २१॥

In the meantime, there came Garuda, god Viśnu rode on his back and went to fight against the demons.

तमागतं सहस्राक्षस्त्रैलोक्यपतिमव्ययम्।

ववन्द मूर्खाऽवनतः सह सर्वैः सुरोत्तमैः॥ २२॥

The thousand eyed Indra bowed his head including all gods with him in honour of the three-world ruler god Viśnu.

ततोऽग्रे देवसैन्यस्य कर्तिकियो गदाधरः।

पालयञ्जनं विष्णुर्याति मध्यं सहस्रदृक्॥ २३॥

Then Kārtikeya took the front, god Viśnu with his mace took the rear and thousand eyed Indra covered the middle portion of that army.

वामं पार्श्वमवष्ट्रभ्य जयन्तो वज्रते मुने।

दक्षिणं वरुणः पार्श्वमवष्ट्रभ्याद्रजाद् बली॥ २४॥

O sage! Jayanta covered the left collateral and mighty Varuṇa covered the right collateral portion of the army.

Subsequently, the illustrious army of gods under lead of Skanda, Viśnu, Varuṇa and sun equipped with a number of arms and weapons approached to the army of enemy on the mountain.

उदयाद्रिटे रम्ये शुभे समशिलातले।

A fierce battle of gods and demons was fought at the attractive, plain valley of hillock at Udayācala where there were no trees and birds.

सन्निपाततस्तयो रौद्रः सैन्ययोरभवनुने।

महीघरोत्तमे पूर्वं यथा वानरहस्तिनोः॥ २७॥

O sage! As the battle between monkeys and elephants took place during earlier period, the same fierce battle was fought amid both armies.

रणरेणू रथोद्धूतः पिङ्गलो रणमूर्धनि।

संध्यानुरक्तः सदृशो मेघः खे सुरतापस॥ २८॥

O divine ascetic! The tawny battle-dust raised by the chariot wheels ascended to the sky and appeared like red cloud in the evening.

तदासीत् तुमुलं युद्धं न प्राज्ञायत किंचन।

श्रूयते त्वनिशं शब्दः छिच्छि भिस्यति सर्वतः॥ २९॥

It was difficult to notice that who was killing to whom in that fierce battle. "Kill", "hurt" like words from the mouth of soldiers were only coming out there.

ततो विशसनो रौद्रो दैत्यानां दैवतैः सह।

जातो रुधिरनिष्ठन्दो रजःसंयमनात्मकः॥ ३०॥

On account of dreadful killing made by gods and demons, the streams of blood started flowing which pressed the dust so flown to sky.

शान्ते रजसि देवाद्यास्तद् दानवबलं महत्।

अभिद्रवन्ति सहिताः समं स्कन्देन धीमता॥ ३१॥

When dust was so pressed, the gods under lead of Kārtikeya, attacked on the army of demons.

निजघुर्दानवान् देवाः कुमारभुजपलिताः।
देवान् निजघुर्दैत्याश्च मयगुप्ताः प्रहारिणः॥ ३२॥

The gods defended by Kārtikeya killed the demons and the demons defended by Maya attacked fiercely on the gods.

ततोऽमृतरसास्वादाद् विना भूताः सुरोत्तमाः।
निर्जिताः समरे दैत्यैः समं स्कन्देन नारदा॥ ३३॥

O Nārada! Then the mighty gods including Skanda were defeated by demons in war because they had no nectar to sip.

विनिर्जितान् सुरान् दृष्टा वैनतेयघ्नजोऽरिहा।
शार्ङ्गमानम्य बाणौधैर्निजघान ततस्ततः॥ ३४॥

When the rider of Garuḍa, the enemy killer god Viṣṇu saw the gods defeated, he gave a bend to his Śārṅga bow and began shooting arrows like rain.

ते विष्णुना हन्यमानाः पतनिभिरयोमुखैः।
दैतेयाः शरणं जग्मुः कालनेमि महासुरम्॥ ३५॥

The demons so being killed by the iron head arrows shot from Viṣṇu resorted to the mighty demon Kālanemi.

तेभ्यः स चाभ्यं दत्त्वा ज्ञात्वाऽजेयं च माधवम्।
विवृद्धिमगमद् ब्रह्मन् यथा व्याधिरुपेक्षितः॥ ३६॥

O Brahmin! He assured the demons not being worry, he started forwarding as a disease towards the undefeated Mādhava.

यं यं करेण स्पृशति देवं यक्षं सकिन्नरम्।
तं तमादाय चिक्षेप विस्तृते वदने बली॥ ३७॥

That mighty Kālanemi began to grip Yakṣa or Kinnara in his hand and put in mouth just then.

संरभाद् दानवेन्द्रो विमृदति दितिजैः संयुतो देवसैन्यं
सेन्द्रं सार्कं सचन्द्रं करचरणन्हैरस्त्रहीनोऽपि वेगात्।

प्राप्तेऽन्ते कालवह्वेर्जगदखिलमिदं रूपमासीहित्यक्षोः॥ ३८॥

That demon lord inspite of having no weapons started inflicting nails, kicks and slaps on gods' army including Indra, Sūrya, moon etc. fiercely with strong support from the demons. He began to give blows upside sky and down on earth by using discus like fire blazed. Every direction was covered by such discus. His complexion at that time was looked analogous to the fire blazed for destruction of whole universe at the time of devastation.

तं दृष्टा वर्द्धमानं रिपुमतिबलिनं देवगच्छ्वर्मुख्याः।

When gods, Gandharvas, Siddhas, Sādhyas, Asvinikumāras etc. saw forwarding that mighty enemy, they frightened and began to flee here and there. The demons were exhilarated when they saw the gods fleeing. They were specially energised and jumped towards Viṣṇu, the god adored by all gods with attractive crown he had and blew attacks on him with special arms and weapons.

When god Viṣṇu saw such aggressive efforts on part of demons i.e. Maya, Bali and Kālanemi, he became furious and his eyes reddened. He made the chariots, elephants and horses stand still merely by a gaze at them. As the clouds cover the sky, he then covered the entire hillock with special arrows called Nārāca having attractive wings attached.

तैबाणैश्चाद्यमाना हरिकरनुदितैः कालदण्डप्रकाशैः।

स प्रायादेवसैन्यप्रभुमितबलं केशवं लोकनाशम्॥ ४१॥

Bali and Maya etc. demons afraid of such severe attack by god Viṣṇu as the crescent shaped Nārāca arrows shot by him had covered them all. They sent very first to cope with Viṣṇu, the mightiest hundred-faced demon-chief Keśava to Lokanātha.¹

तं दृष्टा शतशीर्षमुद्यतगदं शैलेन्द्रशङ्खाकृतिं

When Viṣṇu saw Kālanemi analogous to the mountain ridge with one hundred heads and mace in his hand, he put the bow at rest and picked up immediately the discus. The demons gazed at Viṣṇu laughed longer with a voice of thundering cloud and then addressed to Hari, the destroyer of demon like trees.

अथं स दुरुप्रसैन्यवित्रासकुट्रिषुः
परमकोपितः स मधोर्विद्धातकृत्।
हिरण्यनयनान्तकः कुसुमपूजारतिः क्व
याति मम दृष्टिगोचरे निपतितः खलः॥४३॥

This is the highly indignant foe causing fear to the troops of demons, most furious, killer of Madhu, slaughterer of Hiranyaśaka and pleased when flowers are offered. Where does this wicked may go now from escape of my eyes?

यद्येष सम्प्रति ममाहवमभ्युपैति

If the lotus-eyed one now meets me in duel, I am sure he will not go back to his own house. The god-fold will, with terror-stricken eyes, find him kissing the dust, his limbs smashed and slackened by my fists.

इत्येवमुक्त्वा मधुसूदनं वै
स कालनेमिः स्फुरिताधरोष्टः।

With these words, Kālanemi giving a thrill to his both lips under sheer influence of anger, threw his mace on Garuḍa as Indra throws thunderbolt on the mountain.

तामापतन्तीं प्रसमीक्ष्य विष्णु-
धौरां गदां दानवबाहुमुक्ताम्।
चक्रेण चिच्छेद सुदुर्गतस्य
मनोरथं पूर्वकृतेव कर्म॥४६॥

God Viṣṇu destroyed that dreadful mace thrown by that demon the same way as the pre-executed deeds destroy the ambitions of an unlucky man.

गदां छित्वा दानवाभ्याशमेत्य
भुजो पीनौ संप्रचिच्छेद वेगात्।
भुजाभ्यां कृत्ताभ्यां दग्धशैलप्रकाशः

Viṣṇu approached to that demon after he cut-off mace and immediately cut-off his study arms. Kālanemi without arms looked as next burnt mountain.

ततोऽस्य माधवः कोपात् शिरश्चक्रेण भूतले।
छित्वा निपातयामास एवतं तालफलं यथा॥४८॥

Mādhava then beheaded him by a sharp blow of discus and it fell down on the earth like Tālaphala.

तथा विबाहुर्विशिरा मुण्डतालो यथा वने।
तस्यौ मेसरिवाकम्प्यः कब्यः क्षमाधरेश्वरः॥४९॥

The trunk of Kālanemi without arms and head appeared as Muṇḍatāla in the forest yet it remain stood there.

यथाऽम्बराद् बाहुशिरःप्रणष्ट-

O sage! As Mahendra had cut-off the arms and beheaded Bala through his attack by thunderbolt, Garuḍa the same way pushed on ground that trunk of Kālanemi by hitting through his chest.

1. Lord of the world.

When that commander-in-chief of demons was killed, all demons except Bāṇāsura ran away from there throwing their arms, shields and garments there as the gods had badly beaten them.

Chapter 74

The fight of Asuras-Bali, Maya and other with the gods and the victory of demons

पुलस्त्य उवाच-

संनिवृते ततो बाणे दानवाः सत्वरं पुनः।

निवृता देवतानां सशस्त्रा युद्धलालसाः॥ १॥

Pulastyā said- "The demons again picked up their weapons and came back to the battlefield when Bāñāsura began to fight again.

विष्णुरप्यमितौजासं ज्ञात्वाऽजेयं बलेः सुतम्।

प्राहामन्त्रं सुरान्सर्वान्युद्धयं विगतज्वरा॥ २॥

When the most valorous Viṣṇu saw that mighty son of Bali is forwarding, he called all gods and said- "Do carry fighting fearlessly."

विष्णुनाऽथ समादिष्टा देवाः शक्तपुरोगमाः।

युयुधुर्दानवैः सार्थं विष्णु स्वत्तरथीयत॥ ३॥

The gods Indra etc. ordered by Viṣṇu began fighting while god Viṣṇu himself disappeared.

माधवं गतमाज्ञाय शुक्रो बलिमुवाच ह।

गोविन्देन सुरास्त्यक्तास्त्वं जयस्वाधुना बलेऽप्त्वा॥ ४॥

When Śukra saw Mādhava's absence, he said to Bali- "O Bali! Govinda has abandoned the gods. Now, proceed and be conqueror."

स पुरोहितवाक्येन प्रीतो याते जनार्दने।

गदामादाय तेजस्वी देवसैन्यमभिद्रुतः॥ ५॥

The valorous Bāñāsura exhilarated on encouragement given by Śukra. He took mace and rushed towards the army of gods.

बाणो बाहुसहस्रेण गृह्ण प्रहरणात्यथ।

देवसैन्यमभिद्रुत्य निजघान सहस्रशः॥ ६॥

Bāñāsura took weapons on his thousand arms, raided on the army of gods and killed several thousand gods.

मयोऽपि मायामास्थाय तैस्ते रूपान्तरैमुने।

योधयामास बलवान् सुराणां च वरुथिनीम्॥ ७॥

O sage! The mighty Maya also began fighting against the gods by representing him in varied complexions through the illusion.

विद्युज्जिह्वः परिभद्रो वृषपर्वा शतेक्षणः।

विपाको विक्षरः सैन्यं तेऽपि देवानुपाद्रवन्॥ ८॥

The demons Vidyujjhva, Pāribhadra, Viṣaparvā, Śatekṣaṇa, Vipāka and Vikṣara also made severe attack on the army of gods.

ते हन्तमाना दितियैर्देवाः शक्तपुरोगमाः।

गते जनार्दने देवे प्रायशो विमुखाभवन्॥ ९॥

On account of sudden absence made by god Viṣṇu, Indra etc. gods got severe blows on their body and most of them were set aside from the war.

तान् प्रभग्नान् सुरगणान्बलिबाणपुरोगमाः।

पृष्ठतस्त्वद्रवन्सर्वे त्रैलोक्यविजिगीषवः॥ १०॥

All demons intended to conquer the three-worlds including Bali and Bāṇa rushed towards fleeing gods.

संबाध्यमाना दैतेयैर्देवाः सेन्द्रा भयातुराः।

त्रिविष्टपं परित्यज्य ब्रह्मलोकमुपागताः॥ ११॥

Indra and other badly beaten gods were frightened, they left behind the heaven and went to the abode of Brahma.

ब्रह्मलोकं गतेष्वित्यं सेन्द्रेष्वपि सुरेषु वै।

स्वर्गभोक्ता बलिर्जातः सपुत्रभ्रातृबास्यवः॥ १२॥

Thus, on departure of Indra etc. gods to the abode of Brahmā, Bali became the king of heaven with his sons, siblings and kith and kins.

शक्तोऽभूद् भगवान् ब्रह्मबलिबाणो यमोऽभवत्।

वरुणोऽभूमयः सोमो राहुर्हादो हुताशनः॥ १३॥

O Brahmin! Bali became Indra and Bāṇa became Yama. Similarly, Maya became Varuṇa and devil-head, moon and Prahlāda became fire there.

स्वर्भानुरभवत्सूर्यः शुक्रशासीदबृहस्पतिः।
येऽन्येऽप्यधिकृता देवास्तेषु जाताः सुरारयः॥ १४॥

The devil-tail (Ketu) got the seat of sun god and Śukra substituted for Jupiter (Bṛhaspati). Similarly, the demons took over all designations of other several gods.

पञ्चमस्य कलेरादौ द्वापरान्ते सुदारुणः।
देवासुरोऽभूतंसंग्रामो यत्र शक्तोऽप्यभूद्वलिः॥ १५॥

In the beginning of fifth Kali era and at later part of Dvāpara, a fierce battle took place between the gods and demons. Bali became Indra that time.

पातालाः सप्त तस्यासन् वशे लोकत्रयं तथा।
भूर्भुवःस्वरिति ख्यातं दशलोकाधिषो बलिः॥ १६॥

The seven nether and three worlds known as Bhūḥ, Bhuvah, Svaḥ were under his ruling. Thus, Bali had become a king of ten worlds.

स्वर्गे स्वयं निवसति भुज्ञन् भोगान् सुदुर्लभान्।
तत्रोपासत गच्छर्वा विश्वावसुपुरोगमाः॥ १७॥

Bali began to live in heaven with all luxuries for his enjoyments there. Viśvāvasu etc. Gandharvas started serving him.

तिलोत्तमाद्याप्सरसो नृत्यन्ति सुरतापसाः।
वादयन्ति च वाद्यानि यक्षविद्याधरादयः॥ १८॥

O divine hermit! The nymphs Tilottamā etc. always used to keep him happy through their expert dance and Yakṣa as also Vidyādhara etc. used to play on musical instruments.

विविधानपि भोगांश्च भुज्ञन् दैत्यैश्वरो बलिः।
सप्त्मार मनसा ब्रह्मग्रहादं स्वपितामहम्॥ १९॥

O Brahmin! The demon king Bali remembered his grandfather Prahlāda while his days were passing in such comforts.

संसृतो नमृणा चासौ महाभागवतोऽमुरः।
सप्त्मागात्त्वरायुक्तः पातालात् स्वर्गमव्ययम्॥ २०॥

Prahlāda, the great devotee to god Viṣṇu ascended to the immortal heaven on the call from his grandson.

तमागतं सपीक्ष्यैव त्यक्त्वा सिंहासनं बलिः।
कृताङ्गलिपुटो भूत्वा ववन्दे चरणावृभौ॥ २१॥

Bali left his seat, stood-up immediately and honoured him with folded hands. When he saw grandfather has come.

पादयोः पतिं वीरं प्रह्लादस्वरितो बलिम्।
समुत्थाप्य परिष्वज्य विवेश परमासने॥ २२॥

Prahlāda quickly gave support of his hands to so bowed on feet Bali, made him to stand, gave a tight embrace and then seated comfortably.

तं बलिः प्राह भोस्तात त्वत्रसादात्सुरा मया।
निर्जिताः शक्रराज्यं च हतं वीर्यबलान्मया॥ २३॥

Bali said to him- O grandfather! I have given a defeat to all gods and seized the kingdom of Indra under your kind grace.

तदिदं तात मदीर्यविनिर्जितसुरोत्तमम्।
त्रैलोक्यराज्यं भुज्ञ त्वं मयि भृत्ये पुरःस्थिते॥ २४॥

O father! Please, enjoy the ruling of this three-worlds so seized from the gods by virtue of giving them defeat and I would like to register my presence as your orderly.

एतावता पुण्ययुतः स्यामहं तात यत् स्वयम्।
त्वदद्विप्रौजाभिरतस्त्वदुच्छिष्टान्नभोजनः॥ २५॥

O father! I will become a noble man by such service to you and by taking the residual food from you.

न सा पालयते राज्यं धृतिर्भवति सत्तमः।
न धृतिर्गुरुशुश्रूषां कुर्वतो जायते विभो॥ २६॥

O great saint! O sovereign! The patience is learnt at the feet of preceptor and it is decayed while ruling a state (viz. service provides with the virtue of tolerance but ruling makes the man disobedient and rude).

ततस्तदुक्तं बलिना वाक्यं श्रुत्वा द्विजोत्तमः।
प्रह्लादो प्राह वचनं धर्मकामार्थसाधनम्॥ २७॥

O great Dvija! Prahlāda replied favouring Dharma, Artha and Kāma when he heard the request of his grandson.

मया कृतं राज्यमकण्टकं पुरा
प्रशासिताभः सुहोडुपूजिताः।।
दत्तं यथेष्टुं जनितास्तथाऽत्मजाः
स्थितो बले सम्प्रति योगसाधकः॥ २८॥

I have enjoyed the pleasure of ruling earlier without any hurdles. I have administered the earth and worshipped the friends. I already have made donations to the extent of my satisfaction and reproduced the sons. However, I am an ascetic this time.

गृहीतं पुत्रं विधिवभ्या भूयोऽर्पितं तव।
एवं भव गुरुणां त्वं सदा शुश्रूषणे रतः॥ २९॥

O son! I have accepted all that you give and now I have returned it to you. Always maintain your obeisance for the preceptors as it is seen in you this time.

इत्येवमुक्त्वा वचनं करे त्वादाय दक्षिणे।
शाके सिंहासने ब्रह्मन्बलिं तूर्णं न्यवेशयत्॥ ३०॥

O Brahmin! With this reply, Prahlāda took Bali with his right hand and enthroned him on the seat of Indra.

सोपविष्टो महेन्द्रस्य सर्वरलमये शुभे।
सिंहासने दैत्यपतिः शुशुभे मधवानिव॥ ३१॥

That demon king Bali looked like Indra himself when he took seat on that great throne of Indra which was studded with all gems.

तत्रोपविष्टैवासौ कृताङ्गलिपुटो नतः।
प्रह्लादं प्राह वचनं मेधगम्भीरया गिरा॥ ३२॥

Having seated on that throne, he said to Prahlāda in serious voice, with folded hand and in polite tone.

यन्मया तात कर्तव्यं त्रैलोक्यं परिरक्षता।
धर्मार्थकाममोक्षेभ्यस्तददिशतु मे भवान्॥ ३३॥

O father! Kindly, tell me the duties as a king to three-worlds which could cover all aspects relating to Dharma, Artha, Kāma and Mokṣa.

तद्वाक्यसमकालं च शुक्रः प्रह्लादमब्रवीत्।
यद्युक्तं तन्महाबाहो वदस्वास्योत्तरं वचः॥ ३४॥

Simultaneously, Śukra also said- "O great warrior! Give answer to what you think outright."

वचनं बलिशुक्राभ्यां श्रुत्वा भागवतोऽसुरः।
प्राह धर्मार्थसंयुक्तं प्रह्लादो वाक्यमुत्तमम्॥ ३५॥

Prahlāda, the devotee of Viṣṇu suggested the aspects covering all the aspects of Dharma and Artha when he heard the requests from Bali and Śukra simultaneously.

यदायत्यां क्षमं राजन् यद्ब्रह्मं भुवनस्य च।
अविरोधेन धर्मस्य अर्थस्योपार्जनं च यत्॥ ३६॥
सर्वसत्त्वानुगमनं कामवर्गफलं च यत्।
परत्रेह च यच्छ्रेयः पुत्रं तत्कर्म आचर॥ ३७॥

O son! Capable of giving birth to good future, benevolent to the world, earning of wealth permissible in religion, consumption of things not disturbing any creature and an act appreciated in this material world and that metaphysical world is worth of executing. Hence, execute only such acts.

यथा श्लाघ्यं प्रयास्यद्य यथा कीर्तिर्भवेत्तत्वा।
यथा नायशसो योगस्था कुरु महामते॥ ३८॥

O wise king! Do such a act that may deserve appreciation, bring in fame for you and not least infamy.

एतदर्थं श्रियं दीपां काङ्क्षन्ते पुरुषोत्तमाः।
येनैतानि गृहेऽस्माकं निवसन्ति सुनिर्वृताः॥ ३९॥
कुलजो व्यसने मग्नः सखा चार्यबहिः कृतः।

The noble people intend to acquire specific wealth which can give shelter to noble but suffering man, poor friend, old aged scholar, meritorious Brahmin and the brilliant fame may thus come to their home.

तस्माद्यथैते निवसन्ति पुत्र
राज्यस्थितस्येह कुलोद्धताद्याः।
तथा यतस्वामलसत्त्वच्छेष्ट
यथा यशस्वी भविताऽसि लोके॥ ४१॥

Hence, O son! O good thinker and doer! Engage yourself in acts which may give shelter to the people born in above noble families and which may bring in popularity for you.

भूम्यां सदा ब्राह्मणभूषितायां
क्षत्रान्वितायां दृढवापितायाम्।
शुश्रूषणासक्तिसमुद्वाया-

The great kings receive prosperity when the state ruled by them is duly filled by Brahmins, Kṣatriyas, the land duly cultivated by Vaiśyas and due services are given by Śūdras.

तस्माद् द्विजाग्राः श्रुतिशास्त्रयुक्ता

Hence, the great Brahmins duly known to scriptures should arrange yajña for the kings. Only learned Dvijas should do divine yajña. The smoke ascending from the fire of yajña ensures peace for the king.

तपोऽध्ययनसंपन्ना याजनाध्यापने रताः।

O Bali! The Brahmins engrossed with the yajña executed according to the procedure prescribed by study on Vedas and teaching be honoured by receipt of your orders.

Chapter 75

Description of wealth of Bali

पुलस्त्य उवाच-

ततो गतेषु देवेषु ब्रह्मलोकं प्रति द्विज।

त्रैलोक्यं पालयामास बलिर्धर्मान्वितः सदा॥ १॥

Pulastya said- O Dvija! Bali began ruling on three-worlds by observing the religion perpetually when the gods went to the abode of Brahma.

कलिस्तदा धर्मयुतं जगदृष्टा कृते यथा।
ब्रह्माणं शरणं भेजे स्वभावस्य निषेवणात्॥ २॥

When Kali era saw that all people under the rule of Bali are busy with their respective duties as per religion prescribed for them, he went to the shelter of Brahmā with a request to bring back the situations in which he could sustain.

गत्वा स ददृशे देवं सेन्द्रैवैः समन्वितम्।
स्वदीप्त्या द्योतयन्तं च स्वदेशं समुरासुरम्॥ ३॥

He saw Brahma there in company of Indra etc. gods when he reached. They were illuminating his abode with the mixed radiance.

प्रणिपत्य तमाहाथं तिष्ठो ब्रह्माणपीश्वरम्।
मम स्वभावो बलिना नाशितो देवसत्तमा॥ ४॥

Kali bowed before Brahmā and said- O great god! Bali has destroyed my nature completely.

तं प्राह भगवान् योगी स्वभावं जगतोऽपि हि।
न केवलं हि भवतो हृतं तेन बलीयसा॥ ५॥

The Yogi¹ god Brahmā said to Kali- "Not only yours but the nature of entire world has been abducted by that mightiest Bali.

पश्यस्व तिष्ठ देवेन्द्रं वरुणं च समास्तम्।
भास्करोऽपि हि दीनत्वं प्रयातो हि बलाद्वलेः॥ ६॥

O Kali! Look at Varuṇa and Indra including Marut. Bhāskara even has lost of his radiance before the radiance of Bali.

न तस्य कश्चित् त्रैलोक्ये प्रतिषेद्वाऽस्ति कर्मणः।

That imperishable god shall abduct the land, heaven, state, wealth and fame received by Bali through his noble deeds.

इत्येवमुत्तो देवेन ब्रह्मणा कलिरव्ययः।

When Brahmā told him to Kali, he stared at Indra etc. gods and found them all faded. He then went into the forest called Vibhītaka.

कृतं प्रावर्तत तदा कलेनशात् जगत्येऽपि

All varṇas duly settled with their respective religion, the Dvijas began to resort various āśramas and the king began to observe his first and foremost religion of defending the subject properly.

Chapter 76

Aditi obtains boon from Viṣṇu

पुलस्त्य उवाच-

गते त्रैलोक्यराज्ये तु दानवेषु पुरंदरः।
जगाम ब्रह्मसदनं सह देवैः शचीपतिः॥ १॥

Pulastya said- When the empire of three-worlds fell under the demons, Indra, the husband of Śacī went to the abode of Brahma with all gods.

तत्रापश्यत् स देवेशं ब्रह्माणं कमलोद्धवम्।
ऋषिभिः सार्थमासीनं पितरं स्वं च कश्यपम्॥ २॥

He saw there the lotus-born Brahmā and his father Kaśyapa in the company of a number of hermits.

ततो ननाम शिरसा शक्रः सुरगणैः सह।
ब्रह्माणं कश्यपं चैव तांसु सर्वास्तपोधनान्॥ ३॥

Indra in company of all gods bowed his head before Brahmā, Kaśyapa and all those ascetics.

प्रोवाचेन्द्रः सुरैः सार्थं देवनाथं पितामहम्।
पितामहं हृतं राज्यं बलिना बलिना मम॥ ४॥

Indra along with gods said to the god of gods Pitāmaha- O Pitāmaha! The mighty Bali has seized my empire.

ब्रह्मा प्रोवाच शक्रैतद्गुज्यते स्वकृतं फलम्।
शक्रः पश्च भो द्वौहि कि मया दुष्कृतं कृतम्॥ ५॥

Brahmā said- O Indra! You are suffering from the account of pre-deeds performed by you. Indra asked- kindly, highlight the evils committed by me.

कश्यपोऽप्याह देवेश भूणहत्या कृता त्वया।
दित्युदरात् त्वया गर्भे कृतो वै बहुद्या बलात्॥ ६॥

Kaśyapa also said to Indra- “You have committed infanticide. You had once cut into several pieces the womb of Diti forcibly.”

पितरं प्राह देवेन्द्रः स मातुर्दोषतो विभो।
कृत्तनं प्राप्सवामार्भे यदशौचा हि साऽभवत्॥१॥

Indra said to his father- "O sovereign! That womb was split due to the omission committed by mother as she had become defile."

ततोऽब्रवीत् कश्यपसु मातुर्दोषः स दासताम्।
गतस्तो विनिहतो दासोऽपि कुलिशेन भो॥८॥

Kaśyapa then replied- "On account of the fault committed by mother, that womb was become slave. You then hit hard by thunderbolt that slave too."

तच्छुत्वा कश्यपवचः प्राह शक्रः पितामहम्।
विनाशं पाप्मने ब्रूहि प्रायश्चित्तं विभो मम॥९॥

Indra said to Pitāmaha when heard this- "O sovereign! Kindly tell me the procedure for regrettal that could efface the sin."

ब्रह्मा प्रोवाच देवेशं वसिष्ठः कश्यपस्तथा।
हितं सर्वस्य जगतः शक्रस्यापि विशेषतः॥१०॥

Brahmā, Vasiṣṭha and Kaśyapa told Indra the following procedure benevolent not only for him but for the entire world.

शङ्खचक्रगदापाणिर्धवः पुरुषोत्तमः।
तं प्रपद्यस्व शरणं स ते श्रेयो विद्यास्यति॥११॥

Go at shelter to Puruṣottama Mādhava holding conch, discus and mace in hands. He will certainly do your all good.

सहस्राक्षोऽपि वचनं गुरुणां स निशम्य वै।
प्रोवाच स्वल्पकालेन कस्मिन् प्राप्यो ब्रह्मदयः।
तमूद्युर्देवता मर्त्ये स्वल्पकाले महोदयः॥१२॥

That thousand eyed god then enquired- "Where is possible the progress within short term?" The gods said to him- "It is only possible at short term on the earth."

इत्येवमुक्तः सुरराङ्गिवरिञ्जिना।
मरीचिपुत्रेण च कश्यपेन।
तथैव मित्रावरुणात्मजेन
वेगान्यहीपृष्ठपवाप्य तस्थौ॥१३॥

When so said by Brahmā, Kaśyapa, the son of Marīci and Vasiṣṭha, the gods' king Indra descended on the earth.

कालञ्जरस्योत्तरतः सुपुण्य-

He began to live at the holy place located at the north to Kalingara mountain, south to Himādri, east to Kuśasthala and west to Vasupura.

The king Gaya had during ancient period, executed one hundred sacrifices of horses, eleven hundred sacrifices of human beings and one thousand Rājasūya yajña with dakṣinā in abundance.

When Gaya had performed the yajña called popularly Mahāmedha rare to perform by the gods and demons, inexpressive and sky form Murāri had lived that holy place. He then became popular as Gadādhara in the form of sharp axe for the largest tree of evils.

Where the great Brahmin receive the position of Pitāmaha in spite of unknown to Vedas and scriptures. The man receives the unending fruit of Mahāmedha under the grace of god even when he once offers worship to ancestors.

There flows the best Mahānadi, the virgin of divine hermit (Nārada). It approaches to Himālaya in the form of water and decays the worldly evils by sipping, bathing and merely looking at her.

तत्र शक्रः समध्येत्य महानद्यास्तटेऽद्भुते।
आराधनाय देवस्य कृत्वाश्रममवस्थितः॥ १९॥

Indra went at the excellent bank of Mahānadi for worship of god Viṣṇu and began living these in a cottage.

प्रातःस्नायी त्वधःशायी एकभक्तस्त्वयाचितः।
तपस्तेषे सहस्राक्षः सुवन्देवं गदाधरम्॥ २०॥

Indra observed a good routine consisting of bath, lying on ground, living on one time good in begged and by worshipping Gadādhara god.

तस्यैवं तप्यतः सम्यग् जितसर्वेन्द्रियस्य हि।
कामक्रोधविहीनस्य साश्रः संवत्सरो गतः॥ २१॥

He observed celibacy strictly and kept him free from sex and anger upto a year thereafter. Thus, his penance for a year was completed.

ततो गदाधरः प्रीतो वासवं प्राह नारद।
गच्छ प्रीतोऽस्मि भवतो मुक्तपापोऽसि साम्प्रतम्॥ २२॥

O Nārada! Gadādhara Viṣṇu then pleased and said to Indra- "I am pleased on you. You should now go because your sins have absolved."

निजं राज्यं च देवेशं प्राप्त्यसे न चिरादिव।
यतिष्ठामि तथा शक्रं भवि श्रेयो यथा तवा॥ २३॥

O Indra! You shall now shortly take over your state. O Indra, I will do all that defend your interests.

With these words, Gadādhara suggested him to take bath in the river Manoharā and then gave fare-well. When Indra took a dip, the evils till then existing with him said- "Give us permission to leave, please."

प्रोवाच तात्पीषणकर्मकारान्

Indra said to those evils- "As you have born on account of the sins committed by me, you shall be addressed as Pulinda. Go and live in the middle of Himālaya and Kalinjara, two great mountain.

इत्येवमुक्त्वा सुरराट् पुलिन्दान्

With these words to Pulindas, the purified Indra got honour from gods, siddhas and yakṣas and went to the cottage of his religious mother.

Indra approached to Aditi with folded hands, bowed head, touched her lotus feet and then he described his penance before her.

Aditi with tears in her eyes, smelt Indra, embraced her and asked the reason for his observing the so-called penance. Indra said the entire account of his defeat with all gods in a war against Bali.

When Aditi came to know about defeat of his son in the hands of Diti's sons, she suffered agony and grief. She therefore, sheltered to Viṣṇu, the unborn and adorable god.

नारद उवाच-

Nārada said- Please, tell us that the mother of gods, Aditi had at what place worshipped Hṛṣikeśa, the unborn, unending, creator of movable and immovable world and the most ancient god.

पुलस्त्य उवाच-

Pulasta said- When Aditi saw Indra seized of power of subjugated by Bali, sheltered to god sun with imposing control on mind and speech both when sun god enshrined on Capricorn zodiac, on the day of Sūrya Saptamī and when she saw the sun rising at the east.

अदितिस्त्वाच-

Aditi said- O thief of divine Ambujakośa! Victory to you. O axe to the tree like world! Victory to you. O fire to the evil form fuel! Victory to you. O destroyer of darkness! Frequent salute to you.

O Bhāskara! O divine icon! Salute to you. O husband of Lakṣmī of three-worlds! Salute to you. You are the cause for the movable and immovable world and administrator. O Viśvamūrti! Please, defend me.

त्वया जगन्नाथं जगन्मयेन
नाथेन शक्रो निजराज्यहनिम्।
अवामवन् शक्रपराभवं च

O ruler of the world! It is due to your wish that made Indra loosing his empire and defeated by his enemy. Hence, I have come in shelter to you.

These acts in worship made Sun graceful. He came out from the orbit, stood up before Aditi and said-

ब्रतेनानेन सुश्रीतस्तवाहं दक्षनन्दिनि।
प्राप्यसे दुर्लभं कामं मत्रसादान्न संशयः॥ ४०॥

O daughter of Dakṣa! I am very pleased on the fast observed by you. You therefore, shall definitely receive rare things by virtue of my grace.

राज्यं त्वत्तनयाना वै दास्ये देवि सुरारणि।

O mother of gods! I will take birth from your belly, bring back the throne for your sons and kill all demons.

तद्वाक्यं वासुदेवस्य श्रूत्वा ब्रह्मन् सुरारणिः।
प्रोवाच जगतां योनिं वेपमाना पुनः पुनः॥ ४२॥

Hearing those words of Vāsudeva, O Brahman! Aditi with shivering body frequently said to Jagatyoni Viṣṇu-

कथं त्वामुदेरणामहं वोदुं शक्ष्यामि दुर्धरम्।
यस्योदरे जगत्सर्वं वेस्तथावरजङ्गमम्॥ ४३॥

You hold this entire world consisting of movable and immovable. Then tell me that how my belly will hold you as baby?

कस्त्वां धारयितुं नाथ शक्तस्त्रैलोक्यधार्यसि।
यस्य सप्तार्णवाः कुश्मौ निवसन्ति सहादिभिः॥ ४४॥

O god! You hold this three-world. Your armpit holds seven seas including all mountains. Who then dare to hold you?

तस्माद्यथा सुरपतिः शक्रः स्यात्सुरराडिह।
यथा च न मम क्लेशस्तथा कुरु जनार्दन॥ ४५॥

Hence, O Janārdana! Do such thing which one side restore the empire of gods and no bigger trouble caused to me on the other.

विष्णुरुच्याच-

सत्यमेतन्महाभागे दुर्धरोऽस्मि सुरासुरैः।
तथापि संभविष्यामि अहं देव्युदरे तव॥ ४६॥

Viṣṇu said- O lucky lady! It is true that the gods and demons cannot hold me. I will still take birth from your womb.

आत्मानं भुवनान् शैलांस्त्वाञ्छ देवि सकश्यपाम्।
धारयिष्यामि योगेन मा विषादं कृथाऽप्मिके॥ ४७॥

O goddess! I will hold myself, the bhuvanas, the mountains and Kaśyapa including you yourself through an exercise of Yoga. O mother! You need not worry at all.

तवोदरेऽहं दाक्षेयि संभविष्यामि वै यदा।

Chapter 77

Teachings of Prahlāda to Bali

पुलस्त्य उवाच-

देवमातुः स्थिते देवे उदरे वामनाकृतौ।
निस्तेजसोऽसुरा जाता यथोक्तं विश्वयोनिना॥ १॥

Pulastya said- According to the statement of Viśvayoni (creator), the demons become powerless when the dwarf from god was inserted into the womb of the mother of gods.

निस्तेजसोऽसुरान्दृष्ट्वा प्रह्लादं दानवेश्वरम्।
बलिर्दानवशार्दूल इदं वचनमब्रवीत्॥ २॥

When the mighty Bali saw the demons lost of splendour, he said Prahlāda.

बलिरुवाच-

तात निस्तेजसो दैत्याः केन जातास्तु हेतुना।
कल्यातां परमज्ञोऽसि शुभाशुभाविशारद॥ ३॥

Bali said- O father! Kindly tell me the reason that why have the demons lost of power? O knower to all good and bad! You are supreme learned.

पुलस्त्य उवाच-

तत्पौत्रवचनं श्रुत्वा मुहूर्तं ध्यानमास्थितः।
किमर्थं तेजसो हानिरिति कस्मादतीव वा॥ ४॥

Pulastya said- Why and by whose effect the splendour of demons have receded was the question on which Prahlāda concentrated his mind for a moment in order to see the clue and explain the same.

स ज्ञात्वा वासुदेवोत्थं भयं दैत्येष्वनुत्तमम्।
चिन्तयामास योगात्मा क्व विष्णुः साप्त्रतं स्थितः॥ ५॥

As that soul of Yogī came to know the fear arisen due to Vāsudeva, he pondered on tracing the presence of Viṣṇu through his intuitive power.

अथो नाभे: स पातालान् सप्त संचिन्त्य नारद।
नाभेरुपरि भूरादी॒ल्लोकाश्चतु॒मियाद् वशी॥ ६॥

O Nārada! In course of applying his intuitive power, he presumed and traced seven nether in the lower part of navel zone and then pulled his power towards upper side of naval zone in order to see Bhūḥ etc. lokas.

भूमिं तां पङ्कजाकारां तन्मध्ये पङ्कजाकृतिम्।
मेरुं दर्दर्श शैलेन्द्रं शातकुम्भं महर्दिष्मत्॥ ७॥

He saw lotus shaped land and the great lotus shaped Meru enriched with great prosperity and gold in the middle of that land.

तस्योपरि महापूर्यस्त्वष्टौ लोकपतीस्तथा।
तेषामुपरि वैराजीं ददृशे ब्रह्मणः पुरीम्॥ ८॥

He saw eight rulers of loka (world) in Mahāpurīs upside and Vairājpurī upper side that Mahāpurī. It was the abode of lord Brahmā.

तदधस्तान्महापुण्यमाश्रमं सुरपूजितम्।
देवमातुः स ददृशे मृगपक्षिगणैर्वृतम्॥ ९॥

He saw below that the cottage of gods' mother Aditi, a sacred place, adored by gods and filled with the birds and animals.

तां दृष्ट्वा देवजननीं सर्वतेजोऽधिकां मुने।
विवेश दानवपतिरन्वेष्टुं मधुसूदनप्॥ १०॥

O sage! Having seen Aditi, filled with supreme splendour, Prahlāda entered into the belly of Aditi in order to trace Madhusūdana.

स दृष्ट्वाङ्गगन्नायं माधवं वामनाकृतिम्।
सर्वभूतवरेण्यं तं देवमातुरथोदरे॥ ११॥

He saw that Mādhava, the ruler of the world and the foremost among all beings, in the form of a dwarf man in her belly.

तं दृष्ट्वा पुण्डरीकाक्षं शङ्खचक्रगदाधरम्।
सुरासुरगणैः सर्वैः सर्वतो व्यासविग्रहम्॥ १२॥
तेनैव क्रमयोगेन योगेन दृष्ट्वा वामनतां गतम्।
दैत्यतेजोहरं विष्णुं प्रकृतिस्थोऽभवत्तः॥ १३॥

When he saw Puṇḍarīkākṣa¹ holding conch, discus and mace and all gods and demons merged with him, he immediately calculated by the same power of intuition that the cause for loss of demons energy is the incarnation of Viṣṇu in dwarf form. Then, he gradually, came back to the normal state.

1. Lotus-eyed lord.

अथोवाच महाबुद्धिर्विरोचनसुतं बलिम्।
प्रह्लादो मधुरं वाक्यं प्रणम्य मधुसूदनम्॥ १४॥

The wisest Prahlāda then saluted Madhusūdana and replied benevolent to Bali, the son of Virocana.

प्रह्लाद उवाच-

श्रूयतां सर्वमाख्यास्ये यतो वो भयमागतम्।
येन निस्तेजसो दैत्या जाता दैत्येन्द्र हेतुना॥ १५॥

Prahlāda said- O king of demon! The cause of fear an the effect of which has made demons loss of their energy is now known to me perfectly. Please, listen to what I am going to tell you.

भवता निर्जिता देवाः सेन्द्ररुक्षकपावकाः।
प्रयाताः शरणं देवं हरिं त्रिभुवनेश्वरम्॥ १६॥

Rudra, Sūrya and fire etc. gods defeated by you asked the shelter of Hari.

स तेषामभयं दत्त्वा शक्रादीनां जगदुरुः।
अवतीर्णो महाबाहुरदित्या जठरे हरिः॥ १७॥

That preceptor of world, the chivalrous Hari, had assured Indra etc. gods to live fearlessly and has now appeared in Indra etc. gods to live fearlessly and has now appeared in the womb of Aditi, the mother of gods.

हतानि वस्तेन बले तेजांसीति मतिर्मम।
नालं तमो विषहितुं शक्रं सूर्योदयं बले॥ १८॥

O Bali! It is my opinion that he was abducted the splendour of you all, O Bali! Remember that the dark cannot bear the dawn.

पुलस्त्य उवाच-

प्रह्लादवचनं श्रुत्वा क्रोधे प्रस्फुरिताधरः।
प्रह्लादमाहाथ बलिर्भाविकर्मप्रचोदितः॥ १९॥

Pulastya said- When Bali heard the statement of Prahlāda, his lips began vibrating up and down and as the future events cannot be restricted, Bali enquired Prahlāda in anger.

बलिरुवाच-

तात कोऽयं हरिनाम यतो नो भयमागतम्।
सन्ति मे शतशो दैत्या वासुदेवबलाधिकाः॥ २०॥

Bali said- O father! Who is this Hari? Which has become cause for our fear. We have several hundred demons mightier than Vāsudeva.

सहस्रशो यैरपराः सेन्द्रस्त्राग्निमास्ताः।
निर्जित्य त्यजिताः स्वर्गं भग्नदर्पा रणजिरे॥ २१॥

Those people had defeated, suppressed their ego and driven out from the territory of heaven the several thousands gods including Rudra, fire, mind and Indra etc.

येन सूर्यरथाद्वेगाद्यक्रं कृष्टं महाजवम्।
स विप्रचित्तिर्बलवान्मम सैन्यपुरस्सरः॥ २२॥

That mighty Vipracitti is the commander of my army. He had pulled the discus more speedy than the chariot of sun.

अयःशङ्कुः शिवः शंभुरसिलोपा विलोपकृतः।
त्रिशिरा मकराक्षश्च वृषपर्वा नतेक्षणः॥ २३॥
एते चान्ये च बलिनो नानायुधविशारदाः।
येषामैकक्षणे विष्णुः कलां नार्हति षोडशीम्॥ २४॥

Ayahśāṅkha, Śiva, Śambhu, Asilomā, Vilomakṛt, Trisirā, Makarākṣa, Viṣaparvā and Natekṣṇa and other numerous experts in war are my assistants and Viṣṇu is even not equal to the sixteenth friction of their power.

पुलस्त्य उवाच-

पुत्रस्यैतद्वचः श्रुत्वा प्रह्लादः क्रोधमूर्छितः।
धिग्धिगित्याह स बलिं वैकुण्ठाक्षेपवादिनम्॥ २५॥
धिक्त्वां पापसमाचारं दुष्टबुद्धिं सुबालिशा।
हरिं निन्दयतो जिह्वा कथं न पतिता तव॥ २६॥

Pulastya said- Prahlāda annoyed when he heard such criticism of god Viṣṇu and cursed him- "I reprimand the evildoer and wicked fool like you. Why does your tongue not fall on ground while criticising god Viṣṇu.

शोच्यस्त्वमसि दुर्बुद्धे निन्दनीयश्च साधुभिः।
यत्रैलोक्यगुरुं विष्णुमभिनिन्दसि दुर्मते॥ २७॥

O fool! O wicked! You are condemnable for gentlemen and learned people because you are criticising Viṣṇu, the only preceptor of three-worlds.

शोच्यश्चापि न संदेहो येन जातः पिता तव।
यस्य त्वं कर्कशः पुत्र जातो देवावपान्यकः॥ २८॥

I myself is also uncivilised who reproduced you father because he in turn got such cruel and god critic son.

भवान्किल विजानाति तथा चामी महासुराः।
यथा नान्यः प्रियः कश्चिन्मम तस्माज्जनार्दनात्॥ २९॥

You and these mighty demons undoubtedly know that there is no other person beloved me as Viṣṇu himself.

जानन्नपि प्रियतरं प्राणोऽपि हरिं मम।
सर्वेषु श्वरं देवं कथं निन्दितवानसि॥ ३०॥

Hari is favourite to me more than my own breathing. You are known to this fact, yet deliberately you have criticised him before me.

गुरुः पूज्यस्तव पिता पूज्यस्तस्याप्यहं गुरुः।
ममापि पूज्यो भगवान्गुरुलोकं गुरुहरिः॥ ३१॥

Your father is adorable and preceptor to you. I am preceptor and honourable to him. God Hari, preceptor of this entire universe is my preceptor and honourable too.

गुरोर्पुरुगुरुमूढं पूज्यं पूज्यतमस्तवा।
पूज्यं निन्दयसे पाप कथं न पतितोऽस्यधः॥ ३२॥

O foolish evildoer! The preceptor to preceptor i.e. supreme preceptor is worth more respect and honour from you. You criticise the respected hence, why don't you decline.

शोचनीया दुराचारा दानवामी कृतास्त्वया।
येषां त्वं कर्कशो राजा वासुदेवस्य निन्दकः॥ ३३॥

You has made these evildoer demons more cruel and notorious as you the critic of Vāsudeva are the ruler of them.

यस्मात्पूज्योऽर्चनीयश्च भवता निन्दितो हरिः।
तस्मात्पापसमाचार राज्यनाशमवानुहि॥ ३४॥

O sinner! As you have criticised an adorable and honourable Hari, you will loss the rein of your ruling.

यथा नान्यत्रियतरं विद्यते मम केशवात्।
मनसा कर्मणा वाचा राज्यभृष्टस्तथा पता॥ ३५॥

As nobody is more favourite to me than Hari to my mind, acts and speech. Hence, fall from the throne and suffer from the dishonour.

यथा न तस्मादपरं व्यतिरिक्तं हि विद्यते।
चतुर्दशसु लोकेषु राज्यभृष्टस्तथा पत॥ ३६॥

As nobody than him is equal to his powers, hence, loss your throne and be an item to criticise.

सर्वेषामपि भूतानां नान्यल्लोके परायणम्।
यथा तथाऽनुपश्येयं भवन्तं राज्यविच्युतम्॥ ३७॥

As nobody else than Vāsudeva is the shelter of all worldly organisms, hence, may I see your fall from the throne.

पुलस्त्य उवाच-

एवमुद्घरिते वाक्ये बलिः सत्वरितस्तदा।
अवतीर्यासनाद् ब्रह्मकृताञ्जलिपुटो बली॥ ३८॥

शिरसा प्रणिपत्याह प्रसादं यातु मे गुरुः।
कृतापराधानपि हि क्षमन्ते गुरवः शिशून्॥ ३९॥

Pulasty said- O Brahmin! The mighty Bali immediately alighted down from his throne, bowed his head with folded hands and said- "O preceptor! Kindly, please on me because preceptors pardon the disciples whenever any fault is committed on their part.

तत्साधु यदहं शासो भवता दानवेश्वरा।
न बिभेमि परेष्योऽहं न च राज्यपरिक्षयात्॥ ४०॥

O mighty demon! You have all right to curse me. I am not afraid of enemies and decline of the throne too.

नैव दुःखं मम विथो यदहं राज्यविच्युतः।
दुःखं कृतापराधाद्वतो मे महत्तरम्॥ ४१॥

O sovereign! I feel no sorry for decline of state from my ruling. The only cause for my agony is that I have committed something so worse as you aggrieved.

तत् क्षम्यतां तात ममापराधो
बालोऽस्मयनाथोऽस्मि सुदुर्भितिश्च।
कृतेऽपि दोषे गुरवः शिशूनां
क्षाम्यन्ति दैन्यं समुपागतानाम्॥ ४२॥

Hence, O father! Kindly, pardon me. I am an orphan and a child of caprice mind. The preceptors always pardon their students found guilty but when they express regret for the same.

पुलस्त्य उवाच-

स एवमुक्तो वचनं महात्मा

विमुक्तमोहो हरिपादभक्तः।

चिरं विचिन्त्याद्गुतमेतदित्य-

मुवाच पौत्रं मधुरं वचोऽथ॥ ४३॥

Pulastya said- Prahlāda, the greatman having detached feelings and extreme devotion to god Viṣṇu's feet thought sometime and then reciprocated his grandson in these words-

प्रह्लाद उवाच-

तात मोहेन मे ज्ञानं विवेकश्च तिरस्कृतः।

येन सर्वगतं विष्णुं जानस्त्वां शास्त्रवाहनम्॥ ४४॥

Prahlāda said- O father! The affection had covered my discretion and understanding both. This was the reason, I cursed you while I am known very well to the fact that Viṣṇu is omnipresent and omniscient.

नूनमेतेन भाव्यं वै भवतो येन दानव।

ममाविशम्भाबाहो विवेकप्रतिषेधकः॥ ४५॥

O demon! You had definitely such future and this very thing had inserted affection, the lock to the room of discretion within me at that moment.

तस्माद्राज्यं प्रति विभो न ज्वरं कर्तुमर्हसि।

अवश्यंभाविनो हृष्टा न विनश्यन्ति कर्हिचित्॥ ४६॥

Hence, O sovereign! Don't worry for the state. The preponderant matters seldom destroy.

पुत्रमित्रलत्रार्थे राज्यभोगधनाय च।

आगमे निर्गमे प्राज्ञो न विषादं समाचरेत्॥ ४७॥

A wise man should not feel dismay on arrival and departure of the son, friend, wife, royal luxuries and the wealth.

यथा यथा समायान्ति पूर्वकर्मविद्यान्तः।
सुखदुःखानि दैत्येन्द्र नरस्तानि सहेत्था॥ ४८॥

O king of demons! As the pleasure and grief come down according to the provision of pre-discharged activities, it is better to endure them all by establishing a possible co-ordination.

आपदामामगं दृष्ट्वा न विघण्णो भवेद्वशी।

संपदं च सुविस्तीर्णा प्राप्य नोऽधृतिमान् भवेत्॥ ४९॥

A resolute and balanced man should not fall prey to anxiety and never give up the shelter of patience when wealth in abundance knocks at his door.

धनक्षये न मुहूर्न्ति न हृष्ट्वन्ति धनागमे।

धीराः कार्येषु च सदा भवन्ति पुरुषोत्तमाः॥ ५०॥

The best people do not feel pleasure when wealth comes to them nor they feel dismay when it goes out. They always stand for their duties and seldom deviated.

एवं विदिवा दैत्येन्द्र न विषादं कथंचन।

कर्तुमर्हसि विद्वंस्त्वं पण्डितो नावसीदति॥ ५१॥

O lord of demons! You should not feel any bad for the curse inflicted by me due to my being blind in affection. You are scholar and a scholar never feels pain.

तथाऽन्यद्य महाबाहो हितं श्रृणु महार्थकम्।

भवतोऽथ तथाऽन्येषां श्रुत्वा तद्य समाचर॥ ५२॥

O warrior! Listen to the words in essence and benevolent for you yourself and all others and bring in practice these.

शरण्यं शरणं गच्छ तमेतं पुरुषोत्तमम्।

स ते त्राता भयादस्माहानवेन्द्र भविष्यति॥ ५३॥

O king of demons! Go to the shelter of that Puruṣottama who is yielder of refuge. He will only defend you from this fear.

Defeat of Dhundhu demon

नारद उवाच-

कानि तीर्थानि विप्रेन् प्रह्लादोऽनुजगाम ह।
प्रह्लादतीर्थयात्रां मे सम्यगाख्यातुमहसि॥ १॥

Nārada said- O great Brahmin! How may pilgrims were visited by Prahlāda? Describe

तत्कथं पूर्वकालेऽपि विभुरासीत्रिविक्रमः।
कस्य वा बन्धनं विष्णुः कृतवांस्तद्य मे वद॥११॥

O Nārada asked- God Viṣṇu, the ruler of this world will now hold a body rising fear for the three-world and will thus, bind Bali. Therefore, how the all-pervading Viṣṇu has been spoken of as having strided over the three worlds in three steps in former time also or tell me whom did Viṣṇu bind?

पुलस्त्य उवाच-

श्रूयतां कथयिष्यामि योऽयं प्रोक्तस्त्रिविक्रमः।
यस्मिन्काले संबधूव यं च वञ्छितवानसौ॥१२॥

Pulastyā said- Listen carefully the introduction with Trivikrama, his period of birth and who was tied by him that time as being explained by me now.

A wedlock son of Kaśyapa and Danu was mightiest and valorous. His name was Dhundhu.

During initiation period of the fourth Kali when Hiranyakasipu was ruling Dhundhu conquered all gods including Indra and seized his throne.

तस्मिन्काले स बलवाहिरण्यकशिपुस्ततः।
चचार मन्दरगिरौ दैत्यो धुम्युं समाश्रितः॥१७॥

The mighty demon Hiranyakasipu used to stroll around Mandara mountain under subordination from Dhundhu.

ततोऽसुरा यथा कामं विचरन्ति त्रिविष्टये।
ब्रह्मलोके च त्रिदशा संस्थिता दुःखसंयुताः॥१८॥

The demons also began to live and enjoy the pleasure of heaven voluntarily. All gods were very anxious and began to live in the abode of Brahmā.

ततोऽमरान् ब्रह्मसदो निवासिनः।
श्रुत्वाऽथ धुम्युर्दितिजानुवाच।
ब्रजाम दैत्या वयमग्रजस्य
सदो विजेतुं त्रिदशान्सशक्रान्॥१९॥

When Dhundhu heard of gods' residing in abode of Brahmā he said to demons- O demons! Let us march to the abode of Brahmā to win Indra etc. gods.

ते धुम्युवाक्यं तु निशाप्य दैत्याः।
प्रोचुर्न नो विद्यति लोकपाल।
गतिर्यथा याम पितामहाजिरं

सुदुर्गमोऽयं परतो हि मार्गः॥ २०॥

When demons heard Dhundhu, they replied- O king! We are lack of that speed which may proceed us to the abode of Brahmā. The route to Brahma-loka is inaccessible and very far from here.

इतः सहस्रैर्बहुयोजनाख्ये-

लोको महर्नाम महर्षिजुष्टः।

येषां हि दृष्ट्याऽर्पणचोदितेन

दहन्ति दैत्याः सहस्रेक्षितेन॥ २१॥

A world called Mahā is existed at several thousands yojana away from here. The hermits reside there. A sight of those hermits is so powerful as it can burn all demons.

ततोऽपरो योजनकोटिना वै

लोको जनो नाम वसन्ति यत्र।

A world known as "Jana" exists at another one crore yojana distance where the cows lie. O great king! The dust flown from their movement is of killing effect to us.

ततोऽपरो योजनकोटिभिस्तु

षडभिस्तपो नाम तपस्विजुष्टः।

तिष्ठन्ति यत्रासुर साध्यवर्या

येषां हि निश्चासमस्त् त्वसहाः॥ २३॥

The world "Tapa" surrounded by ascetics is at another distance of six crore yojana. O demon! The great Sādhyas live there. The excreted air from them is intolerable to us.

ततोऽपरो योजनकोटिभिस्तु

त्रिंशङ्किरादित्यसहस्रदीसिः।

सत्याभिधानो भगवन्निवासो

वरप्रदोऽभूद्भवतो हि योऽसौ॥ २४॥

Then there exists the world "Satya" radiating with the light of one thousand Ādityas at a distance of thirty crore yojana thereafter. That world is the residence of that god who had provided you with a home.

यस्य वेदध्वनिं श्रुत्वा विकसन्ति सुरादयः।

संकोचमसुरा यान्ति ये च तेषां सधार्मिणः॥ २५॥

The gods etc. avail growth by hearing to the recital of Vedas from them and the demons as also their homogeneous receive recession to the growth.

तस्मान्पा त्वं महाबाहो मतिप्रतां समादधः।

वैराज्यभुवनं धुम्यो दुरारोहं सदा नृभिः॥ २६॥

Hence, O warrior Dhundhu! Don't even think of this because the abode of Brahma is always impossible to ascend.

तेषां वचनमाकर्ण्य धुम्युः प्रोवाच दानवान्।

गन्तुकामः स सदनं ब्रह्मणो जेतुमीश्वरान्॥ २७॥

Hearing their words, Dhundhu, who intended to reach at Brahma-loka to win the gods; said to the demons-

कथं तु कर्मणा केन गम्यते दानवर्षभाः।

कथं तत्र सहस्राक्षः संप्राप्तः सह दैवतैः॥ २८॥

O warrior demons! How and by what manner one can access to there? How did Indra reach there with gods?

ते धुम्युना दानवेन्नाः पृष्ठाः प्रोचुर्वचोऽधिष्पम्।

कर्म तत्र वयं विदाः शुक्रस्तद्वेत्यसंशयम्॥ २९॥

On being enquired by the king, those demons replied- "We do not know that manner. However, there is no doubt that Śukrācārya is known to this act."

दैत्यानां तु वचः श्रुत्वा धुम्युदेत्यपुरोहितम्।

पप्रच्छ शुक्रं किं कर्म कृत्वा ब्रह्मसदोगतिः॥ ३०॥

Hearing the words of demons, Dhundhu then asked Śukrācārya, the priest of demons- "Please, tell me that what deed can enable to access at the abode of Brahma?"

ततोऽस्मै कथयामास दैत्याचार्यः कलिप्रियः।

शुक्रः शतं तु पुण्यानां क्रतूनामजयत् पुरा।

दैत्येन्द्र वजिमेधानां तेन ब्रह्मसदो गतः॥ ३२॥

O favourite to Kali! He was then told the activities of Indra, the enemy of Vṛtra. (He said)- O demon king! Indra, during ancient period had performed one hundred Aśvamedha yajñas. On account of this, he could went to the abode of Brahma.

तद्वाक्यं दानवपतिः श्रुत्वा शुक्रस्य वीर्यवान्।

आहूयन्तां च निधयस्वाज्ञाप्यन्तां च गुह्यकाः॥ ३५॥

The mighty lord of demon wished to perform Aśvamedha yajña when he heard this from Śukrācārya. He then invited the preceptor of demon and the selected demons and said- "I will organise Aśvamedha yajñas and give dakṣinā to the Brahmins. Hence, come with me. Let us move to the earn and perform Aśvamedha voluntarily and appropriately by subjugating the kings call Nidhis and order Guhyakas."

आमन्त्यन्तां च ऋषयः प्रयामो देविकातटम्।
सा हि पुण्या सरिच्छेषा सर्वसिद्धिकरी शुभा।

Invite the hermits. Let us move to the bank of Devikā river. That holy river is all benevolent and shall provide us with all success. We will organise yajña after reaching at that ancient place.

इत्यं सुरर्वचनं निशम्यासुरयाजकाः।

The preceptor of demon okayed the plan of that demon and he happily ordered Nidhis to come.

ततो धुम्युर्देविकायां प्राचीने पापनाशने।

Śukra, the great Bhārgava¹ then reached at the bank of Devikā river, the ancient holy place and consecrated Dhundhu for hosting the Aśvamedha yajña.

सदस्या ऋत्विजश्चापि तत्रासन् भार्गवा द्विजाः।
शुक्रस्यानुमते ब्रह्मन् शुक्रशिष्याश्च पण्डिताः॥ ३९॥

O Brahmin! The disciples of Śukra and learned Brahmins of Bhārgava clan became the member and Rtvija to that yajña under instructions of Śukra.

यज्ञभागभुजस्तत्र स्वर्भानुप्रमुखा मुने।
कृताश्चासुरनाथेन शुक्रस्यानुमते सुराः॥ ४०॥

O sage! The king of demons made Svarbhānu etc. demons the consumer (bhogī) to the oblation (havi) of that yajña under permission of Śukrācārya.

ततः प्रवृत्तो यज्ञस्तु समुत्सृष्टस्तथा हयः।
हयस्यानुययौ श्रीमानसिलोमा महासुरः॥ ४१॥

The yajña then stated and horse was released free. The mighty demon Asilomā followed the path of that demon.

ततोऽग्निधूमेन मही सशैला
व्यासा दिशः शं विदिशश्च पूर्णाः।
तेनोग्रग्नेन दिवस्पृशेन

O hermit! The smoke emitted from that yajña covered the earth with mountains, the ether, directions and sub-directions. The sky touching fragrance began to flow in the abode of Brahmā.

तं गन्धमाद्याय सुरा विषण्णा
जानन्त धुम्युं हयमेधदीक्षितम्।
ततः शरण्यं शरणं जनार्दनं
जग्मुः सशक्ता जगतः परायणम्॥ ४३॥

The gods were desperate by smelling that fragrance. They came to know that Dhundhu has taken consecration of Aśvamedha. They thereafter, took shelter to Janārdana including Indra as he is only shelter to all suffering people.

प्रणाम्य वरदं देवं पद्मनाभं जनार्दनम्।
प्रोचुः सर्वे सुरगणा भयगद्दया गिरा॥ ४४॥

1. Bhārgava, as descended from Bhṛgu family.

All gods saluted god Janārdana, the lotus navel and great giver and said in sharp pain-

भगवन् देवदेवेशं चराचरपरायणं।

विज्ञाप्तिः श्रूयतां विष्णों सुराणामार्तिनाशनम्॥४५॥

O god of gods Viṣṇu! You always remove gods from the trap of grief and do welfare to all movable and immovable organisms. Please, listen to our submission in pain.

धुम्युनीर्मासुरपतिर्बलवान् वरबृंहितः।

सर्वान्सुरान्विनिर्जित्य त्रैलोक्यमहरद्वलिः॥४६॥

The king of demons, Dhundhu has taken sky rocketing growth. That mighty demon has conquered all gods and seized the three-world.

ऋते पिनाकिनो देवात् त्राताऽस्मान् न यतो होरे।

अतो विवृद्धिप्रगमद्यथा व्याधिरुपेष्ठितः॥४७॥

O Hari! There being no defender than Piṇakīn to gods, that demon has grown like a disease left in carelessness.

साम्राटं ब्रह्मलोकस्थानपि जेतुं समुद्यतः।

शुक्रस्य मतमादाय सोऽश्वेषाय दीक्षितः॥४८॥

He now wants to conquer and subjugate us even in the abode of Brahma and he has consecrated under suggestions of Śukra for Aśvamedha yajña.

शतं क्रतूनामिष्टाऽसौ ब्रह्मलोकं महासुरः।

आरोदुमिच्छति वशी विजेतुं त्रिदशानपि॥४९॥

That might demon wants to get into Brahmaloka and defeat gods by virtue of one hundred Aśvamedha sacrifice, he has already started.

तस्मादकालहीनं तु चिन्तयस्व जगदुरो।

उपायं मखविघ्वंसे येन स्याम सुनिर्वृताः॥५०॥

Hence, O preceptor of this whole universe! Please, do some immediate acts which may breach the process of Aśvamedha, so arranged by him so that we all could take a sign of relief.

श्रुत्वा सुराणां वचनं भगवान्मध्यसूदनः।

On hearing the words of gods, God Viṣṇu assumed them living fearless and made them to return to Brahmaloka. He was well known that Dhundhu is religion abiding thereby undefeated. Hence, he thought fastening him under certain conditions. God Viṣṇu then disguised Vāmana (dwarf) and left him flowing with the water of Devikā river like a wooden piece. Within a moment, the open hair god began giving up and down in the water of that river.

He was seen to Dhundhu, the demons and other hermits organising that yajña. The Brāhmaṇa left their attendance in yajña and rushed impatiently to rescue that Brahmīns. All members, client and learned Rtvijas rescued that drowned Brahmīns and asked—"Tell us that why have you fallen here or who had thrown you?"

तेषामाकर्णं वचनं कम्पमानो मुहुर्मुहुः।

He shivered frequently and then replied Dhundhu etc.- "Listen to its reason, please.

There was a an excellent Brahmin called by Prabhāsa, intellect and master of all scriptures, born in the clan of Varuṇa.

He was blessed with two sons. Both of them were dull mind and suffering from palms. Out of them, I am younger and my brother was elder.

O demon! My elder brother is popularly known as Netrabhāsa. My father had gave me name as Gatibhāsa with curiosity.

O mighty Dhundhu! The home of my father was attractive, pleasant, enriched with the divine qualities and beautiful.

ततः कालेन महता आवयोः स पिता मृतः।

I then suggested my brother- "Let us do partition of the home. He said- "You have no shame at all in the home."

I enquired him that on what justice and why am I not entitle to the half share in parental property?

इत्युक्त्वति वाक्येऽसौ भ्राता मे कोपसंयुतः।

My elder brother was furiated on this statement from me, he picked-up my body and threw with full force into river.

ममास्यां निमग्नायां तु मध्येन प्लवतो गतः।

I have completed more than the period of a year so floating on river. All of you have here rescued me.

O ascetics! Tell me all this in detail. You all people are prosperous and have done special mercy on me.

तद्वामनवच्यः श्रुत्वा भार्गवा द्विजसत्तमाः।
प्रोचुर्वयं द्विजा ब्रह्मन् गोत्रतश्चापि भार्गवाः॥ ७१॥

The Brahmins of Bhārgava clan replied him- "O Brahmin! All of us are Brahmins from Bhārgava race."

असावपि महातेजा धुम्बुर्नाम महासुरः।
दाता भोक्ता विभक्ता च दीक्षितो यज्ञकर्मणिः॥ ७२॥

The great demon Dhundhu was splendid and also a great donor, distributor and enjoyer demon. He has been consecrated in performance of yajña.

इत्येवमुक्त्वा देवेशं वामनं भार्गवास्ततः।
प्रोचुर्देत्यपतिं सर्वे वामनार्थकरं वचः॥ ७३॥

All Brahmins of Bhārgava clan then turned towards demons' king Dhundhu and suggested him to do favour of the dwarf so saved from drowning.

दीयतामस्य दैत्येन्द्रं सर्वोपस्करसंयुतम्।
श्रीमदावसंथं दास्यो रत्नानि विविधानि च॥७४॥

O king of demons! Give him with a home enriched with all facilities including servants and a number of gems too.

इति द्विजानां वचनं श्रुत्वा दैत्यपतिर्वचः।
प्राह द्विजेन्द्रं ते दक्षिण यावदिच्छसि वै धनम्॥७५॥

The king said on their suggestion- “O great Dvija! I will give you wealth to the extent desired by you.”

दास्ये गृहं हिरण्यं च वाजिनः स्यन्दनान् गजान्।
प्रयच्छाम्यद्य भवतो द्वियतामीप्सितं विभो॥७६॥

O sovereign! Ask for all things desired by you. I will give you today the home, gold, horse, chariot and elephant.

तद्वाक्यं दानवपते: श्रुत्वा देवोऽथ वामनः।
प्राहासुरपतिं धृन्युं स्वार्थसिद्धिकरं वचः॥७७॥

Hearing the words of the lord of demons, the dwarf god very aptly stated to Dhundhu, his purposeful thing.

सोदरेणापि हि भ्रात्रा ह्रियन्ते यस्य संपदः।
तस्याक्षमस्य यद्वान् किमन्यो न हरष्यति॥७८॥

Whether the donated property shall not be again seized from an unable man by others who could not acquire his right even on parental property?

दासीर्दासांश्च भृत्यांश्च गृहं रत्नं परिच्छदम्।
समर्थेषु द्विजेन्देषु प्रयच्छस्व महाभुज॥७९॥

O warrior! Provide the great Brahmins with servants, maids, slaves, home, gems and good clothes too.

मम प्रमाणमालोक्य मामकं च पदत्रयम्।
संप्रयच्छस्व दैत्येन्द्रं नाधिक रक्षितुं क्षमः॥८०॥

O king of demons! Look at my body size and only provide me with three steps of land because I am not able to defend more than it.

इत्येवमुक्तं वचनं महात्मना
विहस्य दैत्याधिपतिः सम्हस्तिजः।
प्रादाद् द्विजेन्द्राय पदत्रयं यदा
यदा स नान्यं प्रगृहाणं किञ्चित्॥८१॥

When that dwarf god did not accept anything else, the Rtvijas and demons king laughed at his demand but provided three steps measuring land.

ऋपत्रयं तावदवेक्ष्य दत्तं
महासुरेन्द्रेण विभुर्यशस्वी।
चक्रे ततो लङ्घयितुं त्रिलोकीं
त्रिविक्रमं रूपमनन्तशक्तिः॥८२॥

When the resolution was passed by the king, the illustrious sovereign held a Trivikrama form in order to measure the three worlds.

कृत्वा च रूपं दितिजांश्च हत्वा
प्रणाम्य चर्षीश्च प्रथमक्रमेण।
महीं महीष्वैः सहितां सहार्णां
जहार रत्नाकरपत्तनैर्युताम्॥८३॥

He then killed the demons, saluted the hermits and measured in a step the whole earth consisting of mountains, seas, quarry of gems and cities.

भुवं सनाकं त्रिदशाधिवासं
सोमार्कक्षेष्वरभिमण्डितं नभः।
देवो द्वितीयेन जहार वेगात्
ऋमेण देवप्रियमीप्सुरीश्वरः॥८४॥

The god Vāmana desirous of doing good for the gods measured Bhuvarloka with heaven, the abode of gods and the ether adorned with moon, sun and constellations with his second step.

ऋमं तृतीयं न यदाऽस्य पूरितं
तदाऽतिकोपाद्वन्पुङ्गवस्य।
पपात पृष्ठे भगवांस्त्रिविक्रमो
मेरुप्रमाणेन तु विग्रहेण॥८५॥

When his third step was not completed, then the glorious one of three steps fell on the back of the excellent demon with his body measuring as much as the Meru mountain.

पतता वासुदेवेन दानवोपरि नारद।
त्रिशट्योजनसाहस्री भूमिर्ति दृढीकृता॥ ८६॥

O Nārada! On account of Vāsudeva's fall on a demon, a trench of thirty thousand yojana formed under ground.

ततो दैत्यं समुत्पाट्य तस्यां प्रक्षिप्य वेगतः।
अवर्षत् सिकतावृष्ट्या तं च गर्तमपूरयत्॥ ८७॥

Having tron out the demon, he then threw the demon in the trench so formed and filled then that trench with sand.

ततः स्वर्गं सहस्राक्षो वासुदेवप्रसादतः।
सुराश्च सर्वे त्रैलोक्यमवापुर्निरुपद्रवाः॥ ८८॥

Indra then got heaven with the grace of Vāsudeva and all gods thus, regained their respective places without any more hurdles in three-worlds.

भगवानपि दैत्येन्द्रं प्रक्षिप्य सिकतार्णवे।
कालिन्द्या रूपमाधाय तत्रैवान्तरधीयत॥ ८९॥

The god again came back to his original form just after he threw the king of demons in the lump of sand at river Yamunā's bank and then, he vanished.

एवं पुरा विष्णुरभूद्य वामनो
धुशुं विजेतुं च त्रिविक्रमोऽभूत।
यस्मिन्स दैत्येन्द्रसुतो जगाम
महाश्रमे पुण्ययुतो मर्हेऽ॥ ९०॥

Thus, god Viṣṇu had become Vāmana and Trivikrama in order to conquer Dhundhu. O hermit! Prahlāda, the son of Hiranyakasipu visited at that āśrama.

Chapter 79

Legend of Pururavā

पुलस्त्य उवाच-

कालिन्दीसलिले स्नात्वा पूजयित्वा त्रिविक्रमम्।
उपोष्य रजनीमेकां लिङ्गभेदं गिरि ययौ॥ १॥

Pulastyā said- Prahlāda worshipped Trivikrama after bath in the river of Yamunā, observed fast for a night and then went at the mountain addressed as Liṅgabheda.

तत्र स्नात्वा च विमले भव दृश्वा च भक्तिः।
उपोष्य रजनीमेकां तीर्थं केदारमावृजतः॥ २॥

He took bath in the holy water of Yamunā, worshipped Śāṅkara with keen devotion and visited at the holy place Kedāra after a night halt there.

तत्र स्नात्वाऽर्च्य चेशां माधवं चाप्यभेदतः।
उषित्वा वासरान्सप्त कुञ्जाम्रं प्रजगाम ह॥ ३॥

He worshipped Śiva and Viṣṇu after bath with indiscriminative mind, resided there for seven days and then moved to Kubjāmra.

ततः सुतीर्थं स्नात्वा च सोपवासी जितेन्द्रियः।
हृषीकेशं समध्यर्थं ययौ बदरिकाश्रमम्॥ ४॥

Prahlāda, the balanced mind demon took bath and observed fast there. He then worshipped god Hṛṣīkeśa and then went to Badarikāśrama.

तत्रोष्य नारायणमर्च्य भवत्या
स्नात्वाऽथ विद्वान्स सरस्वतीजले।
वाराहतीर्थे गरुडासनं स
दृश्वाऽथ संपूज्य सुभक्तिमांश्च॥ ५॥

That learned Prahlāda worshipped Nārāyaṇa after bath in river Sarasvatī while residing there. He then visited to Varāhatīrtha, saw Viṣṇu rode on Garuḍa there and worshipped with keen devotion.

भद्रकर्णे ततो गत्वा जयेशं शशिशेखरम्।
दृश्वा संपूज्य च शिवं विपाशामभितो ययौ॥ ६॥

He then visited at Bhadrakarṇa, saw the god of victory Śaśisekhara Śiva there, worshipped that god and went towards Vipāśā thereafter.

तस्यां स्नात्वा समभ्यर्थ्य देवदेवं द्विजप्रियम्।
उपवासी इरावत्यां ददर्श परमेश्वरम्॥७॥
समाराध्य द्विजश्रेष्ठ शाकले वै पुरुरवाः।
समवाप परं रूपमैश्वर्य च सुदुर्लभम्॥८॥

He took bath in Vipāśā, observed fast, worshipped the god of gods and then went towards Irāvatī. O great Brahmin! He saw Parameśvara there. Pururavā once got the best complexion and rare luxury when he worshipped the gods at Śākala.

कुष्ठरोगाभिभूतश्च यं समाराध्य वै भृगुः।
आरोग्यमतुलं प्राप संतानमपि चाक्षयम्॥९॥

Bṛhgu had recovered health after attack of contagious disease called leprosy when he worshipped Parameśvara there. He also got children after convalescence.

नारद उवाच-

कथं पुरुरवा विष्णुमाराध्य द्विजसत्तम्।
विस्तुपत्वं समुत्सृज्य रूपं प्राप श्रिया सह॥१०॥

Nārada enquired- O great Dvija! How Pururavā had regained the rare complexion leaning back the deformity as a result of worshipping god Viṣṇu?

पुलस्त्य उवाच-

श्रूयतां कथयिष्यामि कथां पापप्रणाशिनीम्।
पूर्वं ब्रेतायुगस्यादौ यथावृत्तं तपोधन॥११॥

Pulastyā said- O great resolute! Listen to an ancient episode which took place during earlier part of Tretā era to which I am going to describe.

मद्रदेश इति ख्यातो देशो वै ब्राह्मणः सुतः।
शाकलं नाम नगरं ख्यातं स्थानोयमुत्तमम्॥१२॥

O son of Brahmā! There was a province, known as Madradeśa. In Madra state, there was a best city addressed as Śākala.

तस्मिन्विपणिवृत्तिः सधर्माख्योऽभवद्विणिक्।
घनाढ्यो गुणवान्भोगी नानाशास्त्रविशारदः॥१३॥

There lived a businessman named Sudharmā, rich, meritorious, luxurious and learned to a number of scriptures.

स त्वेकदा निजाद् राष्ट्रात् सुराष्ट्रं गन्तुमुद्यतः।
सार्थेन महता युक्तो नानाविपणिपण्यवान्॥१४॥
गच्छतः पथि तस्याथ मरुभूमौ कलिप्रिय।
अभवद् दस्युतो रात्रौ स्कन्दोऽतिदुःसहः॥१५॥

He once became ready to departure towards Surāṣṭra from his own country. O Kalipriya! When he was on the way through the desert in a caravan of businessmen with marketable items, the decoits attacked on them at a night.

ततः स हृतसर्वस्वो वणिगदुःखसमन्वितः।
असहायो मरौ तस्मिन्श्वचारोन्मत्तवद्वशी॥१६॥

That balanced mind Sudharmā became very sad on such loot and seizure and began strolling like a mad man around the desert.

चरता तदरण्यं वै दुःखाकान्तेन नारद।
आत्मा इव शमीवृक्षो मरावासादितः शुभः॥१७॥

O Nārada! When he was moving hither and thither like a mad man, he could see a Śamī tree in that desert and felt it like a good friend.

तं मृगैः पक्षिभिश्चैव हीनं दृष्ट्वा शमीतरुम्।
श्रान्तः क्षुत्तद्परीतात्मा तस्याधः समुपाविशत्॥१८॥

That tree was without birds and there were no animals under it. Having seen it, the tired and hungry business man Sudharmā sat under its shade.

सुमश्चापि सुविश्रान्तो मध्याह्ने पुनरुस्थितः।
समपश्यदथायान्तं प्रेतं प्रेतशतैर्वृत्तम्॥१९॥

He slept for hours and could get up in the noon and saw a Preta forwarding in company of several thousand Pretas.

उहापान्तमथाऽन्येन प्रेतेन प्रेतनायकम्।
पिण्डाशिभिश्च पुरुतो धावद्वी रूक्षविग्रहैः॥२०॥

That commander of Preta was being carried by another Preta. The dried body Piṇḍāśī (Preta) were rushing front to him.

अथाजगाम प्रेतोऽसौ पर्यटित्वा वनानि च।
उपगाम्य शमीपूले वणिकपुत्रं ददर्श सः॥२१॥

That Preta came back after sufficient touring in forests and he saw that businessman Sudharmā when reached at the Śamī tree.

स्वागतेनाभिवादैनं समाभाष्य परस्परम्।
सुखोपविष्ट्छायायां पृष्ठवा कुशलमासवान्॥ २२॥

He saluted Sudharmā courteously and Sudharmā greeted him. They mutually conversated. Then the Preta sat under the shade of that tree comfortably and duly introduced with Sudharmā.

ततः प्रेताधिपतिना पृष्ठः स तु वणिक्सखः।
कुतं आगम्यते बूहि क्व साधो वा गमिष्यसि॥ २३॥

The commander of Pretas then asked that merchant- "O gentleman! Tell me the place of your arrival and where will you go now?"

कथं चेदं महारण्यं मृगपक्षिविवर्जितम्।
समाप्नोऽसि भद्रं ते सर्वमाख्यातुर्महसि॥ २४॥

I wish your good. Tell me that how have you come in this largest forest where no birds and animals are living?

एवं प्रेताधिपतिना वणिकपृष्ठः समासतः।
सर्वमाख्यातवान् ब्रह्मन् स्वेदशधनविच्युतिम्॥ २५॥

O Brahmin! In reply to the enquiry, that businessman explained in brief the name of his country and the event causing loss of his wealth.

तस्य श्रुत्वा स वृत्तान्तं तस्य दुःखेन दुःखितः।
वणिकपुत्रं ततः प्राह प्रेतपालः स्वबन्धुवत्॥ २६॥

Having heard his complete story, the commander of Preta became sad, treated him as his own brother and said to that son of businessman-

एवं गतेऽपि मा शोकं कर्तुर्महसि सुब्रत।
भूयोऽप्यर्था भविष्यन्ति यदि भाग्यवलं तव॥ २७॥

"O great resolute! You should not be felt grief even if this all has happened. In case, you are supported by fortune, the wealth will come again to you."

भाग्यक्षयेऽर्थाः क्षीयन्ते भवन्त्यभ्युदये पुनः।
क्षीणस्यास्य शरीरस्य चिन्तया नोदयो भवेत्॥ २८॥

The wealth is decayed when not supported by the destiny. Again the proceeds starts deeming when luck is again supportive. If this body is deteriorated in worry, nothing like progress can be achieved.

इत्युद्यार्यं समाहृय स्वान्भूत्यान्वाक्यमद्वीती।
अद्यातिथिरयं पूज्यः सदैव स्वजनो मम॥ २९॥

With these words, he called his attendants and ordered- "Girl all entertainment to this guest who has become my brother like now."

अस्मिन्दृष्टे वणिकपुत्रे यथा स्वजनदर्शनम्।
अस्मिन्समागते प्रेताः प्रीतिर्जाता ममातुला॥ ३०॥

After seeing this son of the merchant it has seemed to me as if I have seen my own man. O ghosts! "I am happy to see him here."

एवं हि वदतस्तस्य मृत्यात्रं सुदृढं नवम्।
दध्योदनेन संपूर्णपाजगाम यथोप्सितम्॥ ३१॥

तथा नवा च सुदृढा संपूर्णा परमाभ्यसा।
वारिधानी च संप्राप्ता प्रेतानामग्रतः स्थिता॥ ३२॥

A new clay pot was immediately brought by ghosts. It was filled up with curd and odana.¹ Then there appeared before ghosts, a water pot filled-up with pure drinking water.

तामागतां ससलिलमन्नं वीक्ष्य महापतिः।
प्राहोत्तिष्ठ वणिकपुत्रं त्वपाहिकमुचापर॥ ३३॥

The high-minded when saw that food and water said- "O the son of a merchant! Stand-up please and eat these things."

ततस्तु वारिधान्यास्तौ सलिलेन विधानतः।
कृताहिकावृभौ जातौ वणिकं प्रेतपतिस्तथा॥ ३४॥

Subsequently, the merchant and the commander of Pretas both performed their routine activities prior to feeding. They use the pure water from the pitcher for this purpose.

ततो वणिकसुतायासौ दध्योदनमणेच्छया।
दत्त्वा तेभ्युष्टु सर्वेभ्यः प्रतेभ्यो व्यददात् ततः॥ ३५॥

The commander of Preta then offered curd and food sufficient to that businessman and all Pretas received it thereafter.

भुक्तवत्सु च सर्वेषु कामतोऽम्भसि सेविते।
अनन्तरं स बुभुजे प्रेतपालो वराशनम्॥ ३६॥

When all of them have taken sufficient food and refreshment, that commander took himself that food.

प्रकामतुसे प्रेते च वारिधान्योदनं तथा।
अन्तर्धानयगाद्ब्रह्मान्वणिक्पुत्रस्य पश्यतः॥ ३७॥

When Preta duly satiated, the water pot and food vessel immediately vanished and it surprised the businessman.

ततस्तदद्भूततमं दृष्ट्वा स पतिमान् वणिकः।
पप्रच्छ तं प्रेतपालं कौतूहलमना वशी॥ ३८॥

Seeing that very great wonder, that powerful merchant, with his mind filled with curiosity, enquired that lord of ghosts-

अरण्ये निजने साथो कुतोऽन्नस्य समुद्भवः।
कुतश्च वारिधानीयं संपूर्णा परमाभ्यसाम्॥ ३९॥

"O gentleman! The pitchers containing food and water suddenly appeared here and then vanished when all of us are satiated. This phenomenon presses me to ask you that from which place, they had been come."

तथामी तव ये भृत्यास्त्वत्स्ते वर्णतः कृशाः।
भवानपि च तेजस्वी किञ्चित्पृष्ठवपुः शुभः॥ ४०॥
शुक्लवस्त्रपरीधानो बहूनां परिपालकः।
सर्वमेतन्माचक्षव को भवान् का शमी त्वियम्॥ ४१॥

Who are these attendants thinner then you in body? Again you, a little bit sturdy body, white dressed, glowing complexion and provider of food to so many Pretas are still strange to me. So, please, give me your introduction. Please, tell me in detail that who are you and what is this Śamī tree.

इत्यं वणिक्सुतवचः श्रुत्वाऽसौ प्रेतनाथकः।
शशंस सर्वमस्याद्यं यथावृत्तं पुरातनम्॥ ४२॥

When commander of Pretas heard businessman's curiosity, he described in detail about him.

अहमासं पुरा विप्र शाकले नगरोत्तमे।
सोमशर्मेति विख्यातो बहुलागर्भसंभवः॥ ४३॥

(He said)- long ago I was born from the womb of Bahula, my mother in a city called Śākala. I got the name as Somaśarmā, a renowned Brahmin during his life-span.

मपास्ति च वणिक् श्रीमान्नातिवेश्यो महाधनः।
स तु सोमश्रवा नाम विष्णुभक्तो महायशाः॥ ४४॥

Somaśravā was my neighbour. He was prosperous and wealthy businessman. He was illustrious and devotee to god Viṣṇu.

सोऽहं कदर्ये मूढात्मा धनेऽपि सति दुर्यतिः।
न ददामि द्विजातिभ्यो न चाशनाम्यन्नमुत्तमम्॥ ४५॥

In spite of my being prosperous too, I was miser and fool. I neither gave donation to Dvijātis nor consume that money in luxuries.

प्रमादाद्यदि भुज्ञेऽहं दधिक्षीरघृतान्वितम्।
ततो रात्रौ नृभिर् घोरिस्ताङ्गते मम विग्रहः॥ ४६॥

If any day I took by mistake the edibles like curd, sweet dish (rice cooked with milk) and products cooked in ghee; the dreadful people used to beat me at night.

प्रातर्भवति मे घोरा मृत्युतुल्या विषूचिका।
न च कश्चिन्ममाभ्यासे तत्र तिष्ठति बास्यवः॥ ४७॥

On next morning, it was the routine that cholera caught to me with dire dysentery. Nobody among my own family members used to stay and serve me that time.

कथं कथमपि प्राणा मया संप्रतिधारिताः।
एवमेतादृशः पापी निवसाम्यतिनिर्वृणः॥ ४८॥

Anyhow I served myself and lived alone. Thus, I was living a evil some and shameless life.

सौवीरतिलपिण्याकसतुशाकादिभोजनैः।
क्षपयामि कदन्नाद्यैरात्मानं कालयापनैः॥ ४९॥

I was deteriorating my health by living merely on jujube fruits, oil-cake of sesamum, sattu (groats of barley-meal) and vegetable etc. Thus, anyhow my life passed.

एवं तत्रासतो महां महान्कालोऽभ्यगादथा।
श्रवणद्वादशी नाम मासि भाद्रपदेऽभवत्॥५०॥

I lived there prolong and once the auspicious day of Śravaṇa Dvādaśī fell in the month of Bhādrapada (August).

ततो नागरिको लोको गतः स्नातुं हि संगमम्।
इरावत्या नद्वलाया ब्रह्मक्षत्रपुरस्सरः॥५१॥

Brahmins, Kṣatriya etc. varṇas people went for taking bath in the confluence of Irāvatī and Naḍvalā rivers.

प्रातिवेश्यप्रसङ्गेन तत्राप्यनुगतोऽस्यहम्।
कृतोपवासः शुचिमानेकादश्यां यतद्रुतः॥५२॥

On persuasion of my neighbour, I too followed those people. I observed fast on Ekādaśī with all care to sanctity.

ततः संगमतोयेन वारिधारीं दृढां नवाम्।
संपूर्णीं वस्तुसंवीतां छत्रोपानहसंयुताम्॥५३॥
मृत्युत्रमतिमृष्टस्य पूर्णं दध्योदनस्य ह।
प्रदत्तं ब्राह्मणेन्द्राय शुचये ज्ञानर्थमिणे॥५४॥

I offered the learned and religious Brahmins as donation a numerous things including umbrella, shoes, water pots filled with the water of confluence and clay pots filled with sweet, curd and food.

तदेव जीवता दत्तं मया दानं वणिकसुता।
वर्षणां सप्ततीनां वै नान्यदत्तं हि किंचन॥५५॥

O businessman! That was single donation which I made during the life-span of seventy years. Nothing else it was donated by me throughout life.

मृतः प्रेतत्वमापन्नो दत्त्वा प्रेतान्नमेव हि।
अपी चादत्तदानास्तु मदनेनोपजीविनः॥५६॥

I became Preta after death as I had only donated that food for Preta. The people living on the food offered by me had never donated anything in their lives.

एतते कारणं प्रोक्तं यत्तदत्तं मयाभ्यसा।
दत्तं तदिदमायाति मध्याह्नेऽपि दिने दिने॥५७॥

I have told the reason for the phenomenon seen by you that at every noon, the food and water donated that day appears before me.

यावन्नाहं च भुजामि न तावक्षयमेति वै।
मयि भुक्ते च पीते च सर्वमन्तर्हितं भवेत्॥५८॥

It is undepleted till I take but as soon as I am satiated with that food and drink, it is vanished.

यद्यातपत्रमदं सोऽयं जातः शमीतरुः।
उपानद्युगले दत्ते प्रेतो मे वाहनोऽभवत्॥५९॥

The umbrella I donated to Brahmins provides me shelter and shade in the form of Śamī tree. A pair of shoes given by me has provided me with a carriage of Preta.

इदं तवोक्तं धर्मज्ञ मया कीनाशतात्मनः।
श्रवणद्वादशीपुण्यं तवोक्तं पुण्यवर्धनम्॥६०॥

O religious man! I have told you the reason for my being a Preta simultaneous to the description on Śravaṇa Dvādaśī, an auspicious and benevolent day.

इत्येवमुक्ते वचने वणिकपुत्रोऽब्रवीद्वचः।
यम्या तात कर्तव्यं तदनुजातुर्महसि॥६१॥

The businessman said- "O brother! Order me that what good should I do for you."

तत्स्य वचनं श्रुत्वा वणिकपुत्रस्य नारद।
प्रेतपालो वचः प्राह स्वार्थसिद्धिकरं ततः॥६२॥

Hearing the words of that businessman, O Nārada! The commander of Preta replied with a statement which was good for him.

यत्त्वया तात कर्तव्यं मद्वितार्थं महापते।
कथयिष्यामि तत् सम्यक् तव श्रेयस्करं मम॥६३॥

O wise man! I tell the thing you capable to do for my welfare. In case, you execute in properly, it will endow with the good for both.

गयायां तीर्थजुष्टायां स्नात्वा शौचसमन्वितः।
मम नाम समुद्दिश्य पिण्डनिर्वपणं कुरु॥६४॥

Please, go at the holy place Gayā and observe fast there. Then, do Piṇḍadāna for me there.

तत्र पिण्डप्रदानेन प्रेतभावादहं सखे।
मुक्तस्तु सर्वदातृणां यास्यामि सहलोकताम्॥६५॥

O friend! Your deed (Piṇḍadāna) will ensure my relieve from this Pretayoni and the abode of the people who donate all they had.

यथेयं द्वादशी पुण्या मासि प्रौष्टपदे सिता।
बुधश्चवणासंयुक्ता साऽतिश्रेयस्करी स्मृता॥६६॥

Dvādaśī (the twelfth day of bright fortnight) with Śravana constellation and Wednesday of the month Pauṣa (January) is said the most auspicious day for Piṇḍadāna.

इत्येवमुक्त्वा वणिं प्रेतराजोऽनुग्रहः सह।
स्वनामानि यथान्यायं सम्यगाख्यातवाङ्गुच्छिः॥६७॥

With these words to that businessman, the commander of Pretas explained his and all other Pretas name to him.

प्रेतस्कन्धे सपारोष्य त्याजितो मरुमण्डलम्।
रम्येऽथ शूरसेनाख्ये देशे ग्रासः स वै वणिकः॥६८॥

He was provided a Preta to carry on shoulder and thus, he sent-off that desert area. Thus, that businessman reached in the attractive country known as Sūrasena.

स्वकर्मर्थयोगेन धनमुद्घावचं बहु।
उपार्जयित्वा प्रययौ गयाशीर्षमनुत्तमम्॥६९॥

He earned the precious and common wealth by putting at stake his activities and religion and thus, became wealthy soon. He then went at the holy place of Gayāśīrṣa.

पिण्डनिर्वप्णं तत्र प्रेतानामनुपूर्वशः।
चकार स्वपितृणा च दायादानामनन्तरम्॥७०॥

He did there Piṇḍadāna for relieve of Pretas and then gave Piṇḍas to his ancestors and coparceners too.

आत्मनश्च महबुद्धिर्महाबोध्यं तिलैर्विना।
पिण्डनिर्वप्णं चक्रे तथान्यानपि गोत्रजान्॥७१॥

That wise man did Piṇḍadāna called Mahābodhya without sesamum for himself. Piṇḍadāna for other kith and kins was thereafter also made by him.

एवं प्रदत्तेष्वथ वै पिण्डेषु प्रेतभावतः।
विमुक्तास्ते द्विजाः प्रेता ब्रह्मलोकं ततो गताः॥७२॥

O Dvija! Those Preta relieved from their existing yoni by virtue of such Piṇḍadāna made by that businessman and went to the abode of Brahma.

स चापि हि वणिकपुत्रो निजमालयमाद्वजतः।
श्रवणद्वादशीं कृत्वा कालधर्ममुपेयिवान्॥७३॥

That businessman also returned to his home and observed fast on Śravaṇa Dvādaśī regularly till his last breath.

गद्यर्वलोके सुचिरं भोगाभ्युक्त्वा सुदुर्लभान्।
मानुष्यं जन्ममासाद्य च बधौ शाकले विराट्॥७४॥

He thereafter enjoyed the rare luxuries prolong in the abode of Gandharvas and then became the king of Śākalapurī on rebirth as a man.

स्वधर्मकर्मवृत्तिस्थः श्रवणद्वादशीरतः।
कालधर्ममवाप्यासौ गृहकावासमाश्रयत्॥७५॥

He again observed fast on Śravaṇa Dvādaśī regularly coincide skilfully tackling the stately affairs.

तत्रोष्य सुचिरं कालं भोगाभ्युक्त्वाऽथ कामतः।
पर्त्यलोकमनुप्राप्य राजन्यतनयोऽभवत्॥७६॥

He enjoyed a number of luxuries there for prolong period, maintained himself on the throne and then descended to the earth. Here too he became a prince.

तत्रापि क्षत्रवृत्तिस्थो दानभोगरतो वशी।
गोग्रहेऽरिगणाज्जित्वा कालधर्ममुपेयिवान्।
शक्तलोकं स संप्राप्य देवैः सर्वैः सुपूजितः॥७७॥

Here he again followed the conduct of a Kṣatriya and satisfied him with luxuries and donations in a balanced manner. Once upon a time, he suppressed the cow abductors but then met to natural death. He then went to the abode of Indra and honoured by all gods there.

पुण्यक्षयात्परिष्ठृष्टः शाकले सोऽभवद्विजः।
ततो विकटरूपोऽसौ सर्वशास्त्रार्थपारगः॥७८॥

He lived in heaven till the account of noble deeds not squared up. Then he came to earth and became Brahmin in Śākala country. He was of fierce complexion but all scriptures were duly known to him.

विवाहयद्विजसुतां रूपेणानुपमां द्विज।

इरावत्यास्तटे श्रीमान्नपथारिणमासदत्।
तमाराष्य जगन्नाथं नक्षत्रपुरुषेण हि॥८१॥

O Dvija! He married with an excellent beautiful Brahmin's daughter. That lady used to dishonour her husband because of being his ugly face and never could see his merits. On account of such attitude from spouse, the Brahmin became very sad. One day he abandoned all his love for her, reached at a great āśrama located on the bank of Irāvatī river and began worshipping Jagannātha in the form of Nakṣatra Puruṣa, the beautiful god.

सुरूपतापवाप्याप्रक्षां तस्मिन्नेव च जन्मनि।
ततः प्रियोऽभूद्वार्याद्या भोगवांश्चाभवद्वशी
श्रवणद्वादशीभक्तः पूर्वाञ्च्यासादजायत॥८२॥

He thus, regained beautiful complexion after some time and got affection and love from her wife. He further, became prosperous by the grace of god so worshipped. As the habit of observing fast of Śravaṇa Dvādaśī descending since pre-births, he maintained it in this life too.

एवं पुराऽसौ द्विजपुड्ढचस्तु
कुरूपरूपो भगवत्त्रसादात्।
अनङ्गरूपप्रतिमो बभूव
मृतश्च राजा स पुरुरवाऽभूत्॥८३॥

In spite of being ugly complexion earlier, that Brahmin got a beautiful complexion analogous to sex god and became Pururavā after death.

This religious vow or practice of Nakṣatra Puruṣa is the supreme. Bhṛgu had observed this sin absolving religious practice long ago.

Āditya had once worshipped Janārdana, the Nakṣatra Puruṣa with a passion for being blessed with son and thus, received Revanta, the meritorious son.

रभारूपमवापाय वाइमाधुर्य च मेनका।
कान्ति विद्युरवापाश्रां राज्यं राजा पुरुरवाः॥ ३७॥

As a consequence of observing this fast, Rambhā, the nymph had got supreme beauty, Menakā sweet voice, the moon best radiance and Pururavā had got the throne.

The wise Prahlāda took bath at the holy place Prajāpati and saw Śaṅkara, Brahmā and god of gods Prajāpati.

विद्यानतस्तु तान्देवान्यूजयित्वा तपोधनः।
षड्कात्रं तत्र च स्थित्वा जगाम मधुनन्दिनीम्॥ १६॥

O resolute! Prahlāda stayed there for six nights after worship of those gods in orderly manner and then went at Madhunandinī.

मधुमत्सलिले स्नात्वा देवं चक्रघरं हरम्।
शूलबाहुं च गोविन्दं ददर्श दनुपुङ्गवः॥ १७॥

Prahlāda (Danupuṅgava) took bath in the water of Madhumatī river and saw Śiva holding discus and Govinda, holding sūla.

नारद उवाच-

किमर्थं भगवान्शंभुर्दधाराथ सुदर्शनम्।
शूलं तथा वासुदेवो ममैतद् दूहि पृच्छतः॥ १८॥

Nārada said- kindly, tell me that why had Śiva held Sudarśana and Vāsudeva the Śūla there?

पुलस्त्य उवाच-

श्रूयतां कथयिष्यामि कथामेतां पुरातनीम्।
कथयामास तां विष्णुर्भविष्यमनवे पुरा॥ १९॥

Pulastyā said- Please, listen to the ancient story now being told by me. God Viṣṇu had told it to the prospective Manu.

जलोद्धवो नाम महासुरेन्द्रो

घोरं स तप्त्वा तप उग्रवीर्यः।

आराधयामास विरञ्जिमारात्

देवासुराणामजयो महाहवे
निजैश्च शस्त्रैरपरवध्यः।।
ब्रह्मर्षिशास्त्रैश्च निरपितार्थो
जले च वह्नौ स्वगुणोपहर्ता॥ २१॥

There was one mighty king of demons called Jalodbhava (water-born). That mighty demon worshipped god Brahmā with observing terrific penance. Brahmā pleased and endowed him with powers defeating all gods and demons. It was said that the specific weapons of gods too shall fail to put any harm to him. The curse thundered by hermits known to Brahma shall even prove futile and the fire and water shall do not harm to him.

एवंप्रभावो दनुपुङ्क्वोऽसौ
देवान्महर्षीश्वपतीन्समग्रान्।
आबाधमानो विच्यार भूम्यां

That demon having these specific powers then began ruling on earth. He put in pain all gods, hermits and kings too. That cruel demon had destroyed all benevolent activities.

ततोऽपरा भूमिभवाः सधूपाः।
जग्मुः शरण्यं हरिमीशितारम्।
तैश्चापि सार्थं भगवाञ्चगाम
हिमालयं यत्र हरस्त्रिणेत्रः॥ २३॥

The gods then took birth on the earth took the kings in their company and went to the supreme regulating authority god Viṣṇu. God too went with them at Himālaya where Hara was existed.

संपन्नं देवर्षिहितं च कार्यं
मर्ति च कृत्वा निधनाय शत्रोः।।
निजायुधानां च विर्ययह तौ
देवाधिपौ चक्रतुर्गर्कमिणौ॥ २४॥

A meeting arranged there and strategy stated for killing that enemy as it was only benevolent project for gods and hermits. Both gods then exchanged their weapons immediately.

ततश्चासौ दानवौ विष्णुशर्वौ
समायातौ तक्षिघांसू सुरेशौ।।
मत्वाऽजेयौ शत्रुभिर्धोरस्त्वपौ
भयात्तोये निमग्नार्थं विवेश॥ २५॥

When that wicked demon saw the god of gods Śaṅkara and Viṣṇu marching forward of attack, considering them undefeated. The demon entered into the bottom of river with a fright.

ज्ञात्वा प्रविष्टं त्रिदिवेन्द्रशत्रुं
नदीं विशालां मधुमत्सुपुण्याम्।
द्वयोः सशस्त्रौ तटयोर्हरीशौ
प्रच्छन्नपृतीं सहसा बभूवतुः॥ २६॥

When Śaṅkara and Viṣṇu saw the demon hidden in huge and holy river Madhumatī, they suddenly hide on the both banks of that river.

जलोद्भवश्चापि जलं विमुच्य
ज्ञात्वा गतौ शंकरवासुदेवौ।
दिशसस्मीक्ष्य भयकातराक्षो
दुर्गं हिमाद्रिं च तदासुरोह॥ २७॥

Jalodbhava came up from the water considering Śaṅkara and Viṣṇu returned till then. He cautiously started looking all sides with fear and thus, climbed on the ridge of inaccessible Himālaya.

महीष्मृगोपरि विष्णुशंभू
चञ्चूर्यमाणं स्वरिपुं च दृष्ट्वा।
वेगादुभौ दुदुवतुः सशस्त्रौ
विष्णुस्त्रिशूली गिरिशक्षं चक्री॥ २८॥

Viṣṇu with trident and Śaṅkara with discus rushed fast towards every when they saw him climbing on the ridge of the mountain.

ताभ्यां स दृष्टस्त्रिदशोत्तमाभ्यां
चक्रेण शूलेन च भिन्नदेहः।।
पपात शैलात्तपनीयवर्णो
यथाऽन्तरिक्षादि विमला च तारा॥ २९॥

They hit hard on his body by throwing discus and trident simultaneously. That demon having golden complexion fell down from the mountain like a white star falling from the sky.

एवं त्रिशूलं च दधार विष्णु-
श्वकं त्रिनेत्रोऽप्यरिसूदनार्थम्।
यत्राघहन्त्री हृभवद् वितस्ता

Viṣṇu had thus, held trident while Śaṅkara had held discus for killing their enemy Jalodbhida. The foot print of Śiva on Himālaya began emanating the river Vitastā just then.

तत्राप्य तीर्थं त्रिदशाधिपाभ्या
पूजां च कृत्वा हरिशंकराभ्याम्।
उपोष्य भक्त्या हिमवन्तमागाद्
द्रष्टुं गिरीशं शिवविष्णुगुप्तम्॥३१॥

Prahlāda worshipped Viṣṇu and Śaṅkara both gods there, stayed there with obeisance and went to see then Himālaya duly defended by Śiva and Viṣṇu both gods.

तं समर्थ्यच्य विधिवद्वा दानं द्विजातिषु।
वितस्ते हिमवत्पादे भृगुतुङ्गं जगाम सः॥३२॥

Prahlāda worshipped both gods in orderly manner, gave donation to Brahmans and visited thereafter at Bhṛgutunga, existing at the extended foothill of Himālaya.

यत्रेष्वरो देववरस्य विष्णोः
प्रादाद्रथाङ्गप्रवरायुधं वै।
येन विच्छेदं त्रिधैव शंकरो
जिज्ञासमानोऽस्त्रबलं महात्मा॥३३॥

God Śambhu had given supreme god Viṣṇu the best weapon there. In order to examine the power vested in that weapon, Viṣṇu had cut-off Śaṅkara in three pieces.

Chapter 82

Legend of Asura Śridāma and his killing by Viṣṇu

नारद उवाच-

भगवैल्लोकनाथाय विष्णवे विष्मेक्षणः।
किर्मर्थमायुधं चक्रं दत्तवैल्लोकपूजितम्॥ १॥

Nārada said- O god! Why had three eyed Śaṅkara given Cakra, the weapon renowned to Viṣṇu, the ruler of universe?

पुलस्त्य उवाच-

शृणुष्वावहितो भूत्वा कथामेतां पुरातनीम्।
चक्रप्रदानसंबद्धां शिवमाहात्म्यवर्धिनीम्॥ २॥

Pulastya said- Please, listen attentively to the ancient story having contents of reasons on which Śiva gave Cakra to Viṣṇu. It enhances the magnificence of god Śiva.

आसीद्द्वृजातिप्रवरो वेदवेदाङ्गपारगः।
गृहाश्रमी महाभागो वीतमन्युरिति स्मृतः॥ ३॥

There was a luckiest and great Brahmin Vitamanyu. He was expertly known to Vedas, their components (aṅgas) and a house-hold Brahmin.

तस्यात्रेयी महाभागा भार्याऽसीच्छीलसंपत्ता।
पतिव्रता पतिप्राणा धमशीलेति विश्रुता॥ ४॥

His wife Dharmasīlā was luckiest, modest, chaste, beloved to husband and from the clan of Atri.

तस्यामस्य महर्षेस्तु ऋतुकालाभिगामिनः।
संबूव सुतः श्रीमान् उपमन्युरिति स्मृतः॥ ५॥

When that hermit enjoyed intercourse with her in appropriate time (viz. at menstruation period), she gave birth to a beautiful son Upamanyu.

तं माता मुनिशार्दूलं शालिपिष्टरसेन वै।
पोषयामास वदती क्षीरमेतत् सुदुर्गता॥ ६॥

O great sage! The parent being poorest, the juice of ground rice was given him during infancy on pretext to being it milk. Thus, he was brought up.

सोऽजानानोऽस्य क्षीरस्य स्वादुतां पय इत्यथा।
संभावनामप्यकरोच्छालिपिष्टरसेऽपि हि॥७॥

As the baby had never tasted milk, he habitually used to think that rice juice as milk.

स त्वेकदा समं पित्रा कुत्रिचिद्द्विजवेश्मनि।
क्षीरौदनं च बुधुजे सुस्वादु प्राणिपुष्टिदम्॥८॥

Later-on he once attend the feast in the home of a client with his father. Sweet-dish (rice cooked with milk) was offered there and he ate it with taste never recognised.

स लब्ध्वाऽनुपमं स्वादं क्षीरस्य ऋषिदारकः।
मात्रा दत्तं द्वितीयेऽहि नादत्ते पिष्टवारि तत्॥९॥

That baby did not accept next day the rice juice when it was offered by mother because he had till then recognised the real taste of rice cooked with milk.

रुदोदाथ ततो बाल्यात्पयोऽर्थं चातको यथा।
तं माता रुदती प्राह बाष्पगद्धया गिरा॥१०॥

He instead began weeping for milk like a thirsty Cātaka and revealed inflexibility. The mother lost patience, tears came out from her eyes and said-

उमापतौ पशुपतौ शूलधारिणि शंकरे।
अप्रसन्ने विरूपाक्षे कुतः क्षीरेण भोजनम्॥११॥

How can we get sweet dish until Śiva, the lord of Umā, the Paśupati, trident holder, deformed body god pleases?

यदीच्छसि पयो भोक्तुं सद्यः पुष्टिकरं सुता।
तमाराधय देवेशं विरूपाक्षं त्रिशूलिनम्॥१२॥

O son! If you really want to sip nutritious milk immediately, do worship of that Mahādeva holding trident.

तस्मिस्तुष्टे जगद्वामि सर्वकल्याणदायिनि।
प्राप्यतेऽमृतपायित्वं किं पुनः क्षीरभोजनम्॥१३॥

Leave the side the milk when nectar is available easily under the grace of that god because he is the only basis of this whole world and a great giver. So, pray to him.

तन्मातुर्वचनं श्रुत्वा वीतमन्युसुतोऽब्रवीत्।
कोऽयं विरूपाक्ष इति त्वयाराध्यस्तु कीर्तिः॥१४॥

The son of Vītamanyu enquired his mother- "Who is that deformed body god (Virūpākṣa) to whom you say I should please?"

ततः सुतं धर्मशीला धर्माढ्यं वाक्यमब्रवीत्।
योऽयं विरूपाक्ष इति श्रूयतां कथयामि ते॥१५॥

Dharmaśīlā then replied- Listen to the introduction of that deformed body god to which I am going to explain.

आसीन्महासुरपतिः श्रीदाम इति विश्रुतः।
तेनाक्रम्य जगत्सर्वं श्रीर्णीता स्ववशं पुरा॥१६॥

Long long ago there was a mighty king of demons called Śrīdāma. He had suppressed all human beings of this whole world and enslaved Lakṣmī, the goddess of wealth.

निःश्रीकास्तु त्रयो लोकाः कृतास्तेन दुरात्मना।
श्रीवत्सं वासुदेवस्य हर्तुमैच्छन्महाबलः॥१७॥

That wicked demon had terrified the three-worlds. He then intended to seize the Śrīvatsa, an ornament of god Viṣṇu.

तस्य दुष्टं स भगवानभिग्रायं जनार्दनः।
ज्ञात्वा तस्य वधाकाङ्क्षी महेश्वरमुपागमत्॥१८॥

When god Janārdana smelt that malice intention of the wicked demon, he went to Maheśvara to consult a strategy for his murder.

एतस्मिन्नन्तरे शंभूर्योगमूर्तिधरोऽव्ययः।
तस्यौ हिमाच्यलप्रस्थमाश्रित्य श्लश्याभूषितम्॥१९॥

He saw there that Śambhu, the immortal and apparent icon of Yoga has seated on a smooth surface on Himālaya's ridge.

अथाप्येत्य जगन्नाथः सहस्रशिरसं विभुम्।
आराधयामास हरिः स्वयमात्मानमात्मना॥२०॥

Viṣṇu then approached to one thousand headed sovereign Jagannātha and began worshipping himself.

सात्रं वर्षसहस्रं तु पादाङ्गुष्ठेन तस्थिवान्।
गृणांस्तत्परमं ब्रह्म योगिज्ञेयमलक्षणम्॥२१॥

He stood on thumb of his foot for a period longer than one thousand years and observed Japa of supreme Brahma, beyond characteristics and inaccessible to the reach of Yogis.

ततः प्रीतः प्रभुः प्रादाद्विष्णवे परमं पदम्।
प्रत्यक्षं तैजसं श्रीमान् दिव्यं चक्रं सुदर्शनम्॥ २२॥

God Mahādeva pleased then and gave a supreme divine Sudarśana-cakra glowing with light.

तदत्त्वा देवदेवाय सर्वभूतभयप्रदम्।
कालचक्रनिमं चक्रं शंकरो विष्णुमद्वीत्॥ २३॥

While Śaṅkara gave Viṣṇu that Cakra equivalent to Kālacakra terrifying all creatures, he said-

वरायुधोऽयं देवेश सर्वायुधनिर्बहणः।
सुदर्शनं द्वादशारं षण्णाभिर्द्वियुगो जवी॥ २४॥

O god of gods! This supreme weapon having twelve spikes, six nuclear and two yugas is speedy and it can split the power of all other weapons available till now. It is called Sudarśana-cakra.

आरासंस्थास्त्वपी तत्र देवा मासाञ्छ राशयः।
शिष्टानां रक्षणार्थाय संस्थिता ऋतवश्च षट्॥ २५॥
अग्निः सोमस्तथा मित्रो वरुणोऽथ शत्रीपतिः।

हनूमांश्चाथ बलवान् देवो धन्वन्तरिस्तथा।
तपश्चैव तपस्यश्च द्वादशैते प्रतिष्ठिताः।
चैत्राद्याः फाल्गुनान्ताञ्छ मासासत्त्र प्रतिष्ठिताः॥ २७॥

The gods, months, zodiacs, six seasons, fire, moon, sun, water, Indra, Viśvedeva, Prajāpati, mightiest Hanumān, Dhavantari Deva, penance and austerity i.e. twelve in number and the twelve months falling from Caitra (March) to Phālguna (February) are installed in its spikes for defence of gentlemen.

त्वमेवमाद्य विभो वरायुधं
शत्रुं सुराणां जहि मा विशङ्किष्ठाः।

अमोघ एषोऽमरराजपूजितो

धृतो मया नेत्रगतस्तपोबलात्॥ २८॥

'O all-pervading one, you accept this great weapon to kill the enemy of the gods without any hesitation. This is unfailing, honoured by the lord of gods and held by me in the eyes by the power of penance.'

इत्युक्तः शंभुना विष्णुः भवं वचनमद्वीत्।
कथं शंभो विजानीयाममोघो मोघ एव वा॥ २९॥

When Śambhu heard by Viṣṇu, he said curiously- "O Śambhu! How will I confirm with its being supreme powerful or a common weapon?

चद्यमोघो विभो चक्रः सर्वत्राप्रतिघस्तव।
जिज्ञासार्थं तवैवेह प्रेक्षिष्ण्यामि प्रतीच्छ भोः॥ ३०॥

O sovereign! If this discus is really Amogha (supreme) and bears undefeated powers why should not I first try it on you. Please, bear its blows.

तद्वाक्यं वासुदेवस्य निशम्याह पिनाकधृक्।
यद्येवं प्रक्षिप्स्वेति निर्विशङ्केन चेतसा॥ ३१॥

The holder of Pināka bow suggested- "If this is the position, blow it then without any reservation on me."

तन्महेशानवचनं श्रुत्वा विष्णुः सुदर्शनम्।
मुमोच तेजोजिज्ञासुः शंकरं प्रति वेगवान्॥ ३२॥

In order to examine the undefeated and unfailed power of that cakra, Viṣṇu blew it on Śaṅkara.

मुरारिकरविधृष्टं चक्रमध्येत्य शूलिनम्।
त्रिष्ठा चकार विश्वेशं यज्ञेशं यज्ञयाजकम्॥ ३३॥

That cakra immediately reached at Śaṅkara and it divided his (the gods of world, god of offering and performer of offering) body in three pieces.

हरं हरिस्त्रिधाभूतं दृष्टा कृतं महाभुजः।
ब्रीडोपल्लुतदेहस्तु प्रणिपातपरोऽभवत्॥ ३४॥

When great warrior Hari saw Śaṅkara cut off in three pieces, he ashamed. He bowed to Śaṅkara.

पादप्रणामवनं वीक्ष्य दामोदरं भवः।
प्राह प्रीतिपरः श्रीमानुक्तिष्ठेति पुनः पुनः॥३५॥

Śaṅkara picked up Hari from his feet with love and said- "Please, stand-up." He then consoled.

प्राकृतोऽयं महाबाहो विकारश्चक्रनेमिना।
निकृत्तो न स्वभावो मे सोऽच्छेद्योऽदाह्य एव च॥३६॥

O great warrior! My Prākṛta Vikāra has only been cut-off by the cakra edge. My nature is still as before and not split. It is inseparable and impenetrable.

तद्यदेतानि चक्रेण त्रीणि भागानि केशव।
कृतानि तानि पुण्यानि भविष्यन्ति न संशयः॥३७॥

O Keśava! Three parts of my body as made by cakra shall undoubtedly enhance the welfare of the world.

हिरण्याक्षः सृतो होकः सुवर्णाक्षस्तथा परः।
तृतीयो विश्वरूपाक्षस्त्रयोऽमी पुण्यदा नृणाम्॥३८॥

The first part shall be called Hiranyākṣa, the second Suvarṇākṣa and the third part will be addressed as Virūpākṣa. All these three parts shall bestow the people with great fruits.

उत्तिष्ठ गच्छस्व विभो निहनुममरादनम्।
श्रीदामि निहते विष्णो नन्दयिष्यन्ति देवताः॥३९॥

O sovereign! Stand please and march for slaughtering the enemy of gods. O Viṣṇu! the gods will express joy on slaughtering of Śrīdāma.

इत्येवमुक्तो भगवान्हरेण गरुडध्वजः।
गत्वा सुरगिरिप्रिस्यं श्रीदामानं दर्दश ह॥४०॥

In pursuance with the words of Śaṅkara, the Garuḍa rider god went at the mountain ridge and saw Śrīdāmā there.

तं दूष्टा देवदर्ढं दैत्यं देववरो हरिः।
मुग्धोच चक्रं वेगाढ्यं हतोऽसीति ब्रुवन्मुहुः॥४१॥

Just when Viṣṇu saw that suppressor of gods, he threw with full force that cakra with frequent challenge that he is now dead.

ततस्तु तेनाप्रतिपौरुषेण
चक्रेण दैत्यस्य शिरो निकृतम्।
संछिन्नशीर्षे निपपात शैलाद्
वत्राहतं शैलशिरो यथैव॥४२॥

That cakra beheaded that demon within no time as it was having unique power. The beheaded demon fell down from the mountain ridge as the ridge falls on befalling the thunderbolt.

तस्मिन्हते देवरिपौ मुरारि-
रीशं समाराध्य विरूपनेत्रम्।
लब्ध्वा च चक्रं प्रवरं महायुधं
जगाम देवो निलयं तपोनिधिम्॥४३॥

When the demon was killed, Murāri worshipped Virūpākṣa Śaṅkara and he then returned to his abode in Kṣīrasāgara with that supreme weapon cakra.

सोऽयं पुत्र विरूपाक्षो देवदेवो महेश्वरः।
तपाराध्य चेत्साधो क्षीरेणेच्छसि भोजनम्॥४४॥

O son! He is that Maheśvara, the god having deformed body. O gentle body! If you want to take food with milk, do worship of him.

तन्मातुर्वचनं श्रुत्वा वीतमन्युसुतो बली।
तपाराध्य विरूपाक्षं प्राप्तः क्षीरेण भोजनम्॥४५॥

That mighty son of Vītamanyu followed the words of his mother, worshipped Virūpākṣa Śaṅkara and got then the food with milk.

एवं ततोक्तं परमं पवित्रं
संछेदनं शर्वतनोः पुरा वै।
ततीर्थवर्यं स महासुरो वै

गदा चेयं सहस्रार्चिरुद्धमन् पावको यथा।
रक्षोभूतपिशाचानां डाकिनीनां च शातनी॥ १२॥

May this mace destroy the demons, ghosts, devils and dākinīs. It is vested with one thousand beams like the fire emitting flames.

शार्ङ्गं विस्फूर्जितं चैव वासुदेवस्य मद्रिपून्।
तिर्यङ्गमनुघ्यकूम्भाण्डप्रेतादीहन्त्यशेषतः॥ १३॥

May the glowing Śāringa bow of Vāsudeva destroy completely the violent animals and predating birds, the men, demons and devils now become my enemies.

खड्डधाराज्वलज्ज्योत्स्नानिर्धूता ये ममाहिताः।
ते यान्तु सौम्यतां सद्यो गरुडेनेव पन्नगाः॥ १४॥

As the serpents are stunned of fear when they saw eagle, my opponents and rivals would lose their vanity and turn humble by virtue of the sharp edge of sword held by god Viṣṇu. I wish for it.

ये कूम्भाण्डास्तथा यक्षा दैत्या ये च निशाचराः।
प्रेता विनायकाः कूरा मनुष्या जृष्मकाः खगाः॥ १५॥
सिंहादयो ये पश्वो दन्दशूकाश्च पन्नगाः।

सर्वे भवन्तु ते सौम्याविष्णुचक्रवाहताः॥ १६॥

I wish all Kūṣmāṇḍa, Yakṣa, demon, demon, devil, Vināyaka, cruel people, Jṛmbhaka, birds, lion etc. animals and bite of serpents having dangerous poison be subdued before the speed of discus held by god Viṣṇu and may these all become modest to me.

चित्तवृत्तिहरा ये च ये जनाः स्मृतिहारकाः।
बलौजसां च हर्तारश्छायाविष्वं सकाश्च ये॥ १७॥
ये चोपभोगहर्तारो ये च लक्षणनाशकाः।
कूप्पाण्डास्ते प्रणश्यन्तु विष्णुचक्रवाहताः॥ १८॥

May all Kūṣmāṇḍa etc. (ghost and devils) disturbing the citta (the heart and mind both), reducing memory, predator of power and splendour, destroyer of radiance, killer of pleasures and destroyer of characteristics be wound thereby eradicate.

बुद्धिस्वारस्थं मनः स्वास्थ्यं स्वास्थ्यमैन्द्रियकं तथा।
ममास्तु देवदेवस्य वासुदेवस्य कीर्तनात्॥ १९॥

May recital of god of gods Vāsudeva endow me with healthy mind, attitude and sensors.

पृष्ठे पुरस्तादथ दक्षिणोत्तरे
विकोणतश्चास्तु जनार्दनो हरिः।
तमीड्यमीशानमनन्तमच्युतं
जनार्दनं प्राणपति न सोदति॥ २०॥

May Janārdana Hari be present at my back, front, right, left and the angles existed in directions. A man bowing his head with sheer obeisance before Janārdana, the adorable Iśāna, Ananta and Acyuta seldom suffers.

यथा परं ब्रह्म हरिस्तथा परं
जगत्स्वरूपश्च स एव केशवः।
ऋतेन तेनाच्युतनामकोत्तना-
त्रिणाशमेतु त्रिदिवं ममाशुभम्॥ २१॥

Hari is supreme as Brahma has supreme place. That Keśava is in the form of world. May! The three omens of me destroy by virtue of the truth that I have recited the names of Acyutas.

इत्येवसावात्मरक्षार्थं कृत्वा वै विष्णुपञ्चरम्।
संस्थितोऽसावपि बली राक्षसः समुपाद्रवत्॥ २२॥

Thus, he was existed there vinyāsa (summoning god with several names on the parts of bodes). That mighty demon rushed towards him.

ततो द्विजनियुक्तयां रक्षया रजनीचरः।
निर्घूतवेगः सहसा तस्थौ मासचतुष्टयम्॥ २३॥
यावद्दिव्वजस्य देवर्षे समाप्तिर्वै समाधितः।
ततो जप्यावसानेऽसौ तं ददश निशाचरम्॥ २४॥

O divine hermit! When that demon approached to the boundary of defence appropriated by Brāhmaṇa, he became motionless and fell there unless after passage of four months, the meditation was over. After satisfactory completion of Japa, he saw that demon lying there.

दीनं हतबलोत्साहं कान्दिशीकं हतौजसम्।
तं दृष्टा कृपयाऽविष्टः समाश्वास्य निशाचरम्॥ २५॥
पप्रच्छागमने हेतुं स चाचष्टे यथागतम्।
स्वधावमात्मनो द्रष्टुं रक्षया तेजसः क्षितिम्॥ २६॥
कथयित्वा च तद्रक्षः कारणं विविधं ततः।
प्रसीदेत्यब्रवीद्विप्रं निर्विणः स्वेन कर्मणा॥ २७॥

He consoled that down-head, powerless, discouraged, anxious and splendour lost demon and asked the reason for his arrival. He explained that his splendour has been reduced as he has understood his real nature. He described a number of reasons but expressed pain on his activity. He said to Brahmin- "Please, be in cheers."

बहूनि पापानि मया कृतानि बहवो हताः।
कृताः स्त्रियो मया बहूयो विधवाः पुत्रवर्जिताः।
अनागसां च सत्त्वानामल्पकानां क्षयः कृतः॥ २८॥

I have committed sins in abundance and killed a number of people. I made the women widows and issueless and killed the innocent organisms lesser in power than me.

तस्मात्पादहं मोक्षमिच्छामि त्वत्रसादतः।
पापप्रशमायात्मं कुरु मे धर्मनाशनम्॥ २९॥

I want to get-rid-of the evils so committed under your grace. Please, preach me the religion (acts) that could efface the evils.

पापस्यास्य क्षयकरमुपदेशं प्रयच्छ मे।

तस्य तद् वचनं श्रुत्वा राक्षसस्य द्विजोत्तमः॥ ३०॥

Please, preach me the way to absolve the heinous activities committed by me. The religious dvija preached for his interests.

वचनं प्राह धर्मात्मा हेतुमध्य सुभाषितम्।

कथं कूरस्वभावस्य सतस्तव निशाचरा।

सहस्रैव सपायाता जिज्ञासा धर्मवर्त्मनि॥ ३१॥

O demon! How your curiosity was born suddenly in the matter of acts and now you want to observe regrettal.

राक्षस उवाच-

त्वां वै समागतोऽस्यद्य क्षिसोऽहं रक्षया बलात्।

तव संसर्गतो ब्रह्मन् जातो निर्वेदं उत्तमः॥ ३२॥

The demon said- I was thrown forcibly out as soon as I could love to you. Perhaps, it was the phenomenal of the defence you summoned metaphysically. O Brahmin! It is the influence of your contact that inspired me to detach from such activities.

का सा रक्षा न तां वेदि वेदि नास्याः परायणम्।

यस्याः संसर्गमासाद्य निर्वेदं प्रापितो परम्॥ ३३॥

I don't know that which type of that defence is so phenomenal that it has suddenly shifted my mind to other side.

त्वं कृपां कुरु धर्मज्ञ मध्यनुक्रोशमावह।

यथा पापापनोदो मे भवत्यार्थ तथा कुरु॥ ३४॥

O religion abiding! O Ārya! Have a grace on me. Be merciful to me. Do the activity which could efface the sins committed by me.

पुलस्त्य उवाच-

इत्येवमुक्तः स मुनिसदा वै तेन राक्षसम्।

प्रत्युवाच महाभाग विमृश्य सुचिरं मुनिः॥ ३५॥

Pulastyā said- Being thus addressed by Rākṣasa that great sage thought in mind for a little while and then replied.

ऋषिरुवाच-

यन्मामाहोपदेशार्थं निर्विण्णः स्वेन कर्मणा।

युक्तमेतद्विद्धि पापानां निवृत्तिसुपकारिका॥ ३६॥

The hermit said- You have done outright to ask my suggestion when you suddenly realised the dire-consequence of the acts committed by you. A man receives progress by effacing his evils.

करिष्ये यातुथानानां नत्वहं धर्मदेशनम्।

तान्संपृच्छ द्विजान्सौम्य ये वै प्रवचने रताः॥ ३७॥

However, I will not preach religion to the demons. Hence, O modest man! Ask those Brahmins who deliver speech.

एवमुक्त्वा ययौ विप्रश्चिन्नतामाप च राक्षसः।

कथं पापापनोदः स्यादिति चिन्ताकुलेद्वियः॥ ३८॥

That Brahmin with these words, left that place. His senses became impatient when he worried of the acts committed and their consequences.

न चखाद स सत्त्वानि क्षुद्धा संबाधितोऽपि सन्।

षष्ठे षष्ठे तदा काले जनुमेकमभक्षयत्॥ ३९॥

He did not eat the organisms in spite of suffering from hunger. He began to kill and prey at only bird / organism within three days (six time means single diet on third day).

स कदाचिद्क्षुद्धाविष्टः पर्यटन्त्रिपुले वने।

ददर्श फलाहारमागतं ब्रह्मचारिणम्॥ ४०॥

Once upon a time, he saw a celibate came for plucking fruits from the forest when he was strolling there. He was most hungry.

गृहीतो रक्षसा तेन स तदा मुनिदारकः।

निराशो जीविते प्राह सामपूर्वं निशाचरम्॥ ४१॥

The demon gripped the son of hermit. That celibate, having lost hope of life, enquired him.

ब्राह्मण उवाच-

भो भद्र बूहि यत् कार्यं गृहीतो येन हेतुना।

तदनुबूहि भद्रं ते अयमस्यनुशासि माम्॥ ४२॥

The Brahmin said- O gentleman! Tell me about your mission and why have you gripped me? I wish all good for you. Order me, please.

राक्षस उवाच-

षष्ठे काले त्वमाहारः क्षुधितस्य समागतः।
निःश्रीकस्यातिपापस्य निर्घृणस्य द्विजदुहः॥ ४३॥

The demon said- I am without money, an evildoer, most miscreant, cruel and rival to Brahmin. I am hungry and on third day as my rule for taking diet, I see you here.

ब्राह्मण उवाच-

यद्यवश्यं त्वया चाहं भक्षितव्यो निशाचर।
आयास्यामि तवाद्यैव निवेद्य गुरुवे फलम्॥ ४४॥

Brahmin said- O demon! Of you really want to eat my flesh, I first want to offer these fruits to my preceptor and will then return soon.

गुर्वर्थमेतदागत्य यत्कलग्रहणं कृतम्।
ममात्र निष्ठाप्राप्तस्य फलानि विनिवेदितुम्॥ ४५॥

The fruits gathered by me here for preceptor, I with obeisance, want to hand-over these to him.

स त्वं मुहूर्तमात्रं मामत्रैवं प्रतिपालय।
निवेद्य गुरुवे यावदिहागच्छाम्यहं फलम्॥ ४६॥

Hence, wait for me here for a few minutes (muhūrta) so that I could come back after giving these fruits to preceptor.

राक्षस उवाच-

षष्ठे काले न मे ब्रह्मन्कश्चिद् ग्रहणमागतः।
प्रतिमुच्येत देवोऽपि इति मे पापजीविका॥ ४७॥

The Rākṣasa said- O Brahmin! Nobody even the gods themselves cannot escape from my hand when I see him on the expiry of third day living without food.

एक एवात्र मोक्षस्य तव हेतुः शृणुच्च तम्।
मुञ्चाम्यहमसंदिख्यं यदि तत्कुरुते भवान्॥ ४८॥

Listen to a single step for your liberty. I will relieve you if you could exercise it properly.

ब्राह्मण उवाच-

गुरोर्यन्न विरोधाय यन्न धर्मोपरोद्धकम्।
तत्करिष्याम्यहं रक्षो यन्न ब्रतहरं मम॥ ४९॥

The Brahmin said- O demon! If the assignment is not against preceptor, resister to religion and not having effect of splitting my resolution; I certainly perform it without any reservations.

राक्षस उवाच-

मया निसर्गतो ब्रह्मन् जातिदोषाद्विशेषतः।
निर्विवेकेन चित्तेन पापकर्म सदा कृतम्॥ ५०॥

The demon said- O Brahmin! I have committed sins always due to having it my nature, particularly being defective caste and without discretion of citta.

आवाल्यान्मम पापेषु न धर्मेषु रतं मनः।
तत्यापसंक्षयान्मोक्षं प्राप्नुयां येन तद् वद॥ ५१॥

My mind stucked to evils instead of religion. Please, therefore tell me the step that may curtail my evils and ensure my emancipation.

याज्ञि पापानि कर्माणि बालत्वाद्यरितानि च।
दुष्टां योनिमिमां प्राप्य तन्मुक्तिं कथय द्विज॥ ५२॥

O Dvija! Tell me the steps to be followed for regrettal of the offences committed unknowingly due to having this wicked yoni and which may ensure my emancipation.

यदेतदिद्वजपुत्रं त्वं समाख्यास्यस्यशेषतः।
ततः क्षुधार्तान्मत्तस्त्वं नियतं मोक्षमाप्यसि॥ ५३॥

O Brahmin! In case you could explain a viable method duly understood to me, I assure of not killing you and would like to starve better than murder.

न चेत् तत्यापशीलोऽहमत्यर्थं क्षुत्यिपासितः।
षष्ठे काले नृशंसात्मा भक्षयिष्यामि निर्घृणः॥ ५४॥

If you could not satisfy me, I am starving thereby cruel as I could get you on the third day of my living without food.

पुलस्त्य उवाच।

एवमुक्तो मुनिसुतस्तेन घोरेण रक्षसा।

चिन्तामवाप महतीमशक्तस्तद्वीरणे॥५५॥

Pulastyā said- As that hermit's son was not able enough to suggest viable way the method to receive emancipation, he worried most as his life was at stake.

विमृश्य चिरं विप्रः शरणं जातवेदसम्।

जगाम ज्ञानदानाय संशयं परमं गतः॥५६॥

He pondered on the matter longer but confused. Hence, he summoned fire to mind for providing with the viable knowledge.

यदि शुश्रूषितो वह्निर्गुरुशुश्रूषणादनु।

ब्रतानि वा सुचीर्णानि सप्तार्चिः पातु मां ततः॥५७॥

He prayed- O Agni! Defend me at this eleven hour if I have given you importance and honour next to preceptor with the core of my heart and mind. Please, rescue me if I have really served you and observed the parts solemnly.

न मातरं न पितरं गौरवेण यथा गुरुम्।

सर्वदैवावगच्छामि तथा मां पातु पावकः॥५८॥

O Agni! If I have given the teacher more importance than parent in the matter of expression of respect, please, defend me.

यथा गुरुं न मनसा कर्मणा वचसाऽपि च।

अवजानाम्यहं तेन पातु सत्येन पावकः॥५९॥

If I have really not insulted anyway either through acts or speech and mind to my preceptor, this truth may ensure my defence under grace of fire.

इत्येवं मनसा सत्यान् कुर्वतः शपथान् मुने।

सप्तार्चिषा समादिष्टा प्रादुरासीत् सरस्वती॥६०॥

When he was so summoning wisdom from fire, goddess Sarasvatī appeared there at once under instructions of fire.

सा प्रोवाच द्विजसुतं राक्षसश्चरणाकुलम्।

मा भौद्विजसुताहं त्वां मोक्षयिष्यामि संकटात्॥६१॥

She said to the anxious and puzzled Brahmin who was trembling wit fright of death, O Brahmin! Don't be afraid. I will rescue you at this moment of calamity.

यदस्य रक्षसः श्रेयो जिह्वाये संस्थिता तव।

तत्सर्वं कथयिष्यामि ततो मोक्षमवाप्यसि॥६२॥

I will make my seat at the fore-portion of your tongue and automatically start telling the welfare forth to exercise for this demon. You shall then enjoy liberty.

अदृश्या रक्षसा तेन प्रोक्त्वेत्यं च सरस्वती।

अदर्शनं गता सोऽपि द्विजः प्राह निशाचरम्॥६३॥

Maintaining her invisible to that demon, goddess Sarasvatī vanished. That Brahmin then suggested the demon.

ब्राह्मण उवाच-

श्रूयतां तव यच्छ्रेयस्तथाऽन्येषां च पापिनाम्।

समस्तपापशुद्ध्यर्थं पुण्योपचयदं च यत्॥६४॥

Brahmin said- "Listen carefully being now told by me the way which will ensure all good not only for you but also for other evil-doers like you.

यथैतत् सत्यमुक्तं मे न ह्यत्पमपि मे मृषा।
राक्षसग्रस्तसर्वाङ्गं तथा मामेष मुञ्चतु॥ ११०॥

If I have stated it true and nothing is false like in my statement, this demon should left me as I am suffering.

पुलस्थ उवाच—
एवमुद्यारिते तेन मुक्तो विप्रस्तु रक्षसा।
अकामेन द्विजो भूयस्तमाह रजनीचरम्॥ १११॥

Pulastyā said- The demon made free the Brahmin. Dvija again said to demon in plain words.

ब्राह्मण उवाच—
एतद्दद्र मया ख्यातं तव पातकनाशनम्।
विष्णोः सारस्वतं सोत्रं यज्जगाद सरस्वती॥ ११२॥

Brahmin said- O gentleman! the Eternal (Sārasvata) hymns of Viṣṇu as stated by goddess Sarasvatī herself has been explained by me exacted in that form without modification anyway.

हुताशनेन प्रहिता मम जिह्वाप्रसंस्थिता।
जगादैनं स्तवं विष्णोः सर्वेषां चोपशान्तिदम्॥ ११३॥

Sarasvatī existed on the fore portion of my tongue who was sent by the fire god, has recited this psalm to Viṣṇu.

अनेनैव जगन्नाथं त्वमाराधय केशवम्।
ततः शापापनोदं तु सुते लप्यसि केशवे॥ ११४॥

Do worship of Keśava, the master of universe. By offering psalm to Keśava you shall definitely absolve from the evils.

अहर्निंशं हषीकेश स्तवेनानेन राक्षस।
सुत्वा भक्ति दृढां कृत्वा ततः पापाद्
विमोक्ष्यसे॥ ११५॥

O demon! Pray Hṛiṣikeśa with this psalm daily night and day. Keep sheer devotion for god in your heart and mind. By offering this psalm to Keśava you shall be absolved from sins.

सुतो हि सर्वपापानि नाशयिष्यत्यसंशयम्।
सुतो हि भक्त्या नृणां स सर्वपापहरो हरिः॥ ११६॥

Hari so prayed shall definitely destroy your all evils. Hari, the destroyer of all sins absolve the people from the sins committed earlier.

पुलस्त्य उवाच-

ततः प्रणम्य तं विप्रं प्रसाद्य च निशाचरः।
तदैव तपसे श्रीमान् शालग्रामपगाद् वशी॥ ११७॥

Pulastyā said- that self-controlled demon then saluted the Brahmin, pleased him and moved for Śālagrāma in order to observe penance so suggested.

अहर्निंशं स एवैनं जपन्सारस्तवं स्तवम्।
देवक्रियारतिर्भूत्वा तपस्तेषे निशाचरः॥ ११८॥

That demon began engrossing his mind there with the worship of god with reciting the above-said psalm throughout the day and night.

सप्तरात्य जगन्नाथं स तत्र पुरुषोत्तमम्।
सर्वपापविनिर्मुक्तो विष्णुलोकमवासवाहन्॥ ११९॥

He worshipped there Puruṣottama Jagannātha, absolved from all sins committed till then and obtained the abode of Viṣṇu.

एतते कथितं ब्रह्मनिष्ठोः सारस्तवं स्तवम्।
विप्रवक्तस्था सम्यक्सरस्त्वत्या समीरितम्॥ १२०॥

O Brahmin! I have thus completely told you this Sārasvata strotra for the pleasure of Viṣṇu as it came down from Sarasvatī seated tongue of Brahmin.

य एतत्परमं स्तोत्रं वासुदेवस्य मानवः।
पठिष्यति स सर्वेभ्यः पापेभ्यो मोक्षमाप्यति॥ १२१॥

The man reciting this supreme psalm, will definitely absolve from the sins committed earlier by him.

 ग्रोक्तं त्वगस्त्येन महर्षिणा च।
 धन्यं यशस्यं बहुपापनाशनं
 संकीर्तनात् स्मरणात् संश्रवाद्य॥ २९॥

The hermit Agastya had recited this most ancient psalm. Numerous evils are effaced merely when it is recited, summoned and hearing. The man doing this becomes illustrious and successful in his life.

इति श्रीवामनपुराणे पुलस्त्यनारदसंवादे वामनप्रादुभावे
 प्रह्लादतीर्थयात्रायां द्वितीयः पापनाशनस्तवो
 नामाष्टाशीतितमोऽध्यायः॥ ८८॥

विज्ञाय तत्राप्यरति स्नात्वाऽर्च्य पितृदेवताः।
प्रजगम्युः किरणां पुण्यां दिनेशकिरणच्युताम्॥५॥

Having not found suitable and comfortable place, they took bath, worshipped ancestors and gods and then went on the bank of river Kirāṇā originated from the sun beams.

तस्यां स्नात्वाऽर्च्य देवर्षे सर्वे एव महर्षयः।
ऐरावतीं सुपुण्योदां स्नात्वा जग्मुरथेश्वरीम्॥६॥

O divine hermit! After bath and worship in that river, all hermits went at the bank of river Airavatī, took bath in it and then reached at the bank of Isvarī river.

देविकाया जले स्नात्वा पयोष्यां चैव तापसाः।
अवतीर्णा मुने स्नातुमात्रेयाद्याः शुभां नदीम्॥७॥

O sage! Ātreya etc. ascetics descended in Śubhā river after having bath in Devikā and Payoṣṇī rivers.

ततो निमग्ना ददृशुः प्रतिबिम्बमथात्पनः।
अन्तर्जले द्विजश्रेष्ठ महदाश्र्वर्यकारकम्॥८॥

O great Dvija! Those people saw their reflection when they were immersed into water. They were surprised.

उन्मज्जने च ददृशुः पुनर्विस्मितमानसाः।
ततः स्नात्वा समुत्तीर्णा ऋषयः सर्वे एव हि॥९॥

The hermits so surprised again saw that reflection when they came out from river. Ultimately, they took bath and came out from that river.

जग्मुस्तोऽपि ते ब्रह्मन् कथयन्तः परस्परम्।
चिन्तयन्तश्च सततं किमेतदिति विस्मिताः॥१०॥

O Brāhmaṇa! all people then moved from there discussing mutually the surprising thing they came across in the river.

ततो दूरादपश्यन्त वनघण्डं सुविस्तृतम्।
वनं हरदगश्यामं खगध्वनिनादितम्॥११॥

Then they saw a forest, from a certain distance. It was huge, dark looking as Śaṅkara's throat and echoed with the chattering of birds.

Chapter 89

Description of the birth of Viṣṇu as incarnation of Vāmana

पुलस्त्य उवाच-

गतेऽथ तीर्थयात्रायां प्रहादे दानवेश्वरे।
कुरुक्षेत्रं समध्यागाद् यष्टुं वैरोचनो बलिः॥ १॥

Pulastyā said- Bali, son of Virocana went Kurukṣetra to organise offering (yajña) when demon king Prahlāda set-off for pilgrimage.

तस्मिन् महाधर्मयुते तीर्थे ब्राह्मणपुंगवः।
शुक्रो द्विजातिप्रवरानामन्नयत भार्गवान्॥ २॥

The great Brahmin Śukrācārya invited Bhārgavas (Brāhmaṇas of Bhārgava family) to participate in that holy place for yajña.

भृगूनामन्त्याणा वै श्रुत्वात्रेयाः सगौतमाः।
कौशिकाङ्ग्रसश्वेत तत्यजुः कुरुजाङ्गलान्॥ ३॥

When Atri, Gautama, Kauśika and Arigira gotra Brahmīns came to know that Brahmīns of Bhṛgu race were also invited, they abandoned KuruJaṅgaīa.

उत्तराशां प्रजग्मुस्ते नदीमनु शतदुकाम्।
शातद्रवे जले स्नात्वा विपाशां प्रथयुस्ततः॥ ४॥

They reached at the bank of Śatadru river at north. They took bath in the holy water of Śatadru and then went at the bank of Vipāśā river.

अतितुङ्गतया व्योम आवृण्वानं नरोत्तमम्।
विस्तुताभिर्जटाभिस्तु अन्तर्भूमि च नारद॥ १२॥

O Nārada! Being that forest at highest altitude, it was appeared touching the sky and the earth lower side was covered by the roots deep emerged.

काननं पुष्पितैर्वृक्षैरतिभाति समन्ततः।
दशार्द्धवर्णैः सुखदैर्नभस्तारागणैरिव॥ १३॥

That forest was looking very attractive with five coloured flower plants on all sides like sky with the lunar mansions, giver of happiness and with the stars.

तं दृष्ट्वा कपलैर्व्यासं पुण्डरीकैश्च शोभितम्।
तद्वल्कोकनदैर्व्यासं वनं पद्मवनं यथा॥ १४॥
प्रजगमुस्तुष्टिमतुलां ते हादं परमं ययुः।
विविशुः ग्रीतमनसो हंसा इव महासरः॥ १५॥

They exhilarated and satiated to see that forest covered by lotus-like Padmavana (forest of lotus), ornamented by Puṇḍarikas and surrounded by Kokanadas. As swan enters in a great reservoir, they entered this forest happily.

तन्मध्ये ददृशुः पुण्यमाश्रमं लोकपूजितम्।
चतुर्णा लोकपालानां वर्गाणां मुनिसत्तम॥ १६॥

O great sage! They saw amid that forest a holy cottage popularised in public. It was of four vargas (Dharma, Artha, Kāma and Mokṣa).

धर्माश्रमं प्राङ्मुखं तु पलाशविटपावृतम्।
प्रतीच्यभिमुखं ब्रह्मन् अर्थस्येषुवनावृतम्॥ १७॥
दक्षिणाभिमुखं काष्ठं रम्भाशोकवनावृतम्।
उद्दमुखं च मोक्षस्य शुद्धस्फटिकवर्चसम्॥ १८॥

O Brahmin! The cottage facing east and covered by Palāśa trees is Dharmāśrama, the cottage surrounded by the cane forest at west was Arthaśrama, the cottage facing south and covered by banana and Aśoka trees was Kāmāśrama and the cottage facing north and white as sphaṭika was Mokṣāśrama.

कृतान्ते त्वाश्रमी मोक्षः कामस्त्रेतान्तरे श्रमी।
आश्रम्यर्थे द्वापरान्ते तिष्यादौ धर्म आश्रमी॥ १९॥

Mokṣa occupies the hermitage at the end of Satya yuga. Kāma becomes dweller of āśrama in Tretā, the Artha becomes dweller of āśrama at the end of Dvāpara while Dharma starts living in the hermitage in the beginning of Kaliyuga.

तान्याश्रमाणि मुनयो दृष्ट्वात्रेयास्तोऽव्ययाः।
तत्रैव च रतिं चक्रुरखण्डे सलिलाप्लुते॥ २०॥

Having seen those hermitages, the imperishable sages, took delight there on the Akhaṇḍa mountain sprinkled with water.

धर्माद्यैर्भगवान् विष्णुरुखण्ड इति विश्रुतः।
चतुर्मूर्तिर्जगन्नाथः पूर्वमेव प्रतिष्ठितः॥ २१॥

God Viṣṇu is renowned as Akhaṇḍa according to books in religion. It is already settled that Jagannātha is of four icons.

तमर्चयन्ति ऋषयो योगात्मानो बहुश्रुताः।
शुश्रूषयाऽथ तपसा ब्रह्मचर्येण नारद॥ २२॥

O Nārada! Learned ascetics and hermits worship them with service, penance and celibacy.

एवं ते न्यवसंस्तत्र समेता मुनयो वने।
असुरेभ्यस्तदा भोताः स्वाश्रितयाखण्डपर्वतम्॥ २३॥

The hermits frightened from demons began to live together under proper shelter of that Akhaṇḍa mountain.

तथाऽन्ये ब्राह्मणा ब्रह्मन् अश्मकुट्टा मरीचिपाः।
सात्त्वा जले हि कालिन्द्याः प्रजगुह्यक्षिणामुखाः॥ २४॥

O Brāhmaṇa! other Brahmins, Aśmakūṭṭas and Marīcipas took bath in the water of Yamunā and moved towards south.

अवन्तीविषयं प्राप्य विष्णुमासाद्य संस्थिताः।
विष्णोरपि प्रसादेन दुष्प्रवेशं महासुरैः॥ २५॥

They reached at Avanti city, an inaccessible place to demons under Viṣṇu's grace and began to live in shelter to Viṣṇu.

बालखिल्यादयो जगमुरवशा दानवाद्यतात्।
रुद्रकोटि॑ समाश्रित्य स्थितास्ते ब्रह्मचारिणः॥ २६॥

The helpless Bālakhilya etc. hermits went at Rudrakoṭi under influence of fright from demons' side and began living there.

एवं गतेषु विप्रेषु गौतमाङ्गिरसादिषु।
शुक्रस्तु भार्गवान् सर्वान् निन्ये यज्ञविद्यौ मुने॥ २७॥

O sage! Śukrācārya took all Brahmins from Bhārgava family to organise yajña when Gautama and Aṅgirasa etc. Brahmins left that place vacate.

अधिष्ठिते भार्गवैस्तु महायज्ञेऽमितद्युते।
यज्ञदीक्षां बलेः शुक्रश्चकार विधिना स्वयम्॥ २८॥

O splendours sage! Śukrācārya gave Bali yajñadīkṣā in an orderly manner in the yajña organised by the Brahmins from Bhārgava clan.

श्रेताम्बरधरो दैत्यः श्रेतमाल्यानुलेपनः।
पृथग्नाजिनावृतः पृष्ठे बर्हिपत्रविचित्रितः॥ २९॥
समाप्ते वितते यज्ञे सदस्वैरभिसंवृतः।
हयग्रीवप्रलम्बाद्यैर्मयबाणपुरोगमैः॥ ३०॥

The demon Bali with white garments, white garland and anointing the body, covered by the skin of deer at the back, looking charming due to kuś-grass, took seat in pavilion of yajña. He was surrounded by the other members i.e. Hayagrīva, Pralamba, Maya and Bāṇa etc.

पल्ली विन्ध्यावली तस्य दीक्षिता यज्ञकर्मणि।
ललनानां सहस्रस्य प्रधाना ऋषिकन्यका॥ ३१॥

His wife Vindhyaivalī, the chief among the thousand wives, the daughter of a sage, too consecrated.

शुक्रेणाश्चः श्रेतवर्णो मधुमासे सुलक्षणः।
महीं विरह्मुत्सृष्टस्तारकाक्षोऽन्वगाच्च तम्॥ ३२॥

Śukrācārya relieved a horse in the month of Caitra having auspicious characteristics for strolling on the earth. The demon Tārakākṣa began following him.

एवमश्चे समुत्स्यष्टे वितते यज्ञकर्मणि।
गते च मासत्रितये हृथमाने च पावके॥ ३३॥
पूज्यमानेषु दैत्येषु मिथुनस्ये दिवाकरे।
सुषुवे देवजननी माधवं वामनाकृतिम्॥ ३४॥

When the horse had been released, the sacrifice had expanded, when three months had passed, when oblations had been offered in the fire and when the demons were being worshipped and the sun existed in Mithuna, then the mother of god gave birth to Viṣṇu of dwarfish form.

तं जातमात्रं भगवन्तमीशं
नारायणं लोकपतिं पुराणम्।

त्वं धाता च विधाता च संहर्ता त्वं महेश्वर।
महालय महायोगी योगशायिन् नमोऽस्तु ते॥ ४१॥

पुलस्त्य उवाच-

इत्येवमुक्त्वा वचनं महर्षे

विष्णुभरद्वाजमृषिं महात्मा।

विलासलीलागमनो गिरीन्द्रात्

स चाभ्यगच्छत् कुरुजाङ्गलं हि॥४८॥

Pulastya said! O Maharsi! With these words to the hermit Bharadvāja, great soul Viṣṇu started moving from there with speed and reached soon at Kurujāṅgala from that mountain.

Chapter 91

Dialogue of Śukra and Bali

पुलस्त्य उवाच

ततः समागच्छति वासुदेवं

मही चकम्पे गिरयश्च चेलुः।

क्षुब्धाः समुद्रा दिवि ऋक्षमण्डलो

बभौ विपर्वस्तगतिर्महर्षे॥ १॥

Pulastya said- O hermit! The earth on walking Vāsudeva in dwarf form began shivering, the mountains deviated, oceans rose in tides and the galaxy in sky suffered dwindling.

यज्ञः समागात् परमाकुलत्वं

न वेदि किं मे मधुहा करिष्यति।

यथा प्रदग्धोऽस्मि महेश्वरेण

किं मां न संघश्यति वासुदेवः॥ २॥

Sacrifice became very much perturbed thinking. “I don’t know what Viṣṇu, the killer of Madhu, will do to me. Will Viṣṇu not burn me in the same way I was burnt by Śiva.

ऋक्साममन्त्राहृतिभिर्हुताभि-

र्वितानकीयान् ज्वलनास्तु भागान्।

भक्त्या द्विजेन्द्रैरपि संप्रदत्तानैव

नैव प्रतीच्छन्ति विभोर्भयेन॥ ३॥

The oblations offered through āhutis with Dvijas of R̥gveda and Sāmaveda hymns and with keen devotion were not being accepted by fire due to fear of god Viṣṇu.

तान् दृष्टा घोररूपांस्तु उत्पातान् दानवेश्वरः।

पप्रच्छोशनसं शुक्रं प्रणिपत्य कृताङ्गलिः॥ ४॥

Seeing those portents of terrible form, the lord of demons Bali asked Śukrācārya, the preceptor of demons, after bowing down to him and with folded hands—

किमर्थमाचार्यं मही सशैला

रम्भेव वाताभिहता चचाला।

किमासुरीयान् सुहुतानपीह

भागान् न गृह्णन्ति हुताशनश्च॥ ५॥

O Ācārya! Why the earth including mountains is shivering like a plantain tree beaten by the waves of wind and why was fire not accepting the oblations offered in course of yajña which particularly are being offered for demons?

शुक्राः किमर्थं मकरालयाश्च भो
ऋक्षा न खे किं प्रचरन्ति पूर्ववत्।
दिशः किमर्थं तमसा परिप्लुता
देषेण कस्याद्य वदस्य मे गुरो॥६॥

Why have oceans filled with tides? Why are the constellations moving with unusual speed in the sky and why have the directions covered with dark? O preceptor! Kindly, tell me whose fault is responsible for all this?

पुलस्त्य उवाच-

शुक्रस्तद्वाक्यमाकर्ष्य विरोचनसुतेरितम्।
अथो ज्ञात्वा कारणं च बलिं वचनमब्रवीत्॥७॥

Pulastya said- Hearing those words spoken by the son of Virocana, Śukra thought for a few moments and replied Bali when cause became apparent to his mind.

शुक्र उवाच-

शृणवद्य दैत्येश्वरं येन भागान्।
नामी प्रतीच्छन्ति हि आसुरीयान्।
हुताशना मन्त्रहुतानपीह
नूनं समागच्छति वासुदेवः॥८॥

Śukrācārya said- “O king of demons! Listen to me. Vāsudeva is definitely coming here.” This is the reason the oblations for demons offered with fire hymns remain unaccepted.

तदद्विश्विक्षेपमपारयन्ती
मही सशैला चलिता दितीशा।
तस्यां चलत्यां मकरालयामी
उद्वृत्वेला दितिजाद्य जाताः॥९॥

O son of Diti! As the earth is unable to bear the burden of his foot steps, it is shivering. O Ditiya (lord of demons)! These oceans are violating their limits due to frequent shivering of earth.

पुलस्त्य उवाच-

शुक्रस्य वचनं श्रुत्वा बलिभार्गवमब्रवीत्।
धर्मं सत्यं च पर्यं च सर्वोत्साहसमीरितम्॥१०॥

Pulastya said- Hearing the words of Śukra, Bali said to Bhārgava the statement endowed with piety, true, benevolent and energising-

बलिरुवाच-

आयाते वासुदेवे वद मम भगवन् धर्मकामार्थतत्त्वं
किं कार्यं किं च देयं पणिकनकपथो भूगजाश्वादिकं वा।
किं वा वाच्यं मुरारेन्निजहितमथवा तद्वितं वा प्रयुज्ञे
तथं पर्यं प्रियं भो मम वद शुभं तत्करिष्ये न चान्यत्॥

Bali said- “O god! Explain the exercisable deed on arrival of Vāsudeva corroborating to religion, essence, harmony and emancipation.” What thing out of gem, earth, elephant or horse should I donate him? What should I say Murāri? What good for myself or his should be performed? Please, tell me the facts benevolent, auspicious and favourite. I will do as you suggest and will do nothing otherwise.

पुलस्त्य उवाच-

तद्वाक्यं भार्गवः श्रुत्वा दैत्यनाथेति भूतं।
विघ्नित्य नारदं प्राह भूतभव्यविदीश्वरः॥१२॥

Pulastya said- “O Nārada! Bhārgava, knower of past and future both, thought for a little while on request and said-

त्वया कृता यज्ञभुजोऽसुरेन्द्रा
बहिष्कृता ये श्रुतिदृष्टमार्गाः।
श्रुतिप्रमाणं मखभोजिनो बहिः
सुरास्तदर्थं हरिरभ्युपैति॥१३॥

You have made demons entitle to receive oblations of yajña while it has been prohibited in Vedas as these have been ousted from this right out. You have again denied the god entitle ab-initio to oblations of offering in Vedas. This is the reason, Hari is coming here.

तस्याध्वरं दैत्यसमागतस्य
कार्यं शृणु त्वं परिपृच्छसे यत्।
कार्यं न देयं हि विभो तुणाग्रं
यदध्वरे भूकनकादिकं वा॥ १४॥

O demon! As you have asked dealing with Vāmana on his arrival here, (it is to state) he should not be given even the tip of a thorn or the earth, gold and other things in the sacrifice.

वाच्यं तथा साम निरर्थकं विभो
कस्ते वरं दातुमलं हि शक्नुयात्।
यस्योदरे भूर्भुवनाकपाल-
रसातलेशा निवसन्ति नित्यशः॥ १५॥

You should say these peaceful words to him which convey no sense, O sovereign! "Who is able to give anything to a god whose stomach dwells permanently the protectors of earth, aerial region and heaven and the lord of the nether world."

बलिरुवाच-

मया न चोक्तं वचनं हि भार्गव
न चास्ति महां न च दातुमुत्सहे।
समागतेऽप्यर्थिनि हीनवृत्ते
जनार्दने लोकपतौ कथं तु॥ १६॥

Bali said- "O Bhārgava! I seldom said even any misconduct man who came to me with expectation that I have nothing and I don't want to give." When Janārdana, the ruler of universe is now approaching to me, then tell me that how can I say as suggested by you?

एवं च श्रूयते श्लोकः सतो कथयतो विभो
सद्गावो ब्राह्मणेष्वेव कर्तव्यो भूतिमिच्छता।
दृश्यते हि तथा तद्य सत्यं ब्राह्मणासन्तम्॥ १७॥

O sovereign! Gentleman have stated that the man willing luxury should always keep bona-fide spirit for Brahmins. O great Brahmin! His dictum appears allright.

पूर्वाभ्यासेन कर्माणि संभवन्ति नृणां स्फुटम्।
वाक्कायमानसानीह योन्यन्तरगतान्यपि॥ १८॥

The activities performed by people through speech, body and mind, automatically appear and sprout in other births too on account of previous practice made.

किं वा त्वया द्विजश्रेष्ठं पौराणी न श्रुता कथा।
या वृत्ता मलये पूर्वं कोशकारसुतस्य च॥ १९॥

O great Dvija! Have you not heard the ancient story of Kośakāra's son which took place at Malayācala?

शुक्र उवाच-

कथयस्य महाबाहो कोशकारसुताश्रयाम्।
कथां पौराणिकां पुण्यां महाकौतूहलं हि मे॥ २०॥

Sukra said- "O great warrior! Please, tell the story pertaining to the son of Kośakāra. I am curious to listen."

बलिरुवाच-

शृणुष्व कथयिष्यामि कथामेतां मखान्तरे।
पूर्वाभ्यासनिबद्धां हि सत्यां भृगुकुलोद्ध्रह॥ २ १॥

Bali said- "O great son of Bhṛgu family! I am telling this true story related to impact of previous practice." Please, listen to it.

मुद्गलस्य मुनेः पुत्रो ज्ञानविज्ञानपारगः।
कोशकार इति ख्यात आसीद्ब्रह्मास्तपोरतः॥ २ २॥

O Brāhmaṇa! hermit Mudgala had a son called Kośakāra. He was renowned scholar and full of conscience.

तस्यासीद्विषया साध्वी धर्मिष्ठा नामतः श्रुता।
सती वात्स्यायनसुता धर्मशीला पतिव्रता॥ २ ३॥

Dharmiṣṭhā was the name of his wife. She was daughter of Vātsyāyana, chaste, celibate, religious and devoted to her husband.

तस्यामस्य सुतो जातः प्रकृत्या वै जडाकृतिः।
मूकवत्रालपति स न च पश्यति चास्यवत्॥ २ ४॥

He was blessed with a son from that lady. He was of inert nature. Like a dumb man neither he could speak nor watch the things like a blind.

तं जातं ब्राह्मणी पुत्रं जडं मूकं त्वचभूषम्।
मन्यमाना गृहद्वारि षष्ठेऽहनि समुत्सृजत्॥ २ ५॥

When that Brāhmaṇa's wife considered that baby inert, dumb and blind, she threw him at the gate of her home on the sixth day of birth.

ततोऽभ्यागाद् दुराचारा राक्षसी जातहारिणी।
स्वं शिशुं कृशमादाय सूर्पाक्षी नाम नामतः॥ २६॥

A misconduct female-demon Sūrpākṣī who used to theft babies came there with her thin and lean built son.

तत्रोत्सृज्य स्वपुत्रं सा जग्राह द्विजनन्दनम्।
तमादाय जगामाथ भोकुं शालोदरे गिरौ॥ २७॥

She left her son there and picked up the son of Brahmin. She took him and went to eat at the mountain Śālodara.

ततस्तामागतां वीक्ष्य तस्या भर्ता घटोदरः।
नेत्रहीनः प्रत्युवाच किमानीतस्वया प्रिये॥ २८॥

Her blind husband Ghatodara when guessed of her arrival asked- "O beloved! What have you brought here?"

साऽब्रवीत् राक्षसपते मया स्थाप्य निजं शिशुम्।
कोशकारद्विजगृहे तस्यानीतः प्रभो सुतः॥ २९॥

She said- "O lord! O master of the demons! I have left my son behind at the home of sage Kośakāra and brought here his son.

स प्राह न त्वया भद्रे भद्रमाचरितं त्विति।
महाज्ञानी द्विजेन्द्रोऽसौ ततः शप्यति कोपितः॥ ३०॥

The demon said- "O gentle woman! You have not done any good act that Brahmin is a great scholar." Hence, he shall curse on us under influence of anger.

तस्माच्छीघ्रमिमं त्यक्त्वा मनुजं धोरस्तपिणम्।
अन्यस्य कस्यचित् पुत्रं शोध्यमानय सुन्दरि॥ ३१॥

O nice lady! Leave therefore, this baby having ugly face at the same place from where you picked it up and bring here the son of another person.

इत्येवमुक्ता सा रौद्रा राक्षसी कामचारिणी।
समाजगाम त्वरिता समुत्पत्य विहायसम्॥ ३२॥

Following the suggestion of her husband, that fierce woman (demon) flew on sky and reached there within no time.

स चापि राक्षससुतो निसृष्टो गृहबाहृतः।
रुरोद सुखरं ब्रह्मन् प्रक्षिप्याद्युष्मानने॥ ३३॥

O Brāhmaṇa! That son of demon left outside the home, began weeping loudly with his thumb in mouth.

सा क्रन्दितं चिराच्छुत्वा धर्मिष्ठ पतिमङ्गवीत्।
पश्य स्वयं मुनिश्रेष्ठ सशब्दस्तनयस्तव॥ ३४॥

When Dharmiṣṭha heard him weeping for longer time, she said to her husband- "O great sage! Look at here! Your son has started weeping loudly."

त्रस्ता सा निर्जगामाथ गृहमध्यात्तपस्तिवनी।
स चापि ब्राह्मणश्रेष्ठः समपश्यत तं शिशुम्॥ ३५॥

That virtuous and fearful lady went outside the home. That Brahmin also saw that baby.

वर्णरूपादिसंयुक्तं यथा स्वतनयं तथा।
ततो विहस्य प्रोवाच कोशकारो निजां प्रियाम्॥ ३६॥

When Kośakāra sage saw the similar complexion of that baby as that of his own son, he laughed and said to his wife.

एतेनाविश्य धर्मिष्ठे भाव्यं भूतेन साम्प्रतम्।
कोऽप्यस्माकं छलयितुं सुरुपी भूवि संस्थितः॥ ३७॥

O Dharmiṣṭhā! Now some evil-spirit has entered the body of the child. Definitely some one of good form, is staying on earth to deceive us.

इत्युक्त्वा वचनं मन्त्री मन्त्रैस्तं राक्षसात्पत्तम्।
बब्योल्लिख्य वसुधां सकुशेनाथ पाणिना॥ ३८॥

With these words, that learned of Mantras tied that son of demon with Mantras after making lines upon earth with his hand holding Kuśa-grass.

एतस्मिन्नरे प्राप्ता सूर्पाक्षी विप्रवालकम्।
अन्तर्धानगतां भूमौ गृहे विक्षेप गृहदूरतः॥ ३९॥

In the meantime, the invisible Sūrpākṣī reached there. She stopped at a distance and threw that son of Brāhmaṇa on earth.

तं क्षिप्तमात्रं जग्राह कोशकारः स्वकं सुतम्।
सा चाभ्येत्य ग्रहीतुं स्वं नाशकद्राक्षसी सुतम्॥ ४०॥

Kośakāra gripped his own son just after he was thrown. However that demoness could not seize her son even after coming there.

इत्थेतश्च विभृषा सा भर्तारमुपागमत्।
कथयामास यदवृत्तं स्वद्विजात्प्रजहरिणम्॥ ४१॥

Falling here and there on both sides, she went to her husband and explained that she had then lost her own as also the son of Brahmin both.

एवं गतायां राक्षस्यां ब्राह्मणेन महात्पना।
स राक्षसशिशुर्बहून् भायर्यै विनिवेदितः॥ ४२॥

O Brāhmaṇa! when demoness returned, that Brahmin gave the child of demon to his wife.

स चात्पतन्यः पित्रा कपिलायाः सवत्सयाः।
दधा संयोजितोऽत्यर्थं क्षीरेणेक्षुरसेन च॥ ४३॥

His own son was nourished by the father with a lot of curd and milk of brown cow having a calf and with the sugarcane juice.

द्वावेव वर्द्धितौ बालौ संजातौ सप्तवार्षिकौ।
पित्रा च कृतनामानौ निशाकरदिवाकरौ॥ ४४॥

Both boys attained the age of seven years. The father gave them names as Niśākara and Divākara.

नैशाचरिदिवाकीर्तिर्निशाकीर्तिः स्वपुत्रकः।
तयोऽश्वकार विप्रोऽसौ द्रवत्पूर्णक्रियां क्रमात्॥ ४५॥

The name of demon's son was Divākīrti while the name of Brahmin's son was Niśākīrti. Brahmin systematically performed the sacred thread ceremony of both.

व्रतबन्धे कृते वेदं पपाठासौ दिवाकरः।
निशाकरो जडतया न पपाठेति नः श्रुतम्॥ ४६॥

Divākara began reciting Vedas when thread ceremony was made. However, Niśākara being inertia, did not set his mind on Vedas. We people have listen this all.

तं बान्धवाश्च पितरौ माता भ्राता गुरुस्तथा।
पर्यन्दिन्दस्तथा ये च जना मलयवासिनः॥ ४७॥

The mother, father, brother, siblings, preceptor and other residents of Malaya mountain began criticising him.

ततः स पित्रा कृद्धेन क्षिमः कूपे निरुदके।
महाशिलां चोपरि वै पिधानमवरोपयत्॥ ४८॥

One day the Brahmin became furious on his folly, threw him in a well without water and covered by a boulder.

एवं क्षिमस्तदा कूपे बहुवर्षगणान्वितः।
तत्रास्त्यामलकीगुल्मः पोषाय फलितोऽभवत्॥ ४९॥

That boy lived there for a number of years when so thrown in the well. An Āmalakī tree was grown in that well. It laden with fruits for the maintenance of that baby.

ततो दशसु वर्षेषु समतीतेषु भार्गव।
तस्य माताऽगमत्कूपं तमन्यं शिलयाचितम्॥ ५०॥

O Bhārgava! "A period of decade passed when his mother went near that dark and boulder covered well."

सा दृष्टा निचितं कूपं शिला गिरिकल्पया।
उच्यैः प्रोवाच्य केनेयं कूपोपरि शिला कृता॥ ५१॥

She spoke loudly when saw that well covered by a heavy boulder- "Who has kept this boulder on the well?"

कूपान्तस्थः स तां वाणीं श्रुत्वा मातुर्निशाकरः।
प्राह प्रदत्ता पित्रा मे कूपोपरि शिला त्वियम्॥ ५२॥

When Niśākara heard his mother's voice, he told- "My father has kept this stone on the mouth of well."

साऽतिभीताऽब्रवीत्कोऽसि कूपान्तस्थोऽद्भुतस्वरः।
सोऽप्याह तव पुत्रोऽस्मि निशाकरेति विश्रुतः॥ ५३॥

She frightened and said- Who are you inside well speakingly so strange? He replied- "I am your son Niśākara."

साऽब्रवीत्तनयो महां नामा ख्यातो दिवाकरः।
निशाकरेति नामाऽहो न कश्चित्तनयोऽस्ति मे॥ ५४॥

She said- "My son is Divākara and I have no son addressed as Niśākara."

स चाह पूर्वचरितं मातुर्निरवशेषतः।
सा श्रुत्वा तां शिलां सुभूः समुक्षिप्यान्यतोऽक्षिपत्॥

That boy then told the previous story in the fullest details and being satisfied, his mother anyhow removed that boulder and threw it other side.

O god! That boy touched the feet of his mother when he was pulled upside the well. She saw the son born from her womb as there was resemblance existed.

Dharmiṣṭhā then took him to home and told the whole episode of her son to husband.

ततोऽच्चपृच्छद्विग्रेऽसौ किमिदं तात कारणम्।

That Brahmin asked then- “O son! You didn't speak during birth. Tell me its reason. I am very curious to listen it.”

Hearing these words, the wise son reciprocated strange to Kośakāra, the excellent Brāhmaṇa, his father and mother.

निशाकर उवाच-

Niśākara said- “O innocent father! Listen to the reason why I had resorted to dumbness, inertia and blindness.”

पूर्वमासमहं विग्रं कुले वृन्दारकस्य तु।

O Brahmin! I was the son of Vṛṣākapi born from the womb of Mālā in respectable Vṛṇḍāraka family in my previous life.

O father! I was great scholar and expert in prudence as also metaphysics. It increased my ego making me blind and it all had turned me into evil activities.

The ego further originated greed in me. It had mined my knowledge on scriptures. My discretion was cost and I became quite stupid.

On account of having ignorance, I became evildoer. My mind also attached to other's wife and wealth.

As I had made physical contacts with other's wife and extorted other's wealth, I was thrown into Raurava hell after death.

After suffering for as much as one thousand years, the residual sins then gave me birth as tiger and began killing animals mercilessly.

O father! Any influencive king caught me one day, fastened and kept in a cage. He then took me to his palace from the forest.

Inspite of being a tiger, fastened and kept in cage, I was still in memory of the scriptures relating to Dharma, Artha and Kāma.

That glorious king subsequently put single garment on body, took mace in hand and moved out from his city.

His wife Jitā was unique beautiful on this earth. She came to me one day when her husband was away.

When I saw her, my sensuality too increased in line with the increase of my knowledge on scriptures due to previous practice. I said to her-

राजपुत्रि सुकल्प्याणि नवयौवनशालिनि।
चितं हरसि मे भीरु कोकिला ध्वनिना यथा॥७३॥

O handsome, nice and ascending youth lady! As cuckoo attracts the minds of people through her sweet voice, you have attracted me.

साऽप्यब्रवी दिवा व्याघ्रं लोकोऽयं परिष्यति।

She said- O tiger! The people will see us in the day. I will open it at night and then enjoy coition to the extent of satiation.

I further said- "I am unable to enjoy if any more delay is made. Hence, open the door and make me free from striyos."

Then the large hipped lady opened the door. The gate being opened, I jumped within a moment outside.

I forcibly cut-off the fetters, iron-chains etc. and caught that queen for coition.

The attendants of king, powerful and chivalrous enough saw me and gripped me with weapons from all sides.

They fastened me with thicker cords and chains and then thrashed by mudgaras. I requested them not blowing so hard on my body when it was continuously going on.

I again fell in heaven on account of coition with other's wife. After passage of a period of one thousand years, I got liberty and then took birth as a white donkey.

तत्रापि सर्वविज्ञानं प्रत्यभासत् ततो मम॥८४॥

At that stage, I lived in the custody of a Brahmin called Agnivesya having several wives. Here too the knowledge acquired by me in previous birth was ready in my memory.

The wives of Brahmins have employed me in riding work, one day the wife of that Brahmin wished to go at her father's house in Navarāṭra Desa. Her name was Vimati. Her husband said to her- "Ride on this white donkey and visit there happily."

O sage! She freed me from tie and set out. When she reached just half the way, she alighted from back and got down for bath in a river. Being in wet clothes, her complexion fully disclosed before my eyes. I fell in love with her and excited.

He sold me after sometime to a business man having martial status. He understood me well learned and courteous and thus, put my cage where his wives were living. Those women used to give rice, water and pomegranate to eat. One day, his lotus eyed, broad nipples, attractive pubic and thin loin wife Candrāvalī opened the door of my cage.

I expressed temptation to enjoy sex with her. I began giving parting to her and in course of that my neck trapped to her metal garland and it was so acute as it killed me. I again fell in the hell being such malicious mind.

She was seated rear side. My genital excited and I became anxious to look at her. I suddenly turned back and fell down reverse in that process.

I again was thrown in hell for another period of one thousand years. From there, fully known to my previous births, I have born at your home.

I am remembering really all those previous practice, I got knowledge on scriptures and bondage of evils both coincide. I will therefore, seldom commit any evil though application of my mind, acts and speech in this yoni.

Good, bad, perseverance, profession relating to study, bondage or murder all are performed by the previous practice.

O father! When a man is known to his previous birth, he always remains away from committing the evils again once committed.

Hence, O sage! I will go to forest for increasing the account of noble deeds and absolving the evils committed earlier. Apparent Divakirtti, your son for worldly affairs i.e. living as household.

बलिस्त्रवाच-

Bali said- O hermit! With these words to his father, Niśākara touched the feet of his parent and went at Badarikāśrama, the sacred residing place of renowned god Nārāyaṇa.

Similarly, a man performs the acts like donation and doing study under the sheer influence of previous practice. I am therefore, revealing the factual position of pre-practice before you about me.

Pulastya said- the demon king, Bali, the mighty began to fix his mind on Nārāyaṇa, holder of discus, mace and sword, the killer of Madhu-kaiṭbha with these words to Śukrācārya, his preceptor and regulator/adviser.

When Vāmana entered in the place of offering, Bali gave special honour and said- O god! O respected! Tell me what should I give to you.

That immortal god laughed longer, put his sight on Śukrācārya and said to Bali.

न स धारयते भूम्यां पारक्यां च जातवेदसम्॥७॥

The preceptor to my own preceptor is Agnihotri (viz. does offering daily). He did not perform yajña and lit fire on other's land.

O king demon! For the sake of my preceptor's pleasure, I beg you merely three steps measuring land as per my complexion (viz. size of body).

Hearing the words of Murāri, Bali stared at his son Bāṇa and wife and said ironically-

न केवलं प्रमाणेन वामनोऽयं लघुः प्रिये।
येन क्रमत्रयं मौख्याद् याचते बुद्धितोऽपि च॥१०॥

O beloved! "This dwarf is not only smaller in body but his mind is dwarfness." He asks only three steps measuring land due to dwarfness in mind and nothing more.

Chapter 92

Bondage of king Bali

पुलस्त्य उवाच-

एतस्मिन्नतरे प्राप्ते भगवान्वामनाकृतिः।
यज्ञवाटमुपागम्य उच्चैर्वचनमब्रवीत्॥१॥

Pulastyā said- The god in his dwarf form just then appeared there. He spoke loudly when arrived at the place of offering (yajña).

ॐकारपूर्वाः श्रुतयो मखेऽस्मिन्
तिष्ठन्ति रूपेण तपोधनानाम्।

यज्ञोऽश्वेष्यः प्रवरः क्रतूनां

मुख्यस्तथा सत्रिषु दैत्यनाथः॥२॥

The hymns of Vedas with syllable "Om" are existed there in the form of hermits. Aśvamedha is the supreme offering and Bali, the king of demon is prominent among the people who performed offering till date.

इत्यं वचनमाकर्ण्य दानवाधिपतिर्वशी।
सार्थ्यपत्रः समध्यागाद्यत्र देवः स्थितोऽभवत्॥३॥

Bali, the balanced mind demon king went at the place where god Vāmana was with arghya (a water vessel).

धनादिकं भूरि न वै ददाति
यथेह विष्णुर्व बहुप्रयासः॥ ११॥

The god oftenly keep away the unlucky people from wealth in abundance because of their slow wit. This was the reason, Viṣṇu did not make more efforts.

न ददाति विधिस्तस्य यस्य भाग्यविपर्ययः।
मयि दातरि यश्चायपद्य याचेत् पदत्रयम्॥ १२॥

The man having his luck reverse is bereaved by almighty from giving. Inspite of here being a donor so great of me, he merely asks for three step land.

इत्येवमुक्त्वा वचनं महात्मा

The great man Bali again encouraged Hari—“O Viṣṇu! ask for the things like elephant, horse, land, attendants and gold etc. whatever you wish.”

भवान् याचयिता विष्णो अहं दाता जगत्पतिः।
दातुर्याचयितुर्लज्जा कथं न स्यात् पदत्रये॥ १४॥

You Viṣṇu are beggar and I the ruler of world is here donor. When this is the position, it will really be shameful to donee and donor both.

रसातलं वा पृथिवीं भुवं नाकमथापि वा।
एतेभ्यः कतम् दद्यां स्थानं याचस्व वामन॥ १५॥

O Vāmana! Please, beg again your desires. Tell me what should I donate out of nether, earth, Bhuvarloka or heaven.

गजाश्वभूहिरण्यादि तदर्थिभ्यः प्रदीयताम्।
एतावता त्वं हार्यो देहि राजन् पदत्रयम्॥ १६॥

Vāmana suggested- Give elephant, horse, land, gold etc. things to the persons requested for. O king! I need only this. Please, give me land measuring three steps.

इत्येवमुक्ते वचने वामनेन महासुरः।
बलिर्भूङ्गरमादाय ददौ विष्णोः क्रमत्रयम्॥ १७॥

The great Bali, picked up Kamanḍalu and resolved for giving land measuring three steps to Viṣṇu.

वामन उवाच-

पाणौ तु पतिते तोये दिव्यं रूपं चकार ह।
त्रैलोक्यक्रमणार्थाय बहुरूपं जगन्मयम्॥ १८॥

As soon as the water fell in the palm of Viṣṇu, he held a gigantic universal form in order to measure three worlds.

पद्म्यां भूमिस्तथा जड्हे नभस्त्रैलोक्यवन्दितः।
सत्यं तपो जानुयुग्मे ऊरुभ्यां मेसमन्दरौ॥ १९॥

कुक्षिभ्यामर्णवाः सप्त जठरे भुवनानि च।
बलिषु त्रिषु नद्यश्च यज्ञास्तु जठरे स्थिताः॥ २१॥

The land was in his feet, ether in legs, Satyaloka and Tapoloka in both pubic, Meru and Mandara mountain in both thighs, Viśvedeva in loin, Marudgaṇas at the top of anus region, Kāmadeva in genital, Prajāpati in testicles, seven seas in armpits, all bhuvanas in belly, rivers in navel region and yajña in the belly.

इष्टापूर्तादयः सर्वाः क्रियास्तत्र तु संस्थिताः।
पृष्ठस्था वसवो देवाः स्कन्दौ स्त्रैरधिष्ठितौ॥ २२॥

All activities Iṣṭāpūrta etc. mere existed in stomach. Vasus and gods were on his back and Rudras on shoulders.

बाहवश्च दिशः सर्वा वसवोऽष्टौ करे स्पृताः।
हृदये संस्थितो ब्रह्मा कुलिशो हृदयास्थिषु॥ २३॥

All directions were merged with his arms. Eight Vasus were in his hands, Brahmā in heart and the thunder-bolt on the ribs.

श्रीसमुद्रा उरोमध्ये चन्द्रमा मनसि स्थितः।
श्रीवाऽदितिर्देवमाता विद्यासद्वलयस्थिताः॥ २४॥

Śrī and sea were in the middle of his heart, moon in mind, Aditi, the god's mother in neck and all learnings in the wrinkles on neck.

मुखे तु साग्नयो विप्राः संस्कारा दशनच्छदाः।
धर्मकामार्थमोक्षीयाः शास्त्राः शौचसमन्विताः॥ २५॥
लक्ष्म्या सह ललाटस्थाः प्रवणाभ्यामथाश्चिनौ।

Brahmin worshipping fire was in his mouth, all religious rituals on lips, the scriptures relating to virtue, love, money and salvation, together with the hygienic rules, including Lakṣmī on forehead, Aśvinikumāras in ears, wind in breathing and Marudgaṇas on all joins existed.

सर्वसूक्तानि दशना जिह्वा देवी सरस्वती।
चन्द्रादित्यौ च नयने पक्षमस्थाः कृत्तिकादयः॥ २७॥

All aphorisms were on his teeth, goddess Sarasvatī on tongue, moon and sun on both eyes and Kṛttikā etc. constellations were existed on eye brows.

शिखायां देवदेवस्य द्वृत्वा राजा न्यषीदत्।
तारका रोमकूपेभ्यो रोमाणि च महर्षयः॥ २८॥

King Dhruva sat on the tuft of God of gods, the stars shot from the pores of his skin and hermits on hair were existed.

गुणैः सर्वमयो भूत्वा भगवान्भूतभावनः।
ऋणैकेन जगतीं जहार सचराचराम्॥ २९॥

The god, dear to all organisms so merged all and measured this entire earth consisting of movable and immovables in a single step.

भूमिं विक्रममाणस्य महारूपस्य तस्य वै।
दक्षिणोऽभूत् स्तनश्चन्द्रः सूर्योभूदथ चोत्तरः।
नभश्चाक्रमतो नाभिं सूर्येन्द्रू सव्यदक्षिणौ॥ ३०॥

When that gigantic god was measuring the earth, the moon and sun became his southern and northern nipples. Similarly, moon and sun occupied the left and right portion of his navel.

द्वितीयेन ऋणेनाथ स्वर्महर्जनतापसाः।
ऋत्ताधर्धिन वैराजं मध्येनापूर्यताम्बरम्॥ ३१॥

He then measured within half step, the heaven, Maharloka, Janaloka and Tapoloka and measured by another half the Vairajāloka and the aerial region was filled with the central part.

ततः प्रतापिना ब्रह्मन् बृहद्विष्णुविद्युणाम्बरे।
ब्रह्माण्डोदरमाहत्य निरालोकं जगाम सः॥ ३२॥

O Brahmin! The huge and valorous foot of Viṣṇu thereafter crossed the belly portion of cosmos and entered into Nirāloka.

विश्वाद्विष्णु प्रसरता कटाहो भेदितो बलात्।
कुटिला विष्णुपादे तु समेत्य कुटिला ततः॥ ३३॥
तस्माद्विष्णुपदीत्येव नामाख्यातमभूम्भुने।

ऋणाद् भवति दैत्येन्द्र बन्धनं घोरदर्शनम्।

The stretching foot of Viṣṇu then crossed forcibly the Kaṭāha. His foot then reached near Kutilā river. O sage! Kutilā then renowned as Viṣṇupāda. The ascetics subsequently began taking bath in her considering as divine river. The gigantic god reached Bali when third step could not feet anywhere to measure. He said in an irony- O demon king! Fierce bondage grip the man when the debt is not repaid. Accept either my foot now or accept the rest as liability.

तन्मुरारिवचः श्रुत्वा विहस्याथ बले: सुतः।
बाणः प्राहामरणतिं वचनं हेतुसंयुतम्॥ ३६॥

Hearing those words of Murāri, Bāṇa, the son of Bali smiled and said with reasons to the lord of gods-

बाणासुर उवाच-
कृत्वा महीमल्पतरां जगत्पते
स्वायंभुवादिभुवनानि वै षट्।
कथं बलिं प्रार्थयसे सुविस्तृतां
यां प्राग्भवान्नो विपुलाम्याकरोत्॥ ३७॥

Bāṇa said- “O ruler of universe! You have derogated the dignity of the earth by constructing/classifying it in six bhuvanas like

Svāyambhuva etc. When you already have made the borders of land so short, how can you claim of more extended land to give?

God said- “O king! Till my honorarium is paid, you go and live free from diseases in the nether world called Sutala which is highly fruitful.”

बलिस्तवाच-

Bali said- “O demon! Tell me the wherefrom I will get undepleting luxuries for living with cheers and sound health in Sutala.”

त्रिविक्रम उवाच-

Trivikrama said- “O demon king! I describe all those sumptuous luxuries which will be received by you while residing in Sutala.”

Madhusūdana then sent Bali with his queen in Sutala loka. He took yajña with him and immediately went at Indra's palace surrounded by gods.

O hermit! God Viṣṇu, the omnipresent god then returned heaven to Indra, made them share-holder to the oblations offered through yajña and suddenly disappeared before the very eyes of the lord of gods.

Brahmā bowed his bead for longer, appreciated and began reciting psalm of Mahādeva with keen devotion-

O sage! She was a modest lady pioneer to several thousand women there. Bali, the son of mighty Virocana enjoyed intercourse with her.

भोगसक्तस्य दैत्यस्य वसतः सुतले तदा।

दैत्यतेजोहरः प्राप्तः पाताले वै सुदर्शनः॥५॥

When he was thus dwelling in Sutala, steeded in enjoyment, one day there reached Sudarśana-cakra, the killer of demons pride.

चक्रे प्रविष्टे पातालं दानवानां पुरे महान्।

बभौ हलहलाशब्दः क्षुभितार्णवसंनिभः॥६॥

With entrance of that Cakra in nether, the city of demons, there roused a loud commotion like an agitated ocean in that city of demons.

तं च श्रुत्वा महाशब्दं बलिः खड़ं समाददे।

आः किमेतदितीत्यज्य पप्रच्छासुरपुंगवः॥७॥

Having heard that loud noise, king Bali, drew his sword in hand and asked- "Hay! What is it?"

ततो विश्वावली प्राह सान्त्वयन्ती निजं पतिम्।

कोशे खड़ं समावेश्य धर्मपली शुचिव्रता॥८॥

Vindhyaavalī, his chaste and religious queen consoled him, put the sword within scabbard and said-

एतद्वागवतं चक्रं दैत्यचक्रक्षयंकरम्।

संपूजनीयं दैत्येन्द्र वामनस्य महात्मनः।

इत्येवमुक्त्वा चार्वडी सार्थपात्रा विनिर्ययौ॥९॥

It is the adorable Cakra of god Vāmana who is capable to kill the commune of demons. With these words, that pretty-limbed lady went out with arghya¹ etc.

अथाभ्यागात्सहस्रारं विष्णोश्चक्रं सुदर्शनम्।

ततोऽसुरपतिः प्रहृः कृताङ्गलिपुटो मुने।

संपूज्य विधिवद्यक्रमिदं स्तोत्रमुदीरयत्॥१०॥

In the meantime, Sudarśana-cakra having one thousand spikes reached there rotating. O sage! Bali worshipped that Cakra with folded hands and politely. He then recited this psalm-

नमस्यामि होश्चक्रं दैत्यचक्रविदारणम्।

सहस्रांशुं सहस्राभं सहस्रारं सुनिर्मलल्॥११॥

Bali said- I salute Sudarśana-cakra of Viṣṇu the sacrosanct god having one thousand beams, one thousand light rays and one thousand spikes.

नमस्यामि होश्चक्रं यस्य नाभ्यां पितामहः।

तुण्डे त्रिशूलधृकशर्वं अरामूले महाद्रयः॥१२॥

आरेषु संस्थिता देवाः सेन्द्राः सार्काः सपावकाः।

जवे यस्य स्थितो वायुरापोऽनिः पृथिवी नभः॥१३॥

आप्रान्तेषु जीमूताः सौदामिन्यृक्षतारकाः।

बाह्यतो मुनयो यस्य बालखिल्यादयस्तथा॥१४॥

I salute that cakra of Viṣṇu in whose navel, there is Pitāmaha, trident-holding Mahādeva on the top, great mountain in the root of spikes, Indra sun, fire etc. gods in spikes, wind, water, fire, earth and ether in motion, cloud, lightening, constellations and galaxy on its edges and Bālakhilya etc. sages are existed in its exterior part.

तपायुधवरं वन्दे वासुदेवस्य भक्तिः।

तन्मे दहस्व दीपांशो विष्णोश्चक्रं सुदर्शन।

यमे कुलोद्धवं पापं पैतृकं मातृकं तथा॥१६॥

तन्मे हरस्व तरसा नमस्ते अच्युतायुध।

आधयो मम नश्यन्तु व्याधयो यान्तु संक्षयम्।

त्वन्नामकीर्तनाद्यक्रं दुरितं यातु संक्षयम्॥१७॥

I salute that supreme weapon of Vāsudeva with keen devotion. O Sudarśana-cakra, you are the radiated fraction of Śrī Viṣṇu. Please, absolve my physical, mental and the evils

1. Pot containing respectful offering.

committed by speech. O weapon of Acyuta! Please, remove immediately all sins committed in my paternal and maternal families. I salute you. May the ills and calamities stuck to me removed. O Cakra! My eyes at you would absolve me from sins. I recite psalm for you.

इत्येवमुक्त्वा मतिमानसमध्यच्चार्थं भक्तिः।
संस्परन्गुण्डोरीकाक्षं सर्वपापप्रणाशनम्॥ १८॥

With these words, the wise Bali worshipped the discus with sheer reverence and summoned Puṇḍarīkākṣa to his mind.

पूजितं बलिना चक्रं कृत्वा निस्तेजसोऽसुरान्।
निश्चक्रामाथ पातालाद्विषुवे दक्षिणे मुने॥ १९॥

O sage! The discus so honoured by Bali made all demons lost of splendour, came up from nether and moved towards south.

सुदर्शने निर्गते तु बलिर्विकलवतां गतः।
परमामापदं प्राप्य सम्मार स्वपितामहम्॥ २०॥

When Sudarśana disappeared from his sight, Bali became anxious. Having gross calamity he guessed of, no other option but he thought better to summon his grand father.

स चापि संसृतः प्राप्तः सुतलं दानवेश्वरः।
दृष्ट्वा तस्थौ महातेजाः सार्घापत्रो बलिस्तदा॥ २१॥

With that summon, Prahlāda having eminent power of intuition, appeared before Bali in Sutala. The mighty warrior Bali stood immediately up with arghya in his hands.

तमर्च्य विधिना ब्रह्मन् पितुः पितरमीश्वरम्।
कृताञ्जलिपुटो भूत्वा इदं वचनमब्रवीत्॥ २२॥

O Brāhmaṇa! Bali gave reverence and worship to his noble grandfather and requested him with folded hands.

संस्मृतोऽपि मया तात सुविष्णेन चेतसा।
तन्मे हितं च पथ्यं च श्रेयोश्चं वद तात मे॥ २३॥

O grand-father! I have summoned you with most desperated heart. Hence, suggest me what is advantageous and salutary, and the highest blessing for me.

किं कार्यं तात संसारे वसता पुस्थेण हि।
कृतेन येन वै नास्य बन्धः सपुष्पायते॥ २४॥

O grand-father! What a man should do in worldly living which may keep him free from bondage?

संसारार्णवमग्नानां नराणामल्यचेतसाम्।
तरणे यो भवेत् पोतस्तम्भे व्याख्यातुमर्हसि॥ २५॥

Kindly, tell me the raft capable of crossing over, for people of little understanding, plunged into the ocean of wordly life.

पुलस्थ्य उवाच-

एतद्वचनमाकर्ण्य तत्पौत्राहानवेश्वरः।
विचिन्त्य प्राह वचनं संसारे यद्वितं परम्॥ २६॥

Pulastya said- “Demon king (Prahláda) thought for a while and then made a statement benevolent for living in the world.”

प्रह्लाद उवाच-

साधु दानवशार्दूल यत्ते जाता मतिस्त्वयम्।
प्रवक्ष्यामि हितां तेऽद्य तथाऽन्येषां हितं बले॥ २७॥

Prahláda said- “O great demon! You are really thankful as such wit has arisen in your mind.” O Bali! I say now the things good for you and all others living in this world.

भवजलधिगतानां द्वन्द्ववाताहतानां
सुतदुहितृकलत्राणभारादितानाम्।

विषमविषयतोये मज्जतामप्लवानां

भवति शरणमेको विष्णुपोतो नराणाम्॥ २८॥

The people immersed in worldly ocean, striken by the wind of opposite conditions, bent with the over burden of defending the sons, daughters and wife, engrossed with other worldly affairs have only a boat of Viṣṇu to shelter and row across it without any disruption.

ये संश्रिता हरिमनन्तमनादिमध्यं
नारायणं सुरगुरुं शुभदं वरेण्यम्।
शुद्धं खगेन्द्रगमनं कमलालयेशं
ते धर्मराजशरणं न विशन्ति धीराः॥ २९॥

The people who have resorted to Nārāyaṇa, beginningless, middleless and endless, giver of auspiciousness, most distinguished, bestower of good fortune, rider of Garuḍa, husband of Lakṣmī, chief of the gods do not enter the court of king Yama.

स्वपुरुषमभिक्ष्य पाशहसं
वदति यमः किल तस्य कर्णमूले।
परिहर मधुसूदनप्रसन्नान्
प्रभुरहमन्यनृणां न वैष्णवानाम्॥ ३०॥

Yamarāja whispers into the ears of his messenger stood before him with pāśa in his hands— “Leave them who betake themselves to Madhusūdana. I am sovereign to other people and seldom to Vaiṣṇava.”

तथाऽन्यदुक्तं नरसत्तमेन
इक्ष्वाकुणा भक्तियुतेन नूनम्।
ये विष्णुभक्ताः पुरुषाः पृथिव्यां
यमस्य ते निर्विषया भवन्ति॥ ३१॥

Besides it, Ikṣvāku, the most excellent man, endowed with devotion had said that “devotees to Viṣṇu on earth are outside the jurisdiction of Yama.”

सा जिह्वा या हरिं स्तौति तद्वितं यत्तदर्पितम्।
तावेव केवलौ श्लाघ्यौ यौ तत्पूजाकरौ करौ॥ ३२॥

That is verily the tongue which recites the psalm to Viṣṇu, Citta (Mind) is admirable if it is engrossed with Viṣṇu and the hands admirable are those through which god Viṣṇu is worshipped.

नूनं न तौ करौ प्रोक्तौ वृक्षशाखाग्रपल्लवौ।
न यौ पूजयितुं शक्तौ हरिपादाम्बुजद्वयम्॥ ३३॥

The hands that do not worship the lotus feet of Hari are not hands but the fore buds of a tree branch.

नूनं तत्कष्ठशालूकमथवा प्रतिजिह्विका।
रोगो वाऽन्यो न सा जिह्वा या न वक्ति हरेर्गुणान्॥ ३४॥

The tongue not describing the gracious deeds of god is not tongue and it is only

Kanṭaśāluka (throat of a frog), Pratijihvā or any other type of a disease of throat.

शोचनीयः स बस्यनां जीवन्नपि मृतो नरः।
यः पादपङ्कजं विष्णोर्न पूजयति भक्तिः॥ ३५॥

The man not worshipping the lotus feet of god Viṣṇu with reverence is like a dead man inspite of living and a scar like for his siblings.

ये नरा वासुदेवस्य सततं पूजने रताः।
मृता अपि न शोच्यास्ते सत्यं सत्यं मयोदितम्॥ ३६॥

I say solemnly that the people engrossed with the worship of Vāsudeva regularly don't derogate even after their death.

शारीरं पानसं वारं शूर्तमूर्ति चराचरम्।
दृश्यं स्पृश्यमदृश्यं तत्सर्वं केशवात्मकम्॥ ३७॥

All matters related to body, mind, speech, intangible, tangible, movable, immovable, visible and invisible are in the form of Viṣṇu.

येनार्चिते हि भगवान् चतुर्था वै त्रिविक्रिप्तः।
तेनार्चिता न संदेहो लोकाः सामरदानवाः॥ ३८॥

The people engrossed with worshipping Trivikrama (Vāmana) god have definitely worshipped all lokas including gods and demons.

यथा रत्नानि जलधेरसंख्येयानि पुत्रक।
तथा गुणा हि देवस्य त्वसंख्यातास्तु चक्रिणः॥ ३९॥

O son! As the ocean bears countless gems, the properties (guṇas) of Viṣṇu too are countless.

ये शङ्खचक्राब्जकरं च सशार्द्रिणं
खगेन्द्रकेतुं वरदं श्रियः पतिम्।
समाश्रयन्ते भवभीतिनाशनं
संसाररग्ते न पतन्ति ते युनः॥ ४०॥

The people sheltering to Śripati, the great giver, holder of conch, discus, lotus and śāṅga bow in hands, eagle rider, destroyer of worldly fears, seldom fall in the worldly trench.

येषां मनसि गोविन्दो निवासी सततं बलो।

न ते परिभवं यान्ति न मृत्योरुद्धिजन्ति च॥४१॥

O Bali! The people whose hearts are made residence of Govinda always, do not suffer disrespect and are not afraid of death.

देवं शार्ङ्गधरं विष्णुं ये प्रपन्नाः परायणम्।

न तेषां यमसालोक्यं न च ते नरकौकसः॥४२॥

The best shelter, god Viṣṇu, the holder of śārṅga bow if resorted, the people have not to fall in hell or go to the abode of Yama.

न तां गतिं प्राप्नुवन्ति श्रुतिशास्त्रविशारदाः।

विग्रा दानवशार्दूलं विष्णुभक्ता द्रजन्ति याम्॥४३॥

O great demon! The position attained by devotees to Viṣṇu is seldom achieved by Brahmins learned to Vedas and scriptures.

या गतिर्देत्यशार्दूलं हतानां तु महाहवे।

ततोऽथिकां गतिं यान्ति विष्णुभक्ता नरोत्तमाः॥४४॥

O chivalrous demon! The devotees to god Viṣṇu attain better position than the people who are killed in great battles.

या गतिर्धर्मशीलानां सात्त्विकानां महात्मनाम्।

सा गतिर्गदिता दैत्य भगवत्सेविनामपि॥४५॥

O demon! The devotees to god attain the position as attained by religion abiding, high-souled and greatmen.

सर्वावासं वासुदेवं सूक्ष्ममव्यक्तविग्रहम्।

प्रविश्यन्ति महात्मानस्तद्बक्ता नान्यचेतसः॥४६॥

The people exclusively devoted to god enter in subtle, unmanifested, great-souled Vāsudeva having inexpressible body.

अनन्यमनसो भक्त्या ये नमस्यन्ति केशवम्।

शुचयस्ते महात्मानस्तीर्थभूता भवन्ति ते॥४७॥

The people saluting Keśava exclusively with devotion are always holy and high-souled.

गच्छन् तिष्ठन् स्वपन् जाग्रत् पिबन्ननन्नभीक्षणाशः।

ध्यायन् नारायणं यसु न ततोऽन्योऽस्ति पुण्यभाक्।

वैकुण्ठं खड्गपरशं भवबन्धसमुच्छिदम्॥४८॥

आसीनः सर्वदेहेषु कर्मभिन्नं स बद्धते।

येषां विष्णुः प्रियो नित्यं ते विष्णोः सततं प्रियाः॥५०॥

The man who keeps his mind focused on Nārāyaṇa while walking, standing, sleeping, awaking and taking anything, receives blessing of god at every moment. Bowing head with reverence before Vaikunṭha god holding sword and axe, does not again leaves a man to rotate with the cycle of birth and death. A devotee to Kṛṣṇa living in his territory and enjoying all worldly pleasures however, attached to the material things yet seldom fall in the bondage of Karmas. The people who love Viṣṇu are loved by Viṣṇu always.

न ते पुनः संभवन्ति तद्बक्तास्तत्परायणाः।

ध्यायेद्वामोदरं यसु भक्तिनद्वेऽर्चयेत वा॥५१॥

The devotees to Dāmodara, the sheltered or who pray them never take birth again in this material world.

न स संसारपङ्केऽस्मिन् मज्जते दानवेश्वर।

कल्यमुत्थाय ये भक्त्या स्मरन्ति मधुसूदनम्।

सुवन्त्यर्थभिष्णवन्ति दुर्गाण्यतिरन्ति ते॥५२॥

O demon king! “The people remembering Madhusūdana early in morning do not immerse in the mire of worldly life. The people reciting his psalm and listening to his gracious deeds easily cross the castles.

हरिवाक्यामृतं पीत्वा विमलैः श्रोत्रभाजनैः।

प्रहृष्टति मनो येषां दुर्गाण्यतिरन्ति ते॥५३॥

The people feeling cheers in mind while sipping the nectar of the words recited about Hari through the ear vessels, easily cross all difficulties.

येषां चक्रगदापाणौ भक्तिरव्यभिद्यारिणी।

ते यान्ति नियतं स्थानं यत्र योगेश्वरो हरिः॥५४॥

The people keeping stable devotion on Viṣṇu with cakra and mace in his hands definitely go at the place of Yogeśvara Hari.

विष्णुकर्मप्रसक्तानां भक्तानां या परा गतिः।

सा तु जन्मसहस्रेण न तपोभिरवाप्यते॥५५॥

The supreme position as achieved by the devotees engross with the service to Viṣṇu cannot be achieved even when a penance for the period covering one thousand births is observed.

किं जप्यैस्तस्य मन्त्रैर्वा किं तपोभिः किमाश्रमैः।
यस्य नास्ति परा भक्तिः सततं मधुसूदने॥५६॥

The people inspite of observing japa, hymn, penance and āśramas get no advantage if their mind is void of continuos devotion to Madhusūdana.

वृथा यज्ञा वृथा वेदा वृथा दानं वृथा श्रुतम्।
वृथा तपश्च कीर्तिश्च यो द्वेष्टि मधुसूदनम्॥५७॥

The people envious of Madhusūdana never receive any blessing from yajña, Vedas, donation, knowledge, penance and fame observed, acquired or earned by them.

किं तस्य बहुभिर्मन्त्रैर्भक्तिर्यस्य जनार्दने।
नमो नारायणायेति मन्त्रः सर्वार्थसाधकः॥५८॥

As the only hymn "Namo Nārāyaṇāya (Saluation to Nārāyaṇa)" bestows with all essence, there is no use of reciting several hymns for devotees to Janārdana.

विष्णुरेव गतिर्येषां कुतस्तेषां पराजयः।
येषामिन्दीवरश्यामो हृदयस्यो जनार्दनः॥५९॥

How can there be their discomfiture whose shelter is Viṣṇu alone and in whose heart dwells the lotus-blue Janārdana?

सर्वमङ्गलमाङ्गल्यं वरेण्यं वरदं प्रभुम्।
नारायणं नमस्कृत्य सर्वकर्मणि कारयेत्॥६०॥

All acts should be performed after saluting the Auspicious of the Auspicious, the most worthy, the boon-granting lord Nārāyaṇa.

विष्ण्यो व्यतिपाताश्च येऽन्ये दुर्नीतिसंभवाः।
ते नामस्मरणाद्विष्णोर्नाशं यान्ति महासुरा॥६१॥

O chivalrous demon! Vytiṣṭi, Vytipāta and all other calamities originated from the malicious feelings are destroyed merely when Viṣṇu, the pious name is recited.

तीर्थकोटिसहस्राणि तीर्थकोटिशतानि च।

नारायणप्रणामस्य कलां नार्हन्ति षोडशीम्॥६२॥

The hundred and thousand crore holy places are not equal to the sixteenth fraction (kalā) of saluting Nārāyaṇa.

पृथिव्यां यानि तीर्थानि पुण्यान्यायतनानि च।
तानि सर्वाण्यवाप्नोति विष्णोर्नामानुकीर्तनात्॥६३॥

All holy places and sacred temples as found in whole earth are only visited when the man recites psalms of Viṣṇu.

प्राप्नुवन्ति न ताल्लोकान् व्रतिनो वा तपस्विनः।
प्राप्यन्ते ये तु कृष्णास्य नमस्कारपरैर्नैः॥६४॥

The lokas (worlds) obtained by people saluting to Śrī Kṛṣṇa are all obtained by virtue of reciting the sacred name of Viṣṇu.

योऽप्यन्यदेवताभक्तो मिष्ठाऽर्चयति केशवम्।
सोऽपि गच्छति साधूनां स्थानं पुण्यकृतां महत्॥६५॥

The man devotee to other god but falsely worshipping Keśava too achieves the supreme place of saints who have executed noble deeds.

सातत्येन हृषीकेशं पूजयित्वा तु यत्कलम्।
सुचीर्णेतपसा नृणां तत्कलं न कदाचन॥६६॥

The fruit obtained as a result of regular worship of Hṛṣikeśa, cannot be obtained even by people observing gross penance.

त्रिसंध्यं पद्मनाभं तु ये स्मरन्ति सुमेधसः।
ते लभन्त्युपवासस्य फलं नास्त्यत्र संशयः॥६७॥

The wise people who summons to their mind Padmanābha in three sandhyās (morning, noon and evening) undoubtedly receive the blessing as for observing fasts.

सततं शास्त्रदृष्टेन कर्मणा हरिमर्चय।
तत्रसादात्परां सिद्धं बले प्राप्यसि शाश्वतीम्॥६८॥

O Bali! Do worship of Hari regularly as prescribed in scriptures with its procedure. You will achieve perpetual and enduring success with his pleasure.

तन्मना भव तद्वक्तस्तद्याजी तं नमस्कुरु।

तमेवाश्रित्य देवेशं सुखं प्राप्यसि पुत्रक॥६९॥

O son! Salute him by submitting yourself as Tanmanā, Tadbhakta and reciting psalm of god Viṣṇu. You will attain real pleasure under shelter of that god of gods.

The greatmen residing on earth achieve undeviated Vaiṣṇava position by virtue of summoning day and night imperishable, primeval, endless, unchanging, omni-reach, auspicious Hari with access everywhere and consisting of the Veda, attain the everlasting and unfailing position of Viṣṇu.

The people detached to worldly affairs and knower of supreme Brahma, who call Nārāyaṇa, the preceptor of gods regularly, they cross the worldly ocean like flamingos having white wings.

The people who focus their mind continuously on Acyuta, having best lotus eyes, innocent and regulator, they do not again suck the breast of mother for milk because their sins are fully absolved by the grace of god.

The people reciting psalm of Padmanābha, the great giver, holder of conch, lotus, cakra, bow, mace and sword in his hands, keen to the lotus body of Lakṣmī, definitely attain the abode of Madhusūdana.

Chapter 95

The method of worshipping of Viṣṇu narrated by Prahlāda to Bali

बलिस्वाच-

भवता कथितं सर्वं समाराध्य जनार्दनम्।

या गतिः प्राप्यते लोके तां मे वकुमिहर्हसि॥ १॥

Bali said- You have described all whatever was enquired by me. Please, explain now the position obtained as a result of worshipping god Janārdana.

केनार्चनेन देवस्य प्रीतिः समुपजायते।

कानि दानानि शस्तानि प्रीणनाय जगहुरोः॥ २॥

What type of worship arouses love for Vāsudeva? In order to please Jagadguru (preceptor of universe) the donations prescribed need explanation here so that I could understand then properly.

उपवासादिकं कार्यं कस्यां तिथ्यां महोदयम्।

कानि पुण्यानि शस्तानि विष्णोस्तुष्टिप्रदानि वै॥ ३॥

Kindly, tell the best day for fast which could endow with great success to the devotee. Classify please, the noble deeds favourite to god Viṣṇu.

यच्चान्यदपि कर्तव्यं हृष्टरूपैरनालसैः।

तदप्यशेषं दैत्येन्द्र ममाख्यातुमिहर्हसि॥ ४॥

O demon king! Please, tell me further, other acts worth executing with fresh mental disposition and by leaving aside the laziness.

प्रहाद उवाच-

श्रद्धानैर्भक्तिपर्यान्युद्दिश्य जनार्दनम्।

बले दानानि दीयन्ते तानूचुर्मनयोऽक्षयान्॥ ५॥

Prahlāda said- O Bali! The donations given for the purpose of pleasing god Viṣṇu are called Akṣaya (undepleting) by sages. These should be made with keen devotion and obeisance.

ता एव तिथ्यः शस्ता यास्वर्थर्च्य जगत्पतिम्।

तद्वित्तस्तम्भयो भूत्वा उपवासी नरो भवेत्॥ ६॥

The best days are those in which the man observes fast by focusing his heart and mind on Viṣṇu after worship.

पूजितेषु द्विजेषु पूजितः स्थाज्जनार्दनः।

एतान् द्विषन्ति ये मूढास्ते यान्ति नरकं धूवम्॥ ७॥

Janārdana is automatically worshipped when Brahmins are respected. The fools keeping jealousy of them definitely fall in hell.

तानर्चयेन्नरो भक्त्या ब्राह्मणाविष्णुतत्परः।

एवमाह हरिः पूर्वं ब्राह्मणा मामकी तनुः॥ ८॥

A man devotee to Viṣṇu should honour Brahmins with keen devotion. God Viṣṇu during long past had declared himself that Brahmins are his body.

ब्राह्मणो नावमन्तव्यो बुधो वाऽप्यबुधोऽपि वा।

सोऽपि दिव्या तनुर्विष्णोस्तस्मात्तामर्चयेन्नरः॥ ९॥

Either Brahmin is scholar or illiterate, one should not humiliate him. He is the divine body of Viṣṇu. Hence, he should be honoured.

तान्येव च प्रशस्तानि कुसुमानि महासुर।

यानि स्वर्वर्णयुक्तानि रसगन्धयुतानि च॥ १०॥

The leaves of flower plants whose flowers are used for worship of Acyuta are considered equally good for worship.

वीर्स्थां च प्रवालेन बहिर्थां चार्चयेतथा।
नानासूपैश्चाम्बभरैः कमलेन्दीवरादिभिः॥ १७॥

Viṣṇu should be worshipped by offering buds of Viśudhas and Kuśa, several species of lotus growing in water and Indīvara etc.

Chapter 96

Phala-śruti or mention of rewards of Vāmana Purāṇa

पुलस्य उवाच-

एनमया पुण्यतमं पुराणं
तुभ्यं तथा नारद कीर्तिं वै।
श्रुत्वा च कीर्त्या परया समेतो
भक्त्या च विष्णोः पदमभ्युपैति॥ १॥

Pulastya said- O Nārada! I have thus, completely described this most sacrosanct Purāṇa. The man listening to it, goes to the abode of Viṣṇu after acquiring sheer devotion and supreme fame.

यथा पापानि पूयन्ते गङ्गवारिविगाहनात्।

तथा पुराणश्चवणादुरितानां विनाशनम्॥२॥

As all sins are washed by taking a dip in water of Ganges, they were listening to Purāṇa all evils stuck to man are absolved.

न तस्य रोगा जायन्ते न विषं चाभिचारिकम्।

शरीरे च कुले ब्रह्मान्यः शृणोतीह वामनम्॥३॥

रश्वस्य गोनागरथस्य चैव।

नारी न ख्यापि च पादमेकं

शृणवन् शुचिः पुण्यतमः पृथिव्याम्॥५॥

The man who worships god Viṣṇu by observing sattva tendency and listens this Purāṇa daily with devotion, becomes free from bondage of evils and receives blessing as it would have on performing Aśvamedha yajña with appropriate donation and when gold, land, horse, cow, elephant and chariot are donated. The man and woman duly digested to only chapter to this Purāṇa, become free from the clutches of evils and start executing noble deeds in his/her very life.

स तत्फलं प्राप्य च वामनस्य

संकीर्तयन्नान्यमनाः पदं हि

गच्छेन्मया नारद तेऽद्य चोक्तं

यद् राजसूयस्य फलं प्रयच्छेत्॥७॥

The person reciting a single hymn while walking but with mind exclusively devoted to god, receives the blessing as it would have on a bath with water of holy place, water of Ganges, Naimiṣāraṇya, Puṣkara, Kokāmukha and Prayāga in the month of Māgha (January). O Nārada! I have explained the Purāṇa which blesses with the fruit of Rājasūya yajña.

यद्दूमिलोके सुरलोकलभ्ये

महत्सुखं प्राप्य नरः समग्रम्

प्राप्नोति चास्य श्रवणान्महर्षे

सौत्रामणेर्नास्ति च संशयो मे॥८॥

O hermit! There is no doubt anyway to my mind regarding magnificence of listening to this Purāṇa. It really gives all great pleasures available on this earth and heaven and thus, the devotee attains the fruit of Sautrāmaṇī¹ yajña.

रत्नस्य दानस्य च यत्फलं भवेद्

यत्सूर्यस्य चेन्दोर्ग्रहणे च राहो।

शुभूषके भ्रातरि ज्येष्ठसाम्ने।

यत्तत्फलं संप्रवदन्ति देवाः

स तत्फलं लभते चास्य पाठात्॥१०॥

A man reciting this Purāṇa receives the blessing which would have received by him had he donated gems to gods, donations made on aegis of solar and moon eclipse, donation of food to hungry but the Brahmin being Agnihotri, donations made to the person engaged in maintenance of son, wife and siblings suffering from famine, donations made to a person engaged in service of Brahmins and fire and donations made by him to parent and elder brother.

चतुर्दशं वामनमाहुरअयं
श्रुते च यस्याधघयाश्च नाशम्।
प्रयान्ति नास्त्यत्र च संशयो मे
महान्ति पापान्यपि नारदाशु॥ ११॥

O Nārada! This Vāmana Purāṇa is the fourteenth Purāṇa in the list of eighteen Purāṇas. There is no doubt to my mind being its competent to absolve shortly a number of evils committed earlier and the heinous offences too.

पाठात् संश्रवणाद् विष्रु श्रावणादपि कस्यचित्।
सर्वपापानि नश्यन्ति वामनस्य सदा मुने॥ १२॥

O sage! O Brahmin! A recital, hearing and explaining before others this Vāmana Purāṇa decays all sins committed by the people earlier.

इदं रहस्यं परमं तत्वोक्तं
न वाच्यमेतद्भूरभिक्त्वर्जिते।
द्विजस्य निन्दारतिहीनदक्षिणे
सहेतुवाक्यावृतपापसन्त्वे॥ १३॥

I have explained this most cryptic and mysterious essence before you. It should not be disclosed before atheist, rival to Brahmins, brute, uncivilised and the people who plead otherwise than spiritual linkage.

नमो नमः कारणवामनाय नित्यं यो वदेन्नियतं द्विजः।
तस्य विष्णुः पदं मोक्षं ददाति सुरपूजितः॥ १४

Viṣṇu, the god adored by gods give the supreme position of liberty (emancipation) to dvija who recites regularly the hymn- "Namō Namah Kāraṇa Vāmanāya."

वाचकाय प्रदातव्यं गोभूस्वर्णविभूषणम्।
विज्ञाशारद्यं न कर्तव्यं कुर्वन् श्रवणनाशकम्॥ १५॥

The person reciting this Purāṇa should be provided with cow, land and gold ornaments. One should not be miser in donation because such trend destroys the blessing of listening completely.

त्रिसंध्यं च पठन् शृण्वन्सर्वपापप्रणाशनम्।
असूयारहितं विष्रु सर्वसम्पत्तदायकम्॥ १६॥

O Brahmin! All kinds of properties are achieved when this Purāṇa is recited and listened in trio-sandhyās¹ by observing the rules of purity in heart and mind. It absolves the man from all sins thereby progress and prosperity is assured.

It is last salute to Vāmana Purāṇa
